Frank Leigh, of the savings department of the Anniston National Bank, received in the general line of business a $1 bill containing the following inscription: "This is the last of a fortune spent in gambling." This was written in red ink, and right under it was stamped, "Not over $10,000." Mr. Gambler failed to attach his signature, and it is not known whence the "William" came.

For Use of Doctors Only.

A number of Mobile physicians are behind a movement to erect a four-story office building to be occupied exclusively by physicians, with possibly a drug store on the ground floor. It is proposed to form a corporation for the purpose, composed of fifteen local doctors, thirteen having already signed. The capitalization of the corporation will be $60,000. Dr. C. S. Spotswood is in charge of the matter at present, and the building of a $50,000 structure is practically assured.

Carpenters Strike.

Talladega, usually free from union labor disorders, had one of the few strikes which have ever occurred in the city. W. E. White, a Birmingham contractor, is building a large business house for W. H. Boynton and J. E. Camp, on the corner of East and North streets, and most of the carpenters employed are union men and non-residents. A. L. Stringer, who is to occupy the building, by the terms of the contract is to furnish the store fixtures. He put a number of resident non-union carpenters at work on the fixtures, and the union carpenters struck. Rather than delay the completion of the building, Mr. Stringer had his carpenters withdraw from the building and the union men returned to work.

Escaped Military Prisoner Caught.

J. D. Brown, wanted for escaping from Fort Leavenworth, Kan., about six years ago, has been captured in Montgomery, and is being held awaiting instructions from the military authorities. According to Brown's statement he enlisted in the United States army about six years ago. After being in service three weeks in the Philippines he deserted, but was captured and sentenced to two and a half years at Fort Leavenworth, but had been there only three days when he made his escape.

Present Gordon's Picture.

J. C. Maben, of Birmingham, and C. P. Rogers, of Letohatchie, have bought a handsome life-size oil painting of Gen. John B. Gordon and presented it to the state department of archives and history. It was painted by Mrs. J. M. Gregory, of Atlanta, who has seven pictures of like kind on the walls of the capitol building in Atlanta. The price paid was $400. It shows General Gordon in the pose of a lecturer or speaker, and is said by experts to be a very fine likeness as well as painting.

Heflin Starts His Campaign.

With one of the greatest crowds seen in LaFayette in years Congressman Heflin began his campaign in the interest of agriculture and for better prices for cotton. The department of agriculture at Washington sent to assist him Mr. Harmon Benton, one of their best men, whose valuable services will be lost by the United States after this month. A special agent sent out by the Cuban government employed him to take charge of agriculture on that island. Mr. Hudson, from Auburn, also took part in the discussions and added interest to the meeting.

Road May Be Built.

A well-known Anniston states that the project which was undertaken some time ago looking to the building of a line of electric railway connecting Anniston with Jacksonville, Piedmont, White Plains and other neighboring towns has not fallen through but that there are still good prospects of its realization. The route has been thoroughly canvassed, and it is said that parties will be in Anniston soon to organize the movement for the building of the road.

Labor Day at Decatur.

At a meeting in New Decatur it was decided that appropriate exercises should be held during Labor day at some place in New Decatur yet to be decided on. There will be various kinds of athletic contests, and a prize will be offered for each event. There will also be baseball games, as well as other events, and at night there will probably be fireworks.

New Military Company.

For the first time since the days of old-time "muster," before the war, Athens has a military company. The young men of the town are quite enthusiastic and seem determined to go to the front as a military organization. H. F. Armstrong is captain; Frank Westmoreland, first lieutenant, and Leon Cartwright, second lieutenant. The company has been mustered into service.

Court at Courtland.

Circuit Judge D. W. Speake will convene circuit court at Moulton, Lawrence county, September 2. He is now holding court in Huntsville. A number of important civil and criminal cases are to be tried at the Moulton term.

Rate to Be Inquired Into.

All the railroads of the state have been cited to appear before the railroad commission at its next meeting, September 16, and to show cause why, if any, the commission should not fix the rate on compressed cotton from one point in the state to another and also to show why, if any, the commission should not adopt the demurrage laws enacted by the legislature as rules of the commission.

Excursion Launch for Decatur.

The new gasoline launch Swonnonoa has arrived at Decatur and will be used for excursion parties on the Tennessee river during the summer. Several years ago the river steamers discontinued running excursions.

Boilers Exploded.

Both main boilers of the Autauga Lumber Company, a saw mill located at Spur, on the Mobile and Ohio railroad, fifteen miles from Prattville, exploded and wrought much destruction.

COTTON CONGRESS TO BE HELD IN ATLANTA

Growers and Spinners Will Meet There

ABUSES WILL BE EXPOSED

Leading Foreign and Domestic Spinners of All Sections Will Tell of the Evils of the Past and Offer Reforms.

New York.—President Jordan, of the Southern Cotton Association, in a communication to various firms here says that a portion of the general public appears to have a vague idea of the object and purpose of bringing together the leading representatives of the cotton growing, spinning and other interests of the cotton trade in international conference at Atlanta, Ga., October [illegible], 1907. Recently he says the idea seems to have prevailed that the object of the coming conference was to give the spinners of Great Britain and Germany an opportunity to furnish foreign money with which to buy up and move the cotton crop of the south.

"The main object of the coming conference," says Mr. Jordan, "is to uncover and expose to the growers the principal abuses which have so long existed in the handling of American cotton and to encourage needed reforms. The leading foreign and domestic spinners of the world will be present and tell the south's representative growers the past and present abuses which exist in the American cotton trade and offer suggestions as to how best to remedy existing evils and bring about the desired reforms in the future. The farmers of the south grow the cotton fibre, which the world must have, and the spinners and weavers manufacture it into the finished fabric. These interests are in a great measure inter-dependent, and it is right and proper that they should come together, in open convention and co-operate for the purpose of mutual benefit."

CARRIED CORPSE IN A TRUNK.

Vere St. Ledger Gold, Murderer, Kills Himself in Prison.

London.—In a dispatch from Marseilles a correspondent of the Telegraph says that Vere St. Ledger Gold, the confessed murderer of Emma Levin, has hanged himself in prison.

Marseilles.—Vere St. Ledger Gold who confessed that he was the murderer of Emma Levin, a wealthy Swedish woman, whose dismembered body was found in the trunks of Mr. Gold and his wife, arrived here August 6 from Monte Carlo.

This trunk mystery created much excitement, especially as it was soon learned that the Golds, who are English, were of good family. Their explanations of how the corpse came to be in their baggage were not convincing, and the confession does not come as a surprise.

TRAINMEN RETURN TO WORK.

Agreement Reached and All Differences Will Be Settled.

Denver, Col.—All danger of a spread of the strike of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Trainmen employed by the Colorado and Southern railway was removed by an agreement, whereby all differences between the trainmen of that road, as well as the trainmen of other roads entering Denver, are to be settled by an arbitration committee, which will hold its first sitting next Tuesday in this city.

DROP IN WATER LEVEL.

Dynamiters Destroy Dam at Outlet of Winona Lake.

Warsaw, Ind.—Dynamiters destroyed the dam at the outlet of Winona Lake Sunday night, causing the lake surface level to drop several feet. The Winona Assembly officials suppressed the facts pending investigation, but have now called upon the county authorities to assist in establishing the identity of the guilty parties. The motive of the marauders is a mystery.

Will Take the Cure.

London.—King Edward left England Tuesday afternoon on his annual visit to Marinbad to take the cure. The king will meet Emperor William at Wilmanhaven, and the following day will have a conference with Emperor Joseph at Ischi. The diplomatic importance of the meetings is emphasized by the fact that Sir Charles Hardinge permanent under secretary of the British foreign office, will be present.

Seismic Trouble Stops Cable.

Shanghai.—The Japanese cable has ceased to work. It is feared the break has been caused by some seismic disturbance. News of an earthquake or a tidal wave is anxiously awaited here.

"Lord" Barrington Will Not Hang.

Jefferson City, Mo.—Seymour Barrington, convicted of the murder of Jas. R. McCann, will not be hanged. Governor Folk has commuted his sentence to life imprisonment.

HAGUE CONGRESS TO END.

Climate Is Wrecking Health of Many of the Delegates.

The Hague.—The latest rumor is that the peace conference will end August 15. Delegates are becoming impatient and many don't want to remain until that date. M. Borgeois refuse to remain here after August 20. M. Beornart has positively stated that he will start for home on Tuesday or Wednesday at the latest. This indicates the general desire to bring the conference to an early conclusion.

The treacherous climate is working harm to the health of many delegates. There is considerable sickness. The strain of the conference as well as the social program, has proved too much for at least a dozen of the delegates. Remsen Whitehouse, the American secretary of the Chinese delegation, is the latest to become ill.

VICTIM OF APPENDICITIS

Was Surgeon Langfeld After Removing the Appendices of Others.

Cincinnati, O.—An Enquirer special from Omaha says: Dr. Millard Langfeld operated upon Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Spiesberger for appendicitis at the Omaha general hospital here, and a few hours later he suffered an acute attack of the same malady. Going to the operating table he suffered the removal of his appendix. Mrs. Spiesberger, an aged woman and feeble, died from the effects of the operation. Spiesberger is recovering, and Dr. Langfeld's condition is encouraging. Mr. and Mrs. Spiesberger fell ill of appendicitis on the same day. The attacks came on very suddenly, and were acute. Dr. Langfeld's attack also came on very suddenly and was acute.

Refugees Reach Tangier.

Tangier, Morocco.—A steamer from Mazagan having 240 refugees on board, mostly Europeans, has arrived. When she left Mazagan an outbreak was momentarily expected. The wild tribes from the Hinterland had surrounded the closed gates and were demanding money, declaring their intention to raze the town if it was refused. The captain of the French warship Aube, lying in the roads, warned the governor of Mazagan of his intention to bombard the outskirts of the city if the situation grew worse. The French cruiser Galilee, from Casa Blanca, reports that the French troops are pursuing the disorganized Kabyles far inland.

Two-Cent Passenger Rate.

Chicago, Ill.—Tuesday at midnight the Wisconsin 2-cent a mile passenger rate became effective, and another reduction in rates between Chicago and points in Wisconsin, Minnesota and the upper peninsula of Michigan made the second in less than thirty days. In compiling the rates effective on July 19 the railroads figured on the basis of 2 1-2 cents a mile within the state of Wisconsin. A few days after the tariffs were made public the legislature passed the 2-cent rate law and the railroads changed to a flat 2-cent basis.

May Prosecute Molitor.

Karlsruhe.—Counsel for Karl Hau, formerly of Washington, D. C., under sentence of death for the murder of his mother-in-law, have entered a motion to prosecute Olga Molitor, the deceased woman's daughter for perjury because her lawyer has given out a statement in her behalf saying that she saw the person who shot her mother and is convinced that it was Hau, whereas she repeatedly answered the judge's inquiries during the trial by saying she did not recognize the murderer and had no idea of his identity.

Celebrates 112th Anniversary.

New York.—Mrs. Esther Davis, an inmate of the Home of the Daughters of Jacob in this city, was 112 years old Sunday and the day was duly celebrated in the home. Mrs. Davis, to show that she was still spry, danced a few steps for the guests. Until a year or two ago Mrs. Davis made her own living by selling candles in the Ghetto.

Raisuli Releases Prisoner.

Tangier.—Caid Sir Harry MacLean has been handed over by his captor the bandit Raisuli, to the Elkmes tribe, who, in their turn, set him at liberty.

To Suppress Police.

Belfast.—It was announced here that the authorities had decided to try the experiment of keeping both the police and troops outside the disturbed area of the city. The priests have agreed to look after the people. They say they can maintain quiet if the hated "Peeters and lobsters," as the police and soldiers are called, are kept out of sight.

Heir Is Born to Millions.

Essen, Germany.—A son was born to Frau Bertha Krupp von Bohlen and Halbach, eldest daughter of the deceased gunmaker. The infant is heir to the enormous fortune of the Krupp Mad Dog Rampant.

Chicago, Ill.—Six victims of the mad dog epidemic in Danville, Ill., are in the Pasteur institute here. Two of them are mother and son. They were bitten by the former's son.

STRIKE OF TELEGRAPHERS FROM SEA TO [illegible]

Operators Walk Out in [illegible] From Atlantic to the Pacific

FIFTEEN THOUSAND QUIT WORK

Tremendous Tie-Up Temporarily Crippled Almost Every Industry All Over the Country—Associated Press Employes Stopped.

New York City.—New York and the whole United States [illegible] alyzing effect of the [illegible] throughout the country [illegible] tors of the Western Union Telegraph Company [illegible].

The electric keys spoke like lightning. The [illegible] sent by thousands of operators [illegible] transmissions of orders.

At 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon the New York men [illegible] were 2000 Western Union and Postal Telegraph operators in the city. The step was the result of the union's vote to strike. But the men claim they were forced the move.

Other cities throughout the country which had not yet [illegible] quickly followed the lead of New York. Virtually every city in Pittsburg and throughout the state was tied up.

Throughout the country the operators left the keys. More than a hundred cities and towns were affected and, with one or two exceptions, they included all the important places in the United States.

The great news-gathering system of the Associated Press was completely paralyzed at 7:30 in the morning. Its operators in every part from New York to the Pacific Coast left their keys promptly on the minute. With the exception of a few short messages, the big news organization sent out no general news dispatches to the various newspapers. It sent out statements that it was putting in operators and distributing news, but the news did not arrive at the newspaper offices.

Prior to the final crippling of the news service by the strike [illegible] Associated Press offices, dispatches came from various cities, West and South, concerning the strike, but all were the same tenor. They pointed to a general tie-up in Buffalo, Pittsburg, Philadelphia, Chicago, Minneapolis, San Francisco and all kinds of cities, big and small, between there [illegible].

On the second day of the [illegible] strikes were declared in twenty-eight cities in the United States and Canada upon the order of Deputy President Percy Thomas. Chief among them was Boston, where the [illegible] out of nearly all the Postal and Western Union operators paralyzed the telegraph business in the East.

The commercial men were ordered out throughout New England [illegible] quit as soon as the order reached them.

Even the Government was affected by the strike. Although there were three leased wires from Oyster Bay and one Western Union wire to the White House, business was [illegible] rupted. The Western Union wire was silent. When the operators used the other wires they were interrupted by operators between Oyster Bay and Washington cutting in and calling "Scab" and "Chump" on the wires to the men sending and receiving. Business was continued under these difficulties.

SUICIDE GOOLD CONFESSES

Admits Slaying Emma Levin at Monte Carlo and Packing Body in Trunk.

London.—In a dispatch from Marseilles a correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says that Vere St. Leger Goold, the confessed murderer of Emma Levin, has hanged himself in prison.

Marseilles, France.—Vere St. Leger Goold confessed that he was the murderer of Emma Levin, a wealthy Swedish woman, whose dismembered body was found in the trunk of Goold and his wife upon their arrival here August 6, from Monte Carlo.

This "trunk mystery" created much excitement, especially as it was soon learned that the Goolds, who are English, were of good family.

Goold says in his confession: "I had been drinking, and became angry. I seized a hunting knife and buried it in Emma's back. She fell dead. The next day I dismembered the body with a saw and a knife, and placed the torso in a trunk and the head and legs in a valise. I never stabbed the woman once. The only wounds on her body must have been caused by shaking around in the trunk."

Goold said they carried off Emma Levin's jewels, not for their value, but in order to prevent their discovery in his apartment.

BRAZIL'S NEW TARIFF.

Government Authorized to Increase Even Abolish Duties.

Rio Janeiro, Brazil.—The Chamber has approved the new customs tariff. Its principal features are that the value of the milreis for customs payments is set at fifteen pence. Maximum and minimum tariffs have been adopted, and the government is authorized to reduce or even abolish duties on articles of consumption necessary.

SPAIN LOWERS FLOUR SCHEDULE

Maximum Tariff Enacted Will Be Way to Minimum.

Washington, D. C.—The American Minister at Madrid has informed the State Department that Spain has granted a concession to America flour imported into that country. For some time past American flour has been subject to the payment of the maximum tariff duty of Spain.

It is understood that hereafter product will enjoy the benefit of Spain's minimum duty.

POTAS[illegible]

Grows Cabbages 50% [illegible] deal firmer and richer. Physicians who have [illegible] foods, declare that the [illegible] most wholesome and [illegible]

Send a postal card for our free booklet explains why and how Potash in the great soil food [illegible] Rabbits [illegible] that little book.

W. L. DOUG[illegible]
$3.00 & $3.50 SHOES
[illegible] SHOES FOR EVERY MEMBER OF THE FAMILY AT ALL [illegible]
$25,000 Reward
To any one who can [illegible] Douglas shoes [illegible] more than a $3.50 [illegible] than any other [illegible]
THE [illegible] in all walks of life [illegible] experience and [illegible] The selection of the [illegible] and other materials of the shoes, and every detail of the [illegible] the most [illegible] skilled shoemakers who [illegible] shoe industry and [illegible] If I could take you [illegible] and show you how [illegible] would then understand why [illegible] wear longer and are of greater [illegible] My $4.00 Edge and $3 Gold Bond [illegible]
CAUTION. [illegible] No substitute. [illegible] direct to factory. [illegible]

10,000 TELEGRAPHERS WANTED
[illegible] Write for Catalog. NATIONAL TELEGRAPH [illegible]

CRESCE[illegible]
GREATEST [illegible]
Non Poisonous. [illegible] pam from any cause. sweet milk. Cures [illegible] cures worms and [illegible] fowls—cures cholera. guaranteed
For Sale by all First-Class Dealers. Mfgd by [illegible]

ALABAMA CENTRA[illegible]
TUSCALO[illegible]
Select School. Number of pupils limited. [illegible] State examinations free to all classes. Health in the best [illegible] Rates reasonable. Tuition, books, uniforms, physician's attendance, private [illegible] added. [illegible] Personal attention. Small number [illegible] and church advantages in the South. For [illegible]
S. F. G[illegible]

COMMERCIAL COLLEGE OF KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY, LEXINGTON, KY.
[illegible] Practical Penmanship, Shorthand, Typewriting, Telegraphy, Engineering, Electricity, [illegible] Address, WILBUR R. SMITH, Pres't, Lexington, Ky.

HICKS' CAPUDIN
IMMEDIATELY CURES [illegible]
HEADACH[illegible]
Breaks up COL[illegible]
IN 5 TO 15 MINUTES
Trial Bottle 10c. At Druggists

Cheap Jewelry.

A special agent of the Department of Commerce and Labor has been making an investigation of the [illegible] in cheap jewelry in England, and has learned that the United States has an insignificant share in it. Yet the demand for such ornaments is immense, and some of the consignments of American manufacturers have sold with surprising rapidity. Among the articles which are mentioned as particularly salable are lockets containing two photographs, one on either side, silver-headed hatpins, hair combs (imitation tortoise-shell and set with imitation stones), belt buckles and back combs, and men's cuff links (preferably of gold finish, without settings).—Leslie's Weekly.

Girls consider it more practical to be able to order a dinner than to be able to cook it.

STOP WOMAN AND CONSIDER

First, that almost every one in our hospitals, [illegible] women, becomes necessary [illegible] of neglect of such [illegible] Backache, Irregularities, [illegible] ments, Pain in the Side, [illegible] Sensations, Dizziness and [illegible] ness.

Second, that Lydia E. [illegible] Vegetable Compound, [illegible] native roots and herbs, [illegible] more cases of female [illegible] other one medicine known [illegible] ulates, strengthens and [illegible] preparing women for [illegible] of Life.

Third, the great volume [illegible] file at the Pinkham Laboratory [illegible] time to time being published [illegible] dence of the value of Lydia [illegible] Pinkham's advice.

Lydia E. Pinkh[illegible]

For more than 30 years [illegible] Dragging Sensations, [illegible] flammation and Ulceration [illegible] and expels Tumors at an [illegible]

Mrs. Pinkham's [illegible]

Women suffering from [illegible] write Mrs. Pinkham. Lynn, [illegible] has been advising sick [illegible] years, and before that Mrs. [illegible] ham is advising. Thousands [illegible] women back to health.

TRY THIS [illegible]
Tobacco Habit, Morphine Habit, Liquor Habit
EASILY [illegible]
Dr.'s Double Chloride of Gold Tablets [illegible] case of Morphine, Liquor or Tobacco [illegible] to thirty days. Can be given in tea [illegible] the knowledge of the patient. Perfectly [illegible]
For sale by all druggists, or sent [illegible]
THE OHIO CHEMICAL [illegible]
P. O. BOX 2232 W. TOLE[illegible]

If afflicted with weak eyes, use Thompson's [illegible]

STRIKE OF TELEGRAPHERS FROM SEA TO S

Operators Walk Out in Offic From Atlantic to the Pacific.

FTEEN THOUSAND QUIT WO

Tremendous Tie-Up Temporar Crippled Almost Every Indu All Over the Country—Associ ed Press Employes Stopped.

New York City.—New York a the whole United States felt the p ening effect of the general str throughout the country of the op tors of the Western Union and Po Telegraph Companies.

The electric keys spread the str like lightning. The last messa sent by thousands of operators w transmissions of orders to quit wo At 11 o'clock in the afterno the New York men went out. Th were also Western Union and Po Postal Telegraph operators idle the city. The step was taken in sp of the union's vote to defer acti but the men claim the compa forced the move.

Other cities throughout the co try which had not yet been affec quickly followed the lead of N York. Virtually everything west Pittsburg and throughout the So was tied up.

Throughout the country 15,0 operators left the keys. More th a hundred cities and towns were affected, and, with one or two exc tions they included all the importa places in the United States.

The great news-gathering syst of the Associated Press was co pletely paralyzed at 7:30 in the ev ing. Its operators in every pl from New York to the Pacific Co left their keys promptly on the m ute. With the exception of a f short messages, the big news org ization sent out no general news patches to the various newspape It sent out statements that it w putting in operators and distributi news, but the news did not arrive the newspaper offices.

Prior to the final crippling of news service by the strike in the sociated Press offices, dispatches ca from various cities, West and Sou concerning the strike, but all were the same tenor. They pointed t general tie-up in Buffalo, Pittsbu Philadelphia, Chicago, Minneapo San Francisco and all kinds of cit big and small, between these poin

On the second day of the tie strikes were declared in twenty cities in the United States and C ada upon the order of Deputy Pr dent Percy Thomas. Chief am them was Boston, where the go out of nearly all the Postal and W ern Union operators paralyzed telegraph business in the East.

The commercial men were orde out throughout New England quit as soon as the orders reac them.

Even the Government was affec by the strike. Although there three leased wires from Oyster and one Western Union wire in White House, business was in rupted. The Western Union wire silent. When the operators used other wires they were interru by operators between Oyster Bay Washington cutting in and cal "Scab" and "Chump" on the wir the men sending and receiving. B ness was continued under these d culties.

SUICIDE GOOLD CONFESSED

Admits Slaying Emma Levin at Mo Carlo and Packing Body in Trunk

London.—In a dispatch from M seilles a correspondent of the D Telegraph says that Vere St. Le Goold, the confessed murderer Emma Levin, has hanged himself prison.

Marseilles, France.—Vere St. Le Goold confessed that he was the m derer of Emma Levin, a weal Swedish woman, whose dismembe body was found in the trunk of Go and his wife upon their arrival h August 6, from Monte Carlo.

This "trunk mystery" created m excitement, especially as it was learned that the Gooids, who English, were of good family.

Goold says in his confession: had been drinking, and becom angry. I seized a hunting knife buried it in Emma's back. She dead. The next day I dismembe the body with a saw and a knife, placed the torso in a trunk and head and legs in a valise. I c stabbed the woman once. The ot wounds on her body must have b caused by shaking around in trunk."

Goold said they carried off Em Levin's jewels, not for their va but in order to prevent their dis ery in his apartment.

BRAZIL'S NEW TARIFF.

Government Authorized to Reduce Even Abolish Duties.

Rio Janeiro, Brazil.—The Ch ber has approved the new cust tariff. Its principal features are t the value of the milreis for custo payments is set at fifteen pence. imum and minimum tariffs have b adopted, and the government is thorized to reduce or even abo duties on articles of consumption necessary.

SPAIN LOWERS FLOUR DUT

Maximum Tariff Exacted Will G Way to Minimum.

Washington, D. C.—The Ameri Minister at Madrid has informed State Department that Spain granted a concession to Americ flour imported into that coun For some time past American a has been subject to the payment the maximum tariff duty of Spain It is understood that hereafter product will enjoy the benefit Spain's minimum duty.

POTASH

Grows Cabbages 50% larger, and a great deal firmer and richer.

Physicians who have made a special study of foods, declare that the cabbage is one of the most wholesome and nutritious of vegetables.

Send a postal card for our free booklet on "Truck Farming." It explains why and how Potash is the great soil food for vegetables. There's money for you in that little book.

Address the office nearest you:

GERMAN KALI WORKS
93 Nassau St., New York
Monadnock Bldg., Chicago
Candler Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

W. L. DOUGLAS

$3.00 & $3.50 SHOES BEST IN THE WORLD

SHOES FOR EVERY MEMBER OF THE FAMILY AT ALL PRICES

$25,000 Reward — To any one who can prove W. L. Douglas does not make & sell more Men's $3 & $3.50 shoes than any other manufacturer.

THE REASON W. L. Douglas shoes are worn by more people in all walks of life than any other make, is because of their excellent style, easy fitting, and superior wearing qualities. The selection of the leathers and other materials for each part of the shoe, and every detail of the making is looked after by the most complete organization of superintendents, foremen and skilled shoemakers, who receive the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and whose workmanship cannot be excelled by any other make. I can take you into my large factories at Brockton, Mass., and show you how carefully W. L. Douglas shoes are made, you would then understand why they hold their shape, fit better, wear longer and are of greater value than any other make.

Fast Color Eyelets used exclusively.

My $4 Gilt Edge and $5 Gold Bond Shoes cannot be equalled at any price.

CAUTION! The genuine have W. L. Douglas name and price stamped on bottom. Take No Substitute. Ask your dealer for W. L. Douglas shoes. If he cannot supply you, send direct to factory. Shoes sent everywhere by mail. Catalog free. W. L. Douglas, Brockton, Mass.

10,000 TELEGRAPHERS WANTED From this institute before next March. This is an exclusive Telegraph Institute, not a Business College. In charge of ex-railway officials. Established Twenty-one Years. Main line of L. & N. R. R. in school-rooms. Positions paying $60 per month and upward absolutely guaranteed our graduates under a $100 Guaranty Bond. You can work for your expenses. Write for Catalog. NATIONAL TELEGRAPH INSTITUTE, Cincinnati, Ohio.

CRESCENT ANTISEPTIC

GREATEST HEALER KNOWN TO SCIENCE.

Non Poisonous, Non Irritating. Allays Inflammation and stops pain from any cause. As strong as carbolic acid and as harmless as sweet milk. Cures burns instantly; cures old and chronic sores; cures sores and inflammation from any cause on man or beast. For fowls—cures cholera, sore head and roup. Satisfaction positively guaranteed.

For Sale by all First-Class Dealers. Mfgd. by CRESCENT CHEMICAL CO., Ft. Worth, Texas

ALABAMA CENTRAL FEMALE COLLEGE

TUSCALOOSA, ALABAMA.

Select School. Number of pupils limited. English and Music Specialties. Reviews for State examination free to all classes. Healthful locality. Home life. President with family lives in the building. Rates reasonable. Tuition in Literary department, board, fuel, lights, laundry, books, uniform, physician's attendance, physical culture, $216.00. With music, elocution or art added, $290.00. Personal attention. Small classes. Discipline strict but kind. No better social and church advantages in the South. Thorough work. Superior faculty. Write for Catalogue.

B. F. GILES, President

COMMERCIAL COLLEGE OF KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY LEXINGTON, KY.

Medal awarded Prof. Smith at World's Fair. Book keeping, Business, Short hand, Typewriting and Telegraphy taught. Situations secured. 17th year. University diploma. Begin now. Address, WILBUR R. SMITH, Pres't, Lexington, Ky.

HICKS' CAPUDINE IMMEDIATELY CURES HEADACHES Breaks up COLDS IN 5 TO 15 HOURS Trial Bottle 10c. At Druggists

Cheap Jewelry.

A special agent of the Department of Commerce and Labor has been making an investigation of the trade in cheap jewelry in England, and has learned that the United States has but an insignificant share in it. Yet the demand for such ornaments is immense, and some of the consignments of American manufacturers have sold with surprising rapidity. Among the articles which are mentioned as particularly salable are lockets carrying two photographs, one on either side, silver-headed hatpins, hair combs (imitation tortoise-shell and set with paste stones), belt buckles and back-pieces, and men's cuff links (preferably of gold finish, without settings).—Leslie's Weekly.

Girls consider it more practical to be able to order a dinner than to be able to cook it.

It is true that a good woman may lift a man from the gutter, but it is usually better to ask a policeman to do so.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic, 25c a bottle.

When you call a bluff be sure that you are prepared for the answer.

Choir Boys' Pet Snakes.

Garter snakes, grass snakes and water snakes nearly stampeded the congregation of a northwest district church, all owing to one of the vested choir boys taking a pet garter snake to the choir loft on the previous Sunday, on which day, while the sermon was in progress, the owner of the pet allowed the reptile to crawl over the choir railing to the amusement of the other choir boys. During the week following, every boy in the choir went hunting for snakes. As a result nearly a dozen snakes of the harmless varieties were taken to service on Sunday.

Several of the boys became frightened at the hissing and darting tongues of their new found pets, and the reptiles escaped and were soon wriggling under the feet of members of the congregation. Screams of women who saw the snakes nearly broke up the meeting. Quiet was restored after the sexton had captured the serpents.—Philadelphia Record.

STOP WOMAN AND CONSIDER

First, that almost every operation in our hospitals, performed upon women, becomes necessary because of neglect of such symptoms as Backache, Irregularities, Displacements, Pain in the Side, Dragging Sensations, Dizziness and Sleeplessness.

Second, that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, has cured more cases of female ills than any other one medicine known. It regulates, strengthens and restores women's health and is invaluable in preparing women for child-birth and during the period of Change of Life.

Third, the great volume of unsolicited and grateful testimonials on file at the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., many of which are from time to time being published by special permission, give absolute evidence of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Mrs. Pinkham's advice.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

For more than 30 years has been curing Female Complaints, such as Dragging Sensations, Weak Back, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation and Ulceration, and Organic Diseases, and it dissolves and expels Tumors at an early stage.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice. She is the Mrs. Pinkham who has been advising sick women free of charge for more than twenty years, and before that she assisted her mother-in-law, Lydia E. Pinkham in advising. Thus she is especially well qualified to guide sick women back to health. Write today, don't wait until too late.

TRY THIS
Tobacco Habit, Morphine Habit, Liquor Habit } EASILY CURED

Hill's Double Chloride of Gold Tablets will cure any case of Morphine, Liquor or Tobacco Habit in from ten to thirty days. Can be given in tea or coffee without the knowledge of the patient. Particulars SENT FREE. For sale by all druggists or sent on receipt of $1.00.

THE OHIO CHEMICAL WORKS
P. O. Box 323 W. TOLEDO, OHIO

If afflicted with weak eyes, use Thompson's Eye Water

The Winners

1st. Herbert Pettus, Huntsville, Ala.
2nd. Deonie Tate, No. 1608, Mulberry Ave. Anniston, Ala.
3rd. Theron Watkins, Alexander City, Ala.
4th. Ruth Beech, No. 611, Finley Ave., Montgomery, Ala.
5th. Robert Howell, No. 913, Highland Ave., Montgomery, Ala.
6th. Henry A. Weil, No. 608, S. Court St. Montgomery, Ala.

Every Boy and Girl has an equal chance of winning each week.

All you have to do is to send in a letter of one hundred words or more about the Seal Brand Candy, to the Advertising Dept., Huston Biscuit Co., Birmingham, Ala.

All letters should be accompanied by a Gold Seal Trade Mark from a package of Seal Brand Candy, or one of these Trade Marks will be given on request, by writing Huston Biscuit Co., Birmingham, Ala. All letters received during the week will apply on that week's contest. The contest will continue, from week to week, until otherwise specified in the daily papers.

Seal Brand Candy

Is Body-Building Food

as well as a delicious confection. Made from pure sugar, in the good old-fashioned way, with twisted sticks. Pure sugar is the highest concentrated form of carbon, and a very necessary element in the nourishing of the body. Every movement of the body consumes vital energy and destroys a certain amount of tissue. This must be constantly re-built and renewed. Energy is the product of burnt carbon. Give the growing children a reasonable amount of candy, same as you would give them crackers or milk. The child's crying for candy is nature's instinctive demand for this form of nourishment. Answer the call of nature, by being sure to give the child PURE candy. Give them Seal Brand Stick Candy. Sold by Most Grocers

HUSTON BISCUIT CO., Birmingham, Ala.

5c

Granville S. Standish, Advertising Agency, Providence, R. I.

Some women make their living by getting married, and others stay married and make the living for the whole family.

Twitching Eyes

Will soon be inflamed, sore weak eyes. Leonardi's Golden Eye Lotion stops the twitching; allays the inflammation; cures soreness without pain in one day. Insist on having "Leonardi's"—it makes strong eyes. Guaranteed or money refunded. Druggists sell it at 25 cts. or forwarded prepaid on receipt of price by S. B. Leonardi & Co., Tampa, Fla.

Shakespeare at the Seashore.

Stella—What was the summer resort like?

Bella—A hamlet with Romeo left out.—New York Sun.

EASILY CURED.

Drunkenness, Morphine and Tobacco habits are easily cured by the use of Hill's Chloride of Gold Tablets. No effort required of the patient, who is allowed the use of stimulants until he voluntarily quits their use. May be given secretly in tea or coffee and a cure guaranteed in every case. For sale by all first-class druggists at $1.00 per package. For full particulars and book of testimonials address The Ohio Chemical Works, P. O. Box 323 W., Toledo, Ohio.

Down in our hearts we are all rather pleased to see the other fellow get it in the neck—which explains the popularity of the comic supplement.

SKIN CURED IN A WEEK

After Suffering Six Months With Disfiguring Red Spots and Pimples—Cleared Away by Cuticura.

"Cuticura Soap and Ointment are the greatest remedies for skin diseases on earth. I have suffered six months from a disease which I cannot describe, but I will tell you the symptoms. My skin was full of red spots and my face was full of red pimples. It made life miserable for me and I was discouraged with everything. I went to several doctors, but it was useless. I resolved to try the Cuticura Remedies, and after using them for about one week I became a new man. The pimples and the red spots have disappeared and they made my skin as soft as velvet. Albert Cashman, Bedford Station, N. Y., Nov. 29, 1905."

Memory of Sleep-Walkers.

The memory of sleep-walkers is occasionally prodigious under the influence of the dominating impulse that moves them.

There is an instance of a poor and illiterate basketmaker, who was unable to read or write, yet in a state of sleep he would preach fluent sermons, which were afterward recognized as having formed portions of discourses he was accustomed to hear in the parish church as a child more than forty years before.

Quite as strange a case of "unconscious memory" is referred to by Dr. Abercrombie. A girl given to sleep-walking was in the habit of imitating the violin with her lips, giving the preliminary tuning and scraping and flourishing with the utmost fidelity. It puzzled the physician a good deal until he ascertained that when a child she lived in a room adjoining a fiddler, who often performed on his violin in her hearing.—Pearson's Weekly.

A movement, it seems, is being made to erect a shrine dedicated to "Our Lady of the Cataract," in one of the churches at Niagara Falls.

Girls with dimples do not always make the best laughter.

The Ostrich in Madagascar.

Raising ostriches is a growing industry in various parts of the world, so that there appears to be no danger of a famine in the ostrich and plume market. In 1902 the ostrich was introduced into the French colony of Madagascar, and during last winter a public sale of plumes was held in order to awaken interest in the new industry. The feathers were of fine quality, and the huge birds are said to flourish well in their island home.—Youth's Companion.

FITS, St. Vitus' Dance: Nervous Diseases permanently cured by Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. $2 trial bottle and treatise free. Dr. H. R. Kline, Ld., 931 Arch St., Phila., Pa.

The millionaire tells us how to get rich—but it is a fake trial to lead us away from his own private hunting grounds.

When a youth starts to sow his wild oats it's time for the father to start threshing.

Honesty is the best policy—only when you pay promptly the premiums of hard work.

Deaths From X-Rays.

The death of Dr. Weigel, a surgeon of Rochester, from a disease due to the constant use of the X-rays, makes the fourth who has lost his life from this cause. The others were an assistant of Thomas Edison, a Boston physician and a woman of San Francisco named Fleischman. In the case of Dr. Weigel, since 1904, when his right hand and all but the thumb and a finger of the left hand were removed, there had been four operations in trying to save his life. The first removed a part of the right shoulder; then a part of the muscles covering the right breast. Mystery completely envelops the cause of death, the disease being unknown to medical science, though it is believed to involve some great principle of life. Dr. Weigel was president of the Rochester Academy of Medicine and the American Orthopedic Society.—Christian Advocate.

TEN YEARS OF PAIN.

Unable to Do Even Housework Because of Kidney Troubles.

Mrs. Margaret Emmerich, of Clinton St., Napoleon, O., says: "For fifteen years I was a great sufferer from kidney troubles. My back pained me terribly. Every turn or move caused sharp, shooting pains. My eyesight was poor, dark spots appeared before me, and I had dizzy spells. For ten years I could not do housework, and for two years did not get out of the house. The kidney secretions were irregular, and doctors were not helping me. Doan's Kidney Pills brought me quick relief, and finally cured me. They saved my life."

Sold by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

There is no liar on earth equal to the man who pretends that he doesn't mind being bow-legged or red-haired.

There is a lot of quiet egotism connected with being satisfied.

WINCHESTER

Shotgun Shells

"Leader" and "Repeater" and Repeating Shotguns make a killing combination for field, fowl or trap shooting. No smokeless powder shells enjoy such a reputation for uniformity of loading and strong shooting qualities as "Leader" and "Repeater" brands do, and no shotgun made shoots harder or better than the Winchester.

THEY ARE MADE FOR EACH OTHER

A-GRADE WHEELS

Every GOOD feature in buggy building and NONE of the bad ones combine in the making of the WHITE STAR BUGGY. The latest additional improvement to an already incomparable vehicle is the "A-Grade" Wheel. ASK US.

Send for Catalog

Atlanta Buggy Co. Atlanta, Ga.

Am. 34, 1907.

Smithdeal

is the oldest and first business college in Va. to open in building — a fine one. No vacation. Ladies and Gentlemen. Shorthand, Typewriting, Telegraphy, Penmanship, Business Practice, Civil Service. These are taught by mail also. Leading business college south of the Potomac river." Address, G. M. SMITHDEAL, President, Richmond, Va.

The Tulane University OF LA. New Orleans

EDWIN B. CRAIGHEAD, LL. D., President.

The Tulane University of Louisiana, founded in 1845 as the University of Louisiana, is the logical head of the entire system of public educational institutions of the State.

Full courses are offered in Languages, Sciences, Engineering, Architecture, Law, Medicine, Pharmacy, Art. Splendid department for Women in Newcomb College. Full course in Architecture will be offered next session. Teachers' College, recently established, will open Oct. 1st. Many scholarships in Academic Colleges. Expenses low. Low dormitory rates. Next session of all departments, except the Medical, begins Oct. 1st. Medical Department opens Oct. 1st. Send for catalogue. R. K. BRUFF, Secretary.

STANDARD OF THE SOUTH

SNOWDRIFT HOGLESS LARD

U.S. GOVERNMENT INSPECTION

THE SOUTHERN COTTON OIL CO.
NEW YORK-SAVANNAH-ATLANTA-NEW ORLEANS

FREE To convince any woman that Paxtine Antiseptic will improve her health and do all we claim for it, we will send her absolutely free a large trial box of Paxtine with book of instructions and genuine testimonials. Send your name and address on a postal card.

PAXTINE cleanses and heals mucous membranes in e-ry-where. For feminine ills, such as nasal catarrh, pelvic catarrh and inflammation caused by feminine ills; sore eyes, sore throat and mouth, by direct local treatment. Its curative power over these troubles is extraordinary and gives immediate relief. Thousands of women are using and recommending it every day. 50 cents at druggists or by mail. Remember, however, IT COSTS YOU NOTHING TO TRY IT. THE R. PAXTON CO., Boston, Mass.

ROGERSVILLE SYNODICAL FEMALE INSTITUTE FOR GIRLS AND YOUNG LADIES. Opens September 11th. Board and Tuition $150 a Year. Address, LAWRENCE HOLT, President. Rogersville, Tenn.

Positions Guaranteed BY A $200 CAPITAL

CAR FARE PAID. GOOD BOARD CHEAP. Some Free Scholarships. They will take your note for tuition, payable when you secure a position.

Harris Business University, JACKSON MISS.

The Mooney School FOR BOYS

Send For Handsome Catalogue MURFREESBORO, TENN.

A BOTTLE WILL BREAK YOUR CHILD'S

Wintersmith's CHILL TONIC

Cures Chills and Malarial Fevers

Standard for 45 years; tasteless as bad chills quinine; pleasant to take; children like it; seldom fails to make permanent cure. Guaranteed under Food and Drugs Act of June 30, 1906. At your druggists; or send price in money or stamps to ARTHUR PETER & CO., Gen'l Agts., Louisville, Ky.

You Look Prematurely Old

Because of those ugly, gray hairs. Use "LA CREOLE" HAIR RESTORER. Price, $1.00, Postpaid.

The Banner.

Published and Published every Thursday at Clanton, Chilton County, Ala.

Entered at the postoffice at Clanton, Ala., as second-class mail matter.

"Where shall the press the people's rights maintain,
Unawed by influence and unbribed by gain,
Where patriot truth her glorious precepts draw,
Dedicated to religion, liberty and law."

Subscription, yearly . . . $1.00
Invariably in advance.

Address all communications to THE BANNER, Clanton, Ala.

THE way of the prohibitionist is hard. After the passage of a law closing all saloons, and stopping the sale of liquor in the State of Georgia, it is now discovered that any ten men can form a social club and get all the booze they want.

WE apologize to our exchanges for not responding to them last week. Our stock of paper ran short—we hope you all know the calls of an increasing subscription list. The courtesy of an exchange is highly appreciated, and we will try and not be backward in future.

THE possibility of a clash between the State courts and the courts of the Federal government is greatly to be regretted, but from the published statements of some of the State officials it seems imminent. From the legal standpoint, we do not feel competent to express an opinion, but from the view of the ordinary citizen of Alabama we sincerely hope that the controversy may yet be adjusted.

The question of railroad rates—both passenger and freight—was passed upon in the late session of the legislature and certain legislation was adopted, which some of the railroads declare will cause them enormous loss, and to which exception is taken, and an appeal made to the Federal courts to stay the execution of these laws by the State authorities pending a decision as to their constitutionality. This, so far as we understand it, is the point at issue.

We confess to a certain feeling of sympathy with the railroads, not that they do not need proper control, but we fear that drastic and arbitrary legislation will not and cannot help and protect the public. We await, with some anxiety, the outcome of this unfortunate squabble.

Thorsby.

Miss Lewis is visiting at Mr. J. J. Stanley's home.

Vastine, Vernon and Almon Stabler are rejoicing in a new brother, a week old.

Miss Mabel Malmgren of Birmingham is spending a few weeks with Mrs. Swan.

Mrs. Swan and daughter, Mabel, were in Montgomery for a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bosworth of Birmingham are visiting their parents here.

Mrs. Regan of Calera is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Turnquist.

Mrs. Villadsen has gone to Cleveland, Ohio, where she expects to visit relatives for some time.

The central of the telephone lines which run into Thorsby, has recently been located in Mrs. Swan's home.

Thorsby public school opens Sept. 16, and the Institute on Sept. 2.

Mr. Sam Collins' new house has just had its last coat of paint put on.

Mr. Smith is building an addition to his house on Birmingham avenue.

Thorsby Institute building and grounds are being improved.

Jemison and Thorsby played baseball here Monday, score 10 to 8 in favor of Thorsby.

The "Busy Bees" meet with Miss Nellie Ellefson on the 23d.

Mr. Magne Anderson is building a new house near the site of the former one, north of town.

The ice cream stand is being well patronized on Saturday evenings.

Mr. Carr's barber shop.

VOX POPULI.

NOTICE.

The Pentacostal meeting which has been in progress for the past two weeks, at the Holiness Tabernacle three miles east of Clanton, on the Mims public road, will close Sunday, Aug 25, in an all-day meeting.

A Hair Dressing

Nearly every one likes a fine hair dressing. Something to make the hair more manageable; to keep it from being too rough, or from splitting at the ends. Something, too, that will feed the hair at the same time, a regular hair-food. Well-fed hair will be strong, and will remain where it belongs—on the head, not on the comb!

The best kind of a testimonial—"Sold for over sixty years."

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass. Also manufacturers of

Ayer's SARSAPARILLA. PILLS. CHERRY PECTORAL.

LOUISVILLE & NASHVILLE RAILROAD COMPANY'S Position in the Rate Litigation in U. S. Court.

Clear and Logical Statement of Hon. Gregory L. Smith, Leading Counsel for L. & N. R. R.

"The position taken by the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company in what is commonly known as the rate cases seems to have been greatly misunderstood.

WOULD RESULT IN ENORMOUS LOSS

"The railroad has frequently been referred to as refusing to obey the laws of Alabama, and as attempting to deny the sovereignty of the State. This is an entire misunderstanding of its position. The enforcement of the Acts, the validity of which is being attacked, will necessarily result in an enormous loss of revenue to the railroad.

"If the Acts are not valid, the railroad does not wish to submit to this, and ought not to be required to do so. If the Acts are held to be valid, the railroads will not attempt to evade their provisions, and will, as it should do, obey the laws without any evasion or equivocation, and will make good to every passenger and shipper any excess of charge over the rates prescribed by Statute that it may have made pending the litigation.

"Every person, natural or artificial, has a right to test any law, the validity of which injuriously affects his or its interest, by proceedings in a proper court, and this is all that the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company is doing.

"When a law so affects property interests that if enforced during the litigation necessary to test its validity, a serious loss will be sustained, should the law be held to be invalid, the enforcement of that law during the litigation is generally enjoined, and the party obtaining the injunction is required to give bond to protect all other parties in interest against loss or damage, should the law be declared valid.

"This is a common and familiar practice which is indulged in by individuals and everywhere recognized as orderly and proper, and in this case, the Railroad Company has been required to give, and has given, ample security to refund to every person, should the laws be held valid, every overcharge it may make during the litigation.

"If the defendants could be required to give the railroad a similar bond to pay it for any loss of revenue if the law should be held void, there would be no necessity for or justice in allowing the railroads to charge rates in excess of those provided by the Statute while the case is pending, but this cannot be done, and if the railroads were to charge only the rates prescribed by the Acts and those Acts were afterward to be held to be void, the road would be without remedy for the loss it sustained while the suit was pending.

"Independent of any Statutory regulation, this practice of enjoining the enforcement of rates established by law, has been frequently indulged in cases exactly like that now pending, and has been frequently upheld by the Supreme Court of the United States. This fact was fully recognized by the attorneys employed by the Governor to defend this suit; they have admitted this in open court upon the hearing of the motion for the original restraining order in this case.

LAWS PROVIDE FOR SUCH TEST.

"The Legislature in passing these laws was evidently familiar with this practice, and had no intention or desire to abrogate it; on the contrary, it evidently recognized the fairness and justice of the rule, for it provided by more than one of the Acts in controversy for testing, in proper court, the reasonableness and fairness of rates fixed by the law, and for the suspension of such rates while the test of the reasonableness and fairness of the laws is being made, and the suspension by the United States Court of the rates established by the laws is supported by the provisions of these very laws themselves as well as upon general equity principles.

"As the proceedings themselves are justified and supported by the provisions of the laws of Alabama, it is, of course, a mistake to say that the railroad by instituting such proceedings, has ignored and defied the State, and sought to set aside its sovereignty.

"By the first restraining order made by the Court, the rates fixed by the several statutes of Alabama were thus suspended and since that time there has been no such rates in force, and the railroad by charging greater rates is, therefore, violating no law. Had the railroad contented itself with obtaining a suspension of rates, this would probably have been technically sufficient, for as no rates would have been in force, no offense would have been committed by ignoring such rates, and any effort to enforce the rates would probably have subjected the prosecuting officers to proceedings for contempt of the Federal Court, and also made them and the arresting officer liable to the party arrested and prosecuted.

"This probably would not have been understood by the prosecuting and arresting officers throughout the State, without a careful study of the subject which they could not be expected to give, and the railroad, therefore, thought it both wiser and fairer to sue out an injunction against the Railroad Commission, the Attorney General and all other persons restraining them from enforcing these rates.

"This, it thought at the time, would be sufficient to put all parties interested upon proper notice, but after this was done, it became manifest from numerous articles and interviews in the press, that it was not understood that the existing restraining order was binding upon the prosecuting and arresting officers. Fearing that this misunderstanding might give rise to unnecessary conflict between the State and Federal Courts, the railroad thought it wiser and fairer to set this misunderstanding at rest by having the restraining order and injunction so extended as to include by express language, the prosecuting and arresting officers, and it, therefore, amended its bill so as to make them parties to the suit, and so as to enjoin them from arresting or prosecuting the railroad, its officers, agents or servants upon any charge of having demanded and received a greater rate for freight and passengers than that prescribed by the several acts of Alabama.

REASONS FOR COURSE PURSUED.

"It is a general rule that a Court of Equity has no jurisdiction to enjoin a criminal prosecution, but there are exceptions to this rule that are everywhere recognized and fully established by decisions both of the Supreme Court of the United States and the Supreme Court of several of the States of the United States, including Alabama, and one of these exceptions is, that where a criminal prosecution involves, as it does in this case, the deprivation of a person of large property interests, and the law under which the prosecution is threatened is unconstitutional and void, or upon the facts it may be held to be unconstitutional and void, the court will, for the purpose of protecting such property interests, enjoin the criminal prosecutions.

"Another exception is that where before the commencement of a prosecution, a Court of Equity has taken jurisdiction of the subject matter in controversy, and the effect of the prosecution will be to interfere with the enforcement of the rights of the rights of the parties under the orders of the court taking such jurisdiction the court will by injunction, protect the parties by being deprived by criminal prosecution of the fruit of its adjudication.

"Both of these exceptions are involved in the present case. The arrest and prosecution of the railroad's officers and agents which has been threatened would be so numerous and would so entirely prevent the performance of their respective duties as to make it impossible for the railroad to operate without conceding the contention of the defendants in the cause, and thereby surrendering a large portion of the benefits that it would otherwise derive from the protection of the court pending the litigation, and giving up a large amount of money to which it is justly entitled, provided it is right in its contention.

"The railroad believes that since the effect of the orders of the Federal Court has been made plain by the last amendment to its bill, there will be no conflict between the Federal and State Courts, and that the rights of the railroad and of the public will be fully protected by an orderly proceeding in the court in which the cause is pending. This, at least, is what it hopes for and expects.

"We do not believe that any good citizen would care to deprive the railroads of the rights that are guaranteed to every citizen of the United States by both the Federal and State Constitution and laws to enforce its rights in the courts of the country. If these rights can be denied to railroads, they can and will, when occasion arises, be denied to individuals."

Jemison.

Editor Banner—I ask for space to reply to W. Y. Atchison's letter in your last issue, as he don't seem to understand who raises taxes. Now, brother, you seem to have the wrong hog by the ear, Mr. J. P. VanDerveer is the one, and as you are so much stuck on Democracy, it looks like you could drink it without murmuring. The board of commissioners didn't want to raise taxes, but you fellows had both Houses and the Governor and they appointed a State board of commissioners and they went to every county and told them that they must raise the taxes or they would come and raise them themselves. So you are eating Democratic bread and it seems that it is not good because you thought that we had baked it for you. Now, the board is all farmers and know how hard it is to make this hard earned money. Now all meet the Commissioners' Court, either on Sept. 2, 3 or 4, and you shall be heard in your own defense, and you, Bro. Atchison, are especially invited. With equal rights to all and special privileges to none.

S. E. WALDRUP.

APPLICATION FOR CHANGE OF DISTRICT.

At the regular July meeting of the Chilton School Board the following applications were made and accepted, and notice of final hearing was set for Saturday, August 17, 1907:

For a change of the lines between Districts No. 30 (Maple Springs) and No. 67 (Samaria) so as to include W. C. Giles and Greer Culver in district No. 67 (Samaria).

Done by order of the Board in session this 6th day of July, 1907.

R. A. RASCO, President.
G. L. SPEER, Secretary.

The above application is postponed to Saturday, August 24, 1907.

Bagpickers Valley.

Mrs. S. L. Calloway of Mobile is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Aldridge.

Misses Mariam Aldridge and Pearl Baker were welcome visitors of Mrs. J. S. Aldridge Wednesday.

Mrs. Lula Calloway was a pleasant visitor to Mrs. N. J. Calloway Thursday.

Mr. S. T. Hall is spending a few days with his daughter, Mrs. W. M. Aldridge.

Mr. Percy Hall and two little sons of Vida are visiting their sister and aunt, Mrs. W. M. Aldridge.

Mr. C. L. Eiland was a visitor to W. M. Aldridge's Sunday.

Mr. Marvin Aldridge was a welcome visitor of Emile Aldridge Sunday.

Messrs. H. L. Aldridge and Walter Cox and Misses Permesia Allen and Maggie Brown were visitors to the Holiness meeting Sunday.

Mr. W. H. Robinson's singing school at Samaria is progressing nicely. We wish you much success Mr. Robinson. PAPA'S PET.

"We never repent of eating too little," was one of the ten rules of life of Thomas Jefferson, president of the United States, and the rule applies to everyone without exception during this hot weather, because it is hard for food, even in small quantities, to be digested when the blood is at high temperature. At this season we should eat sparingly and properly. We should also help the stomach as much as possible by the use of a little Kodol for Indigestion and Dyspepsia, which will rest the stomach by digesting the food itself. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

Souvenir Postals of Clanton. Florence Drug Store.

Neat Feet

Women who dress nicely and according to the ways fashion dictates, desire to have every part of their attire look stylish, fit well and keep its new, nobby appearance. Now-a-days a well dressed woman must have attractive dresses and nice shoes in keeping with her gowns.

"SOCIETY The Shoe That Does Not Hurt"

The Society Shoe for Women

is a high class shoe for properly dressed women, and at $3.50 a pair, a woman can afford to have shoes in the new gun-metal for the more serviceable wear, the ever popular vici or the more flashy patent leather for dress wear.

We have them in these popular leathers, made in all the fashionable shapes, and we are sure when you see a pair you will readily decide that "SOCIETY" Shoes are made for you. The "SOCIETY" is a member of the "Star Brand" family.

"Star Brand Shoes Are Better"
"We Walk On Stars, So Can You"

J. C. JONES Clanton

Summer is Here

and we are making our first showing of the New Summer Styles in Clothes for men and boys. They are the newest productions of the best known makes, in all the latest fabrics, shades, and a real treat to the eye of a man who knows good clothes when he sees them. Come in, look, try one and you will be highly pleased.

This is the Season for Hat Changing

and nothing can add to your appearance more than a stylish, becoming hat. If you will come in, we will convince you that we have the latest styles.

Furnishing Goods

the little things that go to make up the attire of a well dressed person are to be found here in the newest styles at moderate prices.

Just Received a Beautiful Lot of Laces, Dress Goods and Lace Curtains. Also a complete line of Puritan Corsets.

Summer Models In Footwear

Our line is complete.

Star Brand Shoes are Better

J. C. JONES

CLANTON - - - - - ALA.

T. L. CARTER J. P. ELLIOTT

CLANTON FURNITURE CO.

DEALERS IN

Furniture, Stoves, Lamps, Clocks, Shades, Matting, Rugs and House Furnishing Goods of every kind. Needles and Supplies for all Sewing Machines. We also do Repairing, Upholstering and Refinishing. We sell cheap for cash or on easy payments.

TRY OUR 5 & 10 CENT BARGAIN COUNTER

Your patronage solicited.

CLANTON - - ALABAMA

The First and Last

store in Clanton. If you come from the east it's the first; from the west it's the last.

Our stock of General Merchandise is First in quality and lowest in price.

FINE FAMILY GROCERIES—Always Fresh and Nice.
A fine line of Men's Dress Shirts and Neckwear.

SHOES of the finest quality and the best make. Try a pair.

A general assortment of first-class goods.

B. E. JONES & BRO.

CLANTON - - - - ALA

Scott's Emulsion strengthens enfeebled nursing mothers by increasing their flesh and nerve force.

It provides baby with the necessary fat and mineral food for healthy growth.

ALL DRUGGISTS: 50c. AND $1.00.

Children in Pain

never cry as do children who are suffering from hunger, such is the cause of all babies who cry and are treated for sickness, when they really are suffering from hunger. This is caused from their food not being assimilated but devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause these to cease crying and begin to thrive at once. Give it a trial. Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

TOWN LYMPS

Circuit Court convened on February 2nd Monday by Judge Pruet, adjourned Monday to April Monday to November

CLANTON COTTON MART
Today.....11¼ @ 12c
Same date last year 10¼ @ 11c
Compared to date
Cotton receipts
Today p.m. Wednesday... 6271

A. Mitchell of Verbena visitor here Saturday

H. Hutchison of Clanton was in town Friday

Dandie Lowney's fine chocolate made Florence Drug

T. Wyatt of Calera is visiting relatives near Clanton this to have bought nice shoes but dirt your feet. The "Society" for women is different our shoes, they fit and feel from the start, and don't hurt.

IT IS PROPER ANYWHERE
J. C. JONES, Clanton.

Tommie Taylor returned last Wednesday after a weeks visit to his brother, W. Taylor, at Birmingham.

Martha Dupree and mother, related relatives at Providence Ala; also attended the revival meeting at Providence church.

The moral atmosphere at the Normal College is excellent. Each teacher is an active worker in one of the splendid church organizations of the city and the College itself maintains a young people's Christian association. The people have just voted overwhelmingly against the sale of whiskey, and they will be a "dry" town after October 1st. Christian teachers and school make it a Christian town.

Cannon & Sons' Wagons are the best buy.

W. A. Conville picked the first bale of cotton this season Sunday morning, at this place, three miles west of Cooper. He has 13 acres in cotton and expects to get 15 bales. Pretty good farming for Chilton.

J. P. Rasberry brought in a bale of 3 bolls a little later the same day.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Robinson of Jemison mill were visitors Monday.

If it's a Fountain Pen you want you will find them at Upchurch Drug Co., at all prices and of the best make.

Mr. Heath and Miss Delene Heath together with Dr. J. P. and Mrs. Graham of Jemison, left Saturday for West Baden, Ind. They have been gone about two weeks.

Mr. J. D. Patterson of Cooper Mills was a pleasant call Saturday.

Mr. W. T. Callen is at home from the infirmery at Montgomery greatly improved in health.

The protracted meeting was commenced at the Baptist church, Sunday which is exciting much attention.

Miss Minnie Wells of Jemison is the guest of Miss Essie McDaniel.

Miss Anna Lou Tanner of Birmingham is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. L. E. Evans.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Jackson of Jemison were visitors to Clanton Monday.

Miss Fannie Smitherman has returned from Mineral Springs where she spent several weeks.

Mr. N. C. Martin of Birmingham visited friends here Sunday.

Miss Minnie Muse is out at Mineral Springs this week.

Mr. Willie Hay will leave soon for Montgomery where she will visit a few weeks.

Miss Minnie Muse is now selling her hats at cost.

Mr. Grady Reynolds is visiting Selma ville.

Get you a R ZOR from the Upchurch Drug co.—the three in one kind—guaranteed for three years.

Marriage licenses have been issued this week by the Probate Judge to the following persons.

M. G. Hinson and Miss Anna Hand.

Floyd Gardner and Miss Wilson.

Mr. Ribs, a prominent dealer of Selma, Ia., says: "I have been using DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills for about a year and they give better satisfaction than any pill I have sold. There are a dozen people who have used them and all give perfect satisfaction in every case. I have used them myself with fine results. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

at Feet

n who dress nicely and accord- ways fashion dictates, desire very part of their attire look well and keep its new, nobby ance. Now-a-days a well dressed n must have attractive dresses nice shoes in keeping with gowns.

The Society SHOE FOR WOMEN

perly dressed women, and at an afford to have shoes in more serviceable wear, the re flashy patent leather for popular leathers, made in all we are sure when you see a that "SOCIETY" Shoes are ETY" is a member of the es Are Better" rs, So Can You"

Clanton

erc

f the New Summer Styles in ...west productions of the ...shapes, and a real treat to ...when he sees them. Come ...dly pleased.

for Hat Changing

...ce more than a stylish, becoming ...vince you that we have the lat...

g Goods

...attire ... well dressed person ...es at moderate prices.

Beautiful Lot

... A ... complete line of

In Footwear

es are Better

ONES

- - - ALA.

J. F. ELLIOTT

NITURE CO.

IN

...ades, Matting, Rugs and House

Needles and Supplies for all

Repairing, Upholstering

...ap for cash or on easy

ARGAIN COUNTER

solicited,

ALABAMA

nd Last

come from the east t it's the last.

Merchandise is First ice.

Always Fresh and Nice. Shirts and Neckwear.

e best make. Try a pair.

...rst-class goods.

& BRO.

- - .ALA

Children in Pain

...cry as do children who are ...ng from hunger. Such is the ... of all babies who cry and are ...d for sickness, when they re... are suffering from hunger, ...s caused from their food not ... assimilated but devoured by ... A few doses of White's ...n Vermifuge will cause them ...se crying and begin to thrive ...e. Give it a trial. Sold by ...rch Drug co., Clanton; A. Thorsby.

OWN ITEMS

...Court meets second ... February, first Monday in ... Monday in June second ...day second Monday in Au... first Monday in November.

...TON COTTON MART ...middling.....11¼ @ 12¢ ...e date last year 10¼ @ 11c ...ceived to date ...receipts ...p.m. Wednesday....6271

...A. Mitchell of Verbena ...ness here Saturday.

...H. Hutchison of Clanton ...was in town Friday.

...die Lowney's fine choc... made. Florence Drug

...T. Wyatt of Calera is vis... relatives near Clanton this

...T IS PROPER ANYWHERE. ...have bought nice shoes but ...of your feet. The "Soci... for women is different ...shoes, they fit and feel ...the start, and don't hurt. J. C. JONES, Clanton.

Tommie Taylor returned ...last Wednesday after a ...eks visit to his brother, ...Taylor, at Birmingham.

Martha Dupree and moth... relatives at Providence ...also attended the revi... at Providence church.

...moral atmosphere at the ...mal College is excellent. ...cher is an active worker ...the splendid church or... of the city and the Col... maintains a young peo... Christian association. The ...ve just voted overwhelm... against the sale of whiskey, ...will be a "dry" town af... 1st. Christian teach... school make it a Christian ...Cannon & Sons' Wagons ...to buy.

...A. Conville picked the ...of cotton this season Sun... at this place, three ...of Cooper. He has 13 ...cotton and expects to get ... Pretty good farming

...P. Rasberry brought in a ...of 3 bolls a little later the ...

...and Mrs. T. G. Robinson of ...mill were visitors Monday.

...a Fountain Pen you want ...find them at Upchurch ..., at all prices and of the ...ke.

...Heath and Miss Delene ...together with Dr. J. P. and ...han of Jemison, left Sat... for West Baden, Ind. They ...gone about two weeks.

D. Patterson of Cooper ...a pleasant call Saturday.

W. T. Callen is at home ...from the infirmery at Mont... greatly improved in health.

...tracted meeting was com... at the Baptist church, Sun... which is exciting much atten...

Minnie Wells of Jemison is ...Miss Essie McDaniel.

Anna Lou Tanner of Birm... is visiting her grandmother, ...E. Evans.

...and Mrs. W. R. Jackson of ...were visitors to Clanton ...day.

Fannie Smitherman has ...turned from Mineral Springs ...she spent several weeks.

...N. C. Martin of Birming... greeted friends here Sunday.

Minnie Muse is out at Min... Springs this week.

Willie Hay will leave soon ...Montgomery where she will ...few weeks.

Minnie Muse is now selling ...at cost.

Grady Reynolds is visiting ...Orville

...you a R ZOR from the ...rch Drug co.—the three ...kind—guaranteed for three

...ge licenses have been issued ...ek by the Probate Judge to ...wing persons.

M. G. Hinson and Miss ...anna Hand.

...and Floyd Gardner and ...Wilson.

...Ribs, a prominent dealer of ..., Ia., says: "I have been ...DeWitt's Kidney and Blad... for about a year and they ...better satisfaction than any pill ...sold. There are a dozen peo... who have used them and ...give perfect satisfaction in ...case. I have used them my... fine results. Sold by Up... Drug co.

Now is the Time

We are now ready to show you a full line of Clothing, Shoes, Hats, and complete line of Dress Goods.

Furniture, Stoves, Sewing Machines, etc.

Tennessee and Fish Wagons.

Everything to make your home and farm complete. Give us a trial and if we can't sell you we will be badly mistaken.

E. M. PINCKARD & CO.

CLANTON

Mr. B. Y. McMorries came down Sunday and carried his brother Mr. E. C. McMorries, back with him, where we hope he will recover his health.

Mrs. Will VanDerveer of Kansas City is visiting relatives here.

For an Impaired Appetite.

To improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion try a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and liver Tablets. Mr. J. H. Seitz, of Detroit, Mich., says: "They restored my appetite when impaired, relieved me of a bloated feeling and caused a pleasant and satisfactory movement of the bowels. Price, 25 cents. Samples free. Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Mr. E. B. Calloway of Verbena was in town Friday.

Mr. C. H. Baxley of Mountain Creek was one of our pleasant visitors Friday.

Mr. and Miss Hall of Billingsley were visitors here Wednesday.

Eczema.

For the good of those suffering with eczema or othe such trouble, I wish to say, my wife had something of that kind and after using the doctors' remedies for some time concluded to try Chamberlain's Salve, and it proved to be better than anything she had tried. For sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Fifth District Agricultural School

WETUMPKA, ALABAMA

Opens Tuesday, September 17, '07. TUITION FREE. Board $10 to $12 per month. Magnificent new brick and stone building, costing over $41,000, the most complete in the State. Steam heat, electric lights, sanitary plumbing, bath rooms, gymnasium, etc. 9 Strong faculty. Superior discipline. Thorough preparation for College, University, or life work. Certificate admits, without examination, to the leading colleges and universities. Special advantages in Music, Art, Expression, Physical Culture, Domestic Science and Athletics. For catalogue address, LEONARD L. VANN, President.

17 Jewel Elgin or Waltham Watch

in a 20-year Crown Case for $12.50

The Best Repair Shop Between Birmingham and Montgomery

I sell GOOD AMERICAN Watches cheap and do not sell fake Swiss watches at all.

They are sold by mail order houses—avoid them—buy an Elgin or Waltham Watch. Let me show you some Watches.

J. W. MARTIN

THE JEWELER BY THE POST OFFICE

Calera, Ala.

The Calera Machine Repair Shop

is now open for General Repair Work. We repair Engines, Boilers, Saw Mills or any other Machinery that comes to hand. We guarantee all our work.

We also buy second hand machinery of all kinds.

We do all kinds of Pipe work.

We are also prepared with all Modern Tools, and have an expert Saw Hammerer who will straighten your Crooked Saws, and will Gum and Dress them, so that they will run and cut good smooth lumber and use 20 per cent less power.

We repair all kinds of Household Goods.

We do all kinds of Round Wood Turning, from an Ornamental Column to a Shelf Spindle.

In short, we are here for business and to do you good.

We solicit a trial.

THE CALERA MACHINE REPAIR SHOP

CALERA, ALA.

A Sewing Machine

well made, nicely finished, has improvements over the old styles, runs easily and quietly, low cost, but good work and quality.

Come in and examine it, you will be surprised at our good value for $18.00.

SPIGENER & JONES

The Hardware Store

CLANTON

Maplesville.

POSTPONEMENT OF BARBACUE

BIG CELEBRATION AT MAPLESVILLE TO BE HELD ON SEPT. 5.

The big celebration which is being planned for Maplesville will come off on September 5, instead of August 29 as previously announced. There will be a first class barbecue, with all kinds of good things to eat. The Governor will also be present and talk to the people.

The chief object of the gathering will be a demonstration of a representative of the United States Forest Service. Alabama farmers know very well how of late years the durable woods they formerly used have become scarcer, sometimes almost impossible to obtain. Old field pine they have in plenty, but it decays so quickly as to be practically worthless. By impregnating this porus timber with creosote oil, however, it can be made to resist decay, and becomes more durable than oak. The U. S. Forest Service has been engaged in perfecting a method for the application of this treatment which would be within the reach of the farmer and the small operator. Our enterprising Commissioner of Agriculture and Industry, Hon. J. A. Wilkinson, of Montgomery, has secured the co-operation of this branch of the national government for the benefit of the farmers of the State of Alabama. An experimental plant is being set up at Maplesville to demonstrate just how this treatment must be done, under the conditions of the South, and what it will cost. This will be a great work for the farmers of the State, turning a worthless product into one of value, and giving them an always available supply of material for posts and other such timbers. The Commissioner is to be congratulated upon his good work.

During the day of the barbacue, Mr. C. L. Hill, the government representative, will conduct a demonstration of the work, and will give a talk explaining it in detail. There will also be addresses on other subjects of interest to the farmer, on soil fertility, fertilizers, rotation of crops, fish and game etc.

Everybody who is interested in this work is invited from far and near, to come and help make the day a big success.

T. U. CRUMPTON.

The Limit of Life.

The most eminent medical scientists are unanimous in the conclusion that the generally accepted limitation of human life is many years below the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed. The critical period, that determines its duration, seems to be between 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this decade cannot be too strongly urged; carelessness then being fatal to longevity. Nature's best helper after 50 is Electric Bitters, the scientific tonic medicine that revitalizes every organ of the body. Guaranteed by Upchurch Drug co. 50c.

Sardis.

Dear Editor—Please let me have space in your most valuable paper to say a few words in regard to a piece in the last issue of your paper from Stanton signed Climax. Climax says that the Stanton boys defeated our boys in a ball game there on the 10th inst. 16 to 0. Now, Climax, this is untrue. You know that the scores were 16 to 12 in favor of Stanton, and I will say also that you boys have nothing to boast of. You boys do not deserve the praise of having won the game, because it was not you that defeated our boys, but the best players of several teams. Do you remember, Climax, how our boys defeated your team here recently, scores being 26 to 1? Now, I will refrain from relating the conduct of you Stanton boys to the public, but should another lie be published, I shall tell the particulars. Now, if you boys will come to our playground for a game, we will treat you as gentlemen.

FRIEND TO SARDIS BOYS.

"Everybody Should Know"

says C. G. Hays, a prominent business man of Bluff, Mo., that Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the quickest and surest healing salve ever applied to a sore, burn or wound, or to a case of piles. I've used it and know what I'm talking about." Guaranteed by Upchurch Drug co. 50c.

KILL THE COUGH AND CURE THE LUNGS

WITH Dr. King's New Discovery

FOR COUGHS COLDS PRICE 50¢ & $1.00 Trial Bottle Free

AND ALL THROAT AND LUNG TROUBLES.

GUARANTEED SATISFACTORY OR MONEY REFUNDED.

Schloss, in Dutch, means a Castle

Schloss, in English, means Good Clothes

Krump on the Korner Got 'em

Come in and Get 'em Then Wear 'em

'Gin the Law Not to Wear 'em

A suit of 'em would meet Crichton off. Try 'em

KRUMP

ON THE KORNER

MAPLESVILLE - - ALA.

—GO TO—

A. M. JOHNSON

—MANAGER OF—

THE CASH GROCERY STORE

THORSBY, ALA.

FOR BARGAINS IN

Staple and Fancy Groceries

We make a specialty of Fresh Fish and Oysters, Fresh Pork Sausage and all kinds of Sausage, Breakfast Bacon, Boneless Ham and Chipped Beef.

—DELICATESSEN—

Pop, Soda Water and Jersey Butter always on hand.

Country Produce Bought, Sold and Exchanged.

Notice.

Real Estate, Fire, Life Insurance and Singer Machines.

I have on hand now some nice and convenient places for rent and some extra bargains in real estate. I also represent several leading fire insurance companies, and the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co.

My High Arm Singer Machine Stock is complete; Machines that sew perfect, run lighter and last longer than any other make. Remember, too, the price has been cut and you can get any terms you wish, monthly or annual payments. Also $5.00 allowance for your old machine.

Several good second hand Machines on hand at a bargain.

Needles, Bands, Cans, Attachments, and the only genuine Machine Oil made, 10 and 25¢ bottles.

I also represent the Jesse French Piano & Organ Co. When you need anything in my line, call on me at same old stand. Regular office days Friday, Saturday and Monday of each week.

C. R. MULLINS

CLANTON

TELEPHONE OR CALL AT

HEADLEY BROS.

when you are in need of

Dry Goods, Shoes, Hats and Caps

Glass, China and Tinware

WE MAKE A SPECIALTY IN OUR CANNED GOODS LINE

The Best Apples, Oranges and Fancy Candies.

ALL KINDS OF CAKES IN PACKAGES AND BULK

Anything you want to eat, from a Pea to a Barrel of Flour

PROMPT DELIVERY. BELL PHONE 18

H. HEADLEY & BRO.

Successors to A. Headley & Son

To PUBLISHERS AND PRINTERS

We Manufacture the Very Highest Grade of

Type, Brass Rule in Strips, Brass Labor Saving Rule, Brass Column Rules, Brass Circles, Brass Leaders Brass Round Corners, Brass Leads and Slugs, Brass Galleys, Metal Borders, L. S. Metal Furniture, Leads and Slugs, Metal Leaders, Spaces and Quads, 6 to 48 point, Metal Quoins, etc.

Old Column Rules refaced and made as good as new for small cost.

Please remember that we are not in any Trust or Combination and are sure that we can make it greatly to your advantage to deal with us.

A copy of our Catalogue will be cheerfully furnished on application.

PHILADELPHIA PRINTERS' SUPPLY CO.

Manufacturers of

Type and High Grade Printing Material

PROPRIETORS PENN TYPE FOUNDRY

29 North Ninth Street PHILADELPHIA

A girl is rarely deaf to a man's proposal when a diamond ring accompanies it—at least, not stone deaf.—Life.

The first telegraph line in the world was built in 1844 between Washington and Baltimore.

Buenos Ayres—An official statement estimates the population of Argentina at six million.

Baby's Share of Blame.

She had been fitted for two gowns, the total cost of which was nearly $600.

"Now," she said to the saleswoman, "I want you to do me a favor."

"Certainly," was the prompt response.

The customer colored deeply. "I want you to make out the bill partly for gowns for me and partly for baby dresses and a baby's cloak."

The saleswoman was used to the whims of fashionable women, but this was something she was a little slow in comprehending. The customer explained.

"You see," she said, "my husband is very fond of our baby, and if he sees that the bill is partly for dresses for her—well, he won't mind so much."—New York Press.

Susan B. Anthony's Nephew.

It is not often that candidates for public office, and especially for Congressional seats, are able to attain the object of their desires without opposition. Representative Burton of Ohio has made something of a record in this respect, and equally noteworthy is the case of D. R. Anthony, Jr., recently selected to represent the First Kansas district in the place of Charles Curtis, who succeeded Senator Benson in the upper house. When the Republicans nominated Mr. Anthony the Democrats of the district met and decided to name no one in opposition to him. He is a member of the well known Anthony family of Kansas, being a nephew of the late Susan B. Anthony and a son of D. R. Anthony, Sr., whom he succeeded as editor of the Leavenworth Times.—Washington Herald.

Pennsylvania's Disappearing Timber.

An idea of the rapidity with which the timber is disappearing from some sections of Pennsylvania can be obtained from the following figures, which refer to the timber cutting on the Hicks Run tract, in Clearfield county: Original size of tract, 9000 acres; timber cut the first two years, 2000 acres; still standing, 6000 acres; amount of timber cut, 50,000,000 feet; amount standing, 200,000,000 feet; daily capacity of saw mill, 200,000 feet; daily shipments, 15 carloads; amount of timber in Hicks Run yard, 6,000,000 feet; time of operation, two years; estimated time to cut standing timber, four years; number of men employed, 800 to 1000.—Philadelphia Record.

Uses of the Razor.

The history of the razor is interesting. I know a man of some understanding who swears that he shaves every morning with a clamshell. He imagines he is originality. It is a fact, however, that the hollow-ground razor was suggested by the ease with which the edge of a clamshell could be sharpened from the concave side. The razor has numerous uses. It shaves, it cuts corns, it sharpens pencils, it cuts shapes out of fine leather, it is a weapon, it is used in surgery, it slices potatoes, it peels apples, it is used to snip the ears of a puppy, it trims lampwicks, and in its old age, after being nicked from end to end, saws wood.—New York Press.

Sometimes men think a woman beautiful when they know all the time that she is homely as a mud fence.

The girl of matchless beauty is never matchless.

WHAT'S THE USE?

To Pour in Coffee When It Acts as a Vicious Enemy.

Fasters have gone without food for many days at a time, but no one can go without sleep. "For a long time I have not been sleeping well, often lying awake for two or three hours during the night, but now I sleep sound every night and wake up refreshed and vigorous," says a Calif. woman.

"Do you know why? It's because I used to drink coffee, but I finally cut it out and began using Postum. Twice since then I have drank coffee, and both times I passed a sleepless night, and so I am doubly convinced coffee caused the trouble and Postum removed it.

"My brother was in the habit of drinking coffee three times a day. He was troubled with sour stomach, and I would often notice him getting soda from the can to relieve the distress in his stomach; lately hardly a day passed without a dose of soda for relief.

"Finally he tried a cup of Postum and liked it so well he gave up coffee, and since then has been drinking Postum in its place, and says he has not once been troubled with sour stomach."

Even after this lady's experience with coffee her brother did not suspect for a time that coffee was causing his sour stomach, but easily proved it.

Coffee is not suspected in thousands of cases just like this, but it's easily proved. A ten days' trial works wonders. "There's a Reason."

Read the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

The Pulpit

A SERMON BY THE REV. IRA W. HENDERSON

Subject: The Church at Home and the Foreigner.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—Preaching on the theme, "The Church at Home and the Foreigner," at the Irving Square Presbyterian Church, Hamburg avenue and Weirfield street, the Rev. Ira Wemmell Henderson, pastor, took as his texts Ps. 96:3, "Declare His glory among the heathen, His wonders among all people," and Mark 16:15, "Preach the gospel to every creature." He said:

The foreign duty of the Church of Jesus Christ in America is most insistent. The call to the service of those who are not native to the land is mandatory. Whether we look about us or abroad we find the foreigner our mightiest problem and the satisfaction of the needs of the alien our greatest care. From many climes the multitudes have herded to our shores. Sheep they are that seek competent shepherding. They look to the land of their adoption for the best that the world holds dear. To us they come expecting a larger vision and a larger life. Their heroism is magnificent. Their hope is inspiring. Their courage should be augmented by the power of our assistance. Their faith should be justified by the character of our leadership. We have men to make; the destinies of a nation to determine. For the fate of the foreigner is the future of America. The welfare of the alien is the concern of the country.

The duty of the church of America to the foreigners is most insistent because it is her largest duty. At home they are fast out-numbering the native born in not a few localities. Abroad they are unnumbered. The foreign duty of American Christianity is largest because, therefore it is most numerous. The Christians, influential and considerable though they are, comprise a minority of the religious people of the world. A massive horde of Mohammedans and Buddhists, Confucianists and followers of a hundred sects, have yet to learn the beauty of the unrestricted truth of God as it is revealed to men, and to us, in Jesus Christ. The Jews, here and abroad, are a burden on our souls. The followers of philosophers and priests and sages over all the earth are our special field to whom in the providence and under the direction of the living Christ we must declare the glory of the one true God and the saving value of His gospel.

We shall sub-divide our duty to the foreigners, as Christians and as heathens, at home and abroad.

God has sent to our midst a multitude of Christian foreigners, men who know Christ, men who yearn to understand Him more. To these and to the Christian brethren of other lands the church of America has a duty to fulfill. And that duty is both inspirational and educational.

The church in America—both Catholic and Protestant—in spite of short-comings and in spite of her apparent sins—is the fairest flower of the universal church of Christ. Nowhere else is there more open-mindedness and less of self-complacency. To be sure, we may find much of intellectual arrogance, of spiritual narrowness, but taking it by and large the church in America, in all its branches, is the freest and most vigorous production of Christian experience, endeavor and of Christian fervor that the world has seen. The duty of that church, standing as it does at the zenith of religious progress, is to be an inspiration to the Christian churches of the earth. Since the days of Christ the world has not seen the time when to be an inspiration to humanity was a more glorious occupation or when the role of prophetic leader was more divine.

Seldom has there been an epoch readier to respond to the call of inspired leadership than is ours. Rarely has inspiration been more necessary or more certain to enter into its reward. And the church abroad needs the uplift of the example of the church at home as much as any foreign institution in the world. The Greek church is anything but a credit to Christianity. The church of Rome in the United States is the salt that savors Catholicism whenever the mass is said or sung. Much of European Protestantism needs a Luther. The duty of the American Church of Christ is to inspire the multitudes that are rushing westward to our shores to enthuse the soul of the church abroad by such an example of fidelity to Christ and of obedience to His spirit as shall make them all to feel and to know that the enduring truth of God is still invincible; that the power of the personality of the risen Jesus is still supreme.

The duty of the church of America is likewise educational. It is not enough to inspire. It is not enough to enthuse. It is not enough to kindle the fine flame of religious devotion. We must give inspiration, wisdom. We must direct enthusiasm. We must guard the flame of devotion and control its fire. Inspiration run riot spells fanaticism. Enthusiasm without direction may invite excess. The unwatched flames may cause a religious conflagration. And nowhere is undirected or misdirected enthusiasm and fervor more dangerous than in matters religious. The pages of authentic history reek with the record of the crimes of religious arrogancy and of ill-directed spiritual exaltation. Many a ghastly deed has been done in the name of the Prince of Peace. Many an intellectual and spiritual silliness has been propounded and propagated by unbridled zeal. The church in America, fragrant with the sanity and vision of the Saviour, ought to give direction and education to the aims and efforts of the church abroad.

As with the church abroad, so with the Christian foreigners who are our neighbors. To eradicate false notions and to supply new ideals; to purge the foreign mind of all that is less than noblest and to suffuse it with vitalizing and superb wisdom; to take the raw material of other nations and to fashion it into sublime temples for the abode of the Spirit of God, is the opportunity and duty of the church at home.

Not otherwise is the duty of the church at home to the heathen who are here and in the corners of the earth. The civilization that is most modern is co-terminous with the progress and the influence of Christianity.

Modern civilization as we understand that term is the product of Christian lands and of the genius of Christian peoples. To the heathen both at home and abroad modern civilization and Christianity are synonymous. To him the followers of Christ are the exemplification of modern advance. And they are. But they ought to be more. Unfortunately the church is associated in the heathen mind with the vices as well as with the virtues of latter-day civilization. We as a church at home, blessed beyond computation by the grace of God, owe it to the heathen over all the world to be such an educational and inspirational force that they shall see God in us and the salvation of the nations in the beauty of our religious self-expression. If we have an obligation laid upon us to inspire, to enthuse, to lead up and on and out the Christian hosts of God, we have at least an equal commission to do as much for those benighted souls who worship God under other than the ensign of the Cross.

But how shall we be fit to inspire, to educate, in short, to save? How may we effect the transformation of the world? How may we make actual the majestic vision of "the salvation of the world in this generation?" We can accomplish it only by being inspired, educated, saved—ourselves. Till we are these the work will remain unfinished. Till we are consecrated after this fashion the labor cannot be completed. For how can an uninspired church enthuse? Can the blind lead the blind? How can an ignorant church educate anyone in the knowledge of the deeper truths of the Kingdom of Almighty God? How can a people who have not experienced the joys of a sure salvation declare the glory of God to the heathen and declare "the gospel to every creature?" It can not be done by any save a church that is itself inspired, that is itself versed in the eternal mysteries of the truth of God, that has had the spirit of life breathed of God into its soul. By such a church it can be done.

For the world is ready to receive the truth of the simple gospel of Christ. In spite of many very inauspicious signs, the times were never readier. We are told that in China, by way of example, Dr. Robert Morrison labored from 1807 to 1834 to secure in the end but two converts to the faith of Jesus Christ. In 1840 there was but one Christian as the result of missionary effort in the midst of a multitude in China. Today there are 150,000 Chinese Christians. Of these 50,000 have come to Christ since 1900. The great awakenings in Wales and in India, in Korea and in America, in every quarter of the globe, prove that the world is ready to be inspired, ready to be led, ready to receive the truth.

The church in America may move in the van of the effort to lift the world toward God if she will. Her position is exalted. Her call is divine. Shall we lift or shall we leave the world? Christ or paganism? Which?

Only Christianity can elevate humanity to the level of the best. Only the Church of Christ can transform the heathen. The church of the living God in America may, if she will, enthuse and regenerate and educate the world. For in Christ alone is found that catholic universal message that meets the necessities of all the world. Blessed with our vision we shall be cravens if we do not bear the flag of Jesus high aloft and ahead. "Neither head-strong nor heart weary," but, in the words of Dr. Stryker, of Hamilton College, "as mediators and contributors to the only time we shall ever have to do with," let us "declare His glory among the heathen," let us "preach the gospel to every creature," let us enthuse, inspire, educate mankind. Let us be alive in Christ.

The Sure Guide.

The late Dr. Andrew A. Bonar related to me the following incident: "A man once asked me, 'Is not conscience a safer guide than the Holy Spirit?' I just took out my watch and said, 'Is not my watch better than the sun?' Suppose that I said to you, 'I will tell you the hour by my watch, and you must always take the time from me.' That is conscience. It is the sun that is to rule the time. Conscience is fallen and corrupt. If we had an unfallen conscience, like holy Adam, it would be as if my watch were always to agree with sun. But now it is a most unsafe guide. Sometimes we hear men say, 'I don't see any harm in this practice; my conscience doesn't condemn it.' It is not your conscience or your consciousness that is the rule of right and wrong; the law is the standard. By the law is the knowledge of sin; sin is the transgression of the law, not of conscience."—Home Herald.

The Bridge of Faith.

Are we not daily all through life's journey trusting ourselves to bridges whose supporting piers are away down beneath the water, believing in their strength without a doubt, wondering or complaining when by chance one of them trembles or swerves a hair's breadth in the storm? We walk the bridge of life. Can we not trust its safety on the great resting places of God's wisdom that are hid from us in the depths of the two eternities?—Phillips Brooks.

The Grace That Brings Happiness.

Let us seek the grace of a cheerful heart, and even temper, sweetness, gentleness and brightness of mind, as walking in His light, and by His grace. Let us pray to Him to give us the spirit of ever-abundant, ever-springing love, which overpowers and sweeps away the vexations of life by its own richness and strength, and which, above all things, unites us to Him who is the fountain and centre of all mercy, loving kindness and joy. —John Henry Newman.

OLD ORCHARD BEACH IS FIRE SWEPT

Sixteen Hotels and About 50 Cottages Burned at Famous Resort.

FIREMEN WERE POWERLESS

Dynamite Finally Used to Raze Building and Check the Blaze—Hundreds of Summer Visitors Homeless—Property Loss a Million.

Old Orchard, Me.—Four men were killed and property valued at almost $1,000,000 was destroyed in a fire that swept along two miles of the beach front here. For almost four hours the fire burned unchecked and threatened to destroy the entire village. The buildings destroyed include sixteen of the leading hotels, many business houses, fifty cottages and bathhouses. It was not until almost midnight that the fire was under control. Fifty acres of the heart of Old Orchard were swept clean of every hotel and cottage.

These fatalities attended the fire:

Philip Partridge, twenty-four years old, of Pittsburg, struck by a Boston and Maine train at Kennebunk and killed while on the way to the fire.

Dominick Lebreque, Portland, aged thirty-two, instantly killed by explosion of soda tank.

Philip Perrault, Biddeford, forty years old, dead at hospital from injuries sustained through tank explosion.

Hundreds of summer visitors are homeless and all their property is destroyed. There are no facilities here to feed, clothe or care for the visitors.

The fire started by the overturning of a lamp in a cottage occupied by employes of the Emerson Hotel. It spread quickly to adjoining cottages. As the water service was poor and the volunteer fire department slow, the fire rapidly swept over the beach colony.

When the Emerson Hotel broke into flames the fighters realized that the conflagration could not be handled, and assistance was asked from Saco, Biddeford and Portland, but such aid was of little use, owing to inadequate water service.

Within an hour the flames totally destroyed the Emerson Hotel, the Fiske, the Alberta and Olympic and more than seventy-five cottages. The Seashore Hotel went later. From the Olympic Hotel the fire jumped across the street, destroying the Alberta, and then turned and swept down the line and in a few minutes consumed the Hotel Fiske, one of the largest at the beach and valued at $60,000.

From the Fiske the flames swept the Emerson Hotel, valued at $75,000 and occupied by more than one hundred guests. After destroying the Alberta the fire swept down both sides of the street along the tracks of the Boston & Maine Railroad. The station was dynamited in an effort to check the flames.

The Old Orchard House of the big hotels is alone safe. Among the buildings burned besides the hotels were: Weaver's sawmill and lumber yard; Ponter & Victor's coal sheds; Thomas L. Choves' restaurant and bowling alleys; Hangan's drug store; McDonald's drug store and many stores along the boardwalk. The office of the New England Telegraph and Telephone Company, and of the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies, were destroyed.

There has been an epidemic of fires this season at the various summer resorts, and within a month three big hotels have been destroyed.

On July 30 the Long Beach Hotel was burned. There were about nine hundred guests in the hotel at the time. Less than half a score were injured, and there were no fatalities. The hotel was a mass of smouldering ruins two hours after the fire started.

Fire destroyed the Hotel Brooklyn, of Centre Moriches, Long Island, on August 14. The building was burned down and the 250 guests were glad to get out alive.

On the same day 230 guests from New York and Philadelphia were driven from the Squirrel Inn, at Haines Falls, N. Y., by one of the most sudden and dangerous fires which ever occurred in the Catskill Mountains. The entire building and all the furniture and equipments were a total loss.

AFRAID TO SELL IN TEXAS.

American Tobacco Co. Withdraws Its Headquarters and All Salesmen.

New Orleans.—As a consequence of the new Texas anti-trust law all the salesmen of the American Tobacco Company, now under prosecution by the Federal Government as a trust, have withdrawn from the State. The Texas headquarters were removed to New Orleans. Under the new law every employee of a trust is subject to criminal prosecution and the tobacco salesmen could not have worked safely in Texas.

The alleged harvester trust, which has its headquarters at Dallas, Tex., it is understood, is the next to be attacked.

Joseph Joachim, Great Violinist, Dead

Joseph Joachim, the celebrated violinist, conductor of the Royal Academy of Music, Berlin, and music director of the Royal Academy of Arts, died in Berlin. He was born of Jewish parents in 1831 in Hungary.

WONDER AT FALL IN STOCKS.

New York City.—J. S. Bache, the Wall Street banker, who returned from Europe a few days ago, said that the Old World financiers were beginning to ask whether our reports that were sent over were correct, as they steadily reported favorably on the earnings of our corporations, while the stocks steadily declined.

"This has made foreign financiers think," he said, "that there is something under the surface in Wall Street."

DEATH IN WILD AUTO RACE

McCormac Runs Car Over Bank into Tree, Killing Wife.

Accident Near Darien, Conn.—Steering With One Hand, With the Other Speeder Held Woman.

South Norwalk, Conn.—Driving at a furious pace along a rough country road near here at night, and attempting to avoid a collision with a carriage containing four persons, Paul McCormac, a wealthy resident of New York, with his wife seated at his side, sent his automobile crashing into a tree with such force that Mrs. MacCormac was instantly killed and he was fatally injured.

It was in a race toward the town of Darien with another automobile that the accident occurred. Mr. and Mrs. MacCormac were in his speedy six-cylinder runabout, which is of racing build. The other car was occupied by two men and a woman, whose identity was not learned.

Both machines were nearly "neck and neck" when, just ahead of them, a surrey, in which were two women and two men, turned into the road from a by-path. Instantly the car with which MacCormac was racing swung to the left and swept past the carriage, disappearing in a cloud of dust. MacCormac was going at such a speed that his left arm was clasped around his wife's waist to hold her to her seat, while he managed the wheel with his other hand. A collision with the carriage and the disastrous results seemed inevitable, but at the moment the surrey moved nearer the middle of the road. Thinking he could clear it on the right, MacCormac, still using only one hand, twisted the steering wheel.

Without losing a fraction of its speed, the automobile swerved violently in the direction intended, but instead of clearing the carriage it caught one of the rear wheels and tore it from the body, upsetting the vehicle and sending its passengers flying into the road. As if the impact had given it added momentum, the automobile then rushed into a bank at the side of the road and falling over on its side struck against a huge maple tree. Mrs. MacCormac was caught in her seat and pinned against the pole. Her death was instantaneous. When her body was extricated it was covered with wounds almost from head to foot, while the skull had been crushed in.

MacCormac was flung thirty feet and landed in the roadway head foremost. When aid reached him he was unconscious, and an examination showed that he had suffered a compound comminuted fracture of the left leg, the muscles had been torn from the right leg, a deep gash in the head indicated that his skull had been fractured, and there was bruises all over his body.

All the occupants of the surrey, whose injuries were comparatively slight, hurried to the wrecked automobile to offer what assistance they could. It was seen at a glance that Mrs. MacCormac was dead, and their attention was then turned to the man. While they were trying to revive him Dr. Charles B. Keeler, of New Canaan, approached in his automobile. He promptly expressed the opinion that MacCormac could not live.

Mr. MacCormac has been often fined for violating the speed laws. Many of his cars have been burned in accidents in which he was hurt. Mr. MacCormac is the son of Dr. James F. MacCormac, of Poughkeepsie, who died in 1906 leaving about $500,000 to his son.

Mrs. MacCormac was formerly the wife of Charles E. Converse, who had been a neighbor of MacCormac. Converse sued MacCormac for $100,000 damages for alienation of his wife's affections.

The wife first went to California to obtain a legal residence, with the intention of later bringing a divorce action, but in her absence her husband and the co-respondent met in a New York hotel and, according to evidence afterward sworn to in court, settled the whole matter by a payment of $7000.

Since MacCormac married the Poughkeepsie beauty he and she have been in no less than a dozen auto wrecks, ranging in territory from Maine to Missouri, and in seriousness from explosions to mutilated legs and arms.

SPIES ON PAYROLLS OF TRUSTS.

Secret Agents of Government Watching For Violations of Law.

Chicago.—Secret Service agents of the United States Department of Justice, working through the Bureau of Corporations, are said to be on the payrolls of all the big railway corporations and trust combines in the country. In Chicago alone, it is said, there are at least 150 special men who are working for railroads and for packing-house companies and are watching every move that is made with a view of ascertaining whether the Corporations laws are observed in letter and spirit.

While no proof is obtainable as to the presence of these spying employes, in several instances men who have been suspected have been removed from their position on the ground that they were in the employ of the Government as secret spies.

Working Force Reduced.

The General Electric Company, it was reported, had begun to reduce its working force owing to the money stringency.

KILLS NEIGHBOR FOR BURGLAR.

Mobile, Ala.—W. J. Patterson, Jr., son of a local publisher, was shot and mortally wounded by Fremont Thrower, the eighteen-year-old son of Judge Fremont Thrower, a friend and neighbor of Patterson. Thrower and young Patterson had answered a call for assistance from a neighbor who had been awakened by a negro burglar.

Mistaking Patterson for the burglar, Thrower fired the contents of a shotgun into Patterson's abdomen.

State News

Will Establish Kindergarten.

The Huntsville Educational ... an organization of women ... its object the education of ... white children, will presently establish a kindergarten ... in connection with the ...

Robber Failed.

An attempt was made ... business section of the ... Fortson, Ga., ten miles north ... jumbus, with the evident ... robbing the residents while ... ple were fighting the flames.

Pratt City Fire.

The Wednesday ... No. 3 coal mines ... company at Pratt ... $75,000, covered by ... fire consumed the ... and new coal washer ... pletely. No lives were ... convict camp, and a ... some time.

Going to Convention.

W. M. Peterson and ... representatives of ... Union No. 104, left Saturday ... Springs to attend the annual ... convention of the typographical ... ization. Many important matters ... to be passed on at this ... and the delegates go instructed.

Expelled From Church.

At the prayer service at ... morial church Wednesday night ... announced that former Pastor ... M. Ragan and Registrar Clem ... E. Roberts, who are charged with ... bezzling funds from the Anniston ... office, had been expelled from ... ship at a previous meeting of the ... board of deacons.

Prohibition Election.

A petition signed by nearly ... lzens of Tuscaloosa county has ... filed with the judge of probate ... for an election on the whisky ... As a result the judge has ordered ... election for or against prohibition ... set the 30th day of September as ... day on which the election is to be held.

Special Tax Paid Back.

The merchants of Madison ... who paid the special tobacco ... tax levied by the legislature at ... session, will get their money back. ... bate Judge Lawler has received ... ter from State Auditor Brandon ... fying him of the repeal of the ... directing him to send a list of ... ers who have paid it.

American Securities.

London.—American ... declined sharply at the opening ... day. Losses of a point or more ... general throughout the list. ... Pacific, Reading, Chicago ... and St. Paul and Canadian ... the downward movement. ... the market was weak and ... with prices 1-4 to 1 1-4 below ... day's New York closing.

Preventing the Waste of Water.

The city authorities of ... are putting the large ... water on the meter system, ... hope of cutting down the ... waste, and if this does not ... the result, all users of water ... meters. The pumping station ... to its full capacity every ... twenty-four, and when it stops ... water is used out of the reservoir ... less than six hours. A ... which is always regarded as ... tingency, would have most serious ... sults.

Want Railroad.

Parties from Brundidge, ... Union Springs, to interest them ... in a proposition from the Brundidge ... and St. Andrews Bay railroad, ... now under construction ... and building this way. They ... to come by Brundidge and ... Springs if the two places will ... donation of $100,000 and ... right of way. A meeting was ... the court house under the ... the Commercial and Industrial ... ciation and the chairman of ... ing was authorized to appoint ... mittee of five to solicit ...

George Fearn Named.

George Fearn, Jr., has been ... as one of the six directors ... bama in the Gulf Coast Development ... Association, which was ... ganized in Mobile and which ... doing enthusiastic and active ... for the upbuilding of the ... region. All the directors ... about filled with possibly one ... exceptions.

Jim Carson, colored, of ... keeps a little shop, his stock ... ing of the usual things ... small grocery. While passing ... Mr. L. M. Norton, an employe ... probate office; Mr. Robinson, ... graph operator, and ... his wife, who were walking ... espied a watermelon, and ... Carson. In a very brief ... eating it all of them were ... sharp pains, almost ... vulsions.

MARKET.

... Saturday.
... you like to see:
... Live in there.
... hanging up to sun—
... Rabbits, by their little feet—
... no one seemed to care.

... were Flakes out in rows
... coats, of every kind
... were Pink, and Silver, too;
... all of them were blind—
... anything you want to touch
... and make you happy, much—
... one seemed to mind.

... loudest of all a Deer
... Its eyes were blurred
... hanging by It, very near
... beautiful great Bird
... could smooth his feathers through ... him them (very softly) be—
... oh, he never stirred
... Elinor Preston Peabody in Harper's.

THE COILS OF A BOA-CONSTRICTOR

By O. P. KINGSLEY

... in the year 1900 I was ... in the south of Negros Island, ... Philippine group, at the little ... (village) of Bajanan. Here ... in the capacity of sanitary in- ... of the La Carlota Sub-District ... of Negros. The territory in- ... in my district was many miles ... apart, but owing to the fact that ... greater portion was wild, and ... peopled only by roving tribes of ..., whose haunts lay far in ... unexplored interior, my work was ... confined to the small settlements lo- ... within a radius of forty miles, ... of these being extremely dim- ... of access on account of the dense ... tropical growth and the unsettled ... conditions of the country.

I sat in my office one pleasant ... morning, contentedly smoking a ci- ... gar and contemplating with pleasure ... a short trip I had planned for the ... afternoon, a sharp rap on the door ... brought me back abruptly from my ... reverie. At my invitation a native ... entered, bearing a letter, which he ... presented upon the desk and with- ... drew. A glance at the address ... informed me that it was from the Chief ... Director of the Department. The ... contents, which I rapidly glanced ... over, directed me to proceed without ... delay to a little "barrio" called La ... Carlota, situated some thirty miles in- ... land, to investigate a reported epi- ... demic of smallpox raging in that vi- ... cinity among the natives.

... Realizing the gravity of the situa- ... tion should the report be true, I de- ... cided to start at once. I had never ... visited the place before, and was not ... aware of the exact distance or the dif- ... ficulties liable to be met with en ... route; for these reasons I was de- ... sirous of having plenty of daylight to ... travel by. Hastily collecting the ... necessary equipment, together with ... my revolvers and ammunition, I ... packed the things into my saddle- ... bags and stepped out just as the ... horses were brought up—one for my- ... self, the other for my old servant ... Pedro, who was to act as guide and ... interpreter.

... The route for several miles lay ... along a well-beaten trail, which would ... have been pleasant enough for ordi- ... nary travel had it not been for the ... intense heat of the sun. Soon, how- ... ever, we reached the Rio del Sangre, ... whose bamboos along the banks of ... which afforded a delicious shade, ... although the river-bed was practically ... dry. My guide now informed me that ... by following the channel we could ... shorten the distance by several miles, ... and I therefore turned my horse up- ... stream, glad enough to keep in the ... shade.

... As we advanced toward the inte- ... rior the scenery became more wild ... and picturesque, the vegetation rank ... and luxuriant, the trees meeting in ... many places and forming a series of ... leafy tunnels. The only sound was ... the dull thud, thud, of our horses' ... hoofs, hardly audible in the soft riv- ... er-bed, with an occasional shrill cry ... from a monkey who had discovered ... us from his leafy bower, or the lazy ... flutter of a gaily-plumed parrot as it ... changed its position.

... Advancing in single file, owing to ... the narrowness of the river-bed and ... the many obstructions that were ... constantly being met with in the form ... of roots and fallen tree-trunks, I was ... aware, some distance ahead, and, en- ... tering a space comparatively clear of ... obstructions, I spurred my mount in- ... to a gallop, as the sun was rapidly ... sinking towards the horizon and I ... was anxious to reach my destination ... before dark. Rounding a sharp bend, ... my horse, with a wild snort, plunged ... wildly, wheeling sharply to the ... right. Being unprepared for such a ... manoeuvre, I was hurled headlong ... over the saddle, striking upon my ... head and shoulder in the soft, mud- ... dy river-bed. My face was smeared ... with the filthy, ill-smelling muck, my ... back felt as though it was broken, ... my brain was in a dizzy whirl, and ... my eyes were blinded with the odor- ... ous mud.

... For a moment I did not attempt to ... move. Although I was aware of a ... serpentine movement beneath me, I sup- ... posed I had been thrown upon some ... vines, which were slowly giving way ... beneath my weight.

... Suddenly my attention was at- ... tracted by a strange hissing noise ... which sounded quite close to me, and ... which, in my dazed condition, I was ... at a loss to account for. Meanwhile, ... the movement beneath me increased ... rather than diminished. This was ... certainly unnatural, and I rolled over ... with the intention of reaching firmer ... ground, but found that my right leg ... was entangled in something. At my

...D RACE

...er Bank
...ife.

...—Steer-
...th the ...man

State News

Will Establish Kindergarten.

The Huntsville Educational ... an organization of women that ... object the education of ... white children, will probably ... establish a kindergarten there ... in connection with their night ...

Robber Failed.

An attempt was made to ... business section of the vil... Ga., ten miles north ... robbing the residences while ... were fighting the flames.

Pratt City Fire.

...Wednesday night fire ... coal mines of the Te... at Pratt City will ... covered by insurance. ... consumed the tipple, pump ... coal washer, almost ... No lives were lost, ... camp and will remain ...

Going to Convention.

W. M. Peterson and Luther ... representatives of Typog... Union No. 101, left Saturday ... Springs to attend the inter... convention of the typographical ... Many important matt... to be passed on at this con... and the delegates go instructed ...

Expelled From Church.

At the prayer service at Par... Methodist church Wednesday night ... announced that former Postm... M. Ragan and Registry Clerk ... E. Roberts, who are charged w... boodling funds from the Anniston ... office, had been expelled from ... ship at a previous meeting ... board of deacons.

Prohibition Election.

A petition signed by nearly ... citizens of Tuscaloosa county ha... filed with the judge of probate ... for an election on the whisky q... As a result the judge has orde... election for or against prohibiti... on the 20th day of September ... on which the election is ... held.

Special Tax Paid Back.

The merchants of Madison ... who paid the special tobacco ... tax levied by the legislature at ... session and repealed at the l... session will get their money back. ... Judge Lawler has received ... from State Auditor Braud... telling him of the repeal of the ... directing him to send a list of t... who have paid it.

American Securities.

London's American securiti... closed sharply at the opening ... Losses of a point or mo... general throughout the list. S... Pacific, Reading, Chicago, Mil... and St. Paul and Canadian Pac... the downward movement. A... the market was weak and u... with prices 1-4 to 1 3-4 below ... day's New York closing.

Preventing the Waste of Wate...

The city authorities of Ho... are putting the larger consu... water on the meter system, ... hope of cutting down the e... waste, and if this does not acc... the result all users of water m... meters. The pumping station ... to its full capacity every hour ... twenty-four, and when it stops ... water is used out of the reser... less than six hours. A brea... which is always regarded as ... exigency, would have most ser... results.

Want Railroad.

Parties from Brandridge w... Union Springs, to interest the ... in a proposition from the Birm... & St. Andrews Bay railroad, ... now under construction in ... and building this way. They ... Union Springs by Brandridge and ... Stories of the two places will ... location of $100,000 and sec... right of way. A meeting was ... court house under the aus... Commercial and Industria... tion and the chairman of the ... was instructed to appoint ... committee of five to solicit subscr...

George Fearn Named.

George Fearn, Jr., has been ... as one of the six directors f... ...ers in the Gulf Coast Devel... Association, which was recen... ...anized in Mobile, and which ... doing enthusiastic and active ... for the upbuilding of the entire ... region. All the directories a... about filled with possibly one ... exceptions.

Jim Carson, colored, of Ta... keeps a little shop, his stock ... ing of the usual things found ... small grocery. While passing ... Mr. L. M. Norton, an employe ... probate office; Mr. Robinson, ... graph operator, and gentlem... his wife, who were walking in ... espied a watermelon, and beck... Carson. In a very brief time ... eating it all of them were ... sharp pains, almost amounting ... vulsions.

MARKET.

...to Market yesterday. ...it is how it ... ...thing you like to see; ...thing love is there. ...ies hanging up to out— ...Rabbits by their little feet— ...no one seemed to care.

...There were Fishes out in rows ...ones of every kind; ...some were Pink and Silver, too; ...all of them were blind— ...anything or want to touch. ...and make you happy, much— ...no one seemed to mind.

...Carcass of all a Deer! ...Its eyes were blurred. ...Some of it very near, ...A great Bird ...with his feathers through, ...(very softly), too— ...never stirred!

...Edison Peabody, in Harper's.

THE COILS OF A BOA-CONSTRICTOR.

By C. F. KINGSLEY.

In the year 1900 I was sta... on the south of Negros Island, ... Philippine group, at the little ... (village) of Bayanan. Here ... in the capacity of sanitary in... of the La Carlota Sub-Dis... of Negros. The territory in... my district was many miles ... but owing to the fact that ... greater portion was wild, and ... only by roving tribes of ... whose haunts lay far in ... unexplored interior, my work was ... to the small settlements lo... within a radius of forty miles, ... of these being extremely diffi... of access on account of the dense ... growth and the unsettled ... of the country.

I sat in my office one pleasant ... contentedly smoking a ci... and contemplating with pleasure ... trip I had planned for the ... a sharp rap on the door ... back abruptly from my ... At my invitation a native ... bearing a letter, which he ... upon the desk and with... A glance at the address ... me that it was from the Chief ... of the Department. The ... which I rapidly glanced ... directed me to proceed without ... to a little "barria" called La ... situated some thirty miles in... to investigate a reported epi... of smallpox raging in that vi... among the natives.

...ing the gravity of the situa... should the report be true, I de... to start at once. I had never ... the place before, and was not ... of the exact distance or the dif... liable to be met with en... for these reasons I was de... of having plenty of daylight to ... by. Hastily collecting the ... equipment, together with ...volvers and ammunition, I ... the things into my saddle... and stepped out just as the ... were brought up—one for my... the other for my old servant ... who was to act as guide and ...ter.

...route for several miles lay ... well-beaten trail, which would ...been pleasant enough for ordi... travel had it not been for the ... heat of the sun. Soon, how... we reached the Rio del Sangre, ...bamboos along the banks of ... afforded a delicious shade, ... the river-bed was practically ... My guide now informed me that ...llowing the channel we could ... the distance by several miles. ... I therefore turned my horse up... ...m, glad enough to keep in the ...

...we advanced toward the inte... the scenery became more wild ...picturesque, the vegetation rank ...luxuriant, the trees meeting in ... places and forming a series of ... tunnels. The only sound was ...dull thud, thud, of our horses' ... hardly audible in the soft riv... ...with an occasional shrill cry ... a monkey who had discovered ...em his leafy bower, or the lazy ...e of a gaily-plumed parrot as it ...ged its position.

...dvancing in single file, owing to ...narrowness of the river-bed and ... many obstructions that were ... frequently being met with in the form ...oots and fallen tree-trunks, I was ... some distance ahead, and, en... ...g a space comparatively clear of ...ructions, I spurred my mount in... a gallop, as the sun was rapidly ...ing towards the horizon and I ... anxious to reach my destination ...re dark. Rounding a sharp bend, ...horse, with a wild snort, plunged ...ly wheeling sharply to the ...t. Being unprepared for such a ...uvre, I was hurled headlong ...r the saddle, striking upon my ...d and shoulder in the soft, mud... ...ver bed. My face was smeared ...h the filthy, ill-smelling muck, my ...d felt as though it was broken, ...y brain was in a dizzy whirl, and ...yes were blinded with the odor... ...mud.

...For a moment I did not attempt to ...ve. Although I was aware of a ...rious movement beneath me, I sup... ...d I had been thrown upon some ...ks, which were slowly giving way ...neath my weight.

...Suddenly my attention was at... ...ted by a strange hissing noise ...ich sounded quite close to me, and ...ect, in my dazed condition, I was ...d less to account for. Meanwhile, ...e movement beneath me increased ...ther than diminished. This was ...tainly unnatural, and I rolled over ...d, the intention of reaching firmer ...und, but found that my right leg ...as entangled in something. At my first movement the mysterious hissing increased until it sounded like escaping steam, and the movement beneath me became so violent as to partially raise my body from the river-bed. Dashing the mud from my eyes as best I could, I threw out my hands for some available support. My right grasped mud, but the left caught hold of a cold, slimy, wriggling body. And then the truth of my situation dawned upon me, literally freezing my blood with horror, while the most sickening sensation I have ever experienced passed over me. I lay in the folds of a great boa-constrictor!

Had I been in the best of physical condition, unarmed I should have been no match for this great reptile, and situated as I was—practically in a semi-conscious state—I must surely fall an easy victim.

The thought of my position made me frenzied. I attempted to regain my feet, but now my left leg was pinioned with my right, and, struggle as I would, I could not free them. In frantic rage I clutched the slimy coils, to fling them from me; but only to be dashed down with stunning force.

Again and again I tried to wrench myself free, but all in vain. With clenched fists I beat the great body, and endeavored to tear the creature to pieces with my nails, but the thick scales were as proof against my attack as armour-plate. Meanwhile we rolled over and over in the river-bed, as with strength born of desperation I fought the loathsome monster, which was slowly crushing the life out of me. The thought of my pistol flashed through my mind, and I felt for my holster, but it was empty; I had placed the weapon in my saddle-bags. Frantically I endeavored to tear from my body the ever-tightening folds, but, struggle as I would, it was of no avail. I was fast becoming exhausted, a dizziness seized me, and the trees and shrubs seemed to be tumbling and whirling about in wild conclusion. Suddenly my strength seemed to desert me altogether, and I ceased to struggle, while just above my face, swaying now to the right, now to the left, was the snake's head, like a pendulum of death, whose every stroke was bringing me nearer to destruction.

Strange thoughts flitted across my mind; incidents of boyhood life long since forgotten were brought vividly to memory, and I seemed to stand again in the old homestead with my friends about me, though all were strangely silent. As I watched, the scene began to melt away like a mist.

A blinding flash, accompanied by a deafening report; the rush of a dark body over me; then all was darkness. When next I opened my eyes my native guide was rapidly unwinding the now lifeless serpent from my body, while on the ground beside me lay a blood-stained dagger and a pistol, still smoking. Having freed me from the reptile, Juan brought water and proceeded to remove the worst of the filth from my person. The cold water also served to revive me, but I lay helplessly upon the soft grass while my guide recaptured my horse. This done, Juan assisted me into the saddle and supported me until a settlement was reached, where I remained at the house of a friendly native until I had recovered somewhat from the effects of encounter. My nerves, however, remained in a wretched state for months; my dreams were haunted by great dragons and hydraheaded monsters, who chased me over river and jungle. Just as they were on the point of crushing me to death I would awake with a wild yell, bathed in cold perspiration and trembling in every limb, but by degrees this wore off until I became my natural self.

Juan, good fellow that he was, secured and preserved for me the skin of the reptile which so nearly made an end of me. It measured fourteen and a half feet in length and eleven inches in circumference. In due season I had it mounted as a little souvenir of my sojourn in the Philippine Islands, and with the revolver and dagger which put an end to its career.—The Wide World Magazine.

Tests For Boiler Water.

Will you please print some simple tests for boiler water?—E. G. A.

Answer.—Test for hard or soft water: Dissolve a small piece of good soap in alcohol. Let a few drops of the solution fall into a glass of the water. If it turns milky, it is hard water; if it turns clear, it is soft water.

Test for earthy matters or alkali: Take litmus-paper dipped in vinegar, and, if on immersion the paper returns to its true shade, the water does not contain earthy matter or alkali. If a few drops of syrup be added to a water containing any earthy matter, it will turn green.

Test for carbonic acid: Take equal parts of water and clear lime water. If combined or free carbonic acid is present, a precipitate is seen, and if a few drops of muriatic acid be added, effervesence commences.

Test of magnesia: Boil the water to twentieth part of its weight, and then drop a few grains of neutral carbonate of ammonia into a glass of it and a few drops of phosphate of soda. If magnesia is present, it will fall to the bottom.

Test for iron: Boil a little nut-gall and add to the water. If it turns gray or slate-black, iron is present. Second: Dissolve a little prussiate of potash, and, if iron is present, it will turn blue.—Technical World Magazine.

The cost of living is still increasing in German cities at an alarming rate.

SAN FRANCISCO HAS THE BUBONIC PLAGUE

Marine Hospital Has Telegraphed Washington

THAT TWO FOCI DISCOVERED

One Death Has Resulted From the Dread Disease, and the Authorities Are Aroused to Their Danger—Buildings Disinfected.

Washington.—Bubonic plague has broken out in San Francisco, and already one death has resulted from it. The first intimation of the plague was received Thursday from San Francisco by the marine hospital service. The telegram read:

"Three cases and death, plague, San Francisco. Diagnosis made clinically and by stained smears from spleen and glands. No reasonable doubt as to certainty of diagnosis of cases seen and verified by Long in conjunction with health officials. Cases found within two blocks of old Chinatown."

Surgeon Austin telegraphs that two foci had been discovered; that the local board had disinfected known infected buildings and proposed to institute a campaign against it. He said deaths in the city had been verified, and that a general disinfection of suspected districts would begin.

Plague in Manchuria.

Harbin, Manchuria.—The bubonic plague has broken out in South Manchuria, and sixteen deaths have been reported. Travelers proceeding into North Manchuria are being medically examined at Kwangchingtsu.

WATER MAIN BURSTS.

Streets of Chicago Are Flooded in Places Many Feet Deep.

Chicago, Ill.—The bursting of a 36-inch water main at Chicago avenue and Ingsbury avenue imperiled several lives and caused considerable damage to property. The main burst with a roar that brought frightened sleepers from their beds for blocks around.

The accident happened directly in front of the Stockholm Hotel, causing a panic among the 500 guests. A hurried call to the police station brought a wagon load of policemen to the scene, who rushed into the hotel and carried out the women and children to a place of safety.

The yards in that section of the city are four and five feet below the level of the street, and it was only a few minutes until they were completely inundated. The water quickly flooded the basements for two blocks east and west, and a number of families living in basements had to be rescued from drowning.

HAS TWO-CENT FARE.

Turner Law Goes Into Effect in Wisconsin.

Madison, Wis.—The passenger business of the Wisconsin railroads will be conducted on a 2-cent fare basis after midnight Friday, when the Turner law, enacted at the recent session of the legislature, comes into operation.

The law applies to all railroads of the state whose gross receipts equal or exceed $3,500 per mile per annum. It affects eleven roads, but only nine of them are passenger carrying lines. The nine are the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul; Chicago and Northwestern; Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha; Chicago, Burlington and Quincy; Wisconsin Central; Minneapolis, St. Paul and Saut Ste. Marie; Northern Pacific; Kewaunee, Green Bay and Western; Drummond and Southeastern.

GUN EXPLODE...

Terrible Accident in Which a Young Woman is Killed.

Selmer, Tenn.—Miss Delia Meek, young daughter of Squire W. F. Meek, near Adamsville, was killed by the accidental discharge of a shotgun. She was engaged in sweeping a room, when in some way the broom knocked the gun down, the hammer striking the bed. Then entire load entered the stomach. The young lady was just preparing to teach school.

Pinkerton is Dead.

New York.—Robert A. Pinkerton, head of the Pinkerton detective agency, died August 12 on board the steamer Bremen while on his way to Europe for his health. Florence Sullivan, of New York, was with him.

I. T. U. Convention.

Hot Springs, Ark.—The International Typographical Union voted to hold its next annual session in Boston.

Sonoma Girl Sold.

New York.—A dispatch from Boston reports that the phenomenal trotter, Sonoma Girl, has been sold to Miss Lotta Crabtree, the former actress, for $30,000.

Violent Earthquake.

Laibach.—A violent earthquake was recorded in the observatory here Saturday night, lasting fifty minutes. It is calculated the earthquake was distant 5,000 miles.

STEALAGE DOES NOT PAY.

Vault Clerk Since 1864 Held for $3,000 Larceny.

Boston, Mass.—When John Warren Hastings, a vault clerk at the subtreasury since 1864, returned home from a vacation and appeared for work, he was placed under arrest by United States Deputy Marshal Ruhl on the charge of larceny of $3,000 of mutilated money from a package of $105,000 which had been prepared for shipment to Washington on June 7.

Hastings all but collapsed when arrested.

The package of $105,000 from which the $3,000 was taken had seven seals on it, while the paper that bound the bills was stuck with mucilage. When the bills arrived at Washington the package was intact with seals unbroken. A girl clerk, after counting the money and finding it short, reported the matter.

DROP TO BOTTOM OF MINE.

Elevator Accident at Sonman, Pa., Causes Deaths.

Pittsburg, Pa.—Owing to what is said to have been a defect in the machinery, a cage containing eight miners who were preparing to descend to their work in a mine of the Sonman Shaft Coal Company, at Sonman, Pa., started upward instead of going down, and, rising to the top of the tipple, turned over, throwing the men out. Five of them dropped 400 feet to the bottom of the shaft, and were killed. The others succeeded in catching hold of the tipple, and escaped with slight injuries.

MILK FAMINE NOW ON.

Parched Fields Give No Sustenance to the Cattle.

New York.—This city is facing a milk famine. Efforts are being made to keep a supply until after hot weather, as thousands of infants are sick and depend on milk exclusively for their existence.

The condition results from a long drought. The fields are parched, and cattle have little feed. The Rensalaer Milkmen's Association will meet soon to consider the raising of prices. The New York Exchange has raised the price of milk ten cents.

PARENTS LEAVE.

Flee With Children From the Spotted Fever Plague.

Ridgeway, Pa.—Fleeing with their children from a plague which has already claimed 75 little victims, hundreds of residents of this place are leaving until the doctors decide as to the true character of the malady. The disease attacks only children.

The symptoms in some details resemble those of spotted fever, but the disease does not respond to the treatment given in such cases. Already there have been four fatalities. Of the 4,000 inhabitants, 800 have left town.

WOMAN LEAPS IN SEA.

Leaking Gasoline Sets a Launch on Fire.

Norfolk, Va.—One dead and one dying are the reported casualties of an accident on the launch Edna May.

Leaking gasoline generated vapor, which exploded, setting the hull afire. Cora Midgett, covered with blazing gasoline, jumped overboard. Others failed to notice her until he was far astern. She sank before the eyes of Edward Smith, a deck hand, who was probably fatally burned trying to put out the fire. A negro in a sail boat ran alongside the launch and took off others.

The launch burned to the water's edge and sank.

Japs Lynch Russian.

Tokio.—Pleading pitifully in the hands of an enraged mob, a Russian spy, whose name is said to have been Maeda, met a terrible death here. The spy was discovered in an investigation extending over a period of several days. He was being taken to prison when a mob suddenly pounced upon him, tearing him away from the men who had him in charge. He was trampled upon by scores of feet and torn to pieces. His limbs were severed from his body and his eye gouged out. His plea for mercy was unheeded. His mangled remains were left in the street.

Boycott on Restaurant.

Chattanooga, Tenn.—A peculiar feature of the strike of telegraph operators at Chattanooga is a boycott of a restaurant by union men. The night chief of the Western Union, who failed to go out with the rest of the men, conducts a large restaurant on Eleventh street, which draws much of its patronage from laboring men. The strikers are doing their utmost to cut down the restaurant's trade.

Socialist Congress.

Stuttgart.—The international socialist congress opened here with over 900 delegates, representing twenty-five nationalities, present.

Cole Younger's Sister Dead.

Kansas City.—Mrs. Emma Leach, sister of Cole and Bob Younger, former members of the famous James bandits, died here as the result of injuries received in a street car accident.

SECRETARY TAFT WILL CIRCLE THE WORLD

Will Stop at Prominent Places and Speak

LOUISVILLE, KY., WILL ONE

Odiean Will Visit the Philippines, but Will Stop First to Make a Speech to the Republican Club at Columbus.

Washington, D. C.—On a pilgrimage that will encircle the globe and fulfill a promise to the Filipinos to return to Manila to attend the opening of their first legal assembly, Secretary of War Taft left here Monday on the first stage of the journey. W. W. Michler, of Mr. Taft's office and an attendant, accompanied the secretary.

Mrs. Taft and son, Charles, will join the secretary in the Yellowstone Park for the remainder of the trip, and Fred W. Carpenter, secretary to Mr Taft, will join the party at Seattle.

The first stop is Columbus, O., where he will deliver a notable speech before the Buckeye Republican Club. Mr. Taft said that he did not feel exactly as if he were going to make a trip around the world, because he had so much to do. The ocean part of his trip would afford him practically the only opportunity for rest during the journey. He had nothing to say regarding what he hoped to accomplish on this trip. Mr. Taft expects to return early in December.

COUNTRY OF CASTRO INVADED.

British Force Goes Into Venezuela to Seize Gum.

Georgetown, British Guiana.—Much excitement has been caused here by the invasion of Venezuelan territory by Captain Calder, in the command of a small frontier force from British Guinea, and the seizure of a quantity of balata (the gum of the bullet tree) used for insulating wires, etc. which, it is alleged, had been collected on British territory.

Captain Calder's force went down the Barima river and crossed the boundary into Venezuelan territory, where Captain Calder, at the point of a revolver, demanded that the Venezuelan commissioner surrender to him 4000 pounds of balata. The commissioner gave up the gum. He has made a protest however to President Castro and the British consul here against the seizure of the balata and the invasion of Venezuelan territory. Fears are felt of retaliation at Moraw Hanna, the British frontier headquarters. There has been trouble over the balata trade for some time, and the British officials have made strong attempts to prevent illicit trading in the gum.

CHECK MORMONISM.

The Situation Is Alarming to Senator Dubois.

Aurora, Ill.—Senator Dubois, of Idaho, addressed 3,000 persons on the probability of the spreading of Mormon political power to all parts of the United States. He urged his hearers to use their influence with congressmen to prevent the continuance of polygamous marriages, which he said were still made among Mormons.

"The Mormons absolutely control Utah now politically, and a United States senator, governor or congressman cannot be elected in Idaho or Wyoming against the wishes of the Mormon church. They are a great balance of power in Oregon and will soon control the senators in that state. They are beginning to be very powerful in Nevada. Unless checked they will become the balance of power in the senate of the United States."

Homes Aboard Battleships.

Washington, D. C.—Admiral Brownson, chief of the navigation bureau, Saturday issued invitations to a large number of naval and army officers to make their homes aboard the big battleships of the Atlantic fleet for the two weeks beginning August 25 to observe personally the workings of a naval fleet in full battle practice. The idea is a new one, and Admiral Brownson hopes for the best results in interesting officers, not only of the army, but also those of the navy who have nothing directly to do with the fleet in the working out of practical battleship problems.

Motor Boat Explodes.

Tiverton, R. I.—A gasoline tank in a motor boat in the Seaconnet river exploded, causing the death of two persons and seriously injured five others. The boat contained fourteen young people who had been on a trip to Newport from Fall River and had stopped at Tiverton on their return. George Antuya and Lydia Mercier were killed, and the injured are all suffering from severe burns.

Sonoma Girl Sold.

New York.—A dispatch from Boston reports that the phenomenal trotter, Sonoma Girl, has been sold to Miss Lotta Crabtree, the former actress, for $30,000.

Violent Earthquake.

Laibach.—A violent earthquake was recorded in the observatory here Saturday night, lasting fifty minutes. It is calculated the earthquake was distant 5,000 miles.

STEEL PLANT BURNS.

Two Others Fires—One in New York, the Other in St. Louis.

Cumberland, Md.—The plant of the Cumberland Steel Company was totally destroyed by fire of unknown origin. The loss is estimated at $150,000, with insurance of $100,000. The plant produced accurate steel castings and is said to have been the only one of the kind in the world.

Fire in St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo.—The plant of the St. Louis Hide and Tallow Company, Second and Talcott streets, was destroyed. The loss is estimated at $50,000. Crossed electric wires started the fire.

Fire in New York.

New York.—Fire cost one life and wrecked a five-story tenement house in East Thirty-third street, while firemen made heroic rescues. They carried fifty persons half suffocated by the smoke from the fire escapes. On the third floor an elderly woman was burned to death.

WANT A RECEIVER.

Asked for One for a Million Dollar Shirt Factory.

Utica, N. Y.—Application was made before United States Circuit Judge Day at Norwich Saturday for the appointment of a receiver for Curtiss, Leggett & Co. manufacturers of shirts and collars and cuffs of Troy. A petition was filed by three Troy creditors, who allege that the firm is insolvent. The liabilities are placed at $1,100,000, while the assets are said to be nominally $2,000,000. The company was formed several years ago by the consolidation of other companies. It is said that the stringency of the money market has cramped the company. It is not expected that there will be objection to the proceedings, and a receiver will be appointed who will continue the business until the concern may be reorganized and put on a stronger basis. The company employs about 1,400 operatives.

HE CERTAINLY WAS.

"Please Lock Me Up, for I'm Crazy as a Loon."

Hattiesburg, Miss.—"Please lock me up in the county jail, I'm crazy as a loon," was the demand made of Sheriff J. C. Magruder by a well-dressed stranger who entered his office. The man said his name was John Forrester and that he came from Trenton, Ga. He has no knowledge of how he got to Hattiesburg, for he last remembers being at Chattanooga. That was several days ago, he thinks. The sheriff was inclined to think the stranger was troubled with alcoholic dementia, but at any rate he accommodated him with a cell in the county jail, and has wired to the officers at Trenton for information about the young man.

SOUTH TO BE REPUBLICAN.

The Interests of This Section Would Thereby Be Advanced.

Louisville, Ky.—A special from Washington says:

Secretary Taft will have something interesting to say in his speech at Lexington, Ky., next Thursday. He will discuss some of the questions embraced in his Columbus speech, but will also touch upon an entirely new subject. It is his intention to exhort southern democrats to come into the republican fold. He will point how, according to his view, the democrats of that section are in many essential respects republicans except in name and endeavor to convince them that it would be to the advantage of the southland if they become republicans in fact.

DESIRED BY ALL IMPORTERS.

Court Ruling on German Tariff Agreement Will Be Sought.

New York.—The German tariff agreement, it is now probable, will be taken into the courts for a judicial decision as to its validity. This action is likely as the result of a decision by the general appraisers here sustaining the advanced value on an importation of chocolate from Germany. Their decision was based on and followed the decision of the supreme court of the United States in the Passavant case.

It is understood the importers will appeal on the strength of the German tariff pact, a proceedings that is desired by all importers, as they wish to obtain a judicial ruling.

The Whipping Post Will Go.

Wilmington, Del.—A. B. Meserve, warden of the Newcastle county workhouse, near here, has resigned because, it is stated, he disapproves of the Delaware whipping post. Coming in the wake of almost general condemnation of the whipping post, the attitude of Meserve will probably result in the abolition of lashing. The whipping post has been a Delaware institution for more than a century.

Socialist Congress.

Stuttgart.—The international socialist congress opened here with over 900 delegates, representing twenty-five nationalities, present.

Cole Younger's Sister Dead.

Kansas City.—Mrs. Emma Leach, sister of Cole and Bob Younger, former members of the famous James bandits, died here as the result of injuries received in a street car accident.

SUMMER CLEARING SALE

On account of the weather having been so bad for the last sixty days, and the farmers being so badly disheartened at the prospects of the crops, it has had a bad effect upon trade, and in order to clear out our surplus Spring and Summer Goods we are offering them at greatly reduced prices.

Our Mr. Kanter wishes to clear them all off before he goes East to purchase the New Fall and Winter Stock.

Ladies' Hats:

Of the latest fashion will be sold out regardless of cost.

Dress Goods:

Lawns and organdies, must be cleared out at a very low figure.

Shoes:

Ladies Oxfords, very stylish, to go at sacrificial prices.

Clothing:

An extra fine line of Men's Complete Suits and Pants Also a well selected lot of Shirts.

Come and inspect these goods, it is well worth your time. Very respectfully,

W. KANTER & BRO,

CLANTON - - - - - ALA.

Health is More Than Wealth

Use BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT

KING OF THEM ALL AND

you will always have good health. What is more to a man than good health? All the money in the world can't make happiness where health is unknown. Ballard's Snow Liniment CURES Rheumatism, Cuts, Burns, Sprains, Neuralgia, Sores, Stiff Joints, Contracted Muscles, Lame Back and all the ills that Flesh is Heir to.

One Who Knows.

J. G. Scott, Salt Lake City, Utah, writes: "I cannot too highly praise your Ballard's Snow Liniment for the relief of neuralgia rheumatism, caused by sudden change and exposure to the weather. I also recommend your Ballard's Horehound Syrup for coughs and colds. These used together defy all pain.

GET THE GENUINE. Three Sizes 25c, 50c, $1.00

Ballard Snow Liniment Co.

500-502 North Second Street,

ST. LOUIS, - MISSOURI.

Sold and Recommended by

UPCHURCH DRUG CO., CLANTON.

Mullins Hill.

Dear Editor—Will you allow me a small space in your most valuable paper as I have not heard from Mullins Hill since old Tige and the Two Friends died? At present the health of this community is good.

Mr. P. W. Davenport has about got his new house completed, and oh my, those wedding bells, wedding bells, isn't it strange how old Cupid can play his part after awhile, but I think he is true well, for Miss Lela is a fine girl. Hurrah for the bachelors!

Our farmers are busy pulling fodder when they are not sitting in the sun eating watermelons. But I can't blame them, as the sun shines with great force. We are needing rain now to cool the atmosphere and bring late corn.

Well, the bride and groom have bade us adieu and we wish them a long and happy life. And I thought the saying was true, after a storm always a calm, but not so with us. Some are telling tales and some are mad and some glad, and oh my, what an uproar! I hope that some good Samaritan will come through our settlement and leave an everlasting impression on the wicked-ness of tale-telling. It is enough to shock the modesty of a dog to see how some of our sisters are doing. Instead of loving and upholding one another, they are doing all they can against each other. Sisters, let's stop it, it's just as easy to leave off a heap of things we say as it is to say and far better for us.

AN OLD MAN.

Jasper, Ala., Aug. 19, 1907

Editor Banner—Will you please allow me space in your paper to say a few words about this little Manchester station. It has about 100 houses, inhabitants about 300; has one large saw mill and another almost completed. This station is about six miles from Jasper, the county seat of Walker county. Jasper is a beautiful place. Manchester is only a small place now, but is improving fast, is situated on Blackwater creek. I arrived here August 13th, have been enjoying myself fine since. Several others and myself took a pleasant trip out to Jasper last week.

Sunday eve was enjoyed much by Miss Ada Putrick and her brothers and several others of our friends at the Mineral springs. We had plenty of good lemonade to drink. I had better close for fear of waste basket. Best wishes to the Banner. BLUE EYES.

Endorsed by the County.

"The most popular remedy in Otsego county, and the best friend of my family," writes Wm. M. Dietz, editor and publisher of the Otsego Journal, Gilbertsville, N. Y., "is Dr. King's New Discovery. It has proved to be an infallable cure for coughs and colds, making short work of the worst of them. We always keep a bottle in the house. I believe it to be the most valuable prescription known for Lung and throat diseases." Guaranteed to never disappoint the taker by Upchurch Drug co. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Sardis

The health of our community is good at present.

Our Sunday school has gone down to some extent because of the fact we have been tending to other people's business too much, going to dinners and protracted meetings, but I hope that each one of us will remember the saying: "Charity begins at home." Now, let us all go to Sunday school next Sunday and see if we can't get things back like they once were

And a word to you who have been running away and getting married. Don't you quit the Sunday school because you are married; we need your aid and assistance as bad or worse than ever. The word in this community is who will be next to run away. I don't like this run away business, for when they run away, some of us don't get an invitation, and we don't like that, for we all like to go to weddings; so I hope to have an invitation to the next one.

We have recently closed a glorious meeting at this place, with sixteen additions to the church, eleven by baptism.

I will close with best wishes to all.

A READER

HAD AN AWFUL TIME

But Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Cured Him.

It is with pleasure that I give you this unsolicited testimonial. About a year ago when I had a severe case of measles I got caught out in a hard rain and the measles settled in my stomach and bowels. I had an awful time and had it not been for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I could not have possibly lived but a few hours longer, but thanks to this remedy I am now strong and well. I have written the above through simple gratitude and I shall always speak a good word for this remedy.—SAM H. GWIN, Concord, Ga. For sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Walnut Creek.

Dear Editor—Will you allow me a small space in your paper to say a few words in regard to our meeting at Walnut.

The Devil said that we could not have a meeting of success, but it pleased God to give us victory in every service, and we only had four accessions to the church, but the church was wonderfully revived by the Holy Spirit of God, and we, as a church and people, give God all the glory for it.

The preacher being absent from the 11 o'clock service Sunday morning it was conducted by Rev. H. C. Johnson, using the 3rd chapter of John, 1-21 verses, and the preacher in charge did the balance of the preaching through the meeting.

The meeting closed Wednesday night. His text being 14-15 verses of same chapter that Bro. Johnson preached from Sunday.

Song services were conducted by Bro. J. R. Robinson, who was assisted by the church and other good Baptist brothers and sisters.

The prayer services were conducted by Bro. H. C. Johnson and others as they would

We give God the praise for the plan of salvation. TWO FRIENDS.

Remedy for Diarrhoea. Never Known to Fail

I want to say a few words for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I have used this preparation in my family for the past five years and have recommended it to a number of people in York county and have never known it to fail to effect a cure in any instance. I feel that I cannot say too much for the best remedy of the kind in the world."—S. JEMISON, Spring Grove, York County, Pa. This remedy is for sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.

List of Letters remaining uncalled for in Clanton, Ala., postoffice, for week ending Aug. 17, 1907. Persons calling for same will please say "advertised" and give date. One cent must be paid on each letter.

GENTLEMEN'S LIST.

J. W. Cooper, Jas, O. Roberts, J. O. Robertson, Henry Warn, C. P. Edwards, W. H. Mims.

LADIES' LIST.

Miss Deame Edwards.

These letters will be sent to the dead Letter office, Aug. 31, 1907, if not delivered before.

F. O. DUDLEY, Postmaster.

Don't be Stue.

and lose all interest when help is within reach. Herbine will make that liver perform its duties properly. J. B. Vaughn, Elba, Ala., writes: "Being a constant sufferer from constipation and a disordered liver, I have found Herbine to be the best medicine for these troubles on the market. I have used it constantly. I believe it to be the best medicine of its kind, and I wish all sufferers of these troubles tho know the good Herbine has done me." Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

MY VISIT TO RUSHTON.

Editor Banner—Will you please allow me space in the columns of your paper to say something about my recent visit to Rushton.

I left home on the morning of Aug. 9th, going by the way of Clanton and Cooper station, meeting many of my old friends and having quite a pleasant chat with them. I arrived at Shady Grove M. E. P. church at 4 p.m., just as the congregation was dispersing from Bro. Barnett's 3rd quarterly conference and quite a number I saw had attended his conference. I spent Saturday night and Sunday with Miss Janie Oden and Newton Cooper, going back to church at Shady Grove Sunday. I arrived at the church in time for Sunday school and I found the Sunday school small but interesting, ably superintended by Bro. Joseph Mims, a young man but a zealous worker in the cause of Christ. At 11 a.m. Bro. Barnett preached an able and interesting sermon to an attentive audience from the text "Go, and do thou likewise," latter clause of 37th verse of the 10th chapter of St. Luke, preceded by the verses commencing with the 30th, a very important subject. After preaching I returned and spent Sunday eve and night with Miss Janie Oden and Newton Cooper again.

Monday morning our party started for Rushton, down the Cooper & Rushton Rail Road. The party consisted of Miss Janie Oden, Miss Katie Patillo, Newton Cooper, Dr. J. B. Barbour and myself. I found eleven trestles on the road from Newton Cooper's to Rushton, which is only one mile and a half, and these trestles were all crossing one stream (Blue Creek). My head was a little giddy but I made it all safe. Arriving at Rushton we met the genial Mr. Parson, a member of the Parson Lumber Co., who now owns the entire plant. He is a very busy man, looking after the many complications of the vast machinery, but never too busy to meet his friends with a smile and treat them nice and kind. After looking around the mill and meeting S. Robinson, the expert log man and having a chat with him and looking at the Company's gasoline boats anchored upon the Coosa river, we took our positions upon the bank of the river. The cool breeze from off the water and no sun shining was a very pleasant we sat there and watched the logs come down the river float up against the boom and be drawn up by machinery out of the river and thrown over into the pond. The scenery was very interesting.

At noon we went up and took dinner at the Byrd boarding house. There we saw a remarkable smart little girl, only three years old; her name was Lois Wallis.

At 4 p.m. Mr. Parson kindly placed a small car in front of his engine for our comfort to keep the sparks dust and smut from falling on us as we returned. The day was a pleasant one. The Parson Lumber Company seems to be putting new life in everything about their works and we predict for them a prosperous business.

The crops along where I traveled are good; corn already made and cotton fine and promising. I called by Cooper on my return, Wednesday, to see my friend, Cooley Eiland and I found him and my friend H. A. Harris doing a prosperous mercantile business.

With best wishes to all I will close.

A. C. MIMS.

Bowel Trouble

is a sure sign that your digestive organs are overworked—too heavily burdened—in a state of rebellion. It is a serious condition, and if neglected will result in complications of the gravest character.

Death not infrequently ensues as the penalty for thinking that the trouble will correct itself and disappear unassisted.

Don't neglect this condition—don't invite disaster by delay, but go to the nearest druggist and buy a bottle of

Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin

It is the safest, quickest-acting and most effective remedy in the world for all bowel and stomach troubles—pleasant, powerful, and penetrating.

It reaches the seat of the trouble and instantly corrects it.

The confined gases are released, fermentation is stopped and the affected locality soothed and strengthened.

DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN can be obtained in both dollar and half-dollar sizes at all druggists.

Your money will be refunded if it does not benefit you.

Your postal card request will bring by return mail our new booklet, "DR. CALDWELL'S BOOK OF WONDERS" and free sample to those who have never tried this wonderful remedy. Mail your postal today.

PEPSIN SYRUP CO.

Monticello, Illinois

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

TIPTON MULLINS
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
Clanton - - Ala.

WILLIAM M. ADAMS
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
Practice in all Courts. Long time loans negotiated on improved farm lands.
Office Room 1, Court House.
Clanton - - Ala.

ROBERT H. KNOX
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
Clanton - - Ala.
Will practice in all the State and Federal Courts of Alabama.

DR. J. EARL GOWAN
DENTIST
Office Bisbee Building.
CLANTON, ALA.

DR. P. I HOPKINS
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON
EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROAT
Office Hours 9 to 12 a.m.
CLANTON

Warranty deeds and Mortgage blanks, Waive Notes and Receipt Books on sale at the Banner office

DeWITT'S Exhibited Successfully WITCH HAZEL SALVE For Piles, Burns, Sores.

RHEUMATISM

When pains or aches in any part of the body, like of Ballard's Snow prompt relief. [illegible] Prop. Sullivan House, [illegible] writes June 6, 1903, pleasure to recommend Snow Liniment to all who ed with rheumatism. It remedy that I have found immediate relief. 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

It's easy to be good if you know what fun is.

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, headache, constipation, general debility, sour risings, all of the stomach are all due to Kodol cures indigestion. This ury represents the natural juices as they exist in a healthy combined with the greatest and reconstructive properties. pepsin Cure does not only cure and dyspepsia, but this tonic cures all stomach troubles by purifying, sweetening and the mucous membranes lining the Mr. S. S. Rice, of Ravenswood, W. Va., writes: "I was troubled with sour stomach for Kodol cured me and we are now using it in our family." Kodol Digests What You Eat. Bottles only. $1.00 Size holding 2½ times as much, which sells for 50 cents. Prepared by E. O. DeWITT & CO., Chicago.

Upchurch Drug Co.

STATE NORMAL SCHOOL

JACKSONVILLE, ALA.

A SCHOOL FOR TEACHERS

Enrollment last session 581, of whom 400 were teachers from 55 counties of Alabama. Prepares for State examination.

All expenses low. Tuition free. Board $12 per month. High and healthful location. Graduates in demand.

Twenty-fifth annual session begins Sept. 1907. For catalog address

C. W. DAUGETTE, President.

Alabama Girls' Industrial School

THOMAS WAVERLY PALMER, A. M., L. L. D., President

MONTEVALLO, ALA.

Session Begins Wednesday, September 12, 1907

Location high and healthful. Strong Academic, Professional, Technical Courses. Faculty of thirty teachers. Total expenses [illegible]

For catalogue or other information address

J. ALEX MOORE, Chairman of Faculty

ENGINES AND BOILERS

Complete assortment of sizes 10 h. p. to 125 h. p. in stock for immediate delivery.

Save money by writing direct to the manufacturers.

R. D. COLE MFG. CO.

64 YEARS IN BUSINESS

NEWNAN, GA.

Also Corn Mills, Saw Mills, Tanks and Towers

Branch: 316 Empire Bldg., Atlanta

The Money to Be Saved

by buying your drugs and whiskies from a house like the Collier Drug Co. will be a pleasant surprise to you. We are the largest cut-rate druggists in this section of the State, and can save you many pennies by giving us your business.

Read our prices and put your dollars where you will receive greatest possible value.

WHISKIES

	Regular Price	Our Price
Shade Mountain Corn (full quart)	1.00	.85
Old Oscar Pepper, bottled in bond	1.50	1.25
Murray Hill Club	1.50	1.25
J. Martin Rye	1.25	1.00
Atherton Rye	1.50	1.25
Duffy's Pure Malt	1.00	.85
California Sherry	1.00	.85
Old Lincoln County	1.00	.85
Private Stock	1.00	.85
Virginia Pure Apple Brandy	.85	.75
Richmond Club	1.00	.85
Old Holland Gin	.75	.65
Wilson	1.25	1.00
Green River	1.25	1.00
I. W. Harper	1.00	.85
Dan Patch	.35	.25
Paul Jones Four Star	1.25	1.00
Old Prentice	1.00	.85

Our package and express department is complete in every respect and all mail orders get prompt and careful attention the day of receipt. Your patronage will be appreciated.

COLLIER DRUG CO.

109-111 NORTH 20th St.

BIRMINGHAM - - ALA.

VOL. XV

THE MAN ON THE CORNER

...of the Sights He Saw, and Some He Saw Not.

That promises to be a right interesting meeting at Maplesville next Thursday, and I anticipate one of the biggest crowds there that has been seen in Chilton for some time; I will be by the way, I expect to be one of the crowd too, if nothing inter... The Maplesvillians have made extraordinary provisions for a barbecue, so there is no fear of starvation, and the lessons to be learned are of great practical value, and the experiments very interesting. Creosoting, on a large scale, has a pungent odor, that makes it to be felt, but I reckon on a small scale it may prove attractive. I would like to see all of West Chilton, most of East Chilton, and a goodly number from every direction at Maplesville next Thursday.

Work has been commenced on the new Farmers' warehouse at Clanton. It is located on the east side of the bridge over the railroad, and will be pushed to completion. Mr. A. Conville has the contract for its erection.

An extension of the store occupied by Broadhead & Son is being made by Mr. J. W. Edwards, the owner of the building. The new store for Judge Reynolds is completed and C. W. Reynolds is putting in a stock of goods, which among the occupants of the upper story is to be found T. C. Marcus, real estate agent.

There is so much building going on it is a hard matter to keep up with it, but it is a conservative estimate to say that the census of 1910 will show a population of at least 1500. Let 'er grow!

Mr. C. S. Waldrop, special agent of the U. S. Department of Agriculture will make an address to the farmers on various interesting subjects, at the court house today (Thursday).

DEATH OF Dr. PARNELL.

The ways of the Lord cannot always be understood by men. Sometimes when a man of thirty-five summers has so suddenly been snatched from us by the cold hand of death, who was so useful as a physician and so much needed by a wife and two little children, it seemed at first to be a mistake. But we read in the Book of books, that the Lord doeth all things well, and we submit it all to Him, that His will may be done.

One of the greatest shocks experienced by the people of Searight, Ala., was caused by the death of Dr. Parnell, who died after three days illness Aug. 11, 1907. His wife and children were in Tennessee visiting relatives whom they had not seen for quite awhile. She received a telegram from her husband stating that he was sick. She was anxiously on her way home to be with him her attention when she met the unawared corpse at Montgomery, associated by some friends, taking its last resting place, here below, in the bosom of mother earth at Stanton, Ala.

The Doctor has resided in our town upwards of four years. His friends are many and his practice has steadily grown. He has been a practicing physician for eight years and has proved himself very successful. We join in extending to Mrs. Parnell words of sorrow, and wish that we could speak words of consolation. It surely is heartrending to meet with such unexpected sadness as to lose the dearest one on earth in her absence while off to spend a few days with relatives.

Be ye also ready for you know not the day nor the hour that the Son of man cometh."

Mrs. Parnell will return soon with her sister and children and may remain here this year. The Doctor was a member of the Baptist church.

"And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, write, blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: yea, saith the spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them." A FRIEND.

MULLINS
-AT-LAW
- Ala.

M. ADAMS
-AT-LAW
Long time loans
- Ala.

H. KNOX
-AT-LAW
- Ala.

L GOWAN
TIST
N. ALA.

OPKINS
D SURGEON AND THROAT
CLANTON

and Mortgage es and Receipt Banner office

WITCH HAZEL
les, Burns, Sores.

TE NORMAL SCHOOL
JACKSONVILLE, ALA.
CHOOL FOR TEACHERS
ast session 581, of whom rom 55 counties of Alabama,
s for State examination.
low. Tuition free. Board
th. High and healthful locat Graduates in demand.
annual session begins Sep
07. For catalog address
C. W. DAUGETTE, Presid

Girls' Industrial Sc
VERLY PALMER, A. M., L. L. D., P
MONTEVALLO, ALA.
gins Wednesday, September 12, 1
l healthful. Strong Academic, Profes Faculty of thirty teachers. Total expens or other information address
J. ALEX MOORE, Chairman of F

ENGINE AND BOILE
Complete assortment of 10 h. p. to 125 h. p. in immediate delivery.
Save money by writing the manufacturers.
R D. COLE MFG.
54 YEARS IN BUSINESS
NEWNAN, G
Also Corn Mills, Saw
Tanks and Tow
Branch: 316 Empire Bldg.

Money to Be Saved
your drugs and whiskies
ke the Collier Drug Co. will urprise to you. We are the e drug ists in this section o can save you many pennie
your business.
ur prices and put your dollars w ceive greatest possible value.
WHISKIES
Regular Price
Corn (full quart)... 1.00
r, bottled in bond... 1.50 b... 1.25
... 1.50
it... 1.00
ry... 1.00 nty... 1.00
pple Brandy... 1.00
... 1.25
... 1.25
... 1.00
... 1.00
Star... 1.25
... 1.50
age and express department is complete l mail orders get prompt and careful
Your patronage will be appreciated.
OLLIER DRUG CO.
109-111 NORTH 20th St.
GHAM -

When pain or any part of the body, of Hollard's
prompt relief.
Prop, Sullivan
I. writes June 6, pleasure in recommending Snow Liniment to all ed with rheumatism.
remedy that I have immediate relief."
$1.00. Sold by Up
Clanton; A. Horn, T

The way of the often a puzzle to the

Sour Stomach
No appetite, loss of
ness, headache, constipation, general debility, sour of the stomach are all Kodol cures indigestion.
ers represents the natural on as they exist in a combined with the greatest and reconstructive properties
Dyspepsia Cure does not only and Dyspepsia, but this cures all stomach troubles,
purifying, sweetening and the mucous membranes lining
Mr. S. S. Bell, of Ravenswood
I was troubled with sour stomach cured me and we are of Kodol.
Kodol Digests What
Dollar only. $1.00 Size holding times which sells for
Prepared by E. O. DeWITT & Co.
Upchurch Drug

THE BANNER

LET THE PEOPLE RULE.

VOL. XV CLANTON, ALA., THURSDAY, AUGUST 29, 1907 No. 48

MAN ON THE CORNER

His Sights He Saw, and Some He Saw Not.

promises to be a right interesting at Maplesville next and I anticipate one of crowds there that has in Chilton for some time; the way. I expect to be one too, if nothing interThe Maplesvillians have extraordinary provisions for so there is no fear of and the lessons to be of great practical value, experiments very interesting, on a large scale, odor, that makes it but I reckon on a small may prove attractive. I all of West Chilton, East Chilton, and a goodly from every direction at next Thursday.

has been commenced on Farmers' warehouse at It is located on the east bridge over the railroad. be pushed to completion. Conville has the contract session of the store occuBroadhead & Son is being Mr. J. W. Edwards, the the building. The new Judge Reynolds is com- C. W. Reynolds is put a stock of goods, which occupants of the upper to be found T. C. Marcus, agent.

is so much building going a hard matter to keep up but it is a conservative say that the census of show a population of at Let 'er grow!

C. S. Waldrop, special the U. S. Department of will make an address to on various interesting subthe court house today

TH OF Dr. PARNELL.

ays of the Lord cannot alunderstood by men. Somewhen a man of thirty-five has so suddenly been from us by the cold hand who was so useful as a and so much needed by a two little children, it at first to be a mistake. ead in the Book of books, Lord doeth all things well, mit it all to Him, that be done.

the greatest shocks experthe people of Searight, caused by the death of ell, who died after three Aug. 11, 1907. His children were in Tennesg relatives whom they for quite awhile She a telegram from her hus- that he was sick. She on her way home to her attention when she ared corpse at Montociated by some friends, last resting place, here the bosom of mother nton, Ala.

ctor has resided in our rds of four years. His many and his practice grown. He has been physician for eight has proved himself very We join in extending rnell words of sorrow, that we could speak consolation. It surely ding to meet with such sadness as to lose the on earth in her absence spend a few days with also ready for you know nor the hour that the cometh."

rnell will return soon sister and children and here this year. The a member of the Bap-

I heard a voice from ng unto me, write, the dead which die in from henceforth: yea, ith, that they may rest labors; and their works them."

A FRIEND.

Peoples Savings Bank of Chilton County.
CLANTON, ALA.
CAPITAL STOCK $50,000.00.
WM. E. HOLLOWAY, President.
W. T. CALLEN, Cashier, JOHN A. THOMAS, Assistant Cashier
DIRECTORS:
W. T. Callen, Wm. E. Holloway, Sam Kaufman
H. M. Martin, Sr. M. L. Greil, John A. Thomas
There is a number of people who are under an erroneous impression. They think that they never control enough money to start a bank account. In this they are mistaken. We solicit small accounts as well as large. And we handle the business of both with our best care. We believe that you ought to have a bank account, and we offer you our services.

THE CLANTON BANK
CLANTON, ALA.
Solicits the business of all business men in this vicinity—those who borrow, and those who do not. Both classes are welcome and cordially invited to transact business with us, as we have good facilities for serving both. As borrowers we seek only such as will use our money as safely as we use theirs, and will be prepared to return it at the proper time, as we are to return theirs.
THE CLANTON BANK

CORRESPONDENCE.

Everybody loves our baby, rosy, sweet and warm,
With kissy places on her neck and dimples on her arms.
Once she was so thin and cross, used to cry with pain—
Mother gave her Cascasweet, now she's well again.
Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

Clanton, Aug. 23, 1907

Editor Banner—I saw a communication from Richburg, Miss., signed Brown Eyed Girl. Now, will Brown Eyes please give me her name and address as I wish to correspond with her.

ULMER ROPER.
R. F. D. No. 7, Box 37.

Riderville.

I want to find space in the dear old Banner again for a little talk.

The protracted meeting at the Baptist church has been postponed until Wednesday night.

Our Sunday school is progressing nicely under the management of our worthy Superintendent, J. G. Gay.

We are glad to welcome Mr. Emmet Terry in our midst once more Miss Florence Hicks of Lawley is visiting the Misses Wooley.

Quite a crowd attended the singing at Mr. Cole's Sunday afternoon and report a fine time.

Mrs. J. G. Lawrence left Friday for Tuscaloosa where she will make her future home.

The ice cream supper at Mr Sanderson's last Thursday night was enjoyed by a large crowd.

Messers. Finny and Buchannan made a flying trip to Stanton Sunday last.

Mrs. D. B. Thompson of Birmingham is visiting in this place.

Mrs. J. A. Sample is visiting her parents in Tuscaloosa.

Miss Kemper Welch of Troy is visiting relatives here.

With best wishes.

GUESS WHO.

Thorsby.

Thorsby people had began to think that the weather man had forgotten them, but are now duly grateful for refreshing showers.

Mr. Howard's Carnation farm is yielding abundantly.

One of the factories here, we understand, is to be enlarged, giving employment to many hands. There is scarcely a vacant house in Thorsby.

Mr. J. F. Peterson went to Clanton this week.

Naomi Turnquist visited in Calera over Sunday.

We continue to hear that Mineral Springs is well patronized.

Mrs. Horn and children, Philip and Francis, returned from Indiana this week.

Miss Mabel Malmgren returned this week to her duties in Birmingham.

Dr. Lee Stabler returned to college in Mississippi this week.

Rev. S. B. Groves will go to Birmingham to attend the dedication of a church next Sunday.

Mrs. Parnell, with her sister and children, visited here last week.

A camping party returned Tuesday from the Coosa river.

Mr. Geo. Peterson, our efficient band leader, goes to Auburn this week; Mr. J. O. Johnson, a well known musician, will conduct the T. C. B.

Messrs. J. F. Peterson and T. T. Thorson are doing a big business in poultry; having very satisfactory results from their incubators last spring.

VOX POPULI.

NOTICE TO CONFEDERATE VETERANS.

Through the provisions of a recent act of the Legislature "All Confederate soldiers, sailors, and their widows, who are now drawing pensions and who are over the age of eighty (80) years," will be advanced to the "first class," which will entitle them to $100 per annum or $25 quarterly.

I would suggest to all pensioners in this county who have reached this age, and are entitled to the benefit of this advance, to notify at once Judge L. H. Reynolds of the fact, so that he may inform the State Auditor, Gen. W. W. Brandon, in order that their names may be properly recorded in class I on the State pension roll.

H. W. CAFFEY,
Chairman Pension Board.
Verbena, Aug. 24, 1907.

Card of Thanks.

Dear Editor:—Through the columns of your paper we wish to thank the good people of Collins Chapel community for their kindness shown us during the sickness and death of our little nephew, Douglas Jones, whom we have taken care of from birth. We also thank the Doctor for his good and kind attention to him; we believe he did all in his power to relieve his sufferings; we know all that willing hands could do was done to keep him with us but God saw fit to remove him from our once happy home into a home of rest. May God bless and reward you all, is our prayer. Yours in sorrow,

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. PARKER.

FOR SALE.

4 acres good farm land, all in cultivatio; practically level; one mile from Clanton. Also 2 acres in West Clanton. Will sell cheap. Call on or apply to T. C. MARCUS, Real Estate Agent, Clanton, Ala. Office in Reynolds Bldg.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

If the several parties who have received notice of their lands being escaped, or of their land being increased in tax value, will appear before the County Tax Commissioner at Clanton before the 2d day of September they will have a better opportunity to have the matter adjusted in a satisfactory manner than if they wait until court day.

NOTICE.

We, the Commissioners' Court, have decided that it will take more than one day to pass on the escapes and tax raises, so we hereby give notice that we will be in session Monday, September 2, to Wednesday, September 4, so if those interested cannot come on Monday, they can come either on these three days and we will stay longer if necessary. We assure every taxpayer of the county fair treatment and that no taxes will be raised unjustly.

L. H. REYNOLDS,
Judge of Probate.
W. H. CONWAY
M. ROBINSON
R. P. KENDRICK } Commissioners
S. E. WALDRUP

FARMERS' UNION MEETING.

The Chilton County division of the Farmers' Union will meet with Shiloh Local, No. 750, on Sept. 5-6, 1907. We are also requested to say that Bro. G. T. McElderry of Talledega will address the Union. Afternoon of first day will be public.

C. H. ROBINSON, Sec.

"Regular as the Sun" is an expression as old as the race. No doubt the rising and setting of the sun is the most regular performance in the universe, unless it is the action of the liver and bowels when regulated with Dr. King's New Life Pills. Guaranteed by Upchurch Drug co. 25c.

Jemison.

The public school building is being greatly enlarged and improved. The building is being raised another story, and we have increased the teaching force. We already have the five acres secured for the proposed high school, which we are making every exertion to secure. The required $5,000 is already in hand. Mr. I. N. Langston kindly donated the five acres, and also promises $500 in cash. A number of new buildings are in course of erection, and Jemison is growing fast.

To the People of Chilton and Adjoining Counties.

I will begin work on Sept. 1st, 1907, for H. Kanjutsky, and must say if you will call in, and let me show you some of the nice goods, and make you some of the lowest prices ever heard of in Clanton, I feel sure we can sell you and save you money. Be sure to come in if you don't buy anything.

Yours truly.
C. H. BAXLEY.

UNION MEETING.

District Union, No. 1. will meet at Clanton on August 31st, 1907, at 9 a.m. All Local Unions are requested to send delegates, especially those not having joined yet. Some important business to be transacted at this meeting.

J. M. SMITH, Sec.

NOTICE.

There will be a meeting of the stockholders and directors of the Farmers' Warehouse and Storage Co. at Clanton on August 31, 1907, at 10 a.m. Let everybody who is interested in the farmers owning their own warehouse attend this meeting. Nearly 90 farmers have done bought stock and others are subscribing right along.

J. N. DENNIS, Sec.

A Big Saving With a Little Money!
Now is the Time to Make a Big Saving with LITTLE MONEY
We are still selling HATS, SHOES and CLOTHING at car load prices, in fact, we are making a great, big reduction on our entire stock.

CANNON BRAND
GUARANTEED
HATS
Wear like steel Hit the mark of perfection
We have just received a car of Webber Wagons and, of course, they are well known (we have them.)
Let us show you our White Star and Moline Buggies. We pay $1,00 cash for every spoke broken out from flaw or workmanship and replace same free. Come, see, and tell others.

M. F. CANNON & SONS
Clanton, Ala.

WANTED.

REWARD—$2.00 will be paid to anyone notifying me of the whereabouts of a White Dog with one Brown ear—a Bull Bitch. Lost July 22, 1907. E. B. CALLOWAY, Verbena, Ala.

BRICK—Good hard, well burnt brick for sale about September 1. C. L. FORSMAN, Thorsby, Ala.

FOR SALE CHEAP—1 60-Saw Gin, (new) 1 Wagon Scale (new). A. M. JOHNSON, Thorsby, Ala.

Keep the pores open and the skin clean when you have a cut, burn, bruise or scratch. DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve penetrates the pores and heals quickly. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

124 ACRES FOR SALE, four miles southeast of Clanton. Apply to Q. S., Banner office, Clanton.

Those who have stomach troubles, no matter how slight, should give every possible help to the digestive organs, so that the food may be digested with the least effort. This may be done by taking something that contains natural digestive properties—something like Kodol for Indigestion and Dyspepsia. Kodol is a preparation of vegetable acids and contains the very same juices found in a healthy stomach. It digests what you eat. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

FOR SALE—80 acres good land, two miles from Clanton; two settlements on the tract. The tract is well watered. Call on or address G. O. FOSHEE, Clanton, Ala., R. F. D. No. 5.

WANTED—3 or 4 Good Salesmen. None but experienced hands need apply. H. KANJUTSKY, Clanton, Ala.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers don't sicken or gripe. Small Pills, easy to take. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

Souvenir Postals of Clanton. Florence Drug Store.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, Better Than Three Doctors.

"Three years ago we had three doctors with our little boy and everything that they could do seemed in vain. At last when all hope seemed to be gone we began using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and in a few hours he began to improve. Today he is as healthy a child as parents could wish for."—Mrs. B. J. JOHNSTON, Linton, Miss. For sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

You Have No One to Blame but yourself if you are coaxed or persuaded into using any paint with which the dealer is unable to give you analysis and guarantee such as is placed on every package of

Davis' 100 per cent Pure paint

For sale by Payne & Payne, Montgomery, Ala.

W. R. MADDOX
BLACKSMITH
I do all kinds of Repair Work in Wood or Iron. Saw Brackets and Banisters.
Cold Tire Setting. I can shrink your Buggy or Wagon Tires cold or hot.
Horse-shoeing up-to-date. Satisfaction guaranteed.
CLANTON

J. V. HIGGINS
WATCHMAKER, JEWELER AND ENGRAVER
At the Florence Drug Store, Clanton, Ala. All work guaranteed
Special attention given to Watch Cleaning, Stone Setting and Engraving
Repairing all kinds of Graphophones

HELP IS OFFERED
TO WORTHY YOUNG PEOPLE

THE BANNER.

Published Weekly

CLANTON, ALABAMA.

Free advice is the most expensive by the time you get done experimenting, thinks the New York Journal.

Going to Europe is valuable experience, admits the New York World, but nothing like so needful as the knowledge of one's own country and one's fellow citizens.

Having laughed at Mark Twain's white clothes, observes the Washington Star, the English may presently see the ludicrous element in the combination of high hats and bobtail coats which their own costumes so frequently display.

Consul Williams points out that there is little if any prejudice, still less a crusade, against tobacco by either Church or State in Great Britain, and attributes the great increase in consumption to the idea which has gained prevalence in England of late years that tobacco acts as a counter-irritant to all the failings and disagreeable features of the peculiar climate of the British Isles. The trade in tobacco, he says, has passed from the small dealers into the hands of trusts, which control large numbers of shops in the chief centres.

The love of a dog is one of the redeeming virtues of mankind. The fidelity and devotion of these dumb animals place them in a class by themselves, and the general public is not easily stirred to wrath against any species of them, opines the Atlanta Journal. But the cold fact remains that any species of them or any individual among them displaying signs of treachery or viciousness should be placed under the ban and the owner who does not dispose of such animals should be made to do so. It is time for the dog owners to take an inventory of their pets and eliminate the vicious kind.

According to Mr. Baullie-Grohman, an English traveler and author, many a Tyrolese peasant home that formerly knew only the flame of the pitch-wood torch, or the dim flame of a tiny lamp consisting of a pan of tallow with a wick of twisted thread, is now furnished with a number of eight-candle power electric lights at a rental of $1.50 or so a year for each lamp. Gas and petroleum, asserts the New York Times, have never been burned in those villages; they have gone direct from the ancient to the very modern. The abundant water power is the cause of the cheapness of electricity, and in many of the villages the lights are not switched off in the daytime.

The Hon. John D. Long, in an article in Suburban Life, says: "What is suburban life to me? It is content, freedom, happiness. Brought up in a rural neighborhood, the instinct and ways of country life have always been my habit. Sometimes from official necessity I have lived in cities, but it has always been with the feeling of physical limitation. In the country the smallest means can go a great way in obtaining the most delightful and refreshing recreation and happy occupations. There is always much to do in the way of pleasant puttering in and about the house which one would never think of doing in a city residence, and which combines exercise and open air with more or less useful work."

Mathematics is an unattractive study to many men, and such matters as progressive compound interest and annuity tables are beyond their ability accurately to work out. Everybody knows that if a hundred dollars is deposited in a savings bank it will draw $4 a year interest, contends the New York World. But few men know how money compounds. The object of the Government old-age pension plan is that every aged clerk shall retire with three-fourths of the income that he received when working. That is, a man who has been getting a salary of $1200 a year should receive $900 a year. To do that all that he need do is to pay $2.57 every month into a fund which will compound at four per cent. a year. That is, if he saves three and a half per cent. of his salary every year he will receive back every year seventy-five per cent. of his salary. This is the only get rich scheme that is sure in its results. The mathematics of it is guaranteed by the United States Commission, and compound interest tables give assurance of their accuracy.

"WALTZ ME AROUND AGAIN, WILLIE."

—Week's cleverest cartoon, by Macauley, in the New York World.

SEEK FINAL TEST OF THE BOYCOTT IN BIG LAWSUIT

Action Begun at Washington Against the American Federation of Labor.

Manufacturers Would Stop Use of the "Unfair" and the "We Don't Patronize" Lists.

Washington, D. C.—A significant legal action was begun in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia by James W. Van Cleave, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, to enjoin Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell and the other officers and the 2,000,000 members of the American Federation of Labor and several of its subsidiary organizations from using the boycott and so-called "unfair list." Van Cleave starts the suit on behalf of a large manufacturing company in St. Louis of which he is president, it having been declared "unfair," so it is said, by the labor unions, but the significance of the action lies in its being a test case, wherein Mr. Van Cleave, as head of the Manufacturers' Association, seeks to permanently enjoin organized labor from using the "unfair" or "we don't patronize" lists in its fight against firms and individuals. The papers were filed here in order that personal service might be immediately obtained against a large number of the labor leaders named in complaint, who are in Washington.

The bill asks for a permanent injunction against Samuel Gompers and Frank Morrison, of Washington; John V. Lennon, of Bloomington, Ill.; James Duncan, of Quincy, Mass.; John Mitchell, of Indianapolis; James O'Connell, of Washington; Max Morris, of Denver; Denis A. Hayes, of Philadelphia; Daniel J. Keefe, of Detroit; William D. Huber, of Indianapolis; Joseph F. Valentine, of Cincinnati, all of the American Federation of Labor; also R. L. Thixton, C. O. Buckington, H. C. Poppe, A. J. Cooper and E. L. Hickman, as individuals and as officers of the Electrotype Molders and Finishers' Union No. 17 and members of the International Stereotypers and Electrotypers' Union. The complainant is the Bucks Stove and Range Company, of St. Louis.

Alleges a Conspiracy.

The plaintiff asks that the defendants be enjoined on nine special points, first alleging a conspiracy unlawfully to injure its business. It is asked that the unions be enjoined from carrying on a conspiracy to restrain and destroy the business of the plaintiff; from agreeing or combining to interfere with its business or that of any other person, firm or corporation, or from boycotting or attempting to boycott or threatening to boycott the plaintiff or the plaintiff's business or attempting to interfere with the regular shipment, sale or trade in its goods. It is also sought to enjoin the unions from printing, publishing or distributing by mail any paper which contains the name of the plaintiff corporation under a "We Don't Patronize" or "Unfair" heading or which contains any statement that the plaintiff is or has been unfair; from publishing or circulating in any way, in writing or orally, any statement to the injury of the product of the plaintiff, or from representing to dealers or the public that the plaintiff's factory has been boycotted, and that its goods should not be dealt in. Safeguard is also asked from any threatening or intimidating of customers of the plaintiff; from any giving of orders to committees, associations or agents for any acts or threats which would interfere with the plaintiff's business, or from the carrying on of the alleged conspiracy against the plaintiff's proper business.

The steps leading up to this action are set forth in the complaint to be the outcome of a strike. The complaint says that on August 29, 1906, without previous notice, the members of the Metal Polishers' Union, No. 13, of St. Louis, in the employ of the stove company, struck in a body and without notice to the company, which action is said to have been in violation of an agreement between the International Union of Metal Polishers and the Stove Founders' National Defense Association, of which the Bucks company is a member, under which all differences have for fourteen years been successfully adjusted by a conference committee.

Stirs St. Louis Unions.

On the failure of the strike the International Union of Metal Polishers declared a boycott against the Bucks company and its product, inserted the company's name in its "unfair" list and published it in the union paper. The local union, No. 13, also joined in the boycott and gained its indorsement by the Central Trades and Labor Union, of St. Louis, and the Metal Trades Council, also of St. Louis, both subordinate unions of the American Federation.

In November, 1905, at the annual convention of the American Federation in Minneapolis, the products of the company were placed on the "we-don't-patronize" list of the federation, and its name was published in this list in the American Federationist in the June and July, 1907, issues.

The complaint sets forth that by reason of the federation's great membership and wide distribution and its extraordinarily complete and powerful organization, the placing of the company's products on its "we-don't-patronize" list injured greatly the complainant's business.

LABOR TO FIGHT.

Gompers Says Manufacturers Sought to Delay Criminal Action.

Washington, D. C.—The injunction proceeding brought in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia against the officers of the American Federation of Labor by the National Manufacturers' Association will be answered by a conspiracy suit from the labor organizations against the Manufacturers' Association. The authority for this statement is President Samuel Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, who said that he was authorized to instruct the attorneys of his organization to prepare the papers in the action.

Another development in the contest between organized labor and the Manufacturers' Association is likely to be an application to the Postoffice Department for a fraud order against the American Federationist. This is the organ of the American Federation of Labor that prints the "unfair list" against which an injunction is sought by the Manufacturers' Association. Daniel Davenport, of Bridgeport, Conn., one of the attorneys of the Manufacturers' Association, took steps to bring the complaint to the attention of the Postoffice Department.

President Gompers declares that the officers of the Manufacturers' Association began their suit hurriedly to forestall the criminal prosecution of themselves by the American Federation of Labor. He insisted that the American Federation has had under consideration plans for the prosecution of the Manufacturers' Association for some time, and that by some means President Van Cleave, of the Manufacturers' Association, learned of the Federation's purpose and brought the injunction proceeding to counteract the effect of the contemplated suit.

Lords Pass Dead Wife's Sister Bill.

After a prolonged and animated debate the House of Lords in London passed the second reading of the Deceased Wife's Sister bill by 111 votes to 79. The minority included every one of the seventeen Bishops who are members of the House.

Steel Plant Burned.

The plant of the Cumberland Steel Company, at Cumberland, Md., was destroyed by fire of unknown origin. Loss, $350,000; insurance, $190,000.

Hanged For Assault on Stepchild.

James Rucker, a negro, was hanged in jail at Asheville, N. C. Rucker was convicted of criminal assault on his stepdaughter. It is said that this is the first time in the history of North Carolina that a negro has been hanged for such a crime against one of his own race.

Allies Defeat Moors.

Moorish tribesmen again attacked Casablanca and were defeated.

MONEY SHORTAGE CAUSED BY RAPID CONSTRUCTION

Conditions on the Panama Canal have Reached Gravity

DIRT AND MONEY IS FLYING

Work Is Developing Faster Than Was Contemplated When Estimates Were Made for Expenditures, Consequently They Are Short.

Washington — Conditions on the Panama canal have reached a state of gravity, due to the fact that construction work is developing faster than was contemplated when the estimates for expenditures during the fiscal year 1908 were made nearly a year ago, according to a statement made by the canal commission.

The estimate is made that about $8,000,000 in excess of the appropriations could be used to advantage, in pushing forward the work during the present year, and Colonel Goethals, the engineer in charge, thinks it would be in the interest of true economy to proceed along this basis and ask congress at its next session to make good the deficiency as the argument is made that with the present organization and progress, the waterway can be completed more rapidly than by restraining expenditure within the appropriations now available.

Already reports show that the monthly estimated expenditure for labor is being considerably exceeded, and work at the Gatun dam has progressed faster than was anticipated.

CHINA IN THROES OF REVOLT.

Revolutionary Movement Is Gaining Strength Daily.

Berlin. — A dispatch from Shanghai says that the situation in China, especially in the Yang Tse valley, continues unsatisfactory. It is impossible, the message adds, to say whether or not a general outbreak is impending, but the revolutionary movement gains strength daily and the secret organizations are growing visibly.

The Chinese officials say that thousands of revolutionists are concerned in the foreign quarters of the cities, thus placing themselves outside the jurisdiction of the Chinese courts. The revolutionary agitatiton recently was carried into the army. Murderous plots against the manchus continue to be discovered in Pekin.

AT IT AGAIN.

Another Reign of Terror Started in the Great Empire.

St. Petersburg. — Another reign of terror has been inaugurated throughout the empire by revolutionists. Colonel Schmoetter, governor of Bielostok and personal friend and protege of the czar, has been assassinated. A bomb was exploded within a few feet of him and he was blown to pieces.

The chief of police of Batom and his wife were severely hurt and two pedestrians killed by another bomb explosion. The bomb was hurled at the chief as he and his wife were driving through the streets of Batoum.

Other terrorist attempts on prominent officials have occurred in widely separated parts of the empire. There is every indication of a concerted movement on the part of the revolutionists which, it is thought includes an attempt on the life of the czar himself.

Harvester Race for Charity.

Chicago.—Rivalry of long standing concerning the respective merits of two mowing machines of standard make promises to be settled next month at the Du Page county fair. Robert S. McCormick and Charles Deering are to be the charioteers. All wagers made by specially appointed bookmakers will go to charity.

Forest Fires Ravage Long Island.

New York.—Forest fires are raging in the woods of Eastport, L. I., and have devastated hundreds of acres of woodland. Early Tuesday the flames had swept within a quarter of a mile of the famous country clubhouse, which, with its contents, is valued at $500,000. Ditching and back firing were resorted to to save the building.

125 Chinese Slain.

Berlin. — A terrifying disaster has occurred in China, resulting in the death of about 125 persons, including two German engineers, according to dispatches received here. The message comes from Tsing Tau and says an explosion in the Fang Tse mine caused the disaster. The two Germans were acting as foremen of Chinese mining gangs.

Bowery's Famous Restaurant Closed.

New York. — Mike Lyons' restaurant, famous all over the country when the Bowery was in its palmy days, has been closed. After serving through the civil war with Wheat's Louisiana Tigers in the Confederate army, Lyons came to New York and established the restaurant which for years was visited by practically every visitor to this city.

2,000 WERE SLAIN.

Arabs Deliver Another Attack on the French.

Casa Blanca.—The Arabs have delivered another attack upon the French forces under General Drude, encamped outside of the town, but were routed with heavy losses.

A general uprising of the natives is expected. The European residents of the coast towns as well as those who live at Fez, Morocco City and other places in the interior, are leaving their homes and seeking safety in flight.

The Moors' losses were estimated by Jewish couriers at 2,000 dead.

They advanced again in a great semi-circle with the evident intention of enveloping the city. The guns of the warships immediately began bombarding the advancing tribesmen with terrible effect.

MILLIONS REFUNDED.

Taxes on Legacies Made During Last War Are Paid.

Washington — The refunding of at least one million dollars in taxes illegally collected will result from a decision of the commissioner of internal revenue that under the act of June 27, 1902, which repealed the war revenue act, the tax on a bequest or legacy does lie except where the beneficiary came into actual possession and enjoyment of the property bequeated prior to the passage of the act of June 27, 1902. This reverses the practice of the internal revenue bureau under which the tax was levied and collected regardless of whether the beneficiaries came into the enjoyment of the property before or after the war revenue act was repealed.

SWALLOWED BY BEEF TRUST.

Independent Company Didn't Last Long in New York.

New York.—Controlling interest in the New York Butchers' Dressed Meat company, which is capitalized for $1,000,000 and which was organized to fight the beef trust, has, according to an announcement published, been acquired by the trust. The company, it is stated, will be merged into the meat combination on October 1.

The New York Butchers' Dressed Meat company was organized by retail butchers in Manhattan after the United Dressed Beef company had been sold to the trust by the organizers, the wholesale butchers. Angry at this desertion of the independent opposition to the big combination, a score of the most wealthy retailers started the new company to curb the power of the trust in Greater New York.

ATTEMPT TO KILL NICHOLAS

Therefore, They Are to Be Hung, Shot or Killed Some Way.

St. Petersburg. — Five women and thirteen men, foredoomed to death, were placed on trial for conspiracy against the life of Emperor Nicholas.

The trial is held behind closed doors. The verdict is a foregone conclusion. Every one of the prisoners, men and women alike, will be sentenced to die and will be shot down in some military prison.

The eighteen know their doom is sealed. They are without hope and without fear. They face their accusers and their judges calmly, cheerfully, refusing to talk, refusing to say a word about the great revolutionary movement which they sought to bring to a successful termination by the death of the czar of Russia.

Chicago Will Capture It.

Chicago. — The visit of Chairman Thomas Taggart, of the Democratic National Committee, to this city, and following his inspection of the facilities offered for the entertainment of the next democratic convention, the claim is made that Chicago will certainly land the big gathering. After his conference with Chairman Taggart, National Committeeman Roger C. Sullivan seemed absolutely confident that the convention would come here.

President Celebrates.

Oyster Bay, N. Y. — The summer capital has been transferred to the government yacht Mayflower, as President Roosevelt started for Provincetown to take part in the celebration of the landing of the Pilgrims. The wind and weather permitting, he will reach Provincetown Tuesday morning and review a fleet of eight war ships before landing.

Without Business Under Prohibition.

Valdosta, Ga. — The police officers believe Valdosta broke the record last week in the way of observance of the city laws. There was not a single arrest. The prohibitionists in the city point to this record as a result of the local prohibition law, which went into effect July 27.

7,000 Foot Channel Opened.

Chicago—After four years of construction work the 7,000 foot rock channel extending north from Joliet to a point midway between Joliet and Lockport, has been completed and water let in.

The Esperanto Language.

London.—A service in Esperanto was given in St. Clements Danes church, in the Strand, Sunday. A big congregation was in attendance.

CANADA RIVER [illegible] OPEN FOR [illegible]

A Bill to that Effect Introduced by CONGRESSMAN [illegible]

Representative Pujo's Feasibility and Desirability of Carrying Out the Project Important Development.

Birmingham, Ala.—[illegible] meets next December [illegible] W. Underwood of [illegible] introduce a bill providing [illegible] of the Cahaba river [illegible] whether in the [illegible] ernment engineers [illegible] dredged, locked and [illegible] purpose of making [illegible] its mouth [illegible] count).

The legislation [illegible] sion adopted a resolution [illegible] looking to this end [illegible] tive William [illegible] Pujo, [illegible] county, the author [illegible] has taken the matter [illegible] derwood with a view [illegible] provisions of the [illegible]

EATS $40 IN [illegible]

And Takes Rat Poison, [illegible] Train, but [illegible]

Menominee, Mich. [illegible] successful attempts [illegible] William Devereaux of [illegible] who is visiting friends [illegible] swallowed two $20 [illegible] leaped from the window [illegible] train. Suffering from [illegible] melancholia, Mrs. [illegible] quantity of rat poison [illegible] attempts to drown herself [illegible] Cedar river. Finally [illegible] Menominee she took [illegible] officer in charge, threw [illegible] front of a rapidly approaching [illegible] ger train at the station [illegible] bringing the train to a [illegible] few inches from the [illegible] sane woman. The [illegible] resulted in some slight [illegible] demented woman.

Discuss Bu[illegible]

Jackson, Miss.—The [illegible] financial agents of the [illegible] 65,000 strong in Mississippi [illegible] behind closed doors [illegible] sioner of Agriculture [illegible] understood that the [illegible] cussion was the use [illegible] as a substitute for [illegible] for the cotton crops [illegible] it is said that the [illegible] several unions are [illegible] there will be a general [illegible] ton bagging this fall [illegible] ders having been [illegible] cient quantity to [illegible] of bales.

Five Dr[illegible]

Baltimore, Md.—The [illegible] Wilmington, Del., was [illegible] ion with the British [illegible] ble in the Patapsco [illegible] rows's Point. Five [illegible] to have lost their [illegible] five who were on the [illegible] the survivors clashed [illegible] of the steamer by [illegible] chain. The remainder [illegible] by the steamer's [illegible] dredge moored near [illegible]

Blondin Living [illegible]

Waterbury, Conn.—[illegible] the once famous [illegible] who made the perilous [illegible] agara Falls, is said to [illegible] of a hermit in West [illegible] rumor had it that [illegible] ago in London. [illegible] ing as a carpenter and [illegible] name of Michael Tall[illegible] been recognized by [illegible] former named Abe [illegible]

Costly Blaze [illegible]

Montaigle, Tenn.—[illegible] Saturday a very disastrous [illegible] curred. Floyd Villa[illegible] hotels of the place, [illegible] a time the whole [illegible] ger and great excitement [illegible] The fire originated from [illegible] upper hall. The damage [illegible] tween $8,000 and $10,000.

Forest Fires [illegible]

Toulon, France.—[illegible] which started again in [illegible] the forts are now [illegible]

Murder [illegible]

Tulsa, I. T.—Dock [illegible] his aged wife at the [illegible] miles southeast of [illegible] night. Three months [illegible] tempted to kill Hall [illegible] had been paying [illegible] daughter, but was [illegible] preliminary hearing [illegible] yet been made to [illegible]

Forced to [illegible]

New York.—The [illegible] has announced that [illegible] $60,000 of New York [illegible] Be sale on September [illegible] will bear 4 1-2 per [illegible] city was recently [illegible] interest rate to 4 1-2 [illegible] of the inability to [illegible] 4 per cent basis. [illegible] of city bonds will [illegible] under the [illegible]

[illegible] HAPPENINGS AS TERSELY TOLD

Interest to Dwellers of The State.

EVENTS CONDENSED

[illegible] of Land Opened Up—[illegible] Classed as Mineral, But [illegible] be Given Over to Home[illegible]—Most of It in Winston.

[illegible] act of congress approved [illegible] 1906, more than 12,000 acres [illegible] North Alabama, heretofore [illegible] mineral lands, will be [illegible] to homesteaders. An [illegible] of the opening of these [illegible] made by Gen R. [illegible] ister in the government [illegible] ernment engineers [illegible] dredged locks and [illegible] purpose of making [illegible] its mouth [illegible] count).

The legislation [illegible] sion adopted a resolution [illegible] looking to this end [illegible] tive William [illegible] Pujo, [illegible] county, the author [illegible] has taken the matter [illegible] derwood with a view [illegible] provisions of the [illegible]

[illegible] Inexhaustible

[illegible] quantities of cedar and [illegible] are being put on the road [illegible] for shipment. Several years [illegible] thought that all the cedar [illegible] exhausted in this part of [illegible] but it seems that this [illegible] of hard wood is almost [illegible] We are still [illegible] shipment telegraph poles from [illegible] ten to twenty.

[illegible] Nicholas.

[illegible] Sheriff Eric Mills of [illegible] left for Atlanta recently [illegible] charge of J. T. Nicholas, [illegible] an insurance company who [illegible] with obtaining money [illegible] pretenses.

[illegible] Arrested.

Putnam, formerly of Hunts[illegible] on a charge of bigamy [illegible] Miss Mattie Smith in that [illegible] 27, and the relatives of [illegible] woman have since learned [illegible] has a wife in Huntsville, [illegible] immediately caused his arrest, [illegible] in jail.

[illegible] Sweetheart.

[illegible] Cathey, a prominent young [illegible] man of Birmingham, is dead [illegible] of laudanum taken, it is [illegible] with suicidal intent. He had [illegible] hard, and had had a [illegible] with his sweetheart. She [illegible] a short time before his [illegible] took from him her ring [illegible] had been wearing.

[illegible] Darden Appointed.

[illegible] Comer has reappointed [illegible] Imes, of Ashville, as judge, [illegible] W. Darden, of Oneonta, [illegible] of the Sixteenth judicial [illegible] which is composed of the counties [illegible] Blount, St. Clair and Etowah.

[illegible] Shotgun.

[illegible] from Eufaula tells of the [illegible] Levi Cade by his young wife [illegible] had badly beaten her and [illegible] leave home. In her anger [illegible] up a shotgun and blew his [illegible]. She has a babe six weeks [illegible] confesses to the killing.

[illegible] Enterprises.

[illegible] Textile Products company has [illegible] chartered by Louis Hohn, John [illegible] Wright, Sterling A. Wood and [illegible] for the purpose of establishing [illegible] operating an overall factory in [illegible] Ala. The capital stock is [illegible]

[illegible] Cases.

[illegible] last ten days at the court house [illegible] Danville have been taken up [illegible] in raising trials before the commissioners' court, and resulted in almost every case in a defeat of the [illegible]

[illegible] Light.

[illegible] probability Hartselle will [illegible] electric light plant installed [illegible] before another year rolls around. [illegible] electricians are figuring on the [illegible] and it is quite probable that [illegible] make the deal.

[illegible] Wife.

[illegible] Dillie, of Demopolis, by the accidental discharge of a gun Thursday [illegible] shot his wife in the right leg [illegible], fracturing the bone. Dr. [illegible] was called and attended the wounded [illegible]

[illegible] for Alabama.

[illegible] passing of the monument bills [illegible] come to Alabama a comprehensive system of improvement erections [illegible] followed by many other states. It [illegible] is able to erect a monument at [illegible] each of the four great parks, erect a [illegible] to the memory of Jefferson [illegible] and provide for marking the [illegible] battle field of all the heroes of the [illegible] who died away from home in [illegible] the war.

[illegible] Foul Ball and Dies.

[illegible] Walnut Grove, Ala., comes [illegible] the death of John Ballard, a [illegible] of the Hemd baseball team, [illegible] game with Walnut Grove. [illegible] was acting as catcher when a [illegible] ball struck him over the [illegible] He was not hurt, apparently, [illegible] continued catching until the end [illegible] of the game. Then going to bed, he [illegible] died. He made the round of the [illegible] bases. After taking his seat on the [illegible] bench he keeled over dead.

$416 Raised [illegible]

After [illegible] the state [illegible] has adjourned [illegible] sadness on [illegible] state. There [illegible] floor Hammett [illegible] new bills [illegible] first quarter [illegible] hats judges [illegible] It will be the [illegible] new law to [illegible] the amount [illegible] be as follows: [illegible] and chairs $[illegible] Under the [illegible] respectively.

I. C. R. R. [illegible]

The [illegible] posted its [illegible] Red Bank [illegible] and 66 miles [illegible] under old [illegible] be issued [illegible] and to the [illegible] date. All [illegible] Red Bank [illegible] [illegible]

[illegible] Burning [illegible]

[illegible] Birmingham [illegible] Universities [illegible] strikes the [illegible] road in [illegible] Hodges and [illegible]

After High [illegible]

A matter [illegible] interesting [illegible] equally to [illegible] place before [illegible] advisability [illegible] high schools [illegible] of the [illegible] the county [illegible] tenor of the [illegible] son is the [illegible] location of [illegible] were appointed [illegible] steps to [illegible] Stevenson [illegible] when it [illegible]

Strange Ac[illegible]

Jake Mi[illegible] played in the [illegible] roundhouse [illegible] climbed in [illegible] standing [illegible] the throttle [illegible] jumped from [illegible] The locomotive [illegible] dashed into [illegible] ing on the [illegible] about $1,00[illegible]

Killed Fo[illegible]

J. T. Bic[illegible] was arrested [illegible] a charge of [illegible] belonging [illegible] per claims [illegible] hunt, and [illegible] Blocker's [illegible] When he [illegible] Culpepper [illegible] got off the [illegible] too.

Wreck on [illegible]

The mail [illegible] least injuring [illegible] mingham [illegible] Louisville [illegible] curred at [illegible] victim who [illegible] dead, died [illegible] more or [illegible] though no [illegible]

Held to t[illegible]

Charles [illegible] the alleged [illegible] son, who [illegible] of Lillie [illegible] amination [illegible] jury with[illegible] shot with [illegible] been mar[illegible] shot.

Face Blu[illegible]

A chil[illegible] son, was [illegible] a large [illegible] her into [illegible] playing. [illegible] to be at [illegible] and shot [illegible] the child [illegible]

Inspecte[illegible]

Gen. [illegible] made an [illegible] ment, who [illegible] Springs. [illegible] He is en[illegible] order an [illegible] excellent [illegible] in detail [illegible]

Attend [illegible]

Gover[illegible] lowing [illegible] tional [illegible] Septem[illegible] E. We[illegible] Brazz[illegible] Smith, [illegible] Mobile; [illegible] Oakley [illegible] ma; W[illegible] M. Fu[illegible]

Contro[illegible]

At [illegible] mittee [illegible] Indust[illegible] al Mo[illegible] the n[illegible] C. Be[illegible] 603. [illegible] the c[illegible] more p[illegible] large [illegible] 500 [illegible] place [illegible]

SLAIN.

Attack on the Arabs have deek upon the General Drude.

the town, but y houses.
the natives is an residents of as those who City and other of are leaving aking safety in were estimated and dead.

n a great ident intention
The guns of began bom-rebeamen

FUNDED.

ade During Last Paid. efunding of at ate 2 taxes it result from a missioner of inding the act of ed the war on a request of pt where the actual possesof the property
e passage of the
This reverses nternal revenue the tax was regardless of aties came into property before ame act was

BEEF TRUST.

ry Didn't Last
w York. ding interest in ers Dressed Meat capitalized for was organized last June according published been
The company, merged into the October 1
Butchers' Dressed organized by reattan after the company had ed to the organ-butchers. Angry the Independent combination, a wealthy retailers ngdom to curb the in Greater New

KILL NICHOLAS

Are to Be Hung
d Some Way.
Five women and doomed to death ia for conspiracy
Emperor Nicholas. ic behind closed
is a foregone con-
of the prisoners,
will be sen-be shot down in w their doom is without hope and face their ac-dges calmly, cheer-alk, refusing to say great revolutionary ies sought to bring rmination by the of Russia.

l Capture It. visit of Chairman of the Democratic ee to this city, and ssion of the facil-
the entertainment of atic convention, the at Chicago will ceris gathering. After with Chairman Tag-committeeman Roger ned absolutely connvention would come t Celebrates.

Y. The summer transferred to the Mayflower, as Presistarted for Province-rt in the celebration of the Pilgrims. The er permitting, he will own Tuesday morn-a fleet of eight war ding.

s Under Prohibition.
— The police officers broke the record last of observance of the
was not a single ar-ibitionists in the city ord as a result of the law, which went into

Channel Opened.
r four years of con-the 7,000 foot rock ing north from Joliet way between Joliet and been completed and eranto Language. service in Esperanto

St. Clements Danes
Strand, Sunday. A big as in attendance.

CABABA RIVER TO BE OPEN FOR NAVIGATION

A Bill to that Effect Introduced by CONGRESSMAN UNDERWOOD

Representative Pitts Speaks of Feasibility and Desirability of Carrying Out the Project—Other Important Developments.

Birmingham, Ala.—[illegible] meets next December [illegible] W. Underwood, of this [illegible] introduce a bill providing [illegible] of the Cahaba river [illegible] whether, in the judgment [illegible] ernment engineers, the [illegible] dredged, locked and [illegible] purpose of making it [illegible] its mouth to Centerville.

The legislature at its [illegible] sion adopted a memorial [illegible] looking to this end, and [illegible] tive William L. Pitts, [illegible] county, the author of [illegible] has taken the matter up [illegible] derwood with a view [illegible] provisions of the memorial.

EATS $40 IN BILLS

And Takes Rat Poison, but Train, but Still Lives.

Menominee, Mich.—After [illegible] successful attempts to kill [illegible] William Deveraux, of [illegible] who is visiting friends [illegible] swallowed two $20 bills [illegible] leaped from the window [illegible] train. Suffering from [illegible] melancholia, Mrs. Deveraux [illegible] quantity of rat poison and [illegible] attempts to drown herself [illegible] Cedar river. Finally she [illegible] Menominee she tore past [illegible] officer in charge, threw [illegible] front of a rapidly approaching [illegible] ger train at the station, [illegible] bringing the train to a [illegible] few inches from the body [illegible] sane woman. The leap [illegible] resulted in some slight [illegible] demented woman.

Discuss Bags.

Jackson, Miss.—The [illegible] financial agents of the Farmers' [illegible] 65,000 strong in Mississippi [illegible] behind closed doors with [illegible] sioner of Agriculture Hall. [illegible] understood that the main discussion was the use of cotton [illegible] as a substitute for jute bagging [illegible] for the cotton crops of the state. [illegible] it is said that the farmers [illegible] several unions are to [illegible] there will be a general [illegible] ton bagging this fall and [illegible] ders having been placed [illegible] cient quantity to enable [illegible] of bales.

Five Drowned.

Baltimore, Md.—The [illegible] Wilmington, Del., was in collision with the British steamer [illegible] ble in the Patapsco river [illegible] rows's Point. Five persons [illegible] to have lost their lives, [illegible] five who were on the tug [illegible] the survivors clambered [illegible] of the steamer by means [illegible] chain. The remainder were [illegible] by the steamer's boat [illegible] dredge moored near by.

Blondin Living Here.

Waterbury, Conn.—Charles [illegible] the once famous tightrope [illegible] who made the perilous [illegible] agara Falls, is said to be living [illegible] of a hermit in West Cheshire. [illegible] rumor had it that he died [illegible] ago in London. Blondin [illegible] ing as a carpenter and under [illegible] name of Michael Todd. He has [illegible] been recognized by an old [illegible] former named Abe Tyrrell.

Costly Blaze at Montcagle.

Montcagle, Tenn.—A fire [illegible] Saturday a very disastrous [illegible] curred. Floyd Villa, [illegible] hotels of the place, was [illegible] a time the whole village [illegible] ger and great excitement [illegible] The fire originated from [illegible] upper hall. The damage [illegible] tween $8,000 and $10,000.

Forest Fires Control.

Toulon, France.—The forest fires [illegible] which started again in the [illegible] the forts are now under [illegible]

Murderer at Large.

Tulsa, I. T.—Dock Bell, [illegible] his aged wife at their [illegible] miles southeast of Tulsa [illegible] night. Three months [illegible] tempted to kill Bell, [illegible] had been paying attentions [illegible] daughter, but was driven [illegible] preliminary hearing has [illegible] yet been made to arrest [illegible] Forced to Retire.

New York.—The [illegible] has announced that [illegible] 000,000 of New York [illegible] lic sale on September [illegible] will bear 4 1-2 per [illegible] city was recently [illegible] interest rate to 4 1-2 [illegible] of the inability to [illegible] 4 per cent basis [illegible] of city bonds [illegible] under the increased [illegible]

OTHER HAPPENINGS TOLD AS TERSELY TOLD

Of Interest to Dwellers of The State.

BRIEF EVENTS CONDENSED

[illegible] of Land Opened Up—[illegible] Closed as Mineral, But [illegible] to be Given Over to Homeseekers—Most of It in Winston.

[illegible] act of congress approved [illegible] 1906, more than 12,000 acres [illegible] North Alabama, heretofore [illegible] as mineral lands, will be [illegible] to homesteaders. An [illegible] of the opening of these [illegible] made by Gen. R. D. Johnston, [illegible] the government land [illegible] notice received from [illegible] of the interior of the [illegible] of these coal lands until [illegible] of congress.

[illegible] Inexhaustable.

[illegible] quantities of cedar and ash [illegible] being put on the road at [illegible] for shipment. Several years [illegible] thought that all the cedar [illegible] exhausted in this part of [illegible] but it seems that this [illegible] of our hard wood is almost [illegible] we are still able to [illegible] telegraph poles from [illegible] (Lowndes).

[illegible] Nicholas.

[illegible] Miss Ellie Miller, of [illegible] of Atlanta recently [illegible] charge of J. T. Nicholas, [illegible] an insurance company, who [illegible] with obtaining money [illegible] pretenses.

[illegible] Arrested.

[illegible] Putnam, formerly of Huntsville, on a charge of bigamy. [illegible] married Miss Mattie Smith in that [illegible] May 27 and the relatives of [illegible] woman have since learned [illegible] man has a wife in Huntsville. [illegible] immediately caused his arrest, [illegible] is in jail.

[illegible] with Sweetheart.

[illegible] G. Cathey, a prominent young [illegible] man of Birmingham, is dead [illegible] dose of laudanum taken, it is [illegible] with suicidal intent. He had [illegible] taking hard, and had had a [illegible] with his sweetheart. She [illegible] him a short time before his [illegible] took from him her ring, [illegible] he had been wearing.

[illegible] Darden Appointed.

[illegible] Comer has reappointed [illegible] lawyer, of Ashville, as judge, [illegible] George W. Darden, of Oneonta, [illegible] editor of the Sixteenth judicial [illegible] which is composed of the counties [illegible] Blount, St. Clair and Etowah.

[illegible] Shotgun.

[illegible] special from Eufaula tells of the [illegible] of Levi Cade by his young wife [illegible] had badly beaten her and [illegible] her leave home. In her anger, [illegible] picked up a shotgun and blew his [illegible] out. She has a babe six weeks [illegible] confesses to the killing.

[illegible] Birmingham Enterprises.

[illegible] Textile Products company has [illegible] chartered by Louis Hohn, John [illegible] Wright, Sterling A. Wood and [illegible] for the purpose of establishing [illegible] operating an overall factory in [illegible] ham. The capital stock is [illegible]

[illegible] Cases.

[illegible] last ten days at the court house [illegible] Huntsville have been taken up [illegible] in raising trials before the commissioners' court, and resulted in almost [illegible] every case in a defeat of the [illegible]

[illegible] Light.

[illegible] probability Hartselle will [illegible] an electric light plant ibatalled [illegible] before another year rolls around. [illegible] electricians are figuring on the [illegible] and it is quite probable that [illegible] will make the deal.

[illegible] Wife.

[illegible] Ollie, of Demopolis, by the accidental discharge of a gun Thursday [illegible] shot his wife in the right leg [illegible] above the knee, fracturing the bone. Dr. [illegible] Sandidge attended the wounded [illegible]

[illegible] Funds for Alabama.

[illegible] signing of the monument bills [illegible] will mean to Alabama a comprehensive system of monument erection [illegible] followed by many other states. It [illegible] will be able to erect a monument at [illegible] each of the four great parks, erect a [illegible] shaft in the memory of Jefferson [illegible] and provide for marking the [illegible] last resting place of all the heroes of the [illegible] who died away from home in [illegible] the civil war.

[illegible] Fatally Fall and Dies.

[illegible] Walnut Grove, Ala., comes [illegible] of the death of John Ballard, a [illegible] member of the Snead baseball team, [illegible] during a game with Walnut Grove. [illegible] Ballard was acting as catcher when a [illegible] foul ball struck him over the [illegible] heart. He was not hurt, apparently, [illegible] and resumed catching until the end [illegible] of the inning. Then going to bat, he [illegible] fell and made the round of the [illegible] bases. After taking his seat on the [illegible] bench Ballard keeled over dead.

2,415 New Alabama Pensions.

After several days of hard work the state board of pension examiners has adjourned, having put 2,415 new names on the pension rolls of the state. There were 276 rejected. Auditor Brandon is busy making up the new rolls and the warrants for the first quarter will be sent to the probate judges by the first of October. It will be the first contract under the new law to pay quarterly. This year the amounts to each pensioner will be as follows: First class, $160; second class, $80; third, $60; fourth, $50. Under the allotment of last year they received $80, $60, $40 and $30, respectively.

I. C. R. R. Builds First Depot.

The Illinois Central has just completed its first depot in the State at Red Bay, 28 miles west of Russellville and 46 miles south of Corinth. It is understood that a regular service will be inaugurated from Corinth south and to that point within ten or fifteen days. A gap of some 30 miles from Red Bay south remains to be completed. Trains, it is expected, will be running through from Corinth to Birmingham by the 1st of the year. From Haleyville, where the Illinois Central strikes the Northern Alabama, the road is completed north to near Hodges, some 20 miles.

After High School.

A mass-meeting of the citizens of Stevenson and vicinity was held recently to devise ways and means to place before the state commission the advisability of locating the county high school at this point. A number of the leading citizens of this end of the county were present, and the tenor of the meeting was that Stevenson is the place of all others for the location of this school. Committees were appointed to take the proper steps to secure this school, and Stevenson will be a hot proposition when it comes to a show down.

Strange Action of Negro.

Jake Mester, a negro laborer, employed in the Louisville and Nashville roundhouse at the New Decatur shops, climbed into the cab of a locomotive standing in the roundhouse, pulled the throttle wide open and then jumped from the locomotive and fled. The locomotive, under high speed, dashed into another locomotive standing on the track, causing a damage of about $1,000.

Killed Fox Hounds.

J. T. Blocker, of Merrimack Village, was arrested and lodged in jail on a charge of killing two fine fox hounds belonging to C. T. Culpepper. Culpepper claims that his hounds were on a hunt, and were passing through Blocker's field when he killed two. When he remonstrated with him, Culpepper was told that if he did not get off the ground he would be killed, too.

Wreck on the Mineral Road.

The man who was thought to be the least injured in the wreck on the Birmingham mineral division of the Louisville and Nashville, which occurred at Johns, is the only white victim who died, while one negro is dead, and fifteen white people are more or less painfully injured, though none dangerously.

Held to the Grand Jury.

Charles Haralson, of Birmingham, the alleged slayer of Grover Richardson, who was found dead in the house of Lillie Hicks, colored, waived examination and was held to the grand jury without bond. Richardson was shot with a pistol. He was to have been married two days after he was shot.

Face Bitten by Dog.

A child of A. Thomas, of Stevenson, was badly bitten in the face by a large dog, which had accompanied her into the yard, where she was playing. Mr. Thomas, who happened to be at the home, procured his gun and shot the dog. It is feared that the child will be disfigured for life.

Inspected First Regiment.

Gen. R. F. Ligon, inspector general, made an inspection of the First regiment, which was in camp at Pickett Springs, and found the showing good. He is especially pleased with the good order and discipline and general camp excellence. He will make full report in detail to the governor later.

Attend Prison Convention.

Governor Comer has named the following to the convention of the National Prison Association at Chicago, September 14: E. L. Higdon and W. E. Weir, Birmingham; Dr. Shirley Bragg, Sheriff Belser and J. Craig Smith, Montgomery; Frank Cazalas, Mobile; J. L. Moon, Opelika; J. G. Oakley, Centerville; J. P. Doherty, Selma; W. C. Legrand, Anniston, and M. M. Fountain, Monroeville.

Contract Is Let.

At a meeting of the building committee of the trustees of the girls' industrial school at Montevallo, held at Montgomery and the contract for the new dormitory was let to the E. C. Sels company, of Atlanta, for $70,000. This will add 120 rooms, increase the capacity to accommodate 250 more girls than at present, and enlarge the dining-room to accommodate 500 girls. The building must be completed by the first of July, 1908.

SECRETARY BONAPARTE MAY DECIDE TO RETIRE

Attorney General is Condemned by Trusted Advisers.

USEFULNESS CULMINATED

Immediate Retirement May Not Result for Such Action on Part of President Might Be Misconstrued as a Weakness.

New York.—The Journal of Commerce publishes a story regarding the possible retirement of Attorney General Bonaparte from the cabinet. It says: "According to important interests in this city very close to the administration, the usefulness of Attorney General Bonaparte, as a member of the president's cabinet, has culminated.

It is not expected that immediate retirement will result, for such action might be construed as a sign of weakening in the president's anti-trust policy, a construction particularly distasteful to Mr. Roosevelt, since not the slightest justification exists for it. But there is no question, according to the excellent information, that the president is not in sympathy with the recent flippant and undignified attitude and the least doubtful legal procedure displayed by the attorney general, but is in all respects opposed to them."

The attorney general's policy, the Journal of Commerce says, it is understood, is condemned by all the president's most trusted advisers, and, it is therefore excellent reason to believe some important changes in the cabinet would constitute a protest against executive endorsement of Mr. Bonaparte's program.

SWEPT BY FIRE.

Seventeen Hotels, Numbers of Cottages and Buildings Destroyed.

Old Orchard, Me.—Two lives were lost and five persons were injured, three seriously, as a result of the fire which swept through this seashore resort, causing a loss of from a half to three-quarters of a million dollars.

Seventeen summer hotels, sixty cottages and a score of buildings occupied by stores were destroyed. The explosion which caused so many injuries occurred in a drug store on Old Orchard avenue. It is believed that the fire started from an overturned lamp in the annex of the Hotel Olympia. The total insurance on the burned property, it is understood, will not exceed $150,000.

Tenement Goes Down.

Chicago, Ill.—Six persons were killed instantly, five others so seriously injured that they are dying and twenty additional seriously injured in the collapse of a tenement house at 55 Fry street, blown down by the terrific wind storm that swept Chicago Friday.

Sixty Horses Were Cremated.

Massilon, Ohio.—William Bantze's livery and boarding stables and two residences were burned recently. Lawrence Lyne, a hostler, was burned to death and sixty-two horses, including two race horses, were destroyed. Loss, $100,000. The race horses burned were Effie K. and Atwood, with records of 2:12.

At It Again.

Atlanta—Two Japanese have been discovered in the rear of Fort McPherson, taking views and sketches of the buildings and grounds. A former enlisted man who first observed the men, after talking with them, reported the matter to the department of the gulf. The officials of the department say no action will be taken unless other discoveries are made.

Steamer Runs Aground.

Washington.—The Norfolk and Washington Steamboat company's passenger steamer Norfolk ran aground in a fog in the Potomac river near Maryland Point and up to a late hour this afternoon had not cleared the bar. There are several hundred passengers on board.

Mrs. Thaw Recuperating.

Yarmouth N. H.—Mrs. Evelyn Thaw, accompanied by a young man said to be her brother, arrived on the Prince Arthur from New York. Mrs Thaw is going to a quiet place between Liverpool and Shelburn, where she will spend several weeks in an effort to recover her health.

Baby Born in Executive Mansion.

Albany, N. Y.—For the first time in many years a child has been born in the executive mansion. A daughter has been born to Governor and Mrs. Hughes. Congratulations have poured in on the governor. Mrs. Hughes and the baby are doing well.

Schmitz Is a Goner.

San Francisco—The state supreme court has rendered a decision in the McKaney salary case, sustaining the legality of the removal of Mayor Schmitz and the appointment of Mayor Taylor.

Ten Men Killed.

Lille, France.—A mill which was in course of construction collapsed here and ten men were killed.

WILL TEACH ENGLISH.

German Schools Recognize Value of the Language.

Berlin.—As a result of many firms having been compelled to employ Americans and Englishmen, the Berlin association of merchants and manufacturers has drafted a petition to the minister of education, asking the educational board to make the study of the English language obligatory in the commercial high schools and colleges.

It has also recommended that an English college be founded in Berlin for the purpose of better fitting young men and women for commercial positions. At present young men have a choice between French and English, and the great majority choose French.

The association lays stress on the fact that trade relations between Germany and English speaking countries demand better knowledge of English on the part of German merchants.

OPENLY CHARGED WITH GRAFT.

Witness Testifies in Open Court in the Glass Trial.

San Francisco.—Rudolph Spreckles is openly charged with furnishing the money with which G. M. Roy bribed former Supervisor Dr. Chas. Broxton to vote for the skating rink ordinance.

Broxton, who is one of the former supervisors who confessed to taking bribes, made the charge while on the witness stand.

Broxton was asked by Attorney Delmas, counsel for Glass, if he had accepted $500 offered him as a bribe by G. M. Roy in the matter of his vote on the skating rink ordinance. Dr. Broxton replied:

"Yes," he said, "I accepted it and I'll tell this, too. Burns told me Rudolph Spreckles gave that money to Roy and caused the bills to be marked."

AS PURCHASING AGENT

Major Hodges Representing Isthmian Canal Commission.

Washington, D. C.—Maj. Harry F. Hodges, of the army, entered actively upon his duties as purchasing agent of the Isthmian canal commission, with headquarters in Washington, succeeding David W. Ross. At the same time President Roosevelt's order putting into effect Secretary Taft's plan for a reorganization of the canal commission became operative. According to that plan considerable of the work done in Washington heretofore will be transacted on the isthmus, where the office of the secretary of the commission will be hereafter located.

Work on the Wireless System.

New Orleans, La.—A chain of wireless telegraph stations will soon be established between New Orleans and Port Limon, Costa Rica. Work on the establishment of the system has begun. Port Limon will be the distributing point. There will also be stations at Cape San Antonio, Cuba, Swan island and Bluefields, Nicaragua. The system will be complete in every respect and is expected to enhance trade along the Central American coast. The United Fruit company is carrying on the work.

Proposition Accepted.

London.—Great Britain has accepted the proposition of the United States to submit the Newfoundland fisheries dispute to arbitration at The Hague. While the matter is in process of arbitration, the fisheries will be conducted under the same modus vivendi as last year.

Obtain Confessions.

New York.—According to an announcement by District Attorney Jerome and Deputy Police Commissioner Woods the detective bureau has arrested the ringleaders of the Hunchakist Secret Society and has obtained confessions from them which will end the existence of the organization.

Fred Nye Is Dead.

New York.—Fred Nye, a brother of the late Bill Nye, and an assistant editor of the Sunday World, died Tuesday of injuries received by being struck by a trolley car Monday night. Mr. Nye had written many humorous poems and the book of a comic opera "The King and the Broker."

Rich Real Estate Dealer Convicted.

San Francisco.—After a hard trial abounding in sensational features, John A. Benson, a wealthy real estate dealer here, has been convicted in connection with the national land frauds. Benson was the operator for the firm of Benson & Hyde.

Luncheon to Emperor.

Wilhelmshohe.—Emperor William and Empress Augusta Victoria gave a luncheon party Monday in honor of Emperor Francis Joseph's birthday. The emperor in offering a toast to him referred to Francis Joseph as "a dear and honored friend and faithful ally."

Phosphate Elevator Burns.

Fernandina, Fla.—The large new phosphate elevators of the Seaboard Air Line railway at this place, were totally destroyed by fire. The total loss is estimated at $150,000.

Riot in a Theatre.

New Orleans, La.—As a result of a quarrel between a negro and a Greek soda water dealer in the gallery of a local melodrama theatre here a riot followed.

WHO CAN HOLD LONGEST TELEGRAPH COS. OR MEN

This is The Question that is Agitating the People

REFUSE ALL ARBITRATION

President Small Arrived in New York Sunday, and Addressed a Monster Meeting at Everett Hall—Much Interest Manifested.

New York.—The telegraph strike here has settled down to a question of who can hold out the longest, the public being the sufferer.

The telegraph companies maintain that "there is nothing to arbitrate," and the strikers remain firm in their determination that the companies shall grant them substantial concessions before they will return to work.

Despite the denial of the Western Union that they have been mailing important telegrams, Belvidere Brooks, general superintendent, admits they have been forced to use the mails, but claims they were compelled to do this at times before the strike, owing to their inability to "raise" an office, or where an office closed early in the evening, but does not explain why they receive the telegrams for offices that are closed.

Strike leaders here say they are satisfied with the program of the strike, and say the men and women are a unit in their determination to resist all overtures on the part of the companies that will not guarantee them substantial benefits.

Reports are being received from strike leaders all over the United States showing that practically the same conditions obtain all over the country.

Baseball Tickers Are Removed.

Toledo, O.—All stock brokers and saloon keepers have had removed the baseball and stock tickers operated by the Western Union Telegraph Company in sympathy with the striking telegraphers.

One-Third Salary for Strikers' Aid.

Boston.—Operators on the brokers' wires set the record for strike aid when they voted to assess each of their members one-third of their salary during the continuance of the strike.

SUIT FILED AGAINST A WOMAN.

She Will Have to Pay for Lorillard's Monument.

New York.—Suit has been begun against Mrs. Lillian Barnes Allen Livingston to recover $1,697 alleged to be unpaid on a monument erected by her in Kensico cemetery to the memory of Pierre Lorillard, whose close friend she was for 20 years, and who willed her the famous Jacocas farm, with its race horses and personal property, all valued at more than one million dollars.

Mrs. Livingston is admitted to have paid $2,244 on account, but it is alleged that when the balance of $...69 was demanded on July 11, 1...., payment was refused.

NO WONDER THEY PROTEST.

No Weddings in 14 Months Cause Indiana Girls to Cry Out.

Plainfield, Ind.—There has not been a wedding in Plainfield for 14 months, and the list of old maids is growing alarmingly large.

Previous to an entertainment for the public library, 100 Plainfield girls wearing old maids' costumes of olden days, paraded the streets, carrying banners, some of which bore these legends:

"O, Lord, for a man!"
"I'll Sew Your Buttons On!"
"I Once Was Young."
"I've Got My Eye on You."
"Let Me Darn Your Socks."
"Ask Papa."
"This Is So Sudden."

One "sweet young thing" stalked haughtily apart from her companions, carrying a banner with this legend:

"I Don't Belong With That Gang."

Cholera Rages at Shanghai.

Berlin.—A dispatch from Shanghai says that cholera he broken out among the Chinese there and that several Europeans have succumbed to the disease. Several other Chinese and Japanese coast towns are infected.

Serious Wreck.

Grand Junction, Col.—A report has reached here that the second section of Denver and Rio Grande passenger train No. 6, eastbound from Salt Lake to Denver, was derailed near Provo, Utah, and that several passengers were killed and a number injured. A severe storm prevailed from this point west and only the meagre details given here have been received.

Amnesty Granted in Roumania.

Bucharest, Roumania.—King Charles has granted amnesty to all those who were implicated in the recent agrarian revolt, with the exception of about 200 militant priests. The prisoners, who total about 4,000, Negotiating a Treaty.

Madrid.—The American minister, Mr. Collier, is negotiating an extradition treaty between the United States and Spain.

SHRAPNEL TEARS CHILDREN.

Missile Went Through the Explosion on Battleship Maine.

New York.—A shrapnel shell, which was stored in the hold of the battleship Maine when she was blown up in Havana harbor, exploded in Jersey City and severely injured three children. Eldon Kenney, 11 years old, was playing with the shell. About him were half a dozen youngsters, listening to the story of how a sailor gave the missile to the elder Kenney as a souvenir. The boy, to show how heavy and strong the shell was, dropped it to the ground. With a roar that shattered windows and broke panes of glass nearby, the metal spitfire exploded. Young Kenney was fearfully mutilated, and may die. Two of his companions were bruised and lacerated. The shell had been used as a plaything for years by the Kenney children. It was understood that the charge had been withdrawn.

LOST IN THE ADIRONDACKS.

For Ten Days Edwards Lived on Roots and Berries.

Old Forge, N. Y.—William H. Edwards, an expert accountant of Utica, who became lost in the Adirondack woods on August 12, while on his way to a summer camp, was found in the forest about eight miles from his designation. For nearly ten days Mr. Edwards, who is 60 years of age, has been wandering in the woods, subsisting on berries and roots. His condition is critical and only careful nursing will save his life.

Hundreds of men, with bloodhounds, have been searching for Mr. Edwards for more than a week.

HE'LL SQUEAL ON GRAFTERS.

Pennsylvania Official to Tell Everything About Capitol Steal.

Johnstown, Pa.—James M. Shumaker, former superintendent of public buildings and grounds at Harrisburg, who is implicated by the reports of the capitol investigation commission, has declared he will make a full confession of all he knows in connection with the capitol scandal. He claims that the manipulation of the funds was engineered by a high official of the state at Harrisburg to cover up a shortage in the state treasury.

DYING, HE WAS HANGED.

Inmate of New Jersey Reformatory Barbarously Treated.

New York.—Testimony taken by a New Jersey assembly committee, which has been investigating conditions in the state reformatory at Rahway, was to the effect that in October, 1904, an inmate, William Fordham, drank wood alcohol, and for so doing was strung up while suffering the agonies of wood alcohol poisoning, the witness said, although he kept groaning that he was dying. He did die after being let down.

The county prosecutor has been informed of the testimony and will take the case before the grand jury.

Swedish Sugar Trust.

Stockholm.—A combination with a capital of $40,000,000 has been formed by the Swedish sugar manufacturers. Nearly every sugar manufacturer in the country is a member of the trust, and those that did not participate will sell their holdings to the new company.

American Girl Causes Strike.

Ottawa, Ontario.—The employes of the telephone office at Fort William have struck because an American girl, Miss Ora Hudson, of Decatur, Ill., has been appointed chief operator. The linemen threaten to go out in sympathy with the young women.

Yankee Cruisers Coming Home.

Yokohama.—The American cruisers Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Maryland and Colorado, which have been here for six days, left for the United States via Honolulu. The American sailors were given the usual shore leave, and devoted their time to sightseeing in Yokohama and Tokio.

He Robbed Washington Bank.

Washington, D. C.—Edwin H. Putts, until a few days ago a trusted employe of the American National bank, is missing, and the police are looking for him on a charge of having stolen $11,000 of certificates of Erie railway stock.

Jackson's Mayor Was Indicted.

Jackson, Ga.—The August term of Butts superior court has adjourned. The indicting by the grand jury of the Hon. Joe B. Wall, mayor of Jackson, for carrying concealed weapons, was the sensation of the closing hour of the court's work. Mr. Wall, besides being the mayor of Jackson, is a member of the local bar and quite a prominent young man socially.

Many Battleships Ordered.

London.—A foreign government supposed to be Russia, says the Chronicle, has awarded to a British firm of shipbuilders a contract for several battleships, cruisers and gunboats. A record insurance of nearly $12,000,000 has been effected on the building and launching risks, the policies covering two years.

A powder mill explosion and killing two at Hixton, Wis.

The Banner.

Issued and Published every Thursday at Clanton, Chilton County, Ala.

Entered at the postoffice at Clanton, Ala., as second-class mail matter.

"There shall the press the people's rights maintain,
Unawed by influence and unbribed by gain,
There patriot truth her glorious precepts draw,
Pledged to religion, liberty and law."

Subscription, yearly $1.00
Invariably in advance.

Address all communications to THE BANNER, Clanton, Ala.

WILL YOU, PLEASE,

stop for one moment in your busy working day and think when your last subscription to The Banner was paid? If your conscience answers it was anywhere within the last twelve months, we ask your pardon, bid you God speed and go on again. If, however, your conscience says it is more than a year since I have paid The Banner anything, then we bid you God speed and hope you will make all the haste possible to come and pay what you are due.

PROHIBITION is the order of the day. The worthy authorities of a North Dakota town have passed an ordinance prohibiting "flirting," and a modest young man dare not even look at a beautiful girl without danger of arrest. "What fools these mortals be." But, thank Heaven, we have not yet arrived at this pass in Alabama, although there is no telling what may be coming in the way of prohibition. "To make hay while the sun shines" is a good motto, for some wise acres may possibly prohibit the sun from shining.

Commissioner of Agriculture J. A. Wilkinson is one of the many prominent agriculturists of the south who firmly believe that 15-cent cotton is now assured. Commissioner Wilkinson does not base his belief on production, but on the basis of the finished product, which is now being sold at prices anticipating 15-cent cotton.

DEMOCRACY'S CHANCE.

From the Montgomery Journal.

In the last issue of the Clanton Banner appears the following interesting political announcement:

"Last Friday a mass meeting of republicans and old time populists was held at the court house for the purpose of consolidating the two parties, which has practically been accomplished any time the last six years. A joint county committee was elected, and the populist party declared dead. J. T. Blakemore, of Birmingham, Charles H. Scott and W. F. Aldrich addressed the meeting."

It was doubtless an occasion for great rejoicing among the republicans, but we doubt very seriously if it was an occasion of rejoicing among old members of the populist party in that county who are less republican than they are democratic—men who, if they have to choose between the two parties will choose the democratic party. The leader of the opposition to democracy in Chilton is Judge Reynolds, a very able man and a good man, a man who, as a member of the legislature, has voted with the dominant faction of the democratic party for reforms, and has been in thorough sympathy with the reform policies of the democracy. Heretofore he has held the opposition to the democracy together in Chilton. This was more of a personal tribute to his leadership, to the fact that even his opponets recognized that he was an honest man, that there is no stain upon his good name, than to any sympathy with the republican party, its method or its policies. Now that the populists have yielded up their name for that of republican, there are hundreds of the good old honest farmers, who had a real and just grievance against the democracy, will return to the party to which they formerly claimed allegiance, accepting it as the lesser of the two evils. In the last county contest in Chilton the vote was very close between the populists and the democrats, so close that one of the democratic canidates was elected, and with this new line up, the democrats have the chance of their lives to win. They ought to get a few leading populists, who are unwilling to go body and soul into the republican party, and jointly call a meeting of the populists and democrats for the purpose of getting together. Now is the time to strike, while the iron is hot. It is inconceivable that any considerable number of populists, nearly all of whom until the populist party was formed in 1890, participated in democratic primaries and conventions and affiliated with the party.

GOOD ROADS.

U. S. Department of Agriculture
Office of Public Roads, Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:—In further explanation of our plan for co-operation between the Government and the press in an educational campaign for road improvement, I invite your attention to the following tentive outline.

1. Practical articles on road building, maintenance, and administration, with a question column, as suggested in our first letter.

2. Following the press articles, the judicious distribution of Government publications on various phases of road work.

3. The organization on the part of the local communities of associations designed to bring about an improvement of the public roads in the respective counties and townships, these associations to have a definite aim and to have sections or committees somewhat along the following lines:

(a) Committee on road administraton: This committee should ascertain the revenue for road purposes, how derived, how expended, what accounting system is followed, under what laws the work is being carried on; what organization exists, make recommendations for reform in road laws, organization, systems of accounting, etc.

(b) Committee on road materials: This committee should ascertain the location, character, quantity and availibility of all road materials in the county, cost of transportation, and make recommendations as to whether the source of supply should be secured by the county, and any other pertinent information and suggestions bearing upon the subject of road materials.

(c) Committee on road construction and maintenance: This committee should ascertain mileage of all public roads; classify them according to amount of traffic and importance; ascertain what is necessary; the probable cost; draw up a general plan for the gradual improvement of all the county roads along definite, intelligent lines according to the means available. It should obtain data bearing upon all phases of road construction and should co-operate closely with the committee on road materials and drawing up its recommendations as to the kind and amount of road construction to be undertaken. It should make a close study of road maintenence with a view to introducing the best and most economical methods in the treatment of common roads and should familiarize itself with all classes of road equipment and recommend such as are best adapted to the local road conditions.

(d) Committee on ways and means: The aim of this committee should be to uphold and further the work of the other committees by devising plans for financing the association and for carrying out the various lines of work indicated.

4. The office of Public Roads, after the proper organization has been inaugurated as above described or when requested by the local authorities, will so far as its limited appropriation and personnel will permit, assign lectures in such manner as will best meet the requirements of the local situation and further the efforts of the various committees of the association by assigning experts on road administration and accounting, road materials, and road construction, who will, under the direction of the county association, make a thorough investigation along the respective lines above set forth.

The part of the office of Public Roads in this general plan may be said to conform to the following sequence: (a) Newspaper campaign, (b) Government publications, (c) lectures, (d) expert investigations, reports and advice, (e) where a plan of road improvement has been decided upon, a practical demonstration of road building and temporary road school to instruct the local men in the principles and methods of road building.

The plan of co-operation on the part of newspapers is (a) the publication of articles prepared by Government experts, (b) question column, (c) vigorous campaign editorially and otherwise to obtain definite results.

The plan of co-operation of the local authorities and citizens is (a) organization, (b) working committees, (c) the adoption of a definite system and the inauguration of definite reforms as to the logical result.

Very respectfully,
DIRECTOR.

Preamble and Resolution of the Baptist church of Christ of Bethsalem. Met in conference after divine service, and calling for a report of the standing committee of the church, the committee reported that they had investigated the charge against Bro. J. N. Billingsley and find that he is innocent of the charge brought against him in the court of Autauga county by C. E. Boone, E. B. Gaines and C. B. Deramus, and we feel it to be the duty of the church to set our brother right. He is of good Christian character and in good standing and is a good worker in the church. Therefore we denounce all such conduct as these men have shown in being false witnesses against our brother; we find that it is all through malice and envy. Therefore be it Resolved, That we, the church of Bethsalem, will stand by our brother and will do all in our power for him.

Done in conference, this the 14th day of August, 1907.

M. J. PARRISH, Moderator.
W. J. VINSON, Clerk pro tem.

Sardis.

Dear Editor—Please allow me space in the Banner for a few words.

We are glad to say that our Sunday school is progressing nicely with large attendance.

Prof. Bone's school was out last Friday but will continue 3 weeks longer for writing and arithmetic.

The school at Vermont is moving on nicely in the careful management of Miss Annie Catchings.

We are glad to say that Mrs. Lucy Hayes is improving nicely.

There is talk of building a new church here; hope they'll succeed.

Mrs. Bam Gooding is visiting relatives here this week.

Mr. George Hayes and wife are with his father here.

Mr. W. A. Milford and wife paid homefolks a visit Saturday night.

With much love to the Banner and its readers.

TWO RUNAWAYS.

APPLICATION FOR NEW DISTRICT.

At the regular August meeting of the Chilton School Board the following applications were made and accepted, and notice of final hearing was set for Saturday, Sept. 28, 1907.

Bounded as follows: Beginning at ne corner of sec. 17, tp. 21, r 16, and running west to ne corner of nw ¼ of nw ¼, sec 13, tp 21, r 15; thence south to se corner of nw ¼ of sw 1-4, sec 13, t 21, r 15; thence west to nw corner of nw 1-4 of sw 1-4, sec 13, tp 21, r 15; thence south to sw corner of nw 1-4 of nw 1-4, sec 25, tp 21, r 15; thence east to se corner of ne 1-4 of ne 1-4, sec 29, tp 21, r 16; thence north to starting point.

Done by order of the Board in session this 24th day of August, 1907.

R. A. RASCO, President.
G. L. SPEER, Secretary.

Maplesville.

Editor Banner:—Please allow me space in your valuable paper to say a few words about our little town.

It is a fact that there are a few people here who do not seem to be law-abiding, but as a whole, the people in Maplesville are nice quiet people, and they are people that do not meddle with other peoples' business. Everyone seems to go along, paddle his own canoe and let other peoples' business alone. The Twin Tree Lumber Co. will soon be ready to blow the whistle again and start the wheels to rolling.

I wish to say to all the young people, also the older ones, that we will, by the help of God, have prayer service at the Methodist church, every Sunday and Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock, and we certainly would be glad for them all to come every time, and it isn't only we, that invite you to come, but Christ, the blessed Savior, has already invited you to come, for he said "Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest." Oh! isn't this a blessed promise. Now, I hope that all will think over these few words and make up your minds to come out to prayer meeting. So I will close for this time.

A SUBSCRIBER.

Fletcher.

Editor Banner:—Please allow me space in your valuable paper to say a few words in regard to the negro race. Every crowd I get into, where the question is sprung at all, I hear the white land owners talking about the negroes growing more trifling every year, and some of us who rent land to them, are feeling the sting of it at a great cost. There is no telling how much is lost this year by employing trifling negroes on the farm. There are some good negroes and to these we have no reference. Just look at the fence corners where they farm, see the curkle burs and the last Maye grass as high as the cotton, see the sharp ended ears of corn, some of it just run around once during the whole process of cultivation. Look out, you trifling negros! Mend your ways or go to public works another year, I have heard several prominent farmers who have heretofore rented land to negroes, say that their land could lie idle before they would rent to a low down negro any more, and the whites are going to draw a tighter line over the black than they have ever drawn. Now, niger, think back to the days of old Dick McCary, Tom Ward, Sip Atchison and others and profit thereby, or take the pills that are prescribed for you, and go on to your happy hunting ground at once. Now, any one in Chilton county who has to contend with a dishonest, lazy, or otherwise, a mean negro, just let us know and we will at once examine him and see what medicine is best to prescribe for him, for doctering nigers is our calling.

PLETCHER BOY.

For an Impaired Appetite.

To improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion try a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and liver Tablets. Mr. J. H. Seitz, of Detroit, Mich., says: "They restored my appetite when impaired, relieved me of a bloated feeling and caused a pleasant and satisfactory movement of the bowels. Price, 25 cents. Samples free. Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Letter to R. E Sessions.

Clanton, Ala.

Dear Sir: We should like to set your boys and girls at work on this question in arithmetic and causistry.

A farmer is fatting three hogs in three small pens; they have equal room and straw and care, and are fed in these three ways: first hog on a certain portion of milk and cooked corn meal; second hog on same, half water; third hog on same, half water and sawdust. How long will it take, how much will they weigh, how much will they cost and what'll the profit be on the three?

And a similar question in pigmentry. The same farmer is going to paint three barns same size; and he says to three painters: "what'll you take to paint that barn?"

First painter scratches his head a few minutes and says: "I'll do it for $50."

Second painter: "$75."

Third painter: "$97.48."

Will they each get a barn to paint, or one get two, or one all three, or nobody any; and what'll they make on the job?

That's about how painting goes sometimes.

But there is a way to reckon: $5 a gallon. The difficulty is in knowing how many gallons to buy. There's a way out of that.

Buy the least-gallons paint, Devoe. No matter how much one buys; he returns what's left: costs nothing.

Yours truly
F W DEVOE & CO

29

"We never repent of eating too little." was one of the ten rules of life of Thomas Jefferson, president of the United States, and the rule applies to everyone without exception during this hot weather, because it is hard for food, even in small quantities, to be digested when the blood is at high temperature. At this season we should eat sparingly and properly. We should also help the stomach as much as possible by the use of a little Kodol for Indigestion and Dyspepsia, which will rest the stomach by digesting the food itself. Sold by Upchurch Drug Co.

"We Walk On Stars, So Can You"

The Family Shoe Store

That is what we are. One reason is because in the "OUR FAMILY" line of "STAR BRAND" shoes we have a shoe for every member of every family. Think what it means to have all your family shod economically in well-made, well-fitting and service-giving shoes. "OUR FAMILY" shoes are made by experts in big specialty factories from soft, pliable, good wearing, box calf leather.

The men's and boys' are Goodyear Welts which means that the soles are flexible and that there are no tacks, wax or thread inside to hurt, burn and blister the feet. Being reinforced with the instep with a brass clinch fastening, they cannot rip.

Prices are reasonable—Men's $3.00 to $3.50, Boys' $2.00 to $2.75, Youths' $2.25 to $2.50, Little Gent's $2.00.

The women's, misses' and children's shoes have a patent clinch sole retainer; the soles can't pull apart.

"OUR FAMILY" shoes for Women are $1.75 to $2.50, Misses' 12 to 2, $1.50 to $1.65, Children's 8½ to 11½, $1.25 to $1.50, 5 to 8, $1.10 to $1.25.

The star on the heel and the name "OUR FAMILY" on the sole of each shoe is a guarantee that they are honestly constructed and full of satisfaction.

"STAR BRAND SHOES ARE BETTER"

To see them is to like them. Come see them.

J. C. JONES Clanton

Summer is Here

and we are making our first showing of the New Summer Clothes for men and boys. They are the newest productions of best known makes, in all the latest fabrics, shades, and are pleasing the eye of a man who knows good clothes when he sees them. Come in, look, try one and you will be highly pleased.

This is the Season for Hat Changes and nothing can add to your appearance more than a stylish hat. If you will come in, we will convince you that we have the best styles.

Furnishing Goods

the little things that go to make up the attire of a well dressed man are to be found here in the newest styles at moderate prices.

Just Received a Beautiful Lot of Laces, Dress Goods and Lace Collars. Also a complete line of Puritan Corsets.

Summer Models In Footwear

Our line is complete.

Star Brand Shoes are Better

J. C. JONES

CLANTON - - - -

E. L. CARTER

CLANTON FURNITURE CO.

DEALERS IN

Furniture, Stoves, Lamps, Clocks, Shades, Matting, Rugs and Furnishing Goods of every kind. Needles and Supplies for Sewing Machines. We also do Repairing, Upholstering and Refinishing. We sell cheap for cash or on easy payments.

TRY OUR 5 & 10 CENT BARGAIN COUNTER

Your patronage solicited.

CLANTON - - ALA.

The First and La

store in Clanton. If you come from the west it's the first; from the east it's the last.

Our stock of General Merchandise is complete in quality and lowest in price.

FINE FAMILY GROCERIES—Always Fresh and Clean.

A fine line of Men's Dress Shirts and Neckwear.

SHOES of the finest quality and the best make. Try us.

A general assortment of first-class goods.

B. E. JONES & BRO.

CLANTON - - - -

Buy Hair at Auction?

At any rate, you seem to be getting rid of it on auction-sale principles: "going, going, g-o-n-e!" Stop the auction with Ayer's Hair Vigor. It certainly checks falling hair; no mistake about this. It acts as a regular medicine; makes the scalp healthy. Then you must have healthy hair, for it's nature's way.

The best kind of a testimonial—"Sold for over sixty years."

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass., also manufacturers of Ayer's SARSAPARILLA. PILLS. CHERRY PECTORAL.

The effect of malaria lasts a long time.

You catch cold easily or become run-down because of the after effects of malaria.

Strengthen yourself with Scott's Emulsion.

It builds new blood and tones up your nervous system.

ALL DRUGGISTS: 50c. AND $1.00.

Children h[ave] never cry as do children suffering from hunger. [Be]cause of all babys who are [af]fected by sickness, alm[ost] all are suffering [from] this is caused from their being assimilated but [by] worms. A few doses [of] Cream Vermifuge will [re]lieve crying and bring [re]lief at once. Give it a [tr]ial. Upchurch Drug co. [Ho]rn, Thorsby.

...e, So Can You"

...amily Store

...we are. One ... in the "OUR ... of "STAR ...ve have a shoe ...of every family. ...ans to have all ...economically in ...ng and service- ...UR FAMILY" ...y experts in big ...rom soil, plain, good wearing, box calf ... ...d boys' are Goodyear Welts which means ... ...le and that there are no tacks, wax or ... ...s and blister the feet. Being reinforced ... ...brass clinch fastening, they cannot rip. ...sonable—Men's $3.00 to $3.50, Boys' $2.... $2.25 to $2.50, Little Gents' $2.00. ...misses' and children's shoes have a ... ...; the soles can't pull apart. ...ILY" shoes for Women are $1.75 to $2.... $1.50 to $1.65, Children's 8½ to 11½, $1.... $1.10 to $1.25 ...the heel and the name "OUR FAMILY" ...h shoe is a guarantee that they are ... ...ll of satisfaction.

...E BRAND SHOES ARE BETTER" ...is to like them. Come see them.

JONES Clanton

...is Here

...our first showing of the New Summer ... ...boys. They are the newest productions ... ...all the latest fabrics, shades, and a ... ...knows good clothes when he sees them. ...you will be highly pleased.

...e Season for Hat Changing ...e your appearance more than a stylish, ...e in, we will convince you that we have ...

Furnishing Goods ...o to make up the attire of a well dressed ... ...n the newest styles at moderate prices.

...eceived a Beautiful Lot ...ds and Lace Collars. Also a complete ...

...her Models In Footwear

Brand Shoes are Better

...C. JONES

...TON FURNITURE CO.

DEALERS IN

...amps, Clocks, Shades, Matting, Rugs and ... ...ds of every kind. Needles and Supplies for ... ...nes. We also do Repairing, Upholstering ...hing. We sell cheap for cash or on easy payments.

...& 10 CENT BARGAIN COUNTER

...r patronage solicited.

... ALA...

...First and La...

...ton. If you come from the ... from the west it's the last. ...k of General Merchandise is ...d lowest in price.

GROCERIES—Always Fresh and ... of Men's Dress Shirts and Neckwear ...best quality and the best make. Try ... ...eral assortment of first-class goods.

...E. JONES & BRO.

...N - - - - - A...

...time. ...ne run- ...malaria. ...cott's ... ...nervous

Children in Pain never cry as do children suffering from hunger. ...cause of all babys who cry ... treated for sickness, when ...ally are suffering from ... This is caused from their ... being assimilated but ... worms. A few doses of ... Cream Vermifuge will ... to cease crying and begin ... at once. Give it a trial. ... Upchurch Drug co. ... Horn, Thorsby.

TOWN TOPICS

...ered Letters were issued ... Thursday, last Monday ... Monday, 26 letters remain ... Any one calling for ... will please say they ... Number in Register.

CLANTON COTTON MART ...day.....11¼ @ 12¢ ...same date last year 10¼ @ 11c ...Corrected to date

...ton receipts ...5 p.m. Wednesday....6271

...SE LOST—Saturday morn- ...tween Ruffin's store and Col. ...residence, containing two ...bills and about 25 cents in ...small black purse. Please ...to W. I. Mullins, Clanton. ...money belongs to Dr. J. J. ..., who is old and blind.

...Mattie Hurst of Anniston ...a few days with the family ...W. H. Sartor this week.

...Callie Watts has returned ...from an extended trip to ...Alabama and Montgomery.

...Annie Laman is spending a ...days with her sister, Mrs. G. ...Phillips.

...Annie Thomas, who has ...spending some time with her ...Mrs. W. D. Spigener, left ...day for her home at Kellyton.

...is no good reason why ...young man and woman in ...should not obtain a college ...tion. If this meets the eye ...one who is really desirous of ...ing this goal and needs advice ...questions, let him write to ...Prof. E. M. Shackelford, Troy, ...

A RELIABLE PROPOSITION. ...Can we recommend the "Our ..." shoe we know that we ...are suggesting our customers to ...these shoes that will wear well, ...look and please them. J. C. JONES, Clanton.

...L. F. Hester of Saginaw has ...been spending a few days with ...his here.

...F. M. Connell of Verbena ...town Saturday.

...G. E. Brown of Bessemer ...visiting her parents, Mr. and ...John Giles.

...S. S. Stanfield returned ...Chicago Saturday night.

...and Mrs. W. T. Manning of ...were in town Monday. ...will leave next week for an ...ded tour in Florida.

...it's a Fountain Pen you want ...will find them at Upchurch ...co., at all prices and of the ...make.

...Ellen Stanley, who is at- ...ing Massey's Business College ...Birmingham, spent Saturday ...Sunday with friends in Clan-

...Willie Gene Stewart of ...ingham is visiting the family ...W. H. Sartor.

...we don't want anyone to ...that J. V. Higgins, at the ...ce Drug Store, repairs all ...of Graphophones and Sew- ...chines. Satisfaction Guar- ...d.

...handle Lowney's fine choc- ...best made. Florence Drug ...

...and Mrs. J. H. Shepherd ...returned from a trip to Chi-

...Abe Kanter left Sunday for ...York and other Eastern ...ts, to purchase his fall supply ...ds.

...Glennie Evans is visiting ...es in Birmingham.

...Cannon & Sons' Wagons ...you buy.

...John A. Thomas returned ...his vacation in Georgia, Sun- ...and Mr. E. H. Hawkins, who ...es in his place at the Bank, ...his home at Ashland, Mon-

...you a RAZOR from the ...ch Drug co.—the three ...kind—guaranteed for three

...age licenses have been issued ...k by the Probate Judge to ...owing persons. ...G. W. Killgore and Miss ...Ray; Mr. J. E. Dennis and ...Lottie Adams; Mr. William ...ingham and Mrs. Minnie ...

...ed. Geo. Fike and Mary ...

...Riha, a prominent dealer of ..., Ia., says: "I have been ...DeWitt's Kidney and Blad- ...for about a year and they ...better satisfaction than any pill ...sold. There are a dozen peo- ...who have used them and ...give perfect satisfaction in ...case. I have used them my- ...with fine results. Sold by Up- ...Drug co.

How is the Time

We are now ready to show you a full line of Clothing, Shoes, Hats, and complete line of Dress Goods.

Furniture, Stoves, Sewing Machines, etc.

Tennessee and Fish Wagons.

Everything to make your home and farm complete. Give us a trial and if we can't sell you we will be badly mistaken.

E. M. PINCKARD & CO.

CLANTON

Mr. A. W. Middleton spent Sunday in Birmingham.

Mr. F. M. Wilson of Verbena was one of our pleasant visitors Wednesday.

DON'T GRUMBLE

when your joints ache and you suffer from Rheumatism. Buy a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment and get instant relief. A positive cure for Rheumatism, Burns, Cuts, Contracted Muscles, Sore Chest, etc., Mr. I. F. Bogy, a prominent merchant at Willow Point, Texas, says that he finds Ballard's Snow Liniment the best all around Liniment he ever used. Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Miss Alta and Maggie McKinney of Birmingham are visiting friends in Clanton.

Mrs. S. U. Turnipseed and children returned Monday from an extended trip to relatives in South Alabama.

Eczema.

For the good of those suffering with eczema or othe such trouble, I wish to say, my wife had something of that kind and after using the doctors' remedies for some time concluded to try Chamberlain's Salve, and it proved to be better than anything she had tried. For sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Fifth District Agricultural School

WETUMPKA, ALABAMA

Opens Tuesday, September 17, '07. TUITION FREE. Board $10 to $12 per month. Magnificent new brick and stone building, costing over $41,000, the most complete in the State. Steam heat, electric lights, sanitary plumbing, bath rooms, gymnasium, etc. Strong faculty. Superior discipline. Thorough preparation for College, University, or life work. Certificate admits, without examination, to the leading colleges and universities. Special advantages in Music, Art, Expression, Physical Culture, Domestic Science and Athletics. For catalogue address, LEONARD L. VANN, President.

17 Jewel Elgin or Waltham Watch

in a 20-year Crown Case for $12.50

The Best Repair Shop Between Birmingham and Montgomery

I sell GOOD AMERICAN Watches cheap and do not sell fake Swiss watches at all.

They are sold by mail order houses—avoid them—buy an Elgin or Waltham Watch. Let me show you some Watches.

J. W. MARTIN

THE JEWELER BY THE POST OFFICE

Calera, Ala.

The Calera Machine Repair Shop

is now open for General Repair Work We repair Engines, Boilers, Saw Mills or any other Machinery that comes to hand. We guarantee all our work.

We also buy second hand machinery of all kinds.

We do all kinds of Pipe work.

We are also prepared with all Modern Tools, and have an expert Saw Hammerer who will straighten your Crooked Saws, and will Gum and Dress them, so that they will run and cut good smooth lumber and use 20 per cent less power.

We repair all kinds of Household Goods.

We do all kinds of Round Wood Turning, from an Ornamental Column to a Shell Spindle.

In short, we are here for business and to do you good.

We solicit a trial.

THE CALERA MACHINE REPAIR SHOP

CALERA, ALA.

A Sewing Machine

well made, nicely finished, has improvements over the old styles, runs easily and quietly, low cost, but good work and quality.

Come in and examine it, you will be surprised at our good value for $18.00.

SPIGENER & JONES

The Hardware Store

CLANTON

Maplesville.

POSTPONEMENT OF BARBACUE

BIG CELEBRATION AT MAPLESVILLE TO BE HELD ON SEPT. 5.

The big celebration which is being planned for Maplesville will come off on September 5, instead of August 29 as previously announced. There will be a first class barbecue, with all kinds of good things to eat. The Governor will also be present and talk to the people.

The chief object of the gathering will be a demonstration of a representative of the United States Forest Service. Alabama farmers know very well how of late years the durable woods they formerly used have become scarcer, sometimes almost impossible to obtain. Old field pine they have in plenty, but it decays so quickly as to be practically worthless. By impregnating this porus timber with creosote oil, however, it can be made to resist decay, and becomes more durable than oak. The U. S. Forest Service has been engaged in perfecting a method for the application of this treatment which would be within the reach of the farmer and the small operator. Our enterprising Commissioner of Agriculture and Industry, Hon. J. A. Wilkinson, of Montgomery, has secured the co-operation of this branch of the national government for the benefit of the farmers of the State of Alabama. An experimental plant is being set up at Maplesville to demonstrate just how this treatment must be done, under the conditions of the South, and what it will cost. This will be a great work for the farmers of the State, turning a worthless product into one of value, and giving them an always available supply of material for posts and other such timbers. The Commissioner is to be congratulated upon his good work.

During the day of the barbacue, Mr. C. L. Hill, the government representative, will conduct a demonstration of the work, and will give a talk explaining it in detail. There will also be addresses on other subjects of interest to the farmer, on soil fertility, fertilizers, rotation of crops, fish and game etc.

Everybody who is interested in this work is invited from far and near, to come and help make the day a big success.

T. U. CRUMPTON.

The Limit of Life.

The most eminent medical scientists are unanimous in the conclusion that the generally accepted limitation of human life is many years below the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed. The critical period, that determines its duration, seems to be between 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this decade cannot be too strongly urged; carelessness then being fatal to longevity. Nature's best helper after 50 is Electric Bitters, the scientific tonic medicine that revitalizes every organ of the body. Guaranteed by Upchurch Drug co 50c.

Program of Teachers' Institute

to be held at Jemison, Ala., Sept. 20-21 1907.

10:00 a.m. Devotional Exercises, Rev Mr Loftin.

10:15. Address of Welcome, R. A. Rasco.

10:30. Response, F. B. Williams.

10:45. Address to Teachers, Rev. S. B. Groves.

11:30. Teaching as compared with other professions, E. M. Meadows. Discussion.

1:30 p.m. Grading Country Schools, Mrs. S. B. Groves.

2:00. School Discipline, J. M. Parrish Jr. Discussion.

3:00. Teacher's preparation for class work, R. E. K. Hicks.

SATURDAY.

9:00 a.m Aesthetics. Rev, P. G. Maness.

10:00. Teacher's influence on the character of the pupils. J. T. Williams.

10:30. Recitation by Miss Ada Rasco.

11:00. Educational Address, Hon. W. B. Craig.

1:30 p.m Song service, short talks.

The Educational Board insists that all teachers and others interested in the cause of education attend this institute. Committee—R. A. RASCO, J. W. MOORE, J. N. DENNIS, G. L. SPEER.

"Everybody Should Know"

says C. G. Hays, a prominent business man of Bluff, Mo., that Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the quickest and surest healing salve ever applied to a sore, burn or wound, or to a case of piles I've used it and know what I'm talking about." Guaranteed by Upchurch Drug co, 50c.

KILL THE COUGH AND CURE THE LUNGS

WITH Dr. King's New Discovery

FOR Coughs & Colds

AND ALL THROAT AND LUNG TROUBLES.

GUARANTEED SATISFACTORY OR MONEY REFUNDED.

Schloss, in Dutch, means a Castle

Schloss, in English, means Good Clothes

Krump on the Korner Got 'em

Come in and Get 'em Then Wear 'em

'Gin the Law Not to Wear 'em

A suit of 'em would get Crichton off. Try 'em!

KRUMP

ON THE KORNER

MAPLESVILLE - - ALA.

—GO TO—

A. M. JOHNSON

—MANAGER OF—

THE CASH GROCERY STORE

THORSBY, ALA.

FOR BARGAINS IN

Staple and Fancy Groceries

We make a specialty of Fresh Fish and Oysters, Fresh Pork and all kinds of Sausage, Breakfast Bacon, Boneless Ham and ...

—DELICATESSEN—

Pop, Soda Water and Jersey Butter always on hand.

Country Produce Bought, Sold and Exchanged.

Notice.

Real Estate, Fire, Life Insurance and Singer Machines.

I have on hand now some nice and convenient places for rent and some extra bargains in real estate. I also represent several leading fire insurance companies, and the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co.

My High Arm Singer Machine Stock is complete; Machines to sew perfect, run lighter and last longer than any other make. Remember, too, the price has been cut and you can get any terms you wish, monthly or annual payments. Also $5.00 allowance for your old machine.

Several good second hand Machines on hand at a bargain.

Needles, Bands, Cans, Attachments, and the only genuine Machine Oil made, 10 and 25¢ bottles.

I also represent the Jesse French Piano & Organ Co. When you need anything in my line, call on me at same old stand. Regular office days Friday, Saturday and Monday of each week.

C. R. MULLINS

CLANTON

TELEPHONE OR CALL AT

HEADLEY BROS.

when you are in need of

Dry Goods, Shoes, Hats and Caps

Glass, China and Tinware

WE MAKE A SPECIALTY IN OUR CANNED GOODS LINE

The Best Apples, Oranges and Fancy Candies

ALL KINDS OF CAKES IN PACKAGES AND BULK

Anything you want to eat, from a Pea to a Barrel of Flour

PROMPT DELIVERY. BELL PHONE 18

H. HEADLEY & BRO.

Successors to A. Headley & Son

To PUBLISHERS AND PRINTERS

We Manufacture the Very Highest Grade of

Type, Brass Rule in Strips, Brass Labor Saving Rule, Brass Column Rules, Brass Circles, Brass Leaders Brass Round Corners, Brass Leads and Slugs, Brass Galleys, Metal Borders, L. S. Metal Furniture, Leads and Slugs, Metal Leaders, Spaces and Quads, 6 to 48 point, Metal Quoins, etc.

Old Column Rules relaced and made as good as new at a small cost.

Please remember that we are not in any Trust or Combination and are sure that we can make it greatly to your advantage to deal with us.

A copy of our Catalogue will be cheerfully furnished on application.

PHILADELPHIA PRINTERS' SUPPLY CO.

Manufacturers of

Type and High Grade Printing Material

PROPRIETORS PENN TYPE FOUNDRY

49 North Ninth Street PHILADELPHIA

OBJECTS TO THE OPINION OF JUDGE JONES

No Counsel Appear For The County Officials

NO DISRESPECT INTENDED

Argument by Gregory L. Smith on Jurisdiction of Federal Court in Enlarged Injunction Proceedings, and Temporary Order is Continued.

Montgomery.—Declaring that it was futile for him or other attorneys to go into the federal court representing the solicitors and sheriffs of the state, when the presiding judge, to whom he paid high personal compliments and declared he meant absolutely no disrespect, had already prejudged the case at issue, Attorney General Garber Saturday morning declined to appear for the county officials who were responding to the enlarged injunction obtained by the Louisville and Nashville railroad, preventing any interference with its operation of its road.

General Garber explained that his refusal and that of the other attorneys for the state in this particular phase of the railroad litigation was not meant as an affront or anything in the nature of disrespect to Judge Jones. But it was regarded by them as hopeless to attempt to make any showing on behalf of the solicitors and sheriffs after the opinion rendered by Judge Jones two or three days after the preliminary injunction was granted.

After the withdrawal of the attorney general, Gregory M. Smith, of Mobile, counsel for the Louisville and Nashville railroad in the pending litigation, argued as to the jurisdiction of the federal court to issue such an enlarged injunction, reaching the conclusion that there was no question of the correctness of the position taken by the court. During the argument there was no attorney present in behalf of the solicitors or sheriffs.

Judge Jones, after a recess until 4 o'clock, rendered an opinion from the bench, declaring that the opinion of which Attorney General Garber complained was only a formal setting forth of the conclusions of the court on the applications for a preliminary restraining order. That preliminary order was continued in force, without a formal order to that effect, until further orders of the court.

During the afternoon Attorney General Garber gave out the following brief statement concerning the proceedings:

"Concerning the hearing before Judge Jones, of the United States court, this morning, I want it distinctly understood that when it becomes necessary, in the opinion of the state administration, for the solicitors and sheriffs to have counsel appear for them in the federal court or elsewhere, provision will be made to that end."

Noel is Victorious.

Memphis, Tenn.—Hon. E. F. Noel, of Holmes county, has been nominated for governor in the Democratic primary held in Mississippi last Thursday. Earl Brewer, his opponent, concedes Noel's nomination, and asks all Democrats to support him. The nomination is equivalent to an election.

Bale is 43 Years Old.

Columbus, Ga.—C. C. Jones, of Harris county, Georgia, while in the city this week said that he had a bale of cotton in a warehouse that was grown, ginned and packed by his father, the late Col. C. C. Jones, in 1859. The old bale has been kept as a relic, and is an object of much interest.

Head-On Collision.

Sapulpa, I. T.—Four persons were killed and thirty injured when the westbound St. Louis and San Francisco passenger train No. 4[illegible], due in Tulsa at 9:12, both loaded heavily with excursionists, collided head-on near this city.

Kills Turk of Awful Name.

New York.—Joe Akkiejogha has received permission from Justice Brady, of the supreme court, to call himself Joe White after November 1 next. Joe is a Turk, and his name means "White" in Constantinople. He complained that his acquaintances here could not get around his name.

Takes Life With Gun.

Fairmount, W. Va.—Charles, the 11-year-old son of Constable M. M. Lawson, committed suicide at his home in Winfield by shooting himself. The boy bade his mother good-bye and walked away, but nothing was then thought of it. A little later the report of a gun was heard near the house, and upon rushing out, Mrs. Lawson found her son with his head blown off. No cause for the suicide is known.

Don't It Come High?

Minneapolis, Minn.—A fine of $20,000 was imposed upon the Chicago St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha Railway company, and its former general freight agent, Hiram H. Pearce ordered to pay a $2,000 fine by Judge Page Morris in the United States district court here today. The Omaha road, conjoinly with its former general freight agent was convicted of granting rebates to the Spencer Grain company.

NO MEAT DELIVERED.

Strike of Wagon Drivers Interferes with Meat Business.

New York. — Deliveries of meat from the local packing houses were completely halted Friday by the 400 wagon drivers who went on strike. Not a delivery wagon of the wholesale butchers were moved during the early morning hours. The strikers said that only meat from the Chicago refrigerator trains was being delivered and that the drivers who handle that may be called out on strike later. With a stoppage of deliveries from the meat trains the city would be quickly affected by a meat famine. Half a dozen strikers held up a delivery wagon of the New York Dressed Butchers' Beef company and attempted to drag Superintendent Brown of that company and his drivers off the wagon seat. Superintendent Brown, who formerly was a police captain, tackled the strikers and put them to flight.

Representatives of many of the big packing and distributing houses said that a large number of non-union men had been employed during the forenoon to take the places of the striking drivers.

CHICAGO HAS IT.

"Dreadnaught" of the Autos Being Built by the Windy City.

Chicago—The city of Chicago is building an automobile, which it is promised will be to other automobiles what the English battleship Dreadnaught is to other naval vessels. It is on account of the auto's size that the city is doing the work itself, as special patterns had to be made for it. The machine is to be used as a police patrol wagon. It is to be of steel body seventy horse power, and large enough to carry eighteen policemen and the chauffeur. The use expected to be made of the vehicle is to carry a good-sized squad of policemen to any point where there is more serious trouble than the men immediately available can handle. It will be able to go much faster than the present patrol wagons, and carry more men.

DEFALCATION IS CHARGED.

Milk Wagon Drivers' Union Claim That $20,000 is Gone.

Chicago.—Through the defalcation of a trusted secretary-treasurer, the Milk Wagon Drivers' union, one of the strongest labor organizations in Chicago, has, it is alleged, been plunged from affluence into temporary poverty. By means of duplicate books and juggling the various accounts, the official, it is charged, has secured possession of all the union's funds, something over $20,000.

A special meeting of the union has been called to consider what action to take.

Laborers Had Legs Crushed.

Yazoo, Miss.—A freight train on the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley railway jumped the track while running north at Kingsley, Miss., and sideswiped a train which was standing on a side-track. negro laborers who were sitting on the construction train had their legs crushed off, four of them dying in an hour. The other three are in a critical condition.

Auto Trip Across Africa.

Berlin.—The automobile trip across Africa by the German army lieutenant, Graetz, has been temporarily halted by a broken cylinder. A new cylinder has been sent for and when it is installed the trip will proceed. Graetz, who started from Zar-Es-Salama, had traveled 250 miles when the accident befell his machine.

Bank Safe Robbed.

Hattiesburg, Miss.—Robbers broke into the People's bank at Wiggins, Miss., a small sawmill town twenty-five miles south of here, at an early hour Friday morning and secured $1,400, the entire contents of the safe. The safe was apparently opened by some one who knew the combination.

Heroic Measures to Break Drought.

New Haven.—As the drought still continues, Mayor Studley, of this city, has suggested that a battery of field artillery be used to discharge fifty rounds of ammunition in the hope of producing an atmospheric change and consequent precipitation. Except for two brief thunder storms several weeks ago no rain has fallen in this vicinity for sixty days.

Georgia Stillers Moving.

Frederick, Md.—Since the passage of the rigid prohibition law in Georgia, representatives of a well-known distillery of that state have been looking at the Horsey distillery near Burkittsville, this county, with a view to its purchase. No deal has as yet been consummated, but if their price is obtained the Horsey company will sell out.

Zimmer Sentenced.

San Francisco.—Police Judge Weller has ruled the motion for arrest of judgment and a new trial in the case of Emil J. Zimmer, vice president of the Pacific States Telephone company, convicted of contempt in Judge Lawlor's court. He sentenced Zimmer to three months' imprisonment in the county jail. Notice of appeal was given and for the filing of an appeal bond in the sum of $1,000. Zimmer was allowed his liberty.

GOING FOR TRUSTS.

Texans Are Carrying Out the Law as They See It.

Dallas, Tex.—One of the most important anti-trust suits started was filed at Austin Saturday. The suit was filed by the attorney-general's department on behalf of the state against the International Harvester Company of America, which was organized under the laws of Wisconsin.

The petition alleges taht the defendant concern has violated the anti-trust law of Texas and demands penalties in the sum of $1,700,000.

It is further alleged that this concern has formed an unlawful combine with these corporations: McCormick Harvestern and Machinery Company, Deering Harvestern Company, Piano Manufacturing Company, Warden Buchnell & Giesner Company, Minneapolis Harvestern Company, D. M. Osborne & Co. and Aultman Manufacturing Company.

CUBAN TRADE.

Export and Import Trade is Largely Increased.

Washington, D. C.—Trade of the United States with Cuba in the fiscal year just ended aggregated almost $150,000,000. The imports from the island were nearly $100,000,000 in value and the exports thereto nearly $50,000,000. To be more accurate, the value of the imports from Cuba in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, was $97,441,690, and of the exports thereto $49,205,274.

In both imports and exports the trade with Cuba in 1907 exceeded that of any previous year. The largest imports from the island in any previous year were those of 1905, when they aggregated a little over $86,000,000.

COAL WON TEST IN EUROPE.

American Companies Have to Turn Down Big Orders of It.

Philadelphia, Pa.—Because of its inability to fill the order the Philadelphia and Reading coal and Iron Company was compelled to decline a contract for 200,000 tons of anthracite, order of which was tendered by a representative of Austro-Hungarian chamber of commerce. The proposed purchaser was willing to pay the regular price for placing the coal on board vessels either here or in New York.

Another order of 200,000 tons of bituminous coal wanted by the Italian government is also being offered to the largest coal operators of the United States, with little prospect of its being taken because of the great expense in delivering it to its Italian destination.

TERRIBLE OUTRAGES.

Villagers Slaughtered, Women Carried Off and the Churches Defiled.

Teheran.—Samsam Dowles and other officials, according to reports received, have been killed by the invading Turks, after having been taken prisoners. Many inoffensive Persian villagers, including women and children, have been slaughtered, women carried off and churches have been defiled. Much grain and property has been taken or destroyed.

There are no signs of the withdrawal of Turks from Persian territory.

Another report says that the Turks have occupied Merivan, in Persian Kurdestan, east of Suleimania. In a telegram asking for help, the clergy and inhabitants of Merivan add that if the Persian government is powerless, the people must beg Ruasia to assist them.

Stack of Paper Money Unearthed.

Rumford Falls, Me.—Workmen building roads near East Rartford found a huge stump, the remains of a century old pine, obstructing the path. Dynamite was necessary to remove this old settler, and after the explosion a perfect rain of fragments of paper currency fell about the astounded workmen. The men gathered a quantiy of the mutilated bills and found most of them to be of large denominations, such as $50, $100 and even larger. How the money came to be buried in such a place is a mystery, but the fragments have been forwarded to Washington for redemption.

Call for the National Banks.

Washington, D. C.—The comptroller of currency has issued a call for a statement as to the condition of national banks at the close of business August 22.

Two-Year-Old Child Arrested.

Pittsburg, Pa.—A warrant has been issued for 2-year-old William Shaffer by Magistrate Armstrong, which is believed to be the record in arresting babies. The magistrate refused to hear the case. Frank B. Fisher, of the Homewood district, was the complainant. He alleged that the baby had torn up his lawn.

Forced to Raise Interest.

New York.—The city comptroller has announced that he will offer $40,000,000 of New York city bonds at public sale on September 10. The bonds will bear 4 1-2 per cent interest. The city was recently forced to raise its interest rate to 4 1-2 per cent because of the inability to sell securities on a 4 per cent basis, and the coming sale of city bonds will be the first made under the increased interest rate.

ROOSEVELT DENOUNCES "RICH MAN'S CONSPIRACY"

Warns "Unfriendly Interests" in Speech at Provincetown.

FIGHTS LAWBREAKERS ONLY

Contest is Now On, He Declares, to Determine Who Shall Rule—Immense Fortunes Invested in Business Need Curbing.

Provincetown, Mass. — Before a gathering of 30,000 persons, who filled the old fishing village to overflowing, President Roosevelt discussed questions of the hour. His presence was due to the laying of the cornerstone of the monument to commemorate the landing of the Pilgrims on New England soil.

The President arrived on the Mayflower at 10 o'clock a. m., and was greeted with a salute from the assembled warships. As the President landed a committee composed of Governor Guild of Massachusetts, the president of the Pilgrim Society, and the chairman of the Selectmen of Provincetown, met him at the pier and formally welcomed him to Massachusetts. The carriages carrying these officers, members of the President's family and of the committee, formed a procession and drove directly to the hill where the ceremonies attendant upon the laying of the cornerstone of the monument were held.

Prayer opened the exercises at the monument, followed by brief Masonic ceremonies. The president of the Pilgrim Society thereupon introduced the Governor, who in turn introduced the President.

James Bryce, British Ambassador, was on the program, and followed the President with an address, as did also Senator Henry Cabot Lodge and Representative William C. Lovering.

President Roosevelt in his address asserted his belief that the "particularly severe" disturbance on the New York Stock Exchange was for the most part "due to matters not particularly confined to the United States and to matters wholly unconnected with any Governmental action." The startling feature of this portion of the speech was, however, his suggestion of another "rich men's conspiracy" contained in this declaration:

"It may well be that the determination of the Government, in which, gentlemen, it will not waver, to punish certain malefactors of great wealth has been responsible for something of the troubles, at least to the extent of having caused these men to combine to bring about as much financial stress as they possibly can in order to discredit the policy of the Government and thereby to secure a reversal of that policy so that they may enjoy the fruits of their own evil doings."

He asserted "that it is necessary to exercise a far more efficient control than at present over the business use of those vast fortunes, chiefly corporate, which are used in interstate business." State action, he declared, could not produce "wholesome results," and he advocated national incorporation for corporations engaged in interstate commerce, avowing that the most pressing need was for a more complete control by the Federal Government over the railroads "under the interstate commerce clause, and, if necessary, under the post road clause of the Constitution."

The President spoke of the interstate commerce law and the anti-trust law as experiments which had disclosed the necessity of improvement or modification. He went at length into the difficulties of convicting individuals for violations of business regulation enactments compared with the relative ease of procuring verdicts against corporations, but asserted that the administration proposed to punish rich men wherever prosecutions looked promising. He also took occasion to advocate once more a national employers' liability law of increased extent and stringency.

President Roosevelt spoke for forty minutes. His entire speech was one of vigor and directness and on matters of national importance.

In the following unequivocal language the President answered the law-defying corporations which have been creating Wall Street "panics" and through their special agencies have been attempting to make it appear that the prosecution of monopolies is hurting business and undermining the Nation's prosperity:

"During the present trouble with the stock market I have, of course, received countless requests and suggestions, public and private, that I should say or do something to ease the situation. There is a world-wide financial disturbance. It is felt in the bourses of Paris and Berlin, and British consols are lower than for a generation, while British railway securities have also depreciated. On the New York Stock Exchange the disturbance has been peculiarly severe.

"Most of it I believe to be due to matters not peculiar to the United States, and the most of the remainder to matters wholly unconnected with any Governmental action; but it may well be that the determination of the Government, in which, gentlemen, it will not waver, to punish certain malefactors of great wealth has been responsible for something of the trouble, I believe to the extent of having caused these men to contrive to bring as much financial strife as possible in order to discredit the policy of the Government and thereby secure a reversal of that policy so that they may enjoy unmolested the fruits of their own evil doings.

"They have misled many good people into believing that there should be such reversal of policy if possible. If so I am sorry, but it will not alter my attitude. Once for all let it be said that as far as I am concerned and for the eighteen months of my Presidency that remain there will be no change in the policy we have steadily pursued, or let-up in the efforts to secure the honest observance of the law, for I regard this contest as one to determine who shall rule this free country—the people through their Governmental agents or a few ruthless, domineering men, whose wealth makes them peculiarly formidable because they hide behind breastworks of corporate organization.

"I wish there to be no mistake on this point; it is idle to ask me not to prosecute criminals, rich or poor, but I desire no less emphatically to have it understood that we have sanctioned and will sanction no action of a vindictive type, and above all no action which shall inflict great and unmerited suffering upon innocent stockholders and upon the public as a whole.

"Our purpose is to act with minimum harshness compatible with attaining our end. In the man of great wealth who has earned his wealth honestly and uses it wisely we recognize a good citizen of the best type, worthy of all praise and respect.

"Business can only be done under modern conditions through corporations, and our purpose is heartily to favor the corporations that do well. The Administration appreciates that liberal but honest profits for legitimate promoting, good salaries for able and right management, and dividends for capital employed, either in founding or continuing wholesome business ventures, are the factors necessary for successful corporate activity, and, therefore, for generally prosperous business condition.

"All these are compatible with fair dealings as between man and man and rigid obedience to the law. Our aim is to help every honest man, every honest corporation, and our policy means, in the ultimate, healthy and prosperous expansion of business activity, honest business methods and honest corporations."

U. S. MAIL ROBBED OF $250,000.

Registered Pouches Missed From Burlington Train.

Omaha, Neb.—The biggest robbery in the history of the United States mails took place between Denver and Omaha last Thursday night, when three through registered pouches which contained $250,000 were stolen from the Burlington fast mail train that runs between Denver and Chicago.

The robbery took place on Thursday night, but the news of it did not come out for several days, although postal inspectors of Salt Lake City, Denver, Kansas City, Omaha, St. Louis and Chicago have been at work since the robbery.

Every postal inspector and Secret Service man in the West is working on the case.

On Thursday night seven through registered pouches were sent from the Denver postoffice to the depot for the Burlington fast mail train.

These were receipted for by the mail clerk. When the train reached McCook, Neb., it was found that three of the pouches were missing.

One of the missing pouches was destined for Omaha, another for Chicago and the third was an empty for Lincoln. Although the Omaha pouch was valuable, that to Chicago contained a heavy shipment of cash from a Denver bank to one in Chicago. The shipment is said to aggregate more than $250,000.

As soon as the loss was discovered the inspectors were notified and a search begun. At first it was thought the missing pouches had been sent to a wrong train, but it is now known they were stolen.

ARSON TO COVER TWO MURDERS.

Women Killed While a Barn Was Burning.

Philadelphia.—While the attention of Edward Horner, a farmer between Collingswood and Merchantville, near Camden, was diverted by a fire started in his barn at 4 o'clock a. m., an assassin entered his house and with an axe murdered Mrs. Horner and the hired girl, an Italian named Vittoria Natoli. Mrs. Horner was sixty-three years old.

The Italian woman, Vittoria, was working on the farm with her husband, Tomaso, to whom she had been married a year ago. The detectives suspected a negro farmhand who had been discharged by Horner two weeks before. His name is Charles Gibson, and he is now in custody in Camden charged with the murder.

It was found that the fiend who killed the women had also robbed the Horner home, carrying away two revolvers, some money and two gold watches. When Gibson was arrested one of the revolvers was in his basket and so were two pawn tickets, each for a gold watch. The tickets were taken to the pawnbroker, Joseph Rieder, of 128 Market street, Philadelphia, and the watches were recovered.

Rieder was taken to Camden, where he picked Gibson out of a long line of prisoners and identified him positively as the person who had pledged the watches. When Gibson's pockets were searched $14 was found in them.

Dies Buttoning Wife's Waist.

While buttoning a waist for his wife, Patrick J. Egan, of No. 610 West Fourth street, Cincinnati, dropped dead. Mrs. Egan did not know what had happened until she heard her husband fall.

To Withdraw Eddy Complaint.

At the close of the hearing in the Eddy case at Concord, N. H., it was reported that the complaint would be withdrawn and new proceedings begun.

To Refund War Taxes.

A ruling relative to the war revenue tax on bequests and legacies was made by the Commissioners of Internal Revenue which will cause the refunding of at least $1,000,000 of taxes collected.

Ohio's Beautiful Woman Convict.

Mabel Hall, one of the most beautiful women ever in the Ohio Penitentiary, was released after serving her second term for obtaining property on false pretenses.

A rich man never has to [illegible] the way a poor man does it.

The first Protestant church [illegible] in America was at [illegible], Va., on Sunday, May 13, 1[illegible]. Rev. Robert Hunt [illegible] board between two trees [illegible] pit, while a sail stretched [illegible] served as a canopy.

FITS, St. Vitus' Dance, Nervousness permanently cured by Dr. Kline's Nerve Restorer. $2 trial bottle and treatise Dr. H. R. Kline, Ltd., 931 Arch St., Phila.

We throw flowers at the living.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

Ten bluffs don't equal one good.

Asbury Park

Are always weak eyes and should be treated at once with Lemonade's Eye Lotion. Coming, hemling, stinging, sore eyes without pain. Use it to get Lemonade's eyes. Guaranteed or money back. Druggists sell it at 25c a box or prepaid on receipt of price. Lemonade & Co., Tampa, Fla.

It's a man is honest when he can stay out of politics.

EASILY CURED

Drunkenness, Morphine and Opium habits are easily cured by the use of Chlortide of Gold Tablets. No consent of the patient when administered in coffee. No use of stimulants until patient desires their use. May be given in tea, coffee and a cure guaranteed in every case. For sale by all first-class druggists, or sent by mail in plain wrapper on receipt of price, $1 per package. For full particulars and testimonials address The Chlortide Works, P. O. Box 333 W. [illegible]

It's easy to live on [illegible] between meals.

BABY'S ECZEMA GREW WORSE

Hospitals and Doctors Could Not Relieve Disease—Cuticura Brought a Speedy, Permanent Cure.

"Eczema appeared when our baby was three months old. We applied to doctors and hospitals, each of which in turn something different every time, but nothing brought relief. At last our friends recommended to us Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. A few days' use wards improvement could be noted, and then we have used nothing but Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment and our baby is six months old and is entirely well. All that we used was one cake of Cuticura Soap and two boxes Cuticura Ointment, costing in all $1.25. C. F. Kan, 65th Street, New York, March 8, 1907.

In Need of a Pilot.

Practising before the federal courts for the Southern District of New York are two classes of attorneys who call themselves respectively admiralty lawyers and bankruptcy and admiralty, two entirely divergent branches of the law.

A noted admiralty practitioner appeared before Judge Hough in support of a motion for the discharge of a bankrupt.

"It seems strange," said the judge, "to see a maritime lawyer undertaking a bankrupt."

"Not at all," replied the attorney; "if your honor will glance at the record in this case, you will see that, so far as his finances are concerned, my client is entirely nautical."—Harper's Weekly.

The Wealth of Butte

The mines of the Butte district in a period of twenty-five years have produced about $500,000,000 in gold, silver and copper. This marvelous mineral wealth has all come from a district covering an area of less than one square one-half miles in extent. Underneath these workings, from which a vast amount of ore has been taken, are other workings on lower levels, known as underground workings, from which a vast amount of copper ore is raised daily to the surface.—Successful American.

When a man wants to sleep in the morning all his children think they were born to be clocks.

It's a Good Time now to see what a good breakfast can be made of high-priced

Meat

TRY

A Little Fruit,

A Dish of Grape-Nuts and Cream,

A Soft-Boiled Egg,

Some Nice, Crisp Toast,

Cup of Postum Food Coffee.

That's all, and all very much in accordance and full to the brim with nourishment and strength.

REPEAT FOR LUNCHEON OR SUPPER, and have a meat and vegetable dinner either at noon or evening as you prefer.

We predict for you an increase in physical and mental power.

"There's a Reason"

Read the "little health classic" in pkgs.

MAN-A-LIN

IDEAL LAXATIVE

MADE FROM FIGS

Copyright 1908, by The Meredith Co.

MAN-A-LIN Is An Excellent Remedy for Constipation.

There are many ailments directly dependent upon constipation, such as biliousness, discolored and pimpled skin, inactive liver, dyspepsia, overworked kidneys and headache.

Remove constipation and many of these ailments disappear.

MAN-A-LIN can be relied upon to produce a gentle action of the bowels, making pills and drastic cathartics entirely unnecessary.

A dose or two of Man-a-lin is advisable in slight febrile attacks, la grippe, colds and influenza.

THE MAN-A-LIN CO.
COLUMBUS, OHIO, U. S. A.

ALABAMA CENTRAL FEMALE COLLEGE

TUSCALOOSA, ALA.

Select School. Number of pupils limited. Begins its examinations from no old classes. Beautiful locality. Modern buildings. Rates reasonable. Pupils in Literary, Music, Art, Elocution, Physician's attendance, physical culture, Gymnasium. Personal attention. Small classes. Unsurpassed church advantages in the South. Thorough work. Send for catalogue.

R. F. GILES, Pres.

Many a woman tells the truth when she declares that she wouldn't marry the best man living; she couldn't get [illegible].

Paint Purity

The Dutch Boy Painter is found only on kegs of Pure White Lead—simply metallic lead corroded. This White Lead is not only pure pigment—it is pure paint.

Compositions that are only partly White Lead are only partly paint. The trade mark below guarantees absolutely Pure White Lead, made by the Old Dutch Process. All first class dealers.

Send for what we call our "XX" book, which gives valuable information on the paint subject—free.

NATIONAL LEAD COMPANY

In whichever of the following cities is nearest you:

New York, Boston, Buffalo, Cleveland, Chicago, St. Louis, Philadelphia (John T. Lewis & Bros. Co.), Pittsburgh (National Lead & Oil Co.)

WINTERSMITH'S CHILL TONIC

FRECKLES, As well as Sunburn, TAN, Moth, Pimples and Chaps, are cured with WILSON'S FRECKLE CURE. Sold and guaranteed by druggists. 50c a box. Wilson's Pure Prin. Soap 15 cents. F. B. WILSON & CO., Mfg. a. and Props., 13 and 15 Alexander St., Charleston, S. C. When ordering direct mention your druggist.

TRY THIS EASILY CURED

Chlortide of Gold Tablets will cure any case of Morphine, Liquor or Tobacco Habits in from two to five days. Can be given in tea or coffee without the knowledge of the patient. Perfectly SAFE and SURE. For sale by all druggists or sent on receipt of $1.00.

THE OHIO CHEMICAL WORKS
P. O. Box 333 W. TOLEDO, OHIO

COMMERCIAL COLLEGE OF KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY
LEXINGTON, KY.

Thorough Business, Shorthand and Penmanship Courses. Short time required. Graduates assisted to positions. Write for catalogue. WILSON & GAITSKILL, Lexington, Ky.

re to bring possible in ery of the cure a re-they may of their good peore should possible not alter let it be rred and ons pres-be no steadily Syria to as one the free ch their ew ruth-wealth fable beeas works ake on not to ion that ed with of a conno action ments

ed stocks

$250,000
ed from

s of United ceived and ght when pouches stolen train and Chi-

ons. Thurs-it did not ar enough
Lake Cats.
Omaha. St.
ven of work ed Scout ed from depot for a.n ion by the en received found that missing ne was her for the e staple for Omaha ponies conch from n Chicago.

segate discovered chen and a ave thought ssen sent to now known

MURDERS.

Barn Was

ge attention ber between ovide more e the state-k a man as se and with Horses and ained Vic-r was sold.

ttoria was ch her hus-
She had been he detectives and who had Lake weeks arles Gibson, ly in Camden

e food who to control the ways two re-ld two gold was arrested in his basket.
tickets each ickets were ge Joseph Street, Phila-were recov-to Camden, out of a long dentified him on who had Then Gibson's

14 was found.

Taxes.

the war rev-and legacies missioners of h will cause st $1,000,000

nan Convict.

he most beau-
he Ohio Peniafter serving btaining prop-

A rich man never has to ey the way a poor man does
it.

The first Protestant church held in America was at Jo
Va on Sunday, May 13, 160
Rev. Robert Hunt conducting board between two trees was pit while a sail stretched served as a canopy.

FITS, St. Vitus' Dance, Nervous Di manently cured by Dr. Kline's Gr
Restorer. $2 trial bottle and t
Dr. R. H. Kline, Ld., 931 Arch St.,

We throw flowers at the de at the living.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for teething, softens the gums, reduces tion, allays pain, cures wind colic. 2

Two bluffs don't equal one go!

Itchy Eyes

Are always weak eyes and should be at once with Lemonade's Golden Eye Relief. Stops itching, smarting, b and you feel instant relief. It makes eyes clear as crystal. If money Its guaranteed to do all we claim at 25 cts. or by prepaid on receipt of price by n. A. L & Co., Augusta, Ga.

When a woman is honest he can what he says.

EASILY CURED.

Drunkenness, Morphine and Tob habits are easily cured by the use of Dr. [illegible]'s Golden Tablets. No the patient who is addicted to habits need be voluntarily
May be given secretly in Tablets are guaranteed to cure
Sold by druggists at
Dr. [illegible] Co., Toledo, O.

It is easy to live on love alone cannot be had.

BABY'S ECZEMA GREW WORSE

Hospitals and Doctors Could Not Re Itch Disease—Cuticura Remedies
a Speedy, Permanent Cure.

"Eczema appeared when our baby three months old. We applied to doctors and hospitals, each of which us something different every time, but ing brought relief. At last one of friends recommended to us Cuticura and Cuticura Ointment. A few days words improvement could be noted.
then we have used nothing but Cu Soap and Cuticura Ointment and baby is six months old and is quite
All that we used was one cake of Cu
Soap and two boxes Cuticura Oint costing in all $1.25." C. F. Kara, 23 66th Street, New York, March 31, 1

In Need of a Pilot.

Practising before the federal for the Southern District of New are two classes of attorneys, who the involves respectively with rupicy and admiralty, two wide very re-branches of the law.

A noted admiralty practitioner peared before Judge Hough to a motion for the discharge of a rupt.

"It seems strange," said the
"to see a maritime lawyer repr ing a bankrupt."

"Not at all," replied the witty counsel, "if your honor will glance the record in this case, you will that so far as his finances are cerned, my client is entirely at —Harper's Weekly.

The Wealth of Butte.

The mines of the Butte distric period of twenty-five years have ed about $500,000,000 in gold, and copper. This marvelous wealth has all come from a covering an area of less than one on half miles in extent. Under ing from which a vast levels, known as underground ings, from which a vast copper ore is raised daily to face. Successful American.

When a man wants to sleep the morning all his children think they were born to be clocks.

It's a Good Time now to see what a good "start" breakfast can be made with high-priced

Meat

TRY

A Little Fruit,
A Dish of Grape-Nuts and C
A Soft-Boiled Egg,
Some Nice, Crisp Toast,
Cup of Postum Food Coffee

That's all, and all very easy of gestion and full to the brim nourishment and strength.

REPEAT FOR LUNCHEON OR PER,

and have a meat and vegeta dinner either at noon or even as you prefer.

We predict for you an increas physical and mental power.

"There's a Reason."

Read the "little health classic" "Pk to Wellville," in pkgs.

MAN-A-LIN

Copyright 1906, by The Manalin Co.

MAN-A-LIN Is An Excellent Remedy for Constipation.

There are many ailments directly dependent upon constipation, such as biliousness, discolored and pimpled skin, inactive liver, dyspepsia, overworked kidneys and headache.

Remove constipation and all of these ailments disappear.

MAN-A-LIN can be relied upon to produce a gentle action of the bowels, making pills and drastic cathartics entirely unnecessary.

A dose or two of Man-a-lin is advisable in slight febrile attacks, la grippe, colds and influenza.

THE MAN-A-LIN CO.,
COLUMBUS, OHIO, U. S. A.

ALABAMA CENTRAL FEMALE COLLEGE

TUSCALOOSA, ALABAMA.

Select School. Number of pupils limited. English and Music Specialties. Reviews for free examination free to all classes. Healthful locality. Home life. President with family lives in the building. Rates reasonable. Tuition in Literary department, board, fuel, lights, laundry, music, uniform, physician's attendance, physical culture, $114.50. With music, elocution or art $150.00. Personal attention. Small classes. Discipline strict but kind. No better social and church advantages in the South. Thorough work. Superior faculty. Write for Catalogue.

B. F. GILES, President.

Many a woman tells the truth when she declares that she wouldn't marry the best man living; she couldn't get him.

ROGERSVILLE SYNODICAL COLLEGE FOR GIRLS AND YOUNG LADIES Opens September 11th. Board and Tuition $150 a Year. Address the President, LAWRENCE ROLFE, Rogersville, Tenn.

Paint Purity

The Dutch Boy Painter is found only on kegs of Pure White Lead—simply metallic lead corroded. This White Lead is not only pure pigment—it is pure paint.

Compositions that are only part White Lead are only partly paint. The trade mark below guarantees absolutely Pure White Lead made by the Old Dutch Process. All first class dealers.

Send for what we call our "XX" book, which gives valuable information on the paint subject—free.

NATIONAL LEAD COMPANY
(In ordering paint of the following agencies it is natural you should specify "Pure White Lead")
New York, Boston, Buffalo, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago, St. Louis, Philadelphia, John T. Lewis & Bros. Co.), Pittsburgh (National Lead & Oil Co.)

WINTERSMITH'S CHILL TONIC
STANDARD FOR 40 YEARS

FRECKLES, As well as Sunburn, TAN, Rash, Pimples and Chaps, are cured with WILSON'S FRECKLE CURE. Sold and guaranteed by druggists, 50c a box. Wilson's Pair Skin Soap 25 cents. J. R. WILSON & CO., Mfg. & and Props., 5 and 6 Alexander St., Charleston, S.C. When ordering direct mention your druggist.

TRY THIS Tobacco Habit
Morphine Habit
Liquor Habit
EASILY CURED
Dr. J. C. McTyeire's Double Chloride of Gold Tablets will cure any case of Morphine, Liquor or Tobacco Habit in from ten to thirty days. Can be given in tea or coffee without the knowledge of the patient. Particulars SENT FREE. For sale by all druggists or sent on receipt of $1.00.
THE OHIO CHEMICAL WORKS
P. O. Box 523 W. TOLEDO, OHIO

COMMERCIAL COLLEGE OF KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY
LEXINGTON, KY.
Practical commercial Penmanship, Shorthand and Typewriting taught by Expert Teachers. Positions Secured. Write for Catalogue. Mention this paper.
WILSON & SMITH, Prests. Lexington, Ky.

Gold Holes in Baseball Fence.

Charged with selling permission to outsiders to come into her yard and look through the holes in her fence at the baseball game at Piedmont Park without a license, Mrs. M. Hatchett appeared in the police court yesterday afternoon, and after a hearing she was allowed her freedom by the Recorder.

Detective Lockhart made the case at the instance of the police officer at the park. It was stated that Mrs. Hatchett charged 5 cents a head to look through the cracks and holes in her fence, which is part of the fence enclosing the baseball ground, and see the games. One little boy was in court as a witness, and testified to having paid Mrs. Hatchett's little girl a nickel to see the game, but not being well pleased with the location had his money refunded and left.

Mrs Hatchett denied that she charged any money for looking through the holes. There was no evidence produced during the trial that Mrs. Hatchett was engaged in such a business, and Judge Broyles dismissed the case on condition that the lady did not accept any pay from those people whom she allowed to go into her yard and see the games.—Atlanta Constitution.

Bird's Queer Plight.

A fluttering in the flue leading from the kitchen stove attracted the attention of Mrs. J. Edward Sims the other morning.

When Mr. Sims came in he was asked to investigate, and much to his surprise found in the stove pipe, only a few feet from the gas flame a red headed woodpecker. How the bird got into that predicament cannot be explained, but he must have entered at the chimney top and worked his way downward. Perhaps he was lazy and was looking for a hole to build his nest in, without drilling one into the wood. His bright coat of red, white and black was subdued to a sooty brown and in outward appearances he resembled the chimney sweep, and he was gasping for fresh air when released.—Columbus Dispatch.

Belgium's eminent sculptor, Lef Lambeaux, who is regarded by many as Rodin's only rival, is busy on the monument to be erected in Washington to the memory of the late George M. Pullman, the former head of the Pullman Car company.

Norwegian Whale Fisheries.

The Norwegian whale fisheries extend over nearly the whole of the Arctic sea, from the North of Norway toward Spitzbergen, and even to the Shetland Islands. The whales are shot from small steamers, the bomb harpoon being used, there is an arrow shaped iron spear furnished with a line. It is discharged from a small cannon. A whale will drag the vessel a long distance until it becomes exhausted and expires. It is then towed to the anchorage, where it is stripped of the blubber. This whale fishery was begun in 1868. Thirty whales were killed in the first year. One thousand and eighty whales were taken in 1897, when 613 men were engaged on twenty-five steamers. At first only the blubber was utilized for train oil; now the bones are crushed for manure and the flesh is used for fertilizer.—Boston Transcript.

Economical.

Two duellists were taking the early train for Fontainebleau, their place of meeting. "A return trip," said the first duellist, to the ticket agent. "Single for me," said the second man quietly. "Aha!" blustered the other, "you are afraid you won't come back, are you? As for me, I always take a return." "I never do," said the second man. "I always take my return half from the dead man's pocket."—Argonaut.

It's all right to judge a man by the company he keeps, but it isn't fair to judge a woman by the company she is forced to entertain.

The average woman is truthful until she gets old enough to lie about her age.

Don't Push

The horse can draw the load without help, if you reduce friction to almost nothing by applying

Mica Axle Grease

to the wheels. No other lubricant ever made wears so long and savesso much horse power. Next time try MICA AXLE GREASE. Standard Oil Co. Incorporated

If you don't believe that men are just as curious as women tie up one of your fingers and pour liniment over it.

A man with curly hair has as many excuses for keeping his hat off as a bald man has for keeping his on.

Boys-Girls

Ask your Mother for

Seal Brand Stick Candy

Tell her Huston's Seal Brand Pure Stick Candy is real sugar stick, and she needn't be afraid to give you all you can eat of it.

Seal Brand Candy is the only candy on the market, so far as we know, that is made from pure granulated sugar only.

This is an important point to remember.

Candy made from the cheaper kinds of sweetening and glucose may not be positively hurtful, but it is not nearly so wholesome as pure stick candy, and leaves a sticky, cloying flavor in the mouth after eating that is more or less distressing to the stomach.

Seal Brand Candy is the best for the children to use.

Comes in packages only.
Sold by Most Grocers and Candy Dealers.

5c

HUSTON BISCUIT CO.,
Birmingham, Ala.

This closes the Letter contest, with the following list of each week's prize winners:

1st.—Eugenia Prude, Box 207, Tuscaloosa, Ala.
2nd.—Eleanor Gary, Selma, Ala.
3rd.—Thadeus Smith, 1435 Lamar street, Selma, Ala.
4th.—Miss Clarence Roberts, Kimberly, Ala.
5th.—Allen Glass, 72 Davisna street, Montgomery, Ala.
6th.—Herbert and Stanford McGee, Bonita, Ala., Jones, Ala., R. F. D. No. 1, Box 12.

Granville S. Standish Advertising Agency, Providence, R. I.

POTASH

Doubles the Value of a truck-farm. It is Nature's fattening food for vegetables. It makes them large, meaty and delicious.

Send a postal card for our free booklet on "Truck Farming." It is scientific, and it is money-making literature.

GERMAN KALI WORKS
93 Nassau Street, New York
Monadnock Building, Chicago
Candler Building, Atlanta, Ga.
Address office nearest you.

W. L. DOUGLAS

$3.00 & $3.50 SHOES BEST IN THE WORLD

SHOES FOR EVERY MEMBER OF THE FAMILY, AT ALL PRICES

$25,000 Reward

To any one who can prove W. L. Douglas $3.00 and $3.50 shoes are not the best shoes made for the money of any other manufacturer.

THE REASON W. L. Douglas shoes are worn by more people in all walks of life than any other make, is because of their excellent style, easy fitting, and superior wearing qualities. The selection of the leathers and other materials for each part of the shoe, and every detail of the making is looked after by the most experienced organization of superintendents, foremen and skilled shoemakers, who receive the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and whose workmanship cannot be excelled.

If I could take you into my large factories at Brockton, Mass., and show you how carefully W. L. Douglas shoes are made, you would then understand why they hold their shape, fit better, wear longer and are of greater value than any other make.

CAUTION! The genuine have W. L. Douglas name and price stamped on bottom. Take No Substitute. Ask your dealer for W. L. Douglas shoes. If he cannot supply you, send direct to factory. Shoes sent everywhere by mail. Catalog free. W. L. Douglas, Brockton, Mass.

10,000 TELEGRAPHERS WANTED

From this institute before next March. This is an exclusive Telegraph Institute, and a Business College. Established Twenty-one Years. Main lines of R. R. in charge of ex-college officials. Write for Catalog. NATIONAL TELEGRAPH INSTITUTE, Uniontown, Ohio.

The Mooney School FOR BOYS

Send For Handsome Catalogue MURFREESBORO, TENN.

SOUTHERN COLLEGE OF PHARMACY

Diploma in 12 Months.

Fall session October to April; Spring Session, April to October. Largest Pharmacy School South. Drug Store in the College. Free Books, saving $80 book expense. Large new building and Equipments. Steam Laboratories. Demand for our graduates exceeds supply. Tuition $60 per session. Address W. B. PERRMAN, Secretary, 93 Luckie St., Atlanta, Ga.

CRESCENT ANTISEPTIC

GREATEST HEALER KNOWN TO SCIENCE.

Non Poisonous, Non Irritating. Allays Inflammation and stops pain from any cause. As strong as carbolic acid and as harmless as sweet milk. Cures burns instantly; cures old and chronic sores; cures sores and inflammation from any cause on man or beast. Cures fevers—cures cholera, sore head and roup. Satisfaction positively guaranteed.

For Sale by all Retail Chain Stations. Mfgd. by CRESCENT CHEMICAL CO., Ft. Worth, Texas

Positions Guaranteed BY A $30,000 CAPITAL.

They will take your note for tuition, payable when you secure a position.

CAR FARE PAID.
GOOD BOARD CHEAP.
Same Rate to Ladies.

Harris Business University, JACKSON, MISS.

The Tulane University OF LA.

MOISE H. CHAMBERS, LL. D., President.

The Tulane University of Louisiana, founded in 1847 as the University of Louisiana, is the legal head of the entire system of public educational institutions of the State.

Full courses are offered in Languages, Sciences, Engineering, Architecture, Law, Medicine, Pharmacy, Art. Splendid department for Women in Newcomb College. Full course in Architecture will be offered next session. Teachers' College, recently established, will open Oct. 1st. Many scholarships in Academic Colleges. Expenses low. Low dormitory rates. Next session of all departments, except the Medical, begins Oct. 1st. Medical Department opens Oct. 31st. Send for catalogue. R. E. BRUFF, Secretary.

Am. 28, 1907.

LOOK! FOR THE WHITE STAR

HICKS' CAPUDINE

CURES ALL ACHES And Nervousness
Trial bottle 10c. At drug stores

A Few More Left.

Imagination is staggered by the statement just handed out from Ottawa regarding the area of arable land available for settlement in the West. Up to the end of this summer, we learn there will have been surveyed 120,000,000 acres, and north and east of Edmonton alone there is at least as much. Evidently "the last West," as American newspaper and magazine writers have dubbed the Canadian heritage, is a misnomer. There seem to be several last Wests, and we do not seem to be within sight of the penultimate one. It will be decades before what is now known as the "last West" shall be filled up.—Westminster Gazette.

How the Quarrel Began.

"Mean thing!" exclaimed Mrs. Newlywed. "It's just brutal of you to call it 'this stuff.' You said you'd be glad if I baked my own bread—"

"Yes, dear," replied the great brute, "but I didn't say I wanted you to bake it."

Luck consists of having what some other fellow wants.

Dropsy

CURED Gives Quick Relief.
Removes all swelling in 8 to 20 days; effects a permanent cure in 30 to 60 days. Trial treatment given free. Nothing can be fairer. Write Dr. H. H. Green's Sons, Specialists, Box B Atlanta, Ga.

How Would You Like To Get $5.00 For a Letter

ONE LITTLE GIRL (OR BOY) DID.

Every week the Huston Biscuit Co., of Birmingham gives away $10.00 in Cash to the boys and girls who send in the best letters about Huston's Seal Brand Pure Stick Candy. Five Dollars is awarded as first prize for the best letter and besides there are five One Dollar awards for the five next best letters. Besides these cash prizes, a beautiful Postal Card or Souvenir Picture is sent to every boy and girl who writes a letter.

The first prize this week was won by Eugenia Prude, Tuscaloosa, Ala. and the names of the five other winners are published elsewhere in this paper.

The conditions of the contest are so very simple that there is no reason why every child everywhere should not try for the prizes. No one is debarred—all have an equal chance to win. If you are a child and wish to win one of the prizes, all you have to do is to send a letter—a short letter, not over 100 words long, telling in your own words what you think of Huston's SEAL BRAND Pure Stick Candy. Enclose with your letter a trade mark seal taken from the end of a package of the candy, and send it to the Huston Biscuit Co., Birmingham, Ala.

You can buy Huston Sugar Stick at most grocers, druggists and candy stores in town. It costs but 5c for a big box. Ask for it by name. If the best candy you ever ate. If for any reason you cannot get it locally mark it out, write to the Huston Biscuit Co. and they will send you one.

Send in your letter and await results. Perhaps your name may be among the winners next week.

Even the good man who believes he will get his reward in heaven is in no hurry to claim it.

You Look Prematurely Old

Because of those ugly, grisly, gray hairs. Use "LA CREOLE" HAIR RESTORER. Price, $1.00, retail.

SUMMER CLEARING SALE

On account of the weather having been so bad for the last sixty days, and the farmers being so badly disheartened at the prospects of the crops, it has had a bad effect upon trade, and in order to clear out our surplus Spring and Summer Goods, we are offering them at greatly reduced prices.

Our Mr. Kanter wishes to clear them all off before he goes East to purchase the New Fall and Winter Stock.

Ladies' Hats:

Of the latest fashion will be sold out regardless of cost.

Dress Goods:

Lawns and organdies, must be cleared out at a very low figure.

Shoes:

Ladies Oxfords, very stylish, to go at sacrificial prices.

Clothing:

An extra fine line of Men's Complete Suits and Pants. Also a well selected lot of Shirts.

Come and inspec these goods, it is well worth your time. Very respectfully,

W. KANTER & BRO,

CLANTON - - - - ALA.

HERBINE

TRADE MARK.

Will Cure You.

The liver is the main-spring for the whole body. To expect good health, one must keep the liver in good order. To do so, a regulator is needed. Herbine will put your liver in the condition it should be and you will not suffer from headaches.

A POSITIVE CURE

FOR CONSTIPATION, CHILLS AND FEVER, BILIOUSNESS, MALARIA AND ALL LIVER COMPLAINTS.

Has Done A World Of Good.

Mrs. C. D. Philley, Marble Falls, Texas, writes: "I have used Herbine and find it the best liver corrective I have ever tried. It done my family as well as myself a world of good, and I recommend it to all my friends. I never suffer from headaches anymore."

50c WILL BUY IT.

Ballard Snow Liniment Co.

500-502 N. Second St., ST. LOUIS, MO.

Sold and Recommended by

UPCHURCH DRUG CO., CLANTON.

Pleasant Grove.

Editor Banner—As I am just about out of a up, you can't expect much news this time. There is a great deal being said about the kind of stock we need out in the country. Some say, we need the razor back, some one thing and some another. I think out here in west Chilton we need the kind of hog that can outrun the darkey. Some people have strange marks any way, it seems that some mark catch in one ear and kill in the other.

Well, I guess if the little saw mills keep on cutting and slashing timber, some day will have to build stone houses sure. The fact is, the rise in the price of timber which we have seen in the past few years is going to keep steadily on, and there is no reason why the timber land owner should not participate in the increased value of the timber. Consequently it is a good plan not to sell the land on which the timber stands; keep the land for the production of other crops of timber and sell only the trees, and we should not sell the trees until we are getting their true value; many people have sold at from $2 to $4 an acre timber lands which were actually worth from $12 to $15 per acre. We should remember that within ten years every kind of timber is going to be valuable; all kinds of pine and hardwood in this section will have a value in that time. Let us impress upon you that have young timber, the importance of handling it. BIG IKE.

New Cedron.

Our Sunday school is about dead, but I hope God will bless all in future. We certainly had a fine meeting which was brought to a close last Wednesday. We got two members, Mr. Bas Foshee and wife, during our meeting.

Health of this community is very good.

Mr. Alvin Askins and Miss Ida Logan have been visiting friends and relatives at Plantersville.

Mr. Bob. Williams and family visited Mr. Charlie Edwards.

Quite a crowd went to Concord to meeting, Sunday night.

Mr. Enoch Weldon has finished his new house.

Messrs. Dave Sanson, Newt Walker and Ocie Sewell visited Mr. George Askins, Sunday.

I will close, with best wishes to the dear old Banner and its many readers. I. E. L.

Endorsed by the County.

"The most popular remedy in Otsego county, and the best friend of my family," writes Wm. M. Dietz, editor and publisher of the Otsego Journal, Gilbertsville, N. Y., "is Dr. King's New Discovery. It has proved to be an infallible cure for coughs and colds, making short work of the worst of them. We always keep a bottle in the house. I believe it to be the most valuable prescription known for Lung and throat diseases." Guaranteed to never disappoint the taker by Upchurch Drug co. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Maplesville, Aug. 19, 1907

Dear Banner—Thanking you for your courtesy in printing my letters heretofore, I will say that I have just arrived in Maplesville from another short tour, this time down in southwest Chilton and northern Dallas. I found the people down there seemingly prosperous and in the very best of spirits. Crops are pretty fair. Protracted meetings and barbecues infringing on fodder pulling time, but all has gone as merry as a wedding bells.

The Rev. P. G. Mason, pastor of Fellowship Baptist church, conducted a fine meeting on the third Sunday in July and week following at said church near Monnsville, assisted by Revs. Saunders, Willie Seymore and Fred Barnes, resulting, it is to be hoped in great good. Bro. Seymore was ordained to the full work of the ministry during the meeting, Bro. Barnes being ordained one week later at Valley Creek church in Chilton county, where Prof. Saunders ran a protracted meeting, assisted by the Rev. C. J. Bentley, of Sylacauga, who proved to be a very able preacher, whose services were very much appreciated by all who heard him.

When I arrived this morning I found that in my absence, Mr. J. C. Merchant and family of Maplesville had been off for ten days to Birmingham and Huntsville enjoying an outing. They report having a fine time. Mrs. Merchant is my daughter with whom I reside when at home.

Mrs. J. T. Martin of Gordo, who is also my daughter, is visiting her sisters, Mrs. J. G. Gay and Mrs. T. G. Milling, at Riderville, and will visit Mr. Martin's father near Jemison, before returning to her home.

I note also since I arrived that Mr. Stewart, on an adjoining lot to Mr. Merchant, has erected a very nice cottage and is occupying the same; that Mr. George Fox has moved into the Martin hotel, and that Mr. Emmett Smitherman has moved into the boarding house near the M. & O. depot. Knowing them both as I do, that speaks better things for the traveling public who may chance to come to Maplesville.

Now, we are all disposed to praise the bridge that we cross in safety, but if you don't think we have a pretty fair town, both as to location and citizens, just come to see us sometime soon and let us show you some of our citizens and their hospitality.

I don't deal much in politics, nor do I pay taxes, but think that Mr. W. Y. Atchison's sentiment on the raising of taxes must be like Davis paint I see advertised in your paper, a hundred per cent lower, while all men think about as he does when it immediately concerns them, and the Commissioners' Court offered to do fair, yet it is pretty hard for the farmer who has plenty to do, to go and try to get the wrong remedied, and as to getting it rectified when Democrats get in office in Chilton, there will have to be a change of the Constitution or they will have to go to paying up back poll taxes to ever effect anything toward Democratic office holding in Chilton county. Now, I believe there are enough Democrats to elect the ticket if all of them would put a shoulder to the wheel, but I am like a young man I had hired once, I also had a neighbor who had a daughter named Polly. I said to him one day when we had a big stir up in Chilton, "Frank, how do you stand in politics?" He said, "Well, I don't know exactly, I like Polly very well, but have no use for ticks.

R. J. MITCHELL

East Stanton.

Our school closes Aug. 30, and our little teacher leaves us on the 31; we will all miss her very much.

Mrs. Nannie Moore visited Mr. R. E. R. Moore's family Sunday.

There is going to be a big ice cream supper Aug. 30, at Mr. R. E. R. Moore's. Everybody invited.

Watch out, boys, there is going to be some good looking girls over at Mr. Moore's Friday night; you had better put on your best faces and leave your bottle of whiskey at home. Come one, come all, and enjoy life while you can. Much success to the dear old Banner.

PAPA'S PET.

Remedy for Diarrhoea, Never Known to Fail.

I want to say a few words for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I have used this preparation in my family for the past five years and have recommended it to a number of people in York county and have never known it to fail to effect a cure in any instance. I feel that I cannot say too much for the best remedy of the kind in the world."—S. JEMISON, Spring Grove, York County, Pa. This remedy is for sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

We never know the full value of our property until we lose it in a railroad wreck.

Providence.

Hello! Here we come again to say a few words. We are glad to say that Mr. James E. Cobb is improving fast.

Mrs. Sudie L. Cobb has returned to her home in Birmingham.

Mr. R. C. Skipper of Birmingham visited his family recently.

Mr. George Shaw spent Sunday at his son's, Mr. W. H. Shaw.

Miss Pearl Bledsoe is staying awhile with her sister, Mrs. Linda Cobb, who is sick.

Rev. R. M. Honeycutt filled his regular appointment at this place the third Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Hardy Martin spent a week recently with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Martin.

Miss Lessie Davis visited Misses Verla and Annie Skipper, recently.

Mr. J. C. Lowery has been visiting with Mr. W. H. Shaw's family.

Quite a number of boys and girls attended the protracted meeting at Free Springs Wednesday night.

Misses Annie Skipper and Ora Shaw visited the school at Oak Grove Friday afternoon.

Mr. Willie Shaw and Miss Etta L. Shaw entertained quite a number of their friends, Saturday night, Misses Nealy and Nora Armstrong, Messrs. George and Clifford Cobb, and many others I cannot mention.

As news is scarce will have to ring off for this time.

TWO FRIENDS.

HAD AN AWFUL TIME

But Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Cured Him.

It is with pleasure that I give you this unsolicited testimonial. About a year ago when I had a severe case of measles I got caught out in a hard rain and the measles settled in my stomach and bowels. I had an awful time and had it not been for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I could not have possibly lived but a few hours longer, but thanks to this remedy I am now strong and well. I have written the above through simple gratitude and I shall always speak a good word for this remedy.—SAM H. GWIN, Concord, Ga. For sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.

List of Letters remaining uncalled for in Clanton, Ala., postoffice, for week ending Aug. 24 1907. Persons calling for same will please say "advertised" and give date. One cent must be paid on each letter.

GENTLEMEN'S LIST.

Ming Richardson

LADIES' LIST.

These letters will be sent to the dead Letter office, Sept. 7, 1907, if not delivered before.

F. O. DUDLEY, Postmaster.

Don't be Blue.

and lose all interest when help is within reach. Herbine will make that liver perform its duties properly. J. B. Vaughn, Elba, Ala., writes: "Being a constant sufferer from constipation and a disordered liver, I have found Herbine to be the best medicine for these troubles on the market. I have used it constantly. I believe it to be the best medicine of its kind, and I wish all sufferers of these troubles to know the good Herbine has done me." Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

The physician is the man who recommends a change and then takes all you have.

WORMS

All children complain frequently of headaches, backaches, that "their stomachs hurt," and that they "don't feel good."

This condition is a common one and the trouble is almost invariably due to pin worms.

Children haven't the strength to combat their ills and indispositions without the aid of some reliable medicine.

Dr. Caldwell's

(Laxative)

Syrup Pepsin

is an unfailing, harmless and absolute cure for worms, stomach and bowel troubles, and can be used as freely for either baby or the bigger child, as for full grown folks.

If your child seems indisposed, feverish, fretful, peevish, and all out of sorts, these are symtoms of worms. One dose of DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN as directed, the dejected condition will soon give way to health and vigor.

DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN can be obtained in both dollar and half-dollar sizes from all druggists.

Your money will be refunded if it does not benefit you.

Your postal card request will bring by return mail our new booklet, "DR. CALDWELL'S BOOK OF WONDERS" and free sample to those who have never tried this wonderful remedy. Write today.

PEPSIN SYRUP CO.

Monticello, Illinois

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

TIPTON MULLINS

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

Clanton - - Ala.

WILLIAM M. ADAMS

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

Practice in all Courts. Long time loans negotiated on improved farm lands. Office Room 1, Court House.

Clanton - - Ala.

ROBERT H. KNOX

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

Clanton - - Ala.

Will practice in all the State and Federal Courts of Alabama.

DR. J. EARL GOWAN

DENTIST

Office Bisbee Building.

CLANTON, ALA.

DR. P. I HOPKINS

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON

EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROAT

Office Hours 9 to 12 a. m.

CLANTON

Warranty deeds and Mortgage blanks, Waive Notes and Receipt books on sale at the Banner office

DeWITT'S WITCH HAZEL SALVE For Piles, Burns, Sores.

Upchurch Drug Co.

STATE NORMAL SCHOOL

JACKSONVILLE, ALA.

A SCHOOL FOR TEACHERS

Enrollment last session 581, of whom 400 were teachers from 55 counties of Alabama. Prepares for State examination.

All expenses low. Tuition free. Board $10 to $12 per month. High and healthful location. Graduates in demand.

Twenty-fifth annual session begins Sept. 1907. For catalog address

C. W. DAUGETTE, President

Alabama Girls' Industrial School

THOMAS WAVERLY PALMER, A. M., L. L. D., President

MONTEVALLO, ALA.

Session Begins Wednesday, September 12, 1907

Location high and healthful. Strong Academic, Professional, Technical Courses. Faculty of thirty teachers. Total expenses

For catalogue or other information address

J. ALEX MOORE, Chairman of Faculty

ENGINES AND BOILERS

Complete assortment of sizes 10 h. p. to 125 h. p. in stock for immediate delivery. Save money by writing direct to the manufacturers.

R. D. COLE MFG. CO.

54 YEARS IN BUSINESS

NEWNAN, GA.

Also Corn Mills, Saw Mills, Tanks and Towers

Branch: 316 Empire Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

The Money to Be Saved

by buying your drugs and whiskies from a house like the Collier Drug Co. will be a pleasant surprise to you. We are the largest cut-rate druggists in this section of the State, and can save you many pennies by giving us your business.

Read our prices and put your dollars where you will receive greatest possible value.

WHISKIES

	Regular Price	Our Price
Shade Mountain Corn (full quart)	1.00
Old Oscar Pepper, bottled in bond	1.00
Murray Hill Club	1.50
J. Martin Rye	1.25
Atherton Rye	1.00
Duffy's Pure Malt	1.00
California Sherry	1.00
Old Lincoln County	1.00
Private Stock	1.00
Virginia Pure Apple Brandy	.75
Richmond Club	1.00
Old Holland Gin	.75
Wilson	1.25
Green River	1.25
I. W. Harper	1.25
Dan Patch	1.25
Paul Jones Four Star	1.25
Old Prentice	1.00

Our package and express department is complete in every respect and all mail orders get prompt and careful attention the day of receipt. Your patronage will be appreciated.

COLLIER DRUG CO.

109-111 NORTH 20th St.

BIRMINGHAM - - ALA.

VOL. XV

THE MAN ON THE CORNER

Of the Sights He Saw, and Some He Saw Not.

Friday Mr. R. E. Roper [illegible] into The Banner office a [illegible] of bolls of cotton which [illegible] been killed by some insect of [illegible] weevil variety, but whether the genuine boll weevil we are [illegible] to say. He says that those of this pestiferous insect are found in his crop which is [illegible] being destroyed, whether it [illegible] boll weevil or not it is doing [illegible] work.

E. A. Matthews returned [illegible] night from a most enjoyable [illegible] north and east. He visited [illegible]ville and Cincinnati, Niagara Falls and across into Canada to St. Catherines, where he attended [illegible] meeting of the Knights [illegible], of which he is a member. [illegible] back to New York and Philadelphia, where he had the pleasure of dining with three old acquaintances who had not met together for twenty-seven years; a reunion which recalled his old student days. He also visited the Jamestown Exposition, and finally came home, pleased with his trip, but glad to be in Clanton.

A protracted meeting at the Methodist church, which has been in progress for the last two weeks, [illegible] brought to a conclusion Sunday night. It has been throughout an enthusiastic and joyful meeting, which resulted in 46 accessions to the church, 20 of whom were baptized Sunday morning by the pastor, Rev. F. M. Woods, [illegible] are awaiting baptism. Services have been good and [illegible], Rev. J. M. Thomas eloquently appealing to the people.

[illegible] a terrible warning to parents. Be careful how you whip your boys, or at all events examine their pockets first, and don't be angry. A good mother in Clanton had occasion to whip her little son of seven, and laying him across her knee, she with a slipper spanked him good and hard, but, alas, the first smack caused an explosion. Young hopeful had a dynamite cartridge in his pocket, and when his good mother came down on it with the slipper it exploded, tearing a hole in her dress, which it is expected will be fatal. The mother lost her dress and received other injuries to the face and body. A word to the wise—if you must use nature's weapon and the shingle alone; and you don't put dynamite cartridges in your pockets.

Last Friday morning at his fish pond and a half miles west of Clanton on the Kincheon road, Mr. Hunter shot and killed a peculiar bird, measuring 6 feet 1 inch from tip to tip, and 4 feet 6 inches from bill was 12 inches in length. No one seems to know what kind of bird it is.

[illegible] number of people in Clanton this week one might have expected for thinking circuit court was being held, but the majority come in at the call of Tax Commissioner, and some 1300 people to [illegible] were about 800 settlements, and some 500 [illegible] was to have been expected [illegible] was lots of kicking [illegible] is very natural for any one to having his assessment raised, and some of them obstinately. Tax Commissioner says he has had a heap of it, but there will be a considerable addition to the [illegible] the taxes in Chilton this year.

Some doctors take life, others take whatever they can get.

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, gas, headache, constipation, general debility, sour risings, all of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol cures indigestion. This preparation represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach combined with the greatest tonic and reconstructive properties known to pharmacy. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does not only cure indigestion and dyspepsia, but this wonderful remedy cures all stomach troubles by its purifying, sweetening and cleansing effect on the mucous membranes lining the digestive tract.

Mr. S. S. Bell, of Ravenscroft, N. C., says: "I was troubled with sour stomach for a long time, but Kodol cured me and we are now using it in our family."

Kodol Digests What You Eat

Sold by Upchurch Drug Co.

Judge of Probate

THE BANNER

VOL. XV — CLANTON, ALA., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1907 — No. 47

MAN ON THE CORNER

Sees Sights He Saw, and Some He Saw Not.

Last Friday Mr. R. E. Roper called into The Banner office a sample of bolls of cotton which had been killed by some insect of the boll weevil variety, but whether the genuine boll weevil we are not to say. He says that thousands of this pestiferous insect are being found in his crop which is rapidly being destroyed, whether it is the boll weevil or not it is doing the devils work.

Mr. E. A. Matthews returned last night from a most enjoyable trip north and east. He visited Nashville and Cincinnati, Niagara Falls and across into Canada to St. Catherines, where he attended a meeting of the Knights Templar, of which he is a member. Then back to New York and Philadelphia, where he had the pleasure of dining with three old acquaintances who had not met together for twenty-seven years; a meeting which recalled his old student days. He also visited the Jamestown Exposition, and finally returned home, pleased with his trip, but glad to be in Clanton.

The protracted meeting at the Methodist church, which has been in progress for the last two weeks, was brought to a conclusion Sunday night. It has been throughout a most enthusiastic and joyful meeting, and has resulted in 46 accessions to the church, 20 of whom were baptized Sunday morning by the beloved pastor, Rev. F. M. Woods, and are awaiting baptism. The services have been good and Rev. J. M. Thomas eloquent, appealing to the people.

There's a terrible warning to parents. Be careful how you whip your boys, or at all events examine their pockets first, and don't use a bungle. A good mother in Clanton had occasion to whip her little son of seven, and laying him across her knee, she, with a slipper, spanked him good and hard. But, alas, the first smack caused an explosion. Young hopeful had a dynamite cartridge in his pocket, and when his good mother came down on it with the slipper it exploded, tearing a hole in her lap, which it is expected will be fatal. The mother lost her lap and received other injuries in the face and body. A word to the wise—if you must use nature's weapon and spank alone; and you don't put dynamite cartridges in your pockets.

Early Monday morning at his fish pond two and a half miles west of town on the Kincheon road, Mr. Ware shot and killed a peculiar bird measuring 6 feet 1 inch from tip to tip, and 4 feet 6 inches long. The bill was 12 inches in length. No one seems to know what kind of bird it is.

The number of people in town last week one might have thought for thinking circuit court was being held, but the majority come in at the call of the Tax Commissioner, and some 1300 people to do. There were about 800 settlements, and some 500 settlements was to have been expected. There was lots of kicking which is very natural for any one to having his assessment raised, and some of them obstinately. Tax Commissioner Carver says he has had no end of it, but there will be a valuable addition to the amount of the taxes in Chilton this year.

Peoples Savings Bank of Chilton County.

CLANTON, ALA.

CAPITAL STOCK $50,000.00.

Wm. E. Holloway, President.
W. T. Callen, Cashier. John A. Thomas, Assistant Cashier

DIRECTORS:

W. T. Callen — Wm. E. Holloway — Sam Kaufman
H. M. Martin, Sr. — M. L. Greil — John A. Thomas

There is a number of people who are under an erroneous impression. They think that they never control enough money to start a bank account. In this they are mistaken. We solicit small accounts as well as large. And we handle the business of both with our best care. We believe that you ought to have a bank account, and we offer you our services.

THE CLANTON BANK

CLANTON, ALA.

Solicits the business of all business men in this vicinity—those who borrow, and those who do not. Both classes are welcome and cordially invited to transact business with us, as we have good facilities for serving both. As borrowers we seek only such as will use our money as safely as we use theirs, and will be prepared to return it at the proper time, as we are to return theirs.

THE CLANTON BANK

WANTED.

LAND FOR SALE—216 acres of good land, 65 acres in cultivation, 2 settlements. In sections 29 and 30, township 22, range 13. Apply to R F. SIMS, Maplesville Ala., R. F. D. No. 1.

REWARD—$2.00 will be paid to anyone notifying me of the whereabouts of a White Dog with one Brown ear—a Bull Bitch. Lost July 22, 1907. E. R. CALLOWAY, Verbena, Ala.

BRICK—Good hard, well burnt brick for sale about September 1. C. L. FOREMAN, Thorsby, Ala.

FOR SALE CHEAP—1 60-Saw Gin, (new) 1 Wagon Scale (new). A. M. JOHNSON, Thorsby, Ala.

Tired mothers, worn out by the peevish, cross baby have found cascarets a boon and a blessing. Cascarets is for babies and children, and is especially good for the ills so common in hot weather. Look for the ingredients printed on the bottle. Contains no harmful drugs. Sold by Upchurch drug co.

124 ACRES FOR SALE, four miles southeast of Clanton. Apply to Q. S., Banner office, Clanton.

FOR SALE—80 acres good land, two miles from Clanton; two settlements on the tract. The tract is well watered. Call on or address G. O. FOSHEE, Clanton, Ala., R. F. D. No. 5.

WANTED—3 or 4 Good Salesmen, none but experienced hands need apply. H. KANJUTZKY, Clanton, Ala.

Souvenir Postals of Clanton. Florence Drug Store.

CORRESPONDENCE.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are good for anyone who needs a pill. They are small, safe, sure, little pills that do not gripe or sicken. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

Dublin, Texas, Aug. 27, 1907

Editor Banner—Please give me a small space in the Banner to say a few words. The health of this community is very good at present. Crops are very good for the dry weather. The young folks are having a nice time at the big meetings and singings.

We had a fine reunion, and it was enjoyed by everybody.

Some of the people out here are picking cotton and some are going to the Bankers' Association at Dublin. This is a fine country. All the boys and girls are making money and having good times at the ice cream suppers.

There will be a debate at Dublin, Sept. 1, 2 and 3, by the holiness and Campbellites.

Mr. T. Matt Robinson and family are visiting relatives at Lingerville this week. C. O. ROBINSON.

Mulberry.

Editor Banner—Will you give me space in the Banner to give to the good people of other communities the joy and comfort of this week that took place at Mulberry church during our protracted meeting which has just closed. Surely the Lord was with us, and the prayers of the good brothers and sisters were heard, and proof of this was at the close of the meeting when 21 were buried in baptism, besides a goodly number who joined by letter and restoration.

But no wonder there was such a shocking of the dry bones of the valley, it will always be such as long as Bros. P. G. Maness and Mitchell conduct the business. I tell you good brothers, if we could always have such men who would stand up under the banners of God to help poor sinners fight the good fight and lead them on to victory, this old world of ours would be blessed. I tell you when Brother Maness fires his battery the shells strike the heart and the victory is won. Satan has to haul down his colors when he has to confront such men. May the Lord bless them and hold them up to do their whole duty, is my prayer.

OLD SOLDIER.

Personals.

Mr. D. W. Vines of Maplesville was in town Monday.

Mr. James Franklin of Thorsby gave us a pleasant call Tuesday.

Mr. J. S. Wright of Jemison, Route 1, was a visitor here Tuesday.

Mr. R. F. Sims of Maplesville, who has land to sell (see advt.) was a pleasant caller Tuesday.

Mr. C. B. Gaines of Verbena was a visitor Tuesday.

Lame Back.

This is an ailment for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has been proven especially valuable. In almost every instance it affords prompt and permanent relief. Mr. Luke LaGrange, of Orange, Mich., says of it: "After using a plaster and other remedies for three weeks for a bad lame back, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and two applications effected a cure." For sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

It was a happy privilege to attend the Teachers' Institute at Vida school room, Aug. 30-31. Surely Prof. Askins, county superintendent, drew inspiration and encouragement, when he realizes that this welcome institution is developing, progressing, rich, that in advancing education, a work which leads and props and fashions civilization and honor and power. Yes, it leads to Christian happiness. Mrs. E. Apperson, nee Cooper, read a paper on "Duty of teachers." It should be seen in print, along with Mrs. Moncrief's talk, much on the same time. When good people are putting their mind and soul in teaching they should have encouragement from all sides.

Prof. McCartha of Troy gave explanation on English grammar in a lecture worth memorizing. The instructions, along with loving harmony, made the meeting on the whole a pleasureable success, to be cherished and to nestle in many bosoms many days.

Mrs. IRA CAMPBELL.

MEETING OF THE RURAL MAIL CARRIERS.

The second Annual meeting of the Rural Letter Carriers Association of Chilton county, was held at the court house, Clanton, Sept 2, 1907. The convention was presided over by President, W. J. Armstrong. Several questions of importance to the carrier body were discussed and the routine work of the association dispensed with.

The following named carriers were elected as officers of the Association for the ensuing year: J. A. Caddell, Jemison, President; J. A. Hayes, Maplesville, Vice President; J. L. Wilson, Clanton, Sec. & Treas. Next meeting to be held at Jemison, Sept 14, 1908. Every carrier and substitute in the county invited to attend.

West Chilton.

The health of this portion is good, but little sickness. Fodder saving is over and cotton picking is on. But the two weeks dry weather and the extreme hot weather has ruined the cotton, and a great portion of the cotton is ruined with rust. The crop will be very short this year. Everybody who has grass should take advantage of the hot weather and save all the hay they can, as it will be needed, for we are going to have an early fall and a hard winter.

Anybody who wants work oxen will do well to call on T. G. Milling and C. C. Gay, as they have a good many on their stock farm.

The membership of Fellowship church, North Dallas, has called the Rev. P. G. Maness, D. D., pastor of that church for 40 years, if he should live that long. With best wishes to all, I will ring off.

FIRST OLD MIKE.

Lime Springs.

Protracted meeting will begin at Lime Springs church, Friday night. Everybody invited to come and bring their families.

W. W. RUTHERFORD.

The Touch That Heals

Is the touch of Bucklen's Arnica salve. It's the happiest combination of Arnica flowers and healing balsams ever compounded. No matter how old the sore or ulcer is, this salve will cure it. For burns, scalds, cuts, wounds or piles, it has no equal. Guaranteed by Upchurch Drug co. 25c.

FOR SALE.

4 acres good farm land, all in cultivatio ; practically level; one mile from Clanton. Also 2 acres in West Clanton. Will sell cheap. Call on or apply to T. C. MARCUS, Real Estate Agent, Clanton, Ala. Office in Reynolds Bldg.

CONFEDERATE PENSION NOTICE

The Pension Examining Board will meet in Clanton, September 8th and 15th, to consider any applications of those wishing to be placed on the pension roll of Chilton county for 1907.

H. W. CAFFEY,
Chairman Ex. Board.
Verbena, Sept. 2, 1907.

All-Day Singing.

There will be a singing at Rushton the 3rd Sunday in September. Judge Reynolds will deliver a temperance lecture at 11 a.m. Everybody invited to come and bring baskets. O. Z. ROBINSON.

To the People of Chilton and Adjoining Counties.

I will begin work on Sept. 1st, 1907, for H. Kanjutsky, and must say if you will call in, and let me show you some of the nice goods, and make you some of the lowest prices ever heard of in Clanton, I feel sure we can sell you and save you money. Be sure to come in if you don't buy anything.

Yours truly,
C. H. BAXLEY.

Enterprise.

The Cheerful Addie Mercy Band will meet at Enterprise, Saturday night before the fourth Sunday in September. All who are interested in the Addie Mercy Band are especially invited to come and join this mighty band. Everybody come out. H. C. VANCE.

Sick Headache.

This disease is caused by a drangement of the stomach. Take a dose of Chamberlain's stomach and liver tablets to correct this disorder and the sick headache will disappear. For sale by Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Here's Another.

"It gives me much pleasure to praise the

Davis 100 per cent Pure paint which has given perfect satisfaction to myself and to the Architects and Property owners for whom I have worked.

It has most excellent covering capacity, and the Greens are the finest I have ever used."

Somers Cameron, M. P.,
Ocean City, N. J.

WHEN ARE YOU GOING TO TRY Davis?

For sale by Payne & Payne, Montgomery, Ala.

W. H. MADDOX
BLACKSMITH

I do all kinds of Repair Work in Wood or Iron. Buy Breaking and Bankston.

Cold Tire Setting. I can set your Buggy or Wagon Tires cold or hot.

Horse-shoeing up-to-date. Satisfaction guaranteed.

CLANTON

J. V. HIGGINS
WATCHMAKER, JEWELER AND ENGRAVER

At the Florence Drug Store, Clanton, Ala. All work guaranteed Special attention given to Watch Cleaning, Stone Setting and Engraving

Repair all kinds of Graphophones Guns and Pistols Repaired.

HELP IS OFFERED
TO WORTHY YOUNG PEOPLE

We especially want good young men, between the ages of 18 and 25 years, who wish to obtain a thorough business and penmanship education, to write for free catalogue and special proposition. Don't delay. Write today.

The Draughon Business College, Macon, Ga.

Sure Cure for Rheumatism.

Mr. Wm. Hall, Bellefonte, Pa., writes: "I have used Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism and find it a sure cure. I have recommended it to many others and they have used it with the same results." For sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

A Big Saving With a Little Money!

Now is the Time to Make a Big Saving with LITTLE MONEY

We are still selling HATS, SHOES and CLOTHING at car load prices, in fact, we are making a great, big reduction on our entire stock.

CANNON BRAND GUARANTEED HATS

Wear like steel
Hit the mark of perfection

We have just received a car of Webber Wagons and, of course, they are well known (we have them.)

Let us show you our White Star and Moline Buggies. We pay $1,00 cash for every spoke broken out from flaw or workmanship and replace same free. Come, see, and tell others.

M. F. CANNON & SONS
Clanton, Ala.

THE BANNER.

Published Weekly

CLANTON, ALABAMA.

The Washington Herald says appendicitis may be prevented by walking on all fours.

Dollar wheat and half-a-dollar corn, observes the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, make it still harder to tell why boys leave the farm.

Victor Hugo, enumerating the world's greatest men of genius, mentioned Dante for Italy, Shakespeare for England, and Beethoven for Germany. Beethoven represents modern man in his highest aspirations, and never has he excited a more living interest than to-day.

The brave Belgians, who outrowed the crack Christ Church, Oxford, crew at Henley, and for the second time won the Grand Challenge Cup, have adopted the Zeitlin system. "We never train in the English fashion," said the Belgian captain; "we eat, drink and smoke as we please."

The dog is now welded into our domesticity, and the black shadow of the rabies is a very persistent follower of Towser and Gyp. In 1906 the New York Pasteur Institute and the Health Department treated seven hundred and ninety cases, and the officials of both institutions say the returns for 1907 will be larger. So the news of the antitoxin for rabies is good news indeed.

A recent issue of the Pittsburg Christian Advocate contained a timely editorial denouncing the excess of horse-play introduced to discomfit the newly married. The pranks that are played with brides and grooms are in bad taste and a violation of the tender sentiments associated with matrimony. The old-fashioned charivari when the happy couple returned from the honey-moon tour was bad enough, but was far preferable to the growing custom of hazing the couple before the tour is begun.

With the most peaceful of intentions, protests the New Haven Register, it is nevertheless proper to suggest that it would be a good idea to get our navy onto a war footing. In each of four serious accidents within the past ten years we have lost more men at a blow than perished in the whole Spanish-American war, and in one of them, the Pensacola affair, four times as many. Evidently, as far as the navy is concerned, there are some things more closely related to hell than is war.

Poor Anna Gould has won another step towards freedom from the awful cad to whom the ambition of her family for a French title married her, notes the Boston Post. The appeal of the Count Boni de Castellane from the decision granting her a decree of divorce has been dismissed, and she is free, provided she can pay this French nobleman enough to satisfy him against further technical proceedings. This, it is intimated, has been arranged. And the latest example of the folly of international marriages of American money with European titles may go into the record of sociological failures.

Large sums are disbursed by 300,000 American travelers who cross the sea, chiefly in travel, clothing, millinery, pictures and souvenirs, not to mention theatres and restaurants. And these Americans, insists the New Orleans Picayune, give so liberally in tips that they have demoralized England and the Continent. The amazing flow of dollars starts with the departure of the Transatlantic steamer from the New York dock, and continues till the late and reluctant return, which return the Londoner surmises is never for pleasure, but always for business—in brief, to collect more dollars to pour into European coffers.

The pencil industry depends chiefly upon the supply of red cedar. Mr. L. H. White, Forest Assistant, in Circular 102 of the Department of Agriculture, notes the scarcity of pencil wood for a growing industry, producing 315,000,000 pencils annually and consuming 109,000 tons, or 7,200,000 cubic feet of timber. With the rigid demand for clean heartwood the waste in cubic feet averages seventy per cent., and in weight nearly ninety per cent., while there is little or no market for the refuse. Mr. White has devised a method of conserving the choicest growths of red cedar on a sixty-year rotation, so as to insure

J. F. DUNCAN PRESIDENT OF FARMERS UNION

Was Elected at Andalusia Last Week

WAS HELD AUGUST 28-29-30.

The Farmers' Union Held its Meeting at Andalusia Last Week, and Meets in Montgomery Next Year—Good Deal of Business Transacted.

First Day Session.

Probably the largest gathering of delegates that Andalusia has ever had in its environs were in that town on Wednesday to attend the second annual session of the Alabama Farmers' Union.

The delegates had been arriving since Tuesday, when over three hundred of them came in on the train from Montgomery. Since then every train had brought to Andalusia large crowds of delegates. There are about 1,600 visitors in the city. The hotels and boarding houses are overflowing but the hospitable homes of the city have been thrown open, and the many visitors are receiving a most cordial welcome. The visitors express great pleasure at the attention shown them, and have warm words of praise for Andalusia's hospitality and evidence of progress and prosperity.

Delegates from all parts of the state were there. The first session, a public meeting, was held Wednesday morning, beginning at 9:30 o'clock.

The following officers of the union were present at the opening of the convention: I. A. Worley, of Birmingham, president; J. A. Rose, of Greenville, vice-president; E. J. Cook, of Birmingham, secretary and treasurer; P. F. Parker, of Birmingham, state business agent; W. A. Morris, of Sulligent, organizer.

The meetings were held in the beautiful and commodious new opera house, of which Andalusia is justly proud. It is one of the most perfect theatres in a town of this size in the state. The theatre seats 1,500 persons.

S. O. Beasley, president of the Covington County Association, called the convention to order Wednesday morning. Rev. E. J. Smith, of Highland, gave the invocation, after which several hymns were sung, all the members joining in. The opening ceremony was impressive.

Rev. L. P. Lathram, of Andalusia, was introduced by Mr. Beasley, who, as the representative of Andalusia and county officials, formally welcomed the visitors to Andalusia. Mr. Lathram said the people of Andalusia and Covington county were indeed glad to welcome such a gathering of men, whom, in his estimation, were the most representative body of Alabama's citizenship that could be assembled. He told the delegates of the marvelous growth of Andalusia and Covington county; that in 1897 there were only 7,000 people in the county and 500 people in Andalusia, while today there are 30,000 people in Covington county and 5,000 people in Andalusia. The speaker showed that there was $1,500,000 of taxable property in the county in 1897, as compared with $8,000,000 today. He dealt at length with the timber, turpentine and farm resources of the county, and said there is 50,000 acres in the county. He said that the people of the county will sell to good home-seekers.

In closing, Mr. Lathram said that if the delegates were half as glad to be with the people of Covington county as they were at having them, the people he represented were extremely happy.

When Mr. Lathram concluded the meeting was turned over to President Worley, of the State Union, who introduced T. J. Brooks, of Atwood, Tenn., the secretary and treasurer of the union of that state, who made the chief address of the day. Mr. Brooks was received with enthusiasm.

His speech was upon the general principles of the order, and what the organization was striving to accomplish. He said in part that the growth had been marvelous until the Farmers' Union was one of the strongest orders in existence. The principle of the order is the lowering of the percentage of mortgages on farm lands and the increasing of the ownership of property by the farmers.

The different methods of fighting the combinations of capital were discussed, they being the chief cause of the farmers being unable to set the price of their own product, as coal, iron and other producers did. He said that trusts could control prices on their products, because they were organized and controlled and regulated the supply to the demand.

Mr. Brooks said the farmers were the last to drop into organized force to help themselves, but that in the Farmers' Union was the beginning of the fight for organized force, education and cooperation of the farmers looking to the time when the farmer himself and not the speculators of Wall street would control the prices on the farm products.

At great length Mr. Brooks spoke of the great good that is being accomplished by the union, and discussed the buying of necessary articles for farm use and the selling of farm products. His address was a great effort, and he was frequently interrupted by applause.

After Mr. Brooks had concluded, P. F. Parker, state business agent, was introduced, and delivered a splendid address on the proper methods of buying.

Mr. Davis, a newspaper man of Georgia, followed Mr. Parker. Mr. Davis spoke of the different papers that were the organs of the union, and incidentally amused the audience with a few anecdotes.

The afternoon session was held behind closed doors. The order of the afternoon was strict business and reports of committees. The reports were on routine matters touching the internal affairs of the order. Nothing important was discussed.

A night session, which was public, was held in the opera house. The meeting was in the nature of a reception, the time being occupied with speeches by various members of the union. The chief address was made by a member of the local labor union. His address made a good impression upon the audience.

Second Day Session.

The second day of the second annual convention of the Farmers' Union of Alabama passed quietly, there being morning, afternoon and night sessions, all of which were held behind closed doors. Nothing except routine business was before the delegates.

It is an earnest body of men, these Alabama farmers, who have gathered to discuss the affairs of the farm and the home. Every delegate has been promptly on hand when the meetings began, and they stay until recesses are taken. They mean business. They are here to learn and to co-operate. All the delegates are imbued with a strong spirit of fellowship and are determined in their efforts to organize an irresistible force among farmers that will be able to demand the justice that they believe to be theirs.

The first part of the morning session was given over to a general discussion of matters for the good of the organization. Many of the delegates took part in this discussion and offered much of interest.

The afternoon session was taken up with reports of officers, appointment of committees and passage of resolutions.

President Worley made the first report. He stated that the union had grown from 5,000 members to 85,000 in the last two years, and in every way its prosperity had been equally as marked. He said that from the present he thought the future prospects were very bright.

A fine showing was made by the secretary and treasurer in his annual report. The state business agent reported that warehouses under control of the union had been established in almost every county of the state. This report was especially encouraging. Theh state organizer, in a verbal report, said that he had traveled 16,000 miles in the year, and that a large number of branch unions had been organized.

The executive committee handed in its report. The most important recommendation of this committee was that the number of members of the committee be changed from five to nine, representing the congressional districts of the state. This recommendation was turned over to a committee on constitution and by-laws.

A resolution was passed to receive into the meetings Will H. Winn, of Birmingham, who was representing the federated labor unions. Mr. Winn delivered an address on the co-operation of all labor.

A resolution was passed providing for a union label to be placed on all articles sold by the union, the label to be accepted by all other unions.

An invitation from the Commercial Club of Montgomery for the union to hold its next annual meeting in that city was extended. Many delegates expressed themselves as favoring an acceptance of the invitation. There has been no talk of holding the meeting at any other place than Montgomery, and that city will no doubt get the meeting by the unanimous voice of the delegates.

Wednesday night the time was given to representatives of many large business houses which furnish farm supplies. These agents submitted propositions to the union from their houses. These men also made a display of their foods.

Third Day Session.

With much work before them the union began the third day of its second annual session. The delegates went at the work with a determination. One committee held a meeting at 8:30 o'clock Friday morning in order to be able to report when the union met at 9 o'clock.

Enthusiasm of the delegates increased with each session, and owing to the amount of business, there was some discussion of continuing the meeting until Saturday.

Many of the members of oratorical tendencies indulged themselves to the fullest on Friday, and as a result they have shown themselves to be orators as well as farmers.

The first business of the morning was the offering of a resolution by J. R. McLendon, of Naftel, Montgomery county, who stated that he would fight any opposition to the resolution. This was the resolution:

"That we, the Farmers' Union, now in session in Andalusia, do favor holding the next annual session of the Farmers' Union in the city of Montgomery, provided, however, the city and county of Montgomery show us the friendliness we desire."

The resolution was passed with enthusiasm and unanimously. This is an expression to the executive committee which will select the next meeting place and this committee will probably respect the wishes of the union.

The committee on constitution and by-laws reported as its recommendation that the executive committee should have the same number of members as now, and that the members should be elected three one year and two the next.

The following delegates to the national convention which is to meet next week in Little Rock, Ark., were selected: Messrs. Hill, Beasley, Eiland, Duncan and Collins.

A resolution in strong terms was passed expressing the thanks of the union to the local union, the reception committee from the local union and to the citizens of Andalusia and Covington county for the treatment accorded the delegates.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing term: Dr. J. F. Duncan, of Morgan county, president; J. F. Pierson, of Lauderdale county, vice president; E. J. Cook, of Birmingham, secretary and treasurer.

The newly elected officers made speeches Friday night, and at 9:30 o'clock the union adjourned sine die.

This convention has probably done more to bring the farmers of Alabama together than any other movement they have started. There has been nothing to mar the proceedings. Nothing of a political nature has intruded upon the routine of business, and the several hundred delegates will return to their homes feeling satisfied with the results accomplished.

MANY MEN BELONG TO IT.

Arkansas Farmers' Union Met at Little Rock.

Little Rock, Ark.—The entrance of the agricultural interests of the country into the ranks of organized labor was fittingly illustrated here by the arrival of hundreds of delegates to the national convention of the Farmers' Educational and Co-Operative Union, the most militant and successful organization of farmers ever attained in America. The convention will continue through the week. It is expected that nine hundred delegates and hundreds of additional visitors from all over the country will be here.

In addition to general business and the election of officers, many topics of national interest to union farmers will be discussed. The union's membership is now large in the southern states, with Nebraska in the lead, but it is being gradually extended over the entire country.

Thousand Million More.

New York.—American farmers' earnings are a thousand million dollars greater this year than last, according to a preliminary report on crops, which will be published in the next issue of the American Agriculturist. This big gain will be entirely due to the increased prices of farm products.

Vesuvius Again In Eruption.

Rome.—Vesuvius is again in active eruption. The activity began on Friday, making an impressive spectacle. Lava is pouring forth from scores of fissures in the earth, which is subject to frequent seismic tremors. The main lava stream is advancing toward the village of Torreanunziata, and the inhabitants are terrorized and are fleeing from their homes. These people narrowly escaped the last eruption. Reports from Naples say that the inhabitants of the country around there are in great fear, many of them sleeping in the open air.

Shot by Burglar.

Cleveland, O.—T. J. Phillips, secretary and general manager of the Cleveland-Pittsburg Coal Company, was shot by a burglar Monday at his residence. He died at 5 o'clock after making a statement to the police.

Held Responsible for the Wreck.

Charleston, Ill.—The coroner's jury which has been investigating Friday's wreck on the Central Illinois Traction Company's line, which resulted in the death of fourteen persons and the serious injury to scores of others, has returned a verdict holding the road, its officials and the motormen of the two trains which collided responsible for the crash. Both motormen were released on bonds of $3,000 each.

Roosevelt Not in the Strike.

Oyster Bay.—It was authoritatively stated Saturday that President Roosevelt will not interfere with the telegraphers' strike. Secretary Loeb said the numerous appeals to the President to take such action, which have been reported in the newspapers, have not been received at Oyster Bay, and that at no time since the beginning of the strike has the president seen the necessity or reason for intervention.

Thousands Saw Boys Electrocuted.

Buffalo, N. Y.—Two Polish lads, Tony Carola and Guiseppe Zoppa, both about 12 years old, were shocked to death Sunday on a steel tower which carries high voltage from Niagara Falls power house to the Lackawanna steel plant. For nearly three hours the bodies hung in mid air, with the blue flames playing about them in plain view of thousands of street car passengers.

STRENOUS DAYS FOR PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

Hard at Work on Speeches That Will Be HEARD IN WEST AND SOUTH.

Starts With Oration at Unveiling of McKinley Monument in Canton—Scheduled for Six Set Speeches and Some Extemporaneous Ones.

Oyster Bay.—To prepare a half dozen addresses, each of which will be read very generally by a nation of 80,000,000 people, and all to be delivered within the week from September 30 to October 6, is the task to which President Roosevelt is now devoting several hours of his time each night from 9 o'clock until bedtime. Besides the half dozen set speeches, the president will be called upon for as many more extemporaneous talks and these, too, require some attention, although not a finished preparation.

The president is to terminate his vacation with a dash through the Middle West and the South. He will participate first in the ceremonies attending the unveiling of the national monument to the late President McKinley at Canton, O., September 30. Naturally this address will be of a memorial character, but of national breadth and interest. At Keokuk, Iowa, Mr. Roosevelt will speak again the following day, and while no intimation has been made as to the character of this address, it is believed that it will deal with the problems of the day. At this place the president will begin his cruise of the Mississippi aboard the steamer bearing the river's name. River steamboat travel gives no opportunity for rear platform talks and handshaking with eager crowds, but it has been indicated that many persons will line the river banks just for a glimpse of the president as he floats by. The river trip will be punctuated with functions at St. Louis, where another prepared speech will be delivered, at Cairo and at Memphis, where the cruise will end.

LUMBER TRUST NEAT.

Secretary of the Interior Garfield Intimates That It Will Be.

Toledo, O.—Secretary of the Interior Garfield, talking in his Mentor street home on his conference with President Roosevelt, which followed on the heels of the secretary's visit to the west, let it be known that a fight on the lumber trusts, the fourth of the nation's big combinations in the industrial world, is to be waged soon.

Mr. Garfield would not discuss the details, but said information he had obtained "showed that a lumber trust existed," and the information was in the hands of the bureau of corporations, and that the bureau and inland waterways commission, headed by Congressman Burton, would force the issue before the interstate commerce commission soon. He intimated also that personal prosecutions would be made, saying Frederick Weyerhaeuser, for years the head of the lumber monopoly, was still in the market.

WHIPPED HER BOY.

Her Spanking Exploded a Big Dynamite Cap in His Pocket.

Sheboygan, Mich.—Mrs. Fred Williams, living at Boar Point, on Crooked Lake, near this city, was severely injured and her 7-year-old son was probably fatally hurt when a dynamite cap in the boy's hip pocket exploded while the mother was spanking him for a minor offense. The boy had been out in the field where his father was using dynamite to blow up stumps and had slipped one of the percussion caps which Mr. Williams was using in his pocket. He later returned to the house, where his mother called him in to be punished for some childish offense. Mrs. Williams used a shingle as the instrument of punishment. The first blow exploded the cap in the boy's pocket, and the explosion tore a large hole in his hip, from which he is believed to be dying. The mother lost two fingers and received a number of minor cuts about her face and body.

Smugglers Strike.

Warsaw.—The most remarkable strike in the world is in progress on the German Polish frontier. Smugglers whose prosperity depends on their keeping out of the hands of the government has gone on strike against their employers for an increase in wages of 20 per cent. The best smugglers are women, who cross into Germany two or three times a day in negligee and return attired in clothes of the latest fashion—often more than one suit at a time.

The people who run the business say the women less than 50 cents a day, and those who take the risk think they are worth at least ten cents

Ball Player Killed.

Savannah, Ga.—Joseph R. Brinkey, right fielder for the Savannah team, broke his neck at Tybee Sunday afternoon by diving into shallow water. Other bathers saw him as he lay dying on the bottom, but he had announced that he was going to make a long stay under water, and they thought nothing of the matter until several minutes had passed. Then they drew him up to find that he was dead. Brinkey leaves a wife and a three-weeks'-old

OVERTHROW STANDARD

Actual Beginning ... New York.

New York.—The actual ... the government suit to ... Standard Oil Company ... in this city Tuesday ... testimony in the ... Louis suit will be taken.

Former Judge Francis ... St. Louis, who is the ... to hear testimony, is now ... Frank B. Kellogg of St. ... B. Morris, of Chicago ... sel for the government ... here.

Judge Ferris said ... ed Monday that ... extent of the ... has no idea ... the test suit ... length of the ... up. It is ... principals ... volume of testimony ... will produce ... of national ...

"The ... ment are in ... said Judge Ferris ... it, and, of course, ... at this time of ... hearing will be ... we will be ... in hearing all the ... been collected in ...

Mr. Kellogg and Mr. ... fer that the testimony ... sion become public ... ing.

PERSIAN PREMIER ...

Murder of Ali Khan Placed ... of Secret Society.

London.—It is believed ... assassination of the ... ister of the interior, Mirza ... Kahn, who was shot and ... ed as he was leaving the ... council, the Khosa Agasi ... planned by the secret ... have their headquarters at ... whose members, numbering ... 000, have bound themselves ... the constitution. The ... collected arms and ... sess considerable funds ... the Persian press have ... on a campaign against the ... mier, declaring him to be ... the constitution.

The Persians in London ... assassination, occurring ... at the time when the ... government agreement ... hope of progress by the ... premier having been a ... Russia and Great Britain.

COULD NOT CA...

A Man Nearly Starved ... With Money in His ...

New York.—An ... to the attention of the ... night when they found ... nolds, a young Swede ... who came here from ... Y., to see Prince Wilhelm ... about the streets in a ... tion despite the fact that ... his possession a money ... for $10.50. The money ... reached Reynolds Sunday ... reply to a request he had ... home for funds, and as he ... he could not get it cashed ...

Reynolds, who had ... eat since Friday, wandered ... til night, when nearly ... hunger, he appealed to the ... was taken to a restaurant ... ate ravenously, and will be ... until he can get his order ... start for home.

TRIED TO BLACK...

Victim Opened Fire, Ki... Putting Others to ...

Blairsville, Pa.—Under ... an alleged blackmailer, who ... one companion was ... third escaped following ... to blackmail Frank Cl... was probably fatally ... the Italians. Cleppino ... maker.

Late Saturday night ... about to close his shop ... entered and demanded ... ey. He refused to give ... immediately opened fire ... ver. As he fired Gl... and one of his ... Cleppino in the breast.

The outrage attracted ... who gave chase to the ... whose name is unknown ... by the authorities, who ... a freight train and ... at Indiana, Pa.

Fatal Shooting at ...

Greenwood, Miss.—... Jr., was shot and ... ed, and his father, J... was mortally wounded ... of business at Money ... Grover Kirby. All the ... to the best known ... state.

Bridge Burn...

Philadelphia.—A ... Baltimore and Ohio ... at Darby, a suburb ... o'clock Monday morning ... work of the bridge was ... namite. A freight train ... ing at the time, but ... gation believe the ... of enemies of the ... bound express from ... Washington would ... bridge in an hour.

...SED TO DEATH ...FALLING BRIDGE

...en Drop Without Warning ... St. Lawrence River.

...EST SINGLE SPAN BRIDGE

...e Catastrophe Came Just at ... When Men Were Leaving in the Evening.

... more plunged to death when ... superstructure of what was to ... been the greatest cantilever ... in the world collapsed and ... into the St. Lawrence river be... Sidney and St. Ronald, five ... from Quebec.

... that remains of the grand ... are its huge ... and in the ... a great ... tangled, twisted steel work ... down the men who had ... working on it.

... official estimate places the loss ... at $4.

... bridge fell at exactly 5:37 this ... just as many of the work ... were preparing to leave ... bridge was about a mile and ... in length, and half of it, from ... shore to mid stream, ... up and dropped into the ...

... men were at work on this ... of the structure, and the ... had just been blown at 5:30 ... urn to quit work for the day ... there came a grinding sound ... the bridge, mid-stream. The ... ned to see what had happened ... an instant later the cry went ... bridge is falling."

... men made a rush shoreward, ... distance was too great for ... to reach. The fallen section of ... dragged others after ... mapping girders and cables ... like crashes of artillery ... fleetness to the feet of ... workmen as they sped ... but only a few of them ... safety before the last piece of ... on the south shore was ... into the water.

... southern extension of the ... which collapsed was rapidly ... the zenith of the immense ..., which was to span the ... For 800 feet from the shore ... steel structure reared ... no supports save the piers ... shore, and one pier in the ... 150 feet from the shore, ... outward extremity was 180 ... the water.

... of the half bent down a ... a moment later the whole ... fabric began to give way, ... first, then with a terrific ... which was plainly heard in ... and which shook the whole ... so that the residents ... of their houses thinking ... earthquake had occurred.

... 92 men working on the ... night so far have been recovered ... are so badly injured they ... Of the other 84, 16 have ... from the water, dead, and ... that the great majority of ... have been either drowned ... by the falling girders.

... horrors of the situation were ... by the fact that a number ... men were pinned in the ... near the shore. Their ... and shrieks could be plainly ... the crowds who gathered ... water's edge.

... the shore the wreckage of ... did not go below the surface ... water, and eight workmen ... remained above water were ... taken to the hospital at ...

...der is Agreeable.

...ptance by Salvador of the ... of the United States to ... peace in Central America ...ived at the state department ... note of President Figueroa ...de public. The acceptance ... other Central American ... confidently expected.

REBUKES PLAYERS

...rmance in Music Hall ... "Horrible."

...ard entered a cafe at ... and after listening to one ... on the program he walked ... a protest against the scandal ... of the performance. A ... company was playing. His ... followed by the Duke of ... all the Americans and Eng... present.

..."horrible, appalling," said ... a member of his entourage. ... accuracy of his description ... performance is admitted ...

...ay Toward Arbitration.

...sh proposition before the ... ference regarding obligatory ..., has been so modified ... lead to a general understanding ... the subject. It leaves ... to bind itself to submit ... cases, a list of which ... which may arise between ... and any other country, or ... signatory nation may ...

...USES ARE BURNED

... by Conflagration at ..., Japan, is Placed at $15,000,000.

...rom the American consul ... place the loss caused ... fire there at $15,000,000 ... 12,000 houses, varying in ... burned and 60,000 persons ... homeless.

...ses are regarded as ... too low.

YEA...

Bellevue, Pa.

Nearly ... stable ... north, ... and escape ... Mahoney ... the afternoon. ... The fair ... says that his ... chute were ... only wish ... prisoners with ... mass of ... For fully ... and ... The ... about ... pressed ... and ... was ... standing ... rests ... of ... the ... The man was ... conscious condition ... hotel in Barnesville ... claims when ... he is not ... receive.

RAILRO...

Express Comp... Defendants ... ery.

Judge Kohlsa... circuit court ... temporary injunc... railroads and ... restraining the ... Sept. 1 a new ... stream, milk and ...

The complain... ery companies ... who charged ... companies had ... excessive rate ... creameries out ... test against the ... the railway as ... has been filed ... Commerce Com... to the creamery ... not be considered ... within a year.

Judge Kohlsa... date for the hearing ... tion for a perma...

PRESIDEN...

Resolution Offe... Ap...

A resolution ... Roosevelt for ... trial of the ... cago a year ago ... citing the press ... rulings, was in... session of the ... cation at Port... Whitelock of ...

It was met ... al from all parts ... President Alton ... asked Mr. Whitelock ... but Mr. Whitelock ... acted upon. A ... the table was ...

During the ... ft. Joseph R. ... failed to secure ...

"Some one ha... Bar Association ... criticise the Pre... States. I hold ... dent of the Unit... trust, it is the ... Bar Association ...

BOMB MAIL...

Accidental Explo... Philadelph... Fou...

A package ... Cortelyou, secre... exploded in a ... Philadelphia, pos... being prepared ... Washington. Fo... hurt.

The police ... the United State... been called in ...

So far as can ... package was in ... about four inches ... wide and half a ... was nothing left ... plosion.

The bundle ... Germantown ma... out with the ... age, on being ... exploded as it ...

Shoots Wife.

In the presence ... boarders in the ... Ocean Grove, N. ... he was the prop... vait, aged 46 yea... mortally wounde... seriously wounde... old daughter, a... self. Domestic ... have been the ...

The monthly ... Central directors ... up in a flat ... hit President Ja... Mr. Harahan hi...

LYNCH NEGR...

Posse Makes G... Who Attac... W...

News received ... Miss., says Mrs. ... 24 years old, is ... ville, just across ... was attacked by ... gro, while alone ... negro was captured ... lynched, after ... identified him. ... with bullets.

SEVELT

eeches

SOUTH.

OVERTHROW STANDARD O

Actual Beginning [illegible] New York.

New York—The actual [illegible] the government suit to [illegible] Standard Oil Company will [illegible] in this city Tuesday [illegible] testimony in the [illegible] Louis suit will be taken."

Former Judge Franklin [illegible] St. Louis, who is the special [illegible] to hear testimony, is now in [illegible] Frank B. Kellogg, of St. Paul, [illegible] B. Morrison, of Chicago, special [illegible] for the government, [illegible] here.

Judge Ferris said when [illegible] on Monday that he cannot [illegible] extent of the present [illegible] has no idea, he says, of the [illegible] the testimony to be introduced [illegible] length of time the hearing will [illegible] It is evident, however, that [illegible] principals anticipate a great [illegible] volume of testimony, which will [illegible] take place another Standard [illegible] importance.

"The special counsel for the [illegible] present action in possession of the [illegible] said Judge Ferris. "I have [illegible] it and, of course, have no [illegible] at this time of what will be [illegible] hearing will be held tomorrow [illegible] we will be busy from the [illegible] in hearing all the evidence which [illegible] been collected in these cases."

Mr. Kellogg and Mr. Morrison [illegible] for that the testimony in this [illegible] soon become public through [illegible] files.

PERSIAN PREMIER SHOT

Murder of Ali Khan Placed at the Door of Secret Societies.

London — It is believed here [illegible] assassination of the premier [illegible] interior, Mirza Ali Khan, who was shot and instantly killed as he was leaving the council the Khoau, August [illegible] planned by the secret societies [illegible] have their headquarters at [illegible] whose members, numbering [illegible] now, have found themselves [illegible] the constitution. The [illegible] instigated arms and ammunition [illegible] ess considerable funds, and [illegible] the Persian press have been [illegible] in a campaign against the [illegible] later declaring him to be an [illegible] the constitution.

The Persians in London [illegible] assassination occurring, as it [illegible] at the time when the Anglo [illegible] government agreement gave [illegible] hope of progress for Persia. [illegible] premier having been a friend [illegible] Russia and Great Britain.

COULD NOT CASH IT

A Man Nearly Starved in N[illegible] With Money in His Pocket.

New York.—An unusual [illegible] to the attention of the police [illegible] night when they found Richard [illegible] nolds, a young Swedish [illegible] who came here from Water[illegible] Y., to see Prince Wilhelm, [illegible] about the streets in a starving [illegible] tion despite the fact that he [illegible] his possession a money order [illegible] for $10.50. The money order [illegible] reached Reynolds Sunday and [illegible] reply to a request he had made [illegible] home for funds, and, as it was [illegible] he could not get it cashed.

Reynolds, who had had [illegible] eat since Friday, wandered about [illegible] til night, when nearly insane [illegible] hunger, he appealed to the police [illegible] was taken to a restaurant, [illegible] ate ravenously, and will be [illegible] until he can get his order [illegible] start for home.

TRIED TO BLACKMAIL

Victim Opened Fire, Killing One and Putting Others to Flight.

Blairsville, Pa.—Guiseppe [illegible] an alleged blackmailer, was [illegible] one companion was arrested [illegible] third escaped following the [illegible] to blackmail Frank Cleppino [illegible] was probably fatally stabbed [illegible] the Italians. Cleppinno [illegible] maker.

Late Saturday night [illegible] about to close his shop the [illegible] entered and demanded a [illegible] ey. He refused to give [illegible] immediately opened fire [illegible] ver. As he fired Gl[illegible] and one of his companions [illegible] Cleppinno in the breast.

The outrage attracted [illegible] who gave chase to the two [illegible] whose name is unknown was [illegible] by the authorities, who [illegible] a freight train and locked [illegible] at Indiana, Pa.

Fatal Shooting at [illegible]

Greenwood, Miss.—[illegible] Jr., was shot and almost [illegible] ed, and his father, Jas. [illegible] was mortally wounded [illegible] of business at Money, [illegible] Grover Kirby. All the [illegible] to the best known [illegible] state.

Bridge Blown [illegible]

Philadelphia.—A new [illegible] Baltimore and Ohio [illegible] at Darby, a suburb, was [illegible] o'clock Monday morning [illegible] work of the bridge was [illegible] namite. A freight train [illegible] ing at the time, but was [illegible] police believe the explosion [illegible] of enemies of the company. [illegible] bound express from [illegible] Washington would have [illegible] bridge in an hour.

...SED TO DEATH ...FALLING BRIDGE

...men Drop Without Warning ...to St. Lawrence River.

...ST SINGLE SPAN BRIDGE

...Catastrophe Came Just at ... When Men Were Leaving ...ing in the Evening.

...men plunged to death when ...structure of what was to ...the greatest cantilever ...in the world collapsed and ...into the St. Lawrence river be... ...illery and St. Ronald, five ...from Quebec.

...that remains of the grand ...are its huge abutments on ...shore, and in the deep a great ...of tangled twisted steel work ...down the men who had ...working on it.

...official estimate places the loss ...at 84.

...bridge fell at exactly 5:37 this ...just as many of the workmen ...preparing to leave.

...bridge was about a mile and ...in length, and half of it, from ...shore to mid stream, ...went down and dropped into the ...

...men were at work on this ...of the structure, and the ...had just been blown at 5:30 ...men to quit work for the day, ...there came a grinding sound ...the bridge mid stream. The ...turned to see what had happened. ...an instant later the cry went ...the bridge is falling."

...men made a rush shoreward, ...distance was too great for ...much. The fallen section of ...dragged others after ...mapping girders and cables ...the crashes of artillery. ...last fleetness to the feet of ...working men as they sped ...and but only a few of them ...safety before the last piece of ...on the south shore was ...into the water.

...southern extension of the ...which collapsed was rapidly ...the zenith of the immense ...which was to span the ...For 500 feet from the shore ...steel structure reared an ...no supports save the piers ...shore and one pier in the ...about 150 feet from the shore, ...outward extremity was 180 ...the water.

...end of the half bent down a ...a moment later the whole ...fabric began to give way, ...first, then with a terrific ...which was plainly heard in ...and which shook the whole ...so that the residents ...out of their houses thinking ...earthquake had occurred.

...men working on the ...night so far have been recovered. ...two are so badly injured they ... Of the other 84, 16 have ...been from the water, dead, and ...said that the great majority of ...who have been either drowned ...killed by the falling girders.

...horrors of the situation were ...added by the fact that a number ...skilled men were pinned in the ...near the shore. Their ...and shrieks could be plainly ...by the crowds who gathered ...water's edge.

...the shore the wreckage of ...bridge did not go below the surface ...the water, and eight workmen ...remained above water were ...and taken to the hospital at ...

...Leader is Agreeable.

...Compliance by Salvador of the ...note of the United States to ...peace in Central America, ...received at the state department ...note of President Figuera ...made public. The acceptance ...other Central American ...is confidently expected.

...REBUKES PLAYERS

...Performance in Music Hall ...Horrible."

...Howard entered a cafe at ...and after listening to one ...on the program he walked ...a protest against the scandalous ...of the performance. A ...company was playing. His ...was followed by the Duke of ...all the Americans and Eng...present.

..."Horrible, appalling," said ...a member of his entourage. ...accuracy of his description ...performance is admitted ...

...Step Toward Arbitration.

...proposition before the ...Conference regarding obligatory ...tion, has been so modified ...lead to a general understanding ...the subject. It leaves ...to bind itself to submit ...cases, a list of which ...which may arise between ...and any other country, or ...signatory nation may ...

...HOUSES ARE BURNED

...Caused by Conflagration at ...Kobe, Japan, is Placed ...at $15,000,000.

...from the American consul... ...place the loss caused ...conflagration there at $15,000,000. ...15,000 houses, varying in ...were burned and 60,000 persons ...rendered homeless. ...fatalities are regarded as ...remarkably few.

TRAGEDY AT FAIR

Balloonist Falls 2,000 Feet, but Was Not Killed.

Nearly 5,000 people at the Barnstable (Mass.) county fair saw Balloonist Maloney drop 2,000 feet to the earth, strike the top of a cedar fence and escape probably with his life.

Maloney made the ascent late in the afternoon, and as the visitors at the fair grounds gazed upward they saw that his attempts to cut his parachute were fruitless. A sharp easterly wind had blown the rope which connects with the knife amongst the mass of cords higher up and out of reach of the balloonist.

For fully two miles Maloney floated along. The gas was rapidly leaking from the big bag above him, and he prepared for the long drop. Maloney and the balloon came earthward rapidly. As it neared, the canvas fell about the body of the aeronaut and prevented him from seeing where he was falling. He struck in a half standing position on the top of a big cedar post used by a farmer to mark off his field. His back was terribly torn and his left arm badly injured.

A long line of automobiles, headed by one carrying Gov. Curtis Guild, a visitor at the fair, rushed to the spot. The man was picked up in a semi-conscious condition and hurried to his hotel in Barnstable Center. Physicians who attended Maloney say that he is not internally injured and will recover.

RAILROADS ENJOINED

Express Companies Also Made Defendants in Suit by Creamery Companies.

Judge Kohlsaat in the United States circuit court at Chicago issued a temporary injunction against 14 Western railroads and five express companies, restraining them from establishing on Sept. 1, a new rate on shipments of cream, milk and butter.

The complainants were 14 creamery companies of the Middle West, who charged the railway and express companies had combined to fix an excessive rate that would drive the creameries out of business. A protest against the proposed action of the railway and express companies has been filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission, but according to the creamery companies, it could not be considered by the commission within a year.

Judge Kohlsaat set Oct. 8 as the date for the hearing on the application for a permanent injunction.

PRESIDENT CRITICIZED

Resolution Offered at Meeting of Bar Association.

A resolution criticizing President Roosevelt for commenting upon the trial of the Beef Trust case in Chicago a year ago and adversely criticizing the presiding judge and his rulings, was introduced at the final session of the American Bar Association at Portland, Me., by George Whitelock of Baltimore.

It was met with instant disapproval from all parts of the hall, and President Alton B. Parker repeatedly asked Mr. Whitelock to withdraw it, but Mr. Whitelock insisted that it be acted upon. A motion to lay it on the table was carried.

During the attempt to dispose of it, Joseph R. David of Chicago, who failed to secure recognition, shouted:

"Some one has said the American Bar Association has no right to criticize the President of the United States. I hold that when the President of the United States violates his trust, it is the duty of the American Bar Association to criticize him."

BOMB MAILED CORTELYOU

Accidental Explosion in Mail Bags in Philadelphia May Have Foiled Death.

A package addressed to George B. Cortelyou, secretary of the treasury, exploded in a sub-station of the Philadelphia postoffice just as it was being prepared for shipment to Washington. Fortunately no one was hurt.

The police are investigating, and the United States secret service has been called in.

So far as can be ascertained the package was in a bulky envelope about four inches long, three inches wide and half an inch thick. There was nothing left of it after the explosion.

The bundle was brought in by a Germantown mail carrier. It was put with the other mail. The package, on being thrown toward a bag, exploded as it struck the pouch.

Shoots Wife, Child and Self.

In the presence of a number of boarders in the New Jersey House, at Ocean Grove, N. J., a hotel of which he was the proprietor, Robt. S. Gravatt, aged 46 years, shot and perhaps mortally wounded his wife, Irene, seriously wounded Mollie, his 9-year-old daughter, and then killed himself. Domestic trouble is said to have been the cause of the tragedy.

The monthly meeting of the Illinois Central directors in New York broke up in a fist fight. Stuyvesant Fish hit President James T. Harahan, and Mr. Harahan hit the floor.

LYNCH NEGRO; RIDDLE BODY

Posse Makes Quick Work of Fiend Who Attacks an Alabama Woman.

News received from Columbus, Miss., says Mrs. Edward Windham, 24 years old, a resident of Pickensville, just across the Alabama line, was attacked by John Gibson, a negro, while alone in her home. The negro was captured by a mob and lynched, after Mrs. Windham had identified him. His body was riddled with bullets.

FOUR KILLED AT CROSSING

Automobile Party Struck by an Electric Car.

MACHINE CAUGHT ON TRACK

Levers Failed to Work and Auto Did Not Move as Driver Expected It To.

Dr. Geo. Waldron, a physician of Rochester, N. Y., Mrs. Catherine Farnsworth of Rochester, and Mrs. Elliam Scandling and Mrs. Jane Hobbs both of Hopewell were instantly killed in a collision between an automobile in which they were driving and a Rochester & Eastern trolley car, near Canandaigua, N. Y.

Dr. Waldron went to Hopewell in the morning with his daughter with his daughter to visit at the home of William Scandling, and had taken the three women, all of whom were more than 65 years of age, for an automobile ride. They were on their way to the Freshour Crossing to meet another friend of the Scandling family.

Witnesses of the accident say that as the machine approached the trolley tracks it was seen by the motorman. According to them, the motorman gave a signal, and Dr. Waldron slowed up. Then, apparently thinking that he could cross before the car reached him, he started on again. It is thought that the automobile did not respond readily to the levers. It was caught on the tracks and the occupants thrown out with great force. The bodies were frightfully crushed.

Dr. Waldron, one of the oldest medical men in Rochester, numbered among his clientele the richest and best families of the city and the countryside for miles around.

As one of the older school of medicine, he believed in the "fresh air" cure as much as in drugs, and frequently took his patients driving through the rural districts to add the "finishing touch" to his treatment.

A month ago he bought an automobile, and thinking he had mastered it, he invited the three aged women to ride with him to Canandaigua and back.

The machine balked on the crossing and before it could be moved the trolley car crashed into it.

COLLECTIONS SLOW

Financial Conditions a Handicap to Iron and Steel Trade.

The Iron Age says: The principal anxiety of producers of iron and steel is that of collections, and these appear to be the more unsatisfactory the closer the buyer is to the railroad interests. The financial situation is dominating the industry, yet there are surprisingly few cancellations, and deliveries of material are taken right along, and many cases of urging shipments are cited. Current consumption is still very heavy and promises to continue so for many months to come, but in those branches of the trade which have enjoyed the greater advances there is a deadlock between buyers and sellers over prices for future delivery, and the markets are decidedly weak. There is little doubt that $19 for No. 2 foundry iron at Lehigh Valley furnaces would be accepted for good sized lots to satisfactory customers. This has attracted some little buying and has brought out some fair inquiries.

Some Southern makers have reduced their selling prices to $19 at furnace for the balance of the third quarter and to $19.50 for the fourth quarter, but we cannot learn of any transactions of consequence.

The governor of British Guiana has sent an apology and expressions of regret to President Castro for the invasion of Venezuelan territory by soldiers, who removed a quantity of gum claimed to have been collected on British territory.

RAILROAD FINED $20,000

General Freight Agent Also Punished for Granting a Rebate.

A fine of $20,000 was imposed upon the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha Railway Co., and its former general freight agent, Hiram M. Pearce, was ordered to pay a $2,000 fine by Judge Page Morris in the United States District Court in Minneapolis.

The Omaha Railroad, conjointly with its former general freight agent, was convicted in the same court on April 11 of granting rebates to the Spencer Grain Co. on an indictment containing 50 counts.

Tool Company Chartered.

Secretary of State Swisher has issued a charter to the Damascus Tool Co., with its principal offices in Pittsburg. Its object is to manufacture iron or steel, or both, or any article of commerce manufactured from metal or wood. The incorporators are all Pittsburgers and the capital stock is $50,000. The company is seeking a location at Wheeling.

Harriman Wants Suit Dismissed.

E. H. Harriman, through his counsel, has asked the United States circuit court to dismiss the suit brought against him and 27 other defendants by Henry M. Walker of New Jersey for $200,000 for his services in organizing the Portland, Nehalem & Tillamook railroad of Oregon before Harriman purchased it.

United States Circuit Judge Pritchard decided that the North Carolina railroad rate case is within the jurisdiction of the federal courts.

COURAGE AND DISCIPLINE WIN

Men Rush Into Seething Mass, Grab Receptacles, Rush Out and Collapse.

With enough dynamite, powder and other explosives in her hold to blow up the Rock of Gibraltar, fire, whipped and fanned by gales of hurricane force, swept the steamship Eureka, Capt. Golightly, on her voyage from San Francisco to Seattle. But for the heroic fight of her crew every soul on board would have been blown into eternity, with perhaps not enough of the vessel left to tell that there had been a tragedy.

The Eureka, which reached port late Saturday night, left San Francisco Aug. 16 with a cargo of 300 tons, including 250 tons of powder, 200 tons of gasoline, a large quantity of oil and 50 carboys of nitric acid.

When off Mendocino about 2 a. m. on the 19th, the north gale was blowing 50 miles an hour, and the ship rolling heavily a carboy of acid, which was lashed on the upper deck, broke loose and smashed.

The fluid coming in contact with the wood instantly ignited it. Like a flash, the ropes binding the carboys were eaten away by the flames and the entire cargo of acid was spilled on the deck, which became a seething mass of flames.

All hands were summoned and the life and death fight began. Man after man of the crew fell upon the slippery deck, and though at times nearly overcome, would, when revived return and fight the flames like demons.

Their clothing took fire, and Mate William Reed had his legs badly burned.

One at a time they would dash into the flames, each emerging with a carboy, and as the seamen would drop they would be carried below and revived, and then renew the fight. Thus their struggle was kept up until the flames had been extinguished.

Capt. Golightly asserts that no vessel was ever in greater peril, and that only the utter fearlessness of his men and strict obedience to orders under the most trying circumstances, averted an awful disaster.

DAMAGE BY STORM

Houses and Barns Blown Down and Crops Destroyed.

A storm that approached the dimensions of a cyclone did great damage in Somerset county, Pa. One woman sustained serious injuries. In the vicinity of Boswell a path 500 yards wide and a mile long was swept by a terrific wind. Houses and barns were destroyed, and growing crops leveled. Mrs. David Peterson was in her home when it was smashed to pieces. She sustained a broken arm and dislocated shoulder. Barns belonging to John Speicher and John Shaffer were destroyed, along with many smaller structures. All the crops in the path of the storm are a complete loss.

The tremendous blow and rush of water came down Roaring Run Hollow on the Laured Hill Mountain and inside of two minutes had swept away 12 sawmill shanties along the stream, blew down a number of farm houses and barns, destroyed fences for miles, razed all the trees in great forests of timber and many orchards, and even obliterated the lines of township roads. The tornado swept from Jenners to within one and one-half miles of Glessner, and destroyed all or parts of the properties of Jacob Speigle, David Peterson, J. M. Shaffer, John Walker and a number of others.

CANADA OVERRUN BY JAPANESE

Pacific Coast Cities Are in Arms Against Invasion.

Since the first of the year 2,000 Japanese have arrived in British Columbia, which is held to be in direct violation of a treaty of eight years ago between England and Japan, which provided that the number of Japanese subjects entering Canada should not be more than 600 yearly.

The immigrants are not coming from Japan, but from Hawaii. The Japanese government is therefore not directly responsible. There is no restriction of the movement of Japanese to Hawaii.

NEW AMERICAN PROPOSAL

Arbitration Court of 15, Four to Be From This Continent.

Joseph H. Choate and James Brown Scott, for the American delegation to the peace conference at The Hague, have drawn up a new proposition with respect to the allotment of judges for the International High Court of Justice. In this proposal the United States announces the willingness of all the countries of the American continent, including the United States, to have four judges appointed for the countries of the continent, on the understanding arrived at through diplomatic channels that this will reduce the number of judges to 15. It is understood the Americans hope the other continents will take similar action, that Asia will be allotted two judges, and Europe nine.

Bill for Increased Pay.

The joint board composed of Acting Secretary Newberry, representing the navy; Maj.-Gen. Ainsworth, representing the army, and Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Beekman Winthrop, representing the revenue cutter service, has concluded its labors and made public the text of a bill to be laid before the next Congress providing for a general increase in the pay of the officers and men of the three services.

BIG FLEET FOR THE PACIFIC

Cruise of Warships Cannot Start Before December.

MUCH COAL WILL BE NEEDED

Colliers to Be Located All Along the Route—Machinists and Supplies Will Be Taken Along.

Acting Secretary Newberry has returned to Washington, bringing official word of the conclusions reached at the Oyster Bay conference last week relative to the projected cruise of the great battleship fleet from the Eastern to the Western coast of the United States by way of the straits of Magellan. It was found expedient to leave to Admiral Evans and his staff the details of the voyage.

It has been impossible to positively fix the date of departure. Naval regulations require that each vessel shall carry out target practice every quarter. No naval officer is willing that this important feature be dispensed with. Target practice is followed by more or less damage to a ship, requiring its return to a navy yard for repairs.

Then, the turret board, now in session, will recommend a number of changes in the mechanism to protect the lives of gunners and ammunition handlers. Some time, too, must be allowed the colliers to arrive at designated points. It is expected, too, that several months will be needed to place the yards on the Pacific coast in readiness for the fleet, which will certainly be in need of repair.

The date of the departure will be between December 1 and 15.

The itinerary provides for 10 knots an hour, which is regarded as the most economical speed. This will permit the colliers to accompany the fleet for part of the voyage on the Atlantic side. Though sailing with full bunkers of coal, the ships will require in addition 100,504 tons, not counting the coal that will be burned by the torpedo boats, which will be provided by merchants en route. The character of the torpedo boats makes it possible for them to get coal at regular stations, devoted to commercial steamers. This great supply of coal must be provided by colliers.

Four small colliers, the Hannibel, Marcellus, Sterling and Nanshan, carrying 2,200 tons each, will accompany the fleet to Trinidad. Five larger colliers, the Ajax, Abarenda, Brutus, Caesar and Nero, carrying 4,000 tons each, will go as far as Rio Janeiro.

It will be necessary to charter 12 additional colliers. Four of these will meet the fleet at Sandy Point, Magellan straits; four at Callao, Peru, and four at Magdalena Bay. Each of the colliers will carry 6,000 tons of coal.

It is the intention of the navy department to buy as much American coal as possible, but in some instances foreign coal will have to be used.

IRISH LAND BILL PASSES

Evicted Tenants Measure Is Finally Law After Peers Refuse to Give In.

The Irish evicted tenants bill finally passed both houses of parliament in what Chief Secretary for Ireland Birrell called an emasculated form. The peers refused to budge on the main amendments, and in spite of the goads of the Nationalist members the government elected to accept the mutilated measure rather than abandon the bill entirely.

The amendments inserted by the lords deprive the commissioners of the power of turning out the present holders of farms for the purpose of reinstating evicted tenants and give landlords the right to appeal to the law courts against the estate commissioners regarding the value of land to be purchased.

Boy Aeronaut Drops 400 Feet.

At Greenville, O., Earl Hess, the boy aeronaut, escaped death by a miracle when his big Knabenshue airship was plunged 400 feet to the earth by the bursting of the big gas bag. A crowd of 15,000 Darke county fair visitors watched the downward career of the machine in horror, which changed to relief when they saw the youthful operator swing the gas bag around by sheer strength when near the ground, making of it a parachute which slackened the speed of the descent sufficiently to permit him to leap to safety.

State Sues Western Union.

Attorney General Bird started suit in the Ingham county (Mich.) circuit courts against the Western Union Telegraph Company to recover $75,000 in penalties for failure to file articles of incorporation as required by the state law. The act fixes a penalty of $1,000 a month.

A quarantine against all vessels coming from Cuba has been declared and is being enforced at all Costa Rican seaports.

Demand Increased Wages.

A demand for an eight-hour day and a 20 per cent increase in wages was decided on by the metal polishers, buffers, platers, brass molders and brass and silver workers' union at their national convention at Cincinnati. The executive committee will determine the date on which the demands will be presented.

By the will of the late Henry L. Barney, a pioneer real estate dealer, $110,000 is left to various charitable institutions of Chicago.

REBELS ACT PROMPTLY

Argentines Depose Governor and Quickly Choose Another.

A local revolution broke out in the city of San Luis, capital of the province of San Luis, a town of 11,000 inhabitants, and situated about 100 miles southeast of Buenos Aires, Argentina.

The chief of police was the leader of the insurrection and the governor and other provincial authorities were made prisoners. The insurrectionists immediately chose a new governor named Adaro and installed him in office.

News from San Luis reports that complete quiet has been restored and further disturbances are not anticipated.

CAN RUSH THE CANAL

President Approves the Request for $8,000,000 Deficiency Creation.

President Roosevelt has approved Col. Goethals' request to continue expenditures in excess of the prorata monthly allowance for the present fiscal year on the Panama canal, on account of "present necessities and of unforeseen developments since these estimates were submitted."

Congress will be requested at the next session to make appropriation to cover this deficiency. Col. Goethals asked authority to expend $8,000,000 more than the appropriation, saying that it was in the interest of true economy and might save a year's time in completing the canal.

SLAUGHTER IN PERSIA

All Sorts of Atrocities Charged to the Invading Turkish Troops.

Gen. Samson Dowieh and other Persian officials, according to reports received at Teheran, have been killed by the invading Turks after having been taken prisoners. Many inoffensive Persian villagers, including women and children, have been slaughtered. Women have been carried off, a church has been defiled and much grain and other property has been taken or destroyed. Turkish regular troops with artillery were within four miles of Urumiah Aug. 15. There are no signs of the withdrawal of the Turks from Persian territory.

WOMAN KILLED BY A LION

Beast Sprang Into Crowd at Pittsburg Amusement Park.

A Nubian lion, roaring with rage, broke from the Hippodrome at Luna Park, Pittsburg, and leaped into the midst of a thousand pleasure seekers.

Mrs. Anna R. Hucke, a widow, 68 years old, of 78 Van Braam street, was the first victim of the beast's rage. She was taken to the hospital suffering from frightful lacerations from the lion's claws and teeth, her lungs all but pierced by the fangs of the huge beast.

Before the brute could attack any of the hundreds of panic-stricken people at the park, he was dispatched by four policemen. Nearly 100 shots were fired at the brute; more than 20 took effect in its body.

THREE MEN KILLED

Boiler of Sawmill Explodes With Fatal Effect.

Three men are dead and a fourth is dying as the result of a boiler explosion at a lumber camp in a tract of timber on the Hayette farm, about eight miles north of Hagerstown, Md.

The dead: Geo. W. Beard, Middlesburg, Pa., literally blown to pieces; Samuel Shirley, Lancaster, Pa., bruised and scalded, died at the hospital in Hagerstown; Elmer Stevens of Smithsburg, Md., left arm torn off, both legs broken and badly scalded, died at the hospital in Hagerstown.

CURRENT NEWS EVENTS.

Nelson Morris, the millionaire meat packer died in Chicago.

A doe in the Adirondacks sought from a farmer first aid for her injured fawn, and is tickled to death over the splints provided by the amateur veterinarian.

At Rochester, N. Y., fire destroyed the round house of the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg railroad, together with 14 engines. Loss $150,000.

It has been officially announced that the French commander at Casablanca will be supplied with all the troops he may require to hold that place and drive the Moors besieging it to a safe distance from it.

Ex-President Grover Cleveland has given up all hope of leaving his home for his customary summer vacation in New Hampshire, because of the state of his health. His trouble is acute indigestion.

In daring wild west fashion, Bernard Cohen, a merchant at 9 Bond street, New York, was held up and robbed of $400 in the doorway of his own place of business while hundreds of people were hurrying past.

Gov. Magoon will soon take the public health and quarantine service out of the hands of the local officials in Cuba and turn it over to officers appointed by the national government of the island.

Would Exclude Asiatics.

The executive board of the American Federation of Labor, in session at Norfolk, Va., instructed all affiliated organizations to co-operate with the Federation in an effort to have the next Congress enact most stringent immigration laws providing for the exclusion of Asiatic laborers of every description.

Fire broke out in the flimsy native structures of Hakodate, Japan, and nearly 70 per cent of the city is in ashes.

The Banner.

Issued and Published every Thursday at Clanton, Chilton County, Ala.

Entered at the postoffice at Clanton, Ala., as second-class mail matter.

"Here shall the press the people's rights maintain,
Unawed by influence and unbribed by gain,
Here patriot truth her glorious precepts fix,
Pledged to religion, liberty and law."

Subscription, yearly $1.00
Invariably in advance.

Address all communications to THE BANNER, Clanton, Ala.

WILL YOU, PLEASE,

stop for one moment in your busy working day and think when your last subscription to The Banner was paid? If your conscience answers it was anywhere within the last twelve months, we ask your pardon, bid you God speed and go on again. If, however, your conscience says it is more than a year since I have paid The Banner anything, then we bid you God speed and hope you will make all the haste possible to come and pay what you are due.

THE cotton season for 1906-07 closed the last day of August, with 6271 bales to the credit of Clanton. That this season is late is evidenced from the fact that last year (1906) the first bale was brought in on Aug. 18, while at present our first bale has yet to come, and if different reports are to be credited there is not much doubt but that this year's crop will be much less than of late years. The hot, dry weather, and the boll weevil, or some other insect, is playing havoc with our local crop. But we will hope for the best.

Commissioners' Court has been in special session since Monday, hearing objections to the raised value of assessments, and passing upon escapes. Notice of appeal in one case has already been made, and the objections were numerous. To day (Thursday) the Commissioners will let the county poor farm for the ensuing year.

The committee having in charge the location of the High School at Clanton, are engaged in getting promises from the citizens of Clanton, to pay a certain amount after the State Commission has made its decision for the school at Clanton. There is not the smallest doubt but that the amount required will be over subscribed.

Hon. W. B. Craig, in a speech at Anniston to the Letter Carriers Association, made the statement it is his purpose to introduce a bill in the next Congress, to prohibit the issue of licenses by the United States for the sale of whiskey in dry counties.

The people in many parts of the South have grown very enthusiastic over the experiments in wood preservation now being carried on by the Forest Service in co-operation with corporations and individuals who are heavy users of timber. At Maplesville, the people are going to make a gala event out of a demonstration in wood preservation on September 5 and Gov. Comer will be present and an old time barbecue will make the day one of pleasure as well as profit.

Alabama has sixteen weekly papers, easily worth $2 a year. There are probably ten others worth $2. If all these got the $2 there would be an improvement in the papers and the readers would get the benefit. There are too many weekly papers in the state, some of them showing no evidence of industry or brains. Those should be weeded out by the readers. The old time price of $1, and that on credit, is ridiculous. The sooner the price is made fair and the $2 actually collected, the better it will be for papers and readers.

A man cannot start a weekly paper with less than a $500 education and a $500 outfit. If he puts out a good local paper, with some general news and some intelligent comment, he is entitled to $2 a year for each subscriber. No man invests $2 to better advantage than in buying intelligence for his family. While this question is up for discussion, you should take inventory of your own paper and see if it is worth $2 a year to you.

A NIGHT WITH THE RED MEN.

I must begin this narrative with the explanation that I am a white man and have nothing in common with the Red Men, and most certainly have no knowledge of the secret workings of their society, except that I have the misfortune to reside under the wigwam of Waxahatchie Tribe, which from all the sounds I hear above me, is one of the most bloodthirsty that ever existed on the North American continent. And I never knew that the aborigines had any "upstairs." But let that go, and let us not anticipate.

'Twas at the close of a hot summer day, when wearied and worn by the day's exertions I lay me down to repose, I was startled by the sound of muffled footsteps, and an occasional "Ugh, Ugh," in a gutteral undertone warned me that the dreaded Waxahatchie Tribe was gathering in their wigwam above me.

Breathlessly I awaited developments, while the mocasined feet filed noiselessly overhead, some times a heavy shoe kicked against some obstruction, and a smothered anathema in the Indian tongue, which I didn't understand, broke the silence. Then all was quiet, and I knew the warriors were assembled around the council fire. (Wretched hot night for a fire, indoors, too). All, all was still; not a leaf stirred, not a bird stirred. The pipe of peace was smoked, and those not accustomed to smoking hastily passed it on, while some of the weaker warriors preferred a cigarette.

Suddenly a wild whoop disturbed the stillness of the night; there was a hurrying and scurrying upstairs in the wigwam, evidently the noble Red Men were in an agony of excitement. "O dear, what can the matter be?"

'St! They have murdered a victim. He, poor fellow, is scalped and his hirsute adornment now graces the belt of the Great Sachem, or some other noble warrior, maybe it is the Secretary. With fiendish glee they dance around the corpse, their heavy shoes making a thunder of noise upon the wooden floor. They drag him by the hair of his head all around the wigwam, in chains, too, although where the noble Red Men got their iron chains is not explained. (Don't ask too many questions, please.) Finally they throw their corpse down in a corner right over my head. I look up, expecting to see the blood coming through the floor, but never a bleed comes.

Again, upstairs, all is quiet. Waxahatchie Tribe has appeased its wrath, and is enjoying itself. Hark! Waxahatchie Tribe is (great Heavens) singing, and if I wasn't scared before, goodness knows this is more than enough to scare the life out of any one. Listen:

O-kee wo-kee, wampey wum,
How do you like yer taters done,
Boiled or baked or fried in rum,
Asks the Tribe of Waxahatchie.

The next will be A Night with the Odd Fellows.

Ball Game.

I'll tell you a little about our ball game between Jemison and Scotland which was played at Jemison Saturday. The score was 1 to 2 in favor of Jemison. Mr. Gene Bean of Jemison pitched a fine game, he was highly supported by Mr. Willie Shaw, who played in center field, and also Mr. Jim Martin one of our best catchers, who assisted him very much in winning the game. The outrageous upshot curve pitcher of Scotland met his grand pa drunk, pitching against Mr. Bean. I believe if Scotland had let Mr. Cleve Langston pitch the game he would have won it, for he has not lost a game this year when he had any assistance.

For Thin, Poor Blood

You can trust a medicine tested 60 years! Sixty years of experience, think of that! Experience with Ayer's Sarsaparilla; the original Sarsaparilla; the Sarsaparilla the doctors endorse for thin blood, weak nerves, general debility.

But even this great old medicine cannot do its best work if the liver is inactive and the bowels constipated. For the best possible results, you should take laxative doses of Ayer's Pills while taking the Sarsaparilla.

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.
Also manufacturers of HAIR VIGOR.

ALABAMA STATE FAIR

AT BIRMINGHAM, OCTOBER 8 16, 1907

The management of the Alabama State Fair to be held in Birmingham October 8 to 16, inclusive, is making extensive preparations for a complete exhibition of the State's industries and resources, including complete Agricultural, Mineral and Mechanical displays, with a full exhibition of domestic industries, comprising all species of women's work and a demonstration of pure foods and educational exhibit.

Much attention will be given to stock and poultry, and a fine racing program is arranged for each afternoon.

Contracts have been made for clean, high-class amusements, midway, athletic and pyrotechnic entertainment. The entire program has been arranged to furnish amusement to each visitor to the Fair, and is replete with instruction and enjoyment.

A full catalogue and premium list has been compiled, offering liberal money prizes for work in all classes, besides many handsome special premiums from the merchants of Birmingham for prize winners, among them a magnificent piano to be given away on the last day of the Fair. The catalogue will be sent to any address upon request to the Secretary, Birmingham, Ala.

The Fair is a State enterprise, and invites the interest, patronage and co-operation of every citizen of Alabama.

Lost and Found.

Lost, between 9:30 p.m., yesterday and noon to day, a bilious attack with nausea and sick headache. This loss was occasioned by finding at Upchurch drug store a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. Guaranteed for biliousness, malaria and jaundice. 25c.

Letter to B. E. Jones & Co.

Clanton, Ala.

Dear Sirs: A ten-year-old boy came into a store for a quart of white paint and said: "They are nice letters Devoe writes, a'n't they, Mr. Knight?" In Bridgeport, Maine.

"Are they what brought you here?" asked the merchant. "Yes; ma said get a quart of white; and I've come for the least-gallons paint.'"

That boy'll be a man before his mother.

Yours truly
F W DEVOE & CO

30

Program of Teachers' Inttitute

to be held at Jemison, Ala., Sept. 20-21 1907.

10:00 a.m. Devotional Exercises, Rev. Mr. Loftin.
10:15. Address of Welcome, R. A. Rasco.
10:30. Response, F. B. Williams.
10:45. Address to Teachers, Rev. S. B. Groves.
11:30. Teaching as compared with other professions, E. M. Meadows. Discussion.
1:30 p.m. Grading Country Schools, Mrs. S. B. Groves.
2:00. School Discipline, J. M. Parrish Jr. Discussion.
3:00. Teacher's preparation for class work, R. E. R. Hicks.

SATURDAY.

9:00 a.m. Aesthetics, Rev. P. G. Maness.
10:00. Teacher's influence on the character of the pupils, J. T. Williams.
10:30. Recitation by Miss Ada Rasco.
11:00. Educational Address, Hon. W. B. Craig.
1:30 p.m Song service, short talks.

The Educational Board insists that all teachers and others interested in the cause of education attend this institute. Committee—R. A. RASCO, J. W. MOORE, J. N. DENNIS, G. L. SPEER.

APPLICATION FOR NEW DISTRICT.

At the regular August meeting of the Chilton School Board the following applications were made and accepted, and notice of final hearing was set for Saturday, Sept. 28, 1907.

Bounded as follows: Beginning at ne corner of sec. 17, tp. 21, r 16, and running west to ne corner of nw ¼ of nw ¼, sec 13, tp 21, r 15; thence south to se corner of nw ¼ of sw 1-4, sec 13, t 21, r 15; thence west to nw corner of nw 1-4 of sw 1-4, sec 13, tp 21, r 15; thence south to sw corner of nw 1-4 of nw 1-4, sec 25, tp 21, r 15; thence east to se corner of ne 1-4 of ne 1-4, sec 29, tp 21, r 15; thence north to starting point.

Done by order of the Board in session this 24th day of August, 1907.

R. A. RASCO, President.
G. L. SPEER, Secretary.

A Humane Appeal.

A humane citizen of Richmodd, Ind., Mr. U. D. Williams, 107 West Main St., says: "I appeal to all persons with weak lungs to take Dr. King's New Discovery, the only remedy that has helped me and fully come up to have the proprietor's recommendation." It saves more lives than all other throat and lung remedies put together. Used as a cough and cold cure the world over. Cures asthma, bronchitis, croup whooping cough, quinsy, hoarseness and phthisic, stops hemorrhages of

PHYSICIANS PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION.

CHILTON COUNTY BRANCH

At a meeting of the Physicians of Chilton county, the following was unanimously adopted:

Owing to the increased cost of living and the greater demand made upon physicians in order to keep abreast of the age, we have been obliged to make a general advance in our prices. Among some of the advances are the following:

MINIMUM FEE BILL.

Office prescription or advice or dressing injuries $1.00.
Second or subsequent prescriptions (same case) 50 cts.
Gleet or gonorrhoea (in advance) $10.00.
Syphilis (in advance) $20.00.
Chancroid or venereal (in advance) $5.00.
Opening boils or abscesses, $1.00.
Removal of foreign bodies, eyes, ear, nose or throat, $2.00.
Phymosis or paraphymosis, $2.00
Circumcision, $15.00.
Removal of ingrowing nail, $5.00.
Certificates or vaccination, $1.00.
Written opinion, $5.00.
Same involving legal issues, $10.00.
Examination and certificate for insanity or life insurance, $5.00.
Same for all fraternal orders, $3.00.
Urinalysis, $2.00.
Clinical Microscopy, $2.00.
Fitting Truss, $1.00.
Administering anaesthetic, excepting labor, $5
Plaster of Paris, larger bone dressing, $5.00.
Reducing hernia, $5.00.
Catherization for stricture, enlarged prostate, catheter, etc, $2.50
Injecting hydrocele, $10.00.
Administering any of the serums, $5.00.
Irrigation of bladder or dilation of urethra $2.
Accompanying patient to hospital, $10.00 and expenses.
Vaginal examination (office) $2.50, anywhere else, plus visit.
Visits per day (in town) $1.50.
Stop in visits, $1.50
Subsequent visits, same day, $1.50.
Other visits, $1.00.
Visits to country, 50 cts. per mile plus town visits.
Visits in town, night from 9 p.m. to 8 a.m. $2.50
Visits to country, night, $2.50 for first mile, $1.00 subsequent miles.
All days attention, $1.00 per hour detained day or night.
Natural delivery or miscarriage in town $10.00.
Same in country, plus mileage.
Delivery of placenta alone, $5.00 and mileage.
Using forceps, turning, placenta previa twins, $15.00 and mileage.
Lacerated perineum or uterine curettement, $15.00.
Intra-uterine application and douches, $2.00.
Amputation of fingers or toes, $5 00.
Through metacarpus or metatarsus, $15.00.
Through dorso-arm or leg $25.00.
Shoulder or hip-joint, $100.00.
Upper arm or thigh, $50.00.
Reducing dislocation of finger or toe, $5.00.
Of jaw, $10.00.
Hip, $50.00.
Knee, elbow, shoulder, ankle, wrist, clavible, $15.00.
Fracture of finger or toe, $5 00.
Of wrist, arm, clavicle, ankle or leg, $15 00.
Femur, $25.00.
Jaw or knee-cap, $25.00
Each rib, $5.00.
Advice by telephone, $1.00.
Compound fractures, same as amputation of parts.
Excision of tonsils, $15 00.
Plugging nares, $5.00.
Trephining and herniotomy, $100.00.
Paracentesis, $15.00.
External hemorrhoids, $15 00.
Same (internal) $25 00.
Fistula in ano or fissure, rectum, $15.00.
Abdominal operations, $150.00.
Consultation fees, $5.00 and mileage.
All cases probably necessitating attendance at court, four times the regular charges.

You expect the doctor, when you need him:

To leave everything and come as quickly as he can, any time, day or night, to help you.

To do all he can for you, even to risk his health and life.

The doctor expects you, when he has served you:

To do your best to pay his bills promptly, as soon as you can, not putting them off till all else is paid, or untill you have spent your money, perhaps foolishly, or

To come and tell him if you really cannot pay.

The doctor cannot live on work, fresh air and hope any longer than you can. So pay him as promptly as you like to be paid when you have worked for someone.

A. B. CLAUGHTON
C. N. PARNELL
GUY E. STEWART
J. M. B. JOHNSON
R. B. MCNEILL
P. I. HOPKINS
L. V. STABLER
J. P. HAYES
N. S. JOHNSON
W. T. WISE
P. P. GOGGINS
R. J. EILAND
A. J. L. DENNIS
E. A. MATTHEWS

There are a great many people who have slight attacks of indigestion and dyspepsia nearly all the time. Their food may satisfy the appetite but it fails to nourish the body simply because the stomach is not in fit condition to do the work it is supposed to do. It can't digest the food you eat. The stomach should be given help. You ought to take something that will do the work your stomach can't do. Kodol for Indigestion and Dyspepsia, a combination of natural digestants and vegetable acids, digests the food itself and gives strength and health to the stomach. Pleasant to take. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

Mr. W. B. Jones of Rushton gave us pleasant call Monday.

Eternity

The boys and girls we cannot neglect at any time. The great men and women of the future are the boys and girls of today and they deserve to be properly shod in good shoes.

If you buy ill-fitting and uncomfortable shoes for your children, you may ruin their feet and make trouble for them the rest of their lives. If you get shoes for them that are not well made, that allow their feet to get cold and wet, you may be doing something to make them sick, possibly invalids for the rest of their lives. You would not maliciously ruin their feet or make them sick, of course.

Why then, do you not buy "Eternity" school shoes for them? The shoes that fit and feel good from the minute they first put them on, wear well and please, and cost no more than the other kinds.

"Eternity" school shoes have two full soles from heel to toe that are put on with screw fasteners. That's why they keep the feet always warm and dry and the soles can't rip and pull apart.

As they have a neat, dressy appearance, these shoes can be used for both service and dress.

Remember—"Nothing Lasts Like Eternity."

J. C. JONES, Clanton

Summer is Here

and we are making our first showing of the New Summer Clothes for men and boys. They are the newest productions of best known makes, in all the latest fabrics, shades, and a real the eye of a man who knows good clothes when he sees them. in, look, try one and you will be highly pleased.

This is the Season for Hat Changing

and nothing can add to your appearance more than a stylish, hat. If you will come in, we will convince you that we have est styles.

Furnishing Goods

the little things that go to make up the attire of a well dressed are to be found here in the newest styles at moderate prices.

Just Received a Beautiful Lot of Laces, Dress Goods and Lace Collars. Also a complete Puritan Corsets.

Summer Models In Footwear

Our line is complete.

Star Brand Shoes are Better

J. C. JONES

CLANTON - - - - -

T. L. CARTER

CLANTON FURNITURE CO.

DEALERS IN

Furniture, Stoves, Lamps, Clocks, Shades, Matting, Rugs and Furnishing Goods of every kind. Needles and Supplies for Sewing Machines. We also do Repairing, Upholstering and Refinishing. We sell cheap for cash or on easy payments.

TRY OUR 5 & 10 CENT BARGAIN COUNTER

Your patronage solicited.

CLANTON - - ALA.

The First and Last store in Clanton. If you come from the it's the first; from the west it's the last.

Our stock of General Merchandise is in quality and lowest in price.

FINE FAMILY GROCERIES—Always Fresh and

A fine line of Men's Dress Shirts and Neckwear

SHOES of the finest quality and the best make. Try

A general assortment of first-class goods.

B. E. JONES & BRO.

CLANTON - - - -

Rickets.

Simply the visible sign that baby's tiny bones are not forming rapidly enough.

Lack of nourishment is the cause.

Scott's Emulsion nourishes baby's entire system. Stimulates and makes bone.

Exactly what baby needs.

Constipation

Health is absolutely impossible if constipation be present. Many serious cases of liver and kidney complaint have sprung from neglected constipation. There is a cure for this miserable condition and one that will speedily remedy the evil. A. Lindsay, P. M., Bowmanville, writes, Feb. 12, 1906: "I have used Herbine, I find it to be the best medicine for constipation I ever used." Dr. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup contains no opiates and acts directly on the bowels. Pleasant to take. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

ernity

ts we cannot neglect at any time. Th of the future are the boys and girls o e to be properly shod in good shoes.

If you buy ill-fitting and un comfortable shoes for your chil dren, you may ruin their feet and make trouble for them the rest of their lives. If you get shoes for them that are not well made, that allow their feet to get cold and wet, you may be doing something to make them sick, possibly invalids for the rest of their lives. You would not maliciously ruin their feet or make them sick, of course.

Why then, do you not buy
"Eternity" school shoes for them?
The shoes that fit and feel good from the minute they first put them on, wear well and please, and cost no more than the other kinds.

ool shoes have two full soles from heel to h screw fasteners. That's why they keep the dry and the soles can't rip and pull apart neat, dressy appearance, these shoes can vice and dress.

Nothing Lasts Like Eternity."

ONES, Clanton

Here

rst showing of the New Summer Styles
They are the newest productions of e latest fabrics, shades, and a real treat ws good clothes when he sees them. C will be highly pleased.

Season for Hat Changing ur appearance more than a stylish, becom we will convince you that we have the rnishing Goods make up the attire of a well dressed per e newest styles at moderate prices.

eived a Beautiful Lot nd Lace Collars. Also a complete line

Models In Footwear

nd Shoes are Better

C. JONES

- - - - - - AL

N FURNITURE CO.

J. P. MA

DEALERS IN

ps, Clocks, Shades, Matting, Rugs and every kind. Needles and Supplies for al

We also do Repairing, Upholstering
. We sell cheap for cash or on easy payments.

10 CENT BARGAIN COUNTE patronage solicited.

ALABA

rstand Las

n. If you come from the om the west it's the last.

f General Merchandise is owest in price.

GROCERIES—Always Fresh and Men's Dress Shirts and Neckwear.

t quality and the best make. Try l assortment of first-class goods.

JONES & BRO.

- - - - - AL

bones

Constipation.

Health is absolutely if constipation be present serious cases of liver and complaint have sprung fr lected constipation.
plorable condition is
There is a cure for will speedily remedy
A. Lindsay, P. M., P writes, Feb. 12, 1903:
used Herbine, I find it a icine for constipation
ple. Sold by Upchurch
Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

LOST—Saturday morn
Ruffin's store and Col.
idence, containing two and about 25 cents in mall black purse. Please W. J. Mullins, Clanton. belongs to Dr. J. J. who is old and blind.

ERS AND ETERNITY." were to buy iron shoes for they would wear out, but " shoes will wear longer other shoe you can buy at

J. C. JONES, Clanton.

R. McDaniel has returned me in Montgomery after a leasant visit to the family
W. M. McDaniel.

ary Stewart of Birming-visiting relatives in Clanton.

's Carbolized Witch Hazel good for boils, burns, cuts, d skin diseases. It is es-good for piles. Sold by Drug co.

d Mrs. J. T. Roper have to Montgomery, where per has accepted a position.

Naomi Dorman of Marbury
Miss Essie McDaniel this and Mrs. J. T. Hester of ery spent a few days with here last week.

have a nice brooch or ring
t out of it, carry it to Hige Jeweler, who is a stone y trade, and carries a nice ones in stock. I also res and pistols.

's a Fountain Pen you want find them at Upchurch n, at all prices and of the ake.

da Daniel of Verbena was nt visitor here Tuesday.

handle Lowney's fine choc-best made. Florence Drug

E. R. Piper of Shelby visit nefolks here Sunday last.

J. O. Johnson made a bus-trip to Birmingham Monday.

. E. A. Matthews left for n, Ky., Monday, with Miss t to put her in school there.

. Adams left for her home
y. She has been spending days with her son Mr. W. dams.

J. W. Mitchell of Maplesspent Monday with friends

Cannon & Sons' Wagons
you buy.

Minnie Muse left Monday lanta to buy her new fall

Annie Thomas, who has visiting her sister, Mrs G. L. s, left Tuesday for her home
yton.

James Glass, has returned a pleasant trip, which he hly enjoyed. Among other he visited his old home in gus, and the Jamestown ex-n.

Eugene Stewart, who for t four last four years has been U. S. navy, has quit the and is at home again.

Heath and Miss Delene returned home Saturday, enjoyed their visit to West
, Ind., greatly.

rs. R. W. Taylor and Wil-gree of Birmingham visited es in and around Clanton y.

G. W Chilton of Stanton visitor here Monday.

y you a RAZOR from the rch Drug co.—the three kind—guaranteed for three rriage licenses have been issued week by the Probate Judge to llowing persons.

. J. Z. Mims and Miss Mary
inson; Mr. C. W. Giles and Hezie Davis.

way to get rid of a cold, ther it be a "bad cold" or a hi-
, is to get it out of your sys-through the bowels. Nearly ough cures, especially those ntain opiates, are constipat-Kennedy's Laxative Cough contains no opiates and acts on the bowels. Pleasant to Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

Now is the Time

We are now ready to show you a full line of Clothing, Shoes, Hats, and complete line of Dress Goods.

Furniture, Stoves, Sewing Machines, etc.

Tennessee and Fish Wagons.

Everything to make your home and farm complete. Give us a trial and if we can't sell you we will be badly mistaken.

E. M. PINCKARD & CO.

CLANTON

The 4th Quarterly Conference of the Clanton charge will be held at Mt. Nebo church, Sept. 14-15. The officers are expected to be present with their reports. The Stewards are urged to bring full reports.

We will have our last church conference of the Clanton church, Sunday after the 11 o'clock service. We desire that every member be present as we have business of importance to bring before you.

Sincerely,
S. U. TURNIPSEED, Pastor.

On Sept. 1 at residence of Mr. John Vinson, Mr. J. Z. Mims and Miss Mary C. Vinson were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. J. J. McDowell, J. P., performing the ceremony.

Mr. R. T. Robinson of Jemison, Route 2, was one of our welcome callers Monday.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy One of the Best on the Market.

For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has constantly gained in favor and popularity until it is now one of the most staple medicines in use and has an enormous sale. It is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases, such as coughs, colds and croup, and can always be depended upon. It is pleasant and safe and pleasant to take and is undoubtedly the best in the market for the purpose for which it is intended. Sold by Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Fifth District Agricultural School

WETUMPKA, ALABAMA

Opens Tuesday, September 17, '07. TUITION FREE. Board $10 to $12 per month. Magnificent new brick and stone building, costing over $41,000, the most complete in the State. Steam heat, electric lights, sanitary plumbing, bath rooms, gymnasium, etc. Strong faculty. Superior discipline. Thorough preparation for College, University, or life work. Certificate admits, without examination, to the leading colleges and universities. Special advantages in Music, Art, Expression, Physical Culture, Domestic Science and Athletics. For catalogue address, LEONARD L. VANN, President.

MOVED!

I have moved to my new store by the post office, where I can show you the best stock of Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Silverware, Optical Goods, etc., ever shown in Shelby county. I have the best equipped repair shop in this part of the State.

BRING ME YOUR WORK.

LOOK FOR THE BIG WATCH SIGN

J. W. MARTIN

THE JEWELE BY THE POST OFFICE

Calera, Ala.

The Calera Machine Repair Shop

is now open for General Repair Work We repair Engines, Boilers, Saw Mills or any other Machinery that comes to hand. We guarantee all our work.

We also buy second hand machinery of all kinds.

We do all kinds of Pipe work.

We are also prepared with all Modern Tools, and have an expert Saw Hammerer who will straighten your Crooked Saws, and will Gum and Dress them, so that they will run and cut good smooth lumber and use 20 per cent less power.

We repair all kinds of Household Goods.

We do all kinds of Round Wood Turning, from an Ornamental Column to a Shell Spindle.

In short, we are here for business and to do you good.

We solicit a trial.

THE CALERA MACHINE REPAIR SHOP

CALERA, ALA.

A Sewing Machine

well made, nicely finished, has improvements over the old styles, runs easily and quietly, low cost, but good work and quality.

Come in and examine it, you will be surprised at our good value for $18.00.

SPIGENER & JONES

The Hardware Store

CLANTON

Kinchen.

Our mail route No. 3, which circles Beat 6, our much boosted cotton belt of Chilton, I say instead of doing what the U. S. government intends—i. e., to build up interest, cause the farming class of people to be in closer touch with the outside world, instead of this we are going the other way. This is a sad state of affairs. I asked a group of men, all farmers, what papers they were taking. Of seven in all, four of them take the county papers; only seven boxes and four of them one paper each per week. Mr. Editor, that is some reading matter is it not? There is 140 families on Route No. 3. One day last week our carrier put in their boxes 10 pieces of mail, as there are just 13 daily papers on the route. No one else save this number got even a post card or circular. Isn't that sad? Poor unhappy Chilton, it is said there is only one other county in Alabama in this same shape. If your humble scribe or our friend Sims, Powell, Squire Milford or the rest of the ten men who read a daily live, newsy sheet, it by chance we should hear men from the city, with store bought clothes on, discussing some great question of the day, although we be in overalls, I say we can discuss with these same men any topic that is before the American people. This is all just because we are reading, getting our information from the same source as they are. Every day the papers print a cotton letter, giving the opinions of expert cotton men. How many of you last fall asked your cotton merchant for his opinion as to the future price of cotton? If you would only take a daily paper the mails would bring you the same information that he gets, so you could draw your own conclusions.

Also in Birmingham we have a local weather prophet, and when your paper says rain for Alabama, you had better haul in that hay or it will get wet; if you go to town take your coat. But some of you fellows who say the world don't revolve, will say they can't tell. Suppose you try for one month, 35c.

As to the service, in Grover Harris we have a sober, honest, bright, painstaking, pleasant, all-round good fellow, one in whose hands your mail is safe. Do some business with your mail department and let us not lose the route.

COUNTRY READER.

She Found Relief.

If you are troubled with liver complaint and have not received help read this. Mrs. Mary E. Hammond, Moody, Texas. "I was in poor health—with liver trouble—for over a year. Doctors did me no good and I tried Herbine, and three bottles cured me. I can't say too much for Herbine, as it is a wonderful liver medicine. I always have it in the house. Publish where you wish. Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

THE NEW STORE!

The store of C. W. REYNOLDS & CO. will be opened in Clanton on September 7, and will sell goods at the following prices: Prices are subject to change without notice.

Granulated Sugar, 19 lbs....	$1.00
Good Green Coffee, 10 lbs....	1.00
Full Patent Flour per barrel..	5.00
White Corn per bushel.....	.81
All kinds of Soap, seven bars.	.25
Washing Powders and Starch, seven bars for.....	.25

We keep a general line, and would be pleased to have you call. We would like to quote you prices on any of our goods.

Respectfully,
C. W. REYNOLDS & CO.

White Pond.

As I never see anything from from this part of the country, I thought I would write a few lines. Everything is moving along nicely at this place. We have had good meetings here, and everybody seemed to enjoy them very much. Many wishes to the Banner and its readers. A FRIEND TO ALL.

KILL THE COUGH AND CURE THE LUNGS

WITH Dr. King's New Discovery

FOR COUGHS COLDS PRICE 50c & $1.00 TRIAL BOTTLE FREE

AND ALL THROAT AND LUNG TROUBLES.

GUARANTEED SATISFACTORY OR MONEY REFUNDED

Schloss, in Dutch, means a Castle

Schloss, in English, means Good Clothes

Krump on the Korner Got 'em

Come in and Get 'em Then Wear 'em

'Gin the Law Not to Wear 'em

A suit of 'em would set Crichton off. Try 'em!

KRUMP

ON THE KORNER

MAPLESVILLE - - ALA.

—GO TO—

A. M. JOHNSON

—MANAGER OF—

THE CASH GROCERY STORE

THORSBY, ALA.

FOR BARGAINS IN

Staple and Fancy Groceries

We make a specialty of Fresh Fish and Oysters, Fresh Pork Sausage and all kinds of Sausage, Breakfast Bacon, Boneless Ham and Lard.

—DELICATESSEN—

Pop, Soda Water and Jersey Butter always on hand.

Country Produce Bought, Sold and Exchanged.

Notice.

Real Estate, Fire, Life Insurance and Singer Machines.

I have on hand now some nice and convenient places for rent and some extra bargains in real estate. I also represent several leading fire insurance companies, and the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co.

My High Arm Singer Machine Stock is complete; Machines that sew perfect, run lighter and last longer than any other make. Remember, too, the price has been cut and you can get any terms you wish, monthly or annual payments. Also $5.00 allowance for your old machine.

Several good second hand Machines on hand at a bargain.

Needles, Bands, Cans, Attachments, and the only genuine Machine Oil made, 10 and 25¢ bottles.

I also represent the Jesse French Piano & Organ Co. When you need anything in my line, call on me at same old stand. Regular office days Friday, Saturday and Monday of each week.

C. R. MULLINS

CLANTON

TELEPHONE OR CALL AT

HEADLEY BROS.

when you are in need of

Dry Goods, Shoes, Hats and Caps

Glass, China and Tinware

WE MAKE A SPECIALTY IN OUR CANNED GOODS LINE

The Best Apples, Oranges and Fancy Candies

ALL KINDS OF CAKES IN PACKAGES AND BULK

Anything you want to eat, from a Pea to a Barrel of Flour

PROMPT DELIVERY. BELL PHONE 13

H. HEADLEY & BRO.

Successors to A. Headley & Son

To PUBLISHERS AND PRINTERS

We Manufacture the Very Highest Grade of

Type, Brass Rule in Strips, Brass Labor Saving Rule, Brass Column Rules, Brass Circles, Brass Leaders Brass Round Corners, Brass Leads and Slugs, Brass Galleys, Metal Borders, L. S. Metal Furniture, Leads and Slugs, Metal Leaders, Spaces and Quads, 6 to 48 point, Metal Quoins, etc.

Old Column Rules stripped and made as good as new at a small cost.

Please remember that we are not in any Trust or Combination and are sure that we can make it greatly to your advantage to deal with us.

A copy of our Catalogue will be cheerfully furnished on application.

PHILADELPHIA PRINTERS' SUPPLY CO.

Type and High Grade Printing Material

PROPRIETORS PENN TYPE FOUNDRY

50 North Ninth Street PHILADELPHIA

ALABAMA EVENTS FROM OVER THE STATE.

Interesting Items to Dwellers in the Commonwealth

A BRIEF WEEKLY SUMMARY

Leeds is Increasing Her Output of Cement—Hartselle Has an Anti-Jug Law—Talladega Opera House Destroyed by Fire.

Increasing Output.

The cement plant at Leeds is now turning out about 400 barrels of cement per day, with a growing demand for all the plant can possibly make.

Comer in Abbeville.

Governor Comer was present at the farmers' institute in Abbeville Saturday and addressed the farmers of that vicinity at the Agricultural School auditorium.

Doctor Is Scalded.

Dr. Robert E. Murphy, of Huntsville, a well-known young dentist, was badly scalded while working in his laboratory. A vessel of boiling water burst and threw the scalding water over his arms and breast.

Jant Melons to New York Fair.

Secretary Carlisle, of the Huntsville Business Club, has sent two magnificent specimens of Madison county watermelons to the New York state fair at his home town, Syracuse.

Comer Believes in Unwritten Law.

Governor Comer against demonstrated his belief in the unwritten law when he pardoned J. D. Williams, a white man, of Bibb county, who killed a man who had invaded his home.

Opera House Destroyed by Fire.

Fire occurred in Irby's livery stable Saturday morning at Talladega. The stable, Chamber's opera house and McInsey's saloon were practically gutted before the fire was under control.

First Bale at Opelika.

At auction at Opelika the first bale of cotton to be brought to the market from Lee county was sold for 22 1-8 cents. W. C. Jimmerson, of near Liberty, gets the credit for bringing in the first bale this year in Lee county.

Want County Site Moved.

A delegation of citizens has seen the governor in the interest of the removal of the county seat of Russell from Seale to Girard. The petition did not show the names of a majority of the citizens of the county, and the governor declined to order an election.

Powell Resigns From Dispensary.

Clarence Powell, cashier of the Madison county dispensary since that institution opened in February, has resigned to engage in other business in Huntsville. Ben Patteson has been elected to the position vacated by Powell.

Light and Water Plant.

T. Gordon, of Columbiana, has succeeded in enlisting a great deal of interest in the proposed plan to establish an electric light and water works plant at Columbiana and expects to begin active work in a few months.

Section Foreman Killed.

News from Russellville, Ala., states that Wesley Hooker, section foreman of the North Alabama railroad at Darlington, was shot and killed by Kinney Whitfield, the boy station agent there. Whitfield claims he acted in self-defense.

Discussion of Bond Issue.

The question of a bond issue for the purpose of floating bonds for the erection of a new school house, the installing of storm sewers and additional equipment for the fire department will it is believed, have quite a bearing on the Bessemer municipal election which is to be held in September.

Crops Very Bad.

Cordova and community was visited by rain last week. The farmers report their crops ruined. Some of them have cut their crops down and saved the whole stalk. The cotton is reported to be shedding and other crops are reported ruined. Many farmers have left their farms.

Has a New Street Railway.

The first spike of the Ensley Street Railway Company was driven by J. J. Walker, the president of the company in the presence of a number of Ensley's prominent citizens. The track will be laid as rapidly as possible to Ensley South Highlands, which will mean a great convenience to citizens of that part of the city. Electric cars will be run as soon as the road is completed and there is a possibility of the road being extended to Dolomite.

New Railroad From Chipley to Troy.

Notice of the incorporation of the Alabama, Florida and Gulf railway has been received at the office of the secretary of state, the nominal capitalisation being $16,000. It is cited in the notice of incorporation that the road will extend from Chipley, Fla., to Troy, Ala., and will be operated for the transportation of passengers and freight. The distance to be traversed by the road is about 120 miles through a very rich belt of country.

Hartselle's Anti-Jug Law.

No more liquor can be shipped from the Decatur, Birmingham and other places to the little city of Hartselle. This is according to the mandates of the city council of Hartselle as laid down in an ordinance passed a few days ago.

New School to Open.

Dr. J. A. B. Lovett, president of the newly established Daphne State Normal School, said that many applications were being received from prospective pupils from all over Alabama and from Iowa and Georgia. The school will open October 1, and the prospects are for a large number of pupils.

Farewell Ceremony.

An interesting yet affecting service was held at the Albertville Baptist church Sunday night, the occasion being a farewell service given by Dr. T. O. Hearn and his wife, formerly of Albertville, but now of Boaz, who leave Tuesday for Ping-Tu, China, where they go to take charge of the Oxmoor Hospital, recently established there.

Wife Murderer Gets Twenty Years.

Frank Fowler, a prominent citizen of Houston county, has been given twenty years in the penitentiary on conviction of the murder of his wife. Fowler declared he awoke to find his wife dead at his side in bed. Evidence went to show that he and his wife had quarreled bitterly because he insisted on operating a "blind tiger" against her wishes.

Boy Builds Engine.

Ed Mitchell, a young son of Sheriff Mitchell, apprentice in the Huntsville Foundry and Machine Works, has finished a steam engine, which he constructed with his own hands. The engine is considered a remarkable piece of work for a boy, and it is perfect. Its power is twenty horses, and it has been sold to a saw mill at New Market.

Bankhead for Good Roads.

Senator Bankhead, who has returned from a short trip with the waterways commission, and is resting at his home in Fayette county, declares that he is going to conduct a systematic campaign in Alabama next year in the interest of the amendment to the constitution providing for state appropriations for making good roads. Senator Bankhead championed the Overton bill providing for the election on this amendment, and promises to take the stump for the issue, which he regards as one of the most important before the people of Alabama.

To Build New Bridge.

The Southern railroad has begun the construction of a double track steel bridge across Swan lake, one mile north of Decatur. The Louisville and Nashville railroad closed a lease of fifty years with the Southern for the use of the track from Decatur to Decatur Junction, and as about ninety trains a day pass over this track it was necessary for the Southern to build the double track and to build a double bridge, and in the spring of 1908 construction will begin on a double bridge across the Tennessee river at that place. It will cost $500,000, the engineers estimate, but this will be doubled by other expenses, such as trackage, etc.

Prisons Feed Well.

The contract for feeding the city prisoners of Anniston has been awarded to Mr. Isaac B. Gilmore, who has had the contract for the past year. His bid was on a basis of 15 cents per meal. There will likely be a change in the wording of the bill of fare, however, and Mr. Gilmore may not be willing to accept the contract under the terms of the change. The old bill of fare reads as follows: Breakfast, one order of biscuits, one order of potatoes, one order of salt, one order of mutton or ham, one order of rice or grits, one order of syrup, one cup of coffee; dinner, one order of bread, wheat or corn, one order of peas, beans or cabbage, one order of Irish potatoes, one order of hog meat or beef, one order of salt; supper, five biscuits or equivalent amount of light-bread, one order of mutton, beef or ham, one order syrup, Irish potatoes, butter, salt, etc. The change will be in the interest of definiteness, making orders to read ounces, pounds, etc.

Looking After River Rates.

President Charles Henderson, of the Alabama railroad commission, has been much of the past week in the river sections of the state looking into the possibilities of the development of river traffic, which has seemed, in all the prosperity, to have been gradually declining to almost nothing. He visited Gadsden, on the Coosa; Decatur, Sheffield, Florence and Tuscumbia, on the Tennessee, and Selma, on the Alabama.

Secures a Patent.

Dr. W. A. Skelton, of Anniston, has invented and secured a patent on a machine for the manufacture of water piping at 2 cents per foot. Dr. Skelton, the inventor, resides at Jacksonville, Ala., and says that his piping has considerable advantage over any other piping made, it being impossible for it to rust, as it is made of a kind of cement. Also, he says that he can throw it against a brick wall and it will not break.

The Pulpit

Subject: "The Opportunities and Abilities of the Church."

Brooklyn, N. Y.—Preaching at the Irving Square Presbyterian Church, Weirfield street and Hamburg avenue, on the above theme, the Rev. Ira Wemmell Henderson, pastor, took as his texts Jno. 4:35 and Mat. 28:20. He said:

It was Theodore Roosevelt who said, "The one thing supremely worth having is the opportunity coupled with the capacity to do a thing worthily and well, the doing of which in its vital importance touches the welfare of all human kind."

Opportunity and ability—that is to say, the chance and the capacity to do. All true success is a combination of these two elements in human life. Failure is a lack of either or of both. Without opportunity the man of capacity, of ability, of real worth is handicapped in the race of life. To be without the chance to do is to be doomed to failure, whatever may be our capacities or abilities for accomplishment. Contrariwise lack of ability shears opportunity of value. The mute, inglorious Milton of whom the bard so sweetly sang, was, and is to-day a man of power, of capacity, of ability, lacking in opportunity. Not otherwise many a man has had opportunity standing at the door of his life beckoning to success who has shorn that opportunity of its value because he has had no ability, because he has been unable to accept the chance that was presented to his view. If there is a sadder thing than a man of genius lacking in opportunity, it is chance awaiting the acceptance of incompetency. Ability needs opportunity in order to the exercise and the presentation of the powers of the human soul. Likewise opportunity is valueless without corresponding and sufficient ability.

As with the world so with the church of the living God. The church has ability beyond any force that works for righteousness and for God in the world to-day. But if the church has no opportunity for the exercise of her divinely granted capabilities for the uplift and the regeneration of the world her capacities are valueless. On the other hand, whatever the opportunities of the church may be, save as she has the ability to do the work that God has given her to accomplish her opportunities are voided.

The opportunities and abilities of the church of the Lord Jesus Christ. Let us look for a moment at her opportunities. There are to be found to-day conditions that are at the first glance diametrically opposed that afford an opportunity for the church of the living God. The opportunity of the church is to be found in the lack of principle so largely presented in the lives of the leaders in our social life, as has been revealed in the recent and horrifying disclosures in our political and financial and industrial affairs. Another opportunity of the church is to be found in the imperfect acknowledgment upon the part of men in all walks of life of their accountability to God and to the divine control. A further opportunity of the church is to be realized in the present distrust in the finality of materialism as a method of life and progress which is increasingly common in all grades of society and among all classes and conditions of men. We are growing to know that money in itself is of little value. We are maturing into a comprehension of the truth that wealth without character is a condemnation of its possessor. We are learning to grasp the fact that the things that are temporary are really transient; that the spiritual realm in the universe of God affords the greatest satisfaction to the soul, is most of account, lays hold upon eternity. Opportunity for the Christian church is to be found in that comprehension of the value of the eternities that is becoming increasingly the vogue. Men, multitudes of men, find that the life that discounts the relations of the human soul to its divine Creator is dissatisfying. They are critical of their own spiritual fitness, and of the church's. They are questioning the credibility and reliability of the church's spiritual concepts and declarations. The church has a glorious opportunity in the return toward God that is characteristic of the lives of a host of God's children throughout this land. From sea to sea, from lakes to southern gulfs, materialism is palling on thoughtful wanderers from God, the truth is appealing and with such force as seldom in the history of the world it has appealed. To be sure this appeal is along new lines. It is suited to the needs and the demands of this day and of this generation. It is not yesterday's appeal, it is to-day's. But it is real. It is vital. It is compelling. It is heard. It will bear fruit. It will be the leaven in the meal that will perfect society and make it palatable to thoughtful men. It is the truth of God. It is God's voice in the language of the land and of the day. It is the message of the Almighty to the people. It cannot be denied. It will not be denied. There is a moving in the tree tops. The foot-falls of Jehovah are to be heard on earth. The signs of the times, he who runs may read. Any man with an open ear and open eye and an open mind may hear, and see, and satisfy his soul in the contemplation of such revelations as are as transcendent as they are immediate.

Having considered in some fashion the opportunities of the church, let us consider now some of the abilities of that organization, instituted of God among men, into whose hands has been given the tremendous, divine task to transform individual lives and to transmute sinful, erring human society into the image of the heavenly democracy of God.

The abilities of the church are commensurate with her opportunities. Emmanuel is with her, as truly as He was with Israel. God is in her midst. His presence inspires her. His glory illumines her. God is with her. He constitutes that everlasting majority against which sin cannot prevail.

The abilities of the church are to be found also in her means, in her men and in her message.

The ability of the church is to be found in her means. The church has more means than ever before in all her wondrous history. She is the richest institution in the world. The organization of the church is tremendous. We are almost over-organized. The church has an influence that is as far-reaching as her spiritual dominion and as effective, when applied, as it is widespread. Men may scoff at the church, they may laugh behind her back, but a militant and moving church, filled with the fervor and fire of the apostles, panoplied with the power of Jehovah, is a sight to strike terror to the heart of every evil man and band. Yea, and it does strike terror. The church may move slowly, as too often she does. But the church in motion is irresistible.

The church has the men. Never was her ministry more able, more intelligent, better educated, more cultured. Her spiritual possibilities through them are unsurpassed. When they gain the spirit of self-sacrifice of the Redeemer they will be invincible. In all the world there is no body of men better fitted to do the labor of blazing the trail for the world as we ascend toward God than the ministers of the church of Jesus Christ. There is no more competent leadership. There is no body anywhere that can so safely guide. The church has the men in the pew as well. The day has passed when the pew was piously uneducated and religiously untutored. To-day the bulwark of the church is to be found in her enlightened laity. The minister no longer is the only superbly educated man in the community. The layman is as cultured as the priest. And it is well. The efficiency of the ministry ought to be enhanced thereby. And it is. No minister may reckon the stupendous reform that has been wrought in the world, for the good of the ministry as for the whole church of Jesus Christ, through the education of the pew. Such a pulpit and such a pew constitute a living factor that is constantly an effective asset to the work of the church of God.

And the church has the message. And it is not a new one. We may restate it. We may redefine its essentials. We may clothe it in the vernacular of our land and age. We may readjust it to the changing life to which it speaks. But it is the same old message. The message of salvation from the dominion and the grip of sin through the grace of God as it is revealed to a world in thrall through Jesus Christ our Lord. The world needs it. The world wants it. The church has it. It is her mighty asset. The church not only has the message. She is the message. She not only has the truth; in a sense she is the truth. If she is not she ought to be. There is no need for new truth. There is no call for a new gospel. The necessity is that we shall apply the old, old story of God's redeeming love and of man's responsibility to God to the world to-day. We must lead man to see and to know that God is as truly the captain of our souls as He has been of our fathers' in the ages past, and that peace, quietude, contentment, that are perdurable, can be secured only through complete obedience to His holy will.

These opportunities and these abilities are dependent upon the spirit of fidelity to the Spirit of God that possesses us. Dominated and controlled by the spirit of the living God—the church, translating desire into energy, may lead humanity to the promised land of the new dispensation and follow our Saviour into the confines of the spiritual kingdom of God. Without the spirit opportunity and ability are helpless.

The church must accept these opportunities since she has received these capacities. The world is her field. And the world is needy. The hearts of humanity are warming toward God. It is her prerogative, her duty to reveal Him, to direct humanity to Him. She cannot be neglectful. She will not be. Trusting in the power of omniscience and relying upon the energy of divine love the empowered church will accept her God-given opportunities and measure up to them. For the church must be faithful to God or die. The church was not born to die. The church is immortal.

Daily Life Glorified.

Last Sunday morning in unnumbered churches throughout the land stood a simple table and upon it bread and wine. Men were partaking of the Lord's Supper. Christ had touched commonplace things and made them holy. Most memorials are evidence of striving after the uncommon as the worthy—the tomb upon the mountain-top, the obelisk, the pyramid, the vast building or the great institution. Not least of the lesser lessons taught by that simple meal is the worth of common things. There is no meal but may be made an hour of thanksgiving, no honest toil that cannot become worship, no smallest deed to which highest motives may not add glory. The Lord's Supper gains its glory from its reference to Christ; why not "do all to the glory of God?"—Pacific Baptist.

The Quietness of Power.

One of the impressive things about the greatest engines is the silence with which they do their work. The stars rushing through space with a force we cannot even imagine, do so in silence.

The same thing may be observed in regard to the work which is done in the world. The most powerful is always very quiet. The great spiritual ministry of the Christian Church is carried forward with very little noise. Noise is not the same as work; frenzy is not power. — Friendly Greetings.

The Heart is Known.

Lord of mercy, most loving, at whose coming men live, at whose goodness gods and men rejoice! Sovereign of life, health, and strength! The heart of man is no secret to Him that made it. He is present with thee, though thou be alone.—From Egyptian Records.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

INTERNATIONAL LESSON COMMENTS FOR SEPT. 8 BY THE REV. I. W. HENDERSON.

Subject: The Brazen Serpent, Numbers 21:1-9—Golden Text, John 3:14, 15—Memory Verse, 9—Commentary.

Doubting, trustless Israel is confounded. When the Canaanitish king hears that they are coming his way he sets forth against the Israelites and takes many of them prisoners. Having no faith in God Israel falls an easy victim to his prowess as a warrior. The calamity sends Israel back to God for consolation and for comfort. Misfortune is the dynamic that impels many a man and people Godward. A trial of her unaided and unenthused fighting ability displays Israel's weakness to herself. Strength is found in communion with God. Israel prays. And petition brings power. Israel's prayer is a confession and a dedication. It is a confession of human incapacity and of human reliance on God. It is a dedication of the divinely empowered military energy of Israel to the service of God. All prayer ought to have these elements. And all true prayer will effect results that are beneficial to humanity and well pleasing to God. Many a man who is battling with little success might do wonders for God if he would apply to God for strength. Self-reliance that discounts the power of God is egotism. Self-reliance that comes from the consciousness of God's favor is glorious. The effectiveness of each is illustrated in some measure in the first four verses in the lesson for the day.

The circumstances surrounding the raising of the brazen serpent are suggestive. Thirty-eight years have passed since the ten spies advised against doing the will of God and obeying the call of Jehovah implicitly. The years of wandering in the wilderness are nearly over. Another generation has grown to manhood. God has cared for them all the years in spite of their weakness and sin. And yet Israel has not gained that spiritual consciousness that she should possess. The way, though short, becomes beset with difficulties. And the people, discouraged with the obstacles along the way, revile against God and against Moses. Moses had labored with them and for them for nearly forty years of desert wandering. God had fed them. And yet they forgot all that. They cursed God. They cursed Moses. With Canaan just in sight they looked back through the long perspective of the years of sorrow that they had brought upon themselves, upon the leeks and the garlic and the fleshpots of Egypt. And, as always happens, leaving their faith in God they were assailed by worse terrors. The serpents wrought havoc among them.

The results of their sin brought them back to their senses and to a realization of the enormity of their sin. They prayed Moses for aid. And Moses prayed for them. God's patience went out to them and the fiery serpent was given as a cure for their ills and a sign of the interest and the grace of God.

The method of salvation from the serpents' bites was simple and efficient. It is worthy of note. Out of the midst of their trouble Israel cried unto God and He heard them. And He afforded them a way of escape from their afflictions. As soon as they cried in sincerity and humbleness with a sense of their own sin, God answered them. His method of relief was simple. They had but to look upon the brazen serpent and they were delivered. But they had to look. The salvation became effective when they accepted it. That is to say, it became active when they looked.

Not otherwise do we experience salvation in the Christian economy. Out of the depths of his sin and shame man calls upon God for aid. Christ holds Himself up as the gift of God to the age for the healing of the sins of the individual and of the nations. But the salvation does not become effective until the man looks and accepts. And it becomes effective then. The moment that a man takes Christ as the active truth of God in his life and renders himself subject to the control of God as He reveals Himself in the person of Jesus Christ and mediates His truth to men to-day through the person of the Holy Spirit, that moment the man is a saved man. His salvation begins there. Then he is born anew. He starts a new existence. He is a new creature. He matures in another sphere.

We are bitten with sin that is more harmful than the bite of any serpent. For the sin that destroys us is the power that is able to confront God and to utterly confound unaided man. But even as the serpent of brass saved the men who were poisoned with the venom of the desert snakes so the crucified Christ saves us from that body of the living death that men call sin.

Israel always made a mistake when she forgot God or attempted to progress without him. And there is a lesson there for us. Many men to-day, as we march toward better and diviner things, are prone to curse God and the better leaders of the time. Many a philosophy of social regeneration leaves God out of account entirely. Religion as an active force is minimized. This is a mistake. The surest foundation of success is that which is built upon the religious consciousness of a people. If we proceed without God—that is to say, without a proper religious motive—we shall be bitten with the serpent.

Yellow Peril at Vancouver.

Winnipeg, Manitoba.—The Vancouver situation with reference to the arrival of Asiatics has reached an acute stage. Men at the meeting of the Oriental Exclusion League cried out, "Let us go to the next boat which brings in Orientals with guns in our hands and prevent them from landing." This cry was taken up vigorously, though no action was taken.

Shoe Trade Is...

The wholesale shoe ... Louis this year is expected ... $66,000,000, or about ... more than last year. ... have trade with ... America, South America, ... China and Japan.

French Drove Back ...

Four thousand Moors ... ambiance. Morocco, but ... nel drove them back ... slaughter.

EARTHQUAKE UNDER...

Effect Upon Fish of Deep-sea ... nute Plant and Animal ...

Far below the surface of ... the earthquakes make as ... motion as on terra firma. ... volcanic eruption of Vesuvius ... served with respect to its ... the Gulf of Naples by Dr. ... Bionea. The day before the ... says the Chicago Tribune, ... dine was to be caught in ... borhood, although it was the ... the sardine season, for by ... sense the fish seemed to ... impending disaster.

The spawning of fishes ... oysters, clams and their ... er, and there was great ... among other types. Fishes ... quent deep waters were ... rected from conditions ... the surface and escaped ... idently they were thrown ... that caused them to leave ... hunting grounds, for men ... small boats caught species ... er had been brought up ... by a special deep water ...

The minute plants and ... prising plankton, which form ... food supply of many of the ... mals, were largely destroyed ... depth of ten fathoms, and ... quence the scarcity of the ... the death of the fish to such ... that in Sardinia the fishing ... practically was ruined.

One of the most curious ... the shower of cinders was ... certain animals to throw ... pendages in the endeavor to ... themselves. The lobster is ... familiar animals that adopts ... sophical plan of giving up ... save more, and when caught ... matically detach a claw and ... the hands of its captor in order ... cape with the rest of its ... entity.

The serpent starfish adopts ... policy in time of danger, and ... exceptionally well provided with ... its chances of escape by autotomy ... correspondingly increased. When ... shower of cinders descended into ... world the animals accustomed ... mode of defence responded to ... turbance in the usual way, by ... ing off their appendages, ... the process as the irritation ... ued until they were completely ... membered.

Philippine Tobacco.

Special Agent W. A. ... Clark of the Bureau of Manufactures ... reports that tobacco is the ... largest export of the Philippine ... ands, while in point of crop value ... is only exceeded by hemp and ... Considered as a manufacture, ... making of cigars and cigarettes ... the largest industry in the ... today. The largest company ... Compania General de Tobacos de ... ipinos, with a capital of $1... The best class of Philippine ... rivals that of Cuba. A large ... goes to China, India and ... and smaller quantities to ... the Continent and the United ... Exports of cigars amount to ... $1,000,000 a year. The island's ... sumption is probably larger. ... are largely made, but only ... worth were exported last year. ... 1900 $1,767,365 of raw and ... of manufactured tobacco were ... ed. Half to three-fourths of the ... tobacco exported goes to Spain.

It is only about four years since ... ert J. Wynne, who resigned as ... master-general of the United ... accept the post of consul-general ... London, was a newspaper ... ent in Washington.

FEET OUT.

She Had Curious Habits.

When a person has to keep the ... out from under cover during the ... est nights in winter because of ... heat and prickly sensation, it is ... that coffee, which causes the ... be left off.

There is no end to the nervous ... ditions that coffee will produce. ... shows in one way in one person ... in another way in another. In ... case the lady lived in S. Dak. ... says:

"I have had to lie awake half ... night with my feet and limbs ... the bed on the coldest nights, and ... afraid to sleep for fear of ... cold. I had been troubled for ... with twitching and jerking of ... lower limbs, and for most of the ... I have been unable to go to ... or to lectures because of that ... feeling that I must keep on the ...

"When it was brought to my ... tion that coffee caused so many ... ous diseases, I concluded to drop ... fee and take Postum Food Coffee ... see if my trouble was caused by ... fee drinking.

"I only drank one cup of coffee ... breakfast, but that was enough to ... the business for me. When I ... my troubles disappeared in an ... miraculous way. Now I have ... more of the jerking and ... and can sleep with any amount ... bedding over me and sleep all night ... in sound, peaceful rest.

"Postum Food Coffee is ... worth its weight in gold to ... "There's a Reason." Read the ... health classic, "The Road to ... ville," in pkgs.

POSTUM

Increases the Size and Improves the Q...

It gives them finer flavor and ... ing qualities. It is Nature's ... all vegetables.

Send for ... Truck Farm ... scientific ... Full ... Free.

GERMAN KALI WORKS ... Nassau Street, New York ... Monadnock Building, Chicago ... Lombard Building, Atlanta

...TH ...TASH

Can't Work

...APUDINE

IT'S LIQUID

Prepaid all orders and parcels insured over Registry Stamp. All Druggists

TRIAL BOTTLE 10c

...kings are 40,000 bales ... horses meat consumption has ... owing to the ... of beef.

...LLS HIS CURE A MIRACLE.

...ed by Terrible, Dry Eruptions ... Disfigured to Leave House ... —Cuticura Cured Him.

... since the time I ... I have been suffering ... which at times ... and at other times ... on my body. I ... ...

POTASH

Increases the Size and Improves the Quality of Onions

It gives them finer flavor and increases their nourishing qualities. It is Nature's fattening food for all vegetables.

Send for our free booklet on "Truck Farming." It gives scientific reasons why thousands of truck farmers have found big money in it.

GERMAN KALI WORKS
53 Nassau Street, New York
Monadnock Building, Chicago
Candler Building, Atlanta, Ga.

WITH POTASH

WITHOUT POTASH

For Womanly Pains

To Obtain Relief

from the pains, that assail women, try Wine of Cardui, the well-known, successful remedy, for womanly ills.

Everybody knows that Cardui is a pure, harmless, vegetable extract, containing ingredients of special curative powers over the womanly organs.

In popular use, for over 50 years, it has benefited over a million sick women, and has proven itself indeed "Woman's Relief."

Mrs. Minnie Lambe, of Lebanon Junction, Ky., writes: "Cardui has done me more good than all the doctors' medicines ever did for me. I had pains in my head, shoulders, arms, sides, back, joints, bad cramping spells in my stomach, and bearing-down pains, at my periods, till I just almost died.

"I wrote you for advice, although I thought there was no medicine that could help me. On your advice I began to take Cardui, and it has done wonders for me. Now all those pains are relieved and I am much better.

"I feel that I owe my life to Cardui, and I have advised all my suffering lady friends to use it. The mothers around here are giving it to their daughters, and my friends say it helps them so much."

Mrs. Minnie Lambe
Lebanon Jct., Ky.

FREE BOOK FOR LADIES

Write for Free Orange Book for Women. If you need Advice, Free prescription, stating age, and we will reply in plain sealed envelope. Address: Ladies Advisory Dept., The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Take CARDUI

EGGS WITHOUT SHELLS.

One Way They Are Sent in Russia to Avoid Excessive Freight.

Russian exporters, to avoid an excessive freight on eggs as well as to avoid loss from breakage and from spelling by heat ship them without the shell, i. e., empty, and the contents put up in air tight boxes in boxes, with or without sugar, according to the taste of the customer.

Each box contains several eggs and is sold by weight the size running from half a kilogram up to a pud (some 16 kilograms). The price of the latter is five rubles. For use in cooking and for a limited time these tinned or preserved eggs seem to answer very well; that is, on the continent, for England doesn't take kindly to them. London, for instance, which buys large quantities of Russian eggs, pays eight rubles a pud for them (against five for the preserved eggs), besides the weight of the shells and the extra freight tariff on eggs.

Each block tin box of "conserved" eggs whether of half kilo (a kilo is a pud size, must bear the date and hour of its closing, thus guarding against getting stale eggs. The amount of eggs put up in boxes and annually exported is enormous and constantly growing.—National Druggist.

KILLS HIS CURE A MIRACLE.

...ed by Terrible, Dry Eruptions ...Disfigured to Leave House ...Cuticura Cured Him.

...me I grew into manhood ...ering from a dry erup... ...appeared very exten... ...ces for to a limited ... I consulted a number ... ...ment, and last ... ...ed with a terrible ... ...ck, and face, ... that I could not even ... ...finally resorted to the ... ...for they represent ... ...a few dollars and I am ... ...healing, while for... ...dollars upon dollars on ... ...and ointments without ... The Cuticura Remedies rep... ...a perfect miracle. Henry E. Kamp... ...65 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y., ...9 and May 15, 1906."

Granite and Cigars.

...there is a good deal of ...ling about in and on the New ...land hills there will in the years ...be more and more Connecti...filled-binder-and-wrapped cigars. It ...does not seem likely at first thought, ...we have the word of Secretary ...ilcox of the Department of Agri...ulture and it must be so. Some ...miles among the department's twen...ty-three hundred or so expert scientists ...have found that in some of the New ...England granite there is 8 per cent ...of potash. Also he has found a way ...to get it out. Hitherto we have been ...paying large sums every year to Ger...many for a potash supply and much ...of it is needed in renewing ground—...particularly tobacco ground. Now it ...has been found possible and profitable ...to grind New England granite up for ...potash and, says Secretary Wil...cox, hereafter the Connecticut Val...ley will produce more tobacco than ...ever."—Boston Advertiser.

Next to London, Manchester has the longest Jewish population of any English town. There are 28,000 Jews in Manchester, and 20,000 in Leeds. Liverpool has 7000. There are 227,166 Jews in Great Britain.

The African possessions of the French government amount to 3,305,000 square miles, and those of Great Britain 2,714,000, including Egypt.

FITS, St. Vitus' Dance, Nervous Diseases permanently cured by Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. $2 trial bottle and treatise free. Dr. H. R. Kline, Ld., 931 Arch St., Phila., Pa.

MOTHERHOOD

MRS. JAMES CHESTER

The first requisite of a good mother is good health, and the experience of maternity should not be approached without careful physical preparation, as a woman who is in good physical condition transmits to her children the blessings of a good constitution.

Preparation for healthy maternity is accomplished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from native roots and herbs, more successfully than by any other medicine because it gives tone and strength to the entire feminine organism, curing displacements, ulceration and inflammation, and the result is less suffering and more children healthy at birth. For more than thirty years has been the standby of American mothers in preparing for childbirth.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Note what Mrs. James Chester of 427 W. 35th St., New York says in this letter:—Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—"I wish every expectant mother knew about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. A neighbor who had learned of its great value at this trying period of a woman's life urged me to try it and I did so, and I cannot say enough in regard to the good it did me. I recovered quickly and am in the best of health now."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is certainly a successful remedy for the peculiar weaknesses and ailments of women.

It has cured almost every form of Female Complaints, Dragging Sensations, Weak Back, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation, Ulcerations and Organic Diseases of Women and is invaluable in preparing for Childbirth and during the Change of Life.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free.

The Tulane University OF LA. New Orleans

EDWIN B. CRAIGHEAD, LL. D., President.

The Tulane University of Louisiana, founded in 1845 as the University of Louisiana, is the regional head of the entire system of public educational institutions of the State.

Full courses are offered in Languages, Sciences, Engineering, Architecture, Law, Medicine, Pharmacy, Art. Splendid department for Women in Newcomb College. Full courses in Architecture will be offered next session. Teachers' College, recently established, will open Oct. 1st. Many scholarships in Academic Colleges. Expenses low. Low dormitory rates. Next session of all departments, except the Medical, begins Oct. 1st. Medical Department opens Oct. 31st. Send for catalogue. B. K. BRUFF, Secretary.

A man seldom makes up his mind to marry until the woman in the case has made up here to do so.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

The Errant Missouri.

While the authorities were looking the other way last week the Missouri River started in to chisel out a new bed for itself in Nebraska. Only carelessness can account for anybody's trusting that river to be alone with its banks even for five minutes.—Chicago News.

Black opals of great beauty are found in Queensland, Australia, besides fifty-six other kinds of precious stones.

DOES YOUR BACK ACHE?

Profit by the Experience of One Who Has Found Relief.

James R. Keeler, retired farmer, of Fenner St., Cazenovia, N. Y., says: "About fifteen years ago I suffered with my back and kidneys. I doctored and used many remedies without getting relief. Beginning with Doan's Kidney Pills, I found relief from the first box, and two boxes restored me to good, sound condition. My wife and many of my friends have used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results and I can earnestly recommend them."

Sold by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

City Built on Rubies.

Looking at the quaint, picturesque town of Mogok, Burmah, cradled in wooded hills dotted with temples and bungalows, who would dream that its life has been a life of dread mysteries and awful crimes? Yet the Ruby City has seen things not to be recounted, because of its treasures, from King Solomon's day to that of King Thebaw? Indeed, were it not for the red glowing stones a king would now be reigning at Mandalay.

In Mogok they see everything in a ruby light, men, women and children. Every visitor must want to buy, they think. However hungry or thirsty the traveler may be on arrival, the first thing he hears spoken of is rubies. All Mogok seems to be fishing—for rubies, in the precious "byon," that rivals in richness the famous "blue ground" of Kimberly.—Technical World Magazine.

Not Rude.

A Germantown woman was not long ago watching a workman as he put up new window fixtures in her house.

"Don't you think that you have placed those fixtures too high?" asked she, having reference to the curtain rolls last put in place.

The workman, a stolid German, made no reply, but continued to adjust the fixtures.

"Didn't you hear my question?" demanded the lady of the house. "How dare you be so rude?"

Whereupon the German gulped convulsively, and then replied in the gentlest of voices:

"I haf my mouth full of schrews, und I could not spheak till I svallow some!"—Harper's Weekly.

EASILY CURED.

Drunkenness, Morphine and Tobacco habits are easily cured by the use of Hill's Chloride of Gold Tablets. No effort required of the patient, who is allowed the use of stimulants until he voluntarily quits their use. May be given secretly in tea or coffee and a cure guaranteed in every case. For sale by all first-class druggists at $1.00 per package. For full particulars and book of testimonials address The Ohio Chemical Works, P. O. Box 323 W., Toledo, Ohio.

Bad, But Still Good.

A judge from one of the African crown colonies, now home on leave, is telling this story: It is the custom in the local courts to administer to the natives the form of oath which they consider most binding. One day a Christian colored gentleman, of whose good faith the judge entertained some doubts, was about to give evidence. At his own request he was allowed to take the oath of a Christian. Then the judge intimated that he must also be sworn in the native fashion. The man was visibly disconcerted. "Oh! no, massa," he pleaded. "Not dat. Me very bad native, but me very good Christian."—Manchester Guardian.

How the Name Originated.

A northern tourist who was riding in a leisurely way through western Georgia stopped one hot day to rest at a cottage occupied by an old colored man and wife. "Uncle," he said, fanning himself with his hat, "how much further is it to Col. Jeffrey's big plantation?"

"'Bout five mile, suh," answered the aged darky.

"Good roads?"

"Mos'ly up hill an' down, suh."

"Have you ever been at the Colonel's place?"

"I wuz hawn dah, suh."

"They call it the Renfrow, don't they?"

"Yes, suh."

"How did it ever get the name of Renfrow?"

"I allers 'lowed, boss, it wuz 'cause de man wot owned it befo' de wah run froo wid it in 'bout four years."—Cleveland Leader.

The fellow who is banking on taking things as they come is likely to starve when they don't.

Fertilizer for Wheat.

In some parts of the East farmers are giving up wheat growing. Many of them think it useless to try and compete with the newer and richer soils of the West. Many argue that wheat growing is profitable only on new and rich soil. Mr. C. R. McKenzie, of Westfield, New Brunswick, undertook to see if by the use of chemical fertilizers on poor soil he could not compete with Western grain fields.

He selected a piece of dark loam, slightly gravelly soil which had had no fertilizer for ten years. It had been in grass, and farmers can readily understand its poor condition for grain. In order to test the soil, Mr. McKenzie used nothing on one part of the field. On another part he used Thomas Phosphate to supply phosphoric acid and nitrate of soda to supply nitrogen. On another part he used the phosphate and the nitrate and in addition, muriate of potash. The object of this was to see which element was the key to a wheat crop on that soil.

Potash gave the yield. The answer was clear, as the following figures show:

Plot		Yield of grain per acre	Increase over no fertilizer
1	No Fertilizer	10 bu.
2	400 lbs. Thomas Phosphate 160 lbs. Nitrate of Soda	25 bu.	15 bu.
3	400 lbs. Thomas Phosphate 160 lbs. Nitrate of Soda 120 lbs. Muriate of Potash	40 bu.	30 bu.

The natural soil gave only 10 bushels. The phosphate and the nitrate brought the yield to 25 bushels, but when the potash was added there was an increase, yield of 16 bushels per acre. It is evident that this increase was directly due to the potash, and when we compare the cost of the potash with the price received for 16 bushels of wheat we see that few other farm investments could have paid so well. Consider the price of wheat and straw on an Eastern farm and it is plain that no Western wheat field can compare acre for acre with such a yield as 40 bushels. The main reason why some Eastern farmers say that wheat will not pay is because they use the wrong kind of fertilizer. They use a smell of nitrogen, a peck of phosphoric acid and a pinch of potash. No wonder their yield is poor. Mr. McKenzie's experiment shows why. The wheat crop demands potash. If the soil will not supply it the fertiliser must do so.

A Solomon on the Bench.

They have a Solomon for a justice in DuBois. Some chickens were found in the yard of "Jack" Gallagher, in DuBois, on Thursday afternoon. William Avery, of the same town, had some chickens stolen from him and suspected Gallagher. A search warrant was issued and Gallagher's premises were searched, with the above result. Avery claimed the fowls. In order that there might be no doubt about the matter that chickens were taken to the far end of the lot by the officers and others present and liberated. The started for the Avery chicken coop. Squire Barclay decided the evidence strong enough to hold Gallagher.—Philadelphia Record.

RED EYES

Need prompt treatment with Leonardi's Golden Eye Lotion, or they'll get bloodshot and sore. Leonardi's is the eye lotion that cures inflammation without pain in one day. Doctor to take any but "Leonardi's." It makes strong eyes. Guaranteed or money refunded. Druggists sell it at 25 cent or forwarded prepaid on receipt of price by B. B. Leonardi & Co., Tampa, Fla.

There is really no appropriate time to do what you don't want to do.

Positions Guaranteed BY A $30,000 CAPITAL

CAR FARE PAID. GOOD BOARD CHEAP. Some Free Scholarships.

They will take your note for tuition, payable when you secure a position.

Harris Business University JACKSON, MISS.

W. L. DOUGLAS $3.00 & $3.50 SHOES BEST IN THE WORLD

SHOES FOR EVERY MEMBER OF THE FAMILY, AT ALL PRICES.

$25,000 Reward To any one who can prove W. L. Douglas does not make & sell more Men's $3 & $3.50 shoes than any other manufacturer.

THE REASON W. L. Douglas shoes are worn by more people in all walks of life than any other make, is because of their excellent style, easy fitting and superior wearing qualities. The selection of the leathers and other materials for each part of the shoe, and every detail of the making is looked after by the most complete organization of superintendents, foremen and skilled shoemakers, who receive the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and whose workmanship cannot be excelled.

If I could take you into my large factories at Brockton, Mass., and show you how carefully W. L. Douglas shoes are made, you would then understand why they hold their shape, fit better, wear longer and are of greater value than any other make.

My $4 $5 Gilt Edge and $5 Gold Band Shoes cannot be equalled at any price.

CAUTION! The genuine have W. L. Douglas name and price stamped on bottom. Take No Substitute. Ask your dealer for W. L. Douglas shoes. If he cannot supply you, send direct to factory. Shoes sent everywhere by mail. Catalog free. W. L. Douglas, Brockton, Mass.

Diploma in 12 Months. SOUTHERN COLLEGE OF PHARMACY Diploma in 12 Months.

Fall session October to April. Spring Session, April to October. Largest Pharmacy depart South. Drug Store in the College. Free Books, saving $25 book expense. Large new building and Equipment, three Laboratories. Demand for our graduates exceeds supply. Tuition $60 per session. Address W. B. FREEMAN, Secretary, 93 Luckie St., Atlanta, Ga.

10,000 TELEGRAPHERS WANTED From this institute before next March. This is no humbug. In charge of ex railway officials. Established Twenty-one Years. Main lines of L. & N. R. R. in School-room. Diploma giving full per month and upward guaranteed. Write for Catalog. NATIONAL TELEGRAPH INSTITUTE, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Wintersmith's CHILL TONIC

Cures Chills AND Malarial Fevers

50c and $1

Standard for 45 years; known as best chill tonic quickest; pleasant to take; children like it; seldom fails to make permanent cure. Guaranteed under Food and Drugs Act of June 30, 1906. At your druggists; or sent prepaid on receipt of price. ARTHUR PETER & CO., Gen'l Agts., Louisville, Ky.

CRESCENT ANTISEPTIC

GREATEST HEALER KNOWN TO SCIENCE.

Non Poisonous, Non Irritating. Allays Inflammation and stops pain from any cause. As strong as carbolic acid and as harmless as sweet milk. Cures burns instantly; cures old and chronic sores; cures sores and inflammation from any cause on man or beast. For fowls—cures cholera, sore head and roup. Satisfaction positively guaranteed.

For Sale by all First-Class Dealers. Mfgd. by CRESCENT CHEMICAL CO., Ft. Worth, Texas

STANDARD OF THE SOUTH

SNOWDRIFT HOGLESS LARD

U.S. GOVERNMENT INSPECTION

THE SOUTHERN COTTON OIL CO.

NEW YORK SAVANNAH ATLANTA NEW ORLEANS

Are now an exclusive feature of the WHITE STAR BUGGY. Look for our Patent Rights Protected Trade Mark. If it isn't on the wheel the wheel isn't on a WHITE STAR BUGGY. Write for Catalog and particulars.

ATLANTA BUGGY CO., Atlanta, Ga.

DO YOU KNOW THE WET WEATHER COMFORT AND PROTECTION afforded by a

SLICKER?

Clean-Light Durable

Guaranteed Waterproof

$3.00 Everywhere

A. J. TOWER CO., BOSTON, U.S.A.

FREE To anyone may woman that Paxtine Antiseptic will improve her health and do all we claim for it. We will send her absolutely free a large trial box of Paxtine with book of instructions and genuine testimonials. Send your name and address on a postal card.

PAXTINE cleanses and heals in accord with nature. Relieves all female ailments, such as nasal catarrh, pelvic catarrh and inflammation caused by feminine ills; pain over eyes, sore throat, and mouth, by direct local treatment. Its cooling, healing power over these troubles is entirely satisfactory and gives immediate relief. Thousands of women are using and recommending it every day. It cures when everything else fails. Sold by druggists, or sent postpaid by mail. Large box, sufficient for ordinary use, 50 cents. IT COSTS YOU NOTHING TO TRY IT. THE R. PAXTON CO., Boston, Mass.

TRY THEM EASILY CURED

Tobacco Habit, Morphine Habit, Liquor Habit

Hill's Double Chloride of Gold Tablets will cure any case of Morphine, Liquor or Tobacco Habit in the shortest time on record. Can be given to one or more persons without their knowledge. Costs no more than SAINT PAUL. For sale by all druggists or sent by mail on receipt of price. THE OHIO CHEMICAL WORKS P. O. BOX 323 W. TOLEDO, OHIO

COMMERCIAL COLLEGE OF KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY LEXINGTON, KY.

Model commercial department of Kentucky University. Superior instruction. Graduates successful. Expenses moderate. Address, WILBUR R. SMITH, Pres't Lexington, Ky.

If afflicted with sore eyes, use Thompson's Eye Water

POSTERVILLE SYNODICAL INSTITUTE FOR GIRLS AND YOUNG LADIES Opens September 25th. Healthful and Delightful Location. Terms Reasonable. Send for Catalogue. LAWRENCE WOLFE, President. Hagerstown, Texas.

Am. 26, 1907.

You Look Prematurely Old

Because of those ugly, grisly, gray hairs. Use "LA CREOLE" HAIR RESTORER. Price, $1.00, retail.

THE COMING SEASON

is one of novelties and of exceptional opportunities for buyers who will make a thorough examination of the New Fall and Winter Goods. The fall of the year necessitates a change of clothing, and when you are changing, why not change into the latest fashions?

We have recently returned from the northern markets, where we bought the finest line of

Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Hats,

UNDERWEAR, NOTIONS, ETC.

that could be found on the market, and offer them to you at prices that will command your attention. Come in and let us show you.

We have entered the cotton market and will pay the highest price for cotton—and the price promises to be high this season.

Also we shall continue to pay highest prices for COUNTRY PRODUCE, WOOL, BEESWAX, HIDES and TALLOW. Bring them in and get cash for them.

PHONOGRAPHS and RECORDS
a Specialty
Come and Hear Them Play

H. KANJUTZKY

CLANTON - - ALA.

Health is More Than Wealth

Use BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT AND

KING OF THEM ALL

you will always have good health. What is more to a man than good health? All the money in the world can't make happiness where health is unknown. Ballard's Snow Liniment CURES Rheumatism, Cuts, Burns, Sprains, Neuralgia, Sores, Stiff Joints, Contracted Muscles, Lame Back and all the Ills that Flesh is Heir to.

One Who Knows.

J. G. Scott, Salt Lake City, Utah, writes: "I cannot too highly praise your Ballard's Snow Liniment for the relief of acute rheumatism, caused by sudden change and exposure to the weather. I also recommend your Ballard's Horehound Syrup for coughs and colds. These used together defy all pain.

GET THE GENUINE. Three Sizes 25c, 50c, $1.00

Ballard Snow Liniment Co.
300-302 North Second Street,
ST. LOUIS, - MISSOURI.

Sold and Recommended by
UPCHURCH DRUG CO., CLANTON.

Huckabee.

As we see from the articles I have seen in the Banner that the Back Tax Commissioner is warming things up in that county. The same evil is being practised in this, Autauga county. He is raising them from start to finish, and I believe he will be sustained in all such cases. I am of the same opinion as W. Y. Atchison. We had might as well stay at home and let them fix the values for it is only a matter of time that some other set of men will fix them for you. The law says a man must give his property in under oath, and he does so, and in a short time he receives a notice that his taxes have been raised. It simply means Mr. Taxpayer, you told a falsehood. I must say, that that is one of the greatest injustices ever imposed upon a nation of people. Who is more capable of fixing the value of a piece of land than the owner? I say the man that tills the soil year after year and knows just how much it will produce per acre under the most favorable circumstances, can certainly estimate its value better than the man that perhaps never saw it. There comes a man that never raised a bale of cotton or a bushel of corn in his life, and says Mr. A, your land is worth $3 per acre more than you said it was. Where is the justice in such an administration of affairs as that? I'll venture to say that the Back Tax Commissioner of this county as well as of yours, will place values on property that he never saw. Of course he can tell you just where the land lies, and all that, but he has never actually seen the land. What does he base his estimate on? It reminds me of a dream that I heard related once. The man that told the dream has gone to his reward, but nevertheless the impression of that dream still lives. He said he dreamed that he died, while following the occupation of making a living by playing the fiddle, and that he went to hell, and on his arrival he met quite a lot of his old friends, and a good number also that he never met while in this world and he asked one of his friends one day, did any body but fiddlers come to hell, and he said we were in the majority down here, but they had an epidemic among the people up in the old country and we had to give way to the Back Tax Commissioner.

Respectfully,
AUTAUGA DEMOCRAT.

Occasional headache, belching, bad taste in the mouth, lack of appetite and slight nervousness are symptoms of indigestion which, when allowed to go uncared for, will develop into a case of dyspepsia that will take a long time to get rid of. Don't neglect your stomach. At the first indication of trouble take something that will help it along in its work of digesting the food you eat. Kodol for indigestion and dyspepsia will do this. Kodol will make your food do you good and will enable you to enjoy what you eat. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

The peacemaker is all right, but he is never appreciated by the fellow that is getting the best of the fight.

New Prospect.

Dear Editor—Please allow me a small space in your valuable paper to say a few words. The health of this community is good. Farmers are busy pulling fodder.

The Sunday school at this place is progressing nicely; we have a faithful superintendent.

Miss Ida Belle Donovan left Tuesday for Troy, where she will complete her graduation.

Miss Effie Womble of Deatsville is visiting her uncle at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Brown spent last Sunday at Marbury and report a nice time.

Cotton is beginning to open.

Mr. J. T. Brown, who got his leg broke in March, is about ready to go work again.

Rev. A. C. Yeargan has been holding a protracted at New Union church.

A FRIEND.

Health in the Canal Zone.

The high wages paid make it a mighty temptation to our young artisans to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama canal. Many are restrained however by fear of fevers and malaria. It is the knowing ones—those who have used Electric Bitters, who go there without this fear, well knowing they are safe from malarious influence with Electric Bitters on hand. Cures blood poison too, biliousness, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Guaranteed by Upchurch Drug co. 50c.

Providence.

Dear Readers:—Here we come again with not very much news.

We are sorry to say we are having so much sickness in our community. But we hope we can soon write different.

Miss Esta Shaw visited relatives at Jemison the past week, she also attended the protracted meeting.

The Sunday school at Mt. Moriah is not as flourishing as it has been in the past, but we think and hope it will improve.

Mr. R. C. Skipper of Birmingham visited his home Saturday night and Sunday; also Mr. J. E. Bledso, who is at work at Birmingham.

Mr. A. J. Martin of Birmingham visited his parents and friends in this community Saturday night.

Mr J. C. Lowery visited Mr. Willie Shaw Sunday, leaving Sunday eve for Helena.

Rev S U Turnipseed failed to get to his appointment at Mt. Moriah Sunday morning, but preached an excellent sermon Sunday p.m. at 3 o'clock.

Mr. J. L. Martin and Mr. Willie Shaw attended the base ball game at Jemison Saturday; report a fine game between Jemison and Scotland.

Mr. J T. Martin and family of Gordo visited his parents the past week.

Mr. Cleve Watson who has been very sick with fever is improving fast.

Mr. John Cobb will soon complete his new dwelling house and that will help the looks of the settlement.

Mrs. Maggie Martin spent last Wednesday with Mrs Dovie Shaw.

The farmers are waiting to pick their cotton, but I guess they will not have very much to pick.

Miss Verla Skipper has been sick this week.

As almost everybody is sick and the news is gone visiting, we will ring off.

TWO FRIENDS.

Personals.

One old friend, Mr. D. H. Mullins of Jemison, Route 4, gave us a pleasant call Tuesday.

Mr. J. W. Sims of Clanton Route 7, was in town Tuesday.

Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by One Dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

I was so weak from an attack of diarrhoea that I could scarcely attend to my duties, when I took a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me entirely and I had been taking other medicine for nine days without relief. I heartily recommend this remedy as the best to my knowledge for bowel complaints.—R. G. STEWART, of the firm of Stewart & Bro., Greenville, Ala. For sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Humor In the Far East.

Abdur Rahman, the late ameer of Afghanistan, had a grim sense of humor which was sometimes exercised without scruple. On one occasion a durbar he was holding was interrupted by a man who, in a state of the greatest excitement, rushed in declaring that the Russians were advancing to invade Afghanistan. Turning aside for a moment from the business in progress, the late ameer in the most unconcerned tones ordered his shahgasi to conduct the man to the summit of a certain watch tower. "Look you out well for the Russians," commanded Abdur Rahman, "for you do not eat until you see them arrive."—Grand Magazine.

Ye ment.

Hello! Here I come after a long absence. The prayermeeting at Sardis is progressing nicely.

Our school is moving on nicely under the skillful management of Miss Annie Catchings.

Rev. J. D. Deason filled Rev. Till Deason's appointment at Sardis Sunday last.

Miss Lillie Roseberry returned to Prattville Sunday last after a weeks pleasant visit to her sister, Mrs. Alice Headley.

Mr. Johnson White has returned to Birmingham after a short visit to the home of his parents.

Mrs. P. E. McCary returned home after a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Belle Campbell, of Summerfield.

Little Miss Azereen Walker paid the Misses Minor a visit recently.

Quite a number of friends and relatives assembled at the home of Mr. Thom Klinner's last Sunday afternoon, to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin of Searles, Ala. There were 41 in number, who passed off the afternoon very pleasantly.

A SCHOOL GIRL.

Gen. Robert E. Lee

was the greatest General the world has ever known. Ballard's Snow Liniment is the greatest Liniment. Quickly cures all pains. It is within the reach of all. F. H. Painter, Hempstead, Texas, writes: "This is to certify that Ballard's Snow Liniment has been used in my household for years and has been found to be an excellent Liniment for Rheumatic pains. I am never without it." Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A Horn, Thorsby.

Center Point.

The health of our community is not very good. We are sorry to say that Mrs. Alice Burnett is very sick, but we hope her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Williams paid Mr. J. F. Williams and family a flying visit Sunday last. Come again.

Mr. R. M. Culp visited friends and relatives at Fairview, recently and report a nice time.

We are sorry to learn that Messrs. W. D. Williams and R. M. Culp are going to Jacksonville, Florida, next week, but hope them much success on their journey.

Miss Ida Williams and charming sister, Dallis, visited Miss Zeddie Askins Sunday last. Come again.

We are glad to learn that Messrs. J. T. and J. B. Williams have put up a saw mill and are doing good business with W. D. Williams as fireman and Wm. Adams, sawyer.

We are glad to learn that E. B. Owens has finished his residence.

THREE SCHOOL GIRLS.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.

List of Letters remaining uncalled for in Clanton, Ala., postoffice, for week ending Aug. 31, 1907. Persons calling for same will please say "advertised" and give date. One cent must be paid on each letter

GENTLEMEN'S LIST.

Rev. Job Walker, J. L. Thomas, R. S., Mr. Range, J. H. Nines, Marrin Dicks, Edgar Costeen, Thomas Costello, Alph Towber.

LADIES' LIST.

Effie Whalin (2), Nath Thaylor, Mrs. M. E. Marshall, A. V. Duttee, Maggie Broadway, Amelia Brock.

These letters will be sent to the dead Letter office, Sept 14, 1907, if not delivered before.

E. O. DUDLEY, Postmaster.

Biliousness

That sallow, yellow look, those terrible headaches, that dulled brain; all these things spell biliousness, which is the direct result of a liver which fails to perform its functions in a natural way. Before you can destroy that bilious condition you must get your liver in form and nothing will accomplish this so quickly or so thoroughly as

Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin

This remedy is the most valuable one obtainable for all liver and kindred troubles, possessing properties which drive it directly to the affected parts.

Better than pills, oils, salts and nauseous purgatives which aggravate conditions and leave the sufferer in worse condition than before.

Former afflicted ones, now well and strong, pay eloquent tribute to its efficacy and power.

DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN can be obtained in both dollar and half-dollar sizes from all druggists.

Your money will be refunded if it does not benefit you.

Your prompt and request will bring by return mail your booklet, "DR. CALDWELL'S BOOK OF WONDERS" and free sample to those who have never tried this wonderful remedy. Write for it today.

PEPSIN SYRUP CO.
Monticello, Illinois.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

TIPTON MULLINS
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
Clanton - - Ala.

WILLIAM M. ADAMS
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
Practice in all Courts. Long time loans negotiated on improved farm lands. Office Room 1, Court House.
Clanton - - Ala.

ROBERT H. KNOX
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
Clanton - - Ala.
Will practice in all the State and Federal Courts of Alabama.

DR. J. EARL COWAN
DENTIST
Office Horton Building.
CLANTON, ALA.

DR. P. I HOPKINS
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON
EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROAT
Office Hours 8 to 9 a. m.
CLANTON

Warranty deeds and Mortgage blanks, Waive Notes and Receipt books on sale at the Banner office

DeWITT'S WITCH HAZEL SALVE For Piles, Burns, Sores.

Troubles are like babies, they grow larger by nursing.

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of flesh, nausea, headache, constipation, general debility, sour risings of the stomach are all due to a disordered digestion. Kodol cures indigestion, it represents the natural juices of the stomach as they exist in a healthy condition and reconstructive properties. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does not only digest what you eat and dyspepsia, but this preparation cures all stomach troubles by purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

Mr. S. S. Hall, of Ravenswood, W. Va., says: "I was troubled with sour stomach for many years. Kodol cured me and we are now using it in our family for baby."

Kodol Digests What You Eat

Bottles only. $1.00 Size holding 2½ times as much, which sells for 50 cents. Prepared by E. O. DeWITT & CO., Chicago.

Upchurch Drug Co.

The Money to Be Saved

by buying your drugs and whiskies from a house like the Collier Drug Co. will be a pleasant surprise to you. We are the largest cut-rate druggists in this section of the State, and can save you many pennies by giving us your business.

Read our prices and put your dollars where you will receive greatest possible value.

WHISKIES

	Regular Price	Our
Shade Mountain Corn (full quart)	1.00
Old Oscar Pepper, bottled in bond	1.00
Murray Hill Club	1.50
J. Martin Rye	1.25
Atherton Rye	1.00
Duffy's Pure Malt	1.00
California Sherry	1.00
Old Lincoln County	1.00
Private Stock	1.00
Virginia Pure Apple Brandy	.75
Richmond Club	1.00
Old Holland Gin	.75
Wilson	1.25
Green River	1.25
I. W. Harper	1.00
Dan Patch	.75
Paul Jones Four Star	1.25
Old Prentiss	1.50

Our package and express department is complete in every respect and all mail orders get prompt and careful attention the day of receipt. Your patronage will be appreciated.

COLLIER DRUG CO.

109-111 NORTH 20th St.

BIRMINGHAM - - ALA.

GREATEST FAIR IN THE SOUTH

ALABAMA STATE FAIR

BIRMINGHAM ALABAMA

October 8-16, 1907

New and Original Features. Great Free Attractions. Big Agricultural, Live Stock and Mineral Displays. Magnificent Fire Works every night. Ricci's celebrated Military Band will give grand, free concerts afternoon and evening. A great Carnival Company of clean, wholesome and entertaining shows.

FINE RACING PROGRAM. SPECIAL RAILROAD RATES

Write for CATALOGUE and all INFORMATION to

GEO. T. BARNES

Secretary and General Mgr., BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

MAN ON THE CORNER

of the Rights He Saw, and Some He Saw Not.

On Thursday I had the pleasure of driving over to Maplesville to the celebration which was a day of great enjoyment to my self and to the thousands of others who were there. However as space is limited, and a correspondent has given a good description of the day's doings, I must of necessity cut it up, merely mentioning the fact that it was a great day and I thoroughly enjoyed it.

Miss Ethel M. Toland, who is well and favorably known at Jemison has been secured as music teacher for the coming session of Clanton Academy. Miss Toland has a host of friends by her charming manner and mode of teaching, we believe she will prove an addition to Clanton society and will help to her pupils.

CLANTON'S FIRST BALE.

The first bale of the season of cotton was brought in by F. W. Jones, of southwest Chilton, on Monday, Sept. 5, and was ginned at the Chilton Warehouse & Manufacturing Co. The bale weighed 500 pounds and was sold to M. F. Horton & Sons, on Monday, Sept. 9. They paid the fancy price of 15½c per pound for it, making Mr. Jones a very happy man. The second bale was brought in on Monday, Sept. 10, by Henry Burnett and was sold to E. M. Pinckard & Co., for 13½c. The cotton season has started in under very flattering prospects.

DEATH OF Mr. E. C. McMORRIES.

It is with a short time ago we regretfully noted the fact that Mr. E. C. McMorries had been removed to the home of his brother, Mr. B. Y. McMorries, near Anniston, and hoped that in a new atmosphere he would regain his health. Unfortunately, he succumbed to the sickness which overtaken him, and peacefully passed on Saturday last. The remains were brought to Clanton and interred in the family grave yard at Clanton last Sunday afternoon, Rev. F. M. Woods officiating. Mr. McMorries was about 32 years of age, popular with all who knew him and an agreeable companion whose will be missed. To the sorrowing relatives we extend our sincere condolences.

Jemison.

A successful revival meeting has been held here after having been in progress for two weeks.

Rev. W. D. Hubbard did the preaching and had the co-operation of the pastor, Rev. A. F. Loftin, of the Baptist Church. Rev. I. L. Nelson, Dr. W. D. Hubbard's assistant, had charge of the music. There were large crowds at every service, and great interest was manifested.

The results of the meeting were the conversion of sixteen and six have placed their membership with the Jemison Baptist Church were better.

Jemison is the coming town of Chilton county. It is strictly a factory town. It is very possible that the High School will be located here, which will mean a great deal to the little city. Jemison is an ideal location for a school, as it is very high, having pure freestone water and free from malaria.

FARMERS' UNION.

Will lecture to the public in the interest of the Farmers' Union at the following times and places:

.....September	16,	11 a.m.
..... "	16,	7 p.m.
..... "	17,	11 a.m.
..... "	17,	7 p.m.
..... "	18,	11 a.m.
..... "	18,	7 p.m.
..... "	19,	11 a.m.
..... "	20,	11 a.m.
..... "	21,	11 a.m.

Yours fraternally,
C. N. EVANS.

. GARDE.

ULLINS
AT-LAW
- Ala.

. ADAMS
AT-LAW
Long time loans
ed farm loans.
- Ala.

. KNOX
T-LAW
- Ala.
ate and Federal rts.

GOWAN
ST ALA.

PKINS
SURGEON
ND THROAT
CLANTON

d Mortgage and Receipt anner office

TCH HAZEL
Burns, Sores,

you are ill mifuge has a
as the best of all and I
and untrifty children, their digestion and their food, strengthen vous system and health and vigor natural
If you want a healthy get a bottle of White's mifuge. Sold by Up
co., Clanton; A. Horn

Troubles are like grow larger by nursing.

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of
ness, headache, constipation,
general debility, sour risings,
of the stomach are all due to
Kodol cures indigestion.
represents the natural as they exist in a combined with the greatest and reconstructive properties pepsia Cure does not only
and dyspepsia, but this cures all stomach troubles by purifying, sweetening and the mucous membranes lining
Mr. S. S. Bell, of Ravenscroft, N. was troubled with sour stomach for Kodol cured me and we are now using for baby.
Kodol Digests What You
Bottles only $1.00 Size holding 2½ times
one which sells for 50 cents.
Prepared by E. O. DeWITT & CO.,

Upchurch Drug Co.

Money to Be Saved

our drugs and whiskies from the Collier Drug Co. will be a prise to you. We are the large rug ists in this section of the save you many pennies by ar business.

rices and put your dollars where
e greatest possible value.

WHISKIES

	Regular Price	Our Price
(full quart)	1.00	.85
ed in bond	1.50	1.25
	1.50	1.25
	1.25	.95
	1.50	1.25
	1.00	.75
	1.00	.85
	1.00	.85
	1.00	.85
randy	.75	.65
	1.50	1.25
	.75	.65
	1.25	.95
	1.25	.95
	1.50	1.25
	.75	.65
	1.25	.95
	1.50	1.25

l express department is complete in every orders get prompt and careful attention r patronage will be appreciated.

LIER DRUG CO.

111 NORTH 20th St.

AM - - ALA.

FAIR IN THE SOUTH

MA STATE FAIR

NGHAM ALABAMA

ber 8-16, 1907

l Features. Great Free At-Agricultural, Live Stock and ys. Magnificent Fire Works Ricci's celebrated Military grand, free concerts after-
g. A great Carnival Company some and entertaining shows.

RAM. SPECIAL RAILROAD RATES

LOGUE and all INFORMATION to

O. T. BARNES

General Mgr., BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

THE BANNER

LET THE PEOPLE RULE.

VOL. XV — CLANTON, ALA., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1907 — No. 48

MAN ON THE CORNER
Of the Sights He Saw, and Some He Saw Not.

Last Thursday I had the pleasure of driving over to Maplesville to the celebration which was a day of great enjoyment to myself and to the thousands of others who were there. However as space is limited, and a correspondent has given a good description of the day's proceedings, I must of necessity sum up, merely mentioning the fact that it was a great day and I thoroughly enjoyed it.

Miss Ethel M. Toland, who is well and favorably known at Jemison, has been secured as music teacher for the coming session of Clanton Academy. Miss Toland has lots of friends by her charming manner and mode of teaching, we believe she will prove an addition to Clanton society and a great help to her pupils.

CLANTON'S FIRST BALE.

The first bale of the season of [illegible] was brought in by F. W. [illegible], of southwest Chilton, on Monday, Sept. 5, and was ginned at the Chilton Warehouse & Manufacturing Co. The bale weighed [illegible] pounds and was sold to M. F. Cannon & Sons, on Monday, Sept. [illegible] who paid the fancy price of 15¼c per pound for it, making Mr. [illegible] a very happy man. The second bale was brought in on Saturday, Sept. 10, by Henry Burt, and was sold to E. M. Pinckard & Co., for 13¾c. The cotton crop has started in under very good prospects.

DEATH OF Mr. E. C. McMORRIES.

About a short time ago we regretfully noted the fact that Mr. E. C. McMorries had been removed to the home of his brother, Mr. B. Y. McMorries, near Anniston, and hoped that in a new atmosphere he would recover his health. Unfortunately, he succombed to the sickness which had overtaken him, and peacefully passed on Saturday last. The remains were brought to Clanton and interred in the family grave yard at Clanton last Sunday afternoon, Rev. F. M Woods officiating. Mr. McMorries was about 32 years of age, popular with all who knew him, and an agreeable companion whose will be missed. To the sorrowing relatives we extend our sincere condolences.

Jemison.

A successful revival meeting has just been held here, after having been in progress for two weeks.

Rev. W. D. Hubbard did the preaching and had the co-operation of the pastor, Rev. A. F. Loftin, of the Baptist Church. Rev. I. L. Cline, Dr. W. D. Hubbard's assistant, had charge of the music. There were large crowds at every service, and great interest was manifested.

The results of the meeting were the conversion of sixteen and six have placed their membership with the Jemison Baptist Church were baptized.

Jemison is the coming town of Chilton county. It is strictly a railroad town. It is very possible that the High School will be located here, which will mean a great deal to the little city. Jemison is an ideal location for a school, as it is very high, having pure freestone water and free from malaria.

FARMERS' UNION.

Will lecture to the public in the interest of the Farmers' Union at the following times and places:

[illegible]	September	16, 11 a.m.
[illegible]	"	16, 7 p.m.
[illegible]	"	17, 11 a.m.
[illegible] Rest	"	17, 7 p.m.
[illegible]	"	18, 11 a.m.
[illegible]	"	18, 7 p.m.
[illegible]	"	19, 11 a.m.
[illegible] Line	"	20, 11 a.m.
[illegible]	"	21, 11 a.m.

Yours fraternally,
C. N. ERLAND.

Peoples Savings Bank of Chilton County.

CLANTON, ALA.

CAPITAL STOCK $50,000.00.

WM. E. HOLLOWAY, President.
W. T. CALLEN, Cashier. JOHN A. THOMAS, Assistant Cashier

DIRECTORS:

W. T. Callen	Wm. E. Holloway	Sam Kaufman
H. M. Martin, Sr.	M. L. Greil	John A. Thomas

There is a number of people who are under an erroneous impression. They think that they never control enough money to start a bank account. In this they are mistaken. We solicit small accounts as well as large. And we handle the business of both with our best care. We believe that you ought to have a bank account, and we offer you our services.

THE CLANTON BANK

CLANTON, ALA.

Many people seem to think that unless they can open a Savings Account with not less than $50.00 or $100 00, it is not worth the while to begin. This is not a correct position to take. If a person cannot open an account with more than $1.00, and really desires to get some money ahead, then he should begin with even $1.00. The first dollar saved and put in bank, is the initial step on the way to prosperity. "Great oaks from little acorns grow." As a rule, the person who "Puts off" the opening of a Savings Account until he has a large amount to deposit, is not likely to ever have a bank account. We solicit your account.

THE CLANTON BANK

CORRESPONDENCE.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are good for anyone who needs a pill. They are small, safe, sure, little pills that do not gripe or sicken. Sold by Upchurch Drug co

Clanton, Sept. 5, 1907

Editor Banner—Will you please allow me a little space in your valuable paper. There is a rumor going around that the town don't let people know what the dispensary has done since it was started, and what they are doing with the money. I don't think it is anything but right for them to let people know how everything is standing. It would please the citizens all the way around.

A CITIZEN.

Providence.

Hello! We are having some right pretty weather for picking cotton and the farmers are glad of that.

Mr. R. C. Skipper returned to his home Friday night; suppose he will not go back to Birmingham.

Mr. Ed Martin who has been off for a week returned home Saturday night; leaving Monday morning for Birmingham, where he will take a position.

Mr. W. H. Shaw visited Clanton Friday.

We are quite sure that the Sunday school at Mt. Moriah will build up as Mr. Skipper and Mr. Bledsoe will be with them there, and also the prayer meeting will build up.

Quite a number of the people around here attended the picnic at Rocky Mount Friday. Among those were Misses Verla, Annie and Ola Skipper. Pearl Bledsoe, Esta and Ora Shaw. Arthur Bledsoe, Bobbie Giles and many others.

Mrs. Lou Armstrong was in Clanton Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Shaw spent Sunday with relatives at Jemison.

A part of the Smith & Sammons shingle mill was burned Friday night.

The burial of Mr J. B. Watt's little son took place at Providence Sunday, September the 8th. A large crowd being present; it was a sad occasion.

Miss Essie Watson was at Mr. W. H. Shaw's Saturday.

Mr. Bobbie Giles of Montgomery spent the past week with Mr. Arthur Bledsoe.

Miss Ora Shaw Spent a part of the past week with Mrs. Annis Cobb.

The Mt. Moriah singing class attended the singing at Rocky Mount Sunday evening and say they had a fine singing.

A protracted meeting will start at this place next Saturday; we hope for a successful meeting.

Mrs. W. H. Martin spent last Thursday with Mrs. W. H. Shaw.

TWO FRIENDS.

Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by One Dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

I was so weak from an attack of diarrhoea that I could scarcely attend to my duties, when I took a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me entirely and I had been taking other medicine for nine days without relief. I heartily recommend this remedy as the best to my knowledge for bowel complaints.—B. G. STEWART, of the firm of Stewart & Bro., Greenville, Ala. For sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Thorsby.

Mrs. King and two children returned tuesday from a visit to Pennsylvania.

Miss Helen Groves celebrated her twelfth birthday with a party Monday.

Mrs. S. E. Norton and Edwin are at home again.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hastings, Miss Jenkins and Miss Temple, of the Institute Faculty arrived this week.

There seems to be considerable interest manifested in the effort to secure the high school for Thorsby.

The Misses Hovey have removed from Michigan Ave., to their brother's tract northeast of town.

The Misses Simpsons are entertaining relatives from Birmingham.

Mrs. Wheelock and children returned this week.

Mr. Carr has purchased the Engh place.

Mr. Olaf Schieves has a new well.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational Church met with Mrs. S. B. Groves Tuesday

The Thorsby institute opened Wednesday. Great improvements have been made on the buildings and grounds.

Protracted meeting is being held at the Baptist church.

The usual Sunday morning and evening services have been resumed in the Congregational church.

Memorial services of Rev. G. E. Bates will be held morning of the 15th inst.

Miss Louella Winslow returned to Thorsby last week.

VOX POPULI.

The way to get rid of a cold, whether it be a "bad cold" or a little one, is to get it out of your system through the bowels. Nearly all cough cures, especially those that contain opiates, are constipating. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup contains no opiates and acts gently on the bowels Pleasant to take. Sold by Upchurch Drug co

COTTON GINNERS' NOTICE.

Editor Banner—I would thank you to say in the next issue of your paper for the information of the ginners in your county that under the law enacted by the last session of the legislature, providing for ginners' reports, all ginners are expected to procure at once blanks from the Bureau of Cotton Statistics at Montgomery for making such reports. Thanking you for the courtesy, I am.

Yours very truly,
W. H. SEYMOUR, Director.

Mountain Creek.

Editor Banner—Please allow me space for a few words in regard to the political condition in Chilton county. Now, that the Populist party is declared dead, and yielded up their name for that of Republican, I think that Democratic clubs should be organized over the county and a general educational campaign begun in behalf of Democracy. I don't believe all the good honest Populists of Chilton will support Republican policies. The Democratic party is the white man's party and stands for good decent government administered by white men, and has always stood for these principles. Now is the time for the Democrats of Chilton to begin, for we want to stand in line with the other counties of Alabama and have a voice in the councils of the State. W. K. P.

Lame Back.

This is an ailment for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has been proven especially valuable. In almost every instance it affords prompt and permanent relief. Mr. Luke LaGrange, of Orange, Mich., says of it: "After using a plaster and other remedies for three weeks for a bad lame back, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and two applications effected a cure." For sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

CONFEDERATE PENSION NOTICE

The Pension Examining Board will meet in Clanton, September 9th and 16th, to consider any applications of those wishing to be placed on the pension roll of Chilton county for 1907.

E. W. CAFFEY,
Chairman Ex. Board.

Verbena, Sept. 2, 1907.

All-Day Singing.

There will be a singing at Rushton the 3rd Sunday in September. Judge Reynolds will deliver a temperance lecture at 11 a.m. Everybody invited to come and bring baskets. O. Z. ROBINSON

Mount Hebo.

Editor Banner—Please allow me a small space in your paper to say that there will be an all-day singing at this place the 5th Sunday in September. Come one and all, bring your baskets. S. S. BOY.

Mountain Creek.

Mr. George Fraser, of Montgomery was the guest of Miss Ida Belle Donovan Sunday. Miss Donovan left Tuesday for Marion where she will attend the Judson College. She spent two very successful years at the State Normal College at Troy and we wish her as much success at the Judson.

Mr. John Donovan and sister, Mrs. Weldon of Billingsley, visited relatives here last week.

A FRIEND.

Sick Headache.

This disease is caused by a derangement of the stomach. Take a dose of Chamberlain's stomach and liver tablets to correct this disorder and the sick headache will disappear. For sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Did it ever occur to you that three-fourths of Chilton county depended entirely on the Northwest for their feed? Did it ever occur to you that the frost killed better feed on your own land than that you buy at high prices later on? Is it not better to save Hay and buy stock at a sacrifice during the fall and winter than to have to sacrifice your own stock to keep from buying hay. Now figure the cost of raising hay. Common land will make 1 ton of oats per acre, cut this off and re-sow grass, cane, peas, etc., this time you will reap 2 tons per acre; add this to your oats and you have 3 tons per acre on the same land. We have paid from $20 to $28 per ton from our customers all the summer and fall. You would have to get 2 1/2c per lb. for your cotton to compete with the man who is sowing with one-third work you are doing. Come in and let us make you terms and prices on Harvesting Machinery, Mowers, Rakes, Hay Presses, Hay Wire, Binders, Disc Harrows, Wagons, Buggies, Surreys and anything else you would like to figure on in a general store.

M. F. CANNON & SONS, Clanton, Ala.

WANTED.

LAND FOR SALE—216 acres of good land, 65 acres in cultivation. 2 settlements. In sections 29 and 30, township 22, range 13. Apply to R. F. NIMS, Maplesville Ala., R. F. D. No. 1.

REWARD—$2.00 will be paid to anyone notifying me of the whereabouts of a White Dog with one Brown ear—a Bull Bitch. Lost July 22, 1907. E. B. CALLOWAY, Verbena, Ala.

There are a great many people who have slight attacks of indigestion and dyspepsia nearly all the time. Their food may satisfy the appetite but it fails to nourish the body simply because the stomach is not in fit condition to do the work it is supposed to do. It can't digest the food you eat. The stomach should be given help. You ought to take something that will do the work your stomach can't do. Kodol for Indigestion and Dyspepsia, a combination of natural digestants and vegetable acids, digests the food itself and gives strength and health to the stomach. Pleasant to take. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

124 ACRES FOR SALE, four miles southeast of Clanton. Apply to Q. S., Banner office, Clanton.

FOR SALE—80 acres good land, two miles from Clanton; two settlements on the tract. The tract is well watered. Call on or address G. O. FOSHEE, Clanton, Ala., R. F. D. No. 5.

Souvenir Postals of Clanton. Florence Drug Store.

Occasional headache, belching, bad taste in the mouth, lack of appetite and slight nervousness are symptoms of indigestion which, when allowed to go uncared for, will develop into a case of dyspepsia that will take a long time to get rid of. Don't neglect your stomach. At the first indication of trouble take something that will help it along in its work of digesting the food you eat Kodol for indigestion and dyspepsia will do this. Kodol will make your food do you good and will enable you to enjoy what you eat. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

It's Quite Different Now.

A few years ago, if people wanted pure paint they were obliged to buy the Lead and Oil and mix it themselves, as there were no Pure Ready Mixed Paints to be had. To-day, however, there is no reasonable excuse for using the antiquated, hand-mixed paint, since you can buy

Davis 100 per cent Pure paint

For sale by Payne & Payne, Montgomery, Ala.

W. E. MADDOX
BLACKSMITH

I do all kinds of Repair Work in Wood or Iron. Saw Brackets and Banisters.

Cold Tire Setting. I can shrink your Buggy or Wagon Tires cold or hot.

Horse-shoeing up-to-date. Satisfaction guaranteed.

CLANTON

J. V. HIGGINS
WATCHMAKER, JEWELER AND ENGRAVER

At the Florence Drug Store, Clanton, Ala. All work guaranteed
Special attention given to Watch Cleaning, Stone Setting and Engraving
Repair all kinds of Graphophones Guns and Pistols Repaired.

HELP IS OFFERED
TO WORTHY YOUNG PEOPLE

We earnestly request all young persons, no matter how limited their means or education, who wish to obtain a thorough business training and good position, to write us their case for our special half-rate offer. Business, shorthand and telegraphy thoroughly taught. Positions guaranteed when course is completed. Don't delay. Write today.
The Gadsden Business College, Gadsden, Ala.
N. B.—We request the telegraphers now filling men's positions, Gadsden, Ala., to get in our notices.

THE BANNER.

Published Weekly

CLANTON, ALABAMA.

The Czar can dismiss a duma, insists the Birmingham Age-Herald, but he cannot dismiss the public sentiment that created it.

A New York girl says she put her name upon an egg and "found a man who loved her." If a hen would only put her name and the date on each egg, suggests the Louisville Courier-Journal, she would find that every man loved her.

In an address delivered at Milwaukee Justice Brewer, of the United States Supreme Court, declared it to be his opinion that there was not on the whole a fair return now being made upon the money invested in the country's railways, in substance, of course, taking the ground that a large share of the attacks upon the railways was utterly unfounded.

This is Marie Corelli's latest criticism of the other sex, contained in the introductory note to a new volume of stories: "They have not either courage or intelligence to fight the world for themselves, and seeing the fierce heat of competition in every branch of labor they gladly sneak behind a woman's petticoats to escape the general fray. When they have secured the ignoble end of their ambition they are the first to run down woman's work, woman's privileges, woman's attainments and woman's honor."

Everybody knows, of course, or ought to know by this time, that Mark Twain called himself by that pseudonym in memory of his life as a boatman on the Mississippi, says Victor Smith in the New York Press. The old scow on which he earned fifty-six cents a day stopped at any place on signal, and it was necessary to heave the lead once in a while to keep off the mudbanks. The line is marked in fathoms, a sign being attached every six feet. When the depth of water was two fathoms the cry of the leadman was "Mark twain." That is, mark two fathoms.

Visitors to Japan are usually impressed with the many curious uses to which fans are put, remarks the San Francisco Argonaut. The umpire at wrestling and fencing matches uses a large fan, the various motions of which constitute a language that the combatants understand and promptly heed. Men and children, as well as women, use fans at all times. The servant has a flat fan, made of rough paper, to blow the charcoal fires with, or use as a dustpan. The farmer has a stout fan to winnow his grain. Still another variety is made of water-proof paper, which, dipped in water, creates a pleasant coolness by evaporation without wetting the clothes.

Judge Landis, of Chicago, has delivered a judicial opinion concerning Satan. A minister's son, relates the New York World, carrying out the tradition that minister's sons are Satan's special prey, had forged a money order and pleaded guilty in Judge Landis' court. His father interceded for him and said that he had always been a good son, and that when he committed this crime "he must have been in the hands of the devil." The Judge was lenient in his sentence and imposed a fine payable in installments instead of imprisonment. Then he delivered a short opinion correcting the clergyman-father's statement. "Don't you get it into your head, young man, that the devil was responsible for your predicament. It was your fault and not Satan's. Don't try to shift the blame."

Discussing the suit of the Pennsylvania Railroad against the enforcement of the two-cent fare law, the New Orleans Times-Democrat thinks that the statement by the road of receipts and expenses showing that the two-cent rate would make a loss are not convincing because railroad bookkeeping is an art that knows how to produce desired results. It goes on to say: "The figures presented by the railway people should be gone over very thoroughly to ascertain whether the items of expense listed have all been properly chargeable to the passenger account and whether all of the passenger earnings have actually been listed in the earnings account. Pennsylvania is a thickly populated State, and it would seem that the two-cent fare would prove remunerative there if anywhere in the Union."

CZAR IS GUARDED AS HE WORSHIPS

Russian Emperor Enters St. Petersburg to Attend Church

TROOPS WERE EVERYWHERE

Second Time Emperor Has Visited St. Petersburg Since "Red Sunday." Empress Had a Careworn Look. Services in Memory Alexander II.

St. Petersburg.—For the second time since "Red Sunday" (January 22, 1905) Emperor Nicholas entered the capital to attend the services of the church to the memory of his grandfather, Alexander II, who was assassinated in March, 1881, on the spot where the edifice was raised. The date of the trip, coinciding with the conspiracy trial just closed, plainly was designed to raise the loyalty of the army and the people. It was a complete success and no untoward incident occurred.

The police neglected no precaution to insure the safety of the Czar. Gendarmes were stationed in every window facing the route over which the emperor's procession passed, and owners of houses were forbidden to open windows under penalty of the law. Bridge and river traffic was entirely suspended. The banks of the Neva were lined with marine guards. The imperial party arrived from Peterhof unannounced, not a single salute being fired during their whole stay. The emperor and his party embarked on a yacht, landing at the Grand Duke Constantine's palace. Thence they proceeded the remainder of the way to the church in carriages.

The emperor's arrival was announced by cheers of the troops, the public looking on indifferently.

The big church yard was picturesquely decorated by platoons of cuirassiers and dragoons in multi-colored uniforms, waving plumes, busbies and silver breast-plates.

After walking around the church and saluting the guards the emperor entered the edifice at the south doors. The scene inside was one of great splendor.

Premier Stolypin was the only minister to attend the ceremonies. The emperor seemed to be in good health, but the empress had a careworn look.

Both their majesties remained standing throughout the ceremony, which lasted three and a quarter hours.

IF TOO LARGE TO WHIP

Cigarette Smokers Will Be Expelled From McEwen College.

McEwen, Tenn.—The opening of the McEwen College at this place was far better than expected. Over 163 pupils were enrolled, and the opening services, which were conducted by Rev. D. B. Coleman, were well attended. Dr. B. H. Johnson gave a fine talk on the care of the student. The present force of teachers will be not large enough to handle the large enrollment that is expected to come here within the next few months. Spanish and French will be taught this year, as will a complete business course. R. A. Moser has issued rules which will govern students in a manner that shows he knows his business. One feature of the rules is the very strict discipline against smoking cigarettes. The professor states that if any found smoking them are too large to whip they will have to quit school.

JEWS SLAIN BY BLACK HUNDRED.

Russian Fanatics Trump Up an Excuse for Starting Riots at Odessa.

Odessa.—The Black Hundred began rioting here, alleging that the Jews were responsible for the explosion of the bomb in the court yard of the central police station here Sunday morning, which resulted in the deaths of an artillery officer and four policemen, although it was stated at the time that the bomb was accidentally dropped by the officer. The rioters ran through the streets inhabited by Jews, shooting promiscuously right and left. Several were killed and injured.

Figuring on a $20,000,000 Loan.

Washington, D. C.—According to a cablegram received at the state department from American Minister McCreery at Santo Domingo, President Caceres has issued a call for an extraordinary session of the Dominican congress September 10 to deal with the latest proposition for the contract for a $20,000,000 loan from Kuhn, Loeb & Co., of New York.

Sixty Bodies Still Missing.

Quebec.—The body of Honore Beaudery, who was killed by the collapse of the Quebec bridge, was recovered Monday. There are still sixty missing.

Notorious Criminal Arrested.

Omaha, Neb.—James Clark, who, with Jackson, of St. Louis, was arrested on suspicion of safe blowing, has been identified as the notorious Marion Hudson, who is alleged to be one of the best known criminals in the United States. The two men are held in the city prison awaiting developments.

Peculiarities when appertaining to one's self never look very peculiar.

TRAIN WRECKED.

Three Thousand Passengers on the Train, and 250 Hurt and Six Killed.

Orangeville, Ontario.—A Canadian Pacific railway special train carrying over 3,000 passengers, bound for the Toronto Exposition, was wrecked at Horse Shoe Falls, nine miles south of here. Six people, names unknown, were killed, and over 250 injured.

The train pulled into Orangeville one hour late. A half hour later the locomotive jumped the rails on the down grade of the Horse Shoe curve of the Caledonian mountain. Five crowded cars were piled up on the top of the locomotive. At Orangeville every seat was filled and several were standing in the aisles. These cars were jammed together in the fierce shock. No less than 600 passengers were in the cars that left the rails. At least 250 were injured, many of them seriously. Six were killed outright. The only explanation of the disaster so far is that the engineer was trying to make up the time and took the Horse Shoe curve at a high rate of speed.

SEVEN KILLED.

Spreading Rails Throw a Passenger Train From the Track.

Charleston, W. Va.—Chesapeake and Ohio local passenger train No. 6 was derailed near Kanawha Falls, and as a result seven are dead and seventeen injured. One coach and the express car left the track and rolled toward the Kanawha river. Among the dead are Allen Loving, a law student at West Virginia University, serving as express agent; S. C. Campbell, telegraph operator, and a fireman, name unknown. Spreading rails are supposed to have caused the accident.

A Terrible Explosion.

Cleveland, O.—A terrific explosion occurred in the powder mill of the Austin Powder Company, located a few miles south of the city, resulting in the death of one employe and the fatal injury of another. Jakob Bazut was instantly killed, while Frank Moroski was frightfully injured. And the explosion occurred a few hours later many other workmen would doubtless have been killed and injured.

Patrol Boat Burns.

New Orleans, La.—At the height of a storm on Lake Ponchartrain the oyster patrol boat Majestic was struck by lightning and set on fire. The boat was destroyed and the crew had a narrow escape getting away in life boats in heavy seas. They were rescued by another vessel. The Majestic, which is an auxiliary schooner, is owned by the state of Louisiana, and used to regulate the oyster industry.

Frisco Graft Cases.

San Francisco, Cal.—The motion made by the attorneys representing Patrick Calhoun, Thornwell Mullally, T. L. Abbott, E. E. Schmitz, Abram Ruef, Frank Drum, Eugene De Sabla, John Martin and Louis Glass to set aside and dismiss the various bribery indictments against them was denied by Superior Judge Lawlor.

Offer Furniture to Young Couple.

Marysville, Kan.—The merchants of Emmett, a new town southwest of here, are offering presents of furniture to couples under 25 years of age who marry before January 1, 1908, and settle within the town limits. Emmett is prospering, has a bank, a newspaper and a school house, but it needs more citizens.

Whole Family Drown.

Albuquerque, N. W.—News has just reached here that Mrs. Louisa Hill Carabajal, wife of a farmer, and seven children were drowned in a flood resulting from heavy rains in Alamo creek, Sierra county, last Friday night. The flood caused damage estimated at $60,500.

Demands of Postal Clerks.

Indianapolis, Ind.—The National Federation of Postoffice Clerks was addressed Monday by President Perkins, of the State Federation of Labor, and State Labor Commissioner George Purcell. The convention is furthering a movement for an eight-hour day, a vacation of thirty days, a pension and a maximum salary of $1,200.

Clark to Act as Arbitrator.

Denver, Colo.—Interstate Commerce Commissioner E. E. Clark has agreed to act as arbitrator of wage dispute between the western railway wage earners and the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen. He will hear both sides between September 10 and 16.

Wreck Kills Five.

Charleston, W. Va.—The Chesapeake and Ohio local train No. 6 was derailed a mile below Kanawaha Falls, thirty-one miles from this city. Five persons were killed and eleven injured.

Building Collapses.

Paducah, Ky.—The American Express Company building has collapsed A. J. Ingersoll, agent for the American Express Company, was caught in the debris, and it required more than two hours to drag him out. He was not badly injured. Three other attaches of the office escaped uninjured.

Unless you want to engage in immediate activities, don't criticise a woman's husband.

WORKING HOURS REDUCED CONSIDERABLY

Provisions too are Higher Than Heretofore

BUYING IS ABOUT EQUAL

More Workers Are Employed—The Cost of Food Grew 2.9 per Cent, While Wages Were 4.5 Per Cent Higher.

Washington, D. C.—The annual investigation of the bureau of labor into wages and the retail prices of food, the report on which has just been placed in the hands of the printer, shows that in the principal manufacturing and mechanical industries of the country average wages per hour in 1906 were 4.5 per cent higher than in 1905, the regular hours of labor per week 0.5 per cent lower, and the number of employes in the establishments investigated was 7 per cent greater. The average full-time weekly earnings per employe in 1906 were 3.9 per cent greater than in 1905.

During 1906 wages were increased generally in nearly all industries, forty of the forty-one industries covered by the investigation showing some increase. The greatest increase was in the manufacture of cotton goods, where the average wages per hour in 1906 were 11.2 per cent higher than in 1905. In the manufacture of electrical apparatus and supplies the increase was 10.1 per cent. In street and sewer work done by contract the increase was 8.7 per cent; in iron and steel, Bessemer converting, 8.5 per cent, and in the manufacture of cigars, 8.4 per cent. In the manufacture of bar iron the increase in wages per hour was 6.9 per cent, and in the building trades 6.1 per cent. Briefly stated, two industries showed an increase in hourly wages of more than 10 per cent, seven industries an increase of 5 per cent, but less than 10 per cent, and thirty-one industries an increase of not less than 5 per cent. In one industry—paper and wood pulp—there was a decrease of 1.1 per cent. In the industries as a whole, weighted according to importance, the increase in hourly wages was 4.5 per cent.

The fact should be borne in mind that these figures apply only to wage-workers in manufacturing and mechanical industries and do not show conditions so far as salaried employes are concerned.

The retail prices of food, weighted according to consumption in representative workingmen's families, were 2.9 per cent higher in 1906 than in 1905. As the advance in wages per hour from 1905 to 1906 was greater than the advance in the retail prices of food, the purchasing power of an hour's wages, as measured by food, was greater in 1906 than in the preceding year. In 1906 the purchasing power of an hour's wages as expended for food was 1.4 per cent greater than in 1905, and the purchasing power of a full week's wages was 1 per cent greater in 1906 than in 1905, or, in other words, an hour's wages in 1906 in the manufacturing and mechanical industries of the United States would purchase 1.4 per cent more food than an hour's wages in 1905, and a full week's wages in 1906 would purchase 1 per cent more food than a full week's wages in 1905.

As compared with the average for the ten-year period, 1890 to 1899, the average wages per hour in 1906 were 24.2 per cent higher, the number of employes in the establishments investigated was 42.9 per cent greater, and the average hours of labor per week were 4.6 per cent lower. The average earnings per employe per full week in 1906 were 18.5 per cent higher than the average earnings per full week during the ten years, 1890 to 1899.

The retail price of the principal articles of food weighted according to family consumption of the various articles, was 15.7 per cent higher in 1906 than the average price for the ten years, 1890 to 1899. Compared with the average for the same ten-year period, the purchasing power of an hour's wages in 1906, as measure, was 7.3 per cent greater, and of a full week's wages 2.4 per cent greater, the increase in the purchasing power of the full week's wages being less than the increase in the purchasing power of hourly wages because of the reduction in the hours of labor.

Chinese Banished.

Vancouver, B. C.—A riot occurred here, in which 2,000 Chinese were driven from their homes and $100,000 worth of property destroyed. Lieutenant-Governor Dunsmuir, of British Columbia, was burned in effigy by 10,000 laboring men at the close of a parade and anti-Oriental demonstration. The police were unable to quell the rioters or make any arrests for a time, when they got control of the situation.

Vets at Saratoga.

Saratoga, N. Y.—Notwithstanding the fact that the railroads of the west refused to make any material reduction in the fare to Saratoga, veterans are pouring in from many sections of the country. Every train brings in many veterans for the forty-first reunion of the Grand Army of the Republic. Every train brings them from Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois, the New England states and many others.

ARLINGTON HOTEL BURNS.

People Fight for Their Lives Among the Flames.

New York.—Trapped by flames in the fashionable Arlington Hotel at No. 622 and 624 Montague street, Brooklyn, forty families, comprising 150 persons, fought desperately for their lives in smoke-filled hallways and rooms, and many of them were overcome. Nearly all those who collapsed were women.

Firemen braved death to reach them, and fifty were found when the flames were within a few feet of them. They were carried down ladders, fire escapes and blazing stairways. A policeman picked up two women on the sixth floor. He carried them to the second floor and then climbed out upon a wall. Here one of them regained consciousness, became hysterical and leaped out of his grasp. She was severely injured. The upper floors of the apartment were wrecked, and many tenants there lost all of their belongings, including large sums of money and valuable jewelry.

BOY LOSES LIFE IN LIFE.

Office of Charlotte Observer Badly Damaged.

Charlotte, N. C.—Fire broke out at 130 o'clock in the matrix room on the third floor of the mechanical section, or printing building, of the Charlotte Observer, smothered a boy to death, destroyed the entire second and third floors and injured to some extent the machinery and demolished the composition room.

The paper will not be able to resume business or publication of its paper at its plant for some time. The gotiations are about completed for the use of another plant, which was tendered its temporary use. It is not known just how the fire started, but it is supposed that George Wilson, a deaf and dumb boy, an employe of the Observer building, in some manner dropped a match, which resulted in the destruction of the paper. From where the fire started it is believed he was seeking a comfortable place.

The greatest loss is to the bindery, located on the fourth floor, which was completely destroyed.

WANT MORE MEN.

The Telegraphers Want to Call Out Everybody.

Chicago, Ill.—A meeting was held Monday night by the members of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union to consider the calling out of the operators employed in the brokers and newspaper offices of this city and the men working on leased wires.

Sunday a petition was in circulation among the members of the organization demanding that the officers call out these men regardless of the existence of contracts or agreements signed since the commencement of the strike.

The petition says in effect that the signers deem it necessary "that every member of the union be called upon to cease work immediately notwithstanding any contract that has been signed, believing that any contract made that compels one brother to quit work to the disadvantage of another is better broken than kept."

SOLDIERS ATTACK A JAIL.

Repulsed in a Hurry by Guards, Who Fired on Them.

Junction City, Kan.—A mob of nearly fifty soldiers from Fort Riley came here for the purpose of releasing a comrade who was confined in the county jail. The sheriff and city police force were notified of their coming, and from positions in windows above the jail opened a fire that quickly dispersed the mob as it sought to force an entrance.

The authorities at Fort Riley placed guards at the jail and are aiding in the effort to find the members of the mob. Two arrests have been made.

THREE LIVES LOST.

White Woman and Two Negresses Cremated at Cleveland Springs.

Shelby Springs, N. C.—Cleveland Springs Hotel was totally destroyed by fire.

Two negroes, women servants employed in the laundry, and a white woman registered as Mrs. Cora Smith, of Ellenboro, N. C., were burned to death.

The hotel was a four-story brick building, with frame annex, worth $20,000. The property was insured for about one-half of its value.

Steamer on 'Frisco Rocks.

San Francisco, Cal.—The steamer San Gabriel, which sailed from San Pedro for Ventura, ran ashore one mile north of Point Reyes during a heavy fog. It is believed the vessel will be a total loss. The San Gabriel carries a crew of fifteen men. She is in command of Captain Green, who preceded Captain Doran, of the ill-fated Columbia.

Two Hundred Doomed in a Mine.

San Antonio, Tex.—Two hundred men are believed to be doomed in Las Esperanzas mine, Mexico, where they are cut off by flames following an explosion, and the only hope is for aid to reach them soon. The rescue party so far has made little headway against the flames. The explosion was caused by fire damp, which is believed to have killed twenty-seven. At least 150 were injured, and many rescued will not recover.

COWBOYS' TEA

United States Loses Play to the Weird West.

The United States [illegible] played havoc with [illegible] Texas. The life-long [illegible] cowboys have been [illegible] an innocent looking [illegible] issued recently by the [illegible] contains the analysis of [illegible] cuts that are in general [illegible] among them a popular [illegible] ing tobacco, which [illegible] sacks, and is popular [illegible] Southwest. When "Jim" [illegible] in from his ranch to get [illegible] other day, he found this [illegible] postoffice box, says a Utah [illegible] respondent of "The Kansas [illegible] It had been sent to him by [illegible] friend, Major "Mose" Harris, [illegible] Antonio, Deputy United States [illegible] revenue collector for the district. Major Harris had written upon a [illegible] leaf of the pamphlet:

"This will tell you what [illegible] stuff we have been smoking."

Belford took the pamphlet [illegible] the store and glanced through [illegible] his order for ranch supplies was [illegible] filled. Under the heading of [illegible] of tobacco which was [illegible] most every man in this region [illegible] alysis was given as follows: [illegible] 27 percent; alfalfa, 63 percent; [illegible] 6 percent; opium, 1 percent; [illegible] percent.

Could it be true that [illegible] smoking alfalfa—to say [illegible] arsenic and opium? He [illegible] alysis over a second time, [illegible] arose and walked over to the [illegible] where the storekeeper was [illegible] up the goods he had bought.

"Bill, put me up about three [illegible] of alfalfa, mixed with arsenic [illegible] opium and a little tobacco [illegible] he ordered.

"Bill" stared at Belford [illegible] ment.

"What's the matter of you, [illegible] know I don't keep any of that [illegible] on sale, except tobacco," he [illegible] did have a few bales of alfalfa [illegible] here last summer, but it didn't [illegible] me to carry it, so I quit."

"Oh, yes, you do sell alfalfa [illegible] and you have got them in stock [illegible] now," Belford quietly replied.

The imputation that he [illegible] know what was contained in [illegible] of goods angered Jennings, [illegible] outcome might have resulted [illegible] what seriously had the argument [illegible] pursued much longer.

"I want you to read this document," [illegible] Belford said. "It's from Washington [illegible] and is official."

Jennings read the tobacco [illegible] and announced forthwith that [illegible] not believe a word of it. It took [illegible] ford some little time to convince [illegible] that the analysis had been [illegible] made and must be correct.

"What am I going to do with [illegible] stuff I have on hand?" inquired [illegible] nings.

"Judging from the amount [illegible] fa in it, it ought to make good [illegible] feed," Belford suggested. "You're [illegible] in luck if you ain't mobbed by [illegible] the cowboys when they learn [illegible] have been selling them alfalfa [illegible] senic and other things in their [illegible] tobacco."

The first thing that attracted [illegible] ford's attention that evening [illegible] he rode up to his ranch [illegible] bunch of his cowboys sitting [illegible] board gate, each with a rolled [illegible] in his mouth and the string [illegible] bacco sack hanging out of [illegible] pocket. They were the very [illegible] contentment as they puffed [illegible] wreaths of smoke from their [illegible] Belford rode up in front of [illegible] silently looked them over for [illegible] ute. Should he break the [illegible] them? Would it not be best [illegible] continue in ignorance of the [illegible] stuff they were smoking? He [illegible] thought of the arsenic and [illegible] and decided to tell them about [illegible]

"You are a nice set of boys," [illegible] he said, by way of a beginning [illegible]

The cowboys looked at him [illegible] prise.

"It's a wonder every one of [illegible] me along with you, have not [illegible] coed from using arsenic and [illegible] he continued.

The cowboys were astounded [illegible] time. They demanded to know [illegible] he meant by his insults.

"I mean that that tobacco [illegible] we've all been smoking is made [illegible] falfa, arsenic and opium, and [illegible] the document here to prove it."

Mr. Belford then read the [illegible] of the tobacco from his seat [illegible] die. When he had finished the [illegible] boys solemnly threw away their [illegible] arettes and emptied their [illegible] bacco upon the ground.—[illegible] Tribune.

Mental Medicine.

A somewhat eccentric [illegible] who recently died would [illegible] tients to take walks, say, [illegible] left side of the street, [illegible] the other side; another [illegible] der to arise each morning [illegible] tain hour and eat cheese [illegible] beer; another to take [illegible] cisely at midnight, and eat [illegible] ples; or he would instruct [illegible] tient to put just so many [illegible] salt on the egg he was to eat, [illegible] his hair in a different way [illegible] His object was to get the [illegible] patient on something else [illegible] time, and this scheme worked [illegible] many cases, especially where [illegible] tient was suffering from [illegible] —New York Times.

In Belgium all ewes [illegible] months old are to be sent [illegible] rings. Breeders are obliged [illegible] a record of all cattle [illegible] and each animal has a [illegible] number, which is registered [illegible] fastened to its ear.

ALABAMA HAPPENINGS AS TERSELY TOLD

Items of Interest to Dwellers of The State.

THE STATE'S EVENTS CONDENSED

Auburn Tech Has 400 Students—Child Dies in Gaboon—Tries Suicide Pistol—Killed by Falling From Train.

People Were at the Picnic.

Several thousand people from Bibb, Chilton, Perry and Autauga gathered at Maplesville on Friday to partake of the great barbecue that was served an likewise to listen to the speeches and enjoy the sports that were made. Among the speakers were Commissioner of Agriculture J. A. Wilkinson, Senator H. E. Riddle, Prof. B. B. Ross and others. The day's interest centered in the address delivered by C. L. Hill an expert of the national department of forestry. The many methods whereby the pine could be preserved with the result that they would last twenty years instead of twelve months.

Suicide.

Ended with a terrible murder and suicide of the annoyance due to his alleged confession, which implicated a close friend in the murder of Joe Hall, the young engineer at the South Highland plant some months ago. John Gadsen, a youth confined in the county jail, by the suicide route. That morning he broke down and told the guard that he could not continue to endure present predicament and begged him to take his own life. The guard said to have put up a pitiful plea for some weapon or drug with which he could end his life and trouble. The result is that a closer watch will be kept over Huett, as he is considered as extremely desperate in his present condition.

Preached in the Saloons.

The good people of Sand Mountain have made a church out of the old saloon stand near Boaz, and a revival is now in progress, which already resulted in thirty converts. The meeting has been so successful that a big tent has been set up alongside the building and a big meeting is now in full swing. The recent legislature put two saloons out of business at Mountainboro and Boaz, and the church people immediately seized the Mountainboro building for religious purposes and have had a success of it. Now the second saloon has been converted to the same use. It is an interesting fact that a year ago these two saloons, only a mile apart, were in a church-less community, and for that reason the three-mile law could not be applied to them.

Fair Is Open.

The Seventh District Agricultural Fair at Albertville opened the season of 1907-08 Tuesday morning with the largest opening attendance in the history of the school. Already the enrollment has very nearly reached the 400 mark, and every train into town is bringing numbers of pupils from a distance who are coming to attend the fair. President Hobby and his efficient corps of teachers are very much pleased over the prospects of the fair. The Albertville public school will be closed on Tuesday also, but after organization was perfected the school will be dismissed till next week, when the new building, which is now undergoing repairs, will be completed. That day will also opened with a large attendance, and this promises to be a banner years for the schools of Albertville.

Passing of Landmark.

The Jefferson Davis home in Montgomery, the residence occupied by the first president of the Confederacy, is being remodeled into a modern boarding house. It is owned by E. D. Rabb, of LaGrange, Ga., and will be left as nearly as it was as possible, so far as architecture goes. The building is one of the business streets of Montgomery and has long been allowed to fall into bad repair. Mr. Davis and family occupied the home during the time the Confederate capital was in Montgomery.

Killed His Brother-in-Law.

In a shotgun duel last Wednesday afternoon near Fort Deposit C. H. Harris shot and instantly killed his brother-in-law, John W. Harris. Price Harris is one of the best known men in the place, and Harris was equally well known. The tragedy occurred at the home of Priester, which is just outside of Fort Deposit. Priester did not shoot until Harris had discharged his gun twice at his brother-in-law.

Loss, of Course.

The Attalla Ice and Supply Company, which recently completed an up-to-date plant in that city, is now making ice regularly and has put on several wagons in Gadsden. This will be good news to Gadsen people, as there has been an ice famine there all summer. The new company gets its supply of water from springs and claims to produce a very superior quality of ice for domestic use.

BURNS.

...ves Among

... flames in ...Hotel at No. ...reet, Brook... ...sing 150 per... ...r their lives ...and rooms, ...overcome. ...apsed were

... to reach ...l when the ...w feet of ...l down lad... ...ing stair... ...t up two ...He carried ...and then ...lete one of ...as became ...his grasp. ...The upper ...e wrecked ...all of their ...e sums of ... LIFE.

...rver Badly

...ake out at ...on on the ...ast section ...Charlotte ...to death ...d all third ...extent the ...the compo...

...able to re... ...tion of its ...e time. The ...ected for the ...ch was ten... ...It is not ...arted, but it ...ilson, a deaf ...e of the Ob... ...ne manner ...resulted in ...per. From ...believed he ...ne place ...the bindery, ...r, which was ...EN.

...to Call Out

...g was held ...bers of the ... Union to ...f the opera... ...rokers and ...city and the ...tires. ... in circula... ...of the organ... ...e officers call ...of the exist... ...ments signed ...of the strike ...ect that the ...that every ...called upon ...ely notwith... ...at has been ...my contract ...rother to quit ...e of another

...A JAIL.

...Guards, Who ...on. ...mob of near... ...Riley came ...releasing a ...ned in the ...and city po... ...of their com... ...in windows ...a fire that ...h as it sought

...Riley placed ...are aiding in ...mbers of the ...been made

...LOST.

...wo Negresses ...d Springs. ...(—Cleveland ...lly destroyed

...servants em... ...and a white ...s Cora Smith, ...e burned to ...ur-story brick ...ex, worth $20,... ...insured for ...lue.

...o Rocks. ...The steamer ...led from San ...ashore one ...yes during a ...ed the vessel ...e San Gabriel ...men. She is ...n Green, who ...n, of the ill-

...d in a Mine. ...Two hundred ...doomed in Las ...o, where they ...llowing an ex... ...ope is for aid ...he rescue party ...ttle headway ...explosion was ...Sch is believed ...even. At least ...many rescued

COWBOYS' TOBACCO.

United States Laws Play ... the Weird Minuets.

The United States pure food ... played havoc with tobacco ... Texas. The life-long habits of cowboys have been revolutionized ... an innocent looking little ... issued recently by the government ... contains the analysis of various ... ucts that are in general use ... among them a popular brand of ... ing tobacco, which comes in ... sacks, and is popular throughout ... Southwest. When "Jim" Belford ... in from his ranch to get his mail ... other day, he found this package ... postoffice box, says a Uvalde (Tex.) ... respondent of "The Kansas City ... It had been sent to him by a ... friend, Major "More" Harris, ... Antonio, Deputy United States ... revenue collector for the district. ... jor Harris had written upon the ... leaf of the pamphlet:

"This will tell you what ... stuff we have been smoking."

Belford took the pamphlet ... the store and glanced through it ... his order for ranch supplies was ... filled. Under the heading of the ... of tobacco which was smoked ... most every man in this region ... alysis was given as follows: ... 27 percent; alfalfa, 63 percent; ... 6 percent, opium, 1 percent; ... percent.

Could it be true that he had ... smoking alfalfa—to say nothing ... arsenic and opium? He read the ... alysis over a second time. Then ... arose and walked over to the ... where the storekeeper was ... up the goods he had bought.

"Bill, put me up about three ... of alfalfa, mixed with arsenic, ... opium and a little tobacco that ... he ordered.

"Bill" stared at Belford in ... ment.

"What's the matter of you, Jim? ... know I don't keep any of them ... on sale, except tobacco," he ... did have a few bales of alfalfa ... here last summer, but it did ... me to carry it, so I quit."

"Oh, yes, you do sell all of ... and you have got them in stock ... now," Belford quietly replied.

The imputation that he did ... know what was contained in his ... of goods angered Jennings, and ... outcome might have resulted in ... what seriously had the argument ... pursued much longer.

"I want you to read this document," ... Belford said. "It's from Washington ... and is official."

Jennings read the tobacco ... and announced forthwith that he ... not believe a word of it. It took ... ford some little time to convince ... that the analysis had been ... made and must be correct.

"What am I going to do with the ... stuff I have on hand?" inquired ... nings.

"Judging from the amount of ... fa in it, it ought to make good ... feed," Belford suggested. "You ... in luck if you ain't mobbed by ... the cowboys when they hear that ... have been selling them alfalfa ... senic and other things in the ... tobacco."

The first thing that attracted ... ford's attention that evening ... he rode up to his ranch corral ... bunch of his cowboys sitting ... board gate, each with a rolled ... in his mouth and the strings ... bacco sack hanging out of ... pocket. They were the very ... contentment as they puffed ... wreaths of smoke from their ... Belford rode up in front of ... silently looked them over for a ... ute. Should he break the ... them? Would it not be best to ... continue in ignorance of the ... stuff they were smoking? ... thought of the arsenic and ... and decided to tell them about ...

"You are a nice set of hayb... he said, by way of a beginning ... prise.

The cowboys looked at him ... "It's a wonder every one of ... me along with you, have not ... ced from using arsenic and ... he continued.

The cowboys were aroused ... time. They demanded to know ... he meant by his insults.

"I mean that that tobacco ... we've all been smoking is made ... alfa, arsenic and opium, and I ... the document here to prove it."

Mr. Belford then read the ... of the tobacco from his seat in ... die. When he had finished the ... boys solemnly threw away their ... arettes and emptied their sacks ... bacco upon the ground.—New ... Tribune.

Mental Medicine.

A somewhat eccentric ... who recently died would order ... tients to take walks, say, daily, ... left side of the street, return ... the other side; another he would ... der to arise each morning at a ... tain hour and eat cheese with ... beer; another to take exercise ... cisely, at midnight, and eat ... ples; or he would instruct a ... tient to put just so many grains ... salt on the egg he was to eat, or ... his hair in a different way each ... His object was to get the mind ... patient on something else than ... toms, and this scheme worked ... many cases, especially when ... tient was suffering from mel... —New York Times.

In Belgium all cows ... months old are to be given ... rings. Breeders are obliged ... a record of all cattle raised ... and each animal has a registered ... number, which is engraved on ... fastened to its ...

...RNIA HAPPENINGS AS TERSELY TOLD

...of Interest to Dwellers of The State.

...'S EVENTS CONDENSED

...n Tech Has 400 Students—... in Saloons—Tries Suicide, ...Fails—Killed by Falling From ...

...People Were at the Picnic.

...thousand people from Bibb, ...Chilton, Perry and Autauga ...gathered at Maplesville on ...y to partake of the great bar... ...that was served an likewise to ...to the speeches and emonstra... ...that were made. Among the ...y were Commissioner of Agri... ...J. A. Wilkinson, Senator H. E. ...lis, Prof B. B. Ross and others. ...day's interest centered in the ...eration by C. L. Hill, an expert ...the national department of for... ...of the easy methods whereby ...old pine could be preserved with ...e that they would last twenty ...instead of twelve months.

...Suicide.

...harged with a terrible murder and ...of the annoyance due to his al... ...confession, which implicated a ...friend in the murder of Joe ...the young engineer at the South... ...steel plant some months ago, John ..., a youth confined in the county ...at Gadsden, is seeking to end his ...r by the suicide route. Thurs... ...morning he broke down and told ...ailer that he could not continue ...present predicament and begged ...ans to take his own life. The ...is said to have put up a pitiful ...for some weapon or drug with ...he could end his life and trou... The result is that a closer watch ...now be kept over Huett, as he is ...ded as extremely desperate in ...present condition.

...Preached in the Saloons.

...good people of Sand Mountain ...made a church out of the old ...saloon stand near Boaz, and a ...vival is now in progress, which ...already resulted in thirty conver... ...The meeting has been so suc... ...that a big tent has been set ...alongside the building and a ...meeting is now in full swing. ...recent legislature put two saloons ...of business at Mountainboro and ..., and the church people immedi... ...seized the Mountainboro build... ...for religious purposes and have ...a success of it. Now the second ...ing has been converted to the ...use. It is an interesting fact ...a year ago these two saloons, ...a mile apart, were in a church... ...community, and for that reason ...three-mile law could not be ap... ...to them.

...ols Open.

...The Seventh District Agricultural ...ool at Albertville opened the sea... ...of 1907-08 Tuesday morning with ...largest opening attendance in the ...ory of the school. Already the en... ...ment has very nearly reached the ...mark, and every train into town ...ringing numbers of pupils from a ...ance who are coming to attend ...l. President Hobdy and his effi... ...al corps of teachers are very much ...ified over the prospects of the ...ol. The Albertville public school ...ned on Tuesday also, but after or... ...ation was perfected the school ...dismissed till next week, when ...building, which is now undergoing ...airs, will be completed. That ...ol also opened with a large at... ...dance, and this promises to be a ...ner years for the schools of Albert...

...ng of Landmark.

...The Jefferson Davis home in Mont... ...ery, the residence occupied by the ...president of the Confederacy, is ...ng remodeled into a modern board... ...house. It is owned by E. D. Rob... ...of LaGrange, Ga., and will be left ...nearly as it was as possible, so far ...architecture goes. The building is ...one of the business streets of Mont... ...ery and has long been allowed to ...fall into bad repair. Mr. Davis and ...family occupied the home during ...time the Confederate capital was ...Montgomery.

...d His Brother-in-Law.

...In a shotgun duel last Wednesday ...ternoon near Fort Deposit C. H. ...Priester shot and instantly killed his ...brother-in-law, John W. Harris. Pries... ...is one of the best known men in ...place, and Harris was equally ...known. The tragedy occurred at ...home of Priester, which is just ...side of Fort Deposit. Priester did ...shoot until Harris had discharged ...gun twice at his brother-in-law.

...ke Ice, of Course.

...The Attalla Ice and Supply Com... ..., which recently completed an up... ...date plant in that city, is now mak... ...ice regularly and has put on sev... ...wagons in Gadsden. This will be ...d news to Gadsen people, as there ...been an ice famine there all sum... ...The new company gets its sup... ...of water from springs and claims ...produce a very superior quality of ...for domestic use.

Many Cases Are Tried.

Circuit court adjourned at Centerville Friday afternoon after a strenuous session of three weeks. The record made at this term of the court was probably the most remarkable in the history of judicial proceedings in the state of Alabama. At the beginning of the term there were ninety-four civil cases and eighty-six criminal cases on the docket. During the term sixty-four civil cases were finally disposed of and thirty civil cases continued. Sixty-six criminal cases were finally tried and twenty left on the docket. Eleven defendants were sentenced to hard labor for the county and three were sent to the penitentiary.

A New Lake.

The fresh water lake being constructed in Attalla near the Alabama Great Southern depot is nearing completion, and will soon be a source of pleasure to Attalla residents. It is fed by several bold springs and will be an exceedingly attractive little body of water. It will be 400 feet long and something over a hundred feet wide. It is seven feet deep, and with the pure spring water will be clear as a crystal. The lake is surrounded by a concrete wall, and outside of this will be a driveway. The Messrs. Brown are spending some $7,000 or $8,000 in its construction.

Gadsden's Schools Open.

The first week of Gadsden's public schools ended with an enrollment of even 1,400 pupils. There are an even 1,100 pupils in the white schools and upwards of 300 in the colored section. The superintendent says indications are that the attendance will largely exceed that of last year. With the new building there is ample room for white children, but in the negro building there is a litteral jam.

Copper Plant Burns.

A spectacular fire shortly after 1 o'clock Saturday morning destroyed the valuable sheet copper plant of the Alabama Copper Company in North Montgomery, entailing a loss which it is believed may amount to $50,000. It is believed fire insurance was carried by the company. None of the officials of the company were at the scene of the fire. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Two Children Killed by Lightning.

Thursday afternoon at the home of Lewis Taylor, eight miles from Elba, lightning killed two 7-year-old children. The children, a little boy and girl, were playing on the front veranda of the Taylor home, when the lightning struck them, death being instantaneous. One of the children was a child of Mr. Taylor, and the other was his grandchild. Their Christian names are not learned.

Alabama Tech Has 400 Students.

The Alabama Polytechnic Institute opened its doors at Auburn Wednesay with about 400 applicants on hand. It is thought the enrollment will reach 600 this week. Two-thirds of those present are new students. The new dormitory, to cost about $30,000, will be given to contractors in a few days. It is needed to accommodate the cadets, as the town can furnish room for not more than 600.

Heavy Sentence Is Given.

J. T. Nichols, who claimed to be the agent of a New York accident company, was convicted in the law and equity court at Huntsville on three charges of obtaining money under false pretences and sentenced to hard labor for the county for 661 days. Nichols was recently arrested in Atlanta for the Huntsville authorities and was brought to Huntsville a few days ago.

Broke Up Church With Antics.

Deputy Sheriff John Lister, of Gadsden, arrested five young men on warrants charging them with aggravated disorder at Mt. Pisgah church, on Lookout Mountain, the offense having been committed last Sunday, and if the allegations be true they are in serious trouble.

Killed by Train at Bessemer.

With his head evidently pillowed on his arm, resting on the railroad track at Bessemer, Robert L. Giddings took his last sleep. He was run over by the wrecker on the Alabama Great Southern railroad and his head completely severed from his body.

Killed by Hot Pot.

An unknown white man was run over by a hot pot at Sloss furnace, Birmingham, and literally torn to pieces. Nothing except his head Merrill Loses Out.

The damage suit of S. P. Merrill against the Sheffield Railway Company for $5,000 came to a close in Florence when the jury returned a verdict for the defendant.

Sylacauga's First Bale.

Sylacauga received its first bale of cotton for this season Friday. It was raised by Alto Merkle near town, and weighed 461 pounds, and sold for 13 cents to Smith Bros.

Found Dead in Creek.

The dead body of Wilford Sanders, a well known young white man, was found in a creek near Teanille, 17 miles from here.

BRYCE INSANE ASYLUM COMMITTEE FINISHES

Institution One of the Greatest in the South

NOT ENOUGH MONEY SPENT

Committee Thinks Appropriation Is Too Small—Should be $4 per Week per Patient—We Give a Synopsis of the Report.

Montgomery.—The report of the Bryce Insane Asylum investigation commission was finised Saturday afternoon at Montgomery. It is pithy, but while it makes some sensational charges of cruel and inhuman treatment in certain cases, it says that the commission is of the opinion that the institution is one of the greatest and most valuable of its kind in the South, and indeed a place where the people may carefully entrust their afflicted and unfortunate.

The most sensational feature of the report is the recommendation that the grand jury o. Tuscaloosa county further investigate with a view of returning indictments against the parties charged with the unlawful killing of Hines and Cornelius. Hines was the son of the sheriff of Lauderdale county and the people of that county, as well as the whole northern part of Alabama, are said to be very much wrought up over his death.

The report criticizes the state for only allowing the sum of $3 per week for each patient, and recommends that this amount be increased to $ per week. It also states that while the food at the time of the investigation appeared to be sufficient, still from testimony given by reliable witnesses—patients and nurses—it has not always been so. The employing of a large number of ignorant nurses is also criticized.

The report starts off with the charge that the institution is made the dumping ground for the old, feeble and decrepit men and women afflicted with some mental and all sorts of physical ailments, and classed as "indigent insane." It states that there are several hundred of these patients at the hospital who should be taken back to the different almshouses throughout the state, thereby relieving the congested condition of the hospital.

TELEGRAPHERS TO BE FARMERS.

Lots of Them Have Gone West to Try Their Hand at That Business.

Chicago, Ill.—A delegation of union farmers have been in Chicago seeking to hire 2,000 striking telegraphers as farm hands in Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota and Kansas. The allurements of fresh union eggs and butter was what the farmers held out to the strikers, together with an offer of $35 a month and "board," and resulted in many of the operators accepting the invitation.

At union headquarters it was said that between 100 and 200 strikers will leave for the farms in a few days. This will leave less than 1,000 operators idle in the city.

W. C. Crawley, state organizer of the Farmers' Union, is the "good angel" of the strikers. Mr. Crawley called on Secretary Wesley Russell, of the Telegraphers' Union, first and received an endorsement of his scheme from that official. He, too, proceeded to enlist a number of operators.

TYPEWRITER TRUST.

Schwab, Guggenheim, Whitney and Ryan Reported Back of It.

New York.—The possibility that there is to be a typewriter trust has been made public by the Herald. A new company, with Allan Ryan, son of Thomas F. Ryan, as president, has been formed, it is stated, in which Charles M. Schwab, the Guggenheims, Harry Payne Whitney, the Ryans and other capitalists are interested. The royalties of typewriters is the nucleus of the big enterprise, and, according to rumor, it will endeavor to acquire all the largest typewriter interests in this country and will also try to obtain control of the business all over the world.

A new factory, the largest in the world, is being built in Hartford, Conn.

Fifty Injured.

Temple, Tex.—Fifty people were injured at Holland Saturday afternoon when the boiler in a gin owned by Sam H. Barton exploded. Sam Hill and Blake Barton were seriously injured. All are sons of the owner of the gin. Blake Barton is not expected to live. There were hundreds of wagons waiting to have cotton handled, and farmers from all over the county were at the gin.

Head of the Postal Clerks.

Peoria, Ill.—Frank T. Rogers, of Chicago, was re-elected president of the National Postal Clerks' Association, defeating John J. Fitzgerald, of Paterson, N. J. During the coming session of congress the association will fight for an eight-hour law, a thirty days' vacation yearly and fifteen days' sick leave annually, and also for promotions above the $1,100 a year limit now set.

COTTON 15 CENTS.

Cotton Association Adopts Price Fixed by Farmers' Union.

Jackson, Miss.—After adopting minor changes in the constitution and by-laws of the organization, the executive committee of the Southern Cotton Association adjourned Saturday. The most imprirtant action of the two days' session was the fixing of the minimum cotton price at 15 cents per pound and $20 per ton for cotton seed.

A committee was appointed to confer with manufacturers in an effort to have the seed market open at $20 if possible.

President Harvie Jordan, Organizer Smith and President Walter Clark, of the Mississippi division, were appointed a committee to arrange an itinerary for a tour of the cotton belt to arouse enthusiasm in the work of the association. Madison county was selected as the site of an experiment station of the organization.

TRYING TO STOP PLAGUE.

Board of Supervisors May Burn the County Hospital.

San Francisco, Cal.—The board of health has recommended to the board of supervisors that the city and county hospital, which has sheltered a number of plague cases, be burned. The supervisors called a meeting to decide as to what action to be taken. The city and county hospital is a collection of frame buildings, and it has long been planned to demolish it.

The announcement that the marine hospital service is to take charge of the plague situation is regarded here as an assurance that the progress of the disease will be stopped in short order.

BRIDE WAITS IN VAIN.

Her Sweetheart Is Killed on His Way to the Wedding.

Nacogdoches, Tex.—D. D. Owen, a prominent young man of this county, was murdered at Linn Flats near here, while his fiance, Miss Wilkerson, clad in wedding garments, awaited him at her father's home.

The guests after waiting over an hour organized a searching party, and on the way to the young man's home found his dead body, still warm, with a rope tied about his neck. A negro who was trying to sell the victim's horse was arrested a few hours later several miles from the scene.

NO STRIKE IN LOUISVILLE.

Street Cars Running as Usual on Settlement Credited to the Mayor.

Louisville, Ky.—The threatened strike of the employes of the Louisville Railway Company, which was believed to be inevitable, has been averted, for the present at least, and the cars are running as usual.

The credit for the settlement of the situation belongs to Mayor Bingham. Mr. Bingham secured the promise of representatives of the company at a conference held in his office to give the union men further assurances that no discrimination will be made against them. This was agreed to in writing, and placards will be posted to that effect by the railway company.

WRECK ON SEABOARD.

Five Persons Are Injured by Derailment of Train.

Helena, Ga.—By the derailment of an eastbound Seaboard Air Line passenger train at Wilcox creek, one mile from here, five persons were seriously injured and many others slightly cut and bruised.

The entire train, with the exception of the engine and rear coach, left the track and went into the creek. All the cars except the first-class coach, which was left standing on the brink of the trestle, were demolished. The cause of the accident has not yet been ascertained.

Highway Robbery by Two Women.

New York.—Charged with highway robbery, two young women were arraigned in Jefferson court. They were accused of having held up Walter P. Hatch, a wealthy manufacturer. According to Mr. Hatch, he was walking through Madison avenue when at Fortieth street he passed two women. The next instant he was seized from behind. One of the women blindfolded him and held him about the neck, and the other went through his pockets, securing his pocketbook and card case.

Two Cholera Deaths.

Berlin.—Two deaths from cholera are announced from villages adjacent to Sosnowice, just across the Silesian frontier in Russian Poland.

Weyler Writes Memoirs.

Madrid.—General Weyler has finished writing his memoirs of the time when he was governor-general of Cuba, according to an announcement just issued.

Six Blown to Pieces.

Rostoff-on-Don.—Six men were blown to pieces here by the accidental discharge of two bombs which they were carrying through the streets.

Lewis G. Sells Dead.

Columbus, O.—Lewis G. Sells, last of the four Sells brothers, who owned the circus which in 1899 was united with Adam Forepaugh's show, is dead here, aged 63 years.

State News.

Fifty Thousand Damage.

Fire in the plant of the Lathrop-Hutton timber Company at Riverside early Monday morning damaged the plant to the extent of $50,000. One of the steam engines and crew from the Birmingham fire department was rushed to the scene on a special train and succeeded in saving the planing mill.

Big Watermelon.

N. S. Martin, residing near Leighton, carried to Tuscumbia the largest watermelon of the season, weighing sixty-one pounds. Mr. Martin declined to offer the melon for sale, preferring to preserve the seed for next season's crop. He sold quite a number weighing fifty pounds, however, for which he received 1 cent per pound.

Farmers' Warehouse.

The stockholders of the Farmers' Warehouse Company of Madison county held their second annual meeting, and the reports of the officers showed a gratifying state of affairs. Walter Kelly was re-elected president; J. McCaleb, vice-president; A. G. Proctor, secretary, and Frank Mastin, treasurer and general manager.

Mayor Gets More Salary.

At a meeting of the city council of Tuscumbia the salary of the mayor was increased from $300 to $600 per year. The increase was due to an accumulation of duties by reason of the construction of new sidewalks, street work, supervision of the dispensary, etc., which require an extrordinary amount of attention from the mayor, more than at any time for many years, or perhaps in the history of the city.

Teachers' Meeting.

Thursday the teachers of Fayette, Walker and Marion counties assembled in the public school building at Winfield, Ala., for the purpose of perfecting an organization to be known as the West Alabama Teachers' Institute, and carrying out a program which had been previously arranged by a committee, consisting of representatives from each of the three counties.

Ladies to Assist.

A large number of the ladies of Central Alabama have expressed their willingness to the management of the Central Alabama Fair Association, of Selma, to take charge of the women's department of the fair which will be given by that association during the month of October. To this end several committees of ladies have been appointed, and they have been working hard for several days past to secure exhibits for that department of the fair.

Gadsden Wants Prohibition.

Brooks Lawrence, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Alabama, will fire the opening gun of the prohibition campaign at Gadsden next Sunday. Mr. Lawrence will deliver two sermons and a lecture. He will fill the pulpit of the First Methodist church in the morning and will preach at the First Baptist church at the evening hour. At 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon he will deliver a lecture at the court house, where a meeting has been arranged for the purpose.

Changes at Depot.

Numerous changes have gone into effect at the Southern railway depot in Huntsville. E. A. Hopkins, ticket agent, left for Memphis to enter the city ticket office of the Southern in that city, and is succeeded by Leslie Ennis. W. P. Jacobs, baggage agent, succeeded Mr. Ennis, and Ike Carlisle took the position of Mr. Jacobs. The passenger traffic from this point during the month of August shows an increase of 25 per cent over the corresponding month of last year.

Labor Day at Birmingham.

No pomp or ceremony whatever marked the celebration of Labor Day in the Birmingham district last Monday. On the whole the day passed off very quietly. The labor organizations did not have a parade, as is usually the custom. All the plants were closed down, and during the afternoon every business house in the city closed its doors. Picnics were held at the various amusement parks of Birmingham, and all day the streets were thronged with crowds.

Typesetting Machine on Decatur News

Col. Walter M. Grubbs, editor and proprietor of the Decatur News, will within the next few days make extensive improvements in the News plant. He will add to his office a typesetting machine at an expense of almost $2,000, and will make other improvements in his plant at the cost of several hundred dollars. This will perhaps be the only typesetting machine in Alabama to be used in a weekly newspaper office.

They Want the Road.

A meeting of some of the leading property owners and leading business men of Florence was held to take steps to prevent, if possible, the discontinuance of the Florence branch of the Southern railway. A petition was gotten up and is being circulated, asking that the present service be continued. The petition is being freely signed, and should it fail, the citizens, a large majority of whom oppose the discontinuance of the service, Caught in the Act.

Lady Visitor—I am sorry to see you here, my young friend. You appear to have had a good education.

Convict—Well, madam, I have been through college.

Lady Visitor—Is it possible?

Convict—Yes; that's the reason I'm here. They caught me as I was going through.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Politics unmakes many friendships.

Japan is doing in Corea what she would like to do to the United States, but "dassent."

Plump is what a woman is who would be fat if she were somebody else.

What a girl likes about being engaged is she can do all the things her mother won't let her when she isn't.

THE "TELL-OH" MAN

And One of His Ways.

To call a man a liar seems rude, so we will let the reader select his own term.

Some time ago the Manager of "Collier's Weekly" got very cross with us because we would not continue to advertise in his paper.

We have occasionally been attacked by editors who have tried to force us to advertise in their papers at their own prices, and on their own conditions, failing in which we were to be attacked through their editorial columns. The reader can fit a name to that tribe.

We had understood that the editor of "Collier's" was a wild cat of the Sinclair "jungle bungle" type, a person with curdled gray matter, but it seems strange that the owners would descend to using their editorial columns, yellow as they are, for such rank out and out falsehoods as appear in their issue of July 27th, where the editor goes out of his way to attack us, and the reason will appear tolerably clear to any reader who understands the venom behind it.

We quote in part as follows:—"One widely circulated paragraph labors to induce the impression that Grape-Nuts will obviate the necessity of an operation in appendicitis. This is lying, and, potentially, deadly lying. Similarly, Postum continually makes reference to the endorsements of a 'distinguished physician' or 'a prominent health official,' persons as mythical, doubtless, as they are mysterious."

We do not hesitate to reproduce these mendacious falsehoods in order that it may be made clear to the public what the facts are, and to nail the liar up so that people may have a look at him. If this poor clown knew what produced appendicitis, he might have some knowledge of why the use of Grape-Nuts would prevent it. Let it be understood that appendicitis results from long continued disturbance in the intestines, caused primarily by undigested food, and chiefly by undigested starchy food, such as white bread, potatoes, rice, partly cooked cereals, and such. These lie in the warmth and moisture of the bowels in an undigested state, and decay, generating gases, and irritating the mucous surfaces until, under such conditions, the lower part of the colon and the appendix become involved. Disease sets up, and frequently, of a form known as appendicitis.

Now then, Grape-Nuts food was made by Mr. C. W. Post, after he had an attack of appendicitis, and required some food in which the starch was predigested. No such food existed; from his knowledge of dietetics he perfected the food; made it primarily for his own use, and afterwards introduced it to the public. In this food the starch is transformed by moisture and long-time cooking into a form of sugar, which is easily digested and does not decay in the intestines. It is a practical certainty that when a man has approaching symptoms of appendicitis, the attack can be avoided by discontinuing all food except Grape-Nuts, and by properly washing out the intestines. Most physicians are now acquainted with the facts, and will verify the statement.

Of course, this is all news, and should be an education to the person who writes the editorials for "Collier's," and who should take at least some training before he undertakes to write for the public.

Now as to the references to "a distinguished physician" or "a prominent health official" being "mythical persons." We are here to wager "Collier's Weekly," or any other skeptic or liar, any amount of money they care to name, and which they will cover, that we will produce proof to any Board of Investigators that we have never yet published an advertisement announcing the opinion of a prominent physician or health official on Postum or Grape-Nuts, when we did not have the actual letter in our possession. It can be easily understood that many prominent physicians dislike to have their names made public in reference to any article whatsoever; they have their own reasons, and we respect those reasons, but we never make mention of endorsements unless we have the actual endorsement, and that statement we will back with any amount of money called for.

When a journal wilfully prostitutes its columns, to try and harm a reputable manufacturer in an effort to force him to advertise, it is time the public knew the facts. The owner or editor of Collier's Weekly cannot force money from us by such methods.

POSTUM CEREAL CO., Ltd.

The Banner.

Printed and Published every Thursday at Clanton, Chilton County, Ala.

Entered at the postoffice at Clanton, Ala., as second-class mail matter.

"Here shall the press the people's rights maintain,
Unawed by influence and unbribed by gain,
Here patriot truth her glorious precepts draw,
Dictated to enlighten, liberty and law."

Subscription, yearly $1.00
Invariably in advance.

Address all communications to THE BANNER, Clanton, Ala.

WILL YOU, PLEASE,

stop for one moment in your busy working day and think when your last subscription to The Banner was paid? If your conscience answers it was anywhere within the last twelve months, we ask your pardon, bid you God speed and go on again. If, however, your conscience says it is more than a year since I have paid The Banner anything, then we bid you God speed and hope you will make all the haste possible to come and pay what you are due.

The Daily State, which recently suspended publication in Montgomery, is to be resumed as a morning paper, the first issue to be out on Sunday morning, Sept. 29.

We have received a notice from County Game & Fish Warden J. W. E. Gultedge, which on account of the pressure on our space this week, will be published in our next issue.

We publish in this issue the correspondence between Gov. Comer and Mr. Milton H. Smith, President of the Louisville & Nashville railroad, which is particularly appropriate at this time.

Here we have two antagonistic opinions; Gov. Comer, good, loyal man, asserting that the State can do no wrong, and whatever it says must go.

On the other hand Mr. Smith maintains that the State, in its legislation, has gone too far, and that in regulating the charges on its line, it has gone beyond its jurisdiction. Under these circumstances it has appealed to the U. S. Federal court, which until a decision has been rendered, leaves the matter at present in abeyance.

Chancery Court was in session Monday, Chancellor W. W. Whiteside presiding. There was nothing of general public interest before the court which adjourned the same day.

The Census Bureau Monday issued its first bulletin on the cotton report for the season as shown by returns from the ginners, showing a total of 191,416 bales up to September 1, as compared with 407,551 bales up to the same period last year. In this statement round bales are counted as half bales. The great falling off is attributed to the the lateness of the crop.

Report shows that there were only 4,067 ginneries in operation September 1 this year as compared with 6,628 in 1906.

GETTING READY FOR ALABAMA STATE FAIR.

Great preparations are being made for the Alabama State Fair, to be held in Birmingham October 8 to 16, inclusive, and every indication is that the greatest crowds that ever thronged the city will be present during the big week this fall. Managers of every department, with their crops of assistants are hard at work getting things in shape, and it is assured that the opening day will find everything in its place. Inquiries are pouring in from all sections of the state, showing that thousands are making their plans to spend the second week in October in Birmingham while the big fair is on.

The fair this year will be especially for the farmer. Prizes aggregating thousands of dollars are offered, the great variety of subjects giving opportunity for every one to enter the contest. Live stock, farm products and poultry will be given great prominence, and the expectation is that the showing at the fair this fall will be the largest and finest ever gotten together in Alabama.

Complete information concerning the fair may be obtained from the handsome catalogue just issued, which will be sent anywhere without charge on request to the secretary, George T. Barnes, Birmingham.

CORRESPONDENCE

Between Hon B. B. Comer, Governor of Alabama, and Mr. M. H. Smith, President of the Louisville & Nashville and South and North Alabama Railroad Companies, concerning the Reduced Passenger and Freight Rates Suspended and Enjoined in the Litigation Now Pending in the Circuit Court of the United States for the Middle District of Alabama

Executive Office, Montgomery, August 16, 1907

Hon. Milton H. Smith,
President L. & N. Railroad,
Louisville, Ky.

Dear Sir:

Please allow me to call your attention that the Legislature of Alabama by recent session enacted laws making certain regulations for railroads regarding the passenger and freight rates.

Your road is violating these laws every day. You of course understand that my position is to see the full execution of same. I feel sure that if I could have a full, free conference with your management that we could adjust these matters so as to avoid friction. The people of Alabama wish to live in the utmost accord with all the public service corporations. I think further that the public service corporations will in the end secure their best interest by conforming many things along this line and "do they might think detrimental to some of their interests.

I will be here at the Executive Office on August 21st and 22nd, and will be glad to meet with any representative of your road with authority from your company to discuss the necessity of the observance of the laws of this State by your company.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) B. B. Comer,
Governor.

Louisville, Ky., August 16, 1907

Hon. B. B. Comer,
Governor, State of Alabama,
Montgomery, Ala.

Dear Sir:

Your telegram and letter of the 14th instant have just come to my attention.

The Legislature of Alabama having enacted certain statutes, which were approved by you as Governor, materially affecting the interests of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company, and which the management believe to be illegal, proceedings were instituted in the Circuit Court of the United States for the Middle District of Alabama for the purpose of securing a judicial investigation and decision from the Courts of final review as to the validity of said statutes, so far as they applied to said Company and the South & North Alabama Railroad Company. At the hearings in said court on the applications for restraining orders and injunctions pendente lite, the Railroad Commission of Alabama was represented by able counsel, including the Attorney General of the State, and thus the State's designated representatives became parties thereto. This Company has, in compliance with the orders of said Court, given a bond and stands ready and willing to give additional bonds from time to time, as may be required, to protect the interests of all concerned, should the final decision in that litigation be adverse to its contentions. Since March 3o, 1907, the freight and passenger rates in controversy have been suspended in accordance with the express provisions of the laws of Alabama, and the enforcement of said rates has been duly enjoined. Neither this Company, nor any of its officers, agents or servants has violated any provision of said laws. As the reduced rates have been suspended, and their enforcement enjoined, they were not in force, and the non-observance of same, therefore, does not constitute a public offense. Under these circumstances, I beg leave to deny your accusation that this Company is violating these laws every day.

Such proceedings having been thus instituted have been acquiesced in by you as Governor and all State officials far more than four months without any question of their validity, and should be prosecuted to a conclusion in an orderly and lawful manner. The Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company is a law-abiding citizen, and has in the past, and I trust will always in the future, comply with all legislative enactments, reserving the inherent right of all citizens, individual or corporate, to obtain a decision in the courts of just cs as to the legality of such acts as may be questioned. The officials of the State of Alabama, having been thus cited to a Court having undoubted jurisdiction of the subject matter, and having responded to these legal proceedings and become parties thereto, all law-abiding citizens should co-operate to secure an early adjudication and abide by the result therein. I respectfully submit that you, as a citizen and the ch ef executive of the State of Alabam, should also co-operate in securing a speedy and final adjudication of these matters in the courts of justice. Any other course on your part would tend to obstruct the course of public justice, and place you in the attitude of violating in your individual capacity the laws of the State of Alabama, as well as of the United States, which attitude I assume you do not wish to occupy.

Believing that the question in controversy should be adjudicated in the manner above indicated, I feel that nothing could be accomplished by the interview proposed by you, and you are, therefore, informed that the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company will not be represented at the conference suggested, at the Executive Office on the 21st and 22nd instant.

Yours truly,
M. H. Smith, President.

Montgomery, August 22, 1907

Hon. Milton H. Smith,
President L. & N. Railroad Company,
Louisville, Ky.

My Dear Sir:

Yours of the 16th received and noted.

Without discussing the facts in the case, on which naturally we would differ very much, I regret that you thought it would be unproductive of good results that we should have a conference regarding the adoption of your company of the recent legislative acts of the State.

Enclosed find clipping from to-day's paper evidencing what I think is the State's position on these laws. I will be glad if you will consider carefully and accept my assurance that I am trying to avoid all unpleasantness, all friction, and wish to accomplish only that which I believe to be reasonable and right. I believe the people of the State will welcome conservative action on the part of your company towards giving these statutes a fair and reasonable trial. Your company means very much to the people of Alabama, and the people mean equally as much to yur company, and it looks to me that you could find some conservative ground on which you would make amicable adjustment of these conditions.

Please think careful over the matter, and at your convenience I would be glad to hear further from you.

I will be absent from the State for a few days. I am writing by to-day's mail to the N., O. & St. L. and the Western along the same general lines.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) B. B. Comer, Governor.

Louisville, Ky., August 28, 1907

Hon. B. B. Comer, Governor, Montgomery, Alabama.

Dear Sir:

Your favor of August 22nd, enclosing a newspaper clipping containing a statement from you which seems to be dated Montgomery, August 21, 1907, and which you make an exhibit or part of your communication, duly received.

In your communication of August 14th you say: "Please allow me to call your attention that the Legislature of Alabama in recent session enacted laws making certain regulations for railroads regarding the passenger and freight rates. Your road is violating these laws every day." As is evidenced in the following quotation from your statement of the 21st, which you make a part of your communication of the 22nd, you to effect intensate the charge that the Louisville & Nashville and South & North Alabama Railroads are violating existing laws: "I shall endeavor at all times, to the utmost of my ability, to use all lawful and proper means to secure the enforcement of the laws of Alabama." In reply to your letter of the 14 h I stated: "Since March 30, 1907, the freight and passenger rates in controversy have been suspended in accordance with the express provisions of the laws of Alabama, and the enforcement of said rates has been duly enjoined. Neither this company nor any of its officers, agents or servants has violated any provision of said laws. As the reduced rates have been suspended and their enforcement enjoined, they were not in force, and the non-observance of same does not constitute a public offence. Under these circumstances, I beg leave to deny your accusation that this company is violating these laws every day."

I am assured by counsel that the foregoing statement is correct, and that both the Louisville & Nashville and South & North Alabama Railroads are conducting their operations in Alabama strictly in accordance with the laws of the State. This has been made so plain that I am sure your legal advisers must have affirmed the correctness of this view, if you have consulted them.

I am aggrieved that you should reiterate the charge that the Louisville & Nashville and South & North Alabama Railroad Companies are violating the laws of Alabama.

To re-state the contention: The State of Alabama having enacted certain statutes which the representatives of the Louisville & Nashville and South & North Alabama Railroads believe to be unlawful, and knew to be inimical, those representatives appealed, as they had the right to appeal, to the Department of Justice which, in our plan of government, was created for adjusting such disputes; and they assumed that the State, the other party to the contention, would await and abide by the result of the litigation. To put the rates in effect during the time necessarily consumed in presenting to the courts facts that will permit of an intelligent conclusion, would inflict an irreparable injury upon the companies should the courts sustain their contention by deciding that the acts in question are illegal. Instead of proceeding in a legal and orderly way to secure a ruling of the tribunal created for deciding differences between citizens, you undertake to force the Louisville & Nashville and South & North Alabama Railroad Companies to accede your unreasonable demands by threatening them with the infliction of destructive penalties; i. e., rather than endeavor to secure an early adjudication in the courts, you attempt to accomplish your ends by intimidation. You assert your determination "to convene the Legislature to pass a 'Sunday Freight Train Law,' a 'Law Domesticating the Foreign Corporations,' an 'Excess Baggage Bill,' and bills affecting freight rates," and to avail yourself of the services of legal counsel to prepare such railroad legislation as you believe the people of Alabama need—"will retaliate in every possible way on the railroads." Has it occurred to you that your methods are those of the highwayman—"your money or your life"? Adopt the reduced passenger and freight rates that are not in effect or I, as Chief Executive of the State of Alabama, will destroy you." Why should the State of Alabama sandbag the Louisville & Nashville and South & North Alabama Railroad Companies?

The Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company became interested in Alabama when, in 1871, it took over from Sam Tate and associates, with the consent and approval of the South & North Alabama Railroad Co pany, an uncompleted road, and undertook to complete it. And it proved to be a most enormous obligation. Its next venture was the leasing of the Nashville & Decatur Railroad. In 1881 it acquired the road from Montgomery to Mobile, and from Mobile to New Orleans, thus giving it a main line in the State of Alabama from near Elkmont to Grand Bay, a distance of about 416 miles. In 1914 it entered upon the construction of branches, and has since that date constructed and acquired 846 miles of main line branch roads. As these branches have been largely constructed in mineral districts, the side track mileage forms a large percentage of the main line mileage. The total cost of the Louisville & Nashville and South & North Alabama Railroads in Alabama, including a proportion of equipment (based on engine and car mileage) to June 3o, 1907, is $46,399,287.

In obtaining and assuming this enormous sum, the company has at different times been on the verge of bankruptcy. For a large part of the period of the company's existence, the stockholders received no dividends on their investment, the net earnings, if any, derived from whatever source, being applied to the payment of costs of additions and betterments to the property. For forty-six years the average dividend has been less than three per cent upon the par value of the capital stock. At great cost, a large mileage of branch roads has been constructed in mineral districts. When the mineral deposits are exhausted, the roads will be worthless; and if not abandoned, will be maintained and operated at a heavy loss. This means that th capital invested in such roads will be lost unless, during the period in which the minerals are being mined, the earnings are sufficient to permit of a sinking fund being created to r imburse, at least the cost of construction. Assuredly, the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company has in the past thirty-five years been of untold benefit to the citizens of Alabama, and it is entitled to their good will, commendation and co-operation. Only thus will it be encouraged and aided in making further investments to create much needed additional facilities. Unfortunately, violent antagonism in the State, developed under your leadership for several years past, has all but utterly destroyed the ability of the ability of the company to make any further developments;—its credit has been paralyzed.

At a hearing of the Railroad Commission of Alabama on April 5, 1905, at which you as President presided, after calling attention to the needs of the Louisville & Nashville and South & North Alabama Railroad Companies for large amounts of additional capital in order to create facilities for handling the rapidly increasing traffic, I said: "Now, if this Commission enters upon a campaign of antagonism against the railways, if it should reduce the rates so as to make the operations still more unprofitable, it will certainly tend to paralyze, if it does not paralyze, the efforts to get additional capital, and you will almost render futile the efforts of the railways to increase the traffic and develop the business of the State and of the country." It is known of all that what I then feared has come to pass. The Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company can not now borrow additional capital to reduce grades, construct second track, and create other facilities so badly needed to enable it to transport with reasonable promptness traffic now seeking movement in and through Alabama. Long time obligations of the company cannot now be disposed of, and the management having—I fear unwisely—entered into obligations to build certain extensions and make additional betterments has been compelled to issue, upon onerous terms, what are termed short time obligations; and it must necessarily withhold the enormous expenditure involved in reducing grades and double tracking the line between Elkmont, Ala., and Mobile, Ala., which it has for some time past been considering, and which the necessities of the traffic really require. Instead, it must confine its operations to existing lines, and restrict its traffic to existing facilities. Other railway companies operating in Alabama are in the same condition. There is not one of them that can, at this time, prudently make additional capital expenditures; and, like the Louisville & Nashville, they would, if they could, gladly suspend work on extensions and improvements now under way. As soon as work now under way is completed, there must be an abandonment of all additions requiring new capital.

Engaged as you are in agricultural and manufacturing enterprises, you know that there has been a very heavy increase in the cost of conducting all business operations. That this increase is especially applicable to railroad companies is most true; and yet they are the only ones that are prohibited from increasing the price of their product (viz: transportation) to correspond to the increased cost of production. The gross receipts of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company for the 12 months ending June, 1906, were $43,008,906.00; for the 12 months ending June, 1907, $48,263,945.00; increase, $5,254,949.00. The increase in the net result after paying operating expenses, interest, taxes, and dividends (the amount of dividends being the same on each year) was $102,174.60. Of the increase of $5,254,949.00 in gross receipts, over ninety-eight per cent was absorbed by the increase in operating expenses, interest and taxes. And yet it is your purpose to still further aggravate such an unfavorable result by reducing the remunerations which the railway companies receive for transportation; by increasing taxes, and in all other ways that your l genuity can suggest.

You say: "The people pay in the way of taxes four and a half million dollars a year. * * * The railroads levy upon Alabama about thirty-five millions of dollars a year." You presume upon the ignorance or indifference of those who may listen to you by asserting that the remuneration received for services rendered by transportation lines is a tax. You know that the remuneration received by railroads for their product (viz.: transportation) is no more a tax than the remuneration you pay to those who cultivate cotton for you is a tax, or the amount received by you for the cotton product of your farm is a tax upon the cotton mills, or the amount received by you for the product of your cotton mills is a tax upon the consumer, or the amount received by you as rent for real estate is a tax. You might as well say that the sums the people of Alabama pay annually for services of laborers, mechanics, doctors, lawyers, preachers, or for the very bread and meat they consume, are a tax, as to say that transportation charges are a tax upon them. The one statement would be as accurate as the other.

Furthermore, in your published statement, you omit to tell the public that of the four and a half millions of dollars in annual taxes paid by the people of Alabama, the Louisville & Nashville and South & North Alabama Railroad Companies paid last year one-sixteenth, or $6.00 of every $100. To be exact, the total amount of State, County and Municipal taxes in Alabama paid by these two railroad companies in the year ending June 30, 1907, was $272,157.36. Not only so, but upon assessments made in pursuance of onerous revenue measures passed by the present Legislature, and approved by you, the annual State, County and Municipal taxes to be paid in Alabama for the current fiscal year by these two railroad companies will, I am reliably informed, reach approximately $400,000, or nearly ten per cent of the entire annual taxes you say the whole people of the State, individuals and corporations, have heretofore paid.

In conclusion, I respectfully urge, that instead of convening the Legislature for the avowed purpose of enacting inimical legislation to still further harass the railroads, and of urging, as you are doing by your public expressions and conduct the people of Alabama to harass and annoy railroads, you, as Chief Executive and as a law-abiding citizen, permit the contention to be decided in accordance with the laws of Alabama, in a lawful and orderly way; and that you, by precept and example, encourage all law abiding citizens to patiently await the decision of the courts and acquiesce therein as the railway companies will assuredly do.

Very truly,
M. H. Smith,
President.

Letter to J. R. Billingsley.

Clanton, Ala.

Dear Sir: What will it cost to sow ten acres half wheat and half daisy mixed? and what'll the crop be worth?

We don't know what daisy seed costs, nor how bulky it is; we suspect half wheat and half daisy would make a big crop of daisies, and last a long time; the wheat might be short.

The parable throws some light on the cost of a paint half whitewash. Whitewash mixed half-and-half with paint, is all paint in look and feel; indeed, nine-tenths of the "paint" in the stores is part whitewash: some half, some more, some less.

Paint has to be spread with the brush, the surface prepared, the ladders scaffolds pulleys and ropes arranged and moved, there's a great deal of labor in putting paint on; it costs $2 to $4 a gallon to do it.

What does it cost to paint whitewash? Just the same. Half whitewash? Just the same. It doesn't seem worth while, for whitewash does harm, not good.

Will the paint hold the whitewash fast? or the whitewash loosen the paint.

Better paint pure paint, the least gallons paint, the least money paint. Devoe.

Yours truly
F W DEVOE & CO

31

For Coughs and Colds

There is a remedy over sixty years old—Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Of course you have heard of it, probably have used it. Once in the family, it stays; the one household remedy for coughs and hard colds on the chest. Ask your doctor about it.

The best kind of a testimonial—"Sold for over sixty years."

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.
Also manufacturers of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Pills. Hair Vigor.

We have no secrets! We publish the formulas of all our medicines.

Ayer's Pills increase the activity of the liver, and thus aid recovery.

A Humane Appeal.

A humane citizen of Richmond, Ind., Mr. U. D Williams, 107 West Main St., says: "I appeal to all persons with weak lungs to take Dr. King's New Discovery, the only remedy that has helped me and fully comes up to have the proprietor's recommendation." It saves more lives than all other throat and lung remedies put together. Used as a cough and cold cure the world over. Cures asthma, bronchitis, croup whooping cough, quinsy, hoarseness and phthisic, stops hemmorrhages of the lungs and builds them up. Guaranteed at Upchurch Drug co. 50c and $1.00.

Subscribe for the Banner.

PHYSICIANS PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION.

CHILTON COUNTY BRANCH

At a meeting of the Physicians of Chilton county, the following was unanimously adopted:

Owing to the increased cost of living and the greater demand made upon physicians in order to keep abreast of the age, we have been obliged to make a general advance in our prices. Among some of the advances are the following:

MINIMUM FEE BILL.

Office prescription or advice or dressing injuries $1.00.
Second or subsequent prescriptions (same case) 50 cts.
Gleet or gonorrhoea (in advance) $10.00.
Syphilis (in advance) $25.00.
Chancroid or vermeen (in advance) $5.00
Opening boils or abscesses, $1.00
Removal of foreign bodies, eyes, ear, nose or throat, $2.00.
Phymosis or paraphymosis, $5.00.
Circumcision, $15.00.
Removal ingrowing nail, $5.00
Certificates or vaccination, $1.00.
Written opinion, $2.00.
Same involving legal issues, $10.00
Examination and certificate for insanity or life insurance, $5.00.
Same for all fraternal orders, $3.00.
Urinalysis, $5.00.
Clinical Microscopy, $5.00.
Fitting Truss, $1.50.
Administering anaesthetic, excepting labor, $5
Plaster of Paris, larger bone dressing, $5.00
Reducing hernia, $5.00
Catherization for stricture, enlarged prostrate, cathetey, etc., $2.50
Injecting hydrocele, $10.00.
Administering any of the serums, $5.00.
Irrigation of bladder or dilation of urethra $2.
Accompanying patient to hospital, $10.00 and expenses
Vaginal examination (office) $2.50, anywhere else, plus visit.
Visits per day (in town) $1.50
Stop in visits, $1.50
Subsequent visits, same day, $1.50.
Other visits, $1.00.
Visits to country, 50 cts. per mile plus town visits.
Visits in town, night from 9 p. m. to 5 a.m. $2.50
Visits to country, night, $2.50 for first mile, $1.00 subsequent miles.
All days attention, $1.00 per hour detained day or night.
Natural delivery or miscarriage in town $10.00.
Same in country, plus mileage.
Delivery of placenta alone $5.00 and mileage
Using forceps, turning, placenta preevia twins, $15.00 and mileage.
Lacerated perinaeum or uterine curettement, $15.00.
Intra-uterine application and douches, $5.00
Amputation of fingers or toes, $2.00.
Through metacarpus or metatarsus, $15.00
Through dore-arm or leg $25.00.
Shoulder or hip-joint, $100.00.
Upper arm or thigh, $50.00.
Reducing dislocation of finger or toe, $5.00.
Of jaw, $10.00.
Hip, $50.00
Knee, elbow, shoulder, ankle, wrist, clavible, $15.00.
Fracture of finger or toe, $5.00.
Of wrist, arm, clavicle, ankle or leg, $15.00
Femur, $25.00.
Jaw or knee-cap, $25.00.
Each rib, $5.00.
Advice by telephone, $1.00.
Compound fractures, same as amputation of parts.
Excision of tonsils, $15.00.
Plugging nares, $5.00.
Trephining and herniotomy, $100.00
Paracentesis, $15.00
External hemorrhoids, $15.00
Same (internal) $25.00
Fistula in ano or fissure, rectum, $15.00
Abdominal operations, $150.00.
Consultation fees, $5.00 and mileage.
All cases probably necessitating attendance at court, four times the regular charges.

You expect the doctor, when you need him:

To leave everything and come as quickly as he can, any time, day or night, to help you.

To do all he can for you, even to risk his health and life.

The doctor expects you, when he has served you:

To do your best to pay his bills promptly, as soon as you can, not putting them off till all else is paid, or until you have spent your money, perhaps foolishly, or

To come and tell him if you really cannot pay.

The doctor cannot live on work, fresh air and hope any longer than you can. So pay him as promptly as you like to be paid when you have worked for someone.

A. B. Claughton
C. N. Parnell
Guy E. Stewart
I. M. B. Johnson
R. B. McNeill
P. I. Hopkins
L. V. Stabler
I. P. Hayes
N. S. Johnson
W. I. Wise
P. P. Goggins
R. I. Eiland
A. I. L. Dennis
E. A. Matthews

"We Walk On Them, So Can You"

Patriot Shoe for Men

$4.00

Some men plod along through life with their feet aching and paining them all the time. They are out of concentrates with their work and makes them nervous and ill at ease. A man can't enjoy life's pleasures as he should if his feet are worrying him.

There are a great many men who are "Walking on Stars." Their feet are feeling good and making their day's work lighter, for they have no foot worry and can enjoy life; that is because they wear

Patriots

"The Shoes That Do Not Hurt"

"Patriot" shoes are made in all the popular leathers over lasts conforming lasts, made by experts and sewed with silk. They have an inner sole of ground cork that keeps out dampness. "Patriots" cost no more than the hurt kind. Being Goodyear Welts they have no wax, tacks or threads inside to burn and blister the feet.

There is a shape, a fit and a pleasure for every foot. The name on the heel and the $3,750,000.00 capital of Roberts, Johnson & Rand Shoe Co. are a guarantee that the "Patriot" is honestly constructed and sure to satisfy.

Over half a hundred Styles

Remember, every "Patriot" is a Foot Doctor. Come and let us show you some "Stars."

"Star Brand Shoes Are Better"

J. C. JONES,
Clanton

Had Tetter for Thirty Years

I have suffered with tetter for thirty years and have tried almost everything I ever heard of, but without success. I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Salve and before it was all used I was entirely cured. It was a godsend to me. I take pleasure in recommending it to do—[illegible] city. Ala. [illegible] for sale by Upchurch Drug Co. Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

The First and Last

store in Clanton. If you come from the east it's the first; from the west it's the last.

Our stock of General Merchandise is First in quality and lowest in price.

FINE FAMILY GROCERIES—Always Fresh and New.

A fine line of Men's Dress Shirts and Neckwear.

SHOES of the finest quality and the best make. Try a pair.

A general assortment of furniture [illegible].

B. E. JONES & BRO.

CLANTON - - - - ALA.

Constipation.

Health is absolutely impossible if constipation be present. Many serious cases of liver and kidney complaint have sprung from neglected constipation. Such a deplorable condition is unnecessary. There is a cure for it. Herbine will speedily remedy matters. [illegible] A. Lindsay, P. M., Bremen, Ga., writes, Feb. 12, 1902: "Since I used Herbine, I find it a fine medicine for Constipation." 50c a bottle. Sold by Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Convalescents need a large amount of nourishment in easily digested form.

Scott's Emulsion is powerful nourishment—highly concentrated.

It makes bone, blood and muscle without putting any tax on the digestion.

ALL DRUGGISTS; 50c. AND $1.00.

"We Walk the Sure, So Can You"

Patriot SHOE FOR MEN

$4.00

Some men plod along through life with their feet aching and paining them all the time. This of course interferes with their work and makes them nervous and ill at ease. A man can't enjoy life's pleasures as he should if his feet are worrying him.

There are a great many men who are "Walking on Stars." Their feet are feeling good and making their day's work lighter, for they have no foot worry and can enjoy life; that is because they wear

Patriots

"The Shoes That Do Not Hurt"

"Patriot" shoes are made in all the popular leathers over foot conforming lasts, made by experts and sewed with silk. They have an inner sole of ground cork that keeps out dampness. "Patriots" cost no more than the hurt kind. Being Goodyear Welts they have no wax, tacks or threads inside to burn and blister the feet.

There is a shape, a fit and a pleasure for every foot. The star on the heel and the $3,750,000.00 capital of Roberts, Johnson & Rand Shoe Co. are a guarantee that the "Patriot" is honestly constructed and sure to satisfy.

Over half a hundred Styles

Remember, every "Patriot" is a Foot Doctor. Come and let us show you some "Stars."

"Star Brand Shoes Are Better"

J. C. JONES, Clanton

Had Tetter For Thirty Years

I have suffered with tetter for thirty years and have tried almost everything with little, if any, relief. Three boxes of Chamberlain's Salve cured me. It was a godsend to me. It breaks only a little when first applied, but what it does do—it REACH. Midland City, Ala. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

stand Last

If you come from the east the west it's the last.

eneral Merchandise is First est in price.

CERIES—Always Fresh and Nice

's Dress Shirts and Neckwear.

ality and the best make. Try us rtment of furniture

ONES & BRO.

- - - - ALA.

Constipation.

Health is absolutely impossible if constipation be present. Most serious cases of liver and kidney complaint have sprung from neglected constipation. Such a deplorable condition is unnecessary. There is a cure for it. Herbine will speedily remedy matters. C. A. Lindsay, P. M., Bronson, Fla., writes, Feb. 12, 1902: "Have used Herbine, I find it a fine medicine for Constipation." 50c a bottle. Sold by Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

TOWN ITEMS

...ed Union Grove church entered ... February, first Monday in ... Monday in June, second ... first Monday in August, ... Monday in September, ... Monday in October.

...ON OUTED HART ...

...7.....13 @ 13½
...date last year 10½ @ 11c
...ceipts
...n. Wednesday.... 4

...Sunday morning, La... purse, containing some ... other articles. Owner ... by giving description ... Times, Clanton.

... Mrs. R. C. Middleton ...ved to Birmingham. ... will make their future

...y Watts of Birmingham ...Saturday and Sunday in

...C. Oates of Birming... Wednesday here.

...LES OF A GOOD NAME. ... "Patriot on the bot... means full value, sat... a servicable, comfort... The next time you pur... on having the kind ...ord "Patriot on the sole. ... C. JONES, Clanton.

...y Oates who has been ...Mamie Woods, has ...ome.

...s who has been spend... time with her grandpa... and Mrs. F. M. Woods, ...d to her home in Bloc...

...Fountain Pen you want ...find them at Upchurch ...at all prices and of the ...

...ter of Birmingham has ...ing Clanton the past ...

...dwin of Maplesville is ...er sister, Mrs. Lawson ...

...atch Chains and Fobs, ...d Signet Pins and Signet ...elry, etc., see J. V. Hig... Jeweler, Clanton.

...a Griffin of Stanton has ...position in the Judge of ...ffice.

...H. Crosswell and daught... ...ary Louise, of Deatsville ...l days in Clanton this ...

...n Hopkins spent Sunday ...ther's family.

...dle Lowney's fine choc... ...t made. Florence Drug ...

...L. Hopkins spent Monday ...ham.

...r Stewart, who has been ...for several weeks, re... his home in Birmingham ...

...n Matthews is visiting ... week ...

...Carbolized Witch Hazel ...d for boils, burns, cuts, ...kin diseases. It is es... for piles. Sold by ... Drug Co.

...e Cooley, who has been ...atives here, returned to ...nday morning.

...D. Sims of Mountain ...in town Saturday.

...son & Sons' Wagons ...buy.

...T. Williams of Route 7 ...ot our pleasant visitors ... He leaves for Howard ...ance.

...A. Williams of Pletcher ...easant call Saturday.

...S. Jones of Route 7 was ...welcome visitors Satur...

...S. Blassengame, of the ...ime Repair Shop spent ... Clanton.

...Scott of Route 3 gave ...t call Tuesday.

...Headley of Cleveland, ...nty, has been visiting ...n the past week.

...e Dorminy of Jemison, ...s in town Wednesday.

...a RAZOR from the ... Drug Co.—the three ...guaranteed for three ...

...enses have been issued ...the Probate Judge to ...persons.

...Cheeks and Miss Ida ...

...ers, worn out by the ...baby have found cas... and a blessing. Cas... babies and children, ...y good for the ills ...hot weather. Look ...ents printed on the ...ins no harmful drugs. ...ch drug co.

How is the Time

We are now ready to show you a full line of Clothing, Shoes, Hats, and complete line of Dress Goods.

Furniture, Stoves, Sewing Machines, etc.

Tennessee and Fish Wagons.

Everything to make your home and farm complete. Give us a trial and if we can't sell you we will be badly mistaken.

E. M. PINCKARD & CO.

CLANTON

The County Commissioners met at the Poor House last Thursday, and re-let the Poor House to R. A. Miller on the same terms as heretofore. The Court adjourned Friday.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.

List of Letters remaining uncalled for in Clanton, Ala., postoffice, for week ending Sept. 7, 1907. Persons calling for same will please say "advertised" and give date. One cent must be paid on each letter.

GENTLEMEN'S LIST.

Robert O. Hill, Bonnie Morris.

LADIES' LIST

Mattie Weathers, Della McElroy.

These letters will be sent to the dead Letter office, Sept. 21, 1907, if not delivered before.

F. O. DUDLEY Postmaster

Mr. Frank Carter of Birmingham is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Elliot.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy One of the Best on the Market.

For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has constantly gained in favor and popularity until it is now one of the most staple medicines in use and has an enormous sale. It is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases, such as coughs, colds and croup, and can always be depend upon. It is pleasant and safe and pleasant to take and is undoubtedly the best in the market for the purpose for which it is intended. Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

P. L. CARTER J. P. ELLIOTT

CLANTON FURNITURE CO.

DEALERS IN

Furniture, Stoves, Lamps, Clocks, Shades, Matting, Rugs and House Furnishing Goods of every kind. Needles and Supplies for all Sewing Machines. We also do Repairing, Upholstering and Refinishing. We sell cheap for cash or on easy payments.

TRY OUR 5 & 10 CENT BARGAIN COUNTER

Your patronage solicited.

CLANTON - - ALABAMA

MOVED!

I have moved to my new store by the post office, where I can show you the best stock of Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Silverware, Optical Goods, etc., ever shown in Shelby county. I have the best equipped repair shop in this part of the State.

BRING ME YOUR WORK.

LOOK FOR THE BIG WATCH SIGN

J. W. MARTIN

THE JEWELE BY THE POST OFFICE

Calera, Ala

The Calera Machine Repair Shop

is now open for General Repair Work. We repair Engines, Boilers, Saw Mills or any other Machinery that comes to hand. We guarantee all our work.

We also buy second hand machinery of all kinds.

We do all kinds of Pipe work.

We are also prepared with all Modern Tools, and have an expert Saw Hammerer who will straighten your Crooked Saws, and will Gum and Dress them, so that they will run and cut good smooth lumber and use 20 per cent less power.

We repair all kinds of Household Goods.

We do all kinds of Round Wood Turning, from an Ornamental Column to a Shelf Spindle.

In short, we are here for business and to do you good.

We solicit a trial.

THE CALERA MACHINE REPAIR SHOP

CALERA, ALA.

A Sewing Machine

well made, nicely finished, has improvements over the old styles, runs easily and quietly, low cost, but good work and quality.

Come in and examine it, you will be surprised at our good value for $18.00.

SPIGENER & JONES

The Hardware Store

CLANTON

TAX NOTICE.

Assessor's and Collector's

FIRST ROUND.

We will attend at the following times and places for the purpose of collecting the State and County taxes of Chilton county for the year 1907, and assessing the taxes for the year 1908.

Kingston	Beat 6		October	1
Fletcher	" 5		"	2
Stanton	" 8		"	3
Verbena	" 7		"	4
Maplesville	" 7		"	7
Boyles	" 3		"	8
Marshalls	" 3		"	9
Providence	" 1		"	10
Jemison	" 2		"	11
Mineral Springs	" 1		"	12
Pilot Hill	" 11		"	13
Thorsby	" 9		"	14
Clear Creek	" 4		"	15
Clanton	" 4		"	16
Cooper	" 10		"	17
Verbena	" 5		"	18

L. B. POUNDS, Tax Assessor.
T. I. HUBBARD, Tax Collector.

She Found Relief

If you are troubled with liver complaint and have not received help read this. Mrs. Mary E. Hammond, Moody, Texas, "I was in poor health—with liver trouble—for over a year. Doctors did me no good and I tried Herbine, and three bottles cured me. I can't say too much for Herbine, as it is a wonderful liver medicine. I always have it in the house. Publish where you wish. Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

THE NEW STORE!

The store of C. W. REYNOLDS & CO. will be opened in Clanton on September 7, and will sell goods at the following prices: Prices are subject to change without notice.

Granulated Sugar, 19 lbs....	$1.00
Good Green Coffee, 10 lbs....	1.00
Full Patent Flour per barrel..	5.00
White Corn per bushel.....	.81
All kinds of Soap, seven bars.	.25
Washing Powders and Starch, seven bars for.....	.25

We keep a general line, and would be pleased to have you call. We would like to quote you prices on any of our goods.

Respectfully,
C. W. REYNOLDS & CO.

Lost and Found.

Lost, between 9:30 p.m., yesterday and noon to day, a bilious attack with nausea and sick headache. This loss was occasioned by finding at Upchurch drug store a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. Guaranteed for biliousness, malaria and jaundice. 25c.

Program of Teachers' Institute

to be held at Jemison, Ala., Sept. 20-1907.

10:00 a.m. Devotional Exercises, Rev. Mr. Loftin.
10:15. Address of Welcome. R. A. Rasco.
10:30. Response. F. B. Williams.
10:45. Address to Teachers, Rev. S. B. Groves.
11:30. Teaching as compared with other professions, E. M. Meadows. Discussion.
1:30 p.m. Grading Country Schools, Mrs. S. B. Groves.
2:00. School Discipline, J. M. Parrish Jr. Discussion.
3:00. Teacher's preparation for class work, R. E. R. Hicks.

SATURDAY.

9:00 a.m. Aesthetics, Rev. P. G. Maness.
10:00. Teacher's influence on the character of the pupils, J. T. Williams.
10:30. Recitation by Miss Ada Rasco.
11:00. Educational Address. Hon. W. B. Craig.
1:30 p.m. Song service, short talks.

The Educational Board insists that all teachers and others interested in the cause of education attend this institute. Committee—R. A. RASCO, J. W. MOORE, J. N. DENNIS, G. L. SPEER.

APPLICATION FOR NEW DISTRICT.

At the regular August meeting of the Chilton School Board the following applications were made and accepted, and notice of final hearing was set for Saturday, Sept. 28, 1907:

Bounded as follows: Beginning at ne corner of sec. 17, tp. 21, r 16, and running west to ne corner of nw ¼ of nw ¼, sec 13, tp 21, r 15; thence south to ne corner of nw ¼ of sw 1-4, sec 13, t 21, r 15; thence west to nw corner of nw 1-4 of sw 1-4, sec 13, tp 21, r 15; thence south to sw corner of nw 1-4 of nw 1-4, sec 25, tp 21, r 15; thence east to se corner of ne 1-4 of se 1-4, sec 29, tp 21, r 16; thence north to starting point.

Done by order of the Board in session this 24th day of August, 1907.

R. A. RASCO, President.
G. L. SPEER, Secretary.

KILL THE COUGH AND CURE THE LUNGS

WITH Dr. King's New Discovery

FOR COUGHS COLDS HOARSENESS AND ALL THROAT AND LUNG TROUBLES.

GUARANTEED SATISFACTORY OR MONEY REFUNDED.

Schloss, in Dutch, means a Castle

Schloss, in English, means Good Clothes

Krump on the Korner Got 'em

Come in and Get 'em Then Wear 'em

'Gin the Law Not to Wear 'em

A suit of 'em would get Crichton off. Try 'em!

KRUMP

ON THE KORNER

MAPLESVILLE - - ALA.

—GO TO—

A. M. JOHNSON

—MANAGER OF—

THE CASH GROCERY STORE

THORSBY, ALA.

FOR BARGAINS IN

Staple and Fancy Groceries

We make a specialty of Fresh Fish and Oysters, Fresh Pork Links and all kinds of Sausage, Breakfast Bacon, Boneless Ham and other

—DELICATESSEN—

Pop, Soda Water and Jersey Butter always on hand.

Country Produce Bought, Sold and Exchanged.

Notice.

Real Estate, Fire, Life Insurance and Singer Machines.

I have on hand now some nice and convenient places for rent and some extra bargains in real estate. I also represent several leading fire insurance companies, and the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co.

My High Arm Singer Machine Stock is complete; Machines that sew perfect, run lighter and last longer than any other make. Remember, too, the price has been cut and you can get any terms you wish, monthly or annual payments. Also $5.00 allowance for your old machine.

Several good second hand Machines on hand at a bargain.

Needles, Bands, Cans, Attachments, and the only genuine Machine Oil made, 10 and 25¢ bottles.

I also represent the Jesse French Piano & Organ Co. When you need anything in my line, call on me at same old stand. Regular office days Friday, Saturday and Monday of each week.

C. R. MULLINS

CLANTON

TELEPHONE OR CALL AT

HEADLEY BROS.

when you are in need of

Dry Goods, Shoes, Hats and Caps

Glass, China and Tinware

WE MAKE A SPECIALTY IN OUR CANNED GOODS LINE

The Best Apples, Oranges and Fancy Candies

ALL KINDS OF CAKES IN PACKAGES AND BULK

Anything you want to eat, from a Pea to a Barrel of Flour

PROMPT DELIVERY. BELL PHONE 13

H. HEADLEY & BRO.

Successors to A. Headley & Son

To PUBLISHERS AND PRINTERS

We Manufacture the Very Highest Grade of

Type, Brass Rule in Strips, Brass Labor Saving Rule, Brass Column Rules, Brass Circles, Brass Leaders Brass Round Corners, Brass Leads and Slugs, Brass Galleys, Metal Borders, L. S. Metal Furniture, Leads and Slugs, Metal Leaders, Spaces and Quads, 6 to 48 point, Metal Quoins, etc.,

Old Column Rules relaced and made as good as new at a small cost.

Please remember that we are not in any Trust or Combination and are sure that we can make it greatly to your advantage to deal with us.

A copy of our Catalogue will be cheerfully furnished on application.

PHILADELPHIA PRINTERS' SUPPLY CO.

Manufacturers of

Type and High Grade Printing Material

PROPRIETORS PENN TYPE FOUNDRY

20 North Ninth Street PHILADELPHIA

IMMIGRATION COMMITTEE BACK FROM EUROPE

What they Think and Say about Their Trip

GREAT GOOD WILL RESULT

Visit of the Immigration Commission to Europe Opens the Eyes of Americans to the Troubles of the Old World.

New York.—After a several months' tour of inquiry into the immigration situation abroad, which carried them through England and continental Europe, most of the members of the subcommittee of the United States immigration commission, with Senator William P. Dillingham, of Vermont, as chairman, arrived here on board the steamship Cedric.

The members of the commission returning were Senator Dillingham, of Vermont; Senator Latimer, of South Carolina; Congressmen Howell, of New Jersey, and Burnett, of Alabama, and Secretary Morton E. Crane.

The members obtained much data which they believe will aid in solving many of the immigration problems now confronting the United States. The whole committee will meet later and prepare a report and recommendation, which will be submitted to congress. Senator Dillingham made the following statement:

"The sub-committee has visited every European country from which we receive any considerable number of immigrants and studied the more important phases of the question in each. The question of preventing the coming of criminals into the United States has been a chief subject of investigation by the sub-committee, and it is probable that important recommendations on this matter will be made to congress.

"The subject of emigration is a paramount one in most of the countries we have visited, and in most of them the attitude toward emigration is not favorable. The constant and long continued strain upon the rural population, from which class the great majority of emigrants come, and the general prosperity which now prevails has produced a scarcity of farm labor, and it is claimed the agricultural industry is suffering in consequence. Because of this scarcity of labor the condition of those remaining at home has, to a degree, been improved, but the general condition is causing much alarm among land owners and a strong sentiment against emigration has developed.

"A very large proportion of male emigrants leave their native country at a time when they are liable to military service there, and this constitutes a strong objection to some emigrants. During the tour of inquiry and investigation the commissioners have secured important information and have made arrangements to secure more, and feel confident that before their work is completed recommendations can be made to congress which if enacted into laws will be of value and importance."

American Plan Will Be Adopted.

The Hague.—The success of the American proposal for an international high court of justice at The Hague is assured if the delegates can arrive at some understanding regarding the appointment of judges. "I believe the conference will decide on some satisfactory plan of appointing judges before adjournment," said a prominent delegate. "And when this is done the success of the measure is assured. It will be speedily passed. A committee has been appointed to consider this matter and to report on September 10. I am confident that some solution will be found by the committee."

World's Oldest Mason.

Mount Sunapee, N. H.—James Bellows McGregor, said to be the oldest Mason in the world, celebrated his 106th birthday with a public reception Friday where he was born in 1801, a mile from where he now lives, near here. His joining of the Masonic order in 1827 makes him a member of eighty years' standing and the oldest Mason on record in the world. Mount Vernon lodge, A. F. and A. M., of Newport, attended the celebration in a body.

Lamana Not Dead.

New Orleans, La.—Peter Lamana, father of the boy who was kidnaped and murdered by Italians in this city several weeks ago, has returned from St. Louis, putting an end to the fear that he had also been a victim of murderous foreigners. The body found floating in the Mississippi river, and which was at first thought to be Lamana's, has not been identified.

Examined Horses' Feet.

New York.—A committee of the horse shoers caused considerable delay in the starting of the federated unions parade Monday by examining the feet of all the horses in line to determine whether or not they were union made shoes. All horses whose shoes did not bear the union mark were ordered out of line, and a number of the marshals and aides and those who had intended riding in carriages were forced to walk.

TRAIN ROBBERS.

They Went Through a Passenger Train and Took All Passengers' Money.

Omaha, Neb.—The Omaha and Texas express on the Rock Island was raided Saturday morning just before daylight near Murdock, Neb., by three masked men.

The robbers went through the chair car, robbing every passenger there, securing their pocketbooks and purses, covered the train crew with revolvers and escaped by leaping from the train. Railroad detectives and sheriff's posse are in pursuit, but the robbers have several hours' start on the officers.

The robbers were passengers on the train. Shortly after leaving Murdock the men arose in their seats, their faces covered with mask, and with revolvers in each hand covered the passengers. Then the leader ordered every one to keep still and not to resist, else they would be shot. Two men went down the aisle with hats in hand, while the third kept the passengers covered. All passengers were ordered to throw their pocketbooks into the hats, and this was done.

WASHINGTON, D. C.,

Wants Prohibition—May be They Will Get It, Too.

Washington, D. C.—That congress may make a dry town out of Washington is beginning to be feared by liquor interests in the capital city. The great temperance wave which has been sweeping over the country for the past two years is bound to have an echo in Washington, and it is already apparent that temperance advocates in and out of congress propose to carry on an active campaign this winter to suppress the sale of liquor in the District of Columbia.

There are not twenty members in the house who would have the temerity to vote against such a bill, and if Speaker Cannon allows it to be voted upon its passage through the lower branch of congress is assured. In the senate the situation is, of course, different, and it is upon this body that the temperance advocates intend devoting most of their attention in the hope of forcing a vote.

STRIKE AT ANTWERP.

Situation is Growing Worse and Loss to Trade is Great.

Antwerp.—The delay in reaching a settlemen of the strike of longshoremen is beginning to affect the trade with American ports, and each day the situation grows worse. The loss to general trade so far has been alarming, and industries throughout the country will be seriously hampered until the difficulty is solved.

The Maritime Federation is most reluctant to create a precedent by negotiating with a socialist organization, and in this respect it commands the sympathy of the law-abiding members of the community. The strike fund has just received an addition of $52,000, and this, taken in connection with the attitude of the federation, indicates that the struggle will be protracted.

MAY FREE THAW.

Abe Hummel Is in a Serious Condition at Blackwell's Island.

New York.—Abe Hummel's physical and mental condition is such that the date for the second trial of Harry K. Thaw for the murder of Stanford White cannot be set. He is not now able to testify; it is doubtful whether he will rally sufficiently while in the penitentiary to make a competent witness, and the state may never again be able to rest its case against the Pittsburg murderer on the testimony of the little lawyer.

"While Hummel can be aroused into a perfectly rational conversation by an effort, and while he tells me minutely and correctly the symptoms of the trouble which keeps him in the hospital," said Dr. Tynburg, "yet he is not fit to testify in a court of justice or take part in any serious matter that might concern others."

Ship Turned Back.

San Pedro, Cal.—The United States government is compelling rigid inspection of steamships entering this port to prevent the spread of the plague. Dr. W. A. Weldon, marine surgeon, turned back the Roanoke, but later gave her a clean bill of health. Not only are ship rats closely scrutinized, but the fleas on them also.

Roosevelt Favors Girls Riding Astride.

Oyster Bay.—President and Mrs. Roosevelt visited the riding academy near here yesterday, where the president reviewed the work of the class. Archie and Quetin Roosevelt took part in the review. The girls in the class ride astride, and the president, in the course of the review, it is stated, expressed himself as in favor of that method of riding for women.

Storks Visit an Ocean Liner.

New York.—Though the Red Star liner Kronland is a speedy ship, a flock of seven storks caught her on the trip just completed across the Atlantic. One birth occurred in the cabin and six in the steerage.

A tactless person makes others feel that he has acted like a brute, while in the same circumstance a tactful person would have made the others feel that they had acted like brutes.

THINGS WORTH KNOWING

India annually produces a rice crop of greater value than the American cotton crop.

Motors specially constructed for hauling logs in Canada are the biggest in the world, and can pull a train of 200 tons at twelve miles an hour.

Sir William Henry Broadbent, physician-in-ordinary to King Edward, whose death is announced from London, received $5000 a year from Lord Rothschild for a visit once a week.

According to the coroner's records, asphyxiation is the favorite mode of suicide in New York City, there being an average of one suicide each three days, while there is about one in four days from shooting.

Duke Ulrich of Wurtemberg deals in cakes and oatmeal, and, in conjunction with Prince Christian Hohenlohe, he manufactures corsets, sold under the name of "Hohenlohe corsets," which have a vast sale among South German ladies on account of their princely trademark.

Washington was made a Mason in 1753 and attained a higher dignity in the order than any of the other Presidents, though Andrew Jackson was Grand Master of Tennessee, the State which now holds one of the highest Masons in this country, ex-Congressman Richardson.

Mars is one of the most interesting of the planets, from the fact that it would seem to be the most likely, of all the planets, to be inhabited. Mars has features very similar to those of the earth, and astronomers are studying it with a deep human interest.

Guadalajara has probably one of the most unique social organizations in the new world. It is called "The Insomnia Club," housed in a quiet, thick-walled ancient building in the heart of the Tapatian capital. There are at present forty-six members, and as they can but seldom sleep, they pass the nights, perfumed as the nocturnal atmosphere there always is with jazmin and azahar, in agreeable diversions—chess, billiards, cards and bowling.

USED BIBLE AS CIPHER.

Verse From Solomon Told of Marriage Engagement.

When she left her home in the small town to come to New York to take up a special course of study, her pet sister was fast reaching the crisis of a love affair. The pet sister was a most winsome young lady, and had long kept a goodly train of suitors a sighing. Was this affair to be the grand affair? The older sister hoped so, for she liked the young man cordially—thought he was just the sort to make a proper brother-in law.

But the weeks passed and not a bit of definite news about the progress of the affair did the older sister receive in her city boarding house. She became anxious. Louise, she thought, must not go on recklessly trifling in such important matters.

Then one night about 10 o'clock, just as she was going to bed, came a telegram. The servant brought it up. The older sister was country girl enough to be thoroughly frightened by the pale manila, black-inked enveloped. How ominous it looked! At length she gathered courage to open it. This is what she read:

"Solomon six three. LOUISE."

Solomon six three! Whatever in the world! Oh, why, yes, — id, it of course meant the song of Solomon, sixth chapter, third verse. But—and her cheeks flushed with shame—she had no Bible!

There was a great scurrying about the boarding house to find a copy of the sacred Book. The girls were routed out in vain. On all sides the cry arose, "Who's got a Bible?" Just think of the sister trying to sleep that night without knowing what that verse was! It would have been just like a woman to lie down to pleasant dreams, content to know that she could satisfy her curiosity in the morning—not!

The landlady, good soul, came to the rescue. She was no heathen. She had a Bible. Up to her room with it flew the sister and shut the door. Such a turning over of pages by eager, nervous fingers. Solomon six three. She found it, and then she cried "Hurrah!" and laughed, for the verse was:

"I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine."—New York Press.

Supplies For the Shipwrecked.

The catboat ran gayly before the wind. The sea was alive with sunshine. Shoreward, on the boardwalk, the people walking looked no bigger than dominoes.

"No, sir," said the skipper, "there is not a desert island of the sea that the Governments of the world haven't stocked up with grub and clothes and tools for the use of shipwrecked mariners.

"There's tinned soups, dried meats, sealed cans of rice and flour and sugar, dried peas, beans, tobacco, knives, nails, matches, shovels, buckets, hatchets, and so on—all a shipwrecked mariner could need.

"The Governments have done this for a number of years. The provender is hid in caves or under rocks. There's a book published giving the exact location of these caches and most ships carry a copy of the work."—Louisville Courier Journal.

The Pulpit

A SUNDAY SERMON BY THE REV. DR. TALMAGE

Subject: Death.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—Preaching at the Irving Square Presbyterian Church, Hamburg avenue and Weirfield street, on the theme, "Death," the Rev. Ira Wemmell Henderson, pastor, took as his text those words which are found so frequently in the earlier part of the Old Testament scriptures, "And he died." He said:

Death is a subject of which we do not like to speak. It is a subject we avoid. The most of us endeavor to forget that there is such a fact for us. Many of us live as though we had eliminated it from our lives.

It is the fashion in the church nowadays not to preach about death with any frequency. For the people quite largely do not desire sermons on that theme. Ministers forbear to press home its consideration. They do not care to urge men to come to Christ by playing on the element of fear in their characters. And strangely enough death and fear have been correlative terms for generations.

Death used to be a forceful and popular subject for pulpit presentation. The divines of a century and more ago made their lasting reputations because of their masterly expositions of the scriptures about death.

Many a soul was swung into obedience to God by the impulse of an intense and vivid sermon on death.

However unwise it may be to lead men to God and to Christ through fear of death, it is much more unwise never to bring this fact to their attention. For the life after death is the major part of our existence. The days that God allots to us here are but a minute fraction of the ages we shall live, if we be righteous, within Him forever. This life is not all of life. Nor does death end all.

However difficult and distasteful a subject death may be to discuss, it repays investigation and consideration. We may not care to study it, to face it, to analyze it. But we ought.

For death is inevitable. It is certain that as we have come into this world we shall, in all human probability, go out of it. We cannot escape death. We cannot avoid it. We ought not to hasten it. We must give it consideration. For it is sure to come. We do not know the day or the hour. We cannot forecast the time. No man can tell the order in which we shall go hence, you and I. But the last day will dawn upon earth for each of us. The chimes will ring a last farewell upon our ears. The call of relentless death will ring through every soul. We may not be able to forecast death's coming, but he will arrive. We may not be able to enumerate the order of our going, but we shall go. For death is inevitable. His coming is inescapable. He stands waiting at the terminus of every life. And we should not fear if we fear God.

For death is natural. It is as natural as it is inevitable. It is as natural as birth. There is nothing unusual about it however mysterious its processes may be. It is as natural to die as it is to be born. Men talk of death as though it were a hiatus. Death is not a break. It is a method of procession. They speak of death as something that ought not to be. We shall not discuss that to-day. But we shall assert without fear of contradiction that in the world as it is at present constituted death is a valuable asset to humanity.

For death is not final but transitional. It is not a goal. It is but an incident in the life of the soul as it flies through life into eternity. Death is not ultimate. It is not terminal. Death is not an end itself. It is not the last of life though it comes at the end of this life. For if death is final it is at least questionable whether it were any use to live at all. If death is absolute and ultimate, if it writes finis to the close of every man's life, then in the words of Paul, "of all men most miserable." There may be use and there may be wisdom in living simply for the sake of living and then dying, with no hope of eternity, with no expectation of a life beyond, with no promise of immortality. But such a philosophy, however sound it may be for some minds, does not appeal to me. For I am persuaded that we live to some greater purpose than just to die, and go back into the dust and be forever forgotten—forever. I am persuaded that we are more than the flower of the field or the grass thereof, which to-day is and to-morrow is consumed by the quenchable fire. For God has written in my heart, and I hope He has in yours, a promise of another life and of a nobler and a fairer world. I look for a land and a life that is eternal, a heavenly country.

For, to me, death is a portal. It is a gate. It is a boon, a gift of God, a blessing. To my mind it writes "to be continued" after the last word of the last chapter of the record of every soul's earthly life has been inscribed upon the pages of human history. For death is more a beginning than an ending. It is a door through which we enter into the undiscovered country. It affords us a vision of another world the view of which is withholden from our mortal eyes. It releases us from the circumscriptions of earth. It unlocks the mystery of eternity. It unfolds the future existence before us. Through it we achieve a knowledge of the unknown. To those of us who have endeavored sincerely, however partially we have succeeded, to do the will of God and to submit ourselves to His divine control, death comes as a friend over whom we may rejoice. Not that we should desire to die. For this is a good life. Not that we should regret that we have days ahead that we must fill full of action and of holy living. Not that we should pray for death as a surcease from care and from pain and from disciplines. But we welcome and expect death, if we be in Christ, as a friend, because it augments our days, and expands our opportunities, and clarifies our vision, and intensifies our knowledge. And that is good.

This death, which is inevitable and natural in the career of every man, whether he be rich or poor, wise or ignorant, good or bad, may be terrible, doubtful or beautiful, according to the manner of our lives and the quality of our characters. For death cannot be bought off by riches. Neither does he pass the hovel. He is no respecter of intelligences. His hand is heavy and his arm is long to seize and to project into eternity that which is immortal in good and evil men alike. And it simply depends upon the kind of man you are whether death will be terrible, doubtful or beautiful to you.

To a bad man death must be terrible. That is to say, if he possesses the least spark of moral consciousness or spiritual susceptibility. Aye, it is terrible. And it ought to be. A bad man ought to be afraid to die. A man whose whole life has contravened God's law, whose continued and cumulative effort has been to follow the lusts of his own heart and the dictates of his own will, who has sought not to please God, but to find favor with men, who has constructively planned and effected overt sin, who has denied the call of conscience and deified Satan daily, ought to be afraid to die. Death ought to be terrible to him. In his last hours such a man could best evidence that he was a man and not a beast by elevating the fear of God to supreme prominence in his mind. A man whose whole life as a consciously active free moral agent has been dedicated to the stultification of the mandates of the Almighty and to the exaltation of sin as a method of living ought to be anxious to reverse the call of death and the decision of fate. He ought to want another chance in this life to fit him for the next life. It would be strange if bad men were not afraid to die. It would be curious if they could face eternity unabashed. For death to a sinful soul must be terrible. To go forth into a new life unprepared, to enter into the presence of eternity at enmity with God; what could be more awful?

Death may be doubtful. Many men there are who, obeying the dictates of God as they hear them and His laws as they read them, have attained a moral eminence that is not inconsiderable; but who, as they stand in the presence of the usual but inscrutable mystery of death, confess that they await its power without hope and with simply a scientific spirit of inquisitiveness. There is for them no certainty of a future life. They do not protest that death necessarily ends all. They simply express the opinion that, so far as they are concerned, death is a locked gate, a sealed portal, a bolted, barred, impenetrable door. They declare that while there may be a life beyond this they have no valid ground for expressed hope therein, no reason to stay their souls in the expectation of eternal existence. They know not. Theirs is the philosophy of agnosticism. Still others deny that there is another life in another world. Theirs is the negative philosophy of atheism. And neither is scientific or satisfying in the largest or most enduring way. For we need and desire and demand as rational and expectant human beings something more than indecision and negation. The soul requires a true soul food. It does not thrive on agnosticism or infidelity.

Death may be beautiful, it may be welcome, it may be an inspiration. It is so to godly men, men of faith and of vision, men who are versed in the philosophy of heaven and who are acquainted with the scientific formulae of the discipline of the soul. It is beautiful and gracious to those who are God's in Christ—supremely so. For the Christian knows that death is not only inevitable and natural, but that it is simply transitional, that it is a portal. The Christian is certain that eternal life is. The Christian believes from a conscious experience in the fact of God. He hopes, not without reason, for eternal life and eternal blessedness within God in heaven. For has not Christ assumed him that God and heaven are? Has He not said: "I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you I will come again and receive you unto Myself?" And Christ not only has said that to the Christian through the medium of the Scriptures. He has also spoken these words of comfort presently to the human hearts of Christian believers. And God has ceaselessly thundered the truth of immortality through the recesses of human souls. "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God" eternally.

Death, for the Christian, is to be welcomed, whensoever it may come, with a holy awe, without fear. For death is sublime. It is the cap of the climax of the Christian earthly life. It is our illumination, our inspiration, our reward. It enlarges our joys and certifies our hopes. We should await it in the spirit of that man of God whom the other day, in the presence of a multitude of men, as he stood upon the eminence of four score years and upon the borderland of eternity, I heard say, "I await death with joy. To me the thought that I shall die is sublime. For I know that if I die I shall live again." His hearers were electrified. His tones thrilled. His hope was contagious. We, too, should await death with a cheer.

The Color of Life.

The world is not made up to the eye of figures, that is, only half; it is also made of color, wrote Emerson. How that element washes the universe with its enchanting waves! The sculptor has ended his work, and behold a new world of dream-like glory. 'Tis the last stroke of nature; beyond color she cannot go. In like manner life is made up, not of knowledge only, but of love also. If thought is form, sentiment is color. It clothes the skeleton world with space, variety and glow. The hues of sunset make life great; so the affections make some little web of cottage and fireside populous, important and filling the main space in our history.—Home Herald.

Evil Companionship Destroys a Child.

We put down as the worst thing that can come into the life of a child low, vile association. We doubt if any human being ever got beyond the influence of evil associates for the first ten years of life. Such association will produce an insanity of nature against which the victim will find it necessary to fight for all the years that remain to him.—Western Methodist.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

INTERNATIONAL LESSONS FOR SEPT. 13 REV. I. W. HENDERSON

Subject: Moses Pleading for Israel. Deut. 6:1-15 — Deut. 6:12 — Memorize 4-7—Commentary.

This speech of Moses to which the lesson is only a is, to the mind of the writer the greatest addresses in Profound in its philosophy searching in its call for the tion of the rights of God lationship to humanity perishable contribution ture of the world. It is

The whole book of Deu as majestic as this speech sor Moulton in his the book of Deuteron Modern Reader's Bible, not an exaggeration of t say that no work of lit has ever appeared has greater sensation that Deuteronomy. Everyone romantic episode of its ance in history—a discov cue from oblivion which equivalent of a dis Josiah with youthful fer tating a repair of the treasury is cleared out found a book. Whether Deuteronomy itself or a including it we have no terminating, but it was contents of Deuteronomy duced the effect that discovery. The book was the king, he rent his listened, a thrill of through the nation at tions of woe against to light when the idolatry established in the land, sues the most sudden movement in all history. is the great gathering in 'all the men of Judah and habitants of Jerusalem priests, and the prophets, people, both small and book is read before them into covenant with the Lord leading them from his form. Then they turn purging zeal; there is idolatrous vessels, shaft links, defiling of high pl out the land and the slay priests. Then with a of national purity the able to keep the feast was not kept such a the days of the judges Israel, nor in all the kings of Israel, nor of Judah.'"

The lesson is so full it is hard to cover it with a column. We shall points that are suggestive five, Love for God. 2. Teaching Children. 3. and eleven, God's Gifts.

Love for God is the from the human standpoint sary to-day. Men will sire to do God's will unto affection for Him. They their fellow creatures unless they have a the love for God. They will selves to all sorts of practice every variety of if their souls are not with such a love for God make them amenable to of the divine decrees. this as much as do indi shall never beat our agricultural implements the world in an attitude ward God. The world God loves it, especially world. What we need reciprocity of affection ward side. Without it doomed.

It is not sufficient that be lovers of God themselves necessary that they shall children the principles of religious truth that dominate lives. And the Protestant much to learn along this Catholic church, however may disagree with its tenets, is the greatest the world has ever seen of the direction and child mind. And the church might well learn that success. Proper instruction during the of the life of a child will variably, determine the its mind during the Our children are entitled cultivated, intellectual nourishment and guidance world affords. To-day destiny of to-morrow.

Another thing that we member, especially in that God has given us the out any effort of our own less true of us than it was America needs this message to Israel beyond any other world to-day. We have ful not to forget God in of our inheritance. The heritage of America is beyond price. May she either her inheritance or for a mess of pottage. is that in our prosperity get the Providences that turies ago unveiled the gaze of Christendom. that we shall let go our The danger is that in alysis we of to-day shall we did not build the land houses with good things wells. The danger is that and satisfied we shall be satisfied; that being in our prosperity we self-sufficient. Let us be

HAIL PE-RU-NA.

A Case of STOMACH CATARRH.

Mary O'Brien, 202 Myrtle Ave. writes: "Peruna cured me in five weeks of catarrh of the stomach after suffering for four years and doctoring without effect. In common with other women who have been benefited by Peruna, I say, 'Hail to Peruna.'"

J. Henneman, Oakland, Neb., writes: "I waited before writing to you to ascertain, outside of the statements, what Peruna would do for catarrh of the stomach. I had had catarrh for over a year ago. There were people who told me it would cure me, but I am sure that I am cured. I do not feel any more ill effects, have a good appetite and am getting fat, and will say to all, I am cured by Peruna."

Thank you for your kindness. Peruna will be our house medicine hereafter."

Catarrh of the stomach is also known as such disturbance as dyspepsia, gastritis, indigestion. No medicine will be of permanent benefit except it removes the catarrhal condition.

Gained Strength and Flesh.

Della Butler, R. R. 4, Appleton, Minn., writes she had catarrh of the stomach, a long loss of sleep and appetite, with severe pains after eating. She writes, her appetite returned, she gained strength, flesh and perfect health.

PEARLS OF THOUGHT.

...y to avoid work is often the ...kind.

...borrow trouble, but always be ...to lend it.

...ope is the milkmaid who has ...coming.

...you strive for your rights you ...to get left.

...world remembers the man who ...—for a day.

...are many high-salaried teach... the school of experience.

...thy father and thy mother—give you half a chance.

...have nothing in common with ...st watches of the night.

...ge is responsible for the de... of many happy delusions.

...the first step toward reformation is to catch him in the act.

...ating conversationalist is a person who talks to you about yourself.

...d hand-out appeals to the human more than a warm hand-

...man who gossips is bad enough, ...man who listens to gossip is

...people climb to the top for ...pose of looking down on their

...a man's idea of hospitality is ...other men home and have his ...k for them.

...t always policy to believe the ...o tells you what he would do ...re in your place.

...some people are so industrious ...en they haven't anything to do ...ssed to do somebody.

...time you register a protest it ...a lot of trouble for the easy-...hape who have occasion to follow ...your footsteps.—From "Pointed ...phs," in the Chicago News.

FAMILY FOOD.

Toothsome and Requires No Cooking.

...tle boy down in N. C. asked ...her to write an account of how ...uts food had helped their

...says Grape-Nuts was first ...t to her attention on a visit to ...te, where she visited the ...of that city who was using the ...by the advice of his physician.

...y derive so much good from it ...ey never pass a day without ...e. While I was there I used ...d regularly. I gained about ...nds and felt so well that when ...ed home I began using Grape-...our family regularly.

...little 18 months old baby ...after being weaned was very ...dyspepsia and teething. She ...k nine weeks and we tried ...ing. She became so emaciated ...was painful to handle her, and ...ught we were going to lose ...one day a happy thought urged ...y Grape-Nuts soaked in a little ...milk.

...t worked like a charm and ...n taking it regularly and improvement set in at once. She is now ...well and round and fat as fast ...ible on Grape-Nuts.

...time ago several of the family were stricken with LaGrippe at ...e time, and during the worst ...we could not relish anything ...shape of food but Grape-Nuts ...ranges, everything else nauseated ...m.

...all appreciate what your food has done for our family." ...a Reason." Read "The Road ...ville," in pkgs.

...Dollar wheat and ...corn, observes the St. ...Democrat, make it still ...why boys leave the farm.

"There are two classes," said the close observer to the Journal. "One knows how to save money, having spent years learning her. The other has had something, never having made

ALL HAIL PE-RU-NA.

A Cure of STOMACH CATARRH.

Miss Mary O'Brien, 256 Myrtle Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:

Peruna cured me in five weeks of catarrh of the stomach, after suffering the last years and doctoring without effect. In common with other grateful ones who have been benefited since discovery I say, All Hail to Peruna.

Mr. H. J. Henneman, Oakland, Neb., writes: "I waited before writing to you to see what Peruna would do for my catarrh of the stomach, which I had had over a year ago. There were people who told me it would be useless, but I am sure that I am cured. I do not feel any more ill effects, have a good appetite and am getting fat. Peruna did well by me, and will say to all, I am cured by it. Thank you for your kindness.

Peruna will be our house medicine hereafter."

Catarrh of the stomach is also known in common parlance as dyspepsia, gastritis and indigestion. No medicine will be of any permanent benefit except it removes the catarrhal condition.

Gained Strength and Flesh.

Miss Julia Butler, R. R. 4, Appleton, Wis., writes she had catarrh of the stomach causing loss of sleep and appetite, with frequent severe pains after eating. She took Peruna, her appetite returned, she gained strength, flesh and perfect health.

PEARLS OF THOUGHT.

Trying to avoid work is often the hardest kind.

Never borrow trouble, but always be ready to lend it.

Fortunate is the milkmaid who has no kick coming.

Unless you strive for your rights you are apt to get left.

This world remembers the man who dies game for a day.

There are many high-salaried teachers in the school of experience.

Honor thy father and thy mother—if they give you half a chance.

Babies have nothing in common with the silent watches of the night.

Marriage is responsible for the destruction of many happy delusions.

About the first step toward reforming a man is to catch him in the act.

A pleasing conversationalist is a person who talks to you about yourself.

A cold hand-out appeals to the hungry man more than a warm handclasp.

A woman who gossips is bad enough, but a man who listens to gossip is worse.

Some people climb to the top for the purpose of looking down on their neighbors.

Many a man's idea of hospitality is to bring other men home and have his wife cook for them.

It isn't always policy to believe the man who tells you what he would do if he were in your place.

And some people are so industrious that when they haven't anything to do they proceed to do somebody.

Every time you register a protest it saves a lot of trouble for the easy going chaps who have occasion to follow in your footsteps.—From "Point Paragraphs," in the Chicago News.

FAMILY FOOD.

Crisp, Toothsome and Requires No Cooking.

A little boy down in N. C. asked his mother to write an account of how Grape-Nuts food had helped your family.

She says Grape-Nuts was first brought to her attention on a visit to Charlotte, where she visited the Mayor of that city who was using the food by the advice of his physician. She says:

"They derive so much good from it that they never pass a day without using it. While I was there I used the Food regularly. I gained about 14 pounds and felt so well that when I returned home I began using Grape-Nuts in our family regularly.

"My little 18 months baby shortly after being weaned was very ill with dyspepsia and teething. She was sick nine weeks and we tried everything. She became emaciated that it was painful to handle her, and we thought we were going to lose her. One day a happy thought urged me to try Grape-Nuts soaked in a little warm milk.

"Well, it worked like a charm and she began taking it regularly and improvement set in at once. She is now getting well and rounding out fat as fast as possible on Grape-Nuts.

"Some time ago several of the family were stricken with LaGrippe at the same time, and during the worst stages we could not relish anything in the shape of food but Grape-Nuts and oranges, everything else nauseated us.

"We all appreciate what your famous food has done for our family." "There's a Reason." Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

WORTH QUOTING

They still have the open door in Manchuria, notes the Atlanta Journal, but a Japanese sentry stands in the doorway.

The girls who are establishing a precedent of kissing their rescuers confounds the New York Argonaut, are doing more for the promotion of heroism than all of Carnegie's medals.

The scientist who discovered that people think with their toes, declares the New York Commercial, should approach his subjects with more understanding.

Even if the tobacco trust should show its irritation by putting up the cost of its wares to the consumer, pleads the Washington Star, it would be less formidable in its wrath than monopolies which handle necessities.

Says the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle: Modern power boating is wholesome as well as fascinating. In order to enjoy it one need not necessarily be a trained steam engineer. At the same time it is a pastime which is not without its perils, and not the least of these perils is buffeting white-capped waves with a disabled engine or an empty gasoline tank.

This tendency to devote the idle days to the reading of fiction to the exclusion of books and articles of greater moment seems to be growing, warns the St. Paul Pioneer Press. This growth raises the question of summer reading to the habits of reading during the remainder of the year. Does the reading almost exclusively of novels and short stories during the summer tend to deprive the mind of power to relish heavier reading when cooler weather comes?

Generally speaking, the vacation school aims at providing rational play first and utility is indirect and secondary, observes the Chicago Record-Herald. Manual training is an attractive feature, and cooking, sewing and millinery are taught. The object, however, is to make the vacation school as unlike the didactic school as possible; first, because the children really need rest and recreation and second, because any attempt to give prominence to utility would reduce attendance.

There is no trouble with the acres in the state. They are fertile as ever, remarks the New York World. The orchards are as good as when in 1902 they put New York at the head in apple production. Migration to the west has done part of the mischief of rural depopulation; the lure of the cities has done more. Villages and school districts have grown poorer, while certain professions and a congested urban society have grown not correspondingly richer.

On his way back from Rio de Janeiro Hon. William I. Buchanan stopped over at Havana. "I think many of the reports of disturbed conditions in Cuba have been exaggerated," he says. "I know of nothing there now except peaceful conditions and these are particularly shown in the increase of business. The daily growth of business of the National Bank of Cuba, which has a dozen branches throughout the island, is, to my mind, a very good indication of this."

The human hog is the same in Washington, in New York, in San Francisco, in Tokio and in Duluth, admits the Duluth Herald. If there are no open cars he shows himself in closed cars by taking up a whole seat while others are standing by spreading his newspaper out so that his elbows dig into the ribs of those that sit near him and by standing near the care entrance when there is "plenty of room up front."

Recent automobile accidents have resulted in the death or injury of the persons responsible for the disaster, and have consequently not received the attention of the courts. The criminal negligence is there just the same, urges the New York Call, and it is a fair question for the courts to consider whether there should not be public action taken to prevent this form of self-destruction. There seems to be no hope of reckless men learning to be careful. Repeated warnings appear only to make them more indifferent.

Kings Making History.

History used to be made by Bismarcks and Cavours, by Metternichs and Thierses, by Gortschakoffs and Beaconsfields. Now it is being made by Emperor Williams and King Edwardses and Victor Emmanuels. At least four continental monarchies have rulers more important than any statesman in them, including the venerable Emperor who is holding together the explosive fragments of Austria-Hungary. It cannot be denied that the personal element lends a new picturesqueness to current history. It is far more curious and interesting to see King Edward and Emperor William competing in the Mediterranean for the alliance of young Alfonso and Victor Emmanuel than it was to see dry-as-dust prime ministers pulling wires in the administrative antechamber of parliament.—Minneapolis Tribune.

An Ideal Tonic

Weak women need "tone" to throw off disease and build up their strength. No matter what female trouble you suffer from, if you lack tone you will find it hard to recover. Cardui is a tonic, which acts principally on the womanly organs and constitution. Purely vegetable, harmless, yet powerful in curative properties, is an ideal tonic for weak women. Mrs. Blanche E. Stephanou, of 1228 S. 42nd Ave., Chicago, Ill., writes: "I suffered with a constant backache, pain in my side, and other troubles. At last I took Cardui and now feel like a different person."

Wine of Cardui

WRITE US A LETTER Write today for a free copy of valuable 64-page Illustrated Book for Women. It was used Medical Advice, describing your symptoms, explains age, and enables us to give you special advice. Address: Ladies Advisory Dept., The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Lacked Mentality.

Harold's mother was a devout believer of mental science. The two were crossing a field while in the country, and when the lad saw a goat at a distance he shielded himself instinctively behind his parent's skirt.

"Oh, Harold, I'm ashamed of you," she told him. "Don't you know there is no such a thing as pain and that the goat can't hurt you?"

"Yes," he admitted timidly. "I know it, and you know it, but the goat don't know it."—Kansas City Times.

FITS, St. Vitus' Dance, Nervous Diseases permanently cured by Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. $2 trial bottle and treatise free. Dr. H. Kline, Ltd., 931 Arch St., Phila., Pa.

People who know how to do nothing profitably have the rest of us skinned to death.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

It could be because he needed oiling that John D.'s tongue and memory wouldn't work.

E. W. Gaylor & Sons, of Atlanta, Ga., are the only successful Dropsy Specialists in the world. See their liberal offer in advertisement in another column of this paper.

Hardly anybody is lucky enough to have all his relations hate him so they won't come to see him.

WORN TO A SKELETON.

A Wonderful Restoration Caused a Sensation in a Pennsylvania Town.

Mrs. Charles N. Preston, of Elkland, Pa., says: "Three years ago I found that my housework was becoming a burden. I tired easily, had no ambition and was failing fast. My complexion got yellow and I lost over 50 pounds. My thirst was terrible, and there was sugar in the kidney secretions. My doctor kept me on a strict diet, but as his medicine was not helping me, I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They helped me at once, and soon all traces of sugar disappeared. I have regained my former weight and am perfectly well."

Sold by all dealers. Mr. Preston sends a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

A hot day sometimes takes the kinks out of a girl's marcel and puts them in her disposition.

Actions and some people's clothes speak louder than words.

No use trying to hide facts, for they have an industrious way of spreading in the dark.

Some people are never found out who are out most of the time.

ECZEMA COVERED BABY.

Worst Case Doctors Ever Saw—Suffered Untold Misery — Perfect Cure by Cuticura Remedies.

"My son, who is now twenty-two years of age, when four months old began to have eczema on his face, spreading rapidly until he was nearly covered. The eczema was something terrible, and the doctors said it was the worst case they ever saw. At times his whole body and face were covered, all but his feet. I used many kinds of patent medicines to no avail. At last I decided to try Cuticura, when my boy was three years and four months old, having had eczema all that time and suffering untold misery. I began to use all three of the Cuticura Remedies. He was better in two months, in six months he was well. Mrs. R. L. Risley, Piermont, N. H., Oct. 24, 1906."

Before acting on free advice investigate the motive behind it.

EYES RUINED

By neglect; they get red and sore and you let them go. Don't do it. Leonardi's Golden Eye Lotion cures soreness without pain in one day. Cools, heals and strengthens. Insist on having "Leonardi's"—it makes strong eyes. Guaranteed or money refunded. Druggists sell it at 25 cts., or forwarded prepaid on receipt of price by St. Louis Leonardi & Co., Tampa, Fla.

He is truly a wise father who brings up his children as if they belonged to some one else.

Making light of trouble doesn't cut down the gas bill.

Some men consider themselves brave because of their ability to keep out of a fight.

PUTNAM FADELESS DYES

Color more goods brighter and faster than any other dye. One 10c. package colors all fibers. They dye in cold water better than any other dyes. You can dye any garment without ripping apart. Write for free booklet—How to Dye, Bleach and Mix Colors. Sample card, etc. Quincy, Illinois.

TRAINING HORSES FOR WAR.

Fourfooted Regulars Have to Take Long Course of Lessons.

Germany needs 1,000,000 horses for cavalry and artillery to put her colonial forces in the field. France requires probably 750,000, and even Great Britain needed as many as 350,000 in South Africa, while she was fighting the Boers.

Although in England in peace time mounts only two-thirds of her cavalry her horse bill amounts to about $400,000,000 a year—a figure which may be multiplied by four or five for the German army.

In most countries omnibus, farm and domestic horses are registered as being available in time of war for miscellaneous service, and for this anything from $30,000 to $150,000 a year may be paid by a military nation.

France spends upward of $600,000 a year on horses for her great armies. As a general rule, says a writer in the Circle, the recruits are five years old and cost $200 each.

Cavalry charges vary from fifteen to sixteen hands in height, and sharp rules have been laid down about their shape, action and treatment. There are regular schools where the raw four-legged recruit is trained. His education embraces the fearless swimming of deep and wide rivers.

It is extremely interesting to see a thousand four-legged recruits drawn up in a ring around the instructor, who opens the proceedings with a sharp shot from an army revolver. The animals are taught to gallop fearlessly up to a line or square of infantry, who are blazing away with their rifles, of course loadede with blank cartridges.

Lastly comes a charge upon batteries of quick-firing cannon. It is worth noting that when smokeless powder came into general use it was found that thousands of horses which woud face without flinching the smoke of guns using black powder balked and shied at the sinister flash and roar of cordite and melinite.

There appears to be as much individuality among horses as among men. Some take the flash and report very quietly, and are passed on to more severe trials, while others rear and try to bolt in abject terror.

The riding masters intrusted with the education of these horses are especially selected for their quietness, kindness, self-control and patience, united with courage, firmness and the absolute confidence born of tried and consummate horsemanship. Horse and man are trained together in the various armies.

The French cavalry recruit goes through no fewer than 112 separate lessons in revisions before he is considered fit to get upon his horse, which is trained simultaneously. Both are taught to swim burdened with full equipment; both are thoroughly accustomed to all sorts of startling noises, from the crack of a revolver to the ear-splitting roar of packed artillery.

Besides the riding school training, there is also field work across country with steeple-chasing, jumping over hurdle, and even over the dinner table, where a silver set feast has been spread. Not so much as a folded napkin must be displaced by the flying leap of the cavalryman right over the table. One part of the charger's education shows him how to lie prostrate on the field of battle and shield his rider from hostile bullets, as the latter crouches behind the faithful creature.

So perfectly are cavalry horses trained that every great war beholds the curious spectacle of riderless horses galloping to the charge in perfect line. Thus at Balaklava the front rank of one regiment was composed almost entirely of riderless horses, their masters having been dropped by the Russian sharpshooters.

Angels with Stingers.

A little Cleveland tot of 3 years was put to bed, her first night in New Jersey, by her mother, with the words, "Now go to sleep, darling, and remember the angels are flying about your little crib and keeping you from harm."

A few minutes later the patter of little feet was heard and a little white-robed figure emerged from the bedroom.

"Why, darling, what's the matter?" said the mother.

"I don't like the angels," sobbed the little girl.

"Why, dearie, why not?"

"One o' the angels bit me."—Judge's Library.

Banks and Banking in Guayaquil.

Consul-General Herman R. Dietrich furnishes the following information concerning the banks of Guayaquil, Ecuador:

On an aggregate capital of nearly $5,000,000 the six banks in Guayaquil declared dividends for 1906 averaging a little less than 14 per cent.

It is reported that the German Bank of Berlin which has already established branches in Peru and Chili, is about to establish a similar institution in this city. Trade relations of this republic with the United States and the daily increase in the interchange of the products of the two countries seem to warrant a serious consideration of the possibilities in the banking business on the part of investors in the United States. I am of the opinion that an American bank, properly organized and sufficiently capitalized would do well in Guayaquil.—Consular Report.

The Battleship Searchlight.

The searchlights to be fitted to the British battleships now being built on the Clyde are of extraordinary power. The Glasgow Evening News, in a description it gives of them, says it would be possible to read a newspaper by the light of one at a distance of about eighteen miles. The projector of these wonderful lights is not less than forty-eight inches in diameter, and the illuminant is the electric arc. The apparatus is directed by means of electric motors, instead of, as previously arranged, by hand. One curious fact about these and similar projectors is that a man standing quite close in front of the lens is not dazzled by the light, whereas one standing twenty feet away is so blinded that he would be unable to see that the first man was standing in the light at all. The nearer man, however, would find his position untenable, as the heat from the projector is intense.

Mica Axle Grease

Best lubricant for axles in the world—long wearing and very adhesive.

Makes a heavy load draw like a light one. Saves half the wear on wagon and team, and increases the earning capacity of your outfit.

Ask your dealer for Mica Axle Grease.

STANDARD OIL CO. (Incorporated)

TRY THEM
Tobacco Habit
Morphine Habit
Liquor Habit
EASILY CURED
Hill's Double Chloride of Gold Tablets will cure any case of Morphine, Liquor or Tobacco Habit in from ten to thirty days. Can be given in tea or coffee without the knowledge of the patient. Particulars SENT FREE. For sale by all druggists or sent on receipt of $1.00.
THE OHIO CHEMICAL WORKS
P. O. Box 329 W. TOLEDO, OHIO

G.A.-ALL BUSINESS COLLEGE
MACON, GA.
New Management. Most Expert Faculty.
FINEST FURNITURE. AMERICA'S BEST.
WRITE FOR CATALOGUE.

THE MEN WHO KNOW
THE SUPERIOR QUALITIES OF

SLICKERS, SUITS AND HATS are the men who have put them to the hardest tests in the roughest weather.
Get the original Tower's Fish Brand made since 1836.
SLICKER AND FISH BRAND

IT LEADS for Style, Finish and Durability. A buggy built to look and drive right and wear right. Ask for Atlanta Buggy Co. Atlanta, Ga.
Write today for our handsome Catalog. The finest Vehicle Catalog ever sent out in the South.

The Tulane University OF LA. New Orleans
EDWIN B. CRAIGHEAD, LL. D. President.
The Tulane University of Louisiana, founded in 1834 as the University of Louisiana, is the highest head of the entire system of public educational institutions of the State.
Full courses are offered in Languages, Sciences, Engineering, Architecture, Law, Medicine, Pharmacy. An splendid department for Women in Newcomb College. Full course in Architecture will be offered next session. Teachers' Courses recently established will open Oct. 1st. Many scholarships in Academic Colleges. Preparatory, Low Grammar grades. Next session of all departments, except the Medical, begins Oct. 1st. Medical Department opens Oct. 23rd. Send for catalogue. R. S. PRUYT, Secretary.

Dropsy
Removes all swelling in 10 to 20 days; effects permanent cure in 30 to 60 days. Trial treatment given free. Get blessing before it's too late. Write to E. H. Gregory's Sons, Box B, Atlanta, Ga.

WINTERSMITH'S CHILL TONIC

COMMERCIAL COLLEGE OF KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY
LEXINGTON, KY.
Under management of Prof. Johnson, Principal of Commercial Department of Kentucky University. Thorough, practical, up-to-date. Unexcelled Penmanship. Shorthand, Typewriting, Bookkeeping, Telegraphy, Civil Service, Etc. Elegant Catalogue free. Address WILSON & SMITH, Lexington, Ky.

Atlanta, Ga. Apr. 27 1907

Diploma in 12 Months
SOUTHERN COLLEGE OF PHARMACY
Diploma in 12 Months
Fall session October to April. Spring Session, April to October. Largest Pharmacy School South. Drug Store in the College. Free Books, saving $20 book expense. Large new Building and Equipment, three Laboratories. Demand for our graduates exceeds supply. Tuition $65 per session. Address W. B. FREEMAN, Secretary, 80 Luckie St. A block in Ga.

10,000 TELEGRAPHERS WANTED
Wires in charge of ex-railway officials. Established Twenty-one Years. Main lines of R. R. Telegraph. Practice during 3rd year, month and expert operators guaranteed, graduates under $100 Quarterly Board. Can pay your way for your experience. Write for Catalog. NATIONAL TELEGRAPH INSTITUTE, Cincinnati, Ohio.

CRESCENT ANTISEPTIC
GREATEST HEALER KNOWN TO SCIENCE.
Non Poisonous, Non Irritating. Allays Inflammation and stops pain from any cause. As strong as carbolic acid and as harmless as sweet milk. Cures burns instantly; cures old and chronic sores; cures sores and inflammation from any cause on man or beast. For horse—cures chokers, sore head and rope. Satisfaction positively guaranteed.
For Sale by all Press Goods Dealers. Mfgd. by CRESCENT CHEMICAL CO., Ft. Worth, Texas.

W. L. DOUGLAS
$3.00 & $3.50 SHOES BEST IN THE WORLD
SHOES FOR EVERY MEMBER OF THE FAMILY, AT ALL PRICES.
$25,000 Reward

THE STAMP W. L. Douglas shoes are worn by more people in all walks of life than any other make, because of their excellent style, easy fitting, and superior wearing qualities. The selection of the leathers, and other materials for each part of the shoe, and every detail of the making is looked after by the most competent operatives in our factories, each one a skilled workman, who receives the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and whose workmanship cannot be excelled. If I could take you into my factories at Brockton, Mass., and show you how carefully my shoes are made, you would see why they hold their shape, fit better, wear longer and are of greater value than any other make.

You Look Prematurely Old

THE COMING SEASON

is one of novelties and of exceptional opportunities for buyers who will make a thorough examination of the New Fall and Winter Goods. The fall of the year necessitates a change of clothing, and when you are changing, why not change into the latest fashions?

We have recently returned from the northern markets, where we bought the finest line of

Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Hats,

UNDERWEAR, NOTIONS, ETC.

that could be found on the market, and offer them to you at prices that will command your attention. Come in and let us show you.

We have entered the cotton market and will pay the highest price for cotton—and the price promises to be high this season.

Also we shall continue to pay highest prices for COUNTRY PRODUCE, WOOL, BEESWAX, HIDES and TALLOW. Bring them in and get cash for them.

PHONOGRAPHS and RECORDS
a Specialty
Come and Hear Them Play

H. KANJUTZKY

CLANTON - - ALA.

Summer is Here

and we are making our first showing of the New Summer Styles in Clothes for men and boys. They are the newest productions of the best known makes, in all the latest fabrics, shades, and a real treat to the eye of a man who knows good clothes when he sees them. Come in, look, try one and you will be highly pleased.

This is the Season for Hat Changing

and nothing can add to your appearance more than a stylish, becoming hat. If you will come in, we will convince you that we have the latest and best styles.

Furnishing Goods

The little things that go to make up the attire of a well dressed person are to be found here in the newest styles at moderate prices.

Just Received a Beautiful Lot of Laces, Dress Goods and Lace Collars. Also a complete line of Parisian Corsets.

Summer Models In Footwear

Our line is complete.

Star Brand Shoes are Better

J. C. JONES

CLANTON - - - - - ALA.

Will Cure You.

The liver is the main-spring for the whole body. To expect good health, one must keep the liver in good order. To do so, a regulator is needed. Herbine will put your liver in the condition it should be and you will not suffer from headaches.

A POSITIVE CURE
FOR CONSTIPATION, CHILLS AND FEVER, BILIOUSNESS, MALARIA AND ALL LIVER COMPLAINTS.

Has Done A World Of Good.

Mrs. C. D. Philley, Marble Falls, Texas, writes: "I have used Herbine and find it the best liver corrective I have ever tried. It done my family as well as myself a world of good, and I recommend it to all my friends. I never suffer from headaches anymore."

50c WILL BUY IT.

Ballard Snow Liniment Co.
500-502 N. Second St., ST. LOUIS, MO.

Sold and Recommended by
UPCHURCH DRUG CO., CLANTON.

Gen. Robert E. Lee

was the greatest General the world has ever known. Ballard's Snow Liniment is the greatest Liniment. Quickly cures all pains. It is within the reach of all. T. H. Poinier, Hempstead, Texas, writes: "This is to certify that Ballard's Snow Liniment has been used in my home hold for years and has been found to be an excellent Liniment for rheumatic pains. I am never without it." Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Enterprise.

The Cheerful Addie Mercy Band will meet at Enterprise, Saturday night before the fourth Sunday in September. All who are interested in the Addie Mercy Band are especially invited to come and join this [illegible] band. Everybody [illegible] H. C. V[illegible]

A GALA DAY AT MAPLESVILLE.

Dear Banner—With a lead new pencil presented to me by my granddaughter, Laurelia Milling, of Birmingham, I will say that the fifth of September, the day set apart for our big barbecue at Maplesville, dawned clear and bright and remained so during the day. The most regrettable feature of the day was the absence of Gov Comer which caused a great disappointment to the committee on arrangement and to many who came purposely to be thus entertained. But it has come and gone with its pleasures and disappointments. The committee had arranged a nice platform and seats in a beautiful grove of many acres in extent right in town. Dr. C. N Parnell and T. U. Crumpton were noted figures; they went here and there to see that the features of the program were fully carried out. They were ably assisted by many of the citizens who were as anxious as they to make a success of the undertaking. Many of the young men foregoing their own pleasures in order to help make it a day of instruction and pleasure to all who might be on hand. The merchants also kept closed doors, workshops were shut down and most of laborers given an opportunity to have a day of pleasure. At about ten o'clock Mr. T. U. Crumpton announced speaking by several speakers who had already taken places on the stand. Many citizens of our and other counties also occupied places on the stand. Among the speakers notably were C. T. Hill, U. S. Forest Service, creosoting and forest preservation; G. L. Burgess, U. S. D. A., soil management J. A. Wilkinson, Commissioner of Agriculture, soil fertility, etc., B. B. Ross, State Chemist, on fertilizers; Senator H. E. Reynolds, on education, acts of recent legislature; State Treasurer, Seed, spoke on the present management of the funds of the State Treasury. All of the above speakers acquitted themselves in splendid order and it is to be hoped that none of their generous efforts to instruct the people fell on deaf ears, but all who heard were benefited. Only a part of the speaking was done before dinner, as Mr. T. U. Crumpton came and announced, "For all things are now ready." The speakers repaired with him to the table, followed by the largest crowd, perhaps, ever assembled in Maplesville—guessed to be three thousand. After dinner and a short rest the speakers again took their places on the stand and resumed their lectures to the people.

Right here I would like to say something more about the citizens of Maplesville. J. J. L. Stewart introduced the first speaker in a few appropriate remarks. Mr. Edward O'Neal did the cooking up brown, with several good assistants. There was a large lemonade and ice cream stand run by the citizens of Maplesville, proceeds of which is to be used for better road in and out of our town. While speaking of our citizens, I must not neglect Mr. Rob Martin, our enterprising merchant and lumberman, who perhaps did more than his part in that he furnished lumber and built the tables and stands necessary for the occasion and was also busy seeing that all things should go right.

Among the immense crowd present were many prominent persons from a distance. Some from Montgomery, Birmingham, Selma, Clanton, Centerville, Plantersville, Goodo and Randolph. Some said there are people here out of seven counties. I reckon if they had said seventeen, they would not have made much mistake. After saying that there was ample food on the ground for all, I wish to say that our little town is just on the eve of a great boom, since I wrote you last. Why not? For it is centrally located in the state, at the crossing of the M. & O. and Southern railroads, about fifty miles from Montgomery, thirty-three from Selma, twenty-five from Calera and twenty-five from Centerville.

Mr. Walter Lawrence is erecting a nice cottage on one of his lots. Dr. C. N. Parnell is contemplating the building of several nice cottages on his property east of the M. & O. Railroad and a splendid mansion on his lot west of the Southern Railroad. I have already heard of one preacher who speaks of moving to Maplesville, which would be a great acquisition, especially if he would bring a little leaven to put in the lump. J. T. Gandy, an architect, also speaks of moving here from Centerville. Well, we are ready at any time to welcome all good people who wish to live among good people. (Others need not apply.) I haven't forgotten that Dr. J. C. Merchant, Cal Fe[illegible], J. L. Mitchell, Tom Perry, Miss [illegible] O'Neal and others whose [illegible] me, were among those [illegible] who merit[illegible] for [illegible] a hand[illegible] others; they remained in the refreshment stand from morning 'til late in the evening.

Now, I have just heard from one of your citizens, Mrs. O. E. Latham, that my sister, Mrs. Pann e Smitherman, and my niece, Miss Minnie Maw, have just joined the Baptist church in Clanton. made me feel that if our old f and mother were looking ove betterments, that there must been rejoicing in heaven when happened. R. J. MITCHE

The Tooth That Heals

Is the tooth of Bucklen's nice salve. It's the happiest combination of Arnica flowers and healing h ever compounded. No matter how old the sore or ulcer is, this salve will cure it. burns, scalds, cuts, wounds or eq equal. Guaranteed Upchurch Drug co. 25c.

Non-Resident otice.

The State of Alabama
Chilton County
Chancery Court 7th Circuit Northeastern Division.
N. J. B. H. Complainant vs. Annie May Kendrick, Defendant.

In this cause it b ade to appear to the Register, by affidavit of J. V. Solicitor for Complainant, the Defendant, file of the parties Jim Red Sheffield style of defendant in the said affiant, is, in the belief of infant under the age of fourteen years, a non resident of the State of Alabama, that infant resides with his grandfather H. R Sheffield, in the town of Quitt, State of Georgia, and that infant has no legal guardian, and that the father of said infant, R Sheffield, resides in the town of Montezuma, State of Georgia, est of said R. L. that the interverve to the infant effield is not a Affiant further says that the Defendant, R. L. Sheffield is a non resident of the State of abama, over the age of twenty-one years, and resides in the town of tezuma, in the State of Georgia.

It is therefore ordered by the Register, that publication be made in the Banner, a newspaper published in Clanton, Alabama, once a week for four consecutive weeks, requiring the said Jim Red Sheffield and R. L. Sheffield to appear and plead or demur to the bill of complaint in the above cause on or before the 13th day of November, and failing so to do within days after the service of the order which service is perfected Oct. 13, 1907, a decree pro confesso may be taken against them said cause.

Witness my hand this 9th day of September, 1907.

J. A. STEWART, Register.

Health in the Canal Zone.

The high wages paid make it a mighty temptation to our young artisans to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama canal. Many are restrained however by fear of fevers and malaria. It is the knowing ones—those who have used Electric Bitters, who go there without this fear, well knowing they are safe from malarious influence with Electric Bitters on hand. Cures blood poisons, full of sores, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Guaranteed by Upchurch Drug Co. 50c.

SOUR STOMACH

is a common and distressing complaint.

It is Nature's way of protesting against improper food hastily devoured or too hearty meals, and if the warning is unheeded serious results will follow.

When your stomach rebels at this abuse, it becomes inactive, your food ferments, gases form and there is trouble ahead. The quickest, safest and surest way to conquer this condition and prevent its return is to immediately commence the use of

Dr. Caldwell's
(Laxative)
Syrup Pepsin

This great remedy will instantly put things in order.

It is just what your stomach needs.

One trial of this wonderful preparation will convince you that your troubles are found.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can be obtained in both dollar and half-dollar sizes from all druggists.

Your money will be refunded if it does not benefit you.

Your postal card request will bring [illegible] book, "SOUR STOMACH—and four samples to those who have never used this wonderful remedy. Send for it today.

PEPSIN SYRUP CO.
Monticello, Illinois

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

TIPTON MULLINS
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
Clanton - - Ala.

WILLIAM M. ADAMS
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
Practices in all Courts. Long time loans negotiated on improved farm lands.
Office Room 1, Court House.
Clanton - - Ala.

ROBERT H. KNOX
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
Clanton - - Ala.
Will practice in all the State and Federal Courts of Alabama.

DR. J. EARL GOWAN
DENTIST
Office Baker Building.
CLANTON, ALA.

DR. P. I HOPKINS
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON
EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROAT
Office Over Store.
CLANTON

Warranty deeds and Mortgage blanks, Waive Notes and Receipt books on sale at the Banner office

DeWITT'S WITCH HAZEL SALVE. For Piles, Burns, Sores.

If You Have Boils or Pimples you are after, White's Cream Vermifuge has a world wide reputation as the best of all worm destroyers and for its tonic influence on sickly and unthrifty children. It improves their digestion and assimilation of their food, strengthens their nervous system and restores them to health and vigor natural to a child. If you want a healthy happy child get a bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge. Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure
Digests what you eat.

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nausea, headache, constipation, bad taste, general debility, sour risings, and all of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol cures indigestion. This cure contains the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does not only cure indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy cures all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

Mr. S. S. Sisk, of Spencerville, O. Va., writes: "I was troubled with sour stomach for [illegible] Kodol cured me and we are now using it in our home."

Kodol Digests What You Eat

Bottles only. $1.00 Size holding 2½ times as much, which sells for $1.00.

Prepared by E. O. DeWITT & CO., Chicago.

Upchurch Drug Co.

The Money to Be Saved

by buying your drugs and whiskies from a house like the Collier Drug Co. will be a pleasant surprise to you. We are the largest cut-rate druggists in this section of the State, and can save you many pennies by giving us your business.

Read our prices and put your dollars where you will receive greatest possible value.

WHISKIES

		Regular Price	Our Price
Shade Mountain Co.	(full quart)	1.00	.85
Old Owner Pepper, 1	sled in bond	1.50	1.25
Murray Hill Club		1.50	1.25
J. Martin Rye		1.25	.75
Atherton Rye		1.00	1.00
Duffy's Pure Malt		1.00	.85
California Sherry		1.00	.85
Old Lincoln County		1.00	.85
Private Stock		1.00	.85
Virginia Pure Apple		[illegible]	.75
Richmond Club		1.00	1.00
Old Holland Gin		.75	.60
Wilcox		1.50	.85
Green River		1.25	.85
I. W. Harper		1.00	1.00
Dew Patch		.75	.60
Paul Jones Four Star		1.25	.85
Old Prentice		1.00	1.00

Our package and express department is complete in every respect and all mail orders get prompt and careful attention the day of receipt. Your patronage will be appreciated.

COLLIER DRUG CO.
109-111 NORTH 20th St.
BIRMINGHAM - - ALA.

GREATEST FAIR IN THE SOUTH

ALABAMA STATE FAIR

BIRMINGHAM ALABAMA

October 8 to 16, 1907

New and Original Features. Great Free Attractions. Big Agricultural, Live Stock and Mineral Displays. Magnificent Fire Works every night. Ricci's celebrated Military Band will give grand, free concerts afternoon and evening. A great Carnival Company of clean, wholesome and entertaining shows.

FINE RACING PROGRAM. SPECIAL RAILROAD RATES

Write for CATALOGUE and all INFORMATION to

GEO. T. BARNES
Secretary and General Mgr., BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

Vol. XV

THE MAN ON THE CORNER

[illegible] of the Sights He Saw, and Some He Saw Not.

The Clanton High School opened Wednesday, with Prof. W. W. [illegible], late of Fayette, in charge, ably seconded by Prof. W. Z. [illegible], of Roanoke. These two gentlemen are educators of ability. They will use every reasonable effort to instill knowledge into the minds of their pupils. The school opens under exceptionally favorable circumstances and we anticipate a successful session.

A very enjoyable evening was spent on Monday by a party of forty-three leading citizens of Clanton, at the Hotel Elliott, who had met on a special occasion. The spread was good, and the hotel management is to be congratulated upon it; a nice band of three pieces discoursed sweet music, the evening was a congenial one, and everybody enjoyed themselves, speeding the parting guest.

I am very sorry to report a slump in the cotton market; right here at home the last week's quotations were 13 to 13½c, and this week it is down to 12½ to 12½c. Why this fall is a [illegible] of explanation. From all reports we can get hold of it seems to be probable that the price will not go up, and I believe in the old saying game. First come, first served, is a good motto in some respects, but in selling your cotton it is not a good one.

EMBROIDERY CLUB BANQUET.

Last Tuesday evening on the [illegible] floor of the Masonic Hall, occurred one of the summer's most beautiful entertainments, when the Embroidery Club gave their annual banquet.

The members present were Misses N. S. Johnston, Pres., Gem[illegible] Anderson, W. H. Forbes, H. [illegible] Chandler, Elias Hopkins, G. [illegible]ggins, J. P. Elliot, J. R. Mul[illegible], J. C. Jones, P. I. Hopkins, [illegible]rie Mullins, J. Watts Moore, [illegible]ton Mullins, J. Martin Nix, J. [illegible] Shepherd, E. E. Upchurch, [illegible]llie Watts, Misses Ola Jones, [illegible]ola Jones, and Alice Stewart.

The guests were Messrs. N. S. [illegible]nson, C. F. Jones, H. F. Chandler, G. Higgins, J. P. Elliot, J. R. [illegible]llins, M. L. White, J. C. Jones, [illegible] I. Hopkins, E. B. Dessod, J. [illegible]tts Moore, Tipton Mullins, J. [illegible]rtin Nix, J. H. Shepherd E. E. [illegible]church, J. Earl Gowan, J. H. [illegible]ddleton, Eugene Stewart and N. [illegible] Kicker and Misses Nell Mul[illegible], Minnie Latham and Mattie [illegible]y Duncan.

On entering the hall numerous [illegible]s artistically banked met one's [illegible]e, and upon further entrance [illegible] profusion of cut flowers were seen [illegible]twined around columns of the [illegible]b's colors—green and yellow, [illegible]d a more beautiful scene could [illegible]rcely be found. In the center [illegible] the spacious hall we found [illegible]le, groaning under the weight [illegible]n elaborate luncheon, and [illegible] beautiful lassies played the role [illegible] waitresses to perfection. It would [illegible] hard to name the many delicacies that were crowded on the table, and such perfect harmony in everything would be hard to duplicate. Before relieving the table of its [illegible]t burden, a black-board was produced and each individual present was furnished with a piece of crayon and an opportunity at the black-board to engage in an art contest. The contest was enjoyed by all and Mrs. N. S. Johnston won the prize and Mrs. J. H. Shepherd second and Dr. J. Earl Gowan carried off the booby, after which we went to rescue the table. The punch bowl was gracefully presided over by Miss Nell Mullins and Miss Minnie Latham. [illegible]ch of the success of the evening is due to the charming manipul[illegible]n of the [illegible]. The banquet was a huge success and with many thanks to the many [illegible] for so hospitable an entertainment were unanimous in the expression. Center and prettier occasions have never before been held over town.

Peop[illegible]

W. [illegible] C.

[illegible]

H. [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

[

If It's Expulsion
you are after, White's Cream mifuge has a world wide reputa as the best of all worm destro and for its tonic influence on and untrifty children. It imp their digestion and assimilation their food, strengthens their vous system and restores the health and vigor natural to a
If you want a healthy happy get a bottle of White's Cream mifuge. Sold by Upchurch co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure
Digests what you eat.

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nau sea, headache, constipation, bad general debility, sour risings, and of the stomach are all due to indi Kodol cures indigestion. This new ery represents the natural juices of tion as they exist in a healthy combined with the greatest known and reconstructive properties. Kodol pepsia Cure does not only cure indi and dyspepsia, but this famous cures all stomach troubles by purifying, sweetening and strengthe the mucous membranes lining the
Mr. S. S. Bell, of Ravenswood, W. Va.,
I was troubled with sour stomach for Kodol cured me and we are now using it
Kodol Digests What You Eat.
Bottles only $1.00 Size holding 2½ times
one which sells for 50 cents.
Prepared by E. O. DeWITT & CO., Chicago

Upchurch Drug Co.

ey to Be Saved

drugs and whiskies from Collier Drug Co. will be a e to you. We are the larg uists in this section of the ave you many pennies by business.
s and put your dollars where reatest possible value.
WHISKIES

	Regular Price	Our Price
quart)	1.00	.80
a bond	1.50	1.00
	1.50	1.00
	1.25	.75
	1.50	1.00
	1.00	.70
	1.00	.80
	1.00	.80
	1.00	.80
	.75	.60
	1.50	1.00
	.75	.60
	1.25	.80
	1.25	.80
	1.50	1.00
	.75	.60
	1.25	.80
	1.50	1.00

press department is complete in every s get prompt and careful attention as patronage will be appreciated.

R DRUG CO.
1 ORTH 20th St.
M - - ALA.

TAI IN THE SOUT

A STATE FAIR
GHA ALABAMA
ber 8 to 6, 1907
Featur . Great Free At Agricult al, Live Stock a
s. Magni. cent Fire Work icci's ce ebrated Milita grand, fre concerts after
. A great Carnival Compa
ome and ent rtaining shows
RAM. SPECIA RAILROAD RATE
LOGUE and all INFORMATION to
O. T. BARNES
eneral Mgr., BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

Bryant Clerk

THE BANNER

LET THE PEOPLE RULE.

VOL. XV — CLANTON, ALA., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1907 — No. 49.

THE MAN ON THE CORNER

Sees the Sights He Sees, and Sums Up Some He Sees Not.

The Clanton High School opened Wednesday, with Prof. W. W. ...ence, late of Fayette, in charge, ...ably seconded by Prof. W. Z. ...dger, of Roanoke. These two ...tlemen are educators of ability, ...s will use every reasonable ...s to instill knowledge into ...e pupils. The school opens ...er exceptionally favorable cir...stances and we anticipate a ...d session.

A very enjoyable evening was ...spent on Monday by a party ...nty-three leading citizens of ...nton, at the Hotel Elliott, who ...d met on a special occasion. ...e spread was good, and the ho... management is to be congratu...ted upon it; a nice band of three ...ces discoursed sweet music, the ...ood was a congenial one, and en...yed themselves, speeding the ...ing guest.

I am very sorry to report a slump ...the cotton market; right here at ...me the last week's quotations ...re 13 to 13¼c, and this week it is ...ne to 1 ¼ to 11½c. Why this fall ...hard of explantion. From all ...e reports we can get hold of it ...ems to be probable that the price ...ot go up, and I believe in the ...tting game. First come, first ...rved, is a good motto in some re...pects, but in selling your cotton it ...s not a good one.

EMBROIDERY CLUB BANQUET.

Last Tuesday evening on the ...d floor of the Masonic Hall, oc...ed one of the summer's most ...utiful entertainments, when the ...broidery Club gave their annual ...quet.

The members present were Mes...es N. S. Johnson, Pres., Gam... Anderson, W. H. Foshee, H. ... Chandler, Elias Hopkins, G. ...ggins, J. P. Elliot, J. R. Mul..., J. C. Jones, P. I. Hopkins, ...rie Mullins, J. Watts Moore, ...pton Mullins, J. Martin Nix, J. ... Shepherd, E. E. Upchurch, ...lie Watts, Misses Ola Jones, ...ie Jones, and Allee Stewart. The guests were Messrs. N. S. ...nson, C. F. Jones, H. F. Chand..., G. Higgins, J. P. Elliot, J. R. ...llins, M. L. White, J. C. Jones, ... Hopkins, E. B. Deason, J. ...tts Moore, Tipton Mullins, J. ...rtin Nix, J. H. Shepherd E. E. ...church, J. Earl Gowan, J. H ...ddleton, Eugene Stewart and N. ... Kicker and Misses Nell Mul..., Minnie Latham and Mattie ... Duncan.

On entering the hall numerous ...s artistically banked met one's ...e, and ubon further entrance ... profusion of cut flowers were seen ...ained around columns of the ...b's colors—green and yellow. ...a more beautiful scene could ...rcely be found. In the center ...the spacious hall we found ...e, groaning under the weight ...n elaborate luncheon, and ... ...utiful lassies played the role ... ...tresses to perfection. It would ...hard to name the many delic... ...that were crowded on the ta...e, ...such perfect harmony in ev... ...g would be hard to duplic... ...efore relieving the table of its ...t burden, a black-board was ...oduced and each individual ...ent was furnished with piece ...crayon and an opportunity at ...black-board to engage in an art ...st. The contest was enjoyed ...all and Mrs. N. S. Johnson won ...t prize and Mrs. J. H. Shepherd ...nd and Dr. J. Earl Gowan ...ed off the booby, after which ...went to rescue the table. The ...ch bowl was gracefully presid...over by Miss Nell Mullins and ...s Minnie Latham. Each of the ...ures of the evening is due to ...r charming manipulation of the ...t.

The banquet was a huge success ...with many thanks to the mem... for so hospitable an entertain... were unanimous in the ex...sion. Greater and prettier so...ies have never before been held ...e town.

Peoples Savings Bank of Chilton County.
CLANTON, ALA.
CAPITAL STOCK $...,000.00.
WM. E. HOLLOWAY, Pres't.
W. T. CALLEN, Cashier. JOHN A. ...MAS, Assistant Cashier
DIRECTORS:
W. T. Callen — Wm. E. Holloway — Sam Kaufman
H. M. Martin, Sr. — M. L. Greil — John A. Thomas
There is a number of people who are under an erroneous impression. They think that they never control enough money to start a bank account. In this they are mistaken. We solicit small accounts as well as large. And we handle the business both with our best care. We believe that you ought to have a bank account, and we offer you our services.

THE CLANTON BANK
CLANTON, ALA.
Many people seem to think that unless they can open a Savings Account with not less than $50.00 or $100.00, it is not worth the while to begin. This is not a correct position to take. If a person cannot open an account with more than $1.00, and really desires to get some money ahead, then he should begin with even $1.00. The first dollar saved and put in bank, is the initial step on the way to prosperity. "Great oaks from little acorns grow." As a rule, the person who "Puts off" the opening of a Savings Account until he has a large amount to deposit, is not likely to ever have a bank account. We solicit your account.
THE CLANTON BANK

CORRESPONDENCE.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are good for anyone who needs a pill. They are small, safe, sure, little pills that do not gripe or sicken. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

Billingsley.

Prof. J. B Donovan of Billingsley will leave for Jacksonville the 23rd of this month to attend the State Normal College. He is going to prepare to do better work in the rural schools and we trust that he will have success in all his work; we cannot see where he is lacking to do anything more in a school room, though perhaps he can. We can say that this community will sure miss him. The patrons of the Concord school have chosen Prof. J. B. Donovan to teach the fall school, and he has promised to teach for them, so we will be glad when the time comes for him to come back. He has taught here and at other places and can say that he is always trying to do his duty by each and every student in a school room. He is a prominent young man and has always been found trying to do his duty. I feel thankful that he will teach our school this winter. He will teach six months for us, though it was his intention to go to school all the year His kind friends of the Concord school called him to teach their fall school and he said he could not refuse to teach for them when he taught before. He says that the patrons and dear children treated him so kindly that he could never refuse to teach for them A SCHOOL BOY.

Falakto

Editor Banner—Please allow me a small space in your valuable paper to say a few words in regard to Mr. Gulledge's cotton report. I guess I saw this ninety per cent cotton crop while passing through on a fast train, I don't suppose Mr. Gulledge has had his foot in a cotton patch this year. I don't believe myself that there will be over sixty per cent cotton crop made in this county.

So I will ring off on Mr. Gulledge and will say a few words in regard to the doctors of Clanton, Jemison and Cooper. I think the doctors have made a big jump. It is mighty bad that the doctors can't make a living these days, as they always made money to burn. I don't think their raise will do them any good, for the people of Chilton county pay them all they can. Anyway, I wouldn't have thought the oldest doctor in Clanton would have wanted a raise after the people of Chilton made him a fortune. As there are some on their list that some folks don't call doctors, I won't say what they remind me of. I guess their horse expense is some greater than it was a few years ago. I notice the men that want more money are driving two horses instead of one, as they are so heavy that one horse can't pull them. I have a small horse and it pulls me and my whole family four miles or thirty miles.

I see there is one Clanton doctor short on the list, and I hear several people of this community say he would be the one that they would use. Best wishes to all. W. L. P.

It is better to have loved and lost, than never to have loved at all. It is better for the jeweler, the florist and the messenger boy—and sometimes for the lawyers.

CITIZENS' MEETING.

The citizens of this county are called to meet in the court house in Clanton at 9 a.m. on the 4th Saturday, Sept. 28th to arrange for engaging a county doctor. Doctors of Chilton and other counties are invited to be present.

MANY CITIZENS.

ALL DAY SINGING.

The Chilton County Singing Convention will meet with Liberty church the 5th Sunday in September and lovers of music are invited to attend and you are invited to bring books. We insist that all members of the convention attend if possible.

J. I. ..., President.
JAMES FRANK ..., Secretary.

Stanton.

The health of our community is very good.

Our protracted meeting closed Wednesday night, it was conducted by Rev. Martin and Strickland; we had some of the best preaching the writer has ever heard, and there was much good manifested.

Mr. Clifford Cook is visiting relatives and friends in Stanton.

Mr. Walter Dyer left yesterday for Nashville where he will enter the Medical College; we wish him much success.

Mrs. H. O. Fitts is visiting relatives and friends at Oakmulgee.

Dr. Guy Stewart has removed his family to Riderville; much to the regret of their many friends here.

Mr. Brooks Thomas has returned to his home in Mississippi, after a lengthy visit to relatives here.

Mrs. John Cooper is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Frank McCarty of this place.

Mrs. J. F. Gregory visited friends here recently.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cook have returned from a pleasant visit to the family of Mr. G. R. Williams of this place.

Our school will open on the 30th inst., taught by Mrs. Jones. Wishing the dear old Banner much success, will ring off. GUESS WHO.

Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by One Dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

I was so weak from an attack of diarrhoea that I could scarcely attend to my duties, when I took a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me entirely and I had been taking other medicine for nine days without relief. I heartily recommend this remedy as the best to my knowledge for bowel complaints,—G. STEWART, of the firm of Stewart & Bro., Greenville, Ala. For sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Sick Headache.

This disease is caused by a derangement of the stomach. Take a dose of Chamberlain's stomach and liver tablets to correct this disorder and the sick headache will disappear. For sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Bethany.

Dear Editor:—Please allow me space in your paper to say a few words. It is very seldom I ever write anything to your paper, but these are so interesting, I want to express thanks on the matter.

Our meeting closed Wednesday. We had thirteen accessions to the church by baptism. Our pastor, J. L. Neely, was assisted by Bros. Willie Dutton, I. Rice and J. F. Bone. What a glorious time we did have. Everybody seemed revived by the operation of the Holy Spirit. We hope that all will remember the kind advice that our pastor gave us, in days to come.

So I will close with best wishes to the Banner and its readers.

ARTHUR NEELEY.

Mount Hebo.

Editor Banner—Please allow me a small space in your paper to say that there will be an all-day singing at this place the 5th Sunday in September. Come one and all, bring your baskets. S. S. BOY.

FARMERS' UNION.

I will lecture to the public in the interest of the Farmers' Union at the following times and places:

Oden.....September 19, 11 a.m.
County Line. " 20, 11 a.m.
Beason.... " 21, 11 a.m.

Yours fraternally,
C N. ELLAND.

Lame Back.

This is an ailment for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has been proven especially valuable. In almost every instance it affords prompt and permanent relief. Mr. Luke LaGrange, of Orange, Mich., says of it: "After using a plaster and other remedies for three weeks for a bad lame back, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and two applications effected a cure." For sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Did it ever occur to you that three-fourths of Chilton county depended entirely on the Northwest for their feed? Did it ever occur to you that the frost killed better feed on your own land than that you buy at high prices later on? Is it not better to save Hay and buy stock at a sacrifice during the fall and winter than to have to sacrifice your own stock to keep from buying hay. Now figure the cost of raising hay. Common land will make 1 ton of oats per acre, cut this off and you can reap grass, cane, peas, etc., this time you will reap 2 tons per acre; add this to your oats and you have ... per acre on the same land. We have paid from $20 to $28 per ton from our customers all the ... fall. You would have to get 2½ per lb. for your cotton to compete with the man who is ... mankind work you are doing. Come in and let us make you terms and prices on Harvesting ... Mowers, Rakes, Hay Presses, Hay Wire, Binders, Disc Harrows, Wagons, ... tics, Surreys ... & SON general store.

WANTED.

DESIRABLE positions are always occuring at the Bryan Hospital for men of good morals and able-bodies. Salaries ranging from $15.00 to $30.00 per month, board, lodging, laundry and medical attention free. For full information write Dr. J. T. SEARCY, Supt. Tuscaloosa, Ala.

LAND FOR SALE—216 acres of good land, 65 acres in cultivation. 2 settlements. In sections 29 and 30, township 22, range 13. Apply to R F. SIMS, Maplesville Ala., R. F. D. No. 1.

The way to get rid of a cold, whether it be a "bad cold" or a little one, is to get it out of your system through the bowels. Nearly all cough cures, especially those that contain opiates, are constipating. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup contains no opiates and acts gently on the bowels. Pleasant to take. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

124 ACRES FOR SALE, four miles southeast of Clanton. Apply to Q. S., Banner office, Clanton.

FOR SALE—80 acres good land, two miles from Clanton; two settlements on the tract. The tract is well watered. Call on or address G. O. FOSHEE, Clanton, Ala., R. F. D. No. 5.

Souvenir Postals of Clanton: Florence Drug Store.

Love is a sweet dream that matrimony turns into a horrible nightmare.

A Humane Appeal.

A humane citizen of Richmond, Ind., Mr. U. D. Williams, 107 West Main St., says: "I appeal to all persons with weak lungs to take Dr. King's New Discovery, the only remedy that has helped me and finally came up to have the proprietor's recommendation." It saves more lives than all other throat and lung remedies put together. Used as a cough and cold cure the world over. Cures asthma, bronchitis, croup whooping cough, quasy, hoarseness and pthisis, stops hemorrhages of the lungs and builds them up. Guaranteed at Upchurch Drug co. 50c and $1.00.

A Message From Atlanta.

One of the best painters in Atlanta says, 'the

Davis 100 per cent Pure paint

"out covers" anything he ever used.'

"He says, 'he first-coated an eight-room house with only three gallons.'"

West Lumber Co.
Atlanta, Ga.

ISN'T THAT ECONOMICAL ENOUGH TO PLEASE THE THINNEST PURSE?

For sale by Payne & Payne, Montgomery, Ala.

W. H. MADDOX
BLACKSMITH
I do all kinds of Repair Work in Wood or Iron. Saw Brackets and Banisters.
Cold Tire Setting. I can shrink your Buggy or Wagon Tires cold or hot.
Horse-shoeing up-to-date. Satisfaction guaranteed.
CLANTON

J. V. HIGGINS
WATCHMAKER, JEWELER AND ENGRAVER
At the Florence Drug Store, Clanton, Ala. All work guaranteed
Special attention given to Watch Cleaning, Stone Setting and Engraving
Repair all kinds of Graphophones Guns and Pistols Repaired.

HELP IS OFFERED TO WORTHY YOUNG PEOPLE

THE BANNER.

Published Weekly

CLANTON, ALABAMA.

State News.

The contract for the erection of the new mills of the Wedowee Oil Mills Company has been let to P. G. Randall, of Talladega, and the plant will be ready for the fall crop of seed.

A majority of the people of the central and eastern portions of Winston county assembled at Double Springs Saturday to take steps to endeavor to secure the county high school.

The city of Brundidge will soon have a complete and up-to-date system of water works and electric light plant. The light plant is completed and the lights were turned on for the first time last Wednesday night.

The new corporation that is being formed by Huntsville capitalists to establish and operate a cotton mill will have a capital stock of $250,000, instead of $100,000 as was at first reported.

News reaches us of the death of Judge W. C. D. Cook, of Fort Payne, which occurred there Sunday. He was stricken with paralysis while teaching his Sunday school class and died during the day.

The new bank for Elkmont, a branch of the Citizens' Bank, of Athens, will open in a few days in a handsome brick building erected by the bank for its use. Ashford Todd, a young man of the county, will be the cashier.

A Cherokee county farmer by the name of John Blackwell, who resides in beat 19, reports a watermelon raised on his farm which weighed 103 pounds and he invited several of his neighbors to come to his home and help him dispose of the melon.

The fight in Calhoun is now on, and the battle is expected to be a bitter one. In calling the election at this time Calhoun steals a march on Jefferson and gets into the fight ahead of that county. It was generally expected that Jefferson's election would be called first.

Because Thomas Beck swore in the presence of the wife of J. H. Nix, of Wedowee, in the store of Nix, the latter shot him to death. The dead man refused to keep quiet or amend his language. Nix gave bond in the sum of $3,000.

There was a wind and rain storm at Hamilton Sunday. It caused some damage to the crops from the wind, but the rain was needed very much. The barn of Mr. B. M. Howell was struck by lightning and a fine horse was killed.

John Davis, of Huntsville, walked off of the back porch of the Baker boarding house while wandering about the premises in his sleep and fell to the yard below, breaking his hip. He was found in an unconscious condition by a policeman. Davis was unable to tell how the accident occurred.

Tuesday morning Percy Ward, who is employed at J. A. Fair's livery stable at Centreville, while examining a pistol supposed to be unloaded, was shot in the leg by the accidental discharge of the weapon. The wound is quite painful, but not necessary dangerous.

The foundations for the new gas plant of the Tri-City Gas Company in Gadsden have been completed and work on the buildings proper will begin next week. These are to be of concrete construction and the blocks for the purpose are being made in Gadsden by the contractors of the buildings.

Prof. Robert S. Rhodes, chemist of the state geological survery, has come to North Alabama for the purpose of analyzing the waters of the mineral wells and springs of this section. He will visit Johnson Wells, Sanaqua Wells, Cold Springs and the Huntsville Springs to ascertain the properties of their waters.

Secretary of State Frank N. Julian will attend the national convention of insurance commissioners, which will be held at Richmond, Va., Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, as representative from Alabama. He will probably leave Montgomery Saturday morning.

The Athens military company has mustered in with the following commissioned officers: Captain, Frank Armstrong; first lieutenant, Frank Westmoreland; second lieutenant, Leon Cartwright. The company has leased the skating rink for an armory. There are about fifty young men enrolled.

Persons desiring to homestead land recently declared public should take notice that while said land can not be entered until November 11, 1907, yet the order opening it to settlement expressly provides that "all qualified persons, who shall have made bona fide settlement upon any of said land prior to the date of opening to entry, with the purpose of making homesteads of the same, will have a preference right of entry for three months from the date of opening."

Plump is what a woman is who would be fat if she were somebody else.

RAILROADS ARE TO BE PROSECUTED IN TEXAS

Because They Carried Strike Breakers

NO PASSES IN THAT STATE

Negroes, It Is Alleged, Were Sent From to Galveston to Take the Places of Men On Strike On the Galveston Docks.

Galveston, Tex.—The first violations of the anti-pass law recently enacted are charged to the Southern Pacific railroad, and if the penalties are enforced to the limit the fine will amount to $250,000, and several railroad men will be sentenced to terms in the penitentiary.

The charge is based upon the transportation of negro strikebreakers from various points in the state to Galveston, where the Southern Pacific dock workers are on strike. Several car loads of imported laborers were shipped across the state. To many of these laborers passes were issued, while the others were transported free under agreement, and fed while en route.

Organized labor is behind the prosecution, and it is alleged that several sections of the anti-pass law have been violated. The maximum fine is $5,000 for each pass, and the maximum penitentiary term is two years.

The company contends the strike breakers are railroad employes, but the men make affidavit asserting that they had been hired to work for the steamship company loading vessels on the docks.

There are two hundred separate charges against the several railroad officials.

YELLOW FEVER SITUATION.

Nine New Cases Have Developed Recently in Cuba.

Washington, D. C.—In a dispatch received at the war department Monday from Havana, Governor Magoon outlines the yellow fever situation in Cuba. The cablegram says there were four new cases discovered at Cienfuegos Thursday and three Friday. All the Spaniards, except one American soldier—Private William Foster, of the Fifteenth Cavalry.

This case is believed to have been contracted in town and does not indicate an infection of the camp. The discovery of these cases is attributed to the increased efficiency of the medical patrol. There is also one new case at Alacranes and one at Nueyapaz, both Spaniards.

Convention Closes.

Buffalo, N. Y.—The sessions of the American Social Science Association closed Saturday. The following officers were elected: President, John Huston Finley, LL. D., New York; honorary president, Frank B. Sanborn, Concord, Mass.; vice-president, Oscar S. Straus, Washington, D. C.; general secretary, Isaac Franklin Russell, LL. D., New York; treasurer, William C. Legendre, New York.

Police to Be Wireless.

Chicago, Ill.—A special to the Tribune from San Francisco says: To make every policeman in the city a wireless telegraph station that can be called from central at any moment is the hope of Assistant City Electrician Parmenter. He would have each policeman carry a small, compact apparatus in his pocket, with the receiving fixture on his helmet. Parmenter is working on the idea now.

$50,000 Bail for Negress.

New Orleans.—Bail was fixed at $50,000 for Virginia Reed, the negro woman to whom the defaulting tax clerk, Charles E. Letten, says he gave nearly all the $118,000 he stole. The woman is charged with receiving stolen property. A charge of perjury has also been made against her. Letten, who has confessed, will be used as the principal witness against her.

Killed by Baseball.

Montreal, Quebec.—Henry Pilon was struck over the heart by a pitched ball in a baseball game Sunday and died almost instantly. The ball passed through the hands of another player and struck Pilon, who caught the ball, threw it to the shortstop and dropped dead.

Iron Pipe Aggregates $3,000,000.

Youngstown, Ohio.—The Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company is now contemplating the largest single order for wrought iron pipe ever let in the world. It is for 550 miles of pipe, weighing 50,000 tons, connecting the Beaumont, Tex., New York and Indian Territory fields with the big refineries at Port Arthur, Tex. The line will be laid from the Indian Territory fields to the Gulf of Mexico. The cost of pipe will be $2,000,000.

Ex-Grand Vizier Is Dead.

Teheran.—Mushir Ed Dauleh, ex-grand vizier and ex-foreign minister of Persia and reformer, who was personally responsible for the granting of a national assembly in Persia by the Shah, is dead from heart failure.

This Is the Limit.

Honolulu.—The baseball team of the United States cruiser Colorado was defeated by the Chinese Athletic [illegible]

TERRIBLE CONDUCT.

Casting the City and Laid Violent Hands on the Women.

Constantinople.—How terrible the Turkish soldier can be in his wrath is shown in a fearsome story from Hodeidah, an Arabian port whose 4,000 soldiers disembarked from ship in the Yemen region (which is occupied by Turkish troops) arrived and found no ships to take them home.

When one steamer put into Hodeidah it was invaded by 1,000 soldiers, with a number of their women friends. Fierce quarrels broke out among the mob on board, and 110 men and women were killed or wounded. The soldiers threw two women alive into the sea to be devoured by the sharks surrounding the ship.

The other half of the troops, who arrived later, and were disappointed at finding no vessel in port, took a terrible revenge on the town. They pillaged and destroyed the stores, cut the water pipes, and generally behaved like devils.

The general commanding the troops was seized and dragged about the town. Several officers' wives were carried into the mosques and maltreated. This sacrilege brought upon the soldiers the fury of the Arabs, and a battle took place, in which eight Turks and three Arabs were killed.

British and Italian warships have been urgently asked for to protect the Europeans at Hodaidah.

GOES OSLER ONE BETTER.

Two-thirds of the Population Should Be Killed.

San Francisco, Cal.—"If we could have a great drouth once every fifteen years, killing off two-thirds of the population, and great care was taken to see that the best third, mentally, morally and physically, were preserved, what a magnificent race of people we would soon have," declared David Starr Jordan, president of Stanford university, in his annual address to the newly arrived freshmen.

This statement was made in the course of an account he was giving of his impressions of Australia and New Zealand, and the sheep raising industry there.

"The desert atmosphere extends over the sheep-raising country and when there is a drouth many sheep die," he continued, "but those left are the finest in the world, and it so happens that the sheep raisers get more for their stock in a year of drouth than they do in a normal year."

MRS. CASSIE CHADWICK BLIND.

The Witch of Finance Suffers Nervous Collapse.

Columbus, O.—Mrs. Cassie Chadwick, noted witch of finance, who, posing as Andrew Carnegie's natural daughter, swindled Ohio and eastern banks out of millions in loans on bogus securities, was stricken with a nervous collapse at the penitentiary Monday, which has left her blind.

Her condition is serious, and it is the opinion of prison physicians that she will never live to serve out her ten years' sentence, two years of which she has now completed.

Not a Crack Shot.

Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.—A Chilean sharpshooter, Juan Espinosa, while shooting an apple from the head of another man at the circus, missed by a centimeter and killed the exhibito The crowd attempted to lynch Espinosa.

100,000 Tons of Cardiff Coal Bought

London.—The United States navy department has, according to a dispatch from Cardiff, Wales, to a new agency here, contracted with Welsh firms for 100,000 tons of the best steam coal, the delivery to extend over 190. The price agreed upon has been kept secret.

Building Falls.

Cincinnati, O.—A four-story building on Central avenue, which was being remodeled, collapsed. One body has been taken from the ruins and it is believed that others will be found. Several injured have been taken to the hospitals.

Dynamite Hurts Five.

Chippewa Falls, Wis.—An explosion of dynamite placed in a bundle of grain injured five men and wrecked a threshing machine on the farm of Peter Peterson, near here.

Killed a Prince.

Tiflis, Russia.—Prince Chavchavadz, a member of the council of the empire, has been murdered in the district of Bushtev. The Princess Chavchavadz was wounded.

One Man Killed; Factory Wrecked.

St. Louis, Mo.—Charles McGinny was killed and Charles Walters seriously injured in an explosion which wrecked a glazing mill at the plant of the Equitable Powder Company.

Mother Kills Children.

Johnstown, Pa.—Mrs. Katharine Thomas, an inmate of the Cambria county almshouse, Friday night strangled to death her two small children, aged 1 and 2 years, respectively. She said she was afraid her husband, who is serving a term in the work house, [illegible] report, would take them [illegible]

It is [illegible]

The Pulpit

A SERMON BY THE REV. IRA W. HENDERSON

Subject: Life.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—Preaching at Irving Square Presbyterian Church, Hamburg avenue and Weir street, on the above theme, the pastor, Rev. Ira Wemmell Henderson took as his text John 1:4. He said:

Last Lord's Day we discussed [illegible] some measure and manner the fact of death. To-day we shall [illegible] for the moments that we are to [illegible] the fact of life. The reality [illegible] which we have more pressing and immediately to deal.

Life is among the mighty realities with which humanity has to [illegible] It thrills and suffuses every living one of us. It energizes [illegible] that is active and moving around about us. It is at the source of all that is; at the centre of all creation. It is divine, for it is God and imparted from him. It is real and the one thing in all the world of which we are conscious. For we see it outworking itself in the pulsating, throbbing universe about it. All nature sings the praise and manifests the force of life and chants the glory and the might of God. In it we live and move and have our being. It is at the centre of humanity's existence.

All of which is [illegible] and obvious and old. There is much that is new that we can [illegible] about concerning life. For the [illegible] man knew all its beauty as do we. He heard the songs of the feathered host witnessed the manifestations of the majesty of Jehovah as He revealed it in the heavenly galaxies and [illegible] varied forms and the diverse beauties of nature. The primitive man may not have been so familiar with so many of the actual laws operated in life as we are. He may not have been so conscious of the subtler forms of life that modern science investigation revealed to the world of today. But taking the broad we may safely say that there is not much that is new that can say about life.

In fact, life is a [illegible]tangible that it is in reality proper[illegible] indefinable. We cannot define life exactly. We may appropriate a definition, but we cannot compass in the forms of finite speech the fullness life itself. For life is divine and limitless. Language is finite and circumscribed in its scope and possibilities. Life knows no bounds. Language is confined. Life is the creation of God and is coextensive with Him. Language is the method of human intercommunication, and as such is hemmed within the horizons of humanity. Life per se is intangible as it is indefinable. We may [illegible] that is sentient [illegible] man's hand look into his life; we may [illegible] that is alive with life; we may [illegible] the sound of his voice and [illegible] the exhibition of his strength; we may see the various expressions [illegible] life that vitalizes him. We do not see his life. We may roam the fields and sail the seas and climb the hills and till the pastures [illegible] God calls us home. We may see the evidences of life, but life itself we not see. Life is intangible. We know it in its manifestations through them. But we shall not know life—that mysterious, wondering energy that enlivens us—until we enter into the presence of eternity hereafter. For life is as intangible as God.

Life is indefinable. We may define life in the terms of life's expressions. Whether we see life in cloud or tree or drop or bud, this is ever so. For the beauty of the cloud is not the life that brings the beauty into being. The grace and dignity and charm that is manifest in humanity is not the life that animates humanity. We may define human life in the terms of life's self-expression, through the medium of humanity as we may describe its manifestations in the natural world about us. But when all is said and done, to define life in the terms of its manifestations is not entirely to define life. For life is more than its manifestations, as is God. Life is more than what we see and know of the expressions of life.

And yet, for the sake of definition and in the interest of the culture of the moral and spiritual life of man, it is not really necessary that we shall be able to do more to-day than define life in the terms of its expressions and relations. For it is not necessary to know all about the constitution of the world in order to live happily within it. It is not needful that we shall know all about the finer and hidden laws of electricity in order to ride on an electric car or to enjoy the illuminating power of the electric light. It is not necessary that we shall be able to define God in comprehension and finality in order to draw near to Him and to enjoy the pleasures of communion with Him or enter into the realization of the potency of His love. Not otherwise is it with life. We may not understand it all, we may not be able to define it with finality, we may not be competent to penetrate its mystery, but we know that it is, that it is central in ourselves and in our society; we are aware that we are in the midst of it; we view its manifestations and experience its expressions. We may state our experiences and the results of our investigations and observations in the terms of humanly understandable speech. And that is enough. We shall know more, but that is enough for now.

We may, therefore, define life in the terms of opportunity, responsibility, possibility, divinity.

Life is definable and to be grasped in the terms of opportunity. To be alive to have a chance. A chance to be a man, to do a man's work, to follow in the footmarks of the Almighty as we tread through life, to be kind, to be gentle, to be noble and pure and holy. Existence correlates opportunity. To be a live man is to be a man divinely gifted. For the whole world is the field of living humanity. And opportunity is not only within the reach of every living [illegible] forces itself, whether we will or no, upon us. It is insistent. It is inescapable. It is omnipresent. Whether our position be high or low, our labor great or inconsequential, our capacity much or small, opportunity enters into the sphere of our activities. It dominates our vision. He is a dull man who cannot hear the insistent call of opportunity to the soul. We may in our wilfulness close our ears and shut our eyes to the entreaties of opportunity. But we shall be held to account by God.

Life is determined in the terms of responsibility. To be alive with pressing and eager opportunity at hand is to invested with responsibility. For the opportunity implies our ability to use it. For God never sends opportunities to men that they are unable totally to use. For God never jests with men. And to call a man to a hopeless task is to jest with him, to make light of him. But upon every man to whom the golden opportunity comes is laid the responsibility to utilize that chance to the glory of God and to the best of his own ability. The church, not otherwise than man, is under compelling responsibility to make use of the opportunities that are here. She cannot still the appeal of those opportunities; she ought not to deny them; she ought not to endeavor to avoid or evade them. She should gather the opportunities to herself with joy and welcome the responsibilities thereto attendant with happiness unfeigned.

Life is determined in the terms of possibility. That is to say, that life is hope. "While there is life there is hope," is no mere catch phrase. It is profound philosophy in a sentence. For live men who are really living are expectant. They look ahead. Their faces front the future. They are interested in that which is unattained, that which may be achieved, that which is not yet realized. For life is full of possibilities. And possibilities made progress possible. To be alive is to progress. But where there are no possibilities there is no progress. Life is delightful because of its possibilities; possibilities for self-culture, for moral and spiritual advancement, for constructive service, for the doing of deeds both doughty and glorious for man and for God. This is the salt of life. This lends life zest and gives it flavor.

Life is determined in the terms of divinity. For life is of God. And every soul that lives may partake of the character and of the beauty of the personality of God. Whatever you and I are not, of this we may be sure, we are the children of God, we are divinely born. Our life is the Father's gift. Therefore, if we are children we should be obedient. We should enter into such filial relationships with God that our divinity shall be manifest, that we shall show forth the heirship with Christ that is ours.

Let us, then, be alive to our opportunities, glorying in our responsibility, augmenting our forcefulness in the achievement of our possibilities, maturing the divine life of God that indwells us. For this is life.

Filled With the Fulness of God.

This is how the Rev. Dr. Dixon illustrates the thought of being filled with the fulness of God:

"Standing on the deck of a ship in midocean, you see the [illegible] reflected from its depths. From a little boat on a mountain lake you see the sun reflected from its shallow waters. Looking into the mountain spring, no more than six inches in diameter, you see the same great sun.

"Look into the dewdrop of the morning and there it is again. The sun has a way of adapting itself to its reflections. The ocean is not too large to hold it, nor the dewdrop too small. So God can fill a man, whether his capacity be like the ocean, like the mountain lake, like the spring, or like the dewdrop. Whatever, therefore, be the capacity, there is opened up the possibility of being 'filled with the fulness of God.'"—Methodist Recorder.

Better Than Ten Thousand Pounds.

Give me ten thousand pounds and one reverse of fortune may sweep it away. But let me have a spiritual hold of this divine assurance, "The Lord is My Shepherd. I shall not want," and then I am all right. I am set up for life. I cannot be bankrupt with such stock as this in hand. I never can be a bankrupt, for I hold this security. "The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want." I do not give me ready money now; give me a check book and let me draw for what I like. This is what God does with the believer. He does not immediately transfer his inheritance to him, but lets him draw what he needs out of the riches of his fulness in Christ.—Spurgeon.

Development of the Divine.

The highest aim is the development of the divine in man. Those who have the keen sight of love may detect its presence in every one. They know that as the slime hides the lily root and blossom, as the hard rock holds the precious ore, as the acorn encompasses the oak, so every human life contains the potentiality of the divine. They are not deceived by the external slime and hardness and meanness, but perceive and have faith in the inherent and the ultimate. To be aware of the divinity of the soul and of every soul is to know the sublimest truth disclosed to the human mind.—Paragraph Pulpit.

How Divers Escape Drowning.

The diver at the sea's bottom lives still, though in a foreign element, because his close-fitting armor with its air-tube reaching up above the waves, keeps him surrounded with another and finer element suited to sustaining life; otherwise he would be speedily suffocated by the briny waters. And so the Christian, immersed in the world's choking waters, can preserve his spiritual life only by fencing them away from him by "the armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left," and by keeping up constant communion by faith with the heavenly world.—Rev. F. E. Tower.

The Irrefusible Infinite.

There is no talk against because my house is full; there is no less divine power and love because my heart is full: you cannot subtract from the infinite.

THE SUNDAY SCH[illegible]

INTERNATIONAL LESSONS FOR SEPT. 22 BY REV. I. W. HENDERSON.

Subject: The Death of Moses. Deut. 34:1-12—Golden Text, Deut. 34:10-12—Memory Verses, 5, 6—Commentary.

One of the most pathetic stories in the history of Israel is the death of Moses. For forty years he had watched, as a mother watches over her children, over the people of Israel. For forty years he had planned and hoped and prayed for the salvation of Israel. For forty years, the most conspicuous man of his day, he had led the people toward the land of promise. For forty weary, heavy laden, grievous years he had endured suspicion and calumny and misrepresentation that he might guarantee the blessings promised of God to his people and to their children's children. For forty years he had faced privation, hardship, suffering and sorrow for them and with them. Nurtured in a palace, he had been conspicuously a man of God. With the entree to the court of Egypt he had preferred to be a man of the people—his people. And yet after the bitterness and the hardship, the feting and the deprivation he was denied entrance into the land of promise. Pisgah and no farther was the pathos is sublime.

And yet, sad as the situation may have been, there could have been naught but joy in the soul of Moses. God called him to his reward. He had granted him the vision of the promised land as from Pisgah he stretched northward and southward and westward to the sea. But he did not summon him until He had granted him the vision. Moses died with his eye in the confidence that his efforts had been availing. He must have died with a song of rejoicing upon his lips and a psalm of thanksgiving in his heart. It could not have been otherwise. God took him to a large reward full of years and honors.

Centuries had passed away since God first made the promise to Abraham. Israel had suffered terribly under Pharaohs and hardship under the leadership of Moses. They had been tutored for Canaan in the hard schools of penury and want and woe. But they were about to enter into the realisation and fulfillment of the promises of God and the dreams of their mighty leaders. God's patience endured. The goal was at hand. The word of the Lord to their fathers was about to become effective. And it is ever with the promises of God. They are infallible. They never elude. They are always profitable for encouragement and comfort. They never fail. Regardless of their magnitude, their extent or their seeming impossibility, God always is able to fulfill them. He has given the world in Jesus Christ a wider and a greater promise than He gave to Israel through Abram. But He is able and willing to fulfill it so soon as humanity desires it to become effective and active. There is nothing impossible with God.

God took Moses to Himself when Moses' work was finished. God has a strange way of doing that with men of peculiar genius. He took Moses to Israel when Israel needed Moses. He took Moses away from Israel when Israel needed a Joshua more than a Moses. Moses was blessed of God in his death as he was in life. Many a man has attained great success only to lose his hold in his declining years. Moses was fortunate. He died at the zenith of his power. He is remembered as a man of pre-eminent ability. His renown is as glorious as it is imperishable.

Moses' death marked the opening of a great epoch in the history of Israel. It emphasized the fact that many are prone to forget, now and then, that no man is so supremely valuable to the world that his place cannot be filled. Joshua was not Moses, but he was competent to carry on the mighty work to which Moses had dedicated his life. When Moses died God consecrated Joshua to the work that was yet unfinished. And Joshua did it well. He was much of a genius in his way as Moses was in his way. And his capabilities came seasonably. God has a fashion of calling men seasonably. The great men of history have been the men who came in the fullness of time. Each fitted into the niche which needed to be filled. A genius of any time, it would seem, is an impossibility. For every mighty genius who performed a labor for God and humanity that has wrought itself indelibly into the fabric of the world's life.

The seventh verse tells us that Moses died in the pink of manly perfection at the age of 120 years. The lesson is obvious. Moses was faithful to God. He kept faith in his heart. He got his peace from Him. He observed the laws of God. Sickness came, but it is not really necessary. It can all be traced to the violation of natural laws that, if observed, would insure us all a ripe old age. We can live without a day of sickness for fifty years, as Moses did. We have, then by the same token, can retain his health until we come to God simply from physical fatigue. Constitutional and hereditary illnesses may be traced to the violations of natural laws. The point is that humanity shall be in accord with the will of God. We were created for health and happiness. We were not born to sickness. God meant that we should be able to enjoy life in Him. Only a well man can enjoy life. We could all live in health and [illegible] if we lived according to the statutes of the God of Moses.

Married Wrong Twin.

Mrs. A[illegible] Freeman, of Paris, has begun suit for a divorce from Calvin T[illegible] on the ground that she made a mistake in the husband she was to marry. She thought she was marrying Calvin's twin brother, Alonzo.

Woman Sacrifices Her Life.

Mrs. Katrina Arcnovitch, [illegible] years old, of New York City, [illegible] saved her life at a fire to make [illegible] her grandchildren and great-grandchildren were safe.

[illegible]ESE ATTACKED BY MOB IN VANCOUVER

[illegible]ance Oppose the Influx of Alien Asiatics.

CONSUL COMPLAINS TO TOKIO

[illegible]ervation in London Lest International Complications May Result—Chinese Buy Arms and Ride With Japanese.

Vancouver, B. C.—Following a [illegible] in which Chinatown and the Japanese quarters were rushed and damage done approximating $15,000, a further demonstration occurred later, which Baron Aikaiiro Ishii, chief of the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, on behalf of the Japanese consulate, and Consul Saburo Hinnishi, of Seattle, were the central figures, and in which not many Japanese and Chinese were brained and injured by broken bottles and flying cobblestones in the hands of a frenzied mob.

Baron Ishii and Consul Hinanishi quietly made their escape through the mob and the affair was immediately reported to Tokio.

Seven or eight of the Japanese were unceremoniously picked up and thrown into Burrard Inlet.

The Asiatic Exclusion League held a parade and later a meeting, at which Lieutenant-Governor Dunsmuir, who vetoed the bill, introduced by the present Attorney-General to enforce the Natal act in British Columbia, was burned in effigy. [illegible] a resolution was passed to ask the Dominion Government to allow the bill to become a law.

After that the mob stormed Chinatown, deliberately smashing the windows in all stores. Street orators addressed crowds, who even swarmed up the telegraph poles, and a strong [illegible] of police across the street had all they could do to keep the mob from again entering the Chinese quarter.

As there had been threats of burning, the fire brigade was ready with [illegible] to use this method if necessary to keep the white men back.

While the speaking was going on the sound of breaking glass was greeted with joyful yells by the [illegible]. Then the mob broke [illegible] in Howell street, a few blocks away in another direction, where the Japanese reside. Here windows were broken also, but the Japanese [illegible] and with bottles and boards, attacked their assailants. Several persons were injured in the counter attacks.

Japanese and Chinese crowded the local gun shops to buy firearms and ammunition. They say they will defend their lives and property. In case the Oriental quarter is again attacked, it is feared that there will be bloodshed, for the Japanese and Chinese are thoroughly aroused and are convinced that the police are powerless to protect them. The police ordered the gun stores to cease selling firearms to any one until such times as all possibility of further outbreaks had passed. Before the order was issued, however, hundreds of Chinese and Japanese had armed themselves.

All Chinese and Japanese domestic servants, of whom hundreds are employed in Vancouver, have stopped work and have been forced by threats of their countrymen to act as part of the defensive guard. Orientals employed in the mills have also stopped work and have taken refuge in the quarter occupied by their countrymen, where they are preparing to assist in opposing any further attacks that may be made on the quarter.

London.—The news of the attacks did not surprise the Colonial and Foreign Office officials here, who had long feared an outbreak against the Asiatics in Western Canada, but they [illegible] the greatest confidence in the ability of the Canadians to suppress any disturbance and protect aliens. At the same time the officials realize that a most serious problem may arise, particularly as the feeling appears to be strongest against the efforts of Great Britain's Eastern allies, and that it requires the most careful handling, for whatever action is taken is likely to be resented either by the colony or by Japan.

$8000 BANK ROBBERY.

Safe Dynamited While Thieves Rack Townspeople.

Frankfort, S. D.—The [illegible] Bank, of Frankfort, was [illegible] early in the morning and robbed of $8000. Seven charges of dynamite were used in blowing open the vault.

Persons aroused by the explosion were prevented from interfering by guards stationed by the robbers at the front and rear of the bank. Fitzpatrick, who sought to break through the guards, was shot. His wound is not serious.

Many shots were fired to keep the townspeople while the robbers left the bank, broke into a [illegible] on the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad, stole a handcar and escaped.

New Italian Well Dispersed.

Mulai Hafid, the new [illegible] proclaimed Sultan of Morocco, has issued a proclamation stating that he [illegible] to satisfy the French demands and enter into good relations with all other powers.

American Ideas at The Hague.

At The Hague peace conference the entire American program for a permanent international [illegible] court of justice, presented by Joseph H. Choate, was accepted, with the exception of the paragraph referring to the enforcement of the judges.

Kermit Roosevelt Heard Recently.

Because of amusing directions from women and girls Kermit Roosevelt deserted the regular envelopes with which he was looking so overhead words.

DRIVE H[illegible]

Twelve H[illegible] to Five F[illegible]

Both of [illegible] Lenses [illegible]

Bellingham [illegible] 500 frightened are in jail City Hall, somewhere the Bruins than 750 hungry and way down to Bellingham [illegible] the Hindus [illegible] Here the water [illegible] and for thousand where the battered houses [illegible] from those city limits. The streets, [illegible] houses were swept down [illegible] employees Hindus were [illegible] How many were [illegible] were [illegible] Hindus [illegible] left [illegible] Hindus [illegible] Bellingham [illegible] over [illegible] [illegible]

THE SUNDAY SCHO

INTERNATIONAL LESSON C
MENTS FOR SEPT. 22 BY P
REV. I. W. HENDERSON.

Subject: The Death of Moses, D
34:1-12—Golden Text, P
116:15—Memory Verses, H
—Commentary.

One of the most pathetic event the history of Israel is the dea Moses. For forty years he watched, as a mother watches her children, over the people of
For forty years he had planned hoped and prayed for the salvati Israel. For forty years, the conspicuous man of his day, he led the people toward the land promise. For forty weary, h laden, grievous years he had end suspicion and calumny and co that he might guarantee the bles promised of God to his people a their children's children. For years he had faced privation suffering and sorrow for them with them. Nurtured in a pala had been conspicuously a man
God. With the entree to the co of Egypt he had preferred to b man of the people—his people.
yet after the bitterness and the feting and the deprivation he denied entrance into the lan promise. Pisgah and so further pation is sublime.

And yet, sad as the situation have been, there could have b naught but joy in the soul of M
God called him to his reward a
He had granted him the vision of promised land as from Pisg stretched northward and southw and westward to the sea. But He not summon him until He had g him the vision. Moses died in the confidence that his effect been availing. He must have with a song of rejoicing upon his and a psalm of thanksgiving in heart. It could not have been o wise. God took him to a larger ward full of years and honors.

Centuries had passed away s
God first made the promise to A ham. Israel had suffered tort under Pharaohs and hardship w the leadership of Moses. They been tutored for Canaan in the h schools of penury and want and
But they were about to enter into realization and fulfillment of promises of God and the dream their mighty leaders. God's pati endured. The goal was at hand.
word of the Lord to their fathers about to become effective. And it is ever with the promises of
They are infallible. They never lude. They are always profitable encouragement and comfort.
never fail. Regardless of their a nitude, their extent or their seem impossibility, God always is able fulfill them. He has given the w in Jesus Christ a wider and a gra promise than He gave to through Abram. But He is able willing to fulfill it so soon as hum ity destren it to become effective active. There is nothing impos with God.

God took Moses to Himself w
Moses' work was finished. God a strange way of doing that men of peculiar genius. He Moses to Israel when Israel need
Moses. He took Moses away f
Israel when Israel needed a Jos more than a Moses. Moses blessed of God in his death as in life. Many a man has attained great success only to lose his h in his declining years. Moses fortunate. He died at the zenith his power. He is remembered a man of pre-eminent ability. His nown is as glorious as it is imper able.

Moses' death marked the open of a great epoch in the history Israel. It emphasized the fact many are prone to forget, now then, that no man is so supreme valuable to the world that his p cannot be filled. Joshua was Moses, but he was competent to c on the mighty work to which M had dedicated his life. When M died God consecrated Joshua to the work that was yet unfinish
And Joshua did it well. He wa much of a genius in his way as M was in his way. And his capabil came seasonably. God has a fas of calling men seasonably. The g men of history have been the t who came in the fullness of t Each fitted into the niche which needed to be filled. A genius ou time, it would seem, is an impo bility. For every mighty genius performed a labor for God and manity that has wrought itself in ly into the fabric of the wor fe.

The seventh verse tells us h oses died in the pink of m rfection at the age of 120 ye e lesson is obvious. Moses l r to God. He kept faith in J got his peace from Him.
red the laws of God. Sickne ent, but it is not really ne
It can all be traced to v of natural laws that, if obe
'd insure us all a ripe old age.
can live without a day of ness for fifty years, as ave, then by the same to can retain his health unti me to God simply from p gue. Constitutional and illnesses may be traced to violations of natural is that humanity shall of God. We were cre for heal h and happiness. We not born to sickness. God that we shall be able to enjoy life Him. Only a well man can re enjoy lif We could all live in health of loses if we lived accor to the m ates of the God of M

Married Wrong Twin.

Mrs. A le Thomas, of Paris, has brou suit for a divorce Calvin Th has on the ground she made mistake in the bri she was marry. She thought was Alvin Calvin's twin brother, alleges.

Woman Sacrifices Her Life.

Mrs. Katrina Arnsovitch, o years old, of New York City, s ficed her life at a fire to make her grandchildren and great-g children were safe.

CHINESE ATTACKED BY MOB IN VANCOUVER

Citizens Oppose the Influx of Alien Asiatics.

CONSUL COMPLAINS TO TOKIO

Agitation in London Lest International Complications May Result—Chinese Buy Arms and Unite With Japanese.

Vancouver, B. C.—Following a ... in which Chinatown and the Jap... quarters were raided and dam... done approximating $15,000, a ... demonstration occurred later, ... which Baron Aikujire Ishii, chief ... the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, ... head of the Japanese consular ..., and Consul Saburo Hisamida ... of Seattle, were the central ..., and in which riot many Jap... and Chinese were bruised and ... by broken bottles and flying ...bats in the hands of a frenzied ...

Baron Ishii and Consul Hisamidza ... made their escape through the ... and the affair was immediately ... to Tokio.

... or eight of the Japanese ... unceremoniously picked up and ... into Burrard Inlet.

The Asiatic Exclusion League held ... parade and later a meeting, at ... Lieutenant-Governor Dunn... who vetoed the bill, introduced by the present Attorney-Gen... to enforce the Natal act in Brit... Columbia, was burned in effigy ... a resolution was passed to ask ... Dominion Government to allow ... bill to become a law.

After that the mob stormed Chi... deliberately smashing the ... windows in all stores. Street orators ... gathered crowds, who even swarmed ... the telegraph poles, and a strong ... force of police across the street had ... they could do to keep the mob ... again entering the Chinese ...

As there had been threats of burn... the fire brigade was ready with ... to use this method if necessary ... keep the white men back.

While the speaking was going on ... sound of breaking glass was ac... with joyful yells by the ...

Then the mob broke ... in Howell street, a few blocks ... in another direction, where the ...panese reside. Here windows were ...ken also, but the Japanese resent... and with bottles and boards, at... their assailants. Several per... were injured in the counter at...

Japanese and Chinese crowded the ...al gun shops to buy firearms and ...munition. They say they will de... their lives and property. In case ... Oriental quarter is again at... it is feared that there will be ...bloodshed, for the Japanese and Chi... are thoroughly aroused and are ...vinced that the police are power... to protect them. The police or... the gun stores to cease selling ...arms to any one until such times ... all possibility of further outbreaks ...d passed. Before the order was is... however, hundreds of Chinese ...d Japanese had armed themselves.

All Chinese and Japanese domestic ...rvants, of whom hundreds are em... in Vancouver, have stopped ...rk and have been forced by threats ... their countrymen to act as part of ...e defensive guard. Orientals em... in the mills have also stopped ...rk and have taken refuge in the ...arter occupied by their country... ..., where they are preparing to as... ...t in opposing any further attacks ...at may be made on the quarter.

London.—The news of the attacks ... not surprise the Colonial and For... Office officials here, who had long ...ared an outbreak against the Asi... ...ics in Western Canada, but the ...ave the greatest confidence in t... ...bility of the Canadians to suppre... ...y disturbance and protect alle... At the same time the officials rea... that a most serious problem ... ...riser, particularly as the feeling ...pears to be strongest against the ...jects of Great Britain's Eastern ... and that it requires the most ca... handling, for whatever actio... taken is likely to be resented e... by the colony or by Japan.

$8000 BANK ROBBERY.

Safe Dynamited While Thieves Held Back Townspeople.

Frankfort, S. D.—The James ...ver Bank, of Frankfort, was dyn... ...ted early in the morning and ro... ...d of $8000. Seven charges of d... ...amite were used in blowing open t... bank vault.

Persons aroused by the e... ...losion were prevented from inter... ...ing by guards stationed by the ... ...rs at the front and rear of the ba... Frank Fitzpatrick, who sought ... break through the guards, was ...t. His wound is not serious.

Many shots were fired ... keep back the townspeople while the ...obbers left the bank, broke into a ...ction house on the Chicago and ...orthwestern Railroad, stole a han...car and escaped.

New Sultan Well Disposed.

Mulai Hafig, the newly proclaimed Sultan of Morocco, ... a proclamation stating that he ... opposes to satisfy the French dem... and enter into good relations ... all other powers.

American Ideas at The Hague.

At The Hague peace conference the entire American pro... for a permanent international ... court of justice, presented by Joseph H. Choate, was accepted, with the exception of the paragraph referring to the allotment of the judges.

Kermit Roosevelt Shows Notoriety.

Because of annoying attentions from women and girls Kermit Roosevelt deserted the regular cataclysmen with whom he was making an overland march.

DRIVE HINDUS FROM CITY

Twelve Hundred Asiatics Forced to Flee From Bellingham, Wash.

Mob of 500 Whites Raids Lodging Houses and Mills—Race Trouble Long Brewing.

Bellingham, Wash. — Six badly beaten Hindus are in the hospital, 400 frightened and half naked Sikhs are in jail and in the corridors of the City Hall, guarded by policemen, and somewhere between Bellingham and the British Columbia line are more than 750 natives of India, beaten, hungry and half clothed, making their way along the Great Northern Railway to British territory and the protection of the British flag.

The long expected cry, "Drive out the Hindus!" was heard the night before throughout the city and along the water front. The police were helpless. All authority was paralyzed and for five hours a mob of half a thousand white men raided the mills where the foreigners were working, battered down doors of lodging houses and, dragging the Asiatics from their beds, escorted them to the city limits with orders to keep going.

The trouble started at C and Holly streets, a lodging house district. The houses were cleared and the mob then swept down to the water front and mill after mill was visited, the white employes joining the mob. Every Hindu was hustled outside.

Here the police suggested that the mob victims be taken to jail. This was hailed with delight and the Hindus were hustled along. From this time on few were beaten. The mob kept up its work along the water front until early next morning, when Larson's mill at Whatcom Lake was visited and 100 Hindus brought in from there.

Four women were found among the crowd in the city building. The city is quiet, but there is a strong undercurrent of opinion which apparently approves the action of the mob, and it may be found impossible to punish the leaders.

Racial feeling has played no small part in affairs here. Every day whites have been replaced in the mills by Asiatics. Many instances of white women being pushed into the gutters or insulted on street cars by the foreigners were reported. General uneasiness of the whites is given as a reason for the outbreak.

The Hindus are all British subjects and this matter is being placed before the British authorities.

Goldwin Smith Foresees Trouble.

Toronto, Canada.—In an interview on the morning of the Hindus at Bellingham, Wash., Goldwin Smith said he anticipated a contest between European and Eastern races for supremacy on the Pacific Coast. He urged the admission of Asiatic women. Great Britain and the President will smooth ... t the present difficulty, but the fut... is extremely dark.

Comment Expected From England.

Washington, D. C.—While no official ...rmation has reached the State Department concerning the expulsion of Hindus from Bellingham, it is expected that Ambassador Bryce will soon lodge formal complaint. All that the State Department can do is to ask the Governor of Washington to take steps to prevent a recurrence of the trouble. The British Government is likely to find itself embarrassed in dealing with the Bellingham incident because of the ever present danger of similar attacks upon the East Indians, who are numerous in British Columbia.

TWELVE DEAD IN IOWA WRECK.

Rock Island Express Train Crashes Into a Freight—Twelve Injured.

Waterloo, Iowa. — Twelve persons were killed and a dozen were injured when a north-bound Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific passenger train left the rails at Norris, Iowa, and crashed into a south-bound freight train standing on a siding.

All of the dead and injured were in the smoking car, which was immediately behind the baggage and mail cars. The smoking car was demolished. The north-bound express was ten minutes late at Norris, where the freight train was waiting. The express came along at terrific speed in an effort to make up time.

The dead: P. E. Oliver, Waterloo; Will Goodman, Waterloo; John N. Watson, Waterloo; C. L. Landphere, Shell Rock, Iowa; Wray Johnson, Dike, Iowa; E. R. Christy, Minneapolis; Lepovan Toja, Hammond, Ind.; W. H. Meyers, baggage man; four unidentified men. Two severely injured: J. H. Douglass, Waterloo; collarbone and arm broken; Thomas Evanson, Mora, Minn.; leg broken; V. O. Martin, mail clerk; W. H. Myers, Albert Lea, Minn.; arms and legs crushed; J. A. Newell, conductor; arm torn off; Dr. Charles J. O'Keefe, Marble Rock, Iowa; leg crushed; John Shaw, Waterloo.

HARVESTER TRUST PAYS FINE.

Gives $35,000 to the State of Texas and Agrees to Quit Business.

Austin, Texas.—The International Harvester Company of Wisconsin pleaded guilty in the anti-trust suits instituted against it by the State of Texas and paid the fine of $35,000 assessed by the court.

The company also subscribed to the perpetual injunction forbidding it from operating in any way in Texas.

NAVY MAN'S WIFE SLAIN.

Mrs. Mary Lawless Rorschath Shot With Her Own Revolver.

Norfolk, Va.—Mrs. Mary Lawless Rorschach, wife of Lieutenant Frank Rorschach, U. S. N., and sister of Joseph T. Lawless, formerly secretary of the Commonwealth of Virginia, was murdered in her home in Portsmouth by an unknown burglar. She was shot through the heart with her own pistol taken from her bureau by the burglar after she had fired twice upon him through an open door.

"COME ON IN, BOYS! IT'S FINABLE OUT THERE."

—Week's ... Cartoon by George Barr McCutcheon, in the Chicago Tribune.

All South and West Scoff at the Idea of Hard Times

New York ... —Just at this time while pessimi... who tremble at the mere mentio... of Wall Street are looking for ... acial stringency, New York hotels ... reaping a harvest from an arm... of men whose predictions reflect ... financial conditions better than ... any rise or depression of secur... es. This legion represents of the men... ants of the entire continent.

It is a con... vative estimate to say that $5,500,... has been spent in New York C... by this buying and selling comme... al army, in small advance orders, ... living expenses and in amusemen... or the daily expenditures of a m... rity of the visitors have been ver... eavy.

"You may ... Wall Street here as a bugaboo ... which to frighten Fifth avenue ... d to keep Newport meek at time... said Ernest Jackson, at the Cadi... "but the American people don't ... mble at the mention of the name ... more. The talk of an approach... anic, while it seems to make ... York feel glum, is scoffed at ... se who appreciate the real re... of the nation and who feel th... panic cannot come even if the m... kings try to create one."

Mr. Jacks... s for years been among the ch... rthern traveling men of Arnold, ... ble Co., touching on his travel... principal cities and towns of ... Southern States.

Scoffs at Talk of ... anic.

"If there is a pani... ming, as those who see trouble ... no trouble exists predict," said ... "it will be due solely to that ... which causes a child to look int... dark hall for a bear. The me... Wall Street do not any more ... the money power in their hand... What if they do get together and s... here is a stringency? That doesn... ter the fact that Texas will grow ... 0,000 bales of cotton, worth at p... nt prices $180,000,000, and that ... e other cotton-growing States will ... d 9,000,000 additional bales, w... h $450,000,000.

"Think what that crop a... means to the country. A $600,0... 000 cotton crop means prosperity ... the South. That is an enormous s... of money — within $150,000,000 ... the debt of New York City."

"We did just what we expect... said the manager of the Victoria. "New York is so busy it doesn't watch the ebb and flow of travel as do the hotel men. The lobby has been full of Western and Southern merchants for six weeks, and the talk has all been on 'shipments' and 'case lots' and 'percentages' and 'discounts off for ten or thirty day payments.'"

"I've had commercial men and buyers here in swarms for two and a half months," said the manager of the Cadillac, "and a busy spending bunch they are. They have all been cheery and happy, and I have yet to see one who predicted anything but a booming trade."

Too Busy For Pessimism.

"If the United States wants a panic, or if Wall Street shuts up on New York's money supply, send word to South Carolina and we'll help the East out," said W. G. Aarants, buyer and manager for the Kerrigow Dry Goods Co., of Charleston, S. C. "The State in which I live is too busy making money to pay any attention to, or to have any sympathy with, talk of panic or hard times.

"Our merchants are getting rich, manufactories are springing up, are adding enormously to the wealth of the farmer and the spinner and our banks and trust companies are carrying millions of dollars on deposit.

"Cotton at six cents is profitable; at fourteen it is a boon incalculable, for it means nearly $700,000,000 annually to the South. While we have billions we can't see Wall Street. No trust magnates, using that imperfect financial thermometer, the Stock Exchange, should be allowed to cause the country a single shiver."

A. V. Billet, of the William H. Horstman Company: "Texas alone is an empire vast in dimensions and so vastly wealthy that her people would brand themselves ridiculous to think of hard times. The farmers and the cattlemen are rolling in wealth; the oil industry has added millions and the merchants are doing tremendous volumes of trade."

T. F. Connole, of Baltimore, says: "With Iowa boasting a $350,000,000 corn crop and Kansas almost reaching her, while the South is getting fancy prices on 13,000,000 bales of cotton, there is money in plenty. The South and the West now think Wall Street a wooden ghost with the sheet pulled off."

"COMES HIGH, BUT IS EVERYTHING ELSE!"

— Artwork from the Atlanta Constitution.

MURDERERS OF BARRIOS DIE.

Mexico City. — Fierro... Morales and Bernardo Mora, w... found on June 6 convicted and ... to death for the assassinati... of former President Barillas of Gu... mala here on April 7, were executed in the Belim prison. This ends an interna... tional episode which ... threatened to bring ... Mexico and Guatem...

The assassination ... took place at the height ... ical crisis in Guatemala.

QUICKSANDS' DEATH GRIP.

Peoria, Ill.—Quicksand in the Illinois River caused the drowning of Charles McKenzie, Keeling; Wilson and William Stinger, of Lacon, Ill.

The bodies were f... in the river, all three ... by the quicksand. Keen... bent ...

CADET HAZING MUDDLE AT WEST POINT ACADEMY

Plebes Give "Silent Treatment" to a Classmate.

UPPER CLASSES INDIGNANT

A Queer Situation Has Developed at the Military Academy—Hardest Test to Come Under Colonel Howze's Rule.

West Point, N. Y.—A mild instance of attempted hazing which occurred at the Military Academy recently has caused some curious complications. It has been reported that the Commandant, Colonel Robert Lee Howze, has threatened an entire class with dismissal. This, however, Colonel Howze characterized as nonsense.

The curious feature about the situation is that the lower class man, the man upon whom the hazing was attempted, apparently had the sympathy of the upper class men, while the cadets who are opposed to him are the members of his own class.

This is the first trouble that has arisen from hazing since the close of the Congressional investigation. "Hazing is almost unknown at West Point now," said Colonel Howze.

The trouble centres around a first year man, Cadet Bock, who hails from Missouri. An upper classman, Cadet Sherman, of Georgia, apparently undertook to give Bock the "bracing up" exercise. This is about the mildest form of "hazing" there is. It is about on a par with calisthenic exercises in a gymnasium. As the story is told here, however, Cadet Bock refused to obey the upper classman's order. The incident occurred while the corps was on its recent practice march. Cadet Sherman, it is said, called at Bock's tent later in the day, and again ordered the plebe to "brace up." Bock again declined, and, according to the stories current here, his stubbornness resulted in various forms of petty annoyance.

It has been said that Cadet Bock voluntarily reported the matter to the authorities. This is denied by all hands here. Colonel Howze, it is said, learned about the affair when he was examining into charges that had been preferred against Bock for some minor neglect of duty. The Commandant took prompt action in regard to Cadet Sherman, inflicting rigorous punishment in the way of extra hours of duty and curtailment of privileges.

Then it was that the plebes took the affair upon themselves. They decided that their classmate, Bock, needed discipline, and they proceeded to give him the "silent treatment." In other words, no member of his own class speaks to him. They ignore his presence entirely.

The upper classmen viewed this action on the part of the plebes with astonishment. They take the view that if anybody disciplines Bock, it shall be themselves, and that the kindergartners have taken altogether too much upon themselves. In other words, the plebes in assuming the right to punish one of their own number for a matter that concerned an upper classman have infringed upon the privilege of the upper classmen themselves.

Colonel Howze said when seen that he had no doubt the trouble would adjust itself. "The upper classmen," he said, "have taken the matter in hand, and they will undoubtedly settle it. Bock is a fine, strong young man and will win the esteem of his fellows. The accusation that he is a tale-bearer is entirely unfounded. But the whole incident is one that we cannot afford to treat too lightly. I am confident that the upper classmen will find some way of showing the plebes that they are in the wrong, and that the incident will be closed in a few days. I have made no threats of dismissal or punishment."

FOR GRANTING REBATES ON OIL

Four More Indictments Found at Jamestown, N. Y.

Jamestown, N. Y.—The Federal investigation in this city of alleged concessions granted to the Standard Oil Company by the New York Central and the Pennsylvania Railroads from Olean to points in Vermont is now completed. The Grand Jury returned four additional indictments and was then discharged with the thanks of the Court. The four additional indictments will add materially to the troubles of the corporations under fire.

The corporations named in these indictments are the Standard Oil Company of New York, the Vacuum Oil Company of Rochester, the New York Central and the Pennsylvania Railroads.

As the law provides a penalty of $20,000 for each offense, and as fifty-eight separate and distinct offenses were alleged, the Court, if the corporations are convicted, could impose a fine of $1,160,000 on each corporation, or $4,640,000 in all. Add this to the indictments previously found and the fines will come close to the $29,000,000 fine recently imposed by Judge Landis at Chicago.

Lawyer Hangs Himself.

At Salem, Mass., Robert K. Dickerman, a Boston lawyer, hanged himself at a private hospital, where he had been under treatment.

BOSTON SCANDAL GROWS.

Purchasing Agent Resigns After Telling of Illegal Deals.

Boston. — Superintendent Michael J. Mitchell, of the purchasing department of the city of Boston, sent his resignation to Mayor Fitzgerald, by whom he was appointed.

The resignation came at the conclusion of his examination before the ... investigating committee now in ... session at the City Hall. ... Mitchell is the ... of the ...

The Sunday Breakfast Table

GOD GIVETH REST.

God sends sometimes a sickness to our life,
The sickness, the pain,
When on the silent midnight the clock
Is hushed in slumber deep;
When wearied hearts, exhausted, sink to rest,
Remembering not the struggle nor the quest.

He giveth rest unto the poor and weak,
While we His burden bear;
It springeth not from perfect pain, but through
The accepted blessing, there—
The lesson pondered o'er with thoughtful eyes,
The faith that sees in all a morning rise.

Deep in the heart of pain God's hand hath set
A hidden rest and bliss;
Take as His gift the pain, the gift brings yet
A truer happiness.
God's voice speaks through it all the high behest
That bids the people enter into rest.
—Lucy Fitchett.

They That Inherit the Earth.

Humility is not a feeling of personal unworthiness, of self abasement, but rather the habit of omitting self from one's thoughts. It is not thinking one's self little, but thinking little of self.

A man may feel very small and yet be far from humble. A man may profess to be a worm of the dust and still be a great egotist. Such a man will usually try to convince you that a good humble worm (like he is) is far above the angels.

True humility is taking all the rest of the world for its true value without that value being increased or diminished by our egotism.

The people of notable humility have not been unmindful of their own worth and ability. Many of them, in fact, have possessed a child-like delight in their own powers, which caused some to call them egotists.

All truly great men and women have possessed the spirit of humility. Without its simplicity of mind and openness of heart greatness is impossible.

To them all things in earth or heaven appeal to their mind, for there is nothing insignificant or mean. They meet the children of men with wonder and clear understanding. There is no question of greatness or smallness, no dividing line of servant and ruler, no thought of wealth or poverty; the heart is simply open to all of them, the mind simply considers their true value as human beings.

It is not that the humble considers himself worse than the man the world calls bad, not that he considers himself simpler than the man the world calls a fool, not that he considers himself more unworthy than this human derelict; simply that he does not consider himself at all. He receives them without weighing or measuring them against self. He meets them all without consideration of his "standing" or his "influence."

Of course, were he inclined to look, he would see that he was better, wiser, more fortunate than many of his fellow men; but herein is his humility, that he does not make the comparison.

Of all our public men perhaps Lincoln was the most truly humble. He was just as conscious of his ability, just as sure of his grip as any other, but in dealing with all men, he thought of them, not himself, and in considering public questions, he thought of the country, and not his career.

Emerson was notably humble, and John Burroughs is beautifully so. Their humility is shown by their open minds and simple hearts.

Christ with all His humility never once depreciated His power, but often professed it. Yet even when He was proclaiming His equality with God, you are impressed with His humility. You feel that even that He was doing not because He cared to be exalted in their minds, but because He wanted them to perceive the truth.

Only the humble shall inherit the earth, for they alone have their hearts unobstructed by egotism, so the truth may flow in and love flow out.—William H. Hamby, in the Christian Register.

The Mystery of Prayer.

It is sometimes urged that prayer is mysterious. So is everything, if we stop to think about it. Matter is a mystery. Nobody knows what matter is. Force is a mystery. Nobody knows what force is. Gravitation is a mystery. Nobody knows what gravitation is.

Nobody knows what takes place when we drop a lump of sugar into a cup of coffee. Whether the change is mechanical or chemical the very wisest men are not able to say. We know just one thing, that by dropping sugar into the coffee the coffee is sweetened. For most of us that is enough.

We know that by dropping a prayer into a day we sweeten the day. How this is brought about we do not know. Who has sight so keen and strong that it can follow the flight of song or flight of prayer? Why should we not be as reasonable and practical in our religion as we are at the dinner table?—Charles H. Johnson.

Study the Pages.

God's providence is a living book; the best way to understand fully the next page is to diligently study and improve the one before us.—Joseph Roberson.

Guard Our Self.

Give me to guard myself; but, Lord, guard my guarding of myself.—Thomas Fuller.

Courage is Righteousness.

Christian courage is righteousness to the last man.

The Banner.

Edited and Published every Thursday at Clanton, Chilton County, Ala.

Entered at the postoffice at Clanton, Ala., as second-class mail matter.

"Where shall the press the people's rights maintain,
Unawed by influence and unbribed by gain,
Where patriot truth her glorious precepts draw,
Dictated to religion, liberty and law."

Subscription, yearly . . . $1.00
Invariably in advance.

Address all communications to THE BANNER, Clanton, Ala.

WILL YOU, PLEASE,

stop for one moment in your busy working day and think when your last subscription to The Banner was paid? If your conscience answers it was anywhere within the last twelve months, we ask your pardon, bid you God speed and go on again. If, however, your conscience says it is more than a year since I have paid The Banner anything, then we bid you God speed and hope you will make all the haste possible to come and pay what you are due.

With sorrow we report the untimely death of Judge Terry Richardson, who was found dead in bed at Luverne, Monday morning. He was at one time judge of this judicial circuit, and made many friends while in the performance of his duties.

Judge Richardson went to Luverne to defend a prisoner, and suffering from headache, had taken some chloroform to ease his sufferings; the stopper of the bottle had come out and he enhaled the contents.

A genial gentleman has gone from us and we lament his departure.

Sunday, September 29th, 1907, is to be observed by all our Sunday schools as Orphan's Home Day. This is a fifth Sunday. We sincerely ask that every member of the Sunday school, and every friend to our noble cause, be present that day with a liberal offering for the benefit of our Orphan's Home. Our married ladies can have big sewings; our young ladies and girls can have entertainments, suppers or adopt any plan best suited to them. Professional and business men can give one day's earnings; our boys can give the wages of one day. Let every one of us put in to give the earnings of one day and report it to our Sunday schools, on the day above named as Orphan's Home Day. This will be our 5th annual offering. Let us make it the best.

F. A. Gulledge of Verbena, has just returned from a trip to Texas, where he went to inspect the cotton crop in the interest of the Southern Cotton Association. The trip of inspection was made from Meridian to San Antonio, along the Vicksburg, Shreveport and Gulf and Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroads, and a few side trips. The trip between these two points was made entirely in daylight, and Mr. Gulledge got into communication with representatives of practically every town on the route, getting the opinions of anywhere from two to twenty men in every town.

Mr. Gulledge says the conditions are from 15 to 20 percent worse than any of the previous reports given out. He reports that the conditions are so bad that it requires from 3 to 7 acres to make a bale, and that in Hill and McLendon counties, Texas, it will require at least ten acres to the bale.

Thorsby.

Revival meetings at the Baptist church have been in progress for a few weeks. Baptismal services were held at Salem 15th inst.

The Public School opened Sept. 16, Miss Lanford as Principal, Miss Hallen assistant.

Mr. and Miss Simpson returned to their home in Birmingham 16th inst.

The death of Mr. Grothe occured Sept. 16th, after an illness of several weeks. Funeral services at Norwegian church 17th inst.

Miss Jessie Mae Lewis returned to her home this week after a visit at the J. J. Stanley home.

Mrs. Speer is a guest of her sister, Mrs. J. J. Stanley.

Farmers are busy with cotton and silo in and about Thorsby.

All houses are occupied.

Some are venturesome to plant gardens.

Pupils of both Institute and Public school manifest great interest in their work. Vox Populi.

Saginaw.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Hester have returned from a trip to Clanton, where they have been visiting relatives and friends for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Smitherman and little daughter, Arrell, of Thorsby, have been visiting her sister, Mrs. Grace Dunlap.

Miss Nettie McArrell of Ocampo is spending some time with her sister at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dawson left Monday for Birmingham to make their future home.

Mr. Dallas McArrell of Easley made us a flying visit recently.

Mrs. E. W. Gray returned from Birmingham Saturday.

Mrs. John Grant of Clanton is visiting her mother, Mrs. Fraser.

Miss Pearl Fraser is recovering from a long spell of typhoid fever.

Miss Amelia Dunlap left Monday to visit relatives in Birmingham.

Little Hershel Dunlap is sick with fever; hope he will recover soon.

Mr. Arch Wells is taking his vacation this week at his home at Jemison.

We had a runaway match in our town last Saturday, Miss Marie Redding and Mr. Harris of Birmingham were Married in Calera.

Married at the home of the bride,s parents, Mr. T. J. McArrell and Miss Alma Hale, on the 8th of September, and left for their future home at Ocampo on the 11th; may their life be long and happy.

A Reader.

Occasional headache, belching, bad taste in the mouth, lack of appetite and slight nervousness are symptoms of indigestion which, when allowed to go uncared for, will develop into a case of dyspepsia that will take a long time to get rid of. Don't neglect your stomach. At the first indication of trouble take something that will help it along in its work of digesting the food you eat. Kodol for indigestion and dyspepsia will do this. Kodol will make your food do you good and will enable you to enjoy what you eat. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

Vermont.

Hello! Here I come again after a long absence.

The health of the community is good at present.

Mr. Jeff Campbelle and daughters, Ethel and Anna, of Summerfield paid this community a pleasant visit last week.

Miss Vonie Groom of Mulberry spent a few days with the Misses Ella and Gertie Klinner, and was accompanied home by the Misses Ella, Gertie, Hilda and Celia Klinner and Miss Louila Deason, and the Messrs. Oscar Klinner and Earnest Groom, Saturday eve and returned home Sunday and report a fine time.

The Lituary school at Vermont closed Saturday with a nice entertainment which was enjoyed by all who attended. We are sorry to see a good school close and give up such a sweet loving teacher. Quite a crowd of her students assembled at the home of Mrs. White Tuesday night to bid her good bye. She was accompanied home by the Misses Mae White and Asereen Walker, Wednesday; may she be successful in all her undertakings and ever be blessed.

School will open at this place again on the 1st of November, taught by Mrs. Etta Mae Apperson. We hope it will be a success.

The Misses Zadie and Pearl Minor paid Miss Asereen Walker a visit recently.

Mr. Lee Popwell of Easley is visiting his home this week.

Rev. Robt. Jones preached at Mt. Carmel Thursday night.

Well I must ring off for this time for fear of the waste basket.

Both of Us.

The Song of the Hair

There are four verses. Verse 1. Ayer's Hair Vigor stops falling hair. Verse 2. Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the hair grow. Verse 3. Ayer's Hair Vigor cures dandruff. Verse 4. Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the scalp healthy, and keeps it so. It is a regular hair-food; this is the real secret of its wonderful success.

The best kind of a testimonial—"Sold for over sixty years."

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass. Also manufacturers of SARSAPARILLA.

Ayer

Alabama State Fair.

The Alabama State Fair is for the Alabama farmer. Never befor. in the history of the state will there have been such a showing of the agricultural products of this section nor such a gathering of farmers as at the fair grounds at Birmingham when the big exposition opens its gates October 8th. Eight days of entertainment and display. Already more than 7,000 square feet of floor space has been allotted agricultural products in the exhibit building, and more enquiries are coming in with every mail

Seven counties are entered in the contest for prizes of $1,350 offered for the four best county exhibits, and indications are that the list will be trebled by the time the fair opens. Cotton, corn and hay will be shown to better advantage than ever seen in the state. Space has been provided for every product of the farm from live stock to turnips, and farmers are rapidly filling the list with their entries. The fair will be for Alabama men. Its object is to encourage home production, and the farmers of the state are showing their appreciation.

There'll be plenty doing in the line of amusements. Baldwin's famous air ship will be put through its paces by the man who stands with Santos Dumont at the head of the flying machine business. Then there will be Sunlin and his trained bull; Fleetfoot, the famous racing ostrich; Ronola and his sensational cannon balloon; Jean and Marie Weitzman on the high rope; the seven Moors, aerial acrobats; Clayton, Jenkins and Jasper in a comedy act, and Rube Shields the funny talking ing man. All these will be absolutely free attractions given in the open air just as the horse racing.

The "Curve" will be a blaze of fun. Many of the noted attractions of the East have been engaged, including the renowned Igorrote village, Filipino natives who eat dogs, Creation, the wonderful exhibit, and a score or more of sensational shows. The "Curve" will be the best ever seen in Alabama. Ricci's great Italian band has been especially engaged for the season. All in all the fair will be the most educational and entertaining ever held in this section.

Valley Creek.

Editor Banner—I come again with a few items.

On the 10th we were blessed with an abundance of rain which was greatly needed on the fall crops. Sugar cane and potatoe crops are fine; peas not much.

Mr. James Gay, while going to the barbacue at Maplesville the 5th, lost his coat off the back of his buggy, a good black coat, and the person who found it will receive a liberal reward by returning it.

The barbacue at the Oden school house, in West Chilton, on the 12th was a success; it was a great day for those parts. There was 26 sheep, hogs and goats barbacued so mightily nice by Mr. James Warren and Jesse Davis, two of the expert barbacuers of the State. There was 500 people there and all went away rejoicing at the great day.

The saw mill men and the merchants all seem to be doing a mighty business in West Chilton.

Mr. R. J. Young and his brother, Will, have opened up a big store in Stanton, and Mr. J. E. Barnes and Arch Samples have opened up a big store in Riderville. Mr. John Melton and Thomas Parnell are building them a large store house in Riderville. Things are on a boom.

Mr. Walter Reynolds and family who have been to New Mexico for the health of his wife, have returned back to Riderville.

What has become of Second Old Mike, he wrote mighty good pieces and I love to read old Brother R. J. Mitchell's letters. Success to all

First Old Mike.

Had Tetter for Thirty Years.

I have suffered with tetter for thirty years and have tried almost countless remedies with little, if any, relief. Three boxes of chamberlain's Salve cured me. It was a torture. It breaks out a little sometimes, but nothing to what it used to do.—D. H. Beach, Midland city, Ala. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Advertised Letters.

List of Letters remaining uncalled for in Clanton, Ala., postoffice, for week ending Sept. 14, 1907. Persons calling for same will please say "advertised" and give date. One cent must be paid on each letter.

Gentlemen's List.

Sam Doss, J. Stanley Hubbard, Frank Taylor.

Ladies' List.

Mrs. [illegible]

Center Point.

I want to say a few words about our tanky party on Saturday night last, given at Mr. Williams. It was a grand success. Miss L. C. Bone won the cake, as she was the tackiest girl. Mr. W. D. Williams won the cigar for being the tackiest boy. We thank the old folks for the privilege of coming to their house and enjoying ourselves.

Messrs. R. M. Culp and Geo Williams visited Messrs. J. D. and W. D. Williams Saturday night last and reported a nice time. Come again.

Miss Alice Culp is visiting friends at Center Point.

Center Point ball team and the Blue Stars will play a match game Sept. 21, at the Center Point ball ground. The Center Point team played a practice game Sept. 8. score being 6 to 3 in favor of Fairview.

Mr. J. B. Williams and family visited Bethsalem Sunday last.

Mr. W. L. Williams and family visited Mr. J. F. Williams and family recently.

Mrs. Ida Fleming and her charming sister, Mrs. Matti Dickinson, visited Mr. J. F. Williams' family recently.

Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] Williams visited Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Williams and family Sunday last and reported a nice time.

Cotton picking is the go.

Misses Ida Willis and Ida Devaugn visited Miss Pearl Gray Sunday last.

Letter to E. B. [illegible] season.

Clanton, [illegible]a.

Dear Sir: Every bob Devoe is done with less gallons than ever before with any other paint.

S J Field, Indiana, Fla., says: "All houses here painted Devoe. The hot air is trying for other paints. One at Devoe is better than two of any other paint, so far as we know."

Less gallons, less [illegible]st.

Yours t[illegible]

3² F W DE[illegible]OE & CO

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Best on the [illegible]

For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been a family favorite and has gained in favor and popularity until it is now one of the staple medicines in use and has an enormous sale. It is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases, such as coughs, colds, croup, and can always be depended on. It is pleasant and safe to take and is undoubtedly the best in the market for the purpose for which it is intended. Sold by Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Dr[illegible]olis, Ala., Sept. 16, 1907

Ed Banner—I do not come very often but it is not because I do not [illegible] to, it is my position I hold with the Government, I don't have time I get the Banner after it is old every week and I do enjoy it too. A Chilton county man without the Banner in his home does not know what he is missing. It sure makes my heart feel like overflowing with joy to read the Banner and read of the good revivals at the different churches in old Chilton. I was glad to hear of such a good meeting at Liberty church. When brother [illegible] Maness fails to get good results at a revival, it is not there to stay. He is a man that I love. Seven miles is the nearest to a church from here, so you can imagine how many of us that will go that far to worship. Therefore you might call this a wilderness. Since Mrs. [illegible] has joined me in my little home down here, we read our Bible and have family prayer each day. It is the first time we ever have kept house together, and before I was a married man I always said nothing would prevent me from having prayer in my home.

A [illegible] words to the farmers and then will close. Crops are very sorry in this section of the country; cotton opening very fast, most all have gotten over their cotton the first picking. We had the hardest rain that has ever been known to fall in this country on the 10th inst.

We will not worry that dear old [illegible] that will have to set the type this any longer, will ring off and [illegible] best wishes to him and the [illegible] of the Banner and human [illegible]ers. Mac C. Marlar.

"Necessity is the mother of invention"

Women have suffered with their feet for years, because they could not get a nice shoe that would not hurt. The necessity is at last met in the "Society" shoe for women.

Nice, graceful curves, conforming to the feet with an elegance so simple that there is beauty and comfort in every pair.

Thousands of women have ruined their feet because their shoes were not builded along foot conforming lines.

That's why the "Society" shoe was necessary. The necessity for a nice dress shoe that won't pinch and hurt is making the "Society" shoe a friend to the foot and the most popular seller, at the price, we have ever found.

$3.50

"STAR BRAND SHOES ARE BETTER"

J. C. JONES, Clanton

Prepare at Once to Visit the Second Annual

Alabama Agricultural FAIR

MONTGOMERY
Oct. 24 to Nov. 2

Positively the finest Agricultural and Live Stock exhibit ever held south. A marvelously interesting and practical collection of Farm Implements; Splendid Horse Racing daily; the greatest Midway of the day, and an unrivaled Musical program every afternoon and night by Ricci's Imperial Italian Band, (recognized by the Musician's Union.) Interest all your friends and acquaintances, and bring your own family. Help make this great [illegible]dertaking the success it deserves.

Free Attract[illegible]ns consist of the most thrilling exhibition of high wire walking, acrobatics, and the most entertaining comedians in the country. Ample accomodations await each and every visitor. [illegible] new premium list address,

Alabama Ag[illegible]cultural Association
MONT[illegible]MERY, ALABAMA
ROBERT [illegible]AIT, Secretary

WELLS Bored and Drilled

T. B. [illegible]EEL

Contractor and Driller Deep Water Wells

CLANTO[illegible] ALA.

The First a[illegible]nd Last store in Clanton. If you [illegible]ome from the east it's the first; from the we[illegible] it's the last.

Our stock of General [illegible]archandise is First in quality and lowest in pri[illegible].

FINE FAMILY GROCERIES—[illegible]ways Fresh and Nice.
A fine line of Men's Dress Sh[illegible]s and Neckwear.

SHOES of the finest quality and the [illegible]st make. Try a pair.

A general assortment of fin[illegible] glass goods.

B. E. JONES & [illegible]BRO.

CLANTON - - - - ALA

Job Printing cheap at THE BANNER Office

That hacking cough continues
Because your system is exhausted and your powers of resistance weakened.
Take Scott's Emulsion.
It builds up and strengthens your entire system.
It contains Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites so [illegible]ed that it is easy to take and easy to digest.
ALL DRUGGISTS 50c. AND $1.00

Constipation.

Health is absolutely impossible, if constipation is present. Most serious cases of liver and kidney complaint have sprung from neglected constipation. Such a deplorable condition is unnecessary. There is a cure for it. Herbine will speedily remedy matters. C. A. Lindsay, P. M., Bronson, Fla. writes, Feb. 12, 1902: "Having used Herbine, I find it a fine medicine for Constipation." 50c a bottle. Sold by Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

ity is the of invention"

uffered with their feet for years, t get a nice shoe that would s at last met in the "Society" rves, conforming legance so beauty and men have se their d along iety"

The

$3.50

D SHOES ARE BETTER"

NES, Clanton

o Visit the Second Annual Agricultural

ONTGOMERY

ct. 24 to Nov. 2

Agricultural and Live Stock
A marvelously interesting and Farm Implements; Splendid
e greatest Midway of the day, al program every afternoon and rial Italian Band, (recognised on.) Interest all your friends d bring your own family. Help taking the success it deserves.

consist of the most thrilling exhibition of high wire walking, acrobatics, and the most entertaining
. Ample accomodations await each new premium list address,

cultural Association
MERY, ALABAMA
TAIT, Secretary

Bored and Drilled

TEEL

r Deep Water Wells
TON ALA.

tand Last

you come from the east
we it's the last.

eral Merchandise is First in price.

RIES—ways Fresh and Nice.
Dress Shirts and Neckwear. and the best make. Try a pair.
ent of first class goods.

ES & BRO.
. . . . ALA

D at THE BANNER Office

Constipation.

Health is absolutely impossible if constipation is present. Many serious cases of liver and kidney complaint have sprung from neglected constipation. Such a deplorable condition is unnecessary. There is a cure for it. Herbine will speedily remedy matters. C. A. Lindsay, P. M., Bronson, Fla., writes, Feb. 12, 1902: "Having used Herbine, I find it a fine medicine for Constipation." 50c a bottle. Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

...VE ITEMS

...ed court three days last ...day, first Monday in ...day in June, which ...ened Monday in Au... Sunday in November.

...COTTON MARKET
.....11¼ @ 11½c
...ast year 10½ @ 11c
...ay to-date
...ceipts
..., Wednesday.... 70

...Jones spent last week
...ek.

...E. Jackson of Kaloca ...day in town.

...Jackson of Evergreen, ...her parents, Mr. and ...Mullins.

...Mullins left last Thurs... ...istol, Va., to attend

...ie Ray and brother, ... Talladega have been ...itives in Clanton the

...kins has returned home ... of several days to Bir

...Burnett of Billingsley ...d our pleasant callers

...ry Honeycutt spent ... Clanton.

...Hopkins is with the ...ug Store again.

...TO PLEASE WOMEN.
...ds of women have ruin... ...et because shoes were ...d on foot conforming ...t is why the "Society" ...essary. See them. ...C. JONES, Clanton.

...Cole of Riderville was ...welcome visitors Mon... ...he will be 82 years ...January, and suffering ...ation, he is a younger ...many of fewer years.

...an Miner of Route 1 ...our welcome visitors

...Prim of Route 3 gave ...a call Saturday.

...A. McCreless, who is ...chool at Verbena, was ...visitors Saturday.

...le Lowney's fine choc... ...made. Florence Drug

...Jones of Route 3 was ...urday.

...Fountain Pen you want ...nd them at Upchurch ...at all prices and of the

...Holley of Route 6, ...re glad to see has re... ...om his severe illness, ...n Saturday.

...W. Peterson of Thorsby ...come visitor here Mon...

...rt Kanter left Tuesday ...le to buy his new fall ...goods.

...Carbolized Witch Hazel ...ed for boils, burns, cuts, ...kin diseases. It is ...od for piles. Sold by ...Drug co.

...Arthur and Sam John... ...Dossea Downs have gone ...lle to reenter Medical

...uth Jones spent a very ...y in Birmingham Sun...

...Mrs. E. E. Upchurch ...mingham Tuesday.

...Sawyer went to Mont... ...ednesday.

...ar Garper of Nocatee, ...n Clanton last Saturday, ...Jemison and Birming... ...relatives.

...noon & Sons' Wagons ...buy.

...L. Matthews has returned ...Kentucky, where she ...Miss Emmett to school.

...a RAZOR from the ... Drug co.—the three ...—guaranteed for three

...ford of Birmingham was ... Wednesday, examining ...ed papers of the Dispo...

...Licenses have been issued ...by the Probate Judge to ...persons.
...Anthony Williams and ...ington; Annie Parker ...alley.

...sters, were cut by the ...the baby have found ...ion and a blessing. Cha... ...r babies and children, ...ially good for the ills ...in hot weather. Look ...redients printed on the ...contains no harmful drugs. ...Upchurch drug co.

How is the Time

We are now ready to show you a full line of Clothing, Shoes, Hats, and complete line of Dry Goods.

Furniture, Stoves, rowing Machines, etc.

Tennessee and Fish ...ons.

Everything to make your home and ...m complete. Give us a trial and if we can't sell you we will be badly mistaken.

E. M. PINCKARD & CO.
CLANTON

Mrs. Taylor, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Lizzie, of Macon, Ga., have been visiting her brother, Mr. H. C. Young, of Jumbo, and will return Thursday, after a three weeks stay; best wishes to Mrs. Taylor and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Popwell of Shiloh spent Wednesday with relatives in Clanton.

Miss Mary Ann Thacker, aged 73 years, died at Billingsley on Saturday, and was buried in the cemetery at Clanton on Sunday. Miss Thacker is the sister of the late J. M. Thacker.

Mr. T. J. Baker of Route 7 gave us a pleasant look in Saturday.

A young white man, claiming to be from Ohio, was arrested by Sheriff Cattle Wednesday and taken before Judge Reynolds. He was charged with entering a house at Thorsby, and pleaded guilty to having several articles. The case was continued until next Wednesday.

Mr. John Sexton of Maplesville was in town Saturday.

Eve was invited to an apple gathering and discovered she had nothing to wear. It has been the same with the sex ever since.

A man's friends always know of his engagement before he and the lady most interested are aware of it.

E. L. CARTER — L. P. HARROVE

CLANTON FURNITURE CO.

DEALERS IN

Furniture, Stoves, Lamps, Clocks, Shades, Matting, Rugs and House Furnishing Goods of every kind. Needles and Supplies for all Sewing Machines. We also do Repairing, Upholstering and Refinishing. We sell cheap for cash or on easy payments.

TRY OUR 5 & 10 CENT BARGAIN COUNTER

Your patronage solicited.

CLANTON - - ALABAMA

MOVED!

I have moved to my new store by the post office, where I can show you the best stock of Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Silverware, Optical Goods, etc., ever shown in Shelby County. I have the best equipped repair shop in this part of the State.

BRING ME YOUR WORK.

LOOK FOR THE BIG WATCH SIGN

J. W. MARTIN

THE JEWELER BY THE POST OFFICE

Calera, Ala.

The Calera Machine Repair Shop

is now open for General Repair Work. We repair Engines, Boilers, Saw Mills or any other Machinery that comes to hand. We guarantee all our work.

We also buy second hand machinery of all kinds.

We do all kinds of Pipe work.

We are also prepared with all Modern Tools, and have an expert Saw Hammerer who will straighten your Crooked Saws, and will Gum and Dress them, so that they will run and cut good smooth lumber and use 10 per cent less power.

We repair all kinds of Household Goods.

We do all kinds of Round Wood Turning, from an Ornamental Column to a Shell spindle.

In short, we are here for business and to do you good. Solicit a trial.

THE CALERA MACHINE REPAIR SHOP

CALERA, ALA.

A Sewing Machine

well made, nicely finished, has improvements over the old styles, runs easily and quietly, low seat, but good work and quality.

Come in and examine it, you will be surprised at our good value for $18.00.

SPIGENER & JONES
The Hardware Store
CLANTON

TAX NOTICE.

Assessor's and Collector's FIRST NOTICE.

We will attend at the following times and places for the purpose of collecting the state and County taxes of Chilton county, for the year 1907, and assessing the taxes for the year 1908.

	Beat		October
Kirkman	-	6	-	1
Fletcher	-	6	-	2
Verbena	-	6	-	3
Mountain	-	7	-	4
Maplesville	-	7	-	5
Bonanza	-	8	-	6
Mandeville	-	8	-	7
Providence	-	8	-	8
Jemison	-	8	-	10
Mineral Springs	-	1	-	11
Flint Hill	-	11	-	12
Thorsby	-	9	-	14
Town Creek	-	4	-	15
Clanton	-	4	-	16
Cooper	-	10	-	17
Verbena	-	3	-	18

L. B. FOURNIER, TAX ASSESSOR.
T. I. HERBARD, TAX COLLECTOR.

Has Found Relief

If you are troubled with liver complaint and have not received help read this. Mrs. Mary E. Hammond, Moody, Texas, "I was in poor health—with liver trouble—for over a year. Doctors did me no good and I tried Herbine, and three bottles cured me. I can't say too much for Herbine, as it is a wonderful liver medicine. I always have it in the house. Publish where you wish. Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Program Sunday School Convention of District 6, to be held at Pilgrims Rest church, two miles south of Pletcher, on Sunday, September 29, 1907.

9:30 a.m. Devotional exercises, conducted by W. T. Herrod.

10. "The Sunday school as an important work in the church," R. P. Kendrick and others.

10:30. "The duty of a pastor to Sunday school, T. L. Deason, J. L. Deramus.

11. Sunday school mass meeting.

12. Adjourn for dinner.

1:30 p.m. Song service conducted by R. J. Langston.

2. Call for reports of Sunday schools.

2:30. "Why should all Christians go to Sunday school" J. F. Dawson, T. G. Milling.

We cordially invite all Sunday school workers to take part with us.

J. F. JOHNSON, Pres.
J. T. JONES, Sec.

Lost Found.

Lost, between 9:30 p.m., yesterday and noon to day, a bilious attack with nausea and sick headache. This loss was occasioned by finding at Upchurch drug store a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. Guaranteed for biliousness, malaria and jaundice. 25c.

Program of Teachers' Institute to be held at Jemison, Ala., Sept. 20-21

9 a.m. Devotional Exercises, Rev. Mr. Allin.
10. Address of Welcome, R. A. Ragsdale.
10:20. Response, F. B. Williams.
10:30. Address to Teachers, Rev. S. B. Groves.
11:30. Teaching as compared with other professions, E. M. Meadows. Discussion.
1:30. Grading Country Schools, Mrs. J. Groves.
2:00. School Discipline, J. M. Parrish. Discussion.
3:00. Teacher's preparation for class work, S. B. Hicks.

SATURDAY.

9:00. Aesthetics, Rev. P. G. Mason.
10:00. Teacher's influence on the character of pupils, J. T. Williams.
10:20. Recitation by Miss Ada Rasco.
11:30. Educational Address, Hon. W. B. Crumpton.
1:30. Song service, short talks.

The Educational Board insists that all teachers and others interested in the cause of education attend this institute.

By order—R. A. RASCO, J. W. MOORE, Directors. G. L. SPEER.

APPLICATION FOR NEW DISTRICT.

The regular August meeting of the Chilton School Board the following appointments were made and accepted, and the day of final hearing was set for Saturday, Sept. 28, 1907.

Bounded as follows: Beginning at the quarter of sec. 17, tp. 21, r 15, and running west to ne corner of nw ¼ of sec 13, tp 21, r 15; thence south to corner of nw ¼ of nw 1-4, sec 13, tp 21, r 15; thence west to nw corner of ¼ of nw 1-4, sec 13, tp 21, r 15; thence south to sw corner of nw 1-4 of nw sec 25, tp 21, r 15; thence east to nw of ne 1-4 of ne 1-4, sec 26, tp 21; thence north to starting point. By order of the Board in session this 5th day of August, 1907.

R. A. RASCO, President.
SPENCER, Secretary.

TO KILL THE COUGH AND CURE THE LUNGS

Dr. King's New Discovery

Schloss, in Dutch, means a Castle

Schloss, in English, means Good Clothes

Krump on the Korner Got 'em

Come in and Get 'em Then Wear 'em

'Gin the Law Not to Wear 'em

A suit of 'em would suit Crichton off. Try 'em!

KRUMP
ON THE KORNER
MAPLESVILLE - - ALA.

—GO TO—
A. M. JOHNSON
—MANAGER OF—
THE CASH GROCERY STORE
THORSBY, ALA.
FOR BARGAINS IN
Staple and Fancy Groceries

We make a specialty of Fresh Fish and Oysters, Fresh Pork Sausage and all kinds of Sausage, Breakfast Bacon, Boneless Ham and Lard.

—DELICATESSEN—

Pop, Soda Water and Jersey Butter always on Hand.

Country Produce Bought, Sold and Exchanged.

Notice.

Real Estate, Fire, Life Insurance and Singer Machines.

I have on hand now some nice and convenient places for rent and some extra bargains in real estate. I also represent several leading fire insurance companies, and the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co.

My High Arm Singer Machine Stock is complete; Machines to suit sew perfect, run lighter and last longer than any other make. Remember, too, the price has been cut and you can get any terms you wish, monthly or annual payments. Also $5.00 allowance for your old machine.

Several good second hand Machines on hand at a bargain.

Needles, Bands, Cans, Attachments, and the only genuine Machine Oil made, 10 and 25¢ bottles.

I also represent the Jesse French Piano & Organ Co. When you need anything in my line, call on me at same old stand. Regular office days Friday, Saturday and Monday of each week.

C. R. MULLINS
CLANTON

TELEPHONE OR CALL AT

HEADLEY BROS.

when you are in need of

Dry Goods, Shoes, Hats and Caps
Glass, China and Tinware

WE MAKE A SPECIALTY IN OUR CANNED GOODS LINE

The Best Apples, Oranges and Fancy Candies
ALL KINDS OF CAKES IN PACKAGES AND BULK

Anything you want to eat, from a Pea to a Barrel of Flour

PROMPT DELIVERY. BELL PHONE 19

H. HEADLEY & BRO.
Successors to A. Headley & Sons

To PUBLISHERS AND PRINTERS

We Manufacture the Very Highest Grade of

Type, Brass Rule in Strips, Brass Labor Saving Rule, Brass Column Rules, Brass Circles, Brass Leaders Brass Round Corners, Brass Leads and Slugs, Brass Galleys, Metal Borders, L. S. Metal Furniture, Leads and Slugs, Metal Leaders, Spaces and Quads, 6 to 48 point, Metal Quoins, etc.

Old Column Rules relaced and made as good as new at small cost.

Please remember that we are not in any Trust or Combination and are sure that we can make it greatly to your advantage to deal with us.

A copy of our Catalogue will be cheerfully furnished on application.

PHILADELPHIA PRINTERS' SUPPLY CO.

...and Black Grade Printing Material
...North Ninth Street
PHILADELPHIA

Alabama News

Happenings of the State For a Week Tersely Told.

Demands Are Granted.

The demands of the painters, glaziers and paper hangers of Mobile, who are members of the union, have been granted by every shop in the city with the exception of one man, and the workmen say that he will come in due time. The agreement which calls for eight hours a day, 37 1-2 cents per hour for painters and glaziers, and 42 1-2 cents per hour for paper hangers, was signed by the following firms: A. B. Dore & Co., Maxwell & Delhome, John Thompson, Thomas Chenoweth, H. H. Bartels, Gabe Chamblin, H. W. Raff. The paper hangers asked for $3.40 per day and got $4.00 as first reported. There are 147 men in the local union, said J. P. Wimpee, and the signing of the agreement was without the slightest trouble, and in fact out of the very large number of men at work only nineteen of them lost half of a day's work.

Absolutely Pure Water.

After making an examination of the waters of the Huntsville spring, Prof. Hodges, of the Alabama Geological Survey, has pronounced the water to be as pure as any living water can be. Prof. Hodges had been informed that there were fears in certain quarters that the spring water was contaminated and he made a careful examination. He said that the water is not only pure now, but that it is impossible to contaminate it because of the rocky formation that protects the stream from the seepage of the city above it. Prof. Hodges says that the water at Brahan spring is identically the same as that which flows from the Huntsville spring. He is examining the water of all mineral wells and springs in this locality.

White Chert Discovered.

A very deep bed of pure white chert has been uncovered in Lanier's precinct in Talladega county, by the grading of the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic railroad. The deposit is over two miles long, through which the line of the road has been graded. The public road parallels the railroad at this point, and where the chert has been thrown out of the railroad cuts over the dirt road it is perfectly smooth and hard in rainiest weather. There is enough chert there to cover every dirt road in the county, and no doubt as soon as the railroad is running the streets of this city will be dressed with this beautiful white covering.

To Handle the Cotton.

At a meeting of the executive committee in Birmingham of the Farmers' Union of Alabama, which adjourned Thursday after a session of three days, the action of the National Union in fixing the price of cotton at 15 cents and the price of cotton seed at $30 per ton was ratified. The committee also decided to establish an exchange in Birmingham with Col. J. M. Thornton as manager. The union has fifty warehouses in Alabama. Samples of cotton will be sent to Col. Thornton and he will make the sales. The spot cotton will then be shipped direct from the warehouse to the purchaser. It is estimated that the union will receive at least 100,000 bales of cotton in its warrant warehouses this season.

Condemns Picture Shows.

Evangelist J. H. Newberry, who is conducting ten revival meetings, has opened up on the amusement resorts of Huntsville and condemns them as factors for evil in the community. His batteries are turned on the picture shows, the skating rinks and the natatorium. He said mothers who allow their daughters to go to the rinks and roll on skates were running the risk of allowing them to roll into hell. The natatorium was scored as a great danger to social purity and the preacher said that many young women in Huntsville have been ruined by patronizing it.

Normal College Opened.

The Alabama Normal college opened Thursday in Livingston with a large attendance. The formal opening will take place Monday. Three appropriate addresses will be delivered by prominent citizens. It is believed that this will be the banner year for the college.

To Get Their Feed Money.

Attorney General Alex M. Garber has issued his opinion in the matter of feed allowances for the sheriffs who furnish provisions to the prisoners in the jails in the several counties. The opinion, in substance, holds that the extra allowance granted to the small jailors is not a fee, but a reimbursement, and State Auditor Brandon will, accordingly, pay the extra money under the terms of the bill.

John Mock, a Cullman boy, who is working as a lineman for the Morgan County Telephone Company, was dangerously hurt while at work Friday afternoon. Mock was working near the St. Bernard bridge and climbed a telephone pole which had become rotten near the ground, and fell under his weight with a crash. Besides a broken jaw the young man received other injuries which are considered serious. The pole was about 40 feet high.

Will Sink Shaft.

A statement is given out in Birmingham that mining engineers of the Alabama Consolidated Coal and Iron Co. have discovered a seventy-foot vein of iron ore in Shades Valley that will give an additional billion tons of ore to that already known to exist in the Birmingham district. With this sensational discovery almost within the city limits of Birmingham it is pointed out that Birmingham now has a larger ore field than the entire Lake Superior fields combined. It is said that the valuable find of the Alabama Consolidated gives that one company fields containing something like three hundred millions of tons of ore, making it rank among the greatest iron ore companies in the world.

Telegraphic Tie-Up.

It is probable that within the next day or two the Southern railway, one of the largest systems doing business in this district, will be confronted with a telegraphic tie-up. The following bulletin is said to have been issued by the Southern: "All operators along the line will handle Western Union business and not refuse to test wires. Refusal means relief man by the first train." It is declared by the commercial telegraphers that 98 per cent of the Southern operators are staunch O. R. T. men.

Bit By a Mad Cat.

The little child of W. P. Mundan and two children of Mrs. Jones, at Hamburg, were bitten by a mad cat. The head of the cat was cut off and sent to the Pasteur institute at Atlanta for examination, and the word came back to send the children at once for treatment. The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Stepp, of Carrollton, has also been taken to Atlanta for the bite of a pet dog which suddenly developed rabies. It is feared the latter is in a dangerous shape.

To Have a New Railroad.

But for the unsettled condition of affairs caused by inimcal legislation Selmians would be greatly encouraged at this time over a movement that has been made during the past week in the matter of the old Atlanta and Alabama Air Line. There has been a gentleman in the city quietly investigating thematter of the rights of way, stockholders, etc., there. He did not talk to many citizens, it is claimed, but seemed just to be seeking information.

What About It, Teachers?

The new code made it necessary for the teachers in all schools in the state to take the state examinations. Heretofore the teachers in city schools which are special school districts have had had to take it. After the code came along the municipal code, signed later, and provided that teachers did not have to take the state examinations where they took the city examinations. Which will hold? is the question now up to the attorney general.

Wreck on Southern.

One of the ugliest wrecks that has occurred on the Southern railway in a long time was that at French Creek, near Demopolis, Wednesday about noon, although not a single person was injured. Through freight train No. 73, a double-header from Selma to Meridian, was speeding over the high trestle over the creek, when the center of the span of the bridge gave way and the bridge collapsed. Thirteen cars were piled up in the creek.

Rhodes Scholarship Man.

Addison White, of Huntsville, Alabama's winner of the Rhodes scholarship in the Oxford university, England, left for New York, where he will join a party of the scholars from other States. They will sail during the latter part of the present month. Mr. White is a University of Alabama man and is a son of D. Irvin White, a prominent attorney of Huntsville.

Cotton Threatened.

The last two nights have been very cool at Hartselle and much fears are entertained that there will be an early frost. If it should come within the next two or three weeks much damage will be done to the cotton crop, which is about thirty days late.

Examine Accounts.

Mr. McNeily, a hydraulic engineer from Nashville, is here examining the books of the city clerk of Huntsville for the purpose of ascertaining the exact cost of furnishing the Dallas Manufacturing Company with its water supply. When his report is made the Dallas Manufacturing Co. and the city of Huntsville will make a compromise and the suit recently filed by the city against the company will be withdrawn.

The Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroadroad Company has bought the property on First street in Wylam known as the Holmbs part. The sum paid for this property was about $4,000 per acre. The property will be used for manufacturing [illegible]

TRAINS STRUCK AS THEY ROUNDED CURVE

Passenger Train was Crowded With Excursionists

24 KILLED 30 WERE INJURED

Many of Those Injured Cannot Recover—Horror Caused by Misunderstanding of Orders—Worst Wreck in History of B. and M. Railroad.

White River Junction, Vt.—Twenty-four people, most of them excursionists, returning from the Canadian provinces, met death, and many others were injured about daylight Sunday morning in a fearful wreck between a passenger and a freight, due to a head-on collision on the Concord division of the Boston and Maine railroad, about four miles west of Canaan station. The badly injured numbered nearly thirty, some of whom, it is feared, may not survive.

Twenty-two of the bodies were taken by train to Concord and two to this place. Before their removal fourteen of the bodies had been identified. It is thought that a misunderstanding of orders by the crew of the freight train caused the accident.

A train of four cars, well filled, with tired, sleepy excursionists, nearly all of whom had been spending a day at the fair at Sherbrook, Quebec, 160 miles over the border of Canada to the north, had rounded a curve at lively speed, when the headlight of a freight locomotive flashed before the eyes of the engineer. In another instant there was a crash, and both engines were lying together, a mass of wreckage, in the ditch beside the track and the baggage car, next to the passenger locomotive, had been driven back into the passenger coach telescoping it and crushing the lives out of half a car load of people.

At the same time nearly every one else in that car was injured. A few escaped, but those who were in the sleeping car in the rear were saved from death by the more sturdy qualities of their car.

The accident occurred at 4:24 a. m. Immediately train hands, who had escaped injury, and passengers in the sleeping car were looking upon one of the worst wrecks ever seen in New Hampshire.

EX-PRIEST AND AN EX-NUN

Attempted to Expose Alleged Immoralities at St. Louis.

East St. Louis, Ill.—Angered by a speech against the Roman Catholic church and by the announcement of a lecture, alleged to be an expose of immorality among the clergy, several hundred men attacked two street preachers, members of the "Band of Holiness," beat and bruised them and pummelled the policemen who went to their rescue. The policemen had great difficulty in taking the two men to jail for safety. Three women members of the preaching corps escaped injury.

J. King, who says he was once a priest, and his wife, formerly a nun, were announced as the speakers Monday night. As soon as the subject was named, the crowd made a rush for King and his assistants and arrests were made.

Henry Frick May Manage Oil

New York.—Wall street rumor has it that Henry C. Frick will soon assume active management of the Standard Oil were revived by accounts of H. Rogers' serious illness. Those who argue that the oil man is getting old and his recent vacation failed to restore his health. Friends of both Rogers and Frick scout the suggestion of any change in management.

Girl Made Will; Died Next Day

Lexington, Ky.—Miss Judith Patten, a society leader here, noted horsewoman and well known, was killed by a fall from a runaway horse on Thursday. She made her will the day before her death and told her mother on leaving for a ride, from which she never returned, that if she did not return her will was made.

Moors Are Crushed.

Casa Blanca.—The allied French and Spanish army made a sudden and successful move on Taddert, where the Moors were massed in force. The camp of the latter was destroyed by bombardment and the enemy was put to flight, leaving many dead on the field. The French lost one man killed and six men wounded.

Orphans Remember Davis.

Nashville, Tenn.—At a meeting of the orphans' brigade at Glasgow, Ky., a resolution was adopted looking to the celebration in June next of the hundredth anniversary of Jefferson Davis' birth and the preservation of the house in which Mr. Davis was born in Todd county, Kentucky.

Fell 750 Feet.

Olean, N. Y.—Looking like a black speck that dropped like a meteor within the vision of [illegible] congregated at the Gl[illegible] the flying association's [illegible] Myers, the [illegible] day met [illegible]

MOB PARADES THE STREETS.

Atrocity of Crimes Committed By Soleillant Stirs Up the People.

Paris.—The increasing indignation of the masses against the escape from the guillotine of Soleillant, known as the "monstrous violator and murderer," whose sentence to death for the atrocious murder of a 12-year-old girl was commuted last week by President Fallieres to life imprisonment, was expressed in a series of the most curious public manifestations that have occurred in France for a long time. The demonstration, despite the fact that several arrests were made, was almost entirely orderly. Many women participated. The movement was organized not so much against Soleillant as to express the detestation of the populace against the way unspeakable crimes committed against little girls which lately has increased to an alarming degree and which it is feared the commutation of Soleillant will only stimulate the sentence

EIGHT YEARS F[illegible] PERJURY.

Parham Sued Cent[illegible] for Injuries That He Never Sustained.

Rome, Ga.—One of the most remarkable cases [illegible] superior court at Chattooga [illegible] term was the case of the State against John Parham, convicted of perjury and sentenced to the penitentiary for eight years by Judge [illegible]

The litigation began by a suit of damages against the Central of Georgia railway. The road proved that there was no accident as alleged by the plaintiff, and therefore could no damage done him; hence the jury found a verdict in favor of the defendant. This was at the September term of the court for last year.

Judge Branham then took up the matter and personally prosecuted the man Parham for perjury without the aid or consent of the Central railroad.

WOMAN [illegible] CONVICTED.

Upon Hearing Verdict She Faints and Is Carried Out.

Columbia, S[illegible] C.—Mrs. Ethel W. Blair, charged with the murder of her husband, M. [illegible] Blair, a conductor on the Columbia, Newberry and Laurence railroad, January last, was Saturday convicted of manslaughter with a recommendation to mercy. Sentence was pronounced until Monday. The crime for which Mrs. Blair has been convicted is punishable by from two to thirty years in the penitentiary.

Mrs. Blair, hearing the verdict, fainted and had to be lifted from the court room.

[illegible]AVE CHICAGO.

Business Men and Evangelists to Attack Forces of Evil.

Chicago.—Backed by the most representative laymen of the various protestant denominations of the city Chicago's forces of evil are to be attacked by a gospel army of business men and evangelists who will open their campaign Sunday, October 6, in a double canvas tent, steam heated and with a capacity of 5,000 people. The Rev. R. A. Torrey will act as leader. It is a movement intended to stir the 2,000,000 people of the city to religious heights and depths.

MANY KILLED BY EXPLOSION.

In Columbia Gold Mines Near Washington, Ga.

Washington, Ga.—Information was received here Sunday morning of a disastrous explosion which occurred Saturday at the Columbia gold mines, just across the river in this county.

It is stated that the explosion was a premature discharge of a charge of dynamite resulting in the loss of several lives. Telephone lines to the mines are out of order and details are not available.

Pettibone May Die.

Boise, Idaho.—George A. Pettibone, charged with complicity in the murder of Governor Steunenberg, was taken to the hospital in a critical condition and an operation probably will be necessary. There will be no further prosecution of the case at present.

Birmingham Selected.

Norfolk, Va.—Birmingham, Ala. was selected as the next place of meeting by the southern branch of the National Dental Association, which met jointly with the Jamestown International Dental Congress at the Jamestown exposition Berlin "Ripper" Is at Large.

Berlin.—An insane man named Olsky, arrested on suspicion that he was the "ripper" who murdered several school girls recently, has escaped from the observation ward of the prison hospital. The news of his escape created consternation, and fear prevails that fresh crimes will be perpetrated.

Great Fire at Hakodate.

Victoria, B. C.—The steamer Shawmut, which arrived Saturday from Asia via Japan and China, brought further news of the great fire at Hakodate. The big conflagration originated in a soup factory near the Hakodate school and spread with great rapidity, sweeping away hundreds of bamboo houses. During the [illegible] powder magazine at Kishigawa [illegible] Three hundred [illegible] houses were [illegible]

Finest of Automobile Courses

SPLENDID AUTOMOBILE RACE-TRACK NEAR WEYBRIDGE, ENGLAND.

Just opened, and cost $500,000. The slope at the curves [illegible] miles an hour a safe speed. The course is three and one [illegible] miles in circuit.—From Illustrated London News.

Thread Cutter.

A recently patented device of interest to dressmakers and tailors is the thread cutter shown in illustration below. Persons employed in these vocations have found that a great deal of time is consumed in picking up a pair of scissors each time it is necessary to cut the sewing thread. This contrivance was designed especially to do away with scissors for cutting the thread. It comprises a pair of pivoted blades, the handles of which are set at an angle. At the end of one handle is a slot and in the other a lug, to limit the movement of the blades. In use the thread cutter is placed in the palm of the hand, being held in position by a loop which slips over the little finger. It is claimed that it can be kept in the palm of the hand without interfering with the operation while sewing, there being perfect freedom of the fingers at all times. A slight twist of the fingers is all that is required to operate the cutter to break the thread.

Condensed [illegible]k.

And speaking of c[illegible], it is related that a Baltimorean who was not used to the ways of the country went into the suburbs to visit a friend who had taken up amateur farming with two cows, a bee and a [illegible]pe. At the table they had excellent milk for general purposes and astonishingly good cream for the coffee and cereals. The visitor expressed his admiration, and then inquired:

"Which of your cows gives cream?"

"The sorrel," was the prompt reply. "But we have a neighbor down the street whose cows don't give anything but condensed milk."

"Indeed?"

"Absolutely true. It is an invention of his own. He gets the condensed milk by putting six cows into a stall big enough for only one.

And the visitor returned to more breathing reverently:

"Marvellous! Marvellous! never again question the wisdom of nature."—Baltimore News.

Japanese Boat in Chicago.

While peaceful citizens on both sides of the world are reading about the troubles between the United States and Japan, few of Chicago's 2,000,000 are aware that a Japanese boat is here.

Yet nevertheless it is true. A Japanese vessel bearing the formidable name of Hoomaru is quartered in the Jackson Park launch house and needs only a few guns, a new motor and a searchlight in order to take at least some part in any hostilities that might arise between the two countries.

The Hoomaru, which is about twenty feet long, belongs to the Japanese Government, and carried pas-

Curious Craft of the Olden Time

LAST OF THE HORSE-POWER FERRY-BOATS ON THE MISSISSIPPI RIVER AT ST. MARYS, MO., NOW REPLACED BY MODERN VESSELS.

—From Leslie's Weekly.

INCHESTER

unting Rifles

rom the ten different Winchester repeaters ou can surely select a ile adapted for hunting our favorite game, be squirrels or grizzly ears. No matter hich model you select u can count on its ing well made, ac- rate and reliable.

Y WINCHESTER CARTRIDGES

WINCHESTER GUNS

E MAN WHO SWEARS BY E FISH BRAND SLICKER

is the man who has tried to get the same service out of some other make

Closs Light Durable Guaranteed Waterproof and Sold Everywhere at $3.00

DOGS AS WAT[illegible]

Easily Trained [illegible] Others

"Training dogs [illegible] men and police [illegible] ter," said an old [illegible] the city, who [illegible] in the South [illegible]

"Dogs like [illegible] prowling about [illegible] bark yields an [illegible] and pointed [illegible] and their work [illegible] often enables [illegible] trainer or [illegible] presence. [illegible] By a watchful [illegible]

"When I was [illegible] Newfoundland [illegible] me of his own [illegible] courage like [illegible] along on my [illegible] pany as any [illegible] watched me [illegible] seemed to [illegible] did follow [illegible] and in less [illegible] house that I [illegible]

"In ten [illegible] part of my [illegible] not try the [illegible] found when [illegible] saw that [illegible] had to do [illegible] search the [illegible] crowghly [illegible] barked and [illegible] the matter [illegible] open. The [illegible] had come [illegible] latched and [illegible] The dog knew [illegible] ed for me [illegible]

"Another [illegible] in a back [illegible] he had come [illegible] a pile of [illegible] with me for [illegible] evening, not [illegible] that dog [illegible] ben where [illegible] we would [illegible] warm, and [illegible] warming [illegible] was no use [illegible] ready to go [illegible]

"I lost [illegible] ed out of [illegible] became [illegible] tion that [illegible] was taken [illegible] noticed following [illegible] lon, as the [illegible] the party, [illegible] and the [illegible] first to [illegible] ought to [illegible] as his pos[illegible]

Democrat.

A Wonderful Discovery.

A certain gentleman from the Emerald Isle who was amused to the discovery of this country was presented one day by a member of the sporting fraternity. This person offered to bet him, for a modest consideration, a marvellous way to make money without toiling for it. All one had to do, he said, was a small amount of money on a certain horse that couldn't possibly lose.

"And yes say Oi can get that money without working for it?" asked the delighted Irishman, when the other had explained.

"Sure thing. All the work you got to do is to count the maruna."

"I'll thry it," said Pat.

So they hied them to a race-course, where the sporty-looking gentleman took Pat's money at odds of ten to one. And the horse won.

Pat's joy was unbounded when he was handed a large number of yellow-backed bills. Calling his new-found friend to one side, he asked in a voice that trembled with excitement:

"I say, how long has this thing been goin' on?"—Lippincott's.

The Shah owns the most costly pipe in the world, and he smokes it on all occasions. It is incrusted from the top of the bowl to the amber mouthpiece with diamonds, rubies and pearls, and is valued at $200,000.

Japan is perhaps the only country in the world where the fashions in women's dress have not changed materially in 2,500 years.

Penniless men not otherwise employed are excessively busy getting a example.

Chances are against the man who never takes chances.

FOUND OUT.

Trained Nurse Made Discovery.

No one is in better position to know the value of food and drink than a trained nurse.

Speaking of coffee, a nurse in Ben Barre, Pa., writes: "I used to drink strong coffee myself and suffered greatly from headaches and indigestion. While on a visit to friends where I had a good chance to observe, I found I was much benefited, and finally my headaches disappeared and also the indigestion.

Naturally I have since used Postum among my patients, and I have had a marked benefit when coffee has been left off and Postum used. I observed a curious fact when used among the help. Postum greatly helps the few cases where coffee is inadmissible, and where tea cannot be used.

I find trouble in getting some people to make Postum properly. They will not always serve it hot enough, nor boiled long enough. Directions: Boil 15 to 20 minutes after boiling begins and served with cream it is certainly a delicious beverage." Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason."

Automobile Coarse

RACE-TRACK NEAR WEYBRIDGE, LAND.
The slope at the curves makes speed. The course is three and one-quarter m Illustrated London News.

engers on the lagoon during World's Fair in connection with Japanese exhibit. It has been removed, but remains in operation within a stone's throw of the island. Hundreds of persons in boats pass the curious craft and wonder why it is and what there.—Chicago Daily News.

The Kailyard School.

Mr. J. M. Barrie founded the yard School; Mr. S. R. Crockett it a byword but also made it John Watson, turning aside time to time from his labors of the busiest pastors and well-nowned preachers in the Presbyterian Church, scored with his "Ian Maclaren" books a success that was ly sought.—London Mail.

Apples Flavor Cigars.

"Why do I keep apples in the drawer with my cigars?" said a orderly business man with novel "Because it gives them a delicate distinctive flavor, and also keeps just sufficient moisture to keep cigars in excellent condition."—New York Press.

New Mucilage Bottle.

The problem of devising a mucilage bottle which would prove entirely satisfactory for home use has received the attention of inventors for many years. Everybody is familiar with the nickel bottle of mucilage purchased at the corner store. The bottle is securely sealed with a tight-fitting cork, and with each bottle a small brush for applying the fluid is supplied gratuitously. In using the mucilage the question arises of what to do with the brush. The cork must be replaced when the mucilage becomes hard. If the brush is allowed to dry it becomes useless. A neat method of solving the difficulty is shown in the illustration. In the inner side of the neck of the bottle is a band of spring wire, the ends being open. The brush handle is passed through the side opening of the neck. A Wyoming man has had the device patented. This improvement could readily be added with slight additional cost to the manufacture of bottles.

The Pessimistic Poet.

The rose that smells the sweetest is the first to fade. The boy who runs the fastest is the one to scorch. The brightest of the evening stars is the gloomiest of dawns. The man with the biggest yard must cut the biggest lawns.—Albany Lodger.

In Rhodesia, Africa, at a hill, nearly 1,000,000 tons of lead and zinc are in sight.

raft of the Olden Time

-POWER FERRY-BOATS ON THE MISSOURI MARY'S, MO., NOW REPLACED BY MODERN VESSELS.
—From Leslie's Weekly

NCHESTER

nting Rifles

om the ten different inchester repeaters
s can surely select a e adapted for hunting
r favorite game, be squirrels or grizzly ars. No matter ich model you select u can count on its
g well made, accurate and reliable.

VINCHESTER CARTRIDGES
VINCHESTER GUNS

E MAN WHO SWEARS BY FISH BRAND SLICKER

is the man who has tried to get the same service out of some other make

TOWER'S FISH BRAND

Clean Light Durable Guaranteed Waterproof and Sold Everywhere at $3.00

TOWER MFG. & RUBBER CO.

A Wonderful Discovery.

rtain gentleman from the Emhe who was unused to the of this country was accosted by by a member of the sportfraternity. This person offered part to him, for a modest conation, a marvellous way to make without toiling for it. All one d, he said, was a small amount en a certain horse that couldn't lose.

d yes say Oi can get thot money t working for it?" asked the ered Irishman, when the other through explaining.

re thing. All the work you get is to count the mazuma."

thry it," said Pat.

they hied them to a race-course, the sporty-looking gentleman Pat's money at odds of to one. And the horse Pat's joy was unbounded he was handed a large of yellow-backed bills. Callhis new-found friend to one side, ed in a voice that trembled excitement:

ll say, how long has this thing goin' on?"—Lippincott's.

e Shah owns the most costly pipe he world, and he smokes it on occasions. It is incrusted from top of the bowl to the amber pstpiece with diamonds, rubies and , and is valued at $300,000.

pan is perhaps the only country the world where the fashions in en's dress have not changed materially in 2,500 years.

mperless men not otherwise emyed are excessively busy setting a example.

hances are against the man who er takes chances.

FOUND OUT.

Trained Nurse Made Discovery.

No one is in better position to ow the value of food and drink a trained nurse.

Speaking of coffee, a nurse Glen Barre, Pa., writes: "I used ink strong coffee myself and suffered greatly from headaches and indigestion. While on a visit to friends I had a good chance to try Postum Food Coffee, for they served it in place of ordinary coffee. In two weeks after using Postum I found I was much benefited. Finally my headaches disappeared and also the indigestion.

"Naturally I have since used Postum among my patients, and have noted a marked benefit when coffee has been left off and Postum used.

"I observed a curious fact about Postum when used among mothers. It greatly helps the flow of milk in cases where coffee is inclined to dry it up, and where tea causes nervousness.

"I had trouble in getting servants to make Postum properly. They would always serve it half boiled. It must be boiled long enough. It should be boiled 15 to 20 minutes after the boiling begins and served with cream. Then it is certainly a delicious beverage." Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason."

DOGS AS WATCHMEN'S HELPERS.

Easily Trained and Often Show Considerable Sagacity.

"Training dogs to assist the watchman and police is a very simple matter," said an old private watchman of the city, who formerly walked a beat in the South End.

"Dogs like the work. They enjoy prowling around through alleys and back yards and nosing into corners and behind barrels and piles of boxes, and their wonderful sense of smell often enables them to locate an intruder so securely hidden that his presence would never be suspected by a watchman.

"When I was walking a beat a large Newfoundland dog began following me of his own accord. I didn't encourage him at first, but let him go along on my rounds as much for company as anything else. That dog watched me like a detective and seemed to understand everything I did; followed me into every yard, and in less than a week knew every house that I was employed to watch.

"In ten days he was doing a large part of my work. Of course he could not try the doors, but after the first round, when I tried all the doors and saw that everything was right, all I had to do was to send him in to search the yard, and he did it thoroughly. If anything was wrong he barked and I ran in to see what was the matter. Once a back door was open. The gentleman of the house had come in late, left the door unlatched and the wind blew it open. The dog knew it was wrong and barked for me to come.

"Another time I heard him barking in a back yard, and running in, found he had cornered a man hiding behind a pile of boards. The dog worked with me for nearly three years. Every evening, no matter what the weather that dog was on hand at the patrol box where I reported. On cold nights we would go into an engine house to warm, and while the dog enjoyed the warming hour as much as I did he was no skulker, but whenever I was ready to go he was ready, too.

"I lost him because his owner moved out of the city, but as soon as it became known among the dog population that he wasn't working his place was taken by a hound that I had often noticed following us in a furtive fashion, as though he would like to be of the party, but didn't want to intrude, and the new dog seemed from the first to understand everything that ought to be done and did it as well as his predecessor."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

HURTING EYES

Are relieved of all pain and soreness without pain in one day by Leonardi's Golden Eye Lotion. Cures, heals and strengthens weak eyes. Stops watering, cures inflammation at once. Acts like magic in demanding "Leonardi's"—it makes strong eyes. Guaranteed or money refunded. Druggists sell it at 25 cts., or forwarded prepaid on receipt of price by A. S. Leonardi & Co., Tampa, Fla.

Only Make Mirth.

If people would eat more onions the population would be a great deal healthier. I never saw a dyspeptic man eating onions. He thinks they are poison, but in fact, they are the medicine he most needs.

Whenever you see an onion eater you see a whole-souled, open-hearted, jolly good fellow, who knows what he ought to eat to keep him good humored. Talk about the staff of life—why, bread is only a crutch. There is more nourishment in an onion than there is in a roll.—New York Journal.

SORES AS BIG AS PENNIES.

Whole Head and Neck Covered—Hair All Came Out—Suffered 6 Months—Cured in 3 Weeks by Cuticura.

"After having the measles my whole head and neck were covered with scaly sores about as large as a penny. They were just as thick as they could be. My hair all came out. I let the trouble run on, taking the doctor's blood remedies and rubbing on salve, but it did not seem to get any better. It stayed that way for about six months; then I got a set of the Cuticura Remedies, and in about a week I noticed a big difference, and in three weeks was well entirely and I have not had the trouble any more, and as this was seven years ago, I consider myself cured. Mrs. Mary Porter, Albion, Neb., Aug. 25, '08."

Kromagraphs, Music Typewriter.

Laurens Kromar, of Vienna, has invented a "musical typewriter" under the name given above. With the aid of this instrument the composer may produce a typewritten scroll without the trouble of making the characters by hand. All that he has to do is to place himself at the piano and give free play to his creative fancies. Every stroke upon the keys is registered in regular musical characters upon a paper scroll wound upon a drum. The machine operates through a system of electric contacts with the piano keys. The registering apparatus, which resembles an ordinary typewriter in size, may, in order to remove discordant sounds, be placed at a distance from the piano, even in an adjoining room.—Youth's Companion.

Valuable Elderberry Patch.

Elderberries are being cultivated by the Pennsylvania Railroad on ground worth $80,000 an acre.

Alongside the approaches to the Union Depot is a long stretch of ground that the company could not keep green, because of smoke and soot. Finally, elder cuttings were planted, they thrived, and now are in fine bloom.

The ground is among the most valuable along Liberty avenue, a sale across the street last week being at the rate of $94,000 an acre.—Pittsburg Dispatch to The Philadelphia North American.

HERITAGE OF CIVIL WAR.

Thousands of Soldiers Contracted Chronic Kidney Trouble While in the Service.

The experience of Capt. John L. Ely, of Co. E, 17th Ohio, now living at 500 East Second St., Newton, Kansas, will interest the thousands of veterans who came back from the Civil War suffering torture with kidney complaints. Capt. Ely says: "I contracted kidney trouble during the Civil War, and the occasional attacks finally developed into a chronic case. At one time I had to use a crutch and cane to get about. My back was lame and weak, and besides the ach... there was a distressing ret... the kidney secretions. I was in a t... way when I began using Doan's Ki... Pills in 1901, but the remedy ca... me, and I have been well ever si...

Sold by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

ANIMALS COMMIT MURDER.

Many of Them Are Also Known to Be Thieves and Highwaymen.

All the great groups of the animal kingdom include numerous forms which are murderous by profession, though, as their object is to obtain food, a jury would probably consider them as guilty of justifiable animalicide" only.

Such are birds of beasts of prey; crocodiles, which drown their prey under water; snakes which swallow their victims alive; lizards and frogs which slaughter insects, worms and other small creatures by the thousands, cuttlefishes which use their sucker-studded tentacles to enfold other animals in a deadly embrace; scorpions and spiders, which poison insects and suck their juices, and myriads of forms still lower in the scale but equally merciless.

Some of these creatures, however, when in a savage mood, not only kill for the sake of satisfying the cravings of hunger, but from mere bloodthirstiness, and the murder, pure and simple. Weasels and their kind, also otters, furnish the best examples of this undesirable propensity.

Those unpleasant creatures known as parasites, which live on the outside, or, it may be within other animals, take toll of blood or juice of their victims, which may in the end die of sheer weakness, though usually their persecutors like them to remain alive as long as possible, so that they may continue to act as living larders.

Sometimes murders deliberately planned with malice prepense in such cases, though the schemer is not the actual murderer, but leaves the foul deed to be perpetrated by her offspring.

This is the case with the ceumon flies, where the female lays eggs in some other creature, often fat, juicy caterpillar, so that the young when they hatch out are nourished by nourishing food, commonly ending up by reducing their unwilling host to a mere skin.

Piracy upon the high seas is recognized profession of the Skua marine birds with hooked beaks, and talons to their webbed feet. These ingenious animals lie in wait for sea gulls, which have been out fishing, and chase these unfortunate birds until they disgorge their booty, which is then snapped up before it can reach the water.

If an obstinate gull refuses to do this it is often shaken by the tail till the desired end is attained.

Some of the most confirmed robbers are found among insects. Various bees are examples of this, making raids upon the honey of their relatives. Even domesticated swarms sometime become lazy and thievish, and persistently rob their neighbors, much to the disgust of the bee master.

The stores of honey laid up by bees and wasps also proves too great a temptation for some other insects to resist. The most interesting of these forms are the so-called "cuckoo parasites," which guided by perverted parental love, lay eggs within the hive or nest. Here we find snugly quartered in consequence the grubs of oil-beetles, which devour the honey and the caterpillars of certain moth which gnaw the combs.

Food is not the only object of thievish attention, for, as is well known, ravens, jackdaws, and magpies purloin and hide all sorts of glittering objects, and in this way have often led to groundless accusations being brought against innocent human beings.—Pearson's Weekly.

Officials of the New York City custom house promise the highest annual record of receipts for the current fiscal year that has ever been known. The figures will be little under $2,000,000 for each business day.

His breach of promise suit is that a young man would rather have pressed.

People who implore the boys to remain on the farm don't know anything about hugging waters.

Sincere Easy.

It was the usual matinal wrangle about expenses.

She had raided in the customary club dues and cigar bills, in fact every item in the enforcement of which she did not participate herself.

He on his part had represented and likewise made nasty assertions about the price of female garb and the extravagance of womankind in general and especially in particular.

"Ah," he exclaimed plaintively, "I gave up a good deal when I married you."

How foolish to give her such an opportunity, for of course she replied, "Well, you've certainly given up nothing since."

Then secured of victory she calmly and bravely plunged into the vote-getting fray, headgear being the weapon of attack.

But, alas, she too was ungarnished in her speech.

"You must recollect," she crushingly concluded a lengthy harangue, "that hats wear out."

"If you'd stop talking through them and gave them a chance—" he began—

But she had already banged the door.

Women have no sense of humor.—The Benedick in Town Topics.

FITS, St. Vitus' Dance, Nervous Diseases permanently cured by Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. $2 trial bottle and treatise free. Dr. H. R. Kline, Ltd., 931 Arch St., Phila., Pa.

The total area of the British empire is nearly 11,400,000 square miles, or more than one-fifth of the earth's surface.

The easiest and most natural thing in the world is to let a woman do as she pleases.

The tide of emigration in England has turned from South Africa to Canada.

Australia is spending $110,000,000 on a fleet of torpedo boats and destroyers.

A Kansas farmer named Potts recently dug up an old kettle containing $6,300 on his farm.

The record weight for the human heart is little over 40 ounces. The average is 9½ ounces.

Her Condition.

A widow coy and sweet was wooed by a bluff old sailor, who thought the world of her. But not trusting himself to make a direct proposal of marriage, he decided to speak to her in the metaphor of the sea.

"Kate," he said, "your boat is drifting down the sea of life, with no strong hand to steer it safely past the rocks. May I be your captain and sail it for you?"

"No, Jack," she answered with an engaging blush, "but you may be my second mate if you like!"—Kansas City Independent.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle

Perhaps more people would be good if it didn't look so much like being good for nothing.

MEN ADMIRE

MISS EMMA RUNTZLER

a pretty face, a good figure, but admire an intelligent woman more. Intelligent, happy, contented women is most of all to be admired.

Women troubled with fainting spells, irregularities, nervous prostration, backache, the "blues," and those dreadful dragging sensations cannot hope to be happy or popular, and advancement in either business or social life is impossible.

The cause of these troubles, however, yields quickly to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made from native roots and herbs. It acts at once upon the organs affected and the nerve centers, dispelling every trace of these distressing symptoms. No other medicine in the country has received such unqualified indorsement or has such a record of cures of female ills as has

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Miss Emma Runtzler, of 611 State St., Schenectady, N. Y., writes:—"For a long time I was troubled with a weakness which seemed to drain all my strength away. I had dull headaches, was nervous, irritable, and all worn out. Chancing to read one of your advertisements of a case similar to mine cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I decided to try it and I cannot express my gratitude for the benefit received. I am entirely well and feel like a new person."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most successful remedy for all forms of Female Complaints, Weak Back, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation and Ulceration, and is invaluable in preparing for childbirth and the Change of Life.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free and always helpful.

Pure Candy

For the Children

HUSTON'S

Seal Brand Candy

is the safest kind to give to the little ones.

A twisted stick, open kettle candy, made from pure sugar. Guaranteed to comply with Pure Food Law.

5c

Sold by Grocers and Druggists.
In sealed packages only.

HUSTON BISCUIT CO., Birmingham, Ala.

Greenville H. Standish, Advertising Agency, Providence, R. I.

CRESCENT ANTISEPTIC

GREATEST HEALER KNOWN TO SCIENCE.

Non Poisonous, Non Irritating. Allays Inflammation and stops pain from any cause. As strong as carbolic acid and as harmless as sweet milk. Cures burns instantly; cures old and chronic sores; cures sores and inflammation from any cause on man or beast. Puts fowls—cures chickens, cures head and roup. Satisfaction positively guaranteed.

For Sale by all First-Class Dealers. Mfgd. by CRESCENT CHEMICAL CO., Ft. Worth, Texas

W. L. DOUGLAS $3.00 & $3.50 SHOES

BEST IN THE WORLD

SHOES FOR EVERY MEMBER OF THE FAMILY, AT ALL PRICES.

$25,000 Reward

THE REASON W. L. Douglas shoes are worn by more people in all walks of life than any other make, is because of their excellent style, easy fitting, and superior wearing qualities. The selection of the leathers and other materials for each part of the shoe, and every detail of the making is looked after by the most complete organization of experienced shoemakers, who receive the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and whose workmanship cannot be excelled.

If I could take you into my large factories at Brockton, Mass., and show you how carefully W. L. Douglas shoes are made, you would then understand why they hold their shape, fit better, wear longer and are of greater value than any other make.

CAUTION! The genuine have W. L. Douglas name and price stamped on bottom. Take No Substitutes. Ask your dealer for W. L. Douglas shoes. If he cannot supply you, send direct to factory. Shoes sent anywhere by mail. Catalog free. W. L. Douglas, Brockton, Mass.

Can't Work

Feel bilious? Get a splitting headache? Pains all over your body? Try

HICKS' CAPUDINE

IT'S LIQUID

FULL BOTTLE 10c

Dispels all aches and pains immediately. Regular Sizes, 25c and 50c. All Druggists.

STANDARD OF THE SOUTH

SNOWDRIFT HOGLESS LARD

U.S. GOVERNMENT INSPECTION

THE SOUTHERN COTTON OIL CO.

The Tulane University OF LOUISIANA

ROBERT E. CRAIGHEAD, LL. D., President.

The Tulane University of Louisiana, founded in 1845 as the University of Louisiana, is the highest head of the entire system of public educational institutions of the State.

Full courses are offered in Languages, Literature, Engineering, Architecture, Law, Medicine, Pharmacy, An Advanced department for Women in Sophomore College. Full courses in Architecture will be offered next session. Tuskegee College, recently established, will open Oct. 1st. Many scholarships in Academic Courses. Expenses low. Law dormitory rents. Next session of all departments, except the Medical, begins Oct. 1st. Medical Department opens Oct. 21st. Send for catalogue. E. E. BRUFF, Secretary.

It is foolish to save money for your funeral expenses, for while you will probably be present, you won't feel at it in any of your funeral.

We feel if we could get the world to practice all we preach, there would not be any need of further reform.

A BOTTLE WILL BREAK YOUR CHILLS

Wintersmith's CHILL TONIC

Cures Chills and Malarial Fevers

50c and $1

Standard for 40 years; known as best chill tonic; guaranteed to take; always cures like it. Contains no quinine, but acts on liver and bowels better. Don't buy something said to be "just as good." Get Wintersmith's Chill Tonic, or send prepaid to us, and we will forward, charges paid, by express. Booklet free.

ARTHUR PETER & CO. Gen'l Agts., Louisville, Ky.

FREE

To convince any woman that Paxtine Antiseptic will improve her health and beauty, we will send her absolutely free a large trial box of Paxtine with book of instructions and genuine testimonials. Send your name and address on a postal card.

PAXTINE

Antiseptic (such as every refined woman should use) cures by absorption. Dissolved in water it forms a healing, cleansing, purifying antiseptic solution of marvelous power over those troubles to which women are subject. Paxtine kills all germs of disease. Sold by druggists, or sent postpaid by mail. Remember, Paxtine is not a "douche." It cures by absorption. IT DOES YOU NOTHING TO TRY IT. Send to-day. Booklet free. Address, THE R. PAXTON CO., Boston, Mass.

WATCH THE WHITE STAR BUGGY

It will last the short and need actual service and inspection and inquiries from us to household. We can't tell you all of its good points in this small space. Send for catalog to the manufacturers.

ATLANTA BUGGY CO.
ATLANTA, GA.

THE DIXIE PEA HULLER

For the peanut, Japanese, Soja Bean, Velvet Bean, Cow Pea, Field Pea, and all other Peas. Hulls and cleans them perfectly. Runs easy. Capacity 10 to 15 bushels per hour. Write for circulars and prices.

RAYMOND BROS. CO., Salem, Ohio.

TRY THEM

EASILY CURED

Tobacco Habit, Liquor Habit, Laudanum Habit

Dr. J. E. Bennett's Chemists of good Tobacco eliminator cure all Tobacco, Liquor or Laudanum habits in from three to seventy days. Call or write for particulars. SENT FREE, the pamphlet of the patient. Testimonials SENT FREE. For sale by all druggists, or sent on receipt of $1.00.

THE J. E. BENNETT CHEMICAL COMPANY
P. O. Box 532 W., TOLEDO, OHIO

Am. 10, 1902.

Thompson's Eye Water

You Look Prematurely Old

THE COMING SEASON

is one of novelties and of exceptional opportunities for buyers who will make a thorough examination of the New Fall and Winter Goods. The fall of the year necessitates a change of clothing, and when you are changing, why not change into the latest fashions?

We have recently returned from the northern markets, where we bought the finest line of

Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Hats,

UNDERWEAR, NOTIONS, ETC.

that could be found on the market, and offer them to you at prices that will command your attention. Come in and let us show you.

We have entered the cotton market and will pay the highest price for cotton—and the price promises to be high this season.

Also we shall continue to pay highest prices for COUNTRY PRODUCE, WOOL, BEESWAX, HIDES and TALLOW. Bring them in and get cash for them.

PHONOGRAPHS and RECORDS
a Specialty
Come and Hear Them Play

H. KANJUTZKY

CLANTON - - ALA.

Fall and Winter is Upon Us

and we are making our first showing of the New Fall Styles in Clothes for men and boys. They are the newest productions of the best known makes, in all the latest fabrics, shades, and a real treat to the eye of a man who knows good clothes when he sees them. Come in, look, try one and you will be highly pleased.

This is the Season for Hat Changing

and nothing can add to your appearance more than a stylish, becoming hat. If you will come in, we will convince you that we have the latest styles.

Furnishing Goods

All the little things that go to make up the attire of a well dressed person have to be found here in the newest styles at moderate prices.

Just Received a Beautiful Lot of Laces, Dress Goods and Lace Collars. Also a complete line of Ferris Corsets.

Fall Models In Footwear

Our line is complete.

Star Brand Shoes are Better

J. C. JONES

CLANTON - - - - - ALA.

Health is More Than Wealth

Use

BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT

AND

KING OF THEM ALL

you will always have good health. What is more to a man than good health? All the money in the world can't make happiness where health is unknown. Ballard's Snow Liniment

CURES Rheumatism, Cuts, Burns, Sprains, Neuralgia, Sores, Stiff Joints, Contracted Muscles, Lame Back and all the ills that Flesh is Heir to.

One Who Knows.

J. C. Scott, Salt Lake City, Utah, writes; "I cannot too highly praise your Ballard's Snow Liniment for the relief of acute rheumatism, caused by sudden change and exposure to the weather. I also recommend your Ballard's Horehound Syrup for coughs and colds. These used together defy all pain.

GET THE GENUINE. Three Sizes 25c, 50c, $1.00

Ballard Snow Liniment Co.

500-502 North Second Street,

ST. LOUIS, - MISSOURI.

Sold and Recommended by

UPCHURCH DRUG CO., CLANTON.

Gen. Robert E. Lee

was the greatest General the world has ever known. Ballard's Snow Liniment is the greatest Liniment. Quickly cures all pains. It is within the reach of all. T. H. Pointer, Hempstead, Texas, writes: "This is to certify that Ballard's Snow Liniment has been used in my household for years and has been found to be an excellent Liniment for Rheumatic pains. I am never without it." Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Enterprise.

The Cheerful Addie Mercy Band will meet at Enterprise, Saturday night before the fourth Sunday in September. All who are interested in the Addie Mercy Band are especially invited to come.

Game and Fish Laws of Alabama.

Following are the essential features of the game law:

Prohibits the killing, at all times, of all wild birds other than the game birds enumerated below, except English Sparrows, Hawks, Owls and Crows.

The open season on game birds as follows: Wild turkeys, from Dec. 1st to March 1st,; Quail, doves, swans, geese, brandt, ducks, rails, coots, mud hens, sand pipers, woodcocks and curlews, Nov. 1st to Mar. 1st. Snipe and plover, Nov. 1st to May 1st.

The killing of wild turkey hens is at all times prohibited

The various kinds of pheasants and all important game birds are protected absolutely until Dec. 1st, 1912, and from thereafter the open season is from Nov. 15th to Dec. 15th.

Prohibits any pitfall, deadfall, scaffold, cage, snare, trap, net, saltlick, baited hook or baited field, or any other similar device, or any drug, poisonous chemicals or explosives, for the purpose of injuring, capturing or killing any protected bird or animal, also prohibits hunting protected birds or animals between dark and daylight.

Open season on deer, Nov. 1st to Jan. 1st, and prohibits killing of doe, or female deer, at all times.

Open season on squirrels from Sept, 1st to Feb 1st.

Fixes the following limits for each person in one day: One deer, two turkeys, and twenty-five game birds.

Prohibits absolutely the sale or offering for sale of protected game birds or animals, whether taken in this State or not.

License for hunting in county of residence, $1.00; for hunting in any county in the State, $3.00. Non resident and alien license, $15.00. License to be obtained from Probate Judge.

Prohibits the shipping or carrying of game except openly and in the possession of those who have hunters' license, as required by the act. Prohibits carriers from accepting game to be carried in any other way, either within the State or without the State. Prohibits absolutely the carrying or shipping of live game.

Makes it unlawful to hunt on land of another without written permission.

Essential features of the fish law are as follows:

The use of dynamite or explosives of any kind in any of the waters of the State is prohibited except by special permission of and under the supervision of the State Game and Fish Commissioner, and then only for mining or mechanical purposes, or to recover the bodies of persons. No license to fish.

Prohibits the taking of fish by the use of seins, trammel nets, gill nets, fish traps or any other devise or trot line or by any means other than the ordinary hook and line, gig, spear. But this does not apply to navigable waters of the State.

Allows the use of minnow seines not more than 12 feet in length and 4 feet in width, for catching minnows to be used for bait only. Written permission is required to fish in private ponds and lakes of another.

Sheriff, deputy sheriffs, marshals, constables, and peace officers are made Deputy Game and Fish Wardens.

JOHN H. WALLACE,
State Game and Fish Commissioner, Montgomery, Ala.

J. W. E. GULLEDGE,
County Game and Fish Warden, Varbenia, Ala.

There are a great many people who have slight attacks of indigestion and dyspepsia nearly all the time. Their food may satisfy the appetite but it fails to nourish the body simply because the stomach is not in fit condition to do the work it is supposed to do. It cannot digest the food you eat. The stomach should be given help. It ought to take something that will do the work your stomach can't do. Kodol for Indigestion and Dyspepsia, a combination of natural digestants and vegetable acids, digests the food itself and gives strength and health to the stomach. Pleasant to take. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

If mother Eve had known as much as some of her daughters what a fool she would have been of that snake.

The Touch That Heals

Is the touch of Bucklen's Arnica salve. It's the happiest combination of Arnica flowers and healing herbs ever compounded. For how old the sore or [illegible] Bucklen's Arnica Salve it. For burns, boils, piles, [illegible] It is an [illegible]

Jasper, Ala., Manchester Station

Well, let a few more words to the Banner

Things are building up here very fast now.

The new saw mill will soon be completed and it is going to be an immense building.

We have a good school here taught by Miss Anda [illegible] of Tennessee.

There is a good singing school now in session near here conducted by Prof. C G Alexander from Double Springs.

We have a slight beginning of a Sunday school and sincerely desiring its soon being a strong basis.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. [illegible]atrick were very happy when their daughter and her husband arrived from Texas.

Miss Eve [illegible]tiff seems to enjoy her stay with her sister very much. We don't think that we can let her go back to Chilton any more. She is now attending the singing school

Quite a crowd of young people from here went to Sunday to spend the day at a spring six miles away and while there swinging in the swing eighty boys came and turned their teams loose. So one of the number had to walk home.

And got the horses. Miss Ada [illegible]tuck is the happy possessor of one new organ

Our teacher and a few of her friends enjoyed ice cream at the school house Friday afternoon.

Come! to Manchester! Manchester has a wonderfully bright future before it.

Our merchant, Mr. Atwood, has moved to his new home on Ave. No 1 and his mother is keeping house for him.

I wish the Banner and its many readers much good luck

BLUE EYES.

Non-[illegible]

The State of Alabama, Chambers County.
In Equity. 12th District, Northeastern Division. No 1.
W. J. Bell Complainant, vs. Annie May Kendrick, et al, Defendants

In this cause it appearing to the Register, by the affidavit of Complainant Rad Sheffield, that the Defendant, Jim above styled cause, an infant, the parties defendant in the [illegible] resident of Alabama, and in the belief of said affiant, an infant, under the age of fourteen years, a [illegible] resident of Alabama, that said infant resides with [illegible] grandfather, R. L. Sheffield, [illegible] Smith, State of Alabama, [illegible] legal guardian and [illegible] that said infant, R. L. Sheffield, resides in the town of [illegible] Alabama, State of Georgia, and that R. L. Sheffield is not a fit [illegible] of said minor. Affiant further says that the said R. L. Sheffield, is a resident of the State of Alabama, over the age of [illegible] years, and resides in the town of [illegible] in the State of Georgia.

It is therefore ordered by the Register, that publication be made in the Banner, a newspaper published at Clanton, Ala., once a week for four consecutive weeks, requiring them, the said Jim [illegible] and R. L. Sheffield, to answer or demur to the bill of complaint in the cause on or before the 12th day of November, 1907, and failing so to do within thirty days after the service of this summons, which service was directed Oct. 15, 1907, a decree pro confesso will be taken against them in said cause.

Witness my hand, this 9th day of September, 1907.

S. A. STEWART, Register.

Health in the Canal Zone.

The high wages paid make it a mighty temptation to our young artisans to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama canal. Many are restrained however by fear of fevers and malaria. It is the knowing ones—those who have used Electric Bitters, who go there without this fear, well knowing they are safe from malarious influence with Electric Bitters on hand. Cures blood poison too, biliousness, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Guaranteed by Upchurch Drug Co. 50c.

ALL CHILDREN

at birth inherit a predisposition to bodily ills and ailments—more or less serious. The stomach and bowels are the most prolific sources of ill-health. They are the hotbeds of disease, and because less attention is given them, more evil can be traced directly to them than to any other organs of the body.

Where there is the least indication of trouble or you are feeling out of sorts,

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

(Laxative)

should be taken at once.

It is the best preparation for the stomach and bowels.

If they are all out of order, it will eradicate the trouble, tone up the parts and restore them to their natural condition. DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN communicates itself to the whole system and its beneficial and curative effects are pronounced and instantly experienced.

It will keep you in good health.

DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN can be obtained in both dollar and half-dollar sizes from all druggists.

Your money will be refunded if it does not benefit you.

Your postal card request will bring by return mail our new booklet, "DR. CALDWELL'S BOOK OF WONDERS" and free sample to those who have never tried this wonderful remedy. Write for it today.

PEPSIN SYRUP CO.
Monticello, Illinois

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

TIPTON MULLINS
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
Clanton - - Ala.

WILLIAM M. ADAMS
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
Practice in all Courts. Long time loans negotiated on improved farm lands. Office Room 1, Court House.
Clanton - - Ala.

ROBERT H. KNOX
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
Clanton - - Ala.
Will practice in all the State and Federal Courts of Alabama.

DR. J. EARL GOWAN
DENTIST
Office Elsher Building.
CLANTON, ALA.

DR. P. I HOPKINS
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON
EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROAT
Office Room Building.
CLANTON

Warranty deeds and Mortgage blanks, Waive Notes and Receipt books on sale at the Banner office

DeWITT'S Exhibited Extract WITCH HAZEL SALVE For Piles, Burns, Sores.

If [illegible] Dyspepsia [illegible] Kodol Digests What You Eat

[illegible] after [illegible] mirage has a word [illegible] at the best of all [illegible] and for its tonic [illegible] and nutrify children [illegible] their digestion and [illegible] their food, strengthens [illegible] vous system and [illegible] health and vigor [illegible] If you want a healthy [illegible] get a bottle of [illegible] mifuge. Sold by Up[illegible] co., Clanton; A Horn, [illegible]

Kodol Dyspepsia Digests what you [illegible]

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of [illegible] headache, constipation, general debility, sour risings, if the stomach are all due to [illegible] Kodol cures indigestion. [illegible] are representative the natural [illegible] as they exist in a [illegible] combined with the greatest [illegible] and reconstructive properties [illegible] Cure does not only [illegible] and dyspepsia, but the [illegible] cures all stomach troubles [illegible] purifying, sweetening and [illegible] the mucous membranes [illegible]

Mr. S. S. Bell, of Ravenswood, [illegible] was troubled with sour stomach [illegible] Kodol cured me and we are now [illegible]

Kodol Digests What You Eat

Dollar size holding 2½ times [illegible] which sells for $1.00

Prepared by E. O. DeWITT & Co.

The Money to Be Saved

by buying your drugs and whiskies [illegible] a house like the Collier Drug Co. will [illegible] pleasant surprise to you. We are the [illegible] est cut-rate druggists in this section of [illegible] State, and can save you many pennies [illegible] giving us your business.

Read our prices and put your dollars [illegible] you will receive greatest possible value.

WHISKIES

	Regular Price.
Shade Mountain Corn (full quart)		1.00
Old Oscar Pepper, bottled in bond		1.00
Murray Hill Club		1.00
J. Martin Rye		1.25
Atherton Rye		1.00
Duffy's Pure M[illegible]		1.00
California Shel[illegible]		1.00
Old Lincoln Co[illegible]y		1.00
Private Stock		1.00
Virginia Pure Ap[illegible]e Brandy		.75
Richmond Club		1.00
Old Holland Gin		.75
Wilson		1.25
Green River		1.25
I. W. Harper		1.50
Dan Patch		.75
Paul Jones Four Star		1.25
Old Prentiss		1.50

Our package and express department is complete in [illegible] respect and all mail orders get prompt and careful attention day of receipt. Your patronage will be appreciated.

COLLIER DRUG CO.

109 111 NORTH 20th St.

BIRMINGHAM - - AL

GREATEST F[illegible]IR IN THE SOU[illegible]

ALABAM[illegible] STATE FAIR

BIRMING[illegible]AM ALABAMA

October [illegible]8-16, 1907

The Agricultural Exhibits Will be the most comprehensiv ever shown in Alabama.

Live Stock and Poultry Exhibits Will be the best.

Mechanical and Mineral Displays Will attract much attention.

Ricci's Premier Co[illegible] Band Will give grand free con[illegible] ternoon and evening

A Great Carnival Co[illegible] Of clean, wholesome and [illegible] taining shows.

Magnificent Fire Wo[illegible] And other attractions [illegible] evening.

THE FREE ATT[illegible]RACTIONS will be more numerous and of a bette[illegible] character than ever [illegible] a State Fa[illegible]

FINE RACING PROGRAM. SPE[illegible]AL RAILROAD [illegible]

Write for CATALOGUE and [illegible] INFORMATION to

GEO. T. B[illegible]RNES

Secretary and General Ma[illegible]RMINGHAM, ALA

VOL. XV

THE MAN ON THE CORNER

Some of the Sights He Sees, and Some He Does Not.

The Red Men have captured Maplesville, or it is about to capitulate. Last Friday night Great Sachem Neil, with Great Sonap McCary and Past Sachem Waschope started the preliminary steps to organize a new tribe, and shortly the war whoop will be heard in the peaceful city.

FOUND! FOUND!

One package containing four watches and two cases, picked up on the L. & N. Railroad, this 25th of September, by my deputy. The owner can have by identifying the same.

JOHN S. CATTS, Sheriff.

Jemison.

Doubtless you would like to know what's doing in our little city.

First of all want to say Cupid has been real busy. On the 20th inst. Mr. D. N. Riggins, our assistant post master, and Miss Helma Hylden of Jawa were married in the well arranged parlor of the Florence Hotel, Birmingham, Rev. A. F. Loftin, Pastor Jemison Baptist church officiating; we predict for our friend Riggins and his newly made bride many years of happiness. They were serenaded Saturday night by Thorsby Cornet Band.

Mr. Jeff Hand and Miss Gertie Jackson of our village "Kinder" slipped off and were married in Rome, Ga. Jeff and bride are now back home.

Yes, and our Mr. Ray could not resist the bewitching smiles of one of Cooper's charming young ladies, and they too got married. All three couples were out to hear Rev. Loftin preach Sunday night. After the sermon he extended to them a hearty welcome to our town and home especially to the church

The public school opening was the greatest in the history of our town. The house was crowded with the patrons and it was the most enjoyable occasion. Strong speeches were made and much interest and enthusiasm was manifested by both parents and pupils.

Prin. Rasco will be ably assisted by Miss Meadows and Miss Addie Rasco. Music by Miss Winton.

CITIZEN OF JEMISON.

NOTICE.

Jemison, Ala., Sept. 18, 1907

I take this method to notify my customers that I am going to quit the mercantile business, and will say to all who owe me that all accounts, notes and mortgages, are due and payable on October the 1st, and I will expect one and all who owe me to pay me just as soon hereafter as possible. Please do not ask to be carried over for any of your indebtedness, as you will be refused, for I am going to need my money, and will insist on your paying it. Now there may be some who will want to hold out for a better price, will say I have no objections to your doing so, but if you want to hold your cotton will ask you to borrow money on it and pay me. Now I will ask all my customers that I am more than grateful to you for your favors and continued patronage, and believe many, if not all of you will be grateful to me for my carrying the account for you from time to time. Will say further that my entire stock of merchandise will be on sale at prices far below the going price for cash only and this is the way you can determine it. It is to come and see the goods and get the prices yourself. I will give you prices on a few items below to give you an idea how they are going.

[illegible]. Good Green Coffee $1.00
[illegible]. Standard Granulated Sugar 1.00
[illegible]. Rice 1.00

Prices subject to change without notice.

Will say further that I have a good dwelling house can [illegible]eniently [illegible]ated also a good store house that I will sell at a bargain. If any one wants to go into the [illegible]rcantile business I can give them one of the best opportunity. I would like to sell the entire house, goods and [illegible] all in one lump.

Yours truly,
W. A. REYN[illegible].

BARBE.
ULLINS
AT-LAW
- Ala.
ADAMS
AT-LAW
Long time loans
- Ala.
KNOX
AT LAW
- Ala.
GOWAN
ST ALA.
PKINS
SURGEON
ND THROAT
CLANTON
nd Mortgage and Receipt Banner office
ITCH HAZEL
, Burns, Sores.

If it's a Repeating you are after, White's Cr mifuge has a worl
as the best of all worm and for its tonic influence and untrifty children.
their digestion and their food, strengthens vous system and restores health and vigor natural
If you want a healthy get a bottle of White's C mifuge. Sold by Upch
Co., Clanton; A. Horn,

Kodol Dyspepsia
Digests what you

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of
ness headache, constipation,
general debility, sour risings,
of the stomach are all due to Kodol cures indigestion. This truly represents the natural tion as they exist in a healthy combined with the greatest and reconstructive properties pepsia Cure does not only cure and dyspepsia but this cures all stomach troubles by purifying, sweetening and the mucous membranes lining
Mr. S. S. Box of Ravenswood, W. was troubled with sour stomach dizziness and we are now to say:
Kodol Digests What You
Bottles only. $1.00 Size holding 2½ times which sells for $0 cents.
Prepared by E. O. DeWITT & CO.,

Upchurch Drug Co

Money to Be Saved

your drugs and whiskies fr the Collier Drug Co. will b prise to you. We are the la druggists in this section of can save you many pennies
your business.

prices and put your dollars wh ive greatest possible value.

WHISKIES

	Regular Price
...n full quart)	1.00
...ottled in bond	1.50
	1.50
	1.25
	1.50
	1.00
	1.00
	1.00
	1.00
Brandy	75
	1.50
	75
	1.25
	1.25
	1.50
	75
	1.25
	1.50

and express department is complete in e all orders get prompt and careful attentio
Your patronage will be appreciated.

LLIER DRUG CO.
109 111 NORTH 20th St.
T FAIR IN THE SOU
AMA STATE FAIR
MINGHAM ALABAMA
ctober 8-16, 1907
ginal Features. Great Free
Big Agricultural, Live Stock plays. Magnificent Fire
t. Ricci's celebrated Mili ive grand, free concerts a ening. A great Carnival Co holesome and entertaining
PROGRAM. SPECIAL RAILROAD
ATALOGUE and all INFORMATION
GEO. T. BARNES
and General Mgr., BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

THE BANNER

LET THE PEOPLE RULE.

VOL. XV | CLANTON, ALA., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1907 | No. 50

...MAN ON THE CORNER

...of the Sights He Saw, and Some He Saw Not.

The Red Men have captured ...sville, or it is about to capit... Last Friday night Great ...on Neil, with Great Sanap ...Cary and Past Sachem Wau... started the preliminary steps ...nize a new tribe, and short... the war whoop will be heard in ...peaceful city.

FOUND! FOUND!

...e package containing four ...hes and two cases, picked up ...L. & N. Railroad, this 25th ...September, by my deputy. The ...r can have by identifying the ...

JOHN S. CATTS, Sheriff.

Jemison.

Doubtless you would like to ...w what's doing in our little ...

First of all want to say Cupid ...been real busy. On the 20th ...Mr. D. N. Riggins, our assist... post master, and Miss Helena ...den of Iowa were married in ...well arranged parlor of the ...nce Hotel, Birmingham, Rev. ...F. Loftin, Pastor Jemison Bap... church officiating; we predict ...our friend Riggins and his new... bride many years of happi... They were serenaded Satur... night by Thorsby Cornet Band. ...Mr. Jeff Hand and Miss Gertie ...dson of our village "Kinder" ...ped off and were married in ...ne, Ga. Jeff and bride are now ...k home.

...es, and one Mr. Ray could not ...ist the bewitching smiles of one ...Cooper's charming young ladies, ...d they too got married. A l... couples were out to hear Rev. ...tin preach Sunday night. After ...sermon he extended to them a ...rty welcome to our town and ...e especially to the church.

The public school opening was ...greatest in the history of our ...n. The house was crowded ...h the patrons and it was the ...st enjoyable occasion. Strong ...ches were made and much in...st and enthusiasm was manifest... by both parents and pupils.

Prof. Rasco will be ably assisted ...Miss Meadows and Miss Ada ...sco. Music by Miss Winton.

CITIZEN OF JEMISON.

NOTICE.

Jemison, Ala., Sept. 18, 1907

Take this method to notify my ...tomers that I am going to quit ...mercantile business, and will ...ll all who owe me that all ac... notes and mortgages, are ...and payable on October the ...rst and I will expect one and all ...o owe me to pay me just as soon ...hereafter is possible. Please do ...not ask to be carried over for any ...part indebtedness, as you will ...disappoint, for I am going to need ...my money and will insist on ...paying it. Now there may ...some who will want to hold off ...for a better price, will say I ...have no objections to your doing ...so, but if you want to hold your ...cotton will ask you to borrow money ...and pay me. Now I will say ...to my customers that I am more ...than grateful to you for your faith... and continued patronage, and I ...believe many, if not all of you feel ...grateful to me for my carrying ...your account for you from time to ...time. Will say further that my ...entire stock of merchandise will be ...sold at prices far below the reg... price for cash only and the on... way you can determine this is to ...come and see the goods and get the ...prices yourself. I will give you ...prices on a few items below ...that to give you an idea how they ...are going.

...Good Green Coffee	$1.00
...Standard Granulated Sugar	1.00
...Rice	1.00

Prices subject to change without ...notice.

Will say further that I have a ...good dwelling house conveniently ...located also a good store house that ...I will sell at a bargain. If any one ...wants to go into the mercantile ...business I can give them a fine op... portunity. I would like to sell the ...store house, goods and dwelling ...house all in one lump.

Yours truly,
W. A. REYNOLDS.

Peoples Savings Bank of Chilton County.

CLANTON, ALA.

CAPITAL STOCK $50,000.00.

WM. E. HOLLOWAY, President.
W. T. CALLEN, Cashier. JOHN A. THOMAS, Assistant Cashier

DIRECTORS:

W. T. Callen	Wm. E. Holloway	Sam Kaufman
H. M. Martin, Sr.	M. L. Greil	John A. Thomas

There is a number of people who are under an erroneous impression. They think that they never control enough money to start a bank account. In this they are mistaken. We solicit small accounts as well as large. And we handle the business of both with our best care. We believe that you ought to have a bank account, and we offer you our services.

THE CLANTON BANK

CLANTON, ALA.

Many people seem to think that unless they can open a Savings Account with not less that $50.00 or $100 00, it is not worth the while to begin. This is not a correct position to take. If a person cannot open an account with more than $1.00, and really desires to get some money ahead, then he should begin with even $1.00. The first dollar saved and put in bank, is the initial step on the way to prosperity. "Great oaks from little acorns grow." As a rule, the person who "Puts off" the opening of a Savings Account until he has a large amount to deposit, is not likely to ever have a bank account. We solicit your account.

THE CLANTON BANK

CORRESPONDENCE.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are good for anyone who needs a pill. They are small, safe, sure, little pills that do not gripe or sicken. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

Newton, Sept. 23, 1907

Editor Banner—Please allow me a small space in your paper to say a few words from Southeast Alabama. I have been here for two weeks, and like the place and school fine. It is a place where the people mean business and a place where a boy or girl can do as much work as they want to.

Last Sunday the opportunity afforded me to go to Sunday school here; they had 23 classes, with a large number in each class.

Now a word about the farmers. Yesterday in the afternoon my room mate and myself started to walk about for exercise, and met a good old farmer that had some baskets and a white cotton patch, so we walked out in the cotton patch and spent the afternoon. Take the crops on an average, they are better here than they are in Chilton. As a general thing most of the farmers are through picking cotton. As this is my first, I will ring off with best wishes to the Banner and its many readers. T. E. W.

Verbena, Sept. 24, 1907

Editor Banner—"W. L. P." appears to be greatly disturbed over my report Augnst 1, of 90 per cent normal cotton crop for South Chilton. For his information I just want to tell him if he would wake up, look on the bright side of things and read more, he would not be so distressed. He is right in his charge that I have not been in a cotton field this year. But I believe I have done my farming friends as much good as W. L. P. has. The fact is, the report to which he refers was an error. My report of Aug 1st said: "Corn and other food crops 85 to 90 per cent" "Present outlook for cotton 65 per cent, and with ideal conditions up to Oct. 1, 75 per cent" But the Bureau in copying made the error, giving percentage of cotton to corn and corn to cotton. I saw it in paper and asked for correction; they gave it, and if W. L. P. is so well up, why did he not see both report and correction?

It has always been my desire and effort to be conservative in my crop reports, and I now, for the relief of W. L. P., predict that Chilton county will make 75 per cent of 1906 cotton crop, and feel that I will be borne out by final results.

I have no fight to make against the doctors, it is their job. I shall not send for any of them until I think I need them and need them badly. Then I shall ask them to come and come quickly. Have never paid a doctor's bill that I thought was too high except some I was called on for when I did not have the "greens." Guess it is just a little "Union" or Doctors' "Association" they are getting up for their own protection. Well, I "ain't gwine to jine" till I get sick, then they must take me some old way, either "on probation," "full fellowship," "sprinkling" or "immersion," just any way to get the "bread pills." All this for what it is worth, W. L. P. Come down and let us "bud up right we roose to," as Henry Peters used to say.

F. A. GULLEDGE.

Did you write for a catalogue to the Southern Typewriter Exchange, Montgomery, Ala.?

Mount Nebo.

Dear Editor:—Please allow me a small space in your paper to say that we will call in our singing at this place the 5th Sunday on account of a singing at Liberty.

The Sunday school at this place is progressing nicely.

We are sorry to say that Mrs. Smith is still on the sick list but we hope she will soon recover.

Mr. Jim Beasley from Birmingham visited Mr. W. W. Williams and family recently.

Mr. Sam Perish and mother visited Mr. J. A. Culp's family Sunday last.

Mrs. E. H. Culp visited friends at Macedonia recently.

We are glad to say that Mr. Elijah Headley is improving.

Mr. Bud Gentry from Stumpe Hill visited friends and relatives at this place recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson visited Mr. Hosey's family Sunday and report a nice time.

We are sorry to say that Mr. J. A. Culp is on the sick list.

Mr. Jim Culp visited friends at Liberty Sunday.

I will close with best wishes to the Banner. BLUE EYES.

SINGING CONVENTION.

The Old Southern Singing will hold its third session at Corinth on the 1st Sunday and Saturday before in October. Everybody invited to come and bring your books and baskets. Very truly,

T. L. ROBINSON, Pres.

The way to get rid of a cold, whether it be a "bad cold" or a little one, is to get it out of your system through the bowels. Nearly all cough cures, especially those that contain opiates, are constipating. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup contains no opiates and acts gently on the bowels. Pleasant to take. Sold by Upchurch Drug Co.

ALL DAY SINGING.

The Chilton County Singing Convention will meet with Liberty church the 5th Sunday in September in a special session. All singers and lovers of music are invited to attend and your song books. We insist that all the members of the convention attend if possible.

J. L. GORE, President.
JAMES FRANKLIN, Secretary.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.

By an act of the Legislature the Tax Assessor is required to make a census of the Confederate Veterans, who are requested to meet him on his rounds with full data of their connection with the confederate army. Come prepared to furnish information as to date and place of birth, date and place of enlistment, time of service, company and regiment, time of discharge capture or parole. Give names of officers under whom you served.

If you have any important documents please bring them in with you.

We have just received several new orders in fine perfumes. Florence Drug Store.

School Supplies at Florence Drug Store.

Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by One Dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

I was so weak from an attack of diarrhoea that I could scarcely attend to my duties, when I took a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me entirely and I had been taking other medicin for nine days without relief. I heartily recommend this remedy as the best to my knowledge for bowel complaints.—R. G. STEWART, of the firm of Stewart & Bro., Greenville, Ala. For sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

STRAYED—About seven weeks ago, from my place at Maplesville, R. F. D. No. 2, a Poland China Boar, unmarked, very curly hair. A liberal reward will be paid for its recovery by W. E. HAYES, Maplesville, Ala., R. F. D. No 2.

Energy.

September 17, 1907, the death angel visited the happy home of Brother Gilbert Gray and wafted his sweet darling wife home to heaven where no more sighing and weeping are known. A bereaved husband and 6 loving little children and many kind friends mourn her loss. She was a good Christian, a member of the Baptist church, Bethany. A FRIEND.

CITIZENS MEETING.

The citizens of this county are called to meet at the court house in Clanton at 9 a.m. on the 4th Saturday, Sept. 28th, to arrange for engaging a county doctor. Doctors of Chilton and other counties are invited to be present.

MANY CITIZENS.

Mount Nebo.

Editor Banner—Please allow me a small space in your paper to say that there will be an all-day singing at this place the 5th Sunday in September. Come one and all, bring your baskets. S. S. BOY.

Lame Back.

This is an ailment for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has been proven especially valuable. In almost every instance it affords prompt and permanent relief. Mr. Luke LaGrange, of Orange, Mich., says of it: "After using a plaster and other remedies for three weeks for a bad lame back, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and two applications effected a cure." For sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

WANTED.

FOR SALE at a bargain, One Grist Mill and one 20 H. P. Gasoline Engine, good as new, at Sylacauga, Ala. Will make price delivered at Clanton. Address J. W. K., P. O. Box 284, Clanton, Ala.

DESIRABLE positions are always occuring at the Bryce Hospital for men of good morals and able bodies. Salaries ranging from $18 00 to $30 00 per month, board, lodging, laundry and medical attention free. For full information write Dr. J. T. SEARCY, Supt, Tuscaloosa, Ala.

LAND FOR SALE—216 acres of good land, 65 acres in cultivation, 2 settlements. In sections 29 and 30, township 22, range 13. Apply to R. F. SIMS, Maplesville Ala., R. F. D. No. 1.

Sick Headache

This disease is caused by a derangement of the stomach. Take a dose of Chamberlain's stomach and liver tablets to correct this disorder and the sick headache will disappear. For sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

124 ACRES FOR SALE, four miles southeast of Clanton. Apply to Q. S., Banner office, Clanton.

FOR SALE—80 acres good land, two miles from Clanton; two settlements on the tract. The tract is well watered. Call on or address G. O. FOSHEE, Clanton, Ala., R. F. D. No. 5.

A Humane Appeal.

A humane citizen of Richmond, Ind., Mr. U. D. Williams, 107 West Main St., says: "I appeal to all persons with weak lungs to take Dr. King's New Discovery, the only remedy that has helped me and fully comes up to have the proprietor's recommendation." It saves more lives than all other throat and lung remedies put together. Used as a cough and cold cure the world over. Cures asthma, bronchitis, croup whooping cough, quinsy, hoarseness and phthisic, stops hemmorrhages of the lungs and builds them up. Guaranteed at Upchurch Drug co. 50c and $1.00.

Brains and Modern Machinery can make better paint than two hands and a paddle. If you doubt it, buy some Lead and Oil, have your painter mix it for you, and tell him to do his level best. Compare this paint with

Davis' 100 per cent Pure paint

The more thoroughly you test the two, the more sure we are that you will in the future use Davis.

For sale by Payne & Payne, Montgomery, Ala.

W. R. MADDOX
BLACKSMITH

I do all kinds of Repair Work in Wood or Iron. Saw Brackets and Banisters.

Cold Tire Setting. I can shrink your Buggy or Wagon Tires cold or hot.

Horse-shoeing up-to-date. Satisfaction guaranteed.

CLANTON

J. V. HIGGINS
WATCHMAKER, JEWELER AND ENGRAVER

At the Florence Drug Store, Clanton, Ala. All work guaranteed. Special attention given to Watch Cleaning, Stone Setting and Engraving.

Repair all kinds of Graphophones Guns and Pistols Repaired.

HELP IS OFFERED
TO WORTHY YOUNG PEOPLE

We earnestly request all young persons, no matter how limited their means or education, who wish to obtain a thorough business training and good position, to write by first mail for our grand, half-cash offer. Success, independence and profitable business are guaranteed. Don't delay. Write today.

The Gaskin Business College, Macon, Ga.

N. B.—We requests for information now from men or women. Salaries run to $25 per month.

Did it ever occur to you that three-fourths of Chilton county depended entirely on the Northwest for their feed? Did it ever occur to you that the frost killed better feed on your own land than that you buy at high prices later on? Is it not better to save Hay and buy stock at a sacrifice during the fall and winter than to have to sacrifice your own stock to keep from buying hay. Now figure the cost of raising hay. Common land will make 1 ton of oats per acre, cut this off and re-sow grass, cane, peas, etc., this time you will reap 2 tons per acre; add this to your oats and you have 3 tons per acre on the same land. We have paid from $20 to $28 per ton from our customers all the summer and fall. You would have to get 2 1c per lb. for your cotton to compete with the man who is sowing with one-third work you are doing. Come in and let us make you terms and prices on Harvesting Machinery, Mowers, Rakes, Hay Presses, Hay Wire, Binders, Disc Harrows, Wagons, Buggies, Surreys and anything else you would like to figure on in a general store.

M. F. CANNON & SONS, Clanton, Ala.

THE BANNER.

Published Weekly

CLANTON, ALABAMA.

she declares that she wouldn't marry the best man living; she couldn't get him.

A pretty story is told of a freight car laid up for repairs in which a mother bird built her nest and hatched her young, and then, by order of the manager of the road, was sidetracked to await the pleasure of the mother bird and her young. And yet, on that same road, perhaps it happened that animals were kept without food or water thirty-six hours because it was a little cheaper to transport them in that way.

While the estimate of Superintendent Reichmann, of Albany, that the people of this State are annually defrauded out of $20,000,000 by the use of short weights and measures, is mere guesswork, observes the New York World, there is plenty of room for complaint of the dishonesty of dealers. One day's tour of the grocery stores of Albany showed him that in nearly every one of twenty places visited the measures were short.

A remarkable project for municipal improvement is reported from Berlin. The plan is to widen by twenty feet the harrowest part of the well-known Friedrichstrasse, second only to Unter den Linden, and to replace the present insignificant shops and houses by magnificent galleries and hotels, and the like, making the street one of the world's finest thoroughfares. This of itself does not carry a vivid impression, but when it is added that the scheme involves an outlay of $37,500,000 the scale of the projected improvement is indicated.

While the English Liberal party is preparing for a long struggle to curb the power of the House of Lords and prevent it from blocking reforms, notes the New York American, the people of Australia are showing a strong determination to abolish altogether the upper houses in their legislative bodies. The upper house, in this stage of the world's progress, is an anomaly everywhere and doubtless doomed to extinction. The curious thing is that it should have lasted so long and that the people of the Antipodes should be the first to declare plainly how absurd and harmful it is. The original reason for the existence of an upper house was that it might provide a check on the will of the people that constituted the government.

There is a passage in Pliny that is usually cited as evidence that something akin to spectacles must have been in use at least in his time. He relates that the Emperor Nero used a precious stone which he calls "smaradgus," generally translated "emerald," through which he was accustomed to gaze on the gladiatorial combats; or rather this is what he seems to say. There is, however, little doubt that Dr. Magnus, the latest author to examine the passage critically, is right in holding that it means no more than that the emperor was in the habit of gazing upon an emerald which he used to carry with him for the purpose of resting his eyes when they became tired looking upon shows that were interesting to him. This view is rendered the more probable from the belief of antiquity that green has restful effect upon the eyesight.

North Carolina does not stand alone, exclaims Town Topics. Thirty-five States—practically the entire Union—have indulged in railroad legislation this year. Twenty-one States have dealt with passenger rates. The two-cent rate is already ordered in Arkansas, Indiana, Illinois, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, Ohio, West Virginia, Kansas, Maryland and Mississippi (for mileage books) and Oklahoma, and is authorized in Georgia and North Dakota. Eleven States have created Railroad Commissions. Suits have been brought to test the constitutionality of most of this State legislation, but our railroad managers are among the shrewdest and wisest of business men; and will not oppose too strenuously what seems to be a unanimous sentiment in favor of cheaper fares. They have accepted the reduced rate laws in Arkansas, Ohio (since 1906) and Wisconsin, and are giving them a fair trial everywhere. But the lesson is that the States are not going to relinquish their control of the railroads.

ALABAMA NEWS.

Happenings of the State For a Week Tersely Told

A Huntsville Groom Has Woes.

While his bride of an hour was being taken away from him by her father, Richard Oldfield was held so tightly by the negro cook at his boarding house that effective resistance was impossible. Oldfield married Miss Rollins and a short time after the newly wedded couple had reached the boarding place of Oldfield, W. C. Rollins, father of the girl, appeared. He demanded that his daughter leave the place with him and when Oldfield attempted to interfere he was seized by the cook, a 200-pound negress. With this assistance, the old man had no trouble in getting out of the house with his daughter. J. H. Looney, who secured a marriage license for Oldfield, was arrested on a charge of perjury in swearing to the age of the young woman, and he is in jail. Oldfield swore out a warrant for trespass, but before it was served a reconciliation was effected and the bride was given into the keeping of the young husband.

Farmers' Union Meeting.

The Farmers' Union meeting at Edwards Spring, Talladega county, was one of the most successful gatherings of this sort in the in the county. A basket dinner was spread on the grounds sufficient to feed twelve hundred people. Col. J. M. Thornton and O. P. Ford were the orators of the morning session. Rev. Dr. Gwaltney, pastor of the First Baptist church at Talladega, and Wellington Vandiver made prohibition addresses in the afternoon It may not be known that the National Frmers' Union has declared for prohibition, but such was the statement of Lecturer Ford. A large number of new members joined at this meeting.

Moved Their Office.

The electric company of Talladega has moved over on the east side of East street, one door below the postoffice, into handsome quarters on the grand floor. The interior finish of the suite of offices and sales room is of oak. The company will not handle electrical supplies for sale, leaving this to the local dealers. There is but one electrical workman here, and he is overrun with orders. Another one is needed, especially in view of the fact that the electrical company will not entract for inside wiring and fixtures. The meter system is giving satisfaction.

A County Fair.

There will be a county fair lasting two days held at Round Island stock farm, three miles west of Athens, at the home of Capt. John A. Turner, and the date will be about the 20th of October. Small premiums will be offered, and it is hoped that this will be the beginning of a continuous fair each fall. There wil be a display of farm products, poultry, horses, hogs, cattle, etc. While there will be no premiums offered for stock outside the county, all will be made welcome if they desire to come and display their various breeds. The date when set will be made known.

New Interurban for Montgomery.

Richard Tillis, a wealthy citizen of Montgomery, has announced that he proposes to begin shortly the building of a trolley line from Dothan to Geneva, the cost to be $500,000. Mr. Tillis made a proposition that if the towns of Dothan, Geneva, Ft. Gaines and Slocum would raise $60,000 he would build the road. He has just received word that the amount has been subscribed and he announces that just as soon as the contractors can get to work the road will be started.

Blew Open Safes.

Cracksmen made a raid on Vernon, the county seat of Lamar county, and blew open the safe in Tom Guyton's store and secured over $1,000 in gold. They also cracked the safe of J. A. Cobb, another merchant, and secured $50 in cash and $6,000 worth of valuable papers. Then they stole the sheriff's horse and escaped. The sheriff organized a posse and near Gatman, Miss., fifteen miles from Vernon, they got near enough to the robbers to capture the stolen horse.

Bishop Hendrix Accepts.

Rev. George Stoves, of Roanoke, the popular and energetic pastor of the Methodist church, has succeeded in securing the services of Bishop Eugene R. Hendrix, of Kansas City, Mo., to dedicate the large and handsome Methodist church building in that city, now nearing completion. The dedication will take place at 11 o'clock Sunday, November 24th. A great day in local religious circles is expected at that time.

Athens Female College.

The fall session of the Athens Female college opened with the largest attendance in its history, more than 140 young ladies entering the boarding department, and the local attendance was large. The exercises were opened with prayer, after which the president, Miss Mary N. Moore, presented to the vast audience the various speakers of the occasion, Col. W. T. Sanders, Dr. J. R. Turner, Dr. Frank Brandon and others.

Stewart Pushee Dies Suddenly.

Stewart J. Pushee, president of the Bank of Brewton, died suddenly at his home in that city. His death was a great shock to his family and friends. A heart affection for the past year or more caused anxiety on the part of loved ones and those close to him in business circles, and his demise was not wholly unexpected. Its suddenness, however, was a terrible blow to every one.

Fire at Elkmont.

Fire visited the village of Elkmont. The stores of Thomas P. McWilliams and Bud Bud Horton and the building in which was located the postoffice and telephone station were destroyed. The loss will reach about $7,000 with only $2,000 insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown. The postoffice department lost considerable in stamps and the mail in the building was all lost.

Picture of Mayors.

An interesting picture has been made of all of Dothan's mayors from the time of the organization of the town to the expiration of Mayor-elect Carmichael's term, 1909. The collection of photos is owned by W. T. Hall, owner and editor of The Dothan Eagle, who is publishing a series of historical sketches of the Magic City of the Wiregrass.

Talldega Blast Furnace.

The deal for the purchase of the long idle blast furnace at Talladega, in the midst of the celebrated gray ore field, has not fallen through, but both parties are still dickering as to price. An English syndicate seeks to obtain the property from the New York owners. There seems little doubt that the trade will be eventually made.

Cotton Receipts.

Dothan's cotton receipts for this year show a considerable falling off from last year. Receipts at the warehouses up to close of business last Thursday showed 3,389 bales as against 3,980 bales for the same time in 1906, a loss of 591 bales to date.

Postal Changes.

The postoffice department has accepted the proposal of R. L. Glenn to renew the lease of the present postoffice for a term of five years at Florence. The postoffice at Pell City and Stevenson will be raised to the presidential class October 1. The postmasters' salary will be $1,300 and $1,000 respectively.

Rebate to Tobacco Dealers.

Probate Judge W. T. Lawler, at Huntsville, has received from the state auditor warrants for about $800 to be returned to dealers in Madison county who paid the special tobacco dealers' license repealed by the last session of the last legislature.

Lad Choked to Death.

Edward Bizzell, a 13-year-old school boy of Monroeville, met a terrible death by accidentally swallowing a marble. The marble stuck in his throat, and he was slowly choked to death.

Huntsville's Public Square.

The city council of Huntsville has rejected all of the bids offered for the paving of the public square with vitrified brick and the work will be done by the city force under the supervison of a civil engineer.

Sent Up for 99 Years.

After considering the case against A. J. Sorrell, who shot and killed Berry Davis, a young man, a year or two ago, near Blossburg, in the western part of Jefferson county, a jury Saturday morning brought in a verdict of guilty and fixed his sentence at 99 years in the penitentiary.

Alabama Notes.

The Farmers' Union is erecting a model gin and press at Childersburg.

The enrollment of pupils at the Fourth District Agricultural school is 235.

Oxford is taking a census to determine if it is a city—the requirement being 2,000 population.

Commissioner of Agriculture Wilkinson, after a tour of the cotton belt, predicts 15-cent cotton.

A Springville merchant has on exhibition an Alabama-grown squash weighing 51 1-2 pounds.

The Albertville Banner says the indications point to prosperous conditions on Sand Mountain this fall.

A telephone exchange with free connection with Huntsville will be established at Madison on October 1.

A Philadelphia concern has purchased land in the southern part of Blount county and will erect a cement plant.

John Blackwell, a Cherokee county farmer, grew a watermelon that weighed 103 pounds. He was offered $5 for it.

A. F. Benton, a Pike county farmer, has fifteen acres of corn that will make an average of sixty bushels to the acre.

The Lafayette Sun and Congressman J. Thomas Heflin are waging a campaign against a proposed issue of $100,000 of bonds to improve the public roads of Chambers county.

COTTON SEED OIL MEN IN SESSION

To Hold Conference With Foreign Spinners

WHO MEET IN ATLANTA

Matters of Great Interest to the Industry are Discussed at a Meeting of Cotton Seed Crushers' Association Held in New Orleans.

New Orleans.—Business of international importance was discussed at an extraordinary session, the first ever held, of the Interstate Cotton Seed Crushers' Association at the new Denechand hotel, leading cotton men of the south being in attendance.

The four great objects of the extra session were to reach some agreement with trans-Atlantic companies in regard to handling the product en route; to protest against the Austro-Hungary prohibitive duty, and to get the United States government to take up the matter so as to secure an exception for American cotton seed meal, hulls and cake; the selection of a successor to J. L. Benton, who resigned recently as special agent of the department of commerce and labor; in the investigation of the cotton seed exportation problem, and the appointment of a committee of five from the association to confer with a like committee from the Southern Cotton Association at a meeting of the International Spinners' Association in Atlanta October 7, 8 and 9. The purpose of the committee is to bring the farmer and the cotton mill operator into closer contact for mutual benefit.

The discussion of the prohibitive tariff on the output to Austro-Hungary showed that dealers in American cotton seed oil in Triesle, Austria, are making every effort to get lower rate on this product, and it is believed with the aid of the state department at Washington that the tariff can be reduced and open up to American manufacturers a market for from 50,000 to 75,000 barrels of oil annually.

During the discussion the association was notified that the Turkish government had withdrawn all restriction on the sale of cotton seed oil in the Ottoman empire.

Bride of Seven Months Suicides.

Fort Worth, Tex.—Homesick for her people in Arkansas, to which place her husband could not send her for lack of money, Mrs. Bessie Brown, a bride of seven months and the 16-year-old wife of H. C. Brown, sent a bullet crashing through her head, dying instantly. The tragedy occurred in the flat which the couple occupied. When the police arrived Brown told them he was a deserter from the United States army and demanded that he be arrested. He was taken into custody and the dead girl sent to an undertaking establishment.

$1,000 a Week Refused.

Pittsburg, Pa.—Mary Mary Hartje has refused an offer of $1,000 a week for the remainder of her life to withdraw all suits which are pending against her husband, Augustus Hartje, and others in connection with the recent sensational divorce case. She demands that the suits be settled, and that she be vindicated and cleared of the charges that have been made against her. The two Hartje children will be placed in a school until they are of age and then they will decide for themselves whether they shall go to their father or their mother.

Absinthe's Record.

Paris.—An official report on the relation in France of alcoholic excess to mental alienation shows that in the public asylums for the insane there are 9,932 cases affected by alcoholism out of a total of 71,547. Of the 9,932 cases of alcoholic alienation 4,882, or approximately half, owe their degeneration to absinthe.

Boiler Blew Up.

Wooster, O.—Three men were killed and one other probably fatally injured when the boiler of a locomotive on the Pennsylvania railroad exploded while running at the rate of thirty miles an hour near here. What caused the explosion is not known. All that was left of the engine was the huge driving wheels.

Found Guilty Nine Times.

Batesville, Ark.—Henry Camb, who was charged with conducting "blind tigers," has been found guilty in nine cases, and sentences in two of them have been passed.

New Census Flatters Shawnee.

Guthrie, I. T.—Shawnee has a population of nearly 11,000, according to the last federal census, and there are more than 15,000 people in the Osage nation.

Won't Let 'Em Flirt in That Town.

South Bend, Ind.—Because the city fathers of the town of Silver Lake, in Kosciusko county, have tabooed flirting in an unusually drastic ordinance, the young people threaten to desert the town in a body. The village council is being petitioned to rescind its action. The ordinance, besides prohibiting flirting generally, specifies that candy or peanut eating in groups of two or more is flirting.

BATTLE WITH MAYA INDIANS.

Seven Soldiers and a Number of the Mayas Are Killed.

San Antonio, Tex.—A special to the Express from Merida, Yucatan, Mexico, says:

Word has just reached here of a battle between federal troops and a band of rebel Maya Indians between San Isidro and Potcah, in this state. The fight was in reality an assault on the part of the Indians, who attacked the federal troops from ambush. Seven soldiers and a number of Indians were killed. The Mayas effected a fairly orderly retreat, and got clear away, taking their dead and wounded with them.

STRIKE ABOUT TELEPHONES.

All Business in Helena, Mont., Likely to Be Tied Up.

Helena, Mont.—As a result of the refusal of business men of Helena to discontinue the use of telephones pending a settlement of the Rocky Mountain Telephone Company's strike the Helena Trades and Labor Council, affiliated with the Montana Federation of Labor, has decided to call a general strike.

The result of this action, it is said, will be a complete tie-up of the street car service in the city and the closing of hotels, manufacturing establishments, business houses and even saloons where the use of telephones is not discontinued.

Steamer Runs Aground.

Chicago, Ill.—The steamer Alexander Mimick went ashore thirteen miles west of White Fish Point, in Lake Superior, Captain Randall and five of the crew being drowned. Eleven members of the crew were rescued. The Mimick was bound north with coal. It is supposed that the engines broke down and that she drifted ashore during the storm.

Rocked the Boat.

Baltimore, Md.—Skylarking in a rowboat in which were five young people of a party of sixty-three couples on an outing on the shore of Bear creek resulted in the upsetting of the frail craft and the drowning of Myrtle Lee aged 15 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lee, and Herman Behnke, aged 17. Three other young people were rescued with difficulty.

Storm Death List Increased.

Lawton, O. T.—Mrs. W. A. Williams, living near Hastings, is the latest victim of the recent big storm to be reported here. She was instantly killed by a timber falling in her home. John Connelly, an employe of the Rock Island shops at Waurika, was also killed.

Has Oldest United States Coin.

Little Rock, Ark.—Detective Morgan, who has just returned from a vacation in the north, brought back an American dollar made in 1795, which he has been informed in the oldest perfect coin of United States mintage in existence.

Negro Dive Blown Up.

Fort Gibson, I. T.—A negro dive conducted by Lillian Hamilton was blown up by dynamite several nights ago, and the half dozen inmates were more or less injured. The police have not determined who caused the explosion.

Shark Teeth Prove Fish Yarn.

Beaumont, Tex.—Dr. J. S. Price, who has just returned from a fishing trip in Sabine Pass, reports having captured a shark twelve feet long, weighing 1,069 pounds. He brought the teeth to prove his story.

On a Thousand-Mile Walk.

Tyler, Tex.—F. Boulder, of Decorah, Ia., passed through here a few days ago on his way to Galveston. He is walking a thousand miles on a wager he says, of $5,000, being required to make the trip by October 1. He started July 22.

Factory for Peanut Oil.

Greenville, Tex.—A factory for the production of peanut oil is to be built. Farmers of Rains county have agreed to plant 10,000 acres of peanuts the coming year. Similar arrangements will be made with the farmers of other counties.

Negro Mail Robber Caught.

Paducah, Ky.—Deputy United States Marshal Wade Brown has returned from Fulton with Mack Peebles, a negro mail robber, who was captured after a long chase.

Moors Fail to Make Peace.

Paris.—It was officially announced that the peace negotiations at Casa Blanca with the hostile Moors have failed and that General Drude will resume the offensive.

To Build Big Oil Boat.

Houston, Tex.—The Gulf Oil Refining Company is said to have let a contract for the construction of a giant tank steamer to transfer petroleum from Port Arthur to New York.

Press Humorists.

Los Angeles.—The American Association of Press Humorists, who have been holding their annual convention here this week, chose Houston, Tex., as the place for their meeting next year.

Five Men Killed by Shell.

Wilhelmshaven, Germany. — Five men were killed and four men and two women were injured through the explosion here of a shrapnel shell

NO OBJECTION TO WHEELER'S

Monument Story is M... About Nothing

BLANK WILL BE FIL...

Some Southern Visitors to ... Cemetery Get Wrong ... From Uncompleted ... the Shaft.

Washington.—Press dispatches from Montgomery to the effect that Alabama congressmen were angered by the reported act... ment in refusing ... federate tiffies of ... Wheeler to appear ... ment recently erected ... Arlington national cemetery, a big surprise etc ... partment.

The acting secretary ... over the correspondence ... with General Wheeler ... found that instead of ... ing taken, the ... with the consent of ... that the confederate ... allowed. The acting ... a messenger to the ... reported that the ... were on the monument.

The report that the ... jected is said to have ... trip to the confederate ... week of several ... Washington.

The title on the ... that time not been ... was evidently assumed by ... the side intended to be ... the confederate ... blank.

A local paper printed ... the effect that the war ... had objected to all ... confederacy with the ... found its way to Alabama.

THIRTY-TWO DEA...

Disregard of Train Orders ... Be Cause of Acci...

Mexico City.—According to ... reaching here, thirty-two ... were killed and thirty-three ... as a result of a ... passenger train and freight ... Eucarnacion, on the Mexican ... railroad. The passenger ... the regular El Paso express ... left that city Tuesday.

There were no prominent ... among the killed or wounded. ... Pullman cars were not ... aged, but the two engines and ... first, second and third ... of the passenger train were ... ished.

Relief and wrecking trains ... sent to the scene of the ... injured were taken to the ... Aguas Calientes. The ... said to have been due to a ... of the train orders.

STRANGER TO $...

Queer Case of James Booth ... Rockwood from Morphine.

Rockwood, Tenn.—James ... the Rockwood newsboy who ... overdose of morphine ... o'clock Saturday morning, ... ing regained consciousness. ... 32 years old and leaves ... four children, the youngest ... babe in arms.

His death has revealed a ... state of affairs. Some years ... began working at the furnace ... Roane Iron Company at ... being unable to sleep during ... time, he commenced to take ... to produce sleep. For a year ... his daily use of the drug ... 12 1-2 grains. About a year ... engaged in the news business ... would work all night at the ... and during the day most of ... was spent in delivering ... to his customers. It is said ... young man never slept ... hours each day, and that ... the morphine produced ... this little rest.

Leased Building to Ca...

Newcastle, Pa.—George L. ... wealthy real estate owner and ... nent citizen, has been ... Judge Foster to thirty days ... Allegheny county penitentiary ... pleaded guilty to a charge of ... a building for gambling ...

Found Dead in a Pull...

Knoxville, Tenn.—Maj. ... a prominent attorney of ... Ky., was found dead in a ... Southern railway Pullman ... near this city Friday morning. ... was en route from ... Knoxville on a business ... remains were removed from ... at Dante, a suburban station, ... conveyed to the home of his ... law, ex-Senator Horace ... Heart affection is attributed ...

Fire Burned to Death.

San Bernardino, Cal.—A ... freight train on the Santa Fe ... got away at Devore Station, ... of the steep San Jose ... crashed into a light engine ... tom. The wreckage caught ... burned furiously. Five ... known to have been killed ... fatally injured. Three ... victims in the wreckage ... include H. K. Stratton, ... dian, the engineer; ...

THERE IS VERY SHORT IN SOUTH AMERICA

Tapers Will Have to do Without Unless

PAY MORE MONEY

...ts Are Very Slow—May Be ...ring Off This Year of 4,000,000 ..., Which Would Be Bad for the ... States.

... York.—Receipts of coffee at ... Janeiro and Santos (Brazil) ... dwindled away to such an extent ... that a continuation of the ... movement would almost mean a ... to this beverage ... world's consumption ... amounts to 18,000,000 ... ers to look as if the ... year will be ... leaving a deficit of ... the opinion of experts ... of Brazil will not ... while in Central ... the finest ladies will be ... bags.

... storage warehouses ... year at Sao Paulo in ... these were stored some ... ags of coffee that were carried ... the interior into this crop year. ... this circumstance is the only ... cause of the situation. The last ... of coffee was a bumper crop, the ... of which cannot be expected ... season, but even with the large ... of that yield carried over the ... situation is approaching unpleasantly ... near the danger line.

GIRL A "WALKING BOMB."

...ed as an Officer With Uniform ... Stuffed With Gun Cotton.

St. Petersburg.—The police have ... a young girl nicknamed "Wanda" ... who is accused of participating in ... to blow up the headquarters of ... secret police, situated on the ... canal, whose torture chambers ... aroused bitter feelings in the ... of the revolutionists.

The police claim that "Wanda" ... tried to become a walking bomb ... enter the headquarters building ... the middle of the day, when it is ... usually full of police, wearing the ... form of a gendarme officer lined ... with cotton and carrying ... pounds of gun cotton and ... bombs. "Wanda," the police add, hoped by ... destroying herself up to ruin the ... building to ruins and kill all the ... officers composing the staff of the ... political police.

As a consequence of the murderous ... plans of the revolutionists, the ... St. Petersburg police have decided to give up ... their present quarters, removing to an ... isolated stone building on Kamenny ... Island.

Horse Trader at King's Table.

Copenhagen.—M. Hansen, a well ... known Danish horse dealer who sold ... King Haakon, of Norway, several ... years, was invited to take lunch with ... members of the royal family of Christ... He had never been at court before. ... He believed that the king meant ... him, although his majesty only ... invited salt, and he rose, thinking he ... had been thus honored. Unfortunately ... in his confusion he pulled the table ... cloth, and all the dishes fell to the ... floor. Hansen says the king and ... queen felt unhappier on his behalf than ... he did.

Woman Loses $236,000.

New York.—Central office detectives ... are baffled Tuesday by the mysterious ... disappearance of $236,000 in cash ... and jewels, either stolen from or lost ... by a wealthy Brooklyn woman while ... she was riding from Larchmont to ... New York on a New York, New Haven ... and Hartford train. The identity of ... the woman is being carefully ... concealed. Her lawyer, Benjamin F. ... Curtis, has offered a reward of $10,... for the return of the jewels. They ... were in an ordinary tin box when they ... disappeared.

Six Italians Drown.

Pittsburg, Pa.—Six Italians employed ... on the new government dam in the ... Allegheny river at Aspinwall, near ... here, lost their their lives when they ... became panic-stricken and leaped from ... a flatboat on which they were taking ... them from a dam. The men jumped ... from one end of the boat in twelve ... feet of water instead of stepping from ... the other end to a sandbar.

Mislabel Baggage to Wrong Address.

New York.—Thousands of dollars' ... worth of baggage has been stolen in ... the last three months from the Cunard ... steamship pier No. 51, North river. ... The police say the plan of the thieves ... is to change the owner's label on ... the baggage and substitute for them ... labels bearing the names of junk dealers. The Jersey City police have made ... many arrests which they declare bear ... on the case.

Four Killed.

Colorado Springs, Col.—A powerful ... touring automobile, occupied by seven ... persons, skidded and a chauffeur and ... failed to hold but three passengers. ... While running at a terrific rate, crashed ... into a telephone pole at the bottom ... of the West Hurnane street hill here ... and was wrecked, four of the occupants were killed outright and the ... others were more or less seriously ... injured.

INDIANS.

...mber of the ...ed. ...pecial to the ...rantan, Mex-

...here of a hal- ...e and a band ...etween San ... state. The ...ssault on the ...attacked the ...ush. Seven ...Indians were ...d a fairly or- ...away, tak- ...d with them.

...EPHONES.

...Mont., Likely ...

...ll of the ... Helena to ...inders pend- ...ky Moun- ...strike the ...Council af- ...Federation ...a general ...

...is said ...of the street ...the closing ...establish- ...ion each sa- ...phones is ...

...ound.

...ner Alexan- ...seven miles ...to Lake Su- ...st eye of the ...seven mem- ...we did. The ...with coal. It ...knees broke ...shoe dur-

NO OBJECTION TO WHEELER'S ...

Monument Story is ... About Nothing

BLANK WILL BE FILLED

Some Southern Visitors to ... Cemetery Get Wrong ... From Uncompleted ... the Shaft.

Washington—Press dispatches from Montgomery to the effect that ... bama congressmen were ... the reported act of the ... ment in refusing to allow ... federate tities of the late ... Wheeler to appear upon ... ment recently erected to ... Arlington national cemetery ... a big surprise eto officials of ... partment.

The acting secretary of ... over the correspondence ... with General Wheeler's ... found that instead of such ... ing taken, the department ... with the consent of the ... that the confederate titles ... allowed. The acting secret... a messenger to the ceme... reported that the confederate ... were on the monument.

The report that the depart... jected is said to have arisen ... trip to the confederate ... week of several southern ... Washington.

The title on the monument ... that time not been completed ... was evidently assumed by ... the side intended to be ... the confederate titles would ... blank.

A local paper printed a ... the effect that the war ... had objected to all referen... confederacy with the result ... found its way to Alabama.

THIRTY-TWO DEAD

Disregard of Train Orders is ... Be Cause of Accident.

Mexico City.—According to ... reaching here, thirty-two ... were killed and thirty-three ... as a result of a collision be... passenger train and freight ... Encarnacion, on the Mexican ... railroad. The passenger train ... the regular El Paso express ... left that city Tuesday.

There were no prominent ... among the killed or wounded. ... Pullman cars were not badly ... aged, but the two engines and ... first, second and thirdclass ... of the passenger train were ... lished.

Relief and wrecking trains ... sent to the scene of the wreck. ... injured were taken to the ... Agues Calientes. The disas... said to have been due to a ... of the train orders.

STRANGER TO SLEEP.

Queer Case of James Booth, ... Rockwood from Morphine.

Rockwood, Tenn.—James ... the Rockwood newsboy, who ... overdose of morphine, died ... o'clock Saturday morning, never ... ing regained consciousness. ... 32 years old and leaves a wife ... four children, the youngest ... babe in arms.

His death has revealed a ... state of affairs. Some years ... began working at the furnaces ... Roane Iron Company at Rockwood ... being unable to sleep during the ... time, he commenced to take ... to produce sleep. For a year or ... his daily use of the drug amounted ... 12 1-2 grains. About a year ago ... engaged in the news business ... would work all night at the ... and during the day most of his ... was spent in delivering papers ... to his customers. It is said the ... young man never slept over ... hours each day, and that the ... the morphine produced ... this little rest.

Leased Building to Gamblers.

Newcastle, Pa.—George A. ... wealthy real estate owner and ... nent citizen, has been enjoined ... Judge Foster to thirty days ... Allegheny county penitentiary ... pleaded guilty to a charge of ... a building for gambling purposes.

Found Dead in a Pullman.

Knoxville, Tenn.—Maj. L. A. ... a prominent attorney of Lexington, Ky., was found dead in a berth of a Southern railway Pullman car near this city Friday morning. He was en route from Louisville to Knoxville on a business mission. His remains were removed from the train at Dante, a suburban station, and conveyed to the home of his son-in-law, ex-Senator Horace A. Taylor. Heart affection is attributed as the cause of death.

Four Burned to Death.

San Bernardino, Cal.—A freight train on the Santa Fe road got away at Devore Station, at the foot of the steep San Juan grade, and crashed into a light engine standing on the main track. The wreckage caught fire and burned completely. Five men are known to have been killed outright or fatally injured. There may be more victims in the wreckage. Those reported killed include H. K. Stratton, of San Bernardino, the engineer; Brakeman ...

THERE IS VERY SHORT ... IN SOUTH AMERICA

Toilers Will Have to do Without Unless ... PAY MORE MONEY

... Are Very Slow—May Be ... Off This Year of 4,000,000 ..., Which Would Be Bad for the ... States.

... York.—Receipts of coffee at ... Janeiro and Santos, Brazil, ... dwindled away to such an alarming ... that a continuation of the ... movement would almost mean a ... in this beverage.

... world's consumption of coffee ... amounts to 18,000,000 bags, and ... seems to look as if the yield for the ... year will be put 14,000,000 ... leaving a deficit of 4,000,000 bags. ... opinion of experts that the ... of Brazil will not exceed 10,500,000 ... bags, while in Central America ... the West Indies will be produced ... bags.

... storage warehouses were erected ... year at Rao Paula, in Brazil, ... these were stored some 1,500,000 ... bags of coffee that were carried ... the interior into this crop year. ... this circumstance is the only saving ... feature of the situation. The last ... of coffee was a bumper crop, the ... of which cannot be expected ... season, but even with the large ... of that yield carried over the ... situation is approaching uncomfortably near the danger line.

GIRL A "WALKING BOMB."

... as an Officer With Uniform ... Stuffed With Gun Cotton.

... Petersburg.—The police have arrested a young girl nicknamed "Wanda" who is accused of participating in a plot to blow up the headquarters of the secret police, situated on the ... canal, whose torture chambers ... aroused bitter feelings on the ... of the revolutionists.

The police claim that "Wanda" ... agreed to become a "walking bomb" ... enter the headquarters building ... the middle of the day, when it is usually full of police, wearing the uniform of a gendarme officer lined ... with cotton and carrying ... bombs. The police add, hoped by ... blowing herself up to reduce the enemy's ... buildings to ruins and kill all the officers composing the staff of the political police.

... consequence of the murderous ... of the revolutionists, the secret police have decided to give up their present quarters, removing to an ... stone building on Kamenny ...

Horse Trader at King's Table.

Copenhagen.—M. Hanson, a well-known Danish horse dealer, who sold ... Haakon, of Norway, several ... was invited to take lunch with ... members of the royal family at Christiania. He had never been at court before. He believed that the king toasted ... although his majesty only ... and he rose, thinking he ... been thus honored. Unfortunately ... his confusion he pulled the table ... and all the dishes fell to the ... Hanson says the king and ... were happier on his behalf than ... did.

Woman Loses $236,000.

New York.—Central office detectives ... baffled Tuesday by the mysterious ... disappearance of $236,000 in cash ... jewels, either stolen from or lost ... a wealthy Brooklyn woman while ... was riding from Larchmont to ... York on a New York, New Haven and Hartford train. The identity ... the woman is being carefully ... guarded. Her lawyer, Benjamin F. ... has offered a reward of $10,000 ... for the return of the jewels. They were in an ordinary tin box when they ... vanished.

Six Italians Drown.

Pittsburg, Pa.—Six italians employed on the new government dam in the Allegheny river at Aspinwall, near here, last their their lives when they became panic-stricken and leaped from a flatboat on which they were taking stone from a dam. The men jumped from one end of the boat in twelve feet of water instead of stepping from the other end to a sandbar.

Mislabel Baggage to Wrong Address.

New York.—Thousands of dollars' worth of baggage has been stolen in the last three months from the Cunard White Star steamship pier No. 51, North river. The police say the plan of the thieves was to change the owner's label on the baggage and to substitute for them labels bearing the names of junk dealers. The Jersey City police have made ... arrests which they declare bear on the case.

Four Killed.

Colorado Springs, Col.—A powerful racing automobile, occupied by seven prominent Elks and a chauffeur and ... to hold but three passengers, while running at a terrific rate, crashed into a telephone pole at the bottom of the West Horano street hill here and was wrecked. Four of the occupants were killed outright and the others were more or less seriously hurt.

EXPLOSION ON BATTLESHIP.

Forty Killed and Injured by Bursting of Twelve-Inch Shell.

Tokio.—Forty of the crew were killed and injured on board the Japanese battleship Kashima by the explosion of a twelve-inch shell within the shield, after target practice near Kure at 4 p. m. on September 9. The Kashima, under command of Kiozuma, reached Kure at 6 p. m., where the wounded were placed in the hospital. The fatalities inclnced a lieutenant, two cadets and one staff officer, the rank and name of whom is not given.

The exact details regarding the effects of the explosion are lacking, but it was terrific, and the ship is badly damaged.

The explosion followed an attempt to remove and unexploded shell from the gun. A majority of the bystanders were fearfully mutilated.

The casualties reported as the result of the explosion are as follows: Killed, five officers (names not given) and twenty-two men; severely wounded, two officers and six men; slightly wounded, two officers and six men.

The cause of the explosion is under investigation. It occured inside of the shield of the starboard after ten-inch gun.

It was not the shell which exploded, but powder which evidently caught fire from the gas emitting from the breech when opened for the purpose of reloading the gun.

The hull of the Kashima is not damaged.

CASE OF LOCKJAW CURED.

Tetanus Anti-Toxin Successfully Used on Woman.

New York.—A case of virulent tetanus, or lockjaw, has been cured by the doctors of the Williamsburg (Brooklyn) Hospital. There are, it is said, only two other similar cures on record.

Six weeks ago Mrs. Annette Kpesling, of Williamsburg, was apparently in the first stages of lockjaw from a wound from a rusty nail. Her agony was so intense that she was removed to the hospital and a council of physicians agreed that her case was hopeless. Nevertheless Dr. Henderson, of the house staff, injected tetanus anti-toxin, and has done so every day since. A month passed without apparent results, but the treatment began to show signs of success about a week ago. On Friday Mrs. Koestling was allowed to leave her bed, and she will soon leave the hospital.

Thirty-third Degree Masons Meet.

Boston, Mass.—Scottish Rite Masons of the thirty-third degree, more than 300 in number, were present at the opening session of the ninety-sixth annual meeting of the supreme council of the Scottish Rite of the Northern Jurisdiction here. Grand Commander Henry L. Palmer, of Milwaukee, opened the three days' conference. Among the important matters to be considered is the report of the delegates of the Northern jurisdiction to the international congress at Brussels. Fifty Masons, who have been elected to the thirty-third degree, were candidates for initiation at the evening session.

ONE HUNDRED SUBMERGED.

People Returning From Ball Game When Bridge Collapsed.

Findlay, O.—Four people were seriously injured and 100 people were submerged in the Blanchard river late Monday afternoon while on their way home from a ball game as a result of the breaking down of the Swindle street suspension foot bridge in this city. There were a number of narrow escapes from drowning. The giving away of the bridge was caused by the breaking of a cable that supported one of the sides.

Will Sing Dixie.

St. Louis, Mo.—Three thousand trained voices will sing "Dixie" and 50,000 will join in the chorus when President Roosevelt reaches St. Louis on his way to Memphis with a great river fleet to attend the lake-to-the-gulf deep waterway convention. New words have been set to the air of "Dixie" and the words are melodious and inspiring.

Prohibition Fight in Mississippi.

Jackson, Miss.—Counties in this state which still legalize the sale of liquor have been put on notice that the prohibition fight will continue ntil the entire state is dry. The various religious organizations in the state will appeal to the general assembly at its next session.

Bumble Bees May Cause Death.

Bellefontaine, O.—Because he sat on a bumble bee's nest little Oscar Tropp, the 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Tropp, is near death. The bees stung the child's body so thoroughly that his body swelled to thrice its normal size, and physicians say that there is little hope of saving his life, as the poison has infected his entire system.

Anti-Saloon League Convention.

Norfolk, Va.—The tenth annual convention of the Anti-Saloon League of America opened Tuesday at the Jamestown Exposition. The league will be in session four days. Friday will be celebrated as "Temperance Day." A conference of state agents and field workers of the league was held Tuesday afternoon, at which the league's finances were discussed.

BOY OF EIGHT A SUICIDE.

Eccentric Lad Found Hanging in His Father's Barn.

St. Albans, Vt.—Stephen Flint, the eight-year-old child of Silas W. Flint, formerly Judge of the County Court, committed suicide by hanging. The boy had been rather eccentric for several months and had disappeared. After a search his body was found hanging from a beam in his father's barn.

BABY ITCHED TERRIBLY.

Face and Neck Covered With Inflamed Skin—Doctors No Avail—Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

"My baby's face and neck were covered with itching skin similar to eczema, and she suffered terribly for over a year. I took her to a number of doctors, and also to different colleges, to no avail. Then Cuticura Remedies were recommended to me by Miss G—. I did not use it at first, as I had tried so many other remedies without any favorable results. At last I tried Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Resolvent Pills, and to my surprise noticed an improvement. After using three boxes of the Cuticura Ointment, together with the Soap and Pills, I am pleased to say she is altogether a different child and the picture of health. Mrs. A. C. Brestlin, 171 N. Lincoln St., Chicago, Ill., Oct. 29 and 30, 1903."

Some Japanese Proverbs.

Speak of a man, and his shadow comes.

A tongue of three inches can kill a man of six feet.

The fly finds the sore spot.

A small-minded man looks at the sky through a reed.

A woman to rule is as for a hen to crow in the morning.

Good doctoring needs not half from marvels.

Love flies with the red petticoat (only unmarried girls wear this garment.)

If you hate a man let him live.

Many words, little sense.

To be over polite is to be rude.

The doctor cannot cure himself.

Hell's torments are measured by money.

There are thorns on all roses.

Inquire seven times before you believe a report.

He is a clever man who can preach a short sermon.

Treat every old man as thy father.

A man who lends money to a friend will never more see his friend nor his money.

Thine own heart makes the world.

The poet at home sees the whole world.

The throne of the gods is on the brow of a righteous man.—The Hesperian.

How He Slept.

Ex-Senator Billy Mason tells of a political campaign in South Dakota, wherein he had been called upon by the State committee to take a part. When Mason arrived at his first town, where he was to deliver a speech the next day, he found that the two so-called hotels were crowded to the doors.

Not having telegraphed for accommodations, the Illinois man discovered that he would have to make shift the best he could.

He was compelled for that night to sleep on a wire cot that had only some blankets and a sheet on. As Mr. Mason is a man of considerable avoirdupois, he found his improvised bed anything but comfortable.

"Well," asked the proprietor, when the politician appeared in the morning, "how did you sleep?"

"Fairly well," answered Mason, "but I certainly looked like a waffle when I got up."—Harper's Weekly.

When a man's wages become salary it is a sign that his wife is beginning to climb.

PUTS THE "GINGER" IN.

The Kind of Food Used by Athletes.

A former college athlete, one of the long distance runners, began to lose his power of endurance. His experience with a change in food is interesting.

"While I was in training on the track athletic team my daily 'jogs' became a task, until after I was put on Grape-Nuts food for two meals a day. After using the Food for two weeks I felt like a new man. My digestion was perfect, nerves steady and I was full of energy.

"I trained for the mile and the half-mile runs (those events which require so much endurance) and then the long daily 'jogs,' which before had been such a task, were clipped off with ease. I won both events.

"The Grape-Nuts food put me in perfect condition and gave me my 'ginger.' Not only was my physical condition made perfect, and my weight increased, but my mind was made clear and vigorous so that I could get out my studies in about half the time formerly required. Now most all of the university men use Grape-Nuts, for they have learned its value, but I think my testimony will not be amiss and may perhaps help some one to learn how the best results can be obtained."

There's a reason for the effect of Grape-Nuts food on the human body and brain. The certain elements in wheat and barley are selected with special reference to their power for rebuilding the brain and nerve centres. The product is then carefully and scientifically prepared so as to make it easy of digestion. The physical and mental results are so apparent after two or three weeks' use as to produce a profound impression. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a reason."

The Pulpit

A SERMON BY THE REV. IRA W. HENDERSON

Subject: The Church and Amusements.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—Preaching at the Irving Square Presbyterian Church, Hamburg avenue and Weirfield street, on the above theme, the Rev. Ira Wemmell Henderson, pastor, took as his text 1 John 2:17, "The world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth forever." He said:

Happiness is a universal human longing. The search for it is a world-wide human characteristic. The longing of living souls for that which ministers to the satisfaction of the noblest and most lasting of human needs and desires is natural. God created us to be happy. We were not men did we not search for joy. Jehovah meant us to live in the possession and exercise of all that is peaceful and joyous and lovable. It would be strange if we did not seek to possess them. We are foolish if we do not use them.

Not otherwise pleasure, or the satisfaction of lesser human desires and human needs, is a universal human craving. As we long for those things that are eternally and finally satisfying, so do we long for those things that are of immediate and of contemporaneous value. And this craving is natural. The desire is divinely granted. It is not strange that we want pleasure.

But happiness and pleasure are not necessarily to be found in that (and we shall deliberately circumscribe the application of the word) which we call amusement. Happiness may be far from the heart that is amused. Many a soul that is seared and heavy with sorrow has been amused. But amusement brings such soul no abiding joy and ministers no balm of solace to heal their wounds. Pleasure is not amusement. For a man may find much pleasure outside of that which in the common use and acceptation of the term is called amusement. Happiness is a matter, at the base, of subjective satisfaction. Happiness is centrally a concern of the soul. Pleasure may conserve happiness. But a man may be well pleased and yet not be happy. A man may be amused and find pleasure in the amusement. But a man may be superlatively unhappy though his face may be forced to smiles through the power of amusement.

For amusement is a diversion, a dissipation, an indication of inward discontent. Happiness indicates contentment. The desire to be amused is very nearly always an indication of the incapacity of a man to achieve happiness.

The church expresses happiness in the terms of eternity, of divinity, of conscience. The happiness of man is, in the mind of the Church of Jesus Christ and in the light of His truth, dependent upon its perdurability, its divineness, upon the clarity of the conscience of the man who possesses it. In the conception of the church happiness is eternal, it is the gift of God and a force that propels man nearer to God; it cannot be enjoyed except the conscience of men are void of the consciousness of their unworthiness before God. A man is not really happy unless his soul is satisfied in an eternal fashion, unless he has the joy and peace that are the gift of God unto those who love Him and who keep His commandments as his innermost possession, unless his mind and heart are certified of his personal acceptability before God.

The church expresses righteous and worthy pleasure in the terms of the conservation of that which is eternal, the promotion of that which is divine, the satisfaction of duty. Any pleasure that does not augment happiness is unworthy. That is to say, that if our pleasures militate against our growth in that which is eternal and divine, if they dull our consciousness of the imperatives of the Almighty that are law and life to the human soul, they are unrighteous.

Now, the Church measures amusements by these same standards. She asks us what our amusements do to afford us a larger vision of the eternities, to increase our certainty of the reality and of our self-possession of divinity, to draw us into correct relationships with God. By these standards we have a right to measure our amusements and by these judgments they must and or fail. If they can meet these tests they may remain steadfast and they will. If they cannot be justified by them or squared to them they will fall and they ought to. For life is short. Time advances. Opportunities come and go. There is much to be done. We must do it. We have little time to waste. Our efforts must tend, be they little or momentous, to the enlargement of humanity's comprehension of those things that are eternal and divine. If happiness lies in the achievement of these graces we have stipulated then we ought to be about the Master's business.

No country in the world needs the white light of publicity and philosophy and of uncommon sense to glare upon its amusements more than America. For we are amusement crazy. Our catch-penny, tinseled, gaudy summer places of amusement are evidence of our amusement fever. Our theatres are jammed with people who want not to be compelled to think or to be brought face to face with reproductions of real life in miniature. They go largely to be amused. Our amusements are almost wholly superficial. They minister to the needs of the mind that is momentarily surfeited, to the jaded spirit. They are strictly temporal. They are very nearly always inexpressibly cheap and tawdry when we sift them to the bottom. They are unrelated to duty. For they are primarily intended to aid us to forget duty.

Of our multitude of amusements we shall consider four: the card table, the dance, the theatre, the racetrack. And they are taken for consideration, not because they are per se evil, but because they have become perverted, because they are the means of entertainment for the mighty majority of our population, because there is wide difference of opinion as to their morality and propriety in the hands of Christian men and women or of anybody else today and under present social conditions.

It is exigedly necessary for me to say that a pack of cards in itself is not evil. It is far from my purpose to insinuate that either the dance, the theatre or the race is, under proper and normal conditions, wicked. They become so, however, when men control them. It is far from my intention to assert that these forms of amusement are incapable of proper use and that the host of moral, well-meaning Christian people who indulge in them are not perfectly sincere. I have seen card games that were harmless, and horse-races that were above reproach, and theatrical performances that, with a little reformation, could have been immaculate, and dances in which it was perfectly safe for young men and women to glide through the mazes of the waltz. But on the other hand, I am painfully conscious that I become disgusted with cards because of the profanity, the unbridled vulgarity, the total incapacity for self-control, the trickery, the dishonesty, of those who played the game. The questionableness of most of the performances upon the American stage make it necessary for even a grown man who possesses any remnants of self-respect to secure a theatrical Baedeker before he attempts to go to see a show. I have seen so many pure, gentle, lovely girls (not in dance-halls, but at the dances of approved and conventional society of the best type) locked in the embraces of lecherous, villainous men whom they would not allow within a yard of them in the seclusion and privacy of their own parlors, that I have passed from wonder to disgust. Any one who has ever taken a good, honest, long look at the class of men who frequent the racetracks of a metropolitan district will be convinced, if he never was before, that the average of the devotees of the turf go to the track least of all to see the "ponies run." If gambling was disallowed by law at the tracks half the racing associations of the country would go out of business.

All these amusements are supplied in some measure by church people. All of them have been so perverted that they have become stumbling blocks to human souls. For they have led many a man over the brink of wretchedness into the depths of despair. And these men have not infrequently fallen into the meshes of iniquity because of the ostensibly harmless pastimes of Christian men and women.

As an obsession it is paltry for me to say that they are wholly evil. For we are agreed that when they are allowed to dominate a life they are of the devil. The question is, shall the Church sanction them or shall she ban them?

Let us look them over one by one. When did a game of cards minister to the enlargement of our consciousness of that which is divine and eternal? Or when did it increase our sense of responsibility to the world or God? Or when did the theatre or the dance or the race? Seachingly, honestly!

The truth is that the more we are aware of divinity and eternity, the more exalted our conception of the demands of conscience, the less we need these things and have time for them. We find our happiness elsewhere; we secure our pleasure through unquestionable channels. We neither care nor need to be amused. When I know that amusements are stultifying the spiritual efficiency of the people of God, when I see the flagrant perversions of the amusements of the day that exist, then I am persuaded that the fathers were right to condemn these things with no uncertain sound. And I am further convinced that it is not only the duty of the Church to denounce them, but also to transform and purify them. I am certain that it is our duty to divert the energies of the multitude from following their cheap amusements to the service of Almighty God.

The Better Part.

The Christian is always the "stronger man," because at the bottom of human nature there are certain points that every honest, unsaved man must yield. He must admit that "whosoever drinketh this water shall thirst again." Material things cannot satisfy man. The famous builder of Pullman cars had a brother who was a minister, the Rev. James Pullman, D. D. The carbuilder wanted his brother to forsake the ministry and get rich. But before the close of his life the millionaire visited his brother. "James," he said, "you have chosen the better part."—Home Herald.

The Ideal is Attainable.

It is ours to keep on trying to do God's will perfectly. Alone, we certainly never can. How far towards the golden goal He will sweep on our consecrated endeavors we may never know. We cannot limit God. "All things are possible to him that believeth." The ideal is no mirage, no tantalizing illusion, no fatuous "will-o'-the-wisp." It is attainable; else it would not be an ideal at all. God's Son once reached it. Some day He may permit other sons to climb the sunlit heights.—Herbert N. Bevier.

Every Day With God.

He who never connects God with his daily life knows nothing of the spiritual meaning and the uses of life; nothing of the calm, strong patience with which life may be endured; of the gentle comfort which the Father's love can comfort; of the blessed rest to be realized in His forgiving love, His tender Fatherhood; of the deep, peaceful sense of the infinite One ever near, a refuge and a strength.—Canon Farrar.

We Shall Receive Strength.

It is a great deal easier to do that which God gives us to do, no matter how hard it is, than to face the responsibility of not doing it. We have abundant assurance that we shall receive all the strength we need to perform any duty God allots to us.—J. R. Miller.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

INTERNATIONAL LESSON COMMENTS FOR 1907, BY THE REV. E. W. HENDERSON.

Review of the Lessons From July 7 to September 29, Inclusive.—Golden Text, Ps. 103:8.—Go Upstairs Helpful to Students.

July 7.
1. The charm of Israel's history lies in its humanness.
2. Israel sighing for slavery.
3. The wonderful providence of God.
4. Israel in the wilderness only an example.
5. Israel's experience has profound spiritual significance.
6. We are all human like Israel.

July 14.
1. The ten commandments eternal.
2. The first commandment.
3. The second commandment.
4. The third commandment.
5. The fourth commandment.

July 21.
1. The fifth commandment.
2. The sixth commandment.
3. The seventh commandment.
4. The eighth commandment.
5. The ninth commandment.
6. The tenth commandment.

July 28.
1. Moses on the mount pleading for Israel.
2. The golden calf a lesson and a warning to America.
3. God's providence has made America possible.
4. Some would seem to lay it to man.
5. America has a golden calf.
6. It is not a dream calf.
7. America needs to recognize God.

August 4.
1. The tabernacle.
2. The place of meeting.
3. The tabernacle holy.
4. A clean priesthood.
5. God's presence.
6. Men as tabernacles.

August 11.
1. The drunkenness of Nadab and Abihu.
2. Liquor a snare.
3. To be let alone.
4. Nothing gained by its use.
5. The liquor traffic should be abolished.

August 18.
1. The fact of sin.
2. Confession of sin.
3. Forgiveness of sin.
4. Forgetting of sin.

August 25.
1. The preparation.
2. Israel prepared.
3. Hobab invited.
4. The invitation of the church.

September 1.
1. Israel's attempt to enter Canaan a failure.
2. God allows the spies to be sent.
3. The spies report.
4. The land was what God declared it to be.
5. Two men saw success.
6. We should be like Joshua and Caleb.

September 8.
1. Doubting Israel is confounded.
2. The brazen serpent is suggestive.
3. Results of sin bring Israel to her senses.
4. Salvation was simply effective.
5. So is Christ's salvation to-day.
6. Israel and we make a mistake to progress without God.

September 15.
1. Moses' address a masterpiece.
2. Book of Deuteronomy majestic.
3. Love for God.
4. Teaching children.
5. God's gifts.

September 22.
1. Moses' death pathetic.
2. Death sad but joyous.
3. God's promise fulfilled.
4. Moses work finished.
5. Joshua called.
6. Moses' exemplary manhood.

Work With Hope.

To work without hope is discouraging. We need the sense of progress to cheer and sustain us. To go round and round on a treadmill of mere drudgery takes our spirit out of us. Therefore, we need a deeper and larger hope. We need to have faith in mental, moral and spiritual progress, in the growth of the soul, in the unfolding of its higher powers, its larger faculties. We need to have faith that the years, as they come and go, may give us a deeper experience, may lift us to a large vision, may enable us to come nearer to God in faith, nearer to man in human sympathy and love.—James Freeman Clarke.

Saving by Believing.

The Christian lifts others by believing in them. He sees in each the subject of redemption. "According to thy faith be it unto thee" means not only "You can be saved if you believe;" it means also, "You can save others"—save them by believing in them and in God's love for them, not according to your foolish desires, but in accordance with God's intention for them, with the original law of their being.—Charles Gore, D.D.

Growing Like God.

When we allow our best life to unfold and express itself in word or deed, or to go out from us in pure influence, we grow like God, whose utterance creates us. And always we find it more blessed to give than to receive. We are ourselves served best by serving others.—C. G. Ames.

Must Ride the Ass' Colt.

To-day is the ass' colt upon which every son of man must ride into His kingdom.

$2,000,000 Left to Masons.

Under the will of Thomas E. Patton, treasurer of the Grand Lodge of Masons of Pennsylvania, who died recently, his entire estate, valued between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000, is devised to the grand lodge of Pennsylvania for the education and support of male orphans of Master Masons.

Premier Asquith's Plan Rejected.

The Transvaal Congress at Heidelberg rejected Premier Botha's plan for local self-government.

The Banner.

Published and Published every Thursday at Clanton, Chilton County, Ala.

Entered at the postoffice at Clanton, Ala., as second-class mail matter.

"Here shall the press the people's rights maintain,
Unawed by influence and unbribed by gain,
Here patriot truth her glorious precepts teach,
Dedicated to religion, liberty and law."

Subscription, yearly . . . $1.00
Invariably in advance.

Address all communications to THE BANNER, Clanton, Ala.

WILL YOU, PLEASE,

stop for one moment in your busy working day and think when your last subscription to The Banner was paid? If your conscience answers it was anywhere within the last twelve months, we ask your pardon, bid you God speed and go on again. If, however your conscience says it is more than a year since I paid The Banner anything, then we bid you God speed and hope you will make all the haste possible to come and pay what you are due.

Gov. COMER is said to have made up his mind to call the Legislature in extra session about the 1st of November.

The Selma Journal favors the parcels post idea. Surely the Journal doesn't want the women of Selma to order goods from Chicago and New York that they can buy in Selma of merchants who advertise in the Journal. The money that is kept at home is the only money that does any good in a community.—Birmingham Ledger.

THERE is a whole sermon in that last sentence, and especially applicable to the people of Chilton county. "The money that is kept at home is the only money that does any good in a community."

And yet we have some few merchants so shortsighted that even their orders for job printing are sent away off—to a mail order house it may be—when those same orders can be executed in every bit as good style at a lower rate, and no express charges to pay, right here at home. A mail order house for such people wouldn't be a bad idea, according to our notion. Keep your money at home, where it will come around to you again.

Thorsby.

Mrs. Pond is visiting at the home of her daughter, Miss Wheelock.

Rev. Hartellus returned from Nebraska last week. Mrs. Hartellus and children are detained on account of illness.

Miss Susie Horn is learning the millinery art at Birmingham.

Miss Lois Hawthorn returned to Thorsby after a visit to South Alabama.

The poor dogs—good and bad, well and mad—have been having a hard time the past week. All unmuzzled canines are to be shot.

Who is to be congratulated, in event of securing the High School?

Mr. John W. Hayes opens his feed store next week, in the post office building.

Mr. A. M. Johnson displays a fine lot of fresh cereals, direct from the factory.

Collins & Collins have opened a new grocery store in the Lothrop & Cranberg building. Souvenirs will be distributed Saturday to visitors.

Miss Hannibal's daughters returned to Chicago this week.

The Baptist Ladies Aid will give an ice cream sociable Thursday, 26th.

Mr Edwards and family are living in upper rooms of the Villadson house. VOX POPULI.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The following is the proceedings of the Teachers' Institute, held at Jemison, Sept. 20-21, 1907.

FRIDAY, 10 a.m. The house was called to order by the Superintendent, and devotional exercises were conducted by Bro. A. F. Loftin. Address of welcome, Prof. R. A. Rasco. Response, by Prof. J. W. Moore.

Roll was called, the following were present: J. W. Moore, R. A. Rasco, W. A. McCreless, S. B. Powell, W. M. Dennis, J. J. Mims, H. L. Foshee; Misses Bonnie Jenkins, Inga Husby, Alma Lafstead, Nelia Johnson, Ada Rasco, Cora Jordan, Julia Parrish, Meadows; M. O. Crumpton, J. H. Anderson, Luther C. Mullins, L. R. Sawyer, J. L. Mims, J. C. Dennis and James A. Edwards.

10. Address to teachers, Rev. Loftin.

11:00 to 12. Teaching as compared with other professions, Profs. McCreless, Rasco, Moore and others.

The Institute adjourned for dinner, which was beautifully served in the homes of the good people of Jemison. Their hearts and homes were open for the reception of the teachers.

1:30 p.m. The house was called to order by the Superintendent. Song by choir, and prayer by Rev. Loftin.

2. Address on discipline and organization of schools, Profs. Rasco, McCreless, Anderson, W. S. Dennis and others.

3. Teachers' preparation for class work, Prof. McCreless, Rasco and others.

The institute adjourned and the teachers were carried into the homes, where they were royally entertained.

SATURDAY, 9 a.m. Devotional exercises were conducted by Bro. E. M. Parrish.

9:30. Assistance in teaching, Profs. Rasco, Moore and Miss Nelia Johnson and others.

11. A beautiful recitation by Miss Ada Rasco.

11:30 to 12. Educational address by Hon. Walter D. Seed, State Treasurer. Adjourn for dinner.

1:30 p.m. Short talks were made by L. C Mullins, A. F. Loftin, R. A. Rasco, L. R. Sawyer, Miss Julia Parrish, S. B. Powell and others.

RESOLUTION NO. 1.

Whereas the good people of Jemison have given us such a hearty welcome and have entertained us so royally during our stay among them, therefore be it Resolved, by the teachers of Chilton county in Institute assembled, that our thanks are due, and hereby tendered these good people for these courtesies. We further tender our thanks to Bro. Loftin and Hon. Walter D. Seed for their appreciated addresses.

Committee—Prof. McCreless, Prof. Sawyer and Miss Julia Parrish.

RESOLUTION NO. 2.

Resolved, That we, the teachers of Chilton county in Institute assembled, hereby put a resolution on record as being against the dispensary or the sale of liquor in any way. We are strictly for prohibition.

Language fails to express our thanks to the good people of Jemison for their kindness and hospitality during the Institute.

We think this has been one of the most successful Institutes ever held in Chilton county, and we regret very much that every teacher in the county was not here to hear those able addresses.

The next Institute will be held at Verbena.

J. W. MOORE, Pres.

M. C. CRUMPTON, Sec.

ALABAMA STATE FAIR.

In its Educational features the Alabama State Fair, at Birmingham, Oct. 8th to 16th, has every prospect of being the best ever held in this section of the South. Farmers all over the State are getting exhibits ready for the big show, and the agricultural products of the State will be given a rare display. Already much of the space in the exhibit building has been let, and a few more days wil see the entire list filled. Everything raised on the farm will be shown and premiums are offered for the best in every class. General manager, Geo. T. Barnes, is keeping a special staff busy answering inquiries and sending out the catalogue which will be forwarded anywhere on request. It looks like the fair week will be the biggest gathering of Alabama farmers in history.

In addition to the countless exhibits of everything grown or manufactured in the State the management has engaged the finest line of attractions ever seen in Alabama. There'll be an air ship doing wonderful flights every day, a balloonist who is shot from the mouth of a cannon while up in the clouds, horse racing by some of the speediest trotters and pacers in the South, high rope walkers, flying trapeze acrobats, a trained bull, a funny trio of two men and a donkey, Ricci's Italian band, and a grand fire works display, all without extra charge of any character. These performances will be given every afternoon, with the fire works at night, right in front of the grand stand where all may see.

There'll be the "Curve," the richest collection of shows money could get together on a midway. The Igorrote village, Filipino natives, who eat dog for dinner, will be on the grounds, Mundy's famous animal show, with lions, tigers and other untamed beasts; "Creation" the show that made the St. Louis pike famous; Holmes' Wild West Show, with Indians and cow boys, and a host of other attractions. The "Curve will be a whirlwind of fun. With a half dozen brass bands playing at the same time, barkers shouting themselves hoarse, horns blowing and flags flying, the "Curve" will be something long remembered.

Occasional headache, belching, bad taste in the mouth, lack of appetite and slight nervousness are symptoms of indigestion which, when allowed to go uncared for, will develop into a case of dyspepsia that will take a long time to get rid of. Don't neglect your stomach. At the first indication of trouble take something that will help it along in its work of digesting the food you eat. Kodol for indigestion and dyspepsia will do this. Kodol will make your food do you good and will enable you to enjoy what you eat. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

Sardis.

Dear Editor—Please allow us a small space in the dear old Banner to say a few words. The Sunday school at this place is progressing nicely. Rev. Bice preached an excellent sermon to a very large crowd Saturday night and Sunday at this place.

Mr. Homer Ratliff and charming wife spent the day with Mr. Nicholas Minor and sister, Rosie, Sunday last and reported a nice time.

We are sorry to say that the little babe of Mr. and Mrs. Chambers is suffering very much; we hope it a speedy recovery.

Messrs. J. F. Klinner, P. C. Deloach, J. E. Klinner, made a business trip to Montgomery Saturday last. With much love to the dear Banner and its many readers, we remain TWO PETS.

Did the Fay Sholes typewriter man miss you on his rounds while in Clanton? Didn't do it intentionally.

Pale, Thin, Nervous?

Then your blood must be in a very bad condition. You certainly know what to take, then take it—Ayer's Sarsaparilla. If you doubt, then consult your doctor. We know what he will say about this grand old family medicine.

This is the first question your doctor would ask: "Are your bowels regular?" He knows that daily action of the bowels is absolutely essential to recovery. Keep your liver active and your bowels regular by taking laxative doses of Ayer's Pills.

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass. Also manufacturers of

Ayer's HAIR VIGOR. AGUE CURE. CHERRY PECTORAL.

We have no secrets! We publish the formulas of all our medicines.

Sunday.

The people of this community are in very good health and are trying to gather their crop of peas, cotton, corn; but the cotton crop is very short. Some are making up their sorghum cane.

I suppose it will be well remembered that we have had the greatest revival at Pleasant Grove church, commencing Saturday before the 2nd Sunday and running until Thursday night. There will be 13 members baptized the 5th Sunday at the Collins bridge. The same day Brothers Martin and P. G. Manes will preach at Rehoboth church.

We are sorry that Mr. N. L. Broadhead will remove his family to Livingston. Mr Broadhead will be greatly missed in our Sunday school.

Grandma Mize spent a while with Mrs Ella Chastain. BIG IKE.

THORSBY INSTITUTE.

Resolutions adopted by the Board of Trustees of Thorsby Institute regarding the death of the President of the Board, the late Rev. George E. Bates, of Birmingham.

Whereas, our Heavenly Father has seen fit to remove from the scene of his earthly labors our friend and fellow-worker, the Rev. George E. Bates, President of the Board of Trustees of Thorsby Institute. Therefore be it, Resolved, That, recognizing the divine wisdom which cannot err and the divine love which cannot fail, we bow in reverent submission to God with whom are all the issues of life. "The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away. Blessed be the name of the Lord."

Resolved, That in the death of Rev. Bates the Christian forces of Alabama have lost a strong and inspiring leader; the Pilgrim church of Birmingham an earnest, faithful, hard-working shepherd and bishop of souls; the community of Thorsby a friend and well-wisher whose unselfishness was an example to us all; and the school at Thorsby a helper whose service was measured only by his strength and opportunity.

Resolved, That the Board of Trustees in particular has lost an honored officer, a wise counselor and a fellow-member with whom was both the vision of possibilities for the future and the practical resourcefulness constantly demanded for carrying that vision into reality.

Resolved, That we cherish the memory of our departed friend and, that God being our helper, we will endeavor to carry on with new courage and zeal the work which has fallen from his hand.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be offered to each of the Chilton county papers for publication, a copy be spread upon the records of the Board of Trustees of Thorsby Institute and a copy be sent to Mrs. Cora S. Bates, widow of the deceased.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES THORSBY INSTITUTE.

Gen. Robert E. Lee

was the greatest General the world has ever known. Ballard's Snow Liniment is the greatest Liniment. Quickly cures all pains. It is within the reach of all. T. H. Pointer, Hempstead, Texas, writes: "This is to certify that Ballard's Snow Liniment has been used in my household for years and has been found to be an excellent Liniment for Rheumatic pains. I am never without it." Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Billingsley.

Mr. Mack Culp of Montgomery has returned home for a short time only. We gladly welcome him back, but he says he will not be with us long as he will go to traveling soon for a firm in Chicago.

Well, we had a splendid ball game last Saturday at Center Point. The Blue Stars and Center Point crossed bats, the first game resulting 7 to 8 in favor of Center Point, and the second game was announced for Billingsley and Center Point, with the following lineup: Billingsley—Bowles, lf; M. Culp, ss; Patrick, rf; Strickland, cf; Ramsey, 1b; Williams, 2b; Roper, 3b; C. Culp, c; Marlar, p. Center Point—Williams, lf; Williams, cf; Williams, rf; Rasberry, 1b; Williams, 2b; W. Roper, 3b; Askins, ss; Ratlifi, c; H. Roper, p; Rainwater, c. We played 7½ innings, which gave Center Point 1 inning ahead of us, and we played until darkness interfered, score standing 5 and 5. But I want to tell you that Billingsley had to play Center Point and the umpire too, and with a wet ball and our pitcher could not throw it. But if the ball had been dry we would have shut them out. That little Mack Culp is the best shortstop in the county. He just won the game by being so active in backing up bases.

Miss Elane Parker will leave for school about the 25th. We hate to see her leave, for she is one of our most regular Sunday school students. Also Miss Josie Mae Marlar will leave to take charge of her school about Oct. 1. We are certainly sorry to see her leave. I think when Miss Josie Mae and Miss Elane leave that will leave us only one young lady in our little village. I wish we could get them not to leave, for we can never get none that can answer their place. Well, I will close, thanking the dear Editor for publishing this.

SUBSCRIBER.

Had Tetter for Thirty Years.

I have suffered with tetter for thirty years and have tried almost countless remedies with little, if any, relief. Three boxes of chamberlain's Salve cured me. It was a torture. It breaks out a little sometimes, but nothing to what it used to do.—D. H. BEACH, Midland city, Ala. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by Upchurch Drug co, Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Subscribe for the Banner.

TEACHERS LICENSED.

The following teachers successfully passed the last examination and have been granted certificates:

Howard L. Foshee, Jennie Heller, Alma Lafstead, Clara Soberg, Inga Husby, all of Thorsby.

Mack C. Crumpton, Nelia Johnson, F. B. Williams, Bonnie Jenkins, Luther C. Mullins, all of Jemison.

W. E. Dennis, J. M. Parrish Jr., Howard Roper, Rosalie Moore, Rufus Smith, James A. Edwards, all of Clanton.

Agnes Averyt, Enslev; Maud Killingsworth, Montevallo.

Letter to W. A. Collier.

Clanton, Ala.

Dear Sir: We should like to print your opinion of this guarantee in this paper, where your neighbors can see it:

We'll furnish the paint to paint half the house of any fair man on these terms: He shall paint the other half with whatever other paint he likes; same painter (any fair man) same way (the way of all fair painters, to make a good job). If our half doesn't take less gallons of paint by one-tenth to seven-tenths, We'll give him the paint. If our half doesn't take less labor by one-tenth to seven-tenths, we'll give him the paint. If our half isn't sounder three years hence, we'll give him the paint. If our half isn't sounder six years hence, we'll give him the paint. Any color.

We say one-tenth, because there are two or three paints with about that difference; we say seven—there are dozens of paints with about that difference—we say one to seven, because there's a hundred that waste one-third of the money paid for both paint and labor.

Is there a paint we haven't covered?

Yours truly
33 F W DEVOE & CO

Rushton.

Editor Banner—Please allow me space in your paper to say a few words in regard to the singing held at this place last Sunday.

It was called to order at 10 o'clock by singing and prayer. Then the chairman for the day was elected and the secretary.

Then the chairman appointed the arranging committee, which was R. M. Robinson, J. L Powell, F. J. R. Robinson. They made the following program: T. L. Robinson, 20 minutes; O. Z. Robinson, 20 minutes; organist, Miss Fannie B lle Robinson. Recess 10 minutes.

At 11 a.m. Judge Reynolds delivered us an excellent speech on temperance, which we all appreciated very much. After the lecture, dismissed for dinner until 1:30 p.m.

Then the program for the afternoon was as follows: W. H. Robinson, 20 minutes; G. C. Powell, 20 minutes; Miss Fannie Belle Robinson, organist; R. T. Grant, 20 minutes; Lee Robinson, organist; recess 15 minutes; L. E. Robinson, 20 minutes. Then we were dismissed by a prayer led by D. F. Robinson.

H. CONNELL, Chairman.
O. Z. ROBINSON, Secretary.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy One of the Best on the Market.

For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has constantly gained in favor and popularity until it is now one of the most staple medicines in use and has an enormous sale. It is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases, such as coughs, colds and croup, and can always be depended upon. It is pleasant and safe and pleasant to take and is undoubtedly the best in the market for the purpose for which it is intended. Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.

List of Letters remaining uncalled for in Clanton, Ala., postoffice, for week ending Sept. 21, 1907. Persons calling for same will please say "advertised" and give date. One cent must be paid on each letter.

GENTLEMEN'S LIST.

Fletcher Sanford, Will Semin, A. G. Bagby, C. C. Burnett.

LADIES' LIST.

Lizzie Ouders, Ellis Boggis, Mrs. Ramon Davis.

These letters will be sent to the dead Letter office, Oct. 5, 1907, if not delivered before.

F. O. DUDLEY, Postmaster.

OBITUARY.

On the 17th inst., the death angel visited the home of our beloved brother, Gilbert Gray, and bore away the spirit of his loving wife. The remains were interred in the cemetery at Bethany church, Wednesday, 18th. Sister Gray was a member of the Baptist church at Bethany for several years. She was a devoted Christian, a kind and gentle mother. She was loved by all who knew her, and it seemed her heart's desire to make sunshine and happiness in the lives of all about her. She leaves a husband and six children and a number of relatives and friends to mourn her loss. But we are well assured that our loss is her eternal gain, for we know that one whose life was so consecrated to the Master, and who bore her afflictions with such patience, that the Lord has prepared a place for her where troubles are ended forever. So we would say to the loved ones of our beloved sister to weep not for her, for the time is swiftly coming when we can lay down this old body of clay and go to meet our beloved sister around the throne of God, where there will be no more partings, no more heartaches, no more dying, but where we can sing the praises of God forever. God bless the bereaved ones is the prayer of

A FRIEND.

DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve is good for boils, burns, cuts, scalds and skin diseases. It is especially good for piles. Sold by Upchurch Drug Co.

Plant Juice at Florence Drug Store.

Union Point.

The health of this community is not good.

We have been having some rainy weather, but we hope it won't last as long as it did last September.

The Sunday school is not progressing as nicely as we would like for it to.

Rev. M. J. Parrish will preach at Union Point the fifth Sunday in September.

Just a word about the school. Those who don't send the next ten days will miss it all, and those who send will make it all. I want to go, but will have to work at home.

J. A. FRANKLIN.

There are a great many people who have slight attacks of indigestion and dyspepsia nearly all the time. Their food may satisfy the appetite but it fails to nourish the body simply because the stomach is not in fit condition to do the work it is supposed to do. It can't digest the food you eat. The stomach should be given help. You ought to take something that will do the work your stomach can't do. Kodol for Indigestion and Dyspepsia, a combination of natural digestants and vegetable acids, digests the food itself and gives strength and health to the stomach. Pleasant to take. Sold by Upchurch Drug Co.

They Satisfy

Maybe you have been put to a great deal of expense and inconvenience by buying shoes that did not fit, did not hold their shape, did not wear well or likely the soles on some of them shoes ripped and pulled off.

We have a line that will from the start, no "breaking in" necessary.

They will hold their shape as they are honestly made by expert shoe makers in specially equipped factories.

Bound to wear well for the best leather and material is used in every pair.

No chance for the soles to rip off for they are put on with a clinch fastening.

This is a shoe to economy in service and dress wear too.

They are made of box calf, the leather that polishes easily and wears so long.

You had just as well have "OUR FAMILY" shoes, as satisfaction and pleasure is in every pair and pay no more than for the ordinary kind.

Men's $3.00 to $3.50
Boys' $2.50 to $2.75
Women's $1.75 to $2.00
Misses' $1.50 to $1.65
Children's $1.10 to $1.25

J. C. JONES, Clanton

"We Walk On Shoes, So Can You."

Prepare at Once to Visit the Second Annual

Alabama Agricultural FAIR MONTGOMERY Oct. 24 to Nov. 2

Positively the finest Agricultural and Live Stock exhibit ever held south. A marvelously interesting and practical collection of Farm Implements; Splendid Horse Racing daily; the greatest Midway of the day, and an unrivaled Musical program every afternoon and night by Ricci's Imperial Italian Band, (recognized by the Musician's Union.) Interest all your friends and acquaintances, and bring your own family. Help make this great undertaking the success it deserves.

Free Attractions consist of the most thrilling exhibition of high wire walking, acrobatics, and the most entertaining commedians in the country. Ample accomodations await each and every visitor. For new premium list address,

Alabama Agricultural Association
MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA
ROBERT TAIT, Secretary

Consumption is less deadly than it used to be.

Certain relief and usually complete recovery will result from the following treatment:

Hope, rest, fresh air, and—Scott's Emulsion.

ALL DRUGGISTS: 50c. AND $1.00.

Constipation.

Health is [illegible] if constipation be present. Many serious cases of liver and kidney complaint have sprung from neglected constipation, such a deplorable condition is unnecessary. There is a cure for it. Herbine will speedily remedy matters. C. A. Lindsay, P. M., Bronson, Fla., writes, Feb. 12, 1902: "[illegible] used Herbine, I find it a fine medicine for Constipation." 50c a bottle. Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

"STAR BRAND SHOES ARE BETTER"

They Satisfy

Maybe you have been put to a great deal of expense and inconvenience by buying shoes that did not fit, did not hold their shape, did not wear well and likely the soles on some of those shoes ripped and pulled off.

We have a line that will fit from the start, no "breaking in" necessary.

They will hold their shape for they are honestly made by expert shoe makers in specialty factories.

Bound to wear well for the best leather and material is used in every pair.

No chance for the soles to rip off for they are put on with a clinch fastening.

This is a shoe to economize in service and dress wear too.

They are made of box calf, the leather that polishes nicely and wears so long.

You had just as well buy "OUR FAMILY" shoes, get satisfaction and pleasure from every pair and pay no more than for the ordinary kind.

Men's $3.00 to $3.50
Boys' $2.50 to $2.75
Women's $1.75 to $2.00
Misses' $1.50 to $1.65
Children's $1.10 to $1.50

J. C. JONES,
Clanton

"We Walk On Stars. So Can You."

...to Visit the Second Annual

...a Agricultural
...ONTGOMERY
...Oct. 24 to Nov. 2

...st Agricultural and Live Stock ...h. A marvelously interesting and ...of Farm Implements; Splendid ...the greatest Midway of the day, ...ical program every afternoon and ...perial Italian Band, (recognized ...nion.) Interest all your friends ...nd bring your own family. Help ...ertaking the success it deserves.

...ns consist of the most thrilling exhibition of high wire walking, aerobatics, and the most entertaining ...try. Ample accomodations await each ...r new premium list address,

...ricultural Association
...GOMERY, ALABAMA
... TAIT, Secretary

Constipation.

Health is absolutely impossible if constipation be present. Many serious cases of liver and kidney complaint have sprung from neglected constipation—such a deplorable condition is unnecessary. There is a cure for it. Herbine will speedily remedy matters. C. A. Lindsay, P. M., Brenton, Fla., writes, Feb. 12, 1902: "Having used Herbine, I find it a fine medicine for Constipation." 50c a bottle. Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

...OWN ITEMS

...court week opened ...day, first Monday in ...Monday in June opened ...Monday in November.

...OTTON MART
...11¼ @ 11½c
...last year 9 @ 9½c
...ceipts
...Wednesday.... 285

...Hubbard of Jemison ...Clanton this week.

...Mrs. T. A. Carry visiting ...last week.

...read the Fay Sholes

...of Mississippi spent ...his mother, Mrs. ...place.

...Sunday school class of ...will have a "candy ...old school house Fri... Sept. 27th from 7 to ...the benefit of the Or... Everybody invited. ...cents.

...WANT a Good Meal ...eats? Call on me ...near depot. I will ...ed to lodge boarders ...B. S. STEVENS.

...ter D. Seed, State ...pent a short time in ...day evening, on his ...Jemison, where he had ...Teachers' Institute.

...Cooley is visiting ...mingham.

...tain Pen you want ...them at Upchurch ...all prices and of the

...has sold his resi... Moses Robinson, who ...into it shortly.

...Barley, Clover and ...rence Drug Store.

...Mahan has taken pos... of his new houses on ...which he will occupy ...Giles.

...Jones returned Satur... visit of several days to

...THE NEW STORE— ...doz., Good Coffee, ...00; Best Granulated ...for $1.00. Highest ...Country Produce and

...W. REYNOLDS & Co.

...Higgins, Sr., a subscriber from Coosa, was ...Monday.

...C. Matthews left for ...Monday evening, to ...versity of Pennsylva... not be home again ...July. We wish him ...at the University.

...McDaniel is visiting ...Montgomery.

...& Sons' Wagons ...ay.

...Gullahorn and children returned home, after ...most delightful summer ...Mill.

...Muse is receiving a ...new fall and winter ...Mrs. G. L. Phillips ...her again and will be ...at on her old custom...

...Mason of the Univers..., with his mother, ...of Columbiana, visiting ...'s family Friday and

...J. A. Hester will ...son Joseph William.

...George returned Friday ...three weeks visit to ...ney.

...per is visiting relatives ...county.

...Wilder has moved to ...place.

...spent a part of ...Selma.

...Muse returned from ...Wednesday where she ...the last two weeks, ...stock of millinery.

...RAZOR from the ...Co.—the three ...guaranteed for three

...ses have been issued ...the Probate Judge to ...persons.

...Henry and Miss Onnel: ...Ray and Miss Gusta ...C. Edwards and Miss ...George Henry and Miss ...

...Daniels and Kate ...

...worn out by the ...baby have found cas... and a blessing. Cas... babies and children, ...good for the ills ...hot weather. Look ...printed on the ...no harmful drugs. ...drug co.

Now is the Time

We are now ready to show you a full line of Clothing, Shoes, Hats, and complete line of Dress Goods.

Furniture, Stoves, Sewing Machines, etc.

Tennessee and Fish Wagons.

Everything to make your home and farm complete. Give us a trial and if we can't sell you we will be badly mistaken.

E. M. PINCKARD & CO.
CLANTON

Mr. G. W. Willis of Route 5 was a pleasant caller Saturday.

City Marshal Hill of Calera was in town Saturday.

Mr. J. D. Eiland of Montgomery visited relatives here Friday.

Col. Francis G. Caffey, of New York, is visiting relatives at his old home at Verbena.

Dr. V. J. Gragg of Shelby was in town Monday.

THE HOME FOLKS.

Grandfather, grandmother, father mother, brother and sister can all be fitted out in the same kind of shoes in the "Our Family" line. They are limited in price but have unlimited wearing qualities.

J. C. JONES, Clanton.

MARRIED

On the 20th inst at Birmingham, Mr. D. N. Riggins and Miss Helene Hylden were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, and will be at home to their friends in Clanton after Nov. 1st. Our congratulations to the happy couple.

The Touch That Heals

Is the touch of Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's the happiest combination of Arnica flowers and healing balms ever compounded. No matter how old the sore or ulcer Bucklen's Salve will cure it. For burns, scalds, cuts, wounds or piles, it has no equal. Guaranteed by Upchurch Drug co. 25c

P. L. CASTER — J. P. HARGROVE

CLANTON FURNITURE CO.

DEALERS IN

Furniture, Stoves, Lamps, Clocks, Shades, Matting, Rugs and Mirrors

Furnishing Goods of every kind. Needles and Supplies for all Sewing Machines. We also do Repairing, Upholstering and Refinishing. We sell cheap for cash or on easy payments.

TRY OUR 5 & 10 CENT BARGAIN COUNTER

Your patronage solicited.

CLANTON — ALABAMA

MOVED!

I have moved to my new store by the post office, where I can show you the best stock of Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Silverware, Optical Goods, etc., ever shown in Shelby county. I have the best equipped repair shop in this part of the State.

BRING ME YOUR WORK.

LOOK FOR THE BIG WATCH SIGN

J. W. MARTIN

THE JEWELER BY THE POST OFFICE

Calera, Ala.

The Calera Machine Repair Shop

is now open for General Repair Work. We repair Engines, Boilers, Saw Mills or any other Machinery that comes to hand. We guarantee all our work.

We also buy second hand machinery of all kinds.

We do all kinds of Pipe work.

We are also prepared with all Modern Tools, and have an expert Saw Hammerer who will straighten your Crooked Saws, and will Gum and Dress them, so that they will run and cut good smooth lumber and use 20 per cent less power.

We repair all kinds of Household Goods.

We do all kinds of Round Wood Turning, from an Ornamental Column to a Shelf Spindle.

In short, we are here for business and to do you good.

We solicit a trial.

THE CALERA MACHINE REPAIR SHOP

CALERA, ALA.

A Sewing Machine

well made, nicely finished, has improvements over the old styles, runs easily and quietly, low cost, but good work and quality.

Come in and examine it, you will be surprised at our good value for $18.00.

SPIGENER & JONES
The Hardware Store
CLANTON

TAX NOTICE.

A sessor's and Collector's
FIRST ROUND.

We will attend at the following times and places for the purpose of collecting the State and county taxes of this county, for the year 1907, and assessing the taxes for the year 1908.

	1907
Kingston	first 6	October	1
Pletcher	" 8	"	2
Six Bale	" 8	"	3
Shelby	" 7	"	4
Maplesville	" 7	"	5
Browns	" 3	"	7
Macedonia	" 8	"	8
Providence	" 2	"	9
Jemison	" 2	"	10
Mineral Springs	" 1	"	11
Flint Hill	" 11	"	12
Thorsby	" 9	"	14
Cane Creek	" 4	"	15
Clanton	" 4	"	16
Cooper	" 10	"	17
Verbena	" 5	"	18

L. B. POUNDS, Tax Assessor.
T. I. HUBBARD, Tax Collector.

She Found Relief

If you are troubled with liver complaint and have not received help read this. Mrs Mary E. Hammond, Moody, Texas, "I was in poor health—with liver trouble—for over a year. Doctors did me no good and I tried Herbine, and three bottles cured me. I can't say too much for Herbine, as it is a wonderful liver medicine. I always have it in the house. Publish where you wish. Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Program Sunday School Convention of District 6, to be held at Pilgrims Rest church, two miles south of Pletcher, on Sunday, September 29, 1907.

9:30 a.m. Devotional exercises, conducted by W. T. Herrod.

10. "The Sunday school as an important work in the church," R. P. Kendrick and others.

10:30. "The duty of a pastor to Sunday school, T. L. Deason, J. L. Doramus.

11. Sunday school mass meeting.

12. Adjourn for dinner.

1:30 p.m. Song service conducted by R. J. Langston.

1:45. Call for reports of Sunday schools.

2:00. "Why should all Christians go to Sunday school?" J. F. Deason, T. G. Milling.

We cordially invite all Sunday school workers to take part with us.

J. F. JOHNSON, Pres.
J. T. JONES, Sec.

Lost and Found.

Lost, between 9:30 p.m., yesterday and noon to day, a bilious attack with nausea and sick headache. This loss was occasioned by finding at Upchurch drug store a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. Guaranteed for biliousness, malaria and jaundice. 25c.

Mill Dam.

The health of this community is very good at present. Everybody is busy picking cotton; cotton is very good in this community, and corn is also very good.

Our Sunday school is progressing nicely under the careful management of Bro. Popwell. Best wishes to the Banner and many readers.

A READER.

SINGING CONVENTION.

The sixth session of the No. 3 Singing Convention convened at Mountain Springs, Sept. 14-15. We tender our thanks to the good people of Mountain Springs for their excellent deportment.

Music by Rev. N. A. Dobbs; prayer by R. J. Langston, president. After which the president appointed a committee of three to arrange for leaders, as follows: Rev. Retherford, A. E. Teel and T. J. Jackson. Leaders: R. J. Langston, Wm. Lambert, Rev. N. A. Dobbs, T. J. Jackson, A. E. Teel, A. A. Jackson, Rev. Lolley, J. H. Willoughby, G. W. Williams, J. H. Williams, and closed by the president, R. J. LANGSTON.

W. Q. SANDERS, Sec.

We wish to say in behalf of our brother, R. J. Langston, who was elected president, that he deserves much credit for the repetition of those mighty Scriptural and spiritual songs which have been handed down from our ancestors and likewise to us, that the churches' desolation may depart. Officers elected for 1908: J. H. Williams, president; Rev. N. A. Dobbs, vice-president; W. Q. Sanders, secretary; T. C. Jackson, assistant.

KILL THE COUGH AND CURE THE LUNGS

WITH Dr. King's New Discovery

FOR COUGHS, COLDS, HEMORRHAGES, HOARSENESS, LA GRIPPE, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP AND ALL THROAT AND LUNG TROUBLES.

GUARANTEED SATISFACTORY OR MONEY REFUNDED.

Schloss, in Dutch, means a Castle

Schloss, in English, means Good Clothes

Krump on the Korner Got 'em

Come in and Get 'em Then Wear 'em

'Gin the Law Not to Wear 'em

A suit of 'em would get Crichton off. Try 'em!

KRUMP
ON THE KORNER
MAPLESVILLE - - ALA.

—GO TO—

A. M. JOHNSON
—MANAGER OF—
THE CASH GROCERY STORE
THORSBY, ALA.
FOR BARGAINS IN
Staple and Fancy Groceries

We make a specialty of Fresh Fish and Oysters, Fresh Pork Link and all kinds of Sausage, Breakfast Bacon, Boneless Ham and ...

—DELICATESSEN—

Pop, Soda Water and Jersey Butter always on hand.

Country Produce Bought, Sold and Exchanged.

Notice.

Real Estate, Fire, Life Insurance and Singer Machines.

I have on hand now some nice and convenient places for rent and some extra bargains in real estate. I also represent several leading fire insurance companies, and the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co.

My High Arm Singer Machine Stock is complete; Machines that sew perfect, run lighter and last longer than any other make. Remember, too, the price has been cut and you can get any terms you wish, monthly or annual payments. Also $5.00 allowance for your old machine.

Several good second hand Machines on hand at a bargain.

Needles, Bands, Cams, Attachments, and the only genuine Machine Oil made, 10 and 25c bottles.

I also represent the Jesse French Piano & Organ Co. When you need anything in my line, call on me at same old stand. Regular office days Friday, Saturday and Monday of each week.

C. R. MULLINS
CLANTON

JUST RECEIVED. NOTHING BETTER

Don't fail to call and see our

Forest City Brand Over and Under Shirts

A complete line of Winter Underwear for Men, Women and Children

The Finest Line of Metropolitan Dress Shirts Everything in this line is complete. Also in Overalls and Pants

A SPECIAL LINE OF CHINAWARE.
SEE US BEFORE YOU BUY.

HEADLEY BROS.
GENERAL MERCHANDISE
ON THE CORNER — CLANTON

TO PUBLISHERS AND PRINTERS

We Manufacture the Very Highest Grade of

Type, Brass Rule in Strips, Brass Labor Saving Rule, Brass Column Rules, Brass Circles, Brass Leaders Brass Round Corners, Brass Leads and Slugs, Brass Galleys, Metal Borders, L. S. Metal Furniture, Leads and Slugs, Metal Leaders, Spaces and Quads, 6 to 48 point, Metal Quoins, etc.

Old Column Rules refaced and made as good as new at a small cost.

Please remember that we are not in any Trust or Combination and are sure that we can make it greatly to your advantage to deal with us.

A copy of our Catalogue will be cheerfully furnished on application.

PHILADELPHIA PRINTERS' SUPPLY CO.

Manufacturers of

Type and High Grade Printing Material

PROPRIETORS PENN TYPE FOUNDRY — 20 North Ninth Street PHILADELPHIA

WOMAN IS TORTURED TO DEATH AT ZION CITY

Five Persons Have Been Put Under Arrest

AND TOGETHER WITH HER

Son and Daughter Arrested as Result of Death—It Is Said That They Had More to Do With It Than They Should.

Chicago—Mrs. Letitia Greenhaugh, aged 64, a follower of the Parhamite sect at Zion City, was tortured to death by five other believers in the same religion in their effort to cure her of rheumatism. Five persons are now under arrest, including the aged woman's son and daughter, Walter and Jennie. The principals in the tragedy, who are also being held for manslaughter, are Harold Mitchell and his wife.

The woman died on Wednesday. As soon as the death became known to Wilbur Glen Voliva he notified the county officials at Waukegan and an inquest was started. The son of the woman admitted the entire horrible scene in which his mother's bones were crushed and she was choked to death in the effort to "cast out the devil."

The son testified that Mitchell and his wife came to him with a story that in a vision they learned they could cure the aged mother of rheumatism, which had crippled her arms and legs. All day Wednesday, he testified at the inquest, Mitchell pulled at his mother's arms and legs and neck, until both arms and legs were fractured and her neck was broken.

She bled, screamed and fought, he said, but Mitchell and his wife continued the torture.

"That is the demon leaving her," said Mitchell.

Walter Greenhaugh was on the witness stand for two hours. He was questioned by Deputy Coroner Edward Conrad.

CAN NOT BREAK TREATY.

This is Opinion of Jap Consul on Canadian Affair.

Ottawa, Ont.—"That treaty can not be broken," said Japanese Consul General Nosse to a reporter when asked for an expression of opinion regarding the resolution which the Dominion trades and labor congress has forwarded to Sir Wilfred Laurier.

He referred to the Japanese treaty, and explained that it was signed some twelve months ago, was for four years, and hence, in his opinion, can not be broken for at least three years yet.

At the trades congress, which five Ottawa delegates are attending, a strong resolution was passed touching on the Asiatic problem, protesting against Japanese coming to Canada, and calling on the premier to at once take steps to have the British government give the necessary six months' notice to have the British-Japanese treatey abrogated. While it is hardly likely such a radical change can be made, the Japanese consul's answer is interesting, as it practically amounts to an assertion that the treaty can not be abrogated at present.

Mr. Ishii, the Japanese envoy, who has been here to discuss the Japanese question with the premier, left Thursday for Chicago.

Fists and Chairs Used.

New York.—The Hoboken, N. J. democratic city convention developed into a fight between two factions in which delegates used their fists, chairs and other objects. The police tried to stop the fight, but were outnumbered. After the fight the delegates held separate conventions on the same stage and named two city tickets. The trouble started over the efforts of adherents of Patrick J. Griffin, who aspires to be leader of the party in the city, to defeat Maurice J. Stack and his supporters.

Carrie Nation Sentenced.

Washington.—In the police court Mrs. Carrie Nation refused to promise not to talk to crowds on the streets in the future and was sent to the work house for seventy-five days in default of the payment of a fine of $25. She was arrested for disorderly conduct.

Sanitation in Cuba.

Washington.—The sanitary condition at the various army posts in Cuba is very good, according to the report of the chief surgeon of the army of Cuban pacification. These conditions, it is said, have steadily improved since the occupation by United States troops. Eighteen deaths occurred during that time, principally from typhoid fever. The ratio of deaths to the command was 3.35 per thousand of mean strength.

Jabbed Out Mule's Eyes.

Louisville, Ky.—The humane society is investigating Henry Payne, a negro, on the charge of having jabbed out the eyes of a mule he was driving with a shovel because the animal was not inclined to obey.

Miners to Test the Law.

Fort Smith, Ark.—The Hoffman Coal Company has brought suit against the Arkansas Valley Coal Company to test the Arkansas anti-trust law.

ON A CHARGE OF CONSPIRACY.

Congressman, a Former State Treasurer, an Architect, Contractors.

Harrisburg, Pa.—The long expected arrest of those held to be responsible for the frauds committed in the furnishing and decorating of Pennsylvania's $12,000,000 capitol were made Wednesday, the attorney general causing warrants to be issued for fourteen of the eighteen persons and firms named by the capitol investigating committee all being involved in the scandal.

All the defendants are charged with conspiracy to cheat and defraud the state by making false invoices which were approved by Houston and Shumaker. Charges of obtaining money by false pretense were also entered against Sanderson, Congressman Cassel, Payne and Wetter, it being alleged they furnished fictitious bills for a greater amount than they were entitled to receive under their contracts.

The action was the outcome of an allegation made by State Treasurer William H. Berry during the campaign of 1906. He startled the state by charging that according to the state treasury books the furnishing of the state capitol had cost $12,000,000 and not $5,100,000 as had been generally believed, and that $9,000,000 of the money went to furnish the building. He charged that $5,000,000 of the $9,000,000 was "pure graft." Governor Pennypacker, other state officials and the contractors denied the charges, but the agitation for an investigation, which immediately began, continued until the last legislature appointed a commission to investigate the whole affair.

BRITISH NAVY ON COLOR LINE.

Refuse to Allow Black Boy to Become a Tar.

London.—Color is a bar to entrance to the British navy.

This the Strand Guardians have discovered. They had a colored lad at the union school who was desirous of joining the West India regiment, but objections were raised. Then he wanted to enter the navy, and he was sent to the Exmouth training ship with that object; but officialdom decreed that there was small chance of his being allowed to enter the navy, though permission was offered to remain on the Exmouth till he reached 16 years of age.

The board decided that as color was apparently a bar to the boy's entry to the navy, and he was not desirous of joining the mercantile marine, steps should be taken, if possible, to accept one of the offers which have been made from prominent quarters to find the lad, who is very intelligent, employment or apprenticeship.

WHO KILLED HIM?

A Woman Says That Turner Igo Killed Governor Goebel.

Richmond, Ind.—Mrs. Lulu Clark is said to have made an affidavit charging Turner Igo, of Farmers, Rowan county, Kentucky, with the killing of the late Governor William Goebel, of Kentucky.

Mrs. Clark's affidavit, taken in Indianapolis on April 11, 1907, and published this afternoon, created a profound sensation. It was written in the law offices of Former Governor W. S. Taylor.

Upon the day of the murder, in company with her cousin, Gertrude King, who had been keeping company with John Stanford, of Covington, Ky., she went to Frankfort, Ky. When about to enter the court house they heard a shot. Just inside the door they saw Stanford. Another man Turner Igo, came running out with a rifle and said to Stanford:

"I got the ——"

Mrs. Clark also said that Stanford had told her previously that he intended to kill Goebel.

14 PLUNGED TO DEATH.

Men Were Being Lowered Into a Mine—Many Others Injured.

Marquette, Mich.—A cage filled with men being lowered into a mine at Negaunee fell to the bottom of the shaft and fourteen men were killed and a number injured.

The steel cable broke and the cage dropped 700 feet. The bodies have been taken out and the injured are being cared for.

The mine is the property of the Jones-Maclaughlin Steel Company.

Frost in Nebraska.

Omaha, Neb.—Light frosts fell in different parts of Nebraska Sunday night. Temperature falling as low as 4 degrees above zero. The frost will be of great benefit to corn.

Ravages of Cholera in Russia.

St. Petersburg.—Up to the present 4,312 cases of cholera has been reported in the affected districts of Russia. Of this number 2,120 were fatal.

Like a Royal Function.

Mexico City.—When asked as to the probable cost to the government of the elaborate entertainment which is being planned for Secretary Root, a high official said that it would amount to not less than $100,000, and probably more. This is not counting the large number of private entertainments that are being planned. Many of the City of Mexico's 400 are receiving gowns ordered from Paris for the functions which are to take place.

UNCLE SAM LAUGHS LAST.

—Cartoon by Rogers, in the New York Herald.

FARMERS REBEL AT PURE MILK RULE

Health Department Says Hair on Cow's Tail and Flank Must Be Cut and Lights Put in Troughs--Clean Suits For Milkers.

Florida, N. Y.—Farmers in New York State are receiving from the New York Department of Health letters setting forth the requirements of the department necessary to insure a pure milk supply for the New York City market. The requirements run all the way from cleaning the window panes of the cowpen to cutting the cow's hair.

One farmer who had received a list of the department's requirements declares that if some of the rules are carried out there will be a serious shortage of milk in the market, as to obey orders would mean a great expense and require so much time attending to the animals that very little profit would result to the owners. The farmer said:

"While the price of milk for the coming six months by one big controlling concern has been advanced sixteen per cent. over last year's price, it must be taken into consideration that the price of the principal feeds has gone up twenty-five per cent."

The same man pointed out that to meet the requirements more help would be required and that all this would eat up the little profit that the cow raiser now makes. In addition it is hard to get competent help.

Too Early For Cleaning.

One requirement to which local farmers make strenuous objection is that requiring that the cowshed be thoroughly cleaned before the cows are milked. As the milking is done very early each morning, perhaps long before daylight, it can be seen that the cleaning process will be almost an impossibility. The farmer is not wealthy, and many of them have not the cash to make the required improvements about their premises.

"Where are our very small present profits to come in?" said an owner of several head after reading the department circular. "Where is the money to come from to put in a 'non-absorbent' floor and six-inch gutters with rounded corners of the non-absorbent material? Are we required to put in lights, so that the feeding troughs be lighted? I am unable to see where it insures pure milk to have the cow see what she is eating, or perhaps have the window clean so that she may gaze pensively over the barnyard while she chews her cud.

"Another requirement is that all the help be provided with clean suits when they go in to make the cows comfortable or relieve them of their milk. My wife would object to that, and farmers' wives never have much to do."

As a general thing the farmers do not believe that epidemic of disease has been caused by the condition of the milk they have sent to the market, and they consider that the Health Department's demands are beyond reason. Already some are determined not to send their milk to New York City, and are arranging to send it elsewhere or dispose of it locally.

Health Department's Requirements.

Some of the requirements of the New York Department of Health follow:

That the floors be constructed of concrete or some non-absorbent material.

That the floors be made water tight and propperly graded.

That the drops or gutters be constructed of concrete, stone, or some non-absorbent material. That they be at least six inches in depth, with all corners rounded.

That the feeding troughs, platforms and cribs be well lighted and kept clean at all times.

That additional windows be installed in the cow barn to provide sufficient light. (Two square feet of window space for each cow to be the minimum).

That the window panes be washed and kept clean at all times.

That the walls and ledges be thoroughly swept down and kept free from dust, dirt or cobwebs at all times.

That an inspection of the herd by a veterinarian be made and a copy of his report forwarded to this department.

That the long hairs on the flanks and tail be clipped and kept short at all times.

That clean, special suits be provided for all the attendants engaged in the production and handling of milk.

That the milk at all times be strained at the milk house, and in an atmosphere free from dust or odors.

That the milk pails used be of the small-mouthed design, so constructed that they can be readily and thoroughly cleaned, and top opening not to exceed eight inches in diameter.

That racks be provided in some suitable place so as to expose the milk pails to the sun or to live steam.

That a milk house be built and located on elevated ground, with no hog pen within 100 feet.

The New York Health Department's instructions tell the farmer in conclusion that no milk on his premises will be permitted to be brought into the city of New York unless conditions are remedied within a certain time.

A NICE YOUNG MAN.

Oklahoma's Constitution is strictly prohibition.—News Item.

—Cartoon from the Pittsburg Press.

ROCKEFELLER OWNS 247,692 OIL SHARES

Books of the Standard Indicate There Are 2000 Stockholders.

DOZEN MEN IN FULL CONTROL

Light Thrown on Monopoly's Immense Income at Hearing of Government's Suit in New York City —$900,000,000 in Dividends.

New York City.—For the first time in the history of Standard Oil the identity of the largest stockholders in the trust was divulged. This was one of many surprises in the testimony brought out by Frank B. Kellogg, counsel for the Government in its suit to dissolve the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey on the ground that it is a trust and is operating in violation to the Sherman anti-trust law.

It was known that John D. Rockefeller was by far the largest holder of Standard Oil stock, and that his stock in fact represented about one-fourth of the total amount in the company, but as to other stock ownership the public could only guess.

Mr. Kellogg says he will show by the list of present stock ownership that the most important stockholders of to-day are the same as in the old unlawful corporation, and that there have been but few changes either in stock holdings or management since the old Oil Trust was dissolved.

More than one-half of the shares of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, which earned profits of nearly $500,000,000 in eight years, are held by ten men and estates.

Accountants who are working under the direction of Kellogg have found also that since the formation of the original combination in Ohio, in 1882, the profits of the oil monopoly have amounted to $900,000,000.

From the books of the New Jersey Standard Kellogg brought to light the present stock holdings of the oil magnates. There are in round numbers 2000 stockholders, but a round dozen men absolutely control the organization with all its vast capital and earnings.

John D. Rockefeller heads the list with 247,692 shares, indicating that the Oil King has reduced his holdings by 9162 shares, his portion of the liquidating certificates, reported in a recent paper, was allotted to him. The estate of Charles H. Pratt controls 52,582 shares, the D. M. Harkness estate 42,000 shares, Oliver H. Payne 40,000, Henry M. Flagler 30,000.

By this list, which is the stockholders' record of August 17, 1907, it is shown that William Rockefeller, brother of le Roi du Petroleum, as the French call John D., owns only 11,700, and H. H. Rogers, to the surprise of the Street, only 16,020. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., possesses only 120 shares, and his wife 32, while H. H. Rogers, Jr., has to his credit 1059 shares. Another great surprise is that John D. Archbold, to many regarded as the logical successor to John D. Rockefeller, owns only 6000 shares of the stock.

One surprising development of the Standard Oil inquiry was that H. H. Rogers, who all along has been classed as the third largest holder of the Oil Trust stock and rated as an "Oil King," really owns only 16,020 shares. His son, H. H. Rogers, Jr., holds 1050, and Mrs. Rogers 225, so that the family has only 17,295.

It would appear from the above combined figures that Rockefeller has received from the Standard Oil in twenty-four years from 1882 to 1906, something like $142,499,954. The published list of his benefactions, so far as a record is obtainable of them, amounts to $102,055,000, or something over three-fifths of his entire income from Standard Oil stock.

LEADING HOLDINGS IN OIL TRUST; THEIR VALUE AT PRESENT

In the course of the day's proceedings in the United States Government's suit to dissolve the Standard Oil Trust, the Federal representative, Deputy Attorney Frank B. Kellogg, developed the following interesting facts: The leading shareholders of record last month. The value of their respective holdings at current quotation is also given:

	No. of Shares.	Value.
John D. Rockefeller	247,692	$[illegible]
Charles H. Pratt	52,582	[illegible]
D. M. Harkness estate	42,000	[illegible]
Oliver H. Payne	40,000	[illegible]
Henry M. Flagler	30,500	[illegible]
O. H. Jennings estate	17,000	[illegible]
H. H. Rogers	16,020	[illegible]
J. A. Bostwick estate	15,000	[illegible]
William Rockefeller	11,700	[illegible]
C. M. Brewster estate	10,000	[illegible]
Charles Lockhart	8,500	[illegible]
L. C. Bedyard and Payne Whitney	8,000	[illegible]
William C. Whitney estate	8,000	[illegible]
Wesley H. Tilford	6,000	[illegible]
John D. Archbold	6,000	[illegible]
W. G. Werden	5,838	[illegible]
University of Chicago	5,000	[illegible]
Charles M. Pratt	5,000	[illegible]
Daniel O'Day estate	2,055	[illegible]
Standard Oil's Capital	983,383	$[illegible]

New Christian Science By-Law.

The Christian Science Church issued a new by-law requiring that in all cases when Scientists die suddenly every assistance shall be given the State and city authorities to determine the cause of death.

CARRIE NATION TO WORKHOUSE.

She Rejected Offer of the Court to Accept Her Bonds Not to Repeat.

Washington, D. C.—Mrs. Carrie Nation, who was arrested for lecturing a crowd from the steps of the Postoffice Department Building, rejected the offer of Police Judge Mundy to accept her personal bond not to repeat the offence, and, declining to pay the fine of $25 he imposed for the charge of disorderly conduct, was sent to the workhouse for seventy-five days.

REPUBLICANS [illegible]

Resigns From Supreme Bench For Governor in Texas.

Trenton, N. J.—Justice Franklin Fort, of [illegible], nominated for Governor by the State Convention [illegible] House. He is ex-[illegible] being brought before [illegible] but before he presented [illegible] nomination, he [illegible] tion to Gov. Stokes' [illegible] platform. Former [illegible] John W. Griggs was [illegible] permanent chairman.

Justice Fort obtained [illegible] on the informal ballot, [illegible] more than a clear majority [illegible] were 1157 delegates [illegible] make the nomination [illegible] prevailed.

The platform indorses [illegible] and State administration [illegible] dent Roosevelt and [illegible] claims all the credit [illegible] legislation and good [illegible] the State. It favors [illegible] of the United States [illegible] viding for the direct election [illegible] ed States Senators, [illegible] legislation relative to [illegible] favors vesting in the [illegible] power to revise primary [illegible] elections, to order a new [illegible] seat the property [illegible] Proper legislation for [illegible] public utilities is promised; [illegible] lar legislation on [illegible] tion of Assemblymen is [illegible] favored. Fiscal reform, [illegible] solidation of departments [illegible] missions of the State [illegible] declared wise.

The New York [illegible] and public utilities [illegible] more specific and [illegible] voted down.

PRESIDENT WHI[illegible]

Mr. Roosevelt to Have Days of Uninterrupted

Oyster Bay, N. Y.—[illegible] announced his formal [illegible] the invitation extended [illegible] time ago to go on a [illegible] Louisiana during his [illegible] the Mississippi journey, [illegible] quence of that acceptance [illegible] in the canebrakes [illegible] 21. The details of the [illegible] journ, which is to be [illegible] ing expedition," have [illegible] worked out and the [illegible] the President and his [illegible] pitch their tents is [illegible] It is said that it will be [illegible] the northeastern section [illegible] near enough to a telephone [illegible] Assistant Secretary [illegible] be stationed within reach [illegible] in touch with official [illegible] need arises, yet far enough [illegible] the President to enjoy [illegible] of uninterrupted repose [illegible] friends if public business [illegible] require his attention.

YOUNG ROCKEFE[illegible]

Victim of Nervous Dyspepsia Made Fatal [illegible]

New York City.—[illegible] feller, Jr., thirty-four [illegible] and the wealthiest man [illegible] of his age, has [illegible] work and is bordering [illegible] breakdown from nervous [illegible] such as forced the [illegible] elder Rockefeller [illegible] and drove him to a [illegible] diet.

The fact of young [illegible] condition became known [illegible] ously with the announcement [illegible] no longer would he [illegible] Young Men's Bible Class [illegible] Avenue Baptist Church, [illegible] millionaire admits his [illegible] the letter of resignation [illegible] Bible Class.

N. Y. CENTRAL [illegible]

Penalty For Delayed Trains Every Railroad

Washington, D. C.—[illegible] trains cost the [illegible] nearly $37,000 during [illegible] ended March 31 of [illegible] cally every railroad [illegible] was similarly mulcted, [illegible] amounts vary. The [illegible] came in for its share, [illegible] thousands from [illegible] on one route alone. [illegible] the Southern dropped [illegible] All told, the railroads [illegible] lost over $500,000 [illegible] unsatisfactory handling.

AERONAUT'S FU[illegible]

Five Thousand Dollars Given to County Fair.

Troy, Ohio.—[illegible] Dayton, an aeronaut, [illegible] death from the [illegible] he was descending [illegible] during an ascension [illegible] County fair grounds [illegible] and persons were [illegible] 1000-foot drop while [illegible] young man's legs [illegible]

NEY TROUBLE
Can Truly Be Termed As Three Words.

C. B. FIZER.

C. B. FIZER, Mt. Sterling, Ky., [illegible]
I have suffered with kidney trouble for ten years past. [illegible] commenced using Peruna [illegible] for three months. I have [illegible] since, now have I felt a pain. [illegible] that I am well and I therefore [illegible] unsolicited commendation to the cure [illegible] of Peruna."

Peruna For Kidney Trouble.

C. B. Fizer, Grant, Ontario, [illegible]
I have been well for about four [illegible] kidney trouble, and, in fact, [illegible] daily nearly all the time. [illegible] I got so very bad I would try Peruna, so I wrote to [illegible] at once to take Peruna and [illegible]

Only two bottles of Peruna and [illegible] and now I feel better than [illegible] some time.

I find Peruna and Manalin cures [illegible] a different woman of me al[illegible] I bless the day I picked up the [illegible] and read of your Peruna."

Testimonials of The Hartman Sanitarium.

Peruna Drives From the Blood All Poisonous Matter.

They must be active all the [illegible] the system suffers. There are [illegible] that need a little assistance [illegible] exactly the sort of a remedy [illegible] many people from disaster by [illegible] the kidneys service at a time [illegible] were not able to bear their own [illegible]

S. A. BUSINESS COLLEGE
MACON, GA.
[illegible] Most Expert Faculty
[illegible] "AMERICA'S BEST"
[illegible] FOR CATALOGUE

When The Children
Ask For Candy
Give them
HUSTON'S
Real Brand
Pure Stick
Candy.
It contains nothing but pure, granulated sugar.
It's all right
for them to use.

Absolutely free from the kinds of sweetening
Sold at all Grocery and Drug Stores, in packages

Am. 29, 1907.

WNS

OIL SHARES

ndard Indicate Stockholders.

ULL CONTROL

Monopoly's Im- Hearing of Gov- n New York City in Dividends

DINGS IN OIL TRUST; THEIR VALUE AT PRESENT

ue of the day's proceedings in the hearing of Government's suit to dissolve the Standard ederal representative, Deputy Attorney-G ogg developed the following interesting holders of record last month. The value of dings at its cur quotation is also given:

	No of Shares.	Worth
...eller	247,692	$440
...tt	52,582
...s estate	42,000
...ne	40,000
...gler	30,500
...s estate	17,000
...	16,020
...k estate	15,000
...eller	11,760
... estate	10,000
...art	8,500
...l and Payne Whitney	8,000
...Whitney estate	8,000
...ilford	6,000
...ibold	6,000
...n	5,858
...f Chicago	5,000
...Pratt	5,000
... estate	2,655
...d Oil's Capital	983,383	$132,0

PRESIDENT WILL H...

Mr. Roosevelt to Have... Days of Uninterrupted ...

Oyster Bay, N. Y.—The ... announced his formal ac... the invitation extended to ... time ago to go on a ... Louisiana during his proj... the Mississippi journey, and ... quence of that acceptance ... in the canebrakes from O... 21. The details of the ... journ, which is to be call... ing expedition," have not ... worked out and the exact ... the President and his ... pitch their tents is not ... It is said that it will be ... the northeastern section ... near enough to a telegra... Assistant Secretary ... be stationed within reach ... in touch with official ... need arises, yet far enough ... the President to enjoy ... of uninterrupted recre... friends if public busine... require his attention.

YOUNG ROCKEFELL...

Victim of Nervous Dys... Made Father R...

New York City.—John ... feller, Jr., thirty-four ... and the wealthiest man ... of his age, has succeed... work and is bordering on ... breakdown from nervou... such as forced the retire... elder Rockefeller a dozen ... and drove him to a bread ... diet.

The fact of young Mr. ... condition became known ... ously with the announce... no longer would he be ... Young Men's Bible Class ... Avenue Baptist Church. ... millionaire admits his fa... the letter of resignation ... Bible Class.

N. Y. CENTRAL MA...

Penalty For Delayed Tr... Every Railroad M...

Washington, D. C.—... trains cost the New Y... nearly $37,000 during ... ended March 21 of this ... cally every railroad in ... was similarly mulcted, ... amounts vary. The ... came in for its share, ... thousands from its main ... on one route alone. ... the Southern dropped ... All told, the railroads ... lost over $500,000 ... unsatisfactory handling ...

ON TO WORKHOUSE.

Offer of the Court to ... onds Not to Repeat.

D. C.—Mrs. Carrie ... as arrested for lectur... from the steps of the ... artment Building, re... fer of Police Judge ... pt her personal bond ... he offence, and, declin... fine of $25 he imposed ... of disorderly conduct, ... workhouse for sev...

AERONAUT'S FA...

Five Thousand See Trag... — County Fair ...

Troy, Ohio.—Edward ... Dayton, an aeronaut, ... death from the ... he was descending ... during an ascension ... County fair grounds here ... and persons watched ... 1000-foot drop while ... young man's lapsed ...

REPUBLICANS NAME ...

Resign From Supreme C... For Governor in New ...

Trenton, N. J.—... Franklin Fort, of Bur... nated for Governor by the ... State Convention in ... House. He is ex-Justice ... being brought before the ... but before he proceeded ... nomination, he handed ... tion to Gov. Stokes, who ... platform. Former Attor... John W. Griggs was ... permanent chairman.

Justice Fort obtained ... on the informal ballot, ... more than a clear ma... were 1157 delegates. A ... make the nomination by ... prevailed.

The platform indorses ... and State administration ... dent Roosevelt, and ... claims all the credit for ... legislation and good ... the State. It favors an ... of the United States Co... viding for the direct ele... ed States Senators, ... legislation relative to ... favors vesting in the ... power to review primary ... elections, to order a re... seat the properly elected ... Proper legislation for the ... public utilities is promised ... lar legislation on excise ... tion of Assemblymen by ... favored. Fiscal reform ... solidation of departments ... missions of the State gov... declared wise.

The New-Idea planks on ... and public utilities ... more specific and definite ... voted down.

NEY TROUBLE

Ten Years Relieved In Three Months.

C. B. FIZER.

C. B. FIZER, Mt. Sterling, Ky., writes: "I have suffered with kidney trouble for ten years past. I have commenced using Peruna ... for three months. I have ... that I am well and I therefore ... recommendation to the cura... of Peruna.

...ys For Kidney Trouble.

Geo. H. Sweet, Grant, Ontario, ... not been well for about four ... I had kidney trouble, and, in ... badly nearly all the time. ... summer I got so very bad I ... would not Peruna, so I wrote to ... to take Peruna and ... only two bottles of Peruna and ... Manalin I feel better than ... I have ever felt in my life. I ... Peruna and Manalin cured ... a different woman of me al... I have told many of my ... the benefits I picked up ... of your Peruna."

...the kidneys to ... from the blood all poisonous ... the bowels of the kidneys ... They must be active all the ... the system suffers. There are ... they need a little assistance ... exactly the sort of a remedy ... and many people from disaster by ... the kidneys' service at a time ... were liable to bear their own ...

MA. BUSINESS COLLEGE

MACON, GA.

Most Expert Faculty

AMERICA'S BEST"

WRITE FOR CATALOGUE

MADE FOR SERVICE

and guaranteed absolutely WATERPROOF

OILED SUITS, SLICKERS AND HATS

Every garment guaranteed Clean - Light - Durable

Suits $3.00 Slickers $3.00

...MICA

...xle Grease

...miles off the road, ...weight from the load. ...Helps the team and ...eases the teamster.

Practically destroys friction. Saves half the wear that comes from ...ling over rough roads, ...and lengthens the life ...of a heavy vehicle more ...than any other one thing.

Ask the dealer for Mica Axle Grease.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY

Incorporated

When The Children Ask For Candy

Give them HUSTON'S Seal Brand Pure Stick Candy.

It contains nothing but pure, granulated sugar.

It's all right for them to use.

Absolutely free from the cheaper kinds of sweetening.

Sold at all Grocery and Drug Stores, in packages only.

5¢

...NTERSMITH'S CHILL TONIC

CHILLS FEVER

FASTNET ROCK LIGHTHOUSE.

Incandescent "Mantle" Seen Twenty Miles Away.

For a long time the first terrestrial signal post for which the eastbound transatlantic mariner kept watch was almost invariably the tower on a promontory on the southwestern coast of Ireland. The promontory was rocky and rose to a height of fully one hundred feet. If a steamship was bound for Liverpool it passed to the southward and eastward of Ireland. Though in clear weather observations of the stars and sun give the navigator an accurate idea of his position at sea, he cannot always count on their aid. He therefore welcomes a glimpse of some landmark like a well known lighthouse, which will tell him whether his calculations have been accurate or not. Within the last few months some of the steamships which formerly went to Liverpool have adopted Southampton as their terminal port. Southampton is on the southern shore of England. To reach it vessels follow a course rather more southerly than they did before, and now get their bearings from the Lizard, a projection from the coast of Cornwall, England, but there is still a great deal of use for Fastnet Rock Tower. The first one on that site was built fifty years ago. Having been damaged by storms it usefulness was threatened a few years ago, and a new one was erected beside it and went into service in June, 1904.

The light from the new tower can be seen on a clear night for fully 20 miles, and at 10 miles will actually illuminate a ship as if a naval searchlight had been trained on it. By means of suitable mechanism, flashes lasting one-sixth of a second are emitted at intervals of five seconds, and a sea captain who has his watch in his hand, or a regular ship's chronometer under his eye, can identify the source of the light with certainty, knowing that no other flash of similar duration and with the same frequency is provided in the same neighborhood.

At Fastnet Rock, as in many other modern lighthouses, the illuminating agent is gas, manufactured on the spot through petroleum, and burned under an incandescent "mantle." The latter is a delicate fabric of rare minerals, the chief one being thorium. An Austrian chemist, who was born less than 50 years ago, was the first to discover the brilliancy to be developed by heating this material with an almost non-luminous flame. The principle was first tried in lighting houses and streets, but its use has been extended to lighthouse service. The mantle at Fastnet Rock is three and a half inches high and two inches in diameter, or only a little larger than those employed for less important work, and yet its brilliancy is estimated by experts at 1200 candle power.

The Bright Side.

W. J. Oliver, the lowest bidder for the construction of the Panama Canal, said of a contract that a friend had lost:

"'Oh, well, there's a bright side to everything. Had you gotten this contract you might have lost money on it. All things have their bright side. It is like the case of the rejected suitor.'

"'Oh, Mabel,' the youth moaned, burying his face in his hands, after his rejection, 'make it easier for me to bear, can't you, dear?'

"'Yes, Will,' Mabel gently answered. 'I snore terribly.'"—Washington Star.

When a girl has a broken heart over a man she can't marry, it's a sign her parents will have to buy her some new clothes before she gets over it.

The difference between light-heartedness and heart-lightedness is not always clear, but nevertheless very real.

The less judgment a man has the more he seems inclined to exercise it.

Everybody hates compulsion, but most like to use it.

Sometimes plenty of good bread and butter is all that is necessary to convert a pessimist into an optimist.

Hardly anybody hates his relations enough to be willing to die to get rid of them.

A wedding is a very pleasant affair unless you are the bridegroom.

A MISSOURI WOMAN

Tells a Story of Awful Suffering and Wonderful Relief.

Mrs. J. D. Johnson, of 602 West Hickman St., Columbia, Mo., says: "Following an operation two years ago, dropsy set in, and my left side was so swollen the doctor said he would have to tap out the water. There was constant pain and a gurgling sensation around my heart, and I could not raise my arm above my head. The kidney action was disordered and passages of the secretions too frequent. On the advice of my husband I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. Since using two boxes my trouble has not reappeared. This is wonderful, after suffering two years."

Sold by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

The Use of Slang.

As we see it, the one valid objection to slang is its use by persons who are slangy and nothing more. In such a case it ceases to be expressive. Pepper and salt crudely applied do not season, but sicken. As a condiment to written speech, especially, it calls for the educated taste of the expert. The writer who would use it effectively must make it plain that his stock of English is pure and abundant. Its skilful employment on the editorial page of The Sun is a joy to the jaded reader; in the hands of the gentlemen who provide the "yellow" press with esoteric essays on sport it is apt to be a weariness to the flesh.—Life.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.

We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by his firm.

WALDING, KINNAN & MARVIN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price, 75c. per bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Brides-to-be are fond of being caught in showers.

Would-be peace-makers harvest anything but peace.

Sweets and the Disposition.

Nothing could be said to greater praise of a people than that they like sweets. It shows a wholesome, vigorous, healthful condition—an appetite not jaded from excessive indulgence. The child whose appetite has not become polluted or callous by false relishes, smarting sauces and burning drinks loves sweets; so does the girl of bright eyes and unstained youth, as is evidenced by her fondness for ice creams and desserts. The young athlete among men loves sweets nearly as well as does the child. But the barroom lounger, the "cigarette fiend," the "dope fiend" and the depraved of all other classes do not like sweets. Long ago their minds and appetites lost the desire for everything pleasing to the natural palate.—From What to Eat.

Weight for weight, pine wood is stronger than steel.

The chief reason a man objects so much to swearing off is that everybody wants him to.

FITS, St. Vitus' Dance: Nervous Diseases permanently cured by Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. $2 trial bottle and treatise free. Dr. H. R. Kline, Ld., 931 Arch St., Phila., Pa.

Fifty-one men in a thousand marry under 21 years of age. The average for women is 168 per 1,000.

Three-quarters of the Englishman's bread comes from abroad and also two-fifths of his meat.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle

A nice thing about a vacation is the good excuses you have to get rested up from it when you are home again.

Generally a girl falls in love with a particular man because there isn't any other handy to fall in love with.

New ten-dollar gold certificates taken on subscription at this office. We want to see one of them.

Some people are pious because it is the only diversion that their temperaments fit them for.

TUMORS CONQUERED

Overwhelming Proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds.

One of the greatest triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the conquering of woman's dread enemy Tumor.

The growth of a tumor is so insidious that frequently its presence is wholly unsuspected until it is well advanced.

So called "wandering pains" may come from its early stages or the presence of danger may be made manifest by excessive monthly periods accompanied by unusual pain, from the abdomen through the groin and thigh.

If you have mysterious pains, if there are indications of inflammation or displacements, secure a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, right away and begin its use.

The following letters should convince every suffering woman of its virtue, and that it actually does conquer tumors.

Mrs. May Fry, of 836 W. Colfax Ave., South Bend, Ind., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I take great pleasure in writing to thank you for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I also took the Blood Purifier in alternate doses with the Compound. Your medicine removed a cyst tumor of four years' growth, which three of the best physicians declared I had. They had said that only an operation could help me. I am very thankful that I followed a friend's advice and took your medicine. It has made me a strong and well woman and I shall recommend it as long as I live."

Mrs. E. F. Hayes, of 26 Ruggles St., Boston, Mass., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I have been under different doctors' treatment for a long time without relief. They told me I had a fibroid tumor, my abdomen was swollen and I suffered with great pain. I wrote to you for advice, you replied and I followed your directions carefully and today I am a well woman. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound expelled the tumor and strengthened my whole system."

Mrs. Perry Byers, of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Sometime ago I wrote you for advice about a tumor which the doctors thought would have to be removed. Instead I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to-day am a well woman."

Mrs. M. M. Funk Vandergrift, Pa., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I had a tumor and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound removed it for me after two doctors had given me up. I was sick four years before I began to take the Compound. I now recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound far and near."

Such testimony as above is convincing evidence that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound stands without a peer as a remedy for Tumor Growths as well as other distressing ills of women, and such symptoms as Bearing-down Sensations, Displacements, Irregularities and Backache, etc. Women should remember that it is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that is curing so many women. Don't forget to insist upon it when some druggist asks you to accept something else which he calls "just as good."

Mrs. Pinkham's Invitation to Women.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice. She is the Mrs. Pinkham who has been advising sick women free of charge for more than twenty years, and before that she assisted her mother-in-law, Lydia E. Pinkham in advising. Thus she is especially well qualified to guide sick women back to health.

PUTNAM FADELESS DYES

Color more goods brighter and faster colors than any other dye. One 10c. package colors all fibers. They dye in cold water better than any other dye. You can dye any garment without ripping apart. Write for free booklet—How to Dye Bleach and Mix Colors. MONROE DRUG CO., Quincy, Illinois.

To Relieve Pain

Sick Women

You should know, if you suffer from any of the pains due to womanly trouble, that it is possible to be relieved or cured by the use of Cardui.

Fifty years, and over, of unexampled success, in the treatment of female ailments, has demonstrated what Cardui can do, for others, since, in that time, it has benefited over a million women.

"Cardui has cured me," writes Mrs. Chas. Williams, of Willow Shoals, Ky., "and I praise it above all other medicines. "Before I began to use it, I was almost dead. I had suffered for five (5) years, with female trouble, experienced deathly pains, every month. I had doctors from different places, but none of them did me any good, and I ran down to 97 pounds.

MRS. C. WILLIAMS
Willow Shoals, Ky.

"At last I wrote you for advice and began to take Cardui. In three months I was like a new woman. I continued to improve and now I am well, weigh 67 1-2 pounds more, than before I began, and am able to do my work." Try it.

FREE BOOK FOR LADIES

Write for Free 64-page Book for Women. If you need Advice, describe symptoms, stating age, and we will reply in plain sealed envelope. Address: Ladies Advisory Dept., The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Take CARDUI

G 148

Mother of Twenty-one Children.

Mrs. Anne R. M. Lycett, the mother of 21 children, who had first and second tables at all meals to accommodate them all, died today at her home, 1512 Henry street. She was 55 years old, and married when 16.

She had always said that she found it no more trouble to raise 21 boys and girls than she did a few. She and her husband started housekeeping at their wedding, and all the 21 were born in one house, 1417 Battery avenue.

Mrs. Lycett was of Irish descent, and her husband, who is an engineer in the Baltimore fire department, was born in Ireland. He is 60 years old. The oldest living child is 35.—Baltimore Dispatch to Phila. North American.

Disposition of Dead Soldiers.

The only good Indian is a dead one—a saying credited to Sherman and Miles, and probably appropriated from some disgusted trooper. In Europe they have less respect for dead soldiers, than we have in this blessed land. There was a bitter war between Russia and Turkey in 1877, in which 225,000 men were slain. In 1881 the bones of 20,000 of these poor devils were shipped to England as fertiliser in the shape of bone dust. No wonder some of the gardens of the tight little island blossom as the rose.

WATCH THE WHITE STAR BUGGY

THE DANDY BUGGY WITH THE A-GRADE WHEELS

Easiest to ride in, hardest to wear out. Every "White Star" axle set true by hand, hubs ground in oil. Unequaled for speed and lightness of draft.

They are Stylish, Staunch and Steady.

Graceful in design, elegant in finish. Possessed of the poise of superiority that makes it a better vehicle than the rest.

Ask your dealer, or write

ATLANTA BUGGY CO., Atlanta, Ga.

Of all bores, the one who continually says the entirely obvious thing in his wondrous way is the worst.

IRRITATED EYES

Get worse and worse the longer you let them go; Leonardi's Golden Eye Lotion cures inflammation and soreness almost pain in one day. Cooling, soothing, strengthening. "Leonardi's"—it means strong eyes. Guaranteed or money refunded. Druggists, pen in 25 cts. or forwarded prepaid on receipt of price by S. B. Leonardi & Co., Temple, Pa.

The chamber of commerce, Cincinnati, has the best restaurant in the city, and it is run by three Scotch women, who make a yearly profit of $15,000, although their annual rental is $5000.

W. L. DOUGLAS $3.00 & $3.50 SHOES BEST IN THE WORLD

SHOES FOR EVERY MEMBER OF THE FAMILY, AT ALL PRICES.

$25,000 Reward

To any one who can prove W. L. Douglas does not make $4 and more Men's $3 & $3.50 shoes than any other manufacturer.

THE REASON W. L. Douglas shoes are worn by more people in all walks of life than any other make, is because of their excellent style, easy-fitting, and superior wearing qualities. The selection of the leathers and other materials for each part of the shoe, and every detail of the making is looked after by the most complete organization of superintendents, foremen and skilled shoemakers, who receive the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and whose workmanship cannot be excelled.

If I could take you into my large factories at Brockton, Mass., and show you how carefully W. L. Douglas shoes are made, you would then understand why they hold their shape, fit better, wear longer and are of greater value than any other make.

Why $4.00 and $3.50 W.L. Douglas shoes cannot be equalled at any price.

CAUTION! The genuine have W. L. Douglas name and price stamped on bottom. Take No Substitute. Ask your dealer for W. L. Douglas shoes. If he cannot supply you, send direct to factory. Shoes sent everywhere by mail. Catalog free. W. L. Douglas, Brockton, Mass.

CRESCENT ANTISEPTIC

GREATEST HEALER KNOWN TO SCIENCE.

Non-Poisonous, Non-Irritating, Allays Inflammation and stops pain from any cause. As strong as carbolic acid and as harmless as sweet milk. Cures burns instantly; cures old and chronic sores; cures sores and inflammation from any cause on man or beast. Heals—cures chafes, sore head and scrap. Guaranteed positively germicidal.

For Sale by all First-Class Dealers. Mfgd. by CRESCENT CHEMICAL CO., Ft. Worth, Texas

Automobiling may be expensive, but it is ballooning that comes high.

You have to sell advice to make anybody believe it is worth following.

Dropsy GIVEN Gives Quick Relief.

TRY THIS

Tobacco Habit, Morphine Habit, Liquor Habit

EASILY CURED

THE OHIO CHEMICAL WORKS

P. O. Box 322 W. TOLEDO, OHIO

You Look Prematurely Old

Because of those ugly, grisly, grey hairs. See "LA CREOLE" HAIR RESTORER. Price, $1.00, retail.

THE COMING SEASON

is one of novelties and of exceptional opportunities for buyers who will make a thorough examination of the New Fall and Winter Goods. The fall of the year necessitates a change of clothing, and when you are changing, why not change into the latest fashions?

We have recently returned from the northern markets, where we bought the finest line of

Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Hats,

UNDERWEAR, NOTIONS, ETC.

that could be found on the market, and offer them to you at prices that will command your attention. Come in and let us show you.

We have entered the cotton market and will pay the highest price for cotton—and the price promises to be high this season.

Also we shall continue to pay highest prices for COUNTRY PRODUCE, WOOL, BEESWAX, HIDES and TALLOW. Bring them in and get cash for them.

PHONOGRAPHS and RECORDS
a Specialty
Come and Hear Them Play

H. KANJUTZKY

CLANTON - - ALA.

Fall and Winter is Upon Us

and we are making our first showing of the New Fall Styles in Clothes for men and boys. They are the newest productions of the best known makes, in all the latest fabrics, shades, and a real treat to the eye of a man who knows good clothes when he sees them. Come in, look, try one and you will be highly pleased.

This is the Season for Hat Changing and nothing can add to your appearance more than a stylish, becoming hat. When you will come in, we will convince you that we have the latest styles.

Furnishing Goods

the little things that go to make up the attire of a well dressed person are to be found here in the newest styles at moderate prices.

Just Received a Beautiful Lot

of Laces, Dress Goods and Lace Collars. Also a complete line of Puritan Corsets.

Fall Models In Footwear

Our line is complete.

Star Brand Shoes are Better

J. C. JONES

CLANTON - - - - - ALA.

SOUTHERN TYPEWRITER EXCHANGE
MONTGOMERY, ALA.
AGENTS

FAY SHOLES TYPEWRITERS

Have you ever "tried out" a Fay Sholes type writer? If not you have missed a treat. The Roller-bearing carriage, ball-bearing basket shift and general light action throughout, makes it the easiest machine to operate of any on the market.

Does your operator look "tried out" at night? Is your work always hanging over a little and reaching into another day? The best remedy for this ailment, is a FAY SHOLES typewriter.

Some of the good points on the Fay Sholes machine:—

Interchangeable carriages—making it possible to write on anything from a postage stamp to a fire insurance policy.

Two-color ribbon. Any combination of colors can be used.

Tabulator on each carriage. This is a saving of $20 to you. Worth to king to you, $1.00.

Full sheet release.

All the principal adjustments on the front of the machine.

Pointer, that always shows exactly where you are going to write. It doesn't show exactly where, but exactly where.

Attachment for writing on ruled paper. Best on the market.

We couldn't name all the good points here, the Editor wouldn't have time to "set them up." We have a catalogue for that purpose. Write for one. Doesn't cost you anything.

SECOND HAND TYPEWRITERS.

We have typewriters of many different makes that have been taken in trade for the FAY SHOLES typewriter. These are put up in good shape and sold at a bargain. Name the machine you want. Don't be afraid to make inquiries. Cash or installment.

TYPEWRITER SUPPLIES.

We can furnish you supplies for any machine that is manufactured, and at as reasonable a price as you can buy them in any part of the country. Send for prices.

TYPEWRITER REPAIRS.

All makes of machines repaired, from the cheapest to the highest priced ones. Our prices are as low as possible, consistent with good workmanship. We don't do cheap work. We do good work, cheap.

We will take your old machine as part pay for a new Fay Sholes typewriter and allow you to pay the balance on easy terms if you desire.

NOTE. The proprietor of "The Banner" uses a Fay Sholes. Ask him about it or ask any Fay Sholes user. Call at the Banner office and Mr. Crichton will show you the FAY SHOLES.

Rev. J. S. PRENTICE.

Editor Banner—Please allow me space in your most valuable and newsy paper to say a few words relative to the Baptist State Convention and some of its great workers.

Among the great preachers of the Convention who delivered excellent sermons, was Rev. J. S. Prentice, of Aldrich, Ala. Rev. Prentice took for his text Isa. lxii:10. "Cast up a highway." He compared the preaching of the gospel to a railway system, of which the preachers were superintendents, the deacons section foremen and the members the section crew. The speaker delivered quite an impressive and instructive sermon. Among the many things worthy of note, he said: "One of the most destructive elements in the denomination or the Christian religion is the minister who preaches more for a blow than to glorify God. Such ministers have their reward. The world rewards them according to their desires. God reserves such men till the day of his wrath." He said, "The ministers do not know what great power of persuasion they possess." He declared that there was among the Baptist ministers some of the greatest men that ever lived. In comparing the craggy difficulties over which he had to climb to make an impression, he said: "Dr. J. T. Simpson had fired the temperance gun, Dr. J. H. Eaton the gatling gun; Dr. E. W. D. Isaac, with rhetorical flights had delivered his most scholastic and matchless speech; Dr. Wm. Bevham, the sky sweeper, with logical and eloquent flow, had swayed the audience before him. But he only wanted to serve notice on the Convention that all the big guns of the Convention had not yet been fired. That the thoughtful worker of these latter days has learned to look to the man who does big things more than to the man who says them. It is men of chaste character and sterling qualities that the Lord Jesus Christ wants to lead His people. A man may be versed in ancient lore, and modern science, but if he has not had the cleansing blood of Christ applied to his soul, he is less than nothing. He becomes like feather edge tight." The speaker then began to describe God's swiftness in judgement. "He makes the winds his horsemen and the clouds his chariots. He sweeps along through flying space, dashing asunder the elements of nature. His countenance shall flash forth like lightening when he comes to gather up those who will be found precious in his sight."

The sermon was frequently applauded by the Convention. Dr. C. M. Wells, Pres. of the Sunday School Convention of the present session said of it: "It was a great masterpiece of plain practical thought and logic." Dr. R. T. Pollard, Pres. of Selma University, said a more eloquent and captivating sermon had not been delivered before the S. S. Convention. Many prominent citizens of Mobile, in which the Convention was in session, congratulated Rev. J. S. Prentice on his masterful efforts and said the Convention had received a rare treat.

Rev. Prentice stands out in bold relief as one of the greatest financiers of the denomination. He is one of the most successful pastors of Alabama. His sermons are characterized with considered thought and deep logical reasoning. He is an ornament to his community and a blessing to the ministry.

Respectfully,
W. J. LAMAR.
Principal District School,
Louisburg, Ala.

If It's a Reputation

you are after, White's Cream Vermifuge has a world wide reputation as the best of all worm destroyers, and for its tonic influence on weak and unthrifty children. It improves the digestion and assimilation of their food, strengthens their nervous system and restores them to health and vigor. Attend to a child if you want a healthy happy child, get a bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge. Sold by Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton; Aldrich Bros., Aldrich.

Non-Resident Notice.

The State of Alabama, Chilton County
Chancery Court, 7th District, Northeastern Division No 14.
H. J. Bell Complainant, vs. Annie May Kendrick, et al, Defendants
In this cause it is made to appear to the Register by the affidavit on file of J. V. Smith, Solicitor for Complainant, that the Defendant, Tim Red Sheffield, one of the parties defendant in the above styled cause, is, in the belief of said affiant, an infant, under the age of fourteen years, a non resident of the State of Alabama, that said infant resides with his grandfather, R. R. Sheffield, in the town of Colquitt, State of Georgia, and that said infant has no legal guardian, and that the father of said infant, R. L. Sheffield, resides in the town of Hon ecuma, State of Georgia and that the interest of said R. L. Sheffield in said cause is the interest of said infant. Affiant further says that the Defendant, R. L. Sheffield, is a non resident of the State of Alabama, over the age of twenty-one years, and resides in the town of Montezuma, in the State of Georgia.

It is therefore ordered by the Register, that publication be made in the Banner a newspaper published in Clanton, Ala., once a week for four consecutive weeks requiring them the said Tim Red Sheffield and R. L. Sheffield, to answer, plead or demur to the bill of complaint in the above cause on or before the 12th day of November, 1907, and failing so to do within thirty days after the service of this summons, which service is perfected Oct. 12, 1907, a decree pro confesso may be taken against them in said cause.

Witness my hand, this 9th day of September, 1907. S. A. STEWART, Register.

Health in the Canal Zone.

The high wages paid make it a mighty temptation to our young artisans to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama canal. Many are restrained however by fear of fevers and malaria. It is the knowing ones—those who have used Electric Bitters, who go there without this fear, well knowing they are safe from malarious influence with Electric Bitters on hand. Cures blood poison too, biliousness, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Guaranteed by Upchurch Drug Co. 50c.

DR. J. EARL COWAN
DENTIST
Office Below Building.
CLANTON, ALA.

One Bottle

of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, used as directed, will give you immediate relief from the inexpressible tortures occasioned by constipation, and its attendant ills.

Continue the use of this wonderful remedy for a time.

It will soon set your system right, when an occasional dose of it will keep your internal organism in the very pink of condition.

Well inside, you're well all over.

Dr. Caldwell's
(Laxative)
Syrup Pepsin

is the best preparation obtainable for all the many ills and ailments arising from overworked or disordered digestive organs.

It acts quickly and surely on the cause of the trouble and its beneficial effects are instantly perceptible.

It will cure the most obstinate cases.

Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin can be obtained in both dollar and half-dollar sizes from all druggists.

Your money will be refunded if it does not benefit you.

Your postal card request will bring by return mail our new booklet, "Dr. Caldwell's Book of Wonders" and free sample to those who have never tried this wonderful remedy. Write today.

PEPSIN SYRUP CO.
Monticello, Illinois

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, mental debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol cures indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does not only cure indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy cures all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

Mr. S. S. Ball, of Ravenswood, W. Va., says—"I was troubled with sour stomach for twenty years. Kodol cured me and we are now using it to cook for me."

Kodol Digests What You Eat.

Regular size $1.00 Size holding 2½ times the trial size, which sells for 50 cents.
Prepared by E. O. DeWITT & CO., CHICAGO.

Upchurch Drug Co.

The First and Last

store in Clanton. If you come from the east it's the first; from the west it's the last.

Our stock of General Merchandise is First in quality and lowest in price.

FINE FAMILY GROCERIES—Always Fresh and Nice.
A fine line of Men's Dress Shirts and Neckwear.

SHOES of the finest quality and the best make. Try a pair.

A general assortment of first-class goods.

B. E. JONES & BRO.

CLANTON - - - - - ALA.

GREATEST FAIR IN THE S

ALABAMA STATE F

BIRMINGHAM ALABAMA

October 8-16, 1907

The Agricultural Exhibits Will be the most comprehensive ever shown in Alabama.

Live Stock and Poultry Exhibits Will be the best.

Mechanical and Mineral Displays Will attract much attention.

Ricci's Premier Band Will give grand [illegible] ternoon and [illegible]
A Great Carnival Of clean, wholesome [illegible] taining [illegible] Magnificent Fireworks And other attractions every night.

THE FREE ATTRACTIONS

will be more numerous and of a better character than [illegible] a State Fair.

FINE RACING PROGRAM. SPECIAL RAILROAD

Write for CATALOGUE and all INFORMATION

GEO. T. BARNES

Secretary and General Mgr., BIRMINGHAM, [illegible]

Will Cure You.

The liver is the main-spring for the whole body. To good health, one must keep the liver in good order. When a regulator is needed. Herbine will put your liver in condition it should be and you will not suffer from headache.

A POSITIVE CURE
FOR CONSTIPATION, CHILLS AND FEVER, BILIOUSNESS, MALARIA AND ALL LIVER COMPLAINTS.

Has Done A World Of Good

Mrs. C. D. Philley, Marble Falls, Texas, writes: "I used Herbine and find it the best liver corrective I have tried. It done my family as well as myself a world of good and I recommend it to all my friends. I never shall have headaches anymore."

50c WILL BUY IT.

Ballard Snow Liniment Co.
500-502 N. Second St., ST. LOUIS, MO.

Sold and Recommended by
UPCHURCH DRUG CO., CLANTON

The Money to Be Saved

by buying your drugs and whiskies at a house like the Collier Drug Co. will be a pleasant surprise to you. We are the largest cut-rate druggists in this section of the State, and can save you many pennies by giving us your business.

Read our prices and put your dollars with us you will receive greatest possible value.

WHISKIES

	Regular Price
Shade Mountain Corn (full quart)	1.00
Old Oscar Pepper, bottled in bond	1.50
Murray Hill Club	1.50
J. Martin Rye	1.50
Atherton Rye	1.00
Duffy's Pure Malt	1.00
California Sherry	1.00
Old Lincoln County	1.00
Private Stock	.75
Virginia Pure Apple Brandy	1.00
Richmond Club	.75
Old Holland Gin	1.00
Wilson	1.00
Green River	1.00
I. W. Harper	.75
Dan Patch	1.00
Real Jesse Four Star	1.00
Old Prentiss

Our package and express department is complete in every respect and all mail orders get prompt and careful attention the day of receipt. Your patronage will be appreciated.

COLLIER DRUG CO.
109-111 NORTH 20th St.
BIRMINGHAM

ST FAIR IN THE SO

BAMA STATE FA

RMINGHAM ALABAMA

October 8-16, 1907

ural Exhibits
c, mischevous n Alabama
Poultry Ex ts hs best and Mineral lays uch attention.

Ricci's Premier Band
Will give grand ternoon and
A Great Carnival
Of clean, wholesome taining
Magnificent
And other attrac evening.

HE FREE ATTRACTIONS

nerous and of a better character than
a State Fair.

PROGRAM. SPECIAL RAILROAD

CATALOGUE and all INFORMATION

GEO. T. BARNES

and General Mgr., BIRMINGHAM, AL

Do not suffer with severe Headaches when

HERBINE

TRADE MARK.

Will Cure You.

the main-spring for the whole body. To one must keep the liver in good order, needed. Herbine will put your liver in uld be and you will not suffer from headache

A POSITIVE CURE

CONSTIPATION, CHILLS AND VER, BILIOUSNESS, MALARIA
D ALL LIVER COMPLAINTS.

Done A World Of Good

. Philley, Marble Falls, Texas, writes: "I ne and find it the best liver corrective I have one my family as well as myself a world of mend it to all my friends. I never suffer anymore."

50c WILL BUY IT.

Hard Snow Liniment Co.
N. Second St., ST. LOUIS, MO

d and Recommended by
COLLIER DRUG CO., CLANTON.

Money to Be Saved

your drugs and whiskies like the Collier Drug Co. will surprise to you. We are the te drug ists in this section d can save you many pennies s your business.

our prices and put your dollars receive greatest possible value.

WHISKIES

	Regular Price
n Corn (full quart)	1.00
per, bottled in bond	1.50
ub	1.25
	1.50
	1.00
Malt	1.00
erry	1.00
ounty	1.00
Apple Brandy	1.50
	75
la	1.25
	1.25
	1.00
	75
ar Star	1.25
	1.50

hage and express department is complete in all mail orders get prompt and careful ot. Your patronage will be appreciated.

COLLIER DRUG CO.

109-111 NORTH 20th St.

NGHAM

THE BANNER

CLANTON, ALA., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1907

Vol. XV No. 51

Peoples Savings Bank of Chilton County.

CLANTON, ALA.

CAPITAL STOCK $50,000.00

Wm. E. Holloway, President.
W. T. Calhoun, Cashier. John A. Thomas, Assistant Cashier

DIRECTORS:

W. T. Calhoun — Wm. E. Holloway — Sam Kaufman
H. H. Martin, Sr. — M. L. Grail — John A. Thomas

There is a number of people who are under an erroneous impression. They think that they never control enough money to start a bank account. In this they are mistaken. We solicit small accounts as well as large. And we handle the business of both with our best care. We believe that you ought to have a bank account, and we beg you our services.

THE CLANTON BANK

CLANTON, ALA.

Many people seem to think that unless they can open a Savings account with not less than $50.00 or $100.00, it is not worth the while to begin. This is not a correct position to take. If a person cannot open an account with more than $1.00, and really desires to get some money ahead, then he should begin with even $1.00. The first dollar saved and put in bank, is the initial step on the way to prosperity. "Great oaks from little acorns grow." As a rule, the person who "Puts off" the opening of a Savings Account until he has a large amount to deposit, is not likely to ever have a bank account. We solicit your account.

THE CLANTON BANK

CORRESPONDENCE.

Zachary's Chapel.

Hello! Dear Banner:—May I come in to chat with you all a while this beautiful September morn.

Health of this place is very good.

Cotton picking is all the go now, but it seems that winter with her cold fire winds is coming before we get through picking, but nevertheless, we should not murmur about that for I am sure God thinks of us oftener than we do of Him.

Our Sunday school is still alive, but not progressing as nicely as we would like it to, but God says when two are there assembled in His name, He would be in the midst to save and to bless, so we are few in number but we have the promise of a blessing.

There will be singing here in the old Sacred Harp next Sunday at 1 p.m. Sunday school at 3, after which, singing in the new books. Everybody come and let us have a good singing.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Knight of Birmingham are down visiting Mrs. W. C. Jones and other relatives and friends. T. A. has been sick with fever several months but glad to say is improving since he came to Chilton.

Miss Lucy Jones was the guest of Miss Ola Jackson Saturday.

The Misses Annie and Katie Jones paid Mrs. Annie Parker a flying visit Saturday eve.

There was preaching at A. A. Jackson's Sunday night by Mrs. Lizzie Mitchell and a very large crowd was there.

Say, wasn't Just a Voter's letter fine? Come again. What has be come of all our good writers? Come back to our paper.

SCHOOL GIRL.

Maplesville, Ala., Sept. 30, 1907

Editor Banner—I am very sorry, indeed, that the Doctors of Chilton county taken the position that they have, in these charges for services rendered to the sick. It is unreasonable, for some of them have begun to be highly esteemed, and had a bright future before them, but as it now is, they have undone all they have done, for the people are badly hurt over these charges as published in the Banner. We don't know what their reasons are for doing as they have, only to press the people a little harder to get gain. It seems that they were all doing well It seems that they think Doctors have a hard time, which they do, but think of the poor farmer Brother Doctor. If he works from Christmas to Christmas he, too, has a hard time. Who is it on the face of this earth that does not look to the farmer for support? Be considerate, Bro. Doctor, and may be you won't starve.

T. L. ELAM.

NAPOLEON BONAPARTE showed, at the battle of Austerlitz, he was the greatest leader in the world. Ballard's Snow Liniment has shown the public it is the best Liniment in the world. A quick cure for Rheumatism, Sprains, Burns, Cuts, etc. A. C. Pitts, Rodessa, La., says: "I use Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family and find it unexcelled for sore chest, headache, corns, in fact for anything that can be reached by a liniment." Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

We have just received several new orders in fine perfumes. Florence Drug Store.

NOTICE.

Jemison, Ala., Sept. 18, 1907

I take this method to notify my customers that I am going to quit the mercantile business, and will say to all who owe me that all accounts, notes and mortgages, are due and payable on October the first, and I will expect you and all who owe me to pay me just as soon thereafter as possible. Please do not ask to be carried over for any of your indebtedness, as you will be refused, for I am going to need all my money, and will insist on your paying it. Now there may be some who will want to hold cotton for a better price, will say I have no objections to your doing this, but if you want to hold your cotton will ask youto borrow money on it and pay me. Now I will say to all my customers that I am more than grateful to you for your faithful and continued patronage, and I believe many, if not all of you feel grateful to me for my carrying your account for you from time to time. Will say further that my entire stock of merchandise will be for sale at prices far below the regular price for cash only and the only way you can determine this is to come and see the goods and get the prices yourself. I will give you the prices on a few items below just to give you an idea how they are going.

14 lbs. Good Green Coffee	$1.00
20 lbs. Standard Granulated Sugar	1.00
25 lbs. Rice	1.00

Prices subject to change without notice.

Will say further that I have a good dwelling house conveniently located also a good store house that I will sell at a bargain. If any one wants to go into the mercantile business I can give them a fine opportunity. I would like to sell the store house, goods and dwelling house all in one lump.

Yours truly,
W. A. REYNOLDS.

Clanton.

Editor Banner—Please announce in your paper that a public meeting will be held at Clanton, Saturday, October 12, at 2 p.m., to protest against the exorbitant charges of the Chilton county physicians and to take such action as may be deemed necessary.

D. M. APPERSON.

NOTICE.

The public is invited to meet at Shiloh church, Friday, Oct. 11th, 1907, for the purpose of cleaning off the graveyard and doing such other work as may need doing.

By ORDER OF COMMITTEE.

SINGING CONVENTION.

The Old Southern Singing will hold its third session at Corinth on the 1st Sunday and Saturday before in October. Everybody invited to come and bring your books and baskets. Very truly,

T. L. ROBINSON, Pres.

Union Normal Institute.

The Union Normal Institute, District 41, a mile and a half south of Thorsby, will open on Monday, Oct. 14, 1907. Prof. W. L. McKenzie, assisted by Miss Rosalie Moore will teach the school.

All friends of education are cordially invited to attend the opening of the school, and thus by their presence encourage both pupils and teachers. The opening exercises will begin promptly at 9 o'clock a.m. Speeches will be made by Rev. F. M. Woods, Judge L. H. Reynolds, Prof. J. Will Moore, and Hon. J. Osmond Middleton.

All patrons are requested to come and bring their baskets well filled with good things to eat.

A. F. Mims, T. G. Williams, C. R. Childress, District Trustees.

Who makes the best soda water? Florence Drug Store.

WANTED.

FOR SALE—One good young log team, six years, all young and in good order, weigh from 1700 lbs. down to about 2000 lbs. Also one dray and outfit complete. Apply to S. E. BRUCE, Clanton, Ala., R. F. D. No. 1.

FOR SALE—A small farm 2½ miles west of Clanton on the Maplesville road. Land all fresh well improved, good living water. Apply to W. J. SORRELL, Clanton, Ala., R. F. D. No. 7.

REMINGTON Typewriter No. 2 for sale. In first-class condition. THE BANNER, Clanton.

FOR SALE at a bargain, One Grist Mill and one 20 H. P. Gasoline Engine, good as new, at Sylacauga, Ala. Will make price delivered at Clanton. Address J. W. K., P. O. Box 284, Clanton, Ala.

DESIRABLE positions are always occuring at the Bryce Hospital for men of good morals and able-bodies. Salaries ranging from $18.00 to $30.00 per month, board, lodging, laundry and medical attention free. For full information write Dr. J. T. SEARCY, Supt. Tuscaloosa, Ala.

LAND FOR SALE—216 acres of good land, 65 acres in cultivation. 2 settlements. In sections 29 and 30, township 22, range 13. Apply to R. F. SIMS, Maplesville Ala., R. F. D. No. 1.

FOR RENT OR SALE— Seven roomed house, good barn and Stalls. Fine garden. In Clanton. Apply at Banner Office.

125 ACRES FOR SALE, four miles southeast of Clanton. Apply to Q. S., Banner office, Clanton.

FOR SALE—80 acres good land, two miles from Clanton; two settlements on the tract. The tract is well watered. Call on or address O. O. FORNEY, Clanton, Ala., R. F. D. No. 5.

DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve is good for little burns and big burns, small scratches or bruises and big ones. It is healing and soothing. Good for piles. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

STRAYED—About seven weeks ago, from my place at Maplesville, R. F. D. No. 2, a Poland China Boar, unmarked, very curly hair. A liberal reward will be paid for its recovery. by W. E. HAYES, Maplesville, Ala., R. F. D. No 2.

LAND FOR SALE—10 miles southwest of Clanton, 120 acres; 60 timbered; 60 in cultivation; two dwellings; two wells good water; two good springs and outhouses; small orchard and grape vines. Place noted for health and beauty. Two public roads and telephone through the land. Churches and schools convenient. Write or call on R. E. ROPER, Clanton, Ala., R. F. D. No. 7.

Seed Rye, Barley, Clover and Wheat, at Florence Drug Store.

J. A. SKAGGS
CONTRACTOR & BUILDER

I am prepared to contract to erect any building in brick or wood, in Clanton, and to furnish all necessary material.

J. A. SKAGGS, Jemison, Ala.

BOOKKEEPING COURSE $3.00 per month.
Shorthand Course $3.00 per month.
Telegraph Course, unlimited scholarship $30.00.
Write SOUTHERN BUSINESS COLLEGE AND SCHOOL OF TELEGRAPHY, Newnan, Ga.

They Make You Feel Good.

The pleasant purgative effect experienced by all who use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and the healthy condition of the body and mind which they create makes one feel joyful. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Buy Davis and Save Money.

"I painted Mr. Watson's house recently, and ordered as much

Davis' 100 per cent Pure paint

as it would take if other High Grade Paints were used. When the work was finished, I not only had the prettiest job of painting in town, but had eight gallons of paint left over. H. N. Wells, M. P., Keyser, W. Va.

ISN'T THAT LIKE FINDING MONEY?
For sale by Payne & Payne, Montgomery, Ala.

W. R. MADDOX
BLACKSMITH

I do all kinds of Repair Work in Wood or Iron. Saw Brackets and Banisters.

Cold Tire Setting. I can shrink your Buggy or Wagon Tires cold or hot.

Horse-shoeing up-to-date. Satisfaction guaranteed.

CLANTON

J. V. HIGGINS
WATCHMAKER, JEWELER AND ENGRAVER

At the Florence Drug Store, Clanton, Ala. All work guaranteed Special attention given to Watch Cleaning, Stone Setting and Engraving

Repair all kinds of Graphophones Guns and Pistols Repaired.

HELP IS OFFERED
TO WORTHY YOUNG PEOPLE

We earnestly request all young persons, no matter how limited their means or education, who wish to obtain a thorough business training to fit good positions, to write by first mail for our great half-rate offer. Elements of business and profitable business are guaranteed. Don't delay. Write today.

The Ga.-Ala. Business College, Macon, Ga.

N. B.—300 requests for telegraphers were filled last year. Salaries $50 to $75 per month.

NEW STYLES RIGHT UP TO THE MINUTE

LADIES

let us show you our new line of Dress Goods, Suitings in Wool or Silk in all the new weaves and color; can match your hat with most any goods you can pick on, including Gloves. Also a complete line to select from for the children.

MEN AND BOYS

Clothing, we have the most complete line in Chilton county, price $1.50 to $27.50 per suit; Single or Double Breasted Coat with the new crease seam effect. Peg Top Pants to wear with or without suspenders. Now, if you don't see your Suit in the window come in and turn things over until you find it, just like you would hunting an old plow around home. You can also see all the new shaped Hats in the show cases.

Shoes For Everybody

Shoes, we handle the famous Smith Shoe, known for style, durability and long life.

Our Motto

New Goods, small profits and satisfied customers.

Let us figure on your entire wants

M. F. CANNON & SONS

CLANTON, ALA.

Copyright 1906 by Hart Schaffner & Marx

THE BANNER.

Published Weekly

CLANTON, ALABAMA.

The Department of Agriculture announces the patenting of a fireless cooker. If a tireless person is one who cannot get tired, a fireless cooker must be a cook who cannot be fired. Therefore, continues the New York Tribune, let songs of praise and thanksgiving ring forth from every housetop. For the problem of the itinerant domestic has been solved.

What is going to be the effect of the prohibitory movement in the South upon the much desired foreign immigration thither? asks the New York Tribune. The South needs the foreign immigrant and the foreign immigrant thinks he needs his beer. A thirst generally prevails over the law, but will a thirst deliberately go where it is put to unnecessary trouble?

One of the most notable signs of the time is the increase of sympathy, exclaims the Christian Register. With all the horrors reported from Russia and the Congo, it would not be possible to produce now any man who would drop his enemies into a sanless vault below the floor of his castle hall, to starve there day after day while he partook of good cheer with his friends at his well-spread table. And yet the halls and dungeons still remain to show where such things were done, not many generations ago, by men of high degree. The insensibility, to the suffering of animals, which still survives in some countries, is a relic of the common feeling in regard to brutes not many years ago.

An investigation of the artificial ice industry in Washington by the United States Public Health and Marine Hospital Service has led to some disagreeable disclosures, notes the New York Tribune. Individual plants were found in which the business was conducted under unsanitary conditions, and in consequence disease germs were found in the product. The New York Medical Journal has no doubt that these conditions account in a measure for the prevalence of typhoid fever at the national capital last year. It may be presumed that the evil has now been remedied, and it is at least credible that the situation in Washington was exceptional. Nevertheless, the revelations officially made in this one case suggest the wisdom of similar inquiries in other large cities.

The following is from the Washington Post: Thoughtful Americans are beginning to agree in the conclusion that one of the conspicuous signs of the times, to those who are able to comprehend it, is the warning posted by nature that riotous extravagance in the United States has reached the limit of safety, and that thrift and economy must supersede old methods. This warning sign is seen on every hand; more prominently, perhaps, where ravaged forests and barren farms reveal the work of the slayer of economy, but evident in industrial conditions also. When Secretary Wilson pointed out that all the wheat land in the United States was under the plow, and that the yield would decrease unless the fruitfulness of the soil were carefully preserved, he signalized the turning point from youth to maturity in the material growth of this country.

Captain Charles J. Badger, the new Superintendent of the Naval Academy, is a firm believer in the honor system. Captain Badger thinks that the midshipmen themselves should see that there is no cheating or attempted cheating at examinations. Captain Badger was the commandant of midshipmen at the academy when Admiral Brownson was Superintendent. Under their joint administration the midshipmen voluntarily pledged themselves to put an end to "gouging" or the receiving of unwarranted assistance on examination. Each class chose a committee consisting of one midshipman from each company, elected by secret ballot, to keep a watch during examinations to detect cheating. On one occasion a member of what was then the "plebe" class discovered a classmate cheating. He promptly reported the case to his class committee. The accused man was tried by the committee and found guilty. The Superintendent and Commandant were seen and informed of the case and of the action of the committee, who had ordered the guilty midshipman to resign. The department accepted his resignation the following day.

A MEMORIAL TO THE MARTYRED PRESIDENT, McKINLEY.

MAGNIFICENT MAUSOLEUM UNVEILED AT CANTON, O., MONDAY.

Canton, O.—The memorial monument to President William McKinley, which was unveiled here Monday, stands on an eminence to which has been given the name of Monument Hill, about two miles dues west of the McKinley home in the city of Canton. It is not an ornate affair, but its simplicity is relieved by sufficient artistic embellishment to make it an object of beauty, as well as one of massive proportions and breadth of design.

Four states have contributed a share of the material which has been used in the building of the monument. The granite used in the approaches and the mausoleum proper are from the quarries of Milford, Mass. Tennessee has furnished the gray marble for the interior of the tomb, while the sarcophagi, which now hold the bronze caskets in which lie the bodies of President and Mrs. McKinley, are of dark green granite from Windsor, Vt. The base upon which the sarcophagi rests is black granite for Berlin, Wis.

From the first step of the approach to the monument to the actual top of the structure is 163 feet 6 inches, the mausoleum itself being 90 feet 6 inches high above the summit of the mound. The top of the dome has an oculus 15 feet in diameter, through which comes a softened light, which adds greatly to the beauty of the interior.

The mausoleum is 78 feet 9 inches in diameter. In the center of the floor beneath the dome stands the sarcophagi containing the bodies of the President and Mrs. McKinley, and in niches on the north side of the dome are the caskets containing those of the two daughters, Ida and Mary, who died in infancy.

Huge Doric columns are placed around the interior in such a manner as to appear half buried in the sides of the building. The floor is of mosaic, marble having been brought from many states for the purpose.

Half way down the top of the 125 granite steps that lead up to the main entrance on the south side of the mausoleum stands an heroic bronze figure of President McKinley, representing him in the attitude usually assumed when speaking—his right hand holding a roll of manuscript, and the left hand in the trousers pocket. Behind the figure is a bronze chair encircled with a wreath an draped with the flag of the United States. The bronze figure, which is 9 feet high, stands on a pedestal 18 feet from the base to the figure.

Twenty-six acres of ground were purchased by the monument commission, and the utmost art of the landscape gardener has been lavished upon the grounds. Natural streams flow past the base of the mound, and trees and flower beds have been arranged with an eye to the greater artistic beauty. From the entrance to the grounds on the south to the foot of the mound is 590 feet, and along this distance a double driveway 175 feet in width has been constructed. Between the two sides of the driveway is a lagoon, which is constantly filled with fresh water. Long rows of trees flank the lagoon and the driveways.

The mausoleum and grounds have been built and arranged at a cost of $500,000, and it is the intention of the commission to raise an endowment fund of $150,000, which will include the charging of a fee for admission.

At the next meeting of the mausoleum trustees custodians will be chosen, and it is the intention to ask for the indefinite detail of soldiers of the regular army to guard the tomb.

The architect was H. Van Buren Magonigle, of New York, and the designes of the bronze figure standing before the mausoleum was Charles Henry Niehaus.

The weather conditions Monday were favorable for a successful day attending the dedication of the McKinley memorial. The day broke crisp and clear. All day Sunday thousands of people poured into the city to witness the ceremonies, and by night every available space in hotels, boarding houses and private residences was taken. Many late comers were compelled to walk the streets all night.

Throughout the morning trains continued to arrive at short intervals, bringing additional crowds. By 9 o'clock everything was in readiness for the ceremonies.

Among the prominent guests here are Secretary of the Treasury George B. Cortelyou, formerly private secretary to President McKinley; C. N. Bliss, chairman of the national republican committee; former Governor Murphy, of New Jersey; Governor Harris, of Ohio; former Governor Herrick, of Ohio, and John G. Milburn, of Buffalo, at whose home McKinley died.

The train bearing the president and his party reached the city promptly on schedule time. Upon leaving the train the reception committee entered carriages and accompanied the president to the Central high school.

The streets leading from the Pennsylvania station were lined by thousands of spectators. At the railway station the crowd was so dense the party had some difficulty in entering the carriages, but there was not much delay. All along the line of march to the high school the president was greeted by cheers and the waving of hats and handkerchiefs.

As he neared the school building the 1,700 children grouped and dressed to represent the national flag arose in a body and sang "America."

The parade began at 10:30 a. m., and occupied about one hour and a half in passing. Senator Dick, who is suffering from rheumatism, was unable to precede the parade on horseback as originally intended, but rode in a carriage.

President Roosevelt, surrounded by members of the reception committee, other committees, distinguished guests and those admitted only by tickets, occupied a central position in the grand stand. The parade was headed by a platoon of police dismounted, and was composed of G. A. R. troops, American veterans of foreign service, Spanish war veterans and numerous civic organizations. Among the commands marching were the Gate City Guards, of Atlanta, Ga., the Washington Infantry, of Pittsburg, and the large McKinley Commemoration Club, of Pittsburg.

When the parade had finally passed the reviewing stand President Roosevelt was immediately escorted to the Auditorium, where the official luncheon was served, participated in by all of the invited guests.

The opening address was then given by Justice Day. This was followed by the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner" by the Grand Army of the Republic band of Canton, the Canton Singers' Club and the entire assemblage.

Governor Harris then delivered an address, which was followed by the unveiling of the bronze statue of William McKinley by Miss Helen McKinley, of Cleveland, the only sister of the late president.

James Whitcomb Riley read a poem composed for the occasion. This was followed by the address of President Roosevelt.

A synopsis of President Roosevelt's address follows:

We have gathered together today to pay our meed of respect and affection to the Memory of William McKinley, who as president won a place in the hearts of the American people such as but three or four of all the presidents of this country have ever won. He was of singular uprightness and purity of character, alike in public and in private life; a citizen who loved peace, he did his duty faithfully and well for four years of war when the honor was the nation called him to arms. As congressman, as governor of his state, and finally as president, he rose to the foremost place among our statesmen, reaching a position which would satisfy the keenest ambition; but he never lost that simple and thoughtful kindness toward every human being, great or small, lofty or humble, with whom he was brought in contact, which so endeared him to our people. He had to grapple with more serious and complex problems than any president since Lincoln, and yet, while meeting every demand of statesmanship, he continued to live a beautiful and touching family life, a life very healthy for this nation to see in its foremost citizen; and now the woman who walked in the shadow ever after his death, the wife to whom his loss was a calamity more crushing than it could be to any other human being, lies beside him here in the same sepulcher.

There is a singular appropriateness in the inscription on his monument. Mr. Cortelyou, whose relations with him were of such close intimacy, gives me the following information about it: On the president's trip to the Pacific slope in the spring of 1901 President Wheeler, of the University of California, conferred the degree of LL. D. upon him in words so well chosen that they struck the fastidious taste of John Hay, then secretary of state, who wrote and asked for a copy of them from President Wheeler.

He possessed to a very extraordinary degree the gift of uniting discordant forces and securing from them a harmonious action which told for good government. From purposes not merely diverse, but bitterly conflicting, he was able to secure healthful action for the good of the state. In both poise and judgment he rose level to the several emergencies he had to meet as leader of the nation, and like all men with the root of true greatness in them, he grew to steadily larger stature under the stress of heavy responsibilities. He not merely preached, he was that most valuable of all citizens in a democracy like ours, a man who in the highest place served as an unconscious example to his people of the virtues that build and conserve alike our public life, and the foundation of all public life, the intimate life of the home.

No other president has ever more deserved to have his life work characterized in Lincoln's words as being carried on "with malice toward none, with charity toward all." As a boy he worked hard with his hands; he entered the army as a private soldier; he knew poverty; he earned his own livelihood; and by his own exertions he finally rose to the position of a man of moderate means. Not merely was he in personal touch with farmer and town dweller, with capitalist and wage worker, but he felt an intimate understanding of each, and therefore an intimate sympathy with each; and his consistent effort was to try to judge all by the same standard and to treat all with the same justice. Arrogance toward the weak, and envious hatred of those well off, were equally abhorrent to his just and gentle soul.

Surely this attitude of his should be the attitude of all our people today. It would be a cruel disaster to this country to permit ourselves to adopt an attitude of hatred and envy toward success worthily won, toward wealth honestly acquired. Let us in this respect profit by the example of the republics of this western hemisphere to the south of us. Some of these republics have prospered greatly, but there are certain ones that have lagged far behind, that still continue in a condition of material poverty.

The programme was closed by the singing of "America" and benediction by the Right Rev. Ignatius F. Horstmann, bishop of Cleveland.

Immediately upon the close of the programme President Roosevelt and party visited the interior of the tomb. This was followed by a visit by the invited guests and then the general public was admitted.

Pathfinders of Bob Evans' Fleet.

New York.—The armored cruisers Washington and Tennessee, the "pathfinders" of the Atlantic fleet, are expected to start on their long voyage to the Pacific this week. The Washington, which is now at the navy yard, will go direct to Hampton Roads, where she will be joined by the Tennessee from Boston, and where Rear Admiral Uriel Sebree will hoist his flag on the latter vessel.

Storm Center in France.

Paris.—The storm center in the south of France shifted to Toulon. The grape crop has been entirely destroyed. The low lying districts are submerged. Much damage has been done to the port of Toulon and the arsenal there. The historic old man-of-war Guerriere was swamped and was prevented from sinking only by hard work on the part of the naval authorities.

Distress in Spain.

Malaga.—The greatest distress everywhere is prevalent as a result of the storms and floods of last week. The government with difficulty has prevented famished people seizing and eating decayed foodstuffs that have been thrown out by storekeepers. The damage done by the flood is placed at $2,500,000. Fifteen hundred stores have been ruined.

ALABAMA NEWS.

Atlanta Next Year.

At the final day's session of the Southern Medical Association, Southern and gulf section of the American Medical Association, at Birmingham, Dr. H. L. Wyman, of Birmingham, was elected president, with the following vice presidents: Dr. W. P. McAdory, Alabama; Dr. H. M. Fulkes, Mississippi; Dr. Evans Walton, Louisiana; Dr. J. R. Hilden, Florida; Dr. Raymond Williams, Tennessee, and Dr. A. L. Fowler, Georgia. Dr. Oscar Dowling, of Shreveport, La., was elected secretary-treasurer. The following sectional officers were chosen: Dr. Seale Harris, Mobile, president, and Dr. H. E. Mitchell, Birmingham, secretary, medicine; Dr. W. F. Westmoreland, Atlanta, president, and Dr. Jere L. Crook, Jackson, Tenn., secretary, surgery; Dr. J. F. Herron, Jackson, Tenn., president, and Dr. A. B. Harris, Birmingham, secretary, opthalmology. The appointment of Dr. W. W. Rutter, worth as councilor for Louisiana was announced by President Wyman. A councillor for Florida will be appointed later. The others hold over. Atlanta was chosen as the place for the next meeting, which will be held on the first Tuesday in November next year.

Nineteen Persons Drowned.

Leslie Vernuille, the son of W. B. Vernuille, chief engineer of the government work at McGraw, Shoals, near Jackson, on the Tombigbee river, and fifteen negroes were drowned in the river. The men were crossing the stream in a little ferry boat on their way to dinner when the drifted down stream and their craft became unmanageable and capsized in the rapids. Two of the negroes in the boat scrambled on the boat's bottom, but the other occupants were thrown into the swift current. Late in the afternoon two of the bodies, both negroes, were recovered, but no trace had been found of the others. The river is being dragged.

Veterans Elect Officers.

Judge James T. Greene was re-elected president of the Northern Alabama Confederate Veterans' Association, he being nominated by Hon. Joshua Draper, of Oxford. The full list of officers follows: President, James T. Greene; vice president, Phillander Morgan; secretary, A. P. Hanna; treasurer, Frank McIntyre; assistant secretary, Joshua Draper; chaplain, W. P. Howell; executive committee, J. B. Palmer, J. H. Allen, C. Martin, D. H. Wilson, Lake Woolf, J. F. Burge, A. Sterne, Dave Jennings, A. C. Lusk.

2,000,000 Pounds of Steel Bars.

The Bessemer rolling mill has booked two of the largest orders in the history of iron making in the district. The orders are for one million pounds of steel, each, for the steel guide mill. This steel is in 3-8, 7-8 and 1 inch rods, and its purpose is not stated. On account of the illness of Superintendent Munday, of the Birmingham rolling mills, Supt. J. H. Pritchard is still in charge here, but as soon as Mr. Munday recovers he will go to Gadsden to take his new position.

Killed Herself.

Upon his return from a business trip to Marion, W. O. Hagerty, of Selma, upon going home, found the door of the room occupied by his mother locked. Breaking the lock a ghastly sight met his gaze. On her bed was his mother, Mrs. Reece, her throat cut from ear to ear, and in her hand was the blood-stained razor with which the deed had been committed.

Lineville Votes for Bonds.

The voters of the town of Lineville voted on issuing $3,000 bonds to build a school building for the primary and intermediate grades. The result of the election was 112 to 0 in favor of issuing the bonds. About half of the voting strength voted.

Trains Collide.

Charles G. Larch, fireman, was fatally injured, later dying, and James Hilton, Robert Kerr and J. Gibson were severely injured in a rear-end collision which took place at the Coalburg hill on the Southern railway Thursday night.

Chaplain in the Army.

Rev. Charles M. Brewer, pastor of the Baptist church at Dothan, has been appointed chaplain in the United States army with rank of First Lieutenant.

Injured by a Gin.

A man named Martin, who was at work at the plant of the Farmers' Union gin at Sylacauga, had his right hand almost torn off Thursday in one of the gins.

Athens Female College.

The fall session of the Athens Female college opened with the largest attendance in its history, more than 140 young ladies entering the boarding department, and the local attendance was large. The exercises were opened with prayer, after which the president, Miss Mary N. Moore, presented to the vast audience the various speakers of the occasion, Col. W. T. Sanders, Dr. J. R. Turner, Dr. Frank Brandon and others.

THOMPSON BUYS PLA...

Secures 18,000 Acre Tract in Alabama.

Joseph D. Thompson, ... box collector of Alabama, ... pleted a deal by which he ... possession of ... farm lands, the ... Gov. B. B. Comer ... Bullock county ... Governor Comer ... $182,000, something ... lars per acre. ... ground Comer ... of Georgia ... Springs and ... there are ... merly used for ... are improvements ... used on the place ... stalled by Gover... are more than ... wire fences enclosing ... fine farm houses and ... deal is the largest ... the state for ... not the largest ever ... South. The purpose ... land was bought ... it has been rumored ... son was acting for ... ington, of the ... school. It is ... able that the Land ... purpose of establishing ... of negroes who will be ... vate the soil in a ...

Sweeping Reduction.

Effective at once the ... press Company has ... sweeping reduction ... points in Alabama. The ... will average 20 per cent ... on perishable stuff ... are ... heavy. Hereafter any ... weighing over five ... shipped to any point ... 25 cents. One hundred ... fish or oysters can be ... Mobile for fifty cents. ... milk in cans has been ... Rates on chickens ... have been lowered. Ten-pound ... range from twenty-five to ... and so on. This action was ... the Southern Express Company ... own volition. The new ... are at hand, and the rates ... feet at once.

Roof of Steel Plant Fa...

An accident which is of ... to the company and which will ... considerable delay in the ... of steel at steel plant No. 1 ... ley, occurred Friday, when ... roof of the new furnace ... its holdings and fell to the ... This includes both arches ... has been burning in the ... two or three days for the ... drying it out preparatory to ... ing it with stock. What ... unusual accident is not ... the management. The ... fected is one of the four ... just completed, the capacity ... is 100 tons each. When the ... it was white with heat. All ... rubbish will be cleared away ... as the furnace is gotten ... and the work of relining will ... mence.

Mill is Sold.

The Spring City Flouring ... Huntsville has been sold to ... Hopkins, of Shelbyville, Tenn. ... the capacity of the plant will be ... doubled. A deed transferring ... property was filed in the ... court there recently. The consideration was $12,000. The deed was ... ed by G. P. Baker, president, and ... ry Hoppenjans, secretary, of ... Spring City Milling Company.

Light Frost in Decatur.

It is reported that there was a ... frost in the lowlands of this ... of the state on Wednesday night, ... damage, however, was done. ... night was the coolest that has been ... experienced in this section of the state ... for several years at this season of the ... year.

Baby Broke the Dirt.

Work was begun Tuesday on the ... new Episcopal church at ... The little baby son of the rector, ... Rev. Bertram Brown, with a ... spade, broke the dirst. The ... was attended by many of the ... citizens of the city.

Awakes to Find Babe Dead.

When Mrs. J. W. Fox awakened ... found her 3-months old baby lying ... in her arms. The child had died during the night without a struggle. The family buried a 2-year-old child on Sunday at Huntsville.

Freight is Cheaper.

As result of the new freight rates on the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic, Roanoke is placed on the same basis as Opelika and other ...

John Blackwell, a Chambers county farmer, grew a watermelon which weighed 103 pounds. He was offered $5 for it.

A. F. Benton, a Pike county farmer, has fifteen acres of corn which will make an average of sixty bushels to the acre.

The Lafayette Sun and Chairman J. Thomas Heflin are waging a campaign against a proposed issue of $100,000 of bonds to improve the public roads of Chambers county.

...SS CLUBS WHICH MEET IN BIRMINGHAM

... to be Treated Royaly by The Iron City

...BER 21 TO 26 THE TIME

... Are To Be Given a Barbecue, a ... Around the ... Night in ... Jamile" and a Great Recep...

...ingham, Ala.—All Birmingham ... ining arrangements for the ... ment of the Interstate ... of Press Clubs, which ... in this city October 21 ... commercial organizations ... and city council are ... inating ... beside a reception that will ... short of royal. The railroads ... agreed to give very low rates ... ly occasion to Birmingham ... eral months ago the Birmingham ... Press Club appointed a general ... arrangements committee, consisting of ... Pearson, chairman; Richard ... ...ton, Ed P. Smith, Ross ... ...m Ryan, John G. Hosea and ... Gilbert. This committee has ... ...inted the following subcommittees ... to work out the details of the ... ...ment: Publicity, Harry ... ...Night in Bohemia," barbecue ... ...the Horn and reception ... ...ocial side of the convention ... one of the most delightful features ... This will be in charge of the Birmingham Writers' Club. Miss Annie ... Kendrick Walker, chairman, of ... committee on reception. Mrs. ... Talafierro is chairman of the ... ...ittee for the reception to be ... at the Country Club. Miss Helen ... Wilcox, in behalf of the Writers' ... Club, will respond to a toast at ... ...quet.

...e convention will be welcomed to ... ...bama in behalf of the State ... Lieutenant Governor Henry B. ... who began life as a newspaper ... ...ter. Mayor George B. Ward will deliver ... address of welcome on behalf of the ... ...ity of Birmingham; President ... A. Wood in behalf of the ... ...ercial Club; President C. C. ... ...in behalf of the Birmingham ... ...d of Trade; President Ross C. ... ...h in behalf of the Birmingham ... Club, and President Mrs. J. A. ... ...ree in behalf of the Birmingham ... ...ers' Club. The response will be ... by President Edward Keating, ... International League of Press ...

...old-fashioned Southern barbecue ... be served the newspaper writers ... will be Birmingham's guests. ... convention will end with a ban... ... at the Hotel Hillman the night ... fourth day.

ENTER THE PORT.

...er Squadron From the Asiatic ... Squadron Arrives at Frisco.

...n Francisco.—The cruiser squadron ...om the Asiatic squadron station, ...eluding the armored cruisers West ...inia, flagship; Maryland, Pennsylvania and Colorado, under command of Rear Admiral Dayton, ar... Friday morning, several hours ... of the expected time. Arrangements had been made to give the vessels an elaborate reception and ... ...erous message was sent to Rear Admiral Dayton Thursday night asking him to defer entering the port ... this afternoon. This message, however, either was not received or disregarded, for at 7:36 a. m. the "big four" passed through the Golden Gate.

POISON IN ICE CREAM.

Persons May Die in Georgia As Result.

...tesboro, Ga.—Eleven persons ... poisoned by ice cream made ... condensed milk ten miles from ... Tuesday night, and Friday it was ... ...d by the attending physician that ... were grave fears that ten of ... number could not survive. ... poisoning occurred at the ... of Cone Hagan, a well known ... ...ch county farmer. Some of the ... ...dren of his brother were visiting ... the home of Cone Hagan and the ... household partook of the re... ...ments, nearly all eating heartily. ... immediately after eating they ... ill.

Sea Island Cotton.

...annah, Ga.—For sea island cotton ... following prices are based on ... ...ory quotations: Extra fancy ... ...rgias and Floridas, 30@31; fancy ... ...rgias and Floridas, 30; extra ... Georgias and Floridas, 29; ... Georgias and Floridas, 28; extra ... Georgias and Floridas, combination Georgias and Floridas, common Georgias and Floridas, ...inal.

Double Murder in Louisiana.

...reveport, La.—A long-distance ...phone message from Plain Dealing, ... this parish, states that shocking ... and mysterious murders were ... ...mitted a few miles above Bellevue ... the Cotton Belt railroad. The ... of J. F. Delaney and Bailey ...man, well known citizens, were ... ...d along the roadside, both having ... shot to death. There is as far ... ...ows to the unknown assassin or ... ...ssins. A hurried investigation ... ...ows that both men had been shot

BAMA NEWS.

THOMPSON BUYS PLANTA

Secures 18,000 Acre Tract in Alabama.

Joseph O. Thompson, ... tax collector of Alabama, ... pieted a deal by which he ... possession of 18,000 acres of ... farm lands, the former ... Gov. B. B. Comer, in ... Bullock counties. The ... Governor Comer for the ... $162,000, something less than ... lars per acre. The land ... ground Comer, Ala., on the ... of Georgia railroad, between ... Springs and Eufaula. In ... there are several thousand ... merly used for stock farms ... are improvements of more than ... 100 on the piece of property ... stalled by Governor Comer. ... are more than two hundred ... wire fences enclosing vast ... fine farm lands and pastures. ... deal is the largest in the ... the state for improved farms ... not the largest ever recorded ... South. The purpose for ... land was bought is not known. ... it has been rumored that Mr. ... son was acting for Booker T. ... ington, of the Tuskegee ... school. It is regarded as ... able that the land will be used ... purpose of establishing a ... of negroes who will be taught ... farm the soil in a modern way.

Sweeping Reduction.

Effective at once, the Southern ... Express Company has announced ... sweeping reduction in rates between ... points in Alabama. The reduction ... will average 20 per cent. Rates ... on perishable stuff are ... heavy. Hereafter any package ... weighing over five pounds can be ... shipped to any point in the state ... 25 cents. One hundred pounds of ... fish or oysters can be shipped from ... Mobile for fifty cents. The rate on ... milk in cans has been cut 35 per cent. ... Rates on chickens and eggs have also ... been lowered. Ten-pound packages ... range from twenty-five to forty cents ... and so on. This action was taken by ... the Southern Express Company of its ... own volition. The new tariffs ... are at hand, and the rates go into ... effect at once.

Roof of Steel Plant Falls In.

An accident which is of great ... to the company, and which will cause ... considerable delay in the manufacture ... of steel at steel plant No. 2, at Ensley, occurred Friday, when the entire ... roof of the new furnace broke from ... its holdings and fell to the floor. ... This includes both arches also. ... has been burning in the furnace for ... two or three days for the purpose of ... drying it out preparatory to beginning it with stock. What caused the ... unusual accident is not explained by ... the management. The furnace affected is one of the four new ones just completed, the capacity of which ... is 100 tons each. When the roof fell ... it was white with heat. All of the ... rubbish will be cleared away at once ... as the furnace is sufficiently cool ... and the work of relining will commence.

Mill is Sold.

The Spring City Flouring Mill at ... Huntsville has been sold to F. ... Hopkins, of Shelbyville, Tenn. ... the capacity of the plant will be ... doubled. A deed transferring the ... property was filed in the probate ... court there recently. The consideration was $12,000. The deed was signed by G. P. Baker, president, and Harry Hoppenjans, secretary, of the Spring City Milling Company.

Light Frost in Decatur.

It is reported that there was a light ... frost in the lowlands of this section ... of the state on Wednesday night. No ... damage, however, was done. The night was the coolest that has been ... experienced in this section of the state ... for several years at this season of the ... year.

Baby Broke the Dirt.

Work was begun Tuesday on the new Episcopal church at ... The little baby son of the rector, ... Rev. Bertram Brown, with a ... spade, broke the dirt. The ceremony ... was attended by many of the leading ... citizens of the city.

Awakes to Find Babe Dead.

When Mrs. J. W. Fox awakened she ... found her 3-months'-old baby lying dead ... in her arms. The child had died during the night without a struggle. The ... family buried a 2-year-old daughter ... on Sunday at Huntsville.

Freight Is Cheaper.

As result of the new freight rates ... on the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic, Roanoke is placed on the same ... basis as Opelika and other towns.

John Blackwell, a Cherokee county ... farmer, grew a watermelon that ... weighed 103 pounds. He was offered ... $5 for it.

A. F. Benton, a Pike county farmer, ... has fifteen acres of corn that will ... make an average of sixty bushels to ... the acre.

The Lafayette Sun and Colbert ... man J. Thomas Heflin are waging a ... campaign against a proposed bond ... $100,000 of bonds to improve the public roads of Chambers county.

...S CLUBS WHICH MEET IN BIRMINGHAM

...to be Treated Royaly by The Iron City

...BER 21 TO 26 THE TIME

...re To Be Given a Barbecue, a ... Around the "Horn," Night in ... and a Great Recep...

...ham, Ala.—All Birmingham ... arrangements for the entertainment of the international ... of Press Clubs, which convenes in the city October 21 to 26, ... organizations, the ... and city council, are all uniting ... a reception that will be ... short of royal. The railroads ... agreed to give very low rates ... occasion to Birmingham. ... months ago the Birmingham ... Club appointed a general ... committee, consisting of ... chairman; Richard F. ... Ross C. Smith, ... John C. Henley and ... Gilbert. This committee has ... sub-committees, ... details of entertainment, ... barbecue, ... and reception. ... convention ... delightful features. ... charge of the ... Club Miss Annie ... chairman of ... reception. Mrs. ... chairman of the ... reception to be ... Club. Miss Hen... behalf of the Writers' ... pond to a toast at ... will be welcomed ... behalf of the State ... Governor Henry B. ... who began life as a newspaper ... Ward will deliver ... welcome on behalf of ... Birmingham; President ... in behalf of the ... President C. C. ... of the Birmingham ... President Ross C. ... of the Birmingham ... President Mrs. J. A. ... behalf of the Birmingham ... The response will be ... President Edward Keating, ... International League of Press ... old-fashioned Southern barbecue ... the newspaper writers ... Birmingham's guests. ... convention will end with a banquet at the Hotel Hillman the night ... fourth day.

ENTER THE PORT.

...er Squadron From the Asiatic Squadron Arrives at 'Frisco.

... the cruiser squadron ... Pacific squadron station, ... armored cruisers West ... Maryland, Pennsylvania and Colorado, under command of ... Admiral Dayton, arrived ... Friday morning, several hours ... expected time. Arrangements had been made to give ... elaborate reception and ... message was sent to Rear ... Admiral Dayton Thursday night asking ... after entering the port ... this afternoon. This message, ... was not received or ... for at 7 30 a. m. ... passed through the ... Gate.

POISON IN ICE CREAM.

...Persons May Die in Georgia As Result.

...Ga.—Eleven persons ... poisoned by ice cream made ... condensed milk ten miles from ... Tuesday night, and Friday it was ... by the attending physician that ... were grave fears that ten of ... number would not survive. ... occurred at the ... of Cone Hagan, a well known ... farmer. Some of the ... of his brother were visiting ... home of Cone Hagan, and the ... bought at a picnic ... refreshments nearly all eating heartily. ... immediately after eating they ... ill.

Sea Island Cotton.

Savannah, Ga.—For sea island cotton ... the following prices are based on ... Quotations: Extra fancy ... and Floridas, 30@31; fancy ... and Floridas, 30; extra ... Georgias and Floridas, 29; ... Georgias and Floridas, 28; extra ... Georgias and Floridas, nominal; ... Georgias and Floridas, nominal; ... Georgias and Floridas, nominal.

Double Murder in Louisiana.

Shreveport, La.—A long-distance ... message from Plain Dealing in this parish states that shocking and mysterious murders were committed a few miles above Bolinger, on the Cotton Belt railroad. The wife of J. P. Delaney and Rolfe Hunt, well known citizens, were found along the roadside, both having been shot to death. There is so far no clue to the unknown assassin or assassins. A hurried investigation showed that both men had been shot

STABS SWEETHEART'S FATHER

Story of a Tragedy in Connection With an Elopement.

Charlotte, N. C.—A sensational story has just reached here from Thomasville, N. C., about a bloody tragedy in connection with an elopement. Monday evening Grover Proctor drove to the home of Albert Myers, near Thomasville, where Mr. Myers' daughter was waiting to elope to get married. They had been gone but a moment when Mr. Myers was hot on their trail. He overtook them as they were getting in the buggy to leave.

The father ordered his daughter back home. The young man took the matter up and a quarrel followed. Mr. Proctor then, it is claimed, attacked Mr. Myers with a knife who, in trying to get away, fell. Proctor then jumped on him. It is charged, and stabbed him five times in the back and head.

This done, Proctor and his bride-to-be eloped afoot, leaving the horse and buggy behind. They reached Thomasville, boarded a train and have not been heard of since. Mr. Myers is now in a critical condition, his right lung having been punctured.

EIGHT ARE INJURED.

Fire in Louisville, Ky., Causes Big Damage.

Louisville, Ky.—Eight persons were injured in a fire here which damaged the establishments of the McElroy-Shannon Spring Bed Company, the Mayer Shirt Manufacturing Company, the Paris Laundry and D. W. Holmes' livery stable to the extent of $50,000.

The injured: Miss Effie Southworth, Robert Funk, Elmore Hornback, Leslie Baird, Fire Captain Harry Bundschu, George H. Emmettman, salvage corps; Edith Rossemier, William Janson.

There were 150 girls employed in the Mayer shirt factory and in the panic which ensued Miss Southworth was injured and many had narrow escapes.

BROUGHT HOME.

Two Hundred and Forty-two Rescued from Beach Off Alaska.

Seattle, Wash.—The revenue cutter Thetis, Captain A. J. Henderson, has arrived, bringing 242 survivors of the wrecked American ship John Currier, which went aground in a fog at Bristol bay, Alaska, August 9. The work of rescue constitutes the greatest saving of lives, with a single exception, in the history of Pacific shipping.

The Thetis took over the survivors at Unalaska, where they were brought by the cutter McCulloch after they had spent thirty-four days on a barren beach.

Among the rescues are 130 Oriental cannery hands and 110 Caucasian fishermen. Captain Murchison's wife and five young children endured the privations of the adventure.

HE SMASHED SKULL OF WIFE.

Aged Husband Then Killed Himself With Paris Green.

Elgin, Ill.—Cyrus Baldwin, 85 years of age, one of the wealthiest residents of Kane county, Illinois, killed himself by eating paris green after he had confessed that he had murdered his aged wife by smashing her skull with a hammer.

Mrs. Baldwin was found dead and it was believed that she had been murdered by her husband although there was no direct proof of the fact.

Today Baldwin confessed that he had killed his wife after a quarrel.

Cuban Railroad Strike.

Havana.—A general strike of the employes of the United railroads and the Havana Central railroad has been declared. Trains are running with the help of the engineers only, without firemen or conductors. A tie up of all the railroads on the island is feared.

Loaded Steamboat Sinks.

New Orleans, La.—The steamboat "Dial," running in the lower coast trade and loaded with oysters, rice and oranges, sank here this morning while landing at the foot of Bienville street and three negro cabin boys, part of the crew, are unaccounted for. Many of the crew were rescued by persons on the wharf.

Played Merrily; Dead in Two Hours.

Savannah, Ga.—Playing merrily with her little companions at 5 o'clock and lifeless at 7 o'clock on the same afternoon is the sad story of little Ruth Brown, the 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, of 152 West Broad street.

Some people's idea of recreation seems to be balling themselves up the first round and doping the rest of the time.

Sent Off Bandits.

Hong Kong.—Chinese guards have beaten off an attack of a thousand bandits on the Tai Leih market, near Fatshan, with a loss of ten robbers and six soldiers killed and fifty robbers and ten soldiers wounded.

Starvation for 200,000.

Madrid.—Starvation confronts two hundred thousand persons in the flood district and it seems impossible to provide relief. The damage to property is estimated in millions.

State News.

Twelve persons in a Gadsden boarding house were attacked with ptomaine poisoning, but all have recovered.

Circuit Judge John Pelham is also a practical farmer. He owns one of the best farms in the Alexandria valley.

"Uncle" John F. G. Davidson, of Hall Play, is hale and hearty at 90 years of age. He performs daily physical labor.

The fourth quarterly meeting of the Cherokee County Farmers' Union will be held October 11 and 12 with Bothwell local.

The survivors of Forrest's cavalry corps, many of whom reside in Alabama, will meet in reunion in Memphis, Tenn., October 17.

The county papers all over the state are urging that the public roads be put in good condition before the autumn rains begin.

An unknown Italian women died in Alabama City Sunday and was buried at the county farm without her identity becoming known.

The new cotton ginners' law is now in effect. Every bale must have a label and a complete record must be kept of every bale ginned.

R. L. Thomasson, secretary of the Farmers' Union of Colbert county, says the cotton crop of that county will be only 50 per cent of a full crop.

Robert Reinbold, an electrician, was frightfully shocked by 2,800 volts of electricity at the plant of the Mobile Electricity Company, but will recover.

Luther Palmer shot and fatally wounded M. F. Blevins at Dora Walker county, Saturday, Blevins dying Sunday. Palmer claims self-defense.

W. H. Whaley, a former Cullman county young man, was last week elected judge of the Covington, Ga., city court in a hotly contested election.

The home of Mr. Ben F. Orman, of Russellville, was entered by burglars Sunday night, but they were frightened off before they could appropriate much. Mr. Orman noticed a light in the room across from his and started in there to put it out, when he heard some one running, and upon investigation he discovered that the room had been ransacked. Only about 45 cents was secured by them.

News has reached Thomasville of the tragic death of Mrs. Richard Ott, whose body, with the throat cut from ear to ear, was found floating in the water of an abandoned well on the farm of her husband, a well-known planter, whose place is in the Tallahatta Springs neighborhood of Clarke county, twelve miles west of Thomasville.

It is practically certain that the Illinois Central and the Mobile and Ohio railroads will enter Corinth, Miss., to Haleyville, Ala., over the new sixty miles of track now being completed by the Illinois Central. From Haleyville they will enter Birmingham over the tracks of the Southern and the Frisco. The Illinois Central has immense terminals in Birmingham, recently built. The Mobile and Ohio will use those of the other railroads.

It is told that the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic Railway Company has abandoned for the present the building of the Atlanta branch of their road from Pyriton, the locating engineers having been all discharged last week. The cause given for this is "adverse legislation" by Georgia and Alabama to corporate interests. Talladega especially regrets this action by the road, as its construction would have given a direct line to Atlanta and opened up a large undeveloped region just to the east.

The Tidewater Development Company, which for three years has been securing rights of way and franchises from and through Gadsden to Tuscaloosa via Birmingham for an electric freight and passenger railroad, seems about to commence actual construction work. Two corporations have been organized at Birmingham to push the project. They are the Birmingham and Gulf Railway and Navigation Company, capital $2,000, and the Birmingham and Gulf Construction Company, capital $100,000. Robert R. Morehead, of New York; Joseph A. Vandegrift, of Philadelphia, and Chas. H. Silliman, of New York, are interested, and so are J. M. Dewberry, Eugene P. Enslen, Forney Johnston and others, of Birmingham. The Tuscaloosa Belt Railway has been turned over to the Tidewater Company. At Tuscaloosa the company proposes to have docks and wharfage and will operate a barge line thence down the Warrior river to the gulf for the transportation of coal.

No Faith in It.

"No," complained the young painter, "I can't believe that I am producing genuine art."

"The critics praised your work, haven't they?"

"Yes, but nobody has raised an outcry against it as being indecent."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Motors killed 22 in London streets last year.

THE PULPIT.

AN ELOQUENT SUNDAY SERMON BY THE REV. A. S. SIMPSON.

Subject: The Gospel of Tears.

New York City.—The famous head of the Christian Alliance, the Rev. A. B. Simpson, on Sunday preached a notable sermon, having for its subject "The Gospel of Tears." The texts were:

Jesus wept.—John 11:35.

And when He was come near He beheld the city, and wept over it.—Luke 19:41.

Who in the days of His flesh, when He had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto Him that was able to save Him from death, and was heard in that He feared.—Heb. 5:7.

Who has not wept? Weeping we begin life as helpless babes and, amid the tears of mourning friends, we pass out to the grave. Tears are the badges of sorrow. How can they be the expression of the Gospel, the glad tidings of great joy and divine love?

And yet redemption has transformed the curse into a blessing and made a rainbow of our tears.

"Jesus wept." This little phrase, the shortest in the Bible, has more in it than all the books that man has written. A single drop of ink could write it, but all the world could not contain its depths of love.

It tells me that my Redeemer is human. Tears are human and the tears of Jesus proclaim Him my Brother and my Friend. He is the great heroic Head of our fallen race. One has come to us who is "bone of our bone" and "flesh of our flesh" and has the right to represent us; who is able to right our wrongs and recover our lost heritage of happiness and blessing.

When God determined to save this fallen world, He did not send some mighty angel. He did not come in His own awful deity, but He stooped to become a man that He might meet us in a gentle human form of which we should not be afraid. How the Roman Catholic clings to the tender sympathy of the virgin mother, but we do not need even woman's tenderness to introduce us to the Father's heart; for Jesus Christ, our Saviour, has a heart both of woman and of man. He has been an infant child like us. He has traversed every stage of the pilgrimage of man from the cradle to the grave. He has been everywhere that we have been. He has felt everything that we can feel. He knows our nature. He bears our name. He wears our humanity. And for evermore the Head of this universe, the King of Kings, the Lord of angels shall be a Man like us, our Friend "that sticketh closer than a brother."

Oh, what a gospel of comfort we find in the humanity of Christ. You can come to Him to-night as you would to the gentlest friend, the most intelligent father, the noblest man you ever knew; and though we have sinned and gone far astray, "He is not ashamed to call us brethren."

They tell us that He is able to sympathize with our sorrows. He wept those tears for others. He saw two breaking hearts before Him. He felt their agony! He groaned in spirit and was troubled and at last He broke down altogether and burst into a flood of tears. How we thank Him for those tears.

This salvation is not all for the pearly gates, the streets of gold and the glorious Heaven that is coming bye and bye. We need a lot of it down here in this broken-hearted world amid our poverty and pain, our sickness and death, our broken friendships, our wrecked homes, our wrongs and sorrows and, thank God, He has it for us. He has experienced it and He has not forgotten it and still in His heavenly home we are told "He is able to be touched with the feeling of our infirmities."

He was a child and has felt every childish sorrow. He had the hard struggle to support His mother at Nazareth and He knows all about hard work and hard times. He was despised and scorned and He understands the sense of wrong and sting of insult. He was deceived, betrayed and murdered and there is no wrong or insult can come to us that He has not borne and is still ready to bear for us. Yes, He has felt the awful weight of sin, for there was an hour when He sank under His Father's wrath in punishment for the sins of men. He knows the cloud of spiritual darkness. He knows the weakness and agony of death and He is with us in it all. Blessed Friend, how we thank God for Christ and what a gospel of love and sympathy and help speaks to us through the tears of Bethany.

The tears of Jesus tell us that He understands our danger, our destiny and our estate. He shed those tears over the grave of Lazarus. They meant much more than a sense of bereavement. He was not weeping because He had lost Lazarus. He was not weeping because the sisters at Bethany had lost their brother. He knew that Lazarus was coming forth again in a little while and that the sorrow would be forgotten in the glad reunion. Oh, no, He saw deeper than that. He saw in the grave of Lazarus every grave that had been opened and filled through earth's forty centuries and the would be filled in the twenty centuries that have passed since then. He saw all the horrors and agonies of the battlefield, the ocean wreck, the lingering deathbed, the scourge of famine and pestilence and the ravages of the king of terrors with the millions and billions of victims that he has smitten in the past six thousand years; and as He saw it all, realized it all, and the vision loomed in lurid horror before His Omniscient eye, He realized the fearful curse of sin and His heart broke down in agony and sorrow.

Nay more, He saw a sadder sight. He saw a deeper grave. He saw the eternal grave beyond all, that we behold in death. He saw the death that never dies; the fire that never is quenched; the yawning gulf of endless woe into which the sinful soul must sink forever. It was the sight of that horror that had brought Him from Heaven to earth. It was the thought of man perishing in everlasting darkness that had made Him glad to live and suffer and die, and as it all rose before Him as through a glass in the tomb of Lazarus "Jesus wept."

Oh, that we might realize it as He did.

Did Christ o'er sinners weep
And shall our tears be dry?

Christ never thought or spake of eternal punishment in cold, hard words. He did it with a breaking heart. He did it with tenderness and tears, but none the less He did it; for none knew so well as He that eternal sin must bring eternal hell and that all we know and fear of death is but a paradise compared with that second death—

* * * * whose pang
Outlasts the fleeting breath;
Oh, what eternal horrors hang Around the second death.

The tears of Jesus tell us of His atonement. He did not come down to earth to weep in helpless sorrow but to rise in almighty strength against our doom—and rescue us from it.

When Hercules came to the place where the helpless virgin lay bound upon the rock and the dragon was coming to devour her, her parents and all around were frantic with tears, but Hercules cried, "This is no time for tears; this hour is for rescue," and he slew the dragon and saved the maiden.

So Jesus came, not merely to weep but to help, and by His own tears and His own agony and His own blood to meet our peril and our penalty and save us from eternal sorrow.

And so we read of another instance of His tears in Heb. 5:7. These were the tears of Gethsemane and the anguish of His passion. These were the tears that we deserved to shed. These were the pains that we deserved to suffer. But as our great Substitute and Sacrifice, He bore our sins in His own body on the tree, and having paid the penalty and satisfied the claims of justice, He comes in the glad message of the Gospel to announce our pardon and salvation.

O Christ, what burdens bowed Thy head,
Our load was laid on Thee,
Thou stoodest in the sinner's stead,
Bidst bear all sin for me,
Jehovah lifted up His rod,
O Christ, it fell on Thee,
Thou wast sore stricken of Thy God,
Thy bruising healeth me.

Hindu mythology has a strange tale typical of the atonement, the story of a dove pursued by a hawk until in desperation it flung itself into the bosom of Vishnu, one of their deities. But the hawk demanded satisfaction, declaring that the dove was her lawful prey and that Vishnu must not only be merciful to the dove but just to its claims. Then Vishnu, holding the trembling dove in her bosom, bared her breast and bade the hawk devour of her own living flesh as much as would compensate for the dove, while all the time the dove lay fluttering there and knowing the fearful cost of her deliverance. Yes, we are safe within His bosom, but oh, the cost to Him. "He saved us, Himself He could not save." He wipes away our tears, but in order to do this He had to weep when there was no eye to pity and no arm to save. Don't you think the least that you could do would be to thank Him and give Him your heart, your love, your grateful tears?

We have yet one more picture, Luke 19:41. He was entering Jerusalem from Olivet. He had just turned that point where the whole city suddenly bursts upon the traveler's view. As He gazed upon it in its singular beauty, there arose behind the scene another vision that a few years later was to fill all that valley: a city besieged, cruel Roman legions around on every hill top, the narrowing cordon of destruction, a breach at last in the walls of defense, the breaking in of the brutal conqueror, the streets running with blood, the Temple rising in smoke and flames, the shrieks of mothers, maidens and little children in the cruel grasp of the conqueror, and then, a long train of captives going forth to distant lands while behind them lay a plowed field of desolation where once their beautiful city had been.

And as He saw it all and how it might have been prevented if they had only received Him, He cried, "If thou hadst known even now in this thy day the things that belong to thy peace, but now they are hid from thine eyes." It was too late; but even yet He had for them His tears.

These tears tell us of Christ's compassion. They tell us how He longs to save.

They tell us that He is here to-night with infinite pity and power to wipe away your tears, to wash away your sins and make you happy and holy through His love.

But they tell us also that if you refuse and reject Him, there may come a time, there will come a time, when He can do nothing for you but weep.

They tell of a judge before whom was brought for punishment his oldest friend. As he stood up to pronounce the sentence upon him, the memory of their boyhood days together came upon the judge's heart with overwhelming force and he broke out in floods of weeping. "My friend," he said, "how can I, by a single word, consign you to a felon's cell and a life of banishment from home and friends and all that earth holds dear? But I am a judge and must be just. Why did you force me to do this thing?" And they wept together, but it was too late to save him from his fate. From that scene of weeping, he went forth a doomed, ruined man to spend his days in fruitless tears.

Oh, sinner, beware! Just some day on the Throne of Judgment you look in the face of a weeping Saviour and hear Him say: "How often would I have gathered you even as hen doth gather her brood under her wings and ye would not. Oh, that thou hadst known the things that belong to thy peace, but now they are hid from thine eyes."

Separated, Man Dwindles.

Separated from God, man dwindles; he is nothing. He was made to have magnitude and he is dead, by having great inspirations roll under him and through him. Existing in mere selfhood he cannot push himself out any way to be complete as from himself. There is nothing, in short, but religion, or the life in God, that can be looked to for the completion of a soul.—Horace Bushnell.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

INTERNATIONAL LESSON COMMENTS FOR OCTOBER 6 BY REV. E. W. HENDERSON.

Subject: Joshua, Israel's New Leader, Josh. 1:1-11—Golden Text, Josh. 1:5—Memory Verse, 7—Commentary.

The mantle of Moses falls upon the shoulders of Joshua. For God rewards faithful secondary service. He never leaves His people leaderless.

Joshua had been the sturdy assistant of Moses in many a trying hour. He had served his leader with zeal. And in the hours of service he had gained fitness for guidance. The faithful lieutenant who has learned how to be led is fittest to lead. For to be a good leader a man must know how to be a good follower. He alone is capable to command who has learned to obey. Joshua succeeded Moses because he was a patient and zealous follower of Moses.

The want of a leader who was familiar with the ways of Moses and with the spirit of the wanderers he led, who was able to place his feet in the footmarks of Moses and to continue, might have been fatal to the realization of Israelitish hopes. Inefficient management might have destroyed the possibilities that were immediately the result of the Mosaic wisdom and leadership. Vicissitudes guidance might easily have led to disaster. The only way in which the hopes of Israel could be realized and the labor of Moses augmented was by securing a competent leader to carry on his work. The people were keeping their faces fixed Godward. God had a leader in preparation, a guide in reserve. He gave Joshua to the people.

All that God had commanded Moses to perform and observe He made obligatory upon Joshua. Joshua was in no wise released from the recognition of those moral principles that God had made consistent with the leadership of Moses. Joshua was a successor in the leadership of an established regime. He was not to overturn the past. He was to fulfill it. His duty was not to revolutionize but to educate. His call was not to rear a new line, but to enlarge the fame and the service of an old one.

In the task of filling Moses' place Joshua is guaranteed the abiding presence and assistance of Almighty God. "As I was with Moses, so I will be with thee; I will not fail thee, nor forsake thee." So runs the biblical record of the promise of Jehovah to Joshua. This constituted the actual strength of Joshua, as it had been the secret of the ultimate success of Moses. Without this grant of divine favor and supervision and enabling the wisdom and vision and forcefulness of Joshua would have been inefficient to accomplish the full deliverance of Israel. With this evidence of God's direction Joshua could command with confidence.

The counsel of God to Joshua that he "be strong and very courageous" was sound. Israel had suffered in the past because of her instability. The only reason why she was released from the bondage of captivity and from the terrors of the wilds was that Moses had been strong and courageous. God knew Israel. He knew the qualities that were needed in order to secure Joshua in his position and to preserve to Israel the fruits of victory over self and enemies and sin that had been so hardly earned. Weak leadership could have annulled the measure of success attained. Vacillation in the face of the crisis or of opposition would have disqualified Joshua for further service.

The lessons of the Scripture we have scanned are extremely and presently practical. The recognition of Joshua's fidelity by his elevation to supremacy among his people is especially valuable as an indication to youth of the right and age-long method of progress and of the certainty that faithful ability eventually is recognized and rewarded. The need is for men who will obey in subordinate capacities, who will serve in lieutenancies, who will learn to command. The call of the hour is for men who will strive not for revolution so much as to enlarge the scope and the appeal and the influence of the eternal principles of righteousness that have thundered through the ages from the mind of Jehovah through the souls of men. For we are not released from the hereditary mandates of God to humanity. The laws of Moses and Joshua, as the principles of Christ, in their divinest and truest expressions bind us. The world and America needs men who would live daily in the consciousness of God's shepherding. Men who possess experimental knowledge of His abiding presence, men who will be strong, men who will dare to be courageous, "very courageous." Only such men can lead or serve. Such men only are fit to live.

The world and its history are full of men who have tried to be captains before they have earned the rank. Most of the failures are men who have endeavored to lead before they had learned to serve. Humanity has had a surfeit of revolutionary leadership that has kicked the foundations of the centuries from beneath its feet. The incapacity of a leadership that is without moral strength or without the inspiration of a divinely directed purpose has been so often proved that men are no longer fooled.

The call of the age is for men of the mold of Joshua. The man of surpassing courage is the man of the hour. Humanity stands upon the confines of a new era. The olden leaders will go home to God. Let him who is prepared assume to lead.

Belmont Defiant.

August Belmont declared New York would have no transit improvement until confidence was restored, and that the Steinway tunnel would be opened when a "fair arrangement" was made with the city.

Russia Orders a Battleship.

The Russian Admiralty has ordered a battleship of 23,300 tons from the Baltic shipbuilding works.

The Banner.

Entered and Published every Thursday at Clanton, Bibb County, Ala.

Entered at the postoffice at Clanton, Ala., as second-class mail matter.

"Here shall the press the people's rights maintain,
Unawed by influence and unbribed by gain;
Here patriot truth her glorious precepts draw,
Dictate to religion, liberty and law."

Subscription, yearly . . . $1.00
Invariably in advance.

Address all communications to THE BANNER, Clanton, Ala.

WILL YOU, PLEASE,

stop for one moment in your busy working day and think when your last subscription to The Banner was paid? If your conscience answers it was anywhere within the last twelve months, we ask your pardon, bid you God speed and go on again. If, however your conscience says it is more than a year since I paid The Banner anything, then we bid you God speed and hope you will make all the haste possible to come and pay what you are due.

F. A. Gulledge and W. H. Killingsworth have been appointed delegates to the International Cotton Conference to be held in Atlanta, October 7, 8 and 9.

At the recent election in Chicago, on the acception or rejection of the new city charter, out of the 500,000 male citizens over 21 years of age, 320,000 neglected to vote either way. Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch, Evanston's woman justice of the peace, now asks whether all men should not be disfranchised—"first, the stay-at-homes, because they deserve it, and second, those who really did vote, because they belong to a sex where so many are indifferent." Evidently because Mrs. McCulloch has been studying the arguements of the anti-woman-suffragists.

Good News for the Old Vets.

The first quarterly payment of the old soldiers pensions are in the hands of the Judge of Probate. There are two first class warrants at $25.00 each, two 2nd class at $20.00 each, one 3rd class at $16.00 and 88 4th class at $12.50 each. These warrants will come in regularly on the first of each quarter, October, January, April and July.

If you take DeWitt's kidney and Bladder Pills you will get prompt relief from backache, weak kidneys, inflammation of the bladder and urinary troubles. A weeks treatment 25cents. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

Sunday School Convention

of District No. 6, held at Pilgrims Rest Baptist church, Sept. 29, 1907.

Devotional exercise conducted by W. T. Herrod.

Sunday school as an important work, opened by R. P. Kendrick, followed by Rev. W. H. Walker and Rev. T. J. Deramus.

10:30. The duty of a pastor to the Sunday school, opened by Rev. J. F. Johnson, followed by Rev. J. L. Deramus and Rev. W. H. Walker and J. T. Adams.

11. Sunday school mass meeting conducted by W. T. Herrod and Miss Mary Cardwell. Class spoken to by Rev. J. D. Deason. Adjourned for dinner.

1:30 p.m. Song service conducted by R. J. Langston. Hear reports of Sunday schools.

2:30. Why should all Christians go to Sunday school? Opened by Rev. J. D. Deason; spoken to by Revs. W. H. Walker and T. J. Deramus.

We want to extend our thanks to the people of Pilgrims Rest church and the people of that community for the kindness shown to us during this convention. We earnestly insist that the schools be all represented in our next convention, and that the delegates bring a letter from each school, showing how many scholars and the average attendance.

J. T. JONES, JR., Sec.

A Dandy for Burns.

Dr. Bergin, Pana, Ill., writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment; always recommended it to my friends as I am confident there is no better made. 'It is a dandy for burns.' Those who live on farms are especially liable to many accidental cuts, burns, bruises, which heal rapidly when Ballard's Snow Liniment is applied. It should always be kept in the house for cases of emergency." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

BIGGEST AND BEST SHOW EVER HELD IN ALABAMA

With buildings chock full of rare exhibits, an amusement program that was never equaled in this section, and the biggest crowds that ever thronged a state exhibition, the Alabama State Fair will open in Birmingham October 8, to remain in session eight days.

The last lick of work has been done on the grounds and everything is in perfect shape for the big show. Railroads have granted low rates to Birmingham during the fair season, and the thousands are already beginning to reach the city. Hotels are daily receiving application for room.

The race horses are being worked out on a track that is the best south of the Ohio river and fine sport is promised. An airship, Walter Christie's motor cars, racing ostriches, cannon balloon, animal shows, Iggorrote natives and hundreds of other attractions are beginning to arrive and get in shape for the crowds.

It will be the liveliest week in the history of Birmingham. The city is in gala attire for the visitors, and the crowds will find a warm welcome waiting them. Nothing like this eight day season has ever been pulled off in the state.

There'll be something doing every minute. The fair with all its countless amusements will be jammed every day, but Birmingham alone offers plenty of attraction for the visitor. Four theatres in full blast, together with the fall openings of the merchants will afford interest for everybody.

Quinsy, Sprains and Swellings Cured.

"In November 1901, I caught cold and had the quinsy. My throat was swollen so I could hardly breathe I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me relief in a short time. In two days I was all right," says Mrs. L. Cousins, Otterburn, Mich. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment as is especially valuable for sprains and swellings. For sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Birmingham, Ala., Sept 30, 1907

Editor Banner—Please allow me just a word to the Banner and its many readers, as I have not had the pleasure of writing to my home county and paper as well since my stay in Birmingham. I would like to express myself upon the vital questions arising in the county, but will not worry you with so much this time.

The subject which I wish to mention is this. Shall we have a dry county or a wet one? The issue is before us to-day and it behooves us to say what we will do with it. I can say that Jefferson county has some of the best people in the State and we are surrounded by 151 saloons which we intend to cast our votes on October the 28th for a dry county, while you are surrounded by only good friends. I say let not one dram shop stand in the center of your county.

I believe out of the 9,000 qualified voters of Jefferson county we have 6,000 who have signed our petition, and we are looking for the State to follow. Do you know that the drink bill of the United States is $1,410,236,702.00? All the corn, wheat, rye, oats, barley, buckwheat and potatoes put together would not pay for it. The liquor traffic each year costs more than our whole civil service, our army, navy and congress, the river, harbor and pension bills, all we pay for local government, all national, State and county debts and all the schools in the country. In fact, this government pays more for liquor than for every function of every kind of government.

I had better quit and come again when I hear from some of the good old subscrrbers to the dear old Banner. Respectfully yours,

SAM R. BILLINGSLEY.

Does Your Heart Beat

Yes. 100,000 times each day. Does it send out good blood or bad blood? You know, for good blood is good health; bad blood, bad health. And you know precisely what to take for bad blood—Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Doctors have endorsed it for 60 years.

One frequent cause of bad blood is a sluggish liver. This produces constipation. Poisonous substances are then absorbed into the blood. Keep the bowels open with Ayer's Pills.

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass. Also manufacturers of

Ayer's HAIR VIGOR. AGUE CURE. CHERRY PECTORAL.

We have no secrets! We publish the formulas of all our medicines.

VALUABLE INFORMATION

Something Every Person in Clanton Should Know.

Ninety three hundred years have passed since the medicinal, curative elements known to exist in the cod's liver were first discovered and recognized by physicians as a specific in the treatment of pulmonary and wasting diseases, and as a body builder and strength creator; but how to extract those medicinal elements from the oil in which they were enveloped, has been the study of some of the most expert chemists in the world.

Now, the process discovered by two eminent French chemists, Morgens and Gautier, should interest every person in Clanton. By an extractive concentrating process, they discovered a way to separate the tonic, body building and curative elements contained in fresh cod's livers from their useless oil. By this process Vinol is made.

Because Vinol contains no oil but embodies all the medicinal value of cod liver oil, with tonic iron added, it is fast superseding old fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions. As a body builder and strength creator for old people, weak women, delicate children, after sickness, and for all pulmonary troubles, nothing has ever been known to excel Vinol. We ask Clanton people to try Vinol on our offer to return their money if it does not give satisfaction. Upchurch Drug Co.

How to Cure a Cold.

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlin's Cough Remedy for years and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

East Tallassee, Ala., Sept. 22, 1907

Dear Editor:—Please allow me space in your valuable paper for a few words as I have never written anything before.

Times are lively, everybody enjoying themselves.

Health of this community is very good at present.

We are having some nice rain now and I think it will help the feelings of the people, for it has been dry so long.

There was an entertainment at Mrs. M. A. Koel's. We all sure did enjoy ourselves; had music and played several plays, and it was enjoyed by a great many of the young people.

Everybody is fixing for the all-day singin at Chaney Creek expecting to have a nice time.

Mr. Homer Carrel of Dadeville is visiting friends here.

Messrs. Homer McNeill and Robert Tidwell and friends are visiting relatives at East Tallassee.

There was an ice cream supper at Mrs. Anderson's Saturday night.

Well I will close as this is my first to the Banner; will try and come again.

A BANNER READER.

Out of Sight.

"Out of sight, out of mind," is an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's out of sight, out of mind and out of existence. Piles too, and chilblains disappear under its healing influence. Guaranteed by Upchurch Drug co. 25c.

Sardis.

Cotton picking is all the go these days.

I noticed in last week's issue where Two Pets said that our Sunday school at this place was progressing nicely. I think our Sunday school has about gone dead, we haven't had any Sunday school in about a month, but we hope to revive our Sunday school and have it progressing nicely in the near future.

A number of people from this community attended the Sunday school convention at Pilgrims Rest Sunday.

Mr. Lee Popwell and Miss Zadie Deason attended the singing at Liberty and reported a nice time.

We feel sure that we are going to have a good school at Vermont this winter, and we certainly do need a good school, for there are so many children growing up in this community that need an education, for the time will soon come when those growing up now will have to take the places of the older ones and they need to be preparing now.

I will close with best wishes to the Banner and its many readers.

CLOD KNOCKER.

Shadnicks.

I noticed several estimates in the Banner as to the amount of this years cotton crop, but I also noticed no one has figured on the shortage in fact. I've noticed in years before this that 1,000 lbs seed cotton would give from 340 to 370 lbs lint, but this year it is at least 10 per cent short, which would only give a yield of about ⅓. The above has been my experience in my own crop and also in ginning for the public. My observation has been limited, but I find in West Chilton, Autauga and Dallas counties the crop will not exceed 65 per cent. The 19th of this month I rode fifty miles on horse back over one of the best cotton producing counties of the State and I found a 65 per cent estimate some too great. We are having a great fight in this county for organization among the farmers. I, for one, am in sympathy with them to some extent, but not when they become too unreasonable. I noticed a call in the Banner for the farmers to meet on a certain date to elect a county doctor. Fighting their Union. They know more about their needs and what it takes to protect their interests than any other class of people, and now tell me why should the right of organization be denied them any more so than the farmer. You say to give you a fair compensation for your labor, you must have 15c for your cotton and $20 per ton for cotton seed. Why should they not have the same right to place their fees at such figures as to give them a fair compensation?

No longer than yesterday a man walked into the store, and after settling his account, said to me, What are you going to gin for this season? I said 40c per 100 lbs. He said that is higher than you ginned for last year. I said yes, labor and the cost of repairs and everything else has gone up, and to make a living, I just can't afford to gin for a cheaper less. Now, that same man is one of the number that said we must have 15c for cotton and $20 per ton for seed. Trying to deny me the privilege that he, himself was exercising. "Equal rights to all and special privileges to none." I wish the Union success but go at it in a reasonable and legitimate way. Never fight any other organization from a prejudice standpoint. Every class must seek protection through organization or some other way as well as the farmer. Equal rights to all and special privileges to none.

Respectfully,

DEMOCRAT.

Plant Juice at Florence Drug Store.

Hard Times in Kansas.

The old days of grasshoppers and drouth are almost forgotten in the prosperous Kansas of today; although a citizen of Coddell, Earl Shamburg, has not yet forgoten a hard time he encountered. He says: "I was worn out and discouraged by a coughing night and day, and could find no relief until I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. It took less than one bottle to completely cure me." The safest and most reliable cough and cold remedy and lung and throat healer ever discovered. Guaranteed by Upchurch Drug co. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.

List of Letters remaining uncalled for in Clanton, Ala., postoffice, for week ending Sept. 28, 1907. Persons calling for same will please say "advertised" and give date. One cent must be paid on each letter.

GENTLEMEN'S LIST.

Mr. Range.

LADIES' LIST.

Alic Davis, Margot Litteor, Ada Wheler.

These letters will be sent to the dead Letter office, Oct. 12, 1907, if not delivered before.

F. O. DUDLEY, Postmaster.

Culp School House.

Dear Editor—Please allow me space in your paper to announce that we are going to have a debate at this place, Saturday night, Oct. 5. The subject for discussion is "Resolved, that more information can be gained by traveling than reading." The speakers are as follows: Affirmative, J. Harvey Williams and Rufus Popwell. Negative, Howard Reper and Curry Culp. Everybody is invited to come and help us make it a success.

A STUDENT.

RANDOLPH CIRCUIT.

Beginning Saturday morning, Oct. 12, Rev. C. A. Rush, Presiding Elder, will assist the pastor in a series of religious educational services to be held at the several churches on Randolph circuit, as follows:

Isabella, Saturday and Sunday.
Maplesville, Sunday night.
Pleasant Hill, Monday, 11 and 2.
Tuberoscia, Tuesday, 11 and 2.
New Prospect, Wednesday, 11 and 2.
Randolph, Wednesday night.
Cox's Chapel, Thursday, 11 and 2.

Subject for morning services, "Church ordinances." The evening and night hours will be devoted to "Church conferences," with a special discussion of "Church institutions" by Bro. Rush.

We hope to hold a communion service at each church; also to present an interesting exhibit of Randolph circuit, showing what we are doing, and who is doing it.

We extend a cordial invitation to everybody. Come and get better acquainted with Methodism and what we stand for. Dinner on the ground every day except Sunday.

The last regular Quarterly Conference for this year will be held at Isabella, Saturday evening, Oct 12, 1907. Stewards and Trustees are urged to be present and make reports. E. B. PAUL, P. C.

Letter to Farley & Thacker

Clanton, Ala.

Dear Sirs: They're glad they found out Devoe.

Corpus Christi, Texas, is right on the Gulf and one of the hardest climates for paint; hot sun, salt air, and strong winds.

The Sidbury Building, painted Devoe in 1899, is a shining example of perfect paint snow-white after 7 years, as if painted last week.

We should like every property-owner from Maine to Mexico to see that white white white.

Experience teaches who wants to learn as well as who waits to be kicked.

Yours truly

34 F. W. DEVOE & CO

A Certain Cure for Croup—Used for Ten Years Without a Failure.

Mr. W. C. Bott, Star City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much feared the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to his friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequaled for croup and whooping cough. For sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

We wish to tell you in time we have bought a fine line of goods for this Xmas. Florence Drug Store

---

Won't Knock O

This is an unlucky [illegible] ment, isn't it? Well the [illegible] Girls' "Eternity" School are the strongest proposition footwear line we have ever [illegible] that's why they won't break.

The Boys and Girls want all they want is fun.

"They Can't Kick Out [illegible]

They are foot culture [illegible] cause they give the [illegible] room to breathe. They are [illegible] across the toe; each toe has to breathe and grow.

These shoes are made [illegible] foot conforming lasts out of [illegible] popular leathers and every [illegible] made by an expert in a big [illegible] factory. The soles are [illegible] with screws which will not allow them to pull apart. The [illegible] double soled that will wear [illegible] young people's feet to get [illegible] children always have warm [illegible] feet, they won't be sick.

Watch them carefully and remember "Eternity" School Shoes fill every requirement. "Eternity" Shoes cost no more than [illegible] that do not satisfy. The [illegible] on the heel and the [illegible] "Eternity" on the sole [illegible] you. These emblems [illegible] are a guarantee to you [illegible] shoe is honestly constructed [illegible] full of satisfaction. "Eternity" School Shoes for Boys and Girls are made by [illegible] MANUFACTURERS.

When you see the shoes know the prices, you will buy them. Come and see.

J. C. JONES
Clanton

"Star Brand Shoes Are Better"

Get Ready Now to Visit the Great Second Annual

ALABAMA AGRICULTURAL FAIR
MONTGOMERY
October 24 to November 2

Absolutely the most intensely interesting and entertaining combination of amusement and instruction ever brought together. It is an education in itself in everything pertaining to modern, progressive agriculture, live stock raising, etc. The most comfortable welcome and reasonable accomodations await every visitor. COME, bring your family, and interest all your friends. Mammoth Womans' Display affords everything new and fascinating to the fair sex. Unsurpassed FREE ATTRACTIONS consist of the most daring aerial acrobatics; tight rope walking etc.; daily horse racing; entertaining commedians, and the thrilling ascent of ROMOLA, the celebrated ballonist, who at the height of the ascent, is shot from an immense cannon attached to the balloon. You must not miss it. For premium list write

Alabama Agricultural Association
MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA
ROBERT TAIT, Secretary

The effect of Scott's Emulsion on thin, pale children is magical.

It makes them plump, rosy, active, happy.

It contains Cod Liver Oil, Hypophosphites and Glycerine, to make fat, blood and bone, and so put together that it is easily digested by little folk.

ALL DRUGGISTS: 50c. AND $1.00.

LEST WE forget—Baby is restless, can't sleep at night, won't eat, cries fretfully. A bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge never fails to relieve. Every mother should give her children White's Cream Vermifuge when many times when the baby is cross and fretful, the mother does not know what to do. A bottle of this medicine would bring smiles and laughter to baby. Give it a trial. Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

NEWS ITEMS

[illegible] Mrs. Gus Hart [illegible] day [illegible] @ 11½ [illegible] same date last year 9 @ 9½c [illegible] cotton receipts [illegible] to 5 p.m. Wednesday 534

Mr. Geo. P. Dickinson of Tampa, Fla., who is pleasantly remembered as a teacher in the Clanton [illegible] a few years ago, spent [illegible] days of days with friends here [illegible] week.

Mr. J. E. Robinson, Sr., spent a few days in Birmingham this week.

FOR YOUR CHILDREN

When one thinks of "Piano" they have in mind something ever [illegible]. That is why "Star Brand" manufacturers named their boys' and girls' school shoes "Piano." They wear like iron. See [illegible]

J. C. JONES, Clanton

Mr. E. S. Lyman of Montevallo [illegible] Friday in Clanton on legal business.

Mr. Ab Tolland of Calera visited the family of Mr. A. M. Piper, Sunday.

Call and get a little package we have for you. Florence Drug Store.

Miss N. E. McDaniel of Tuscaloosa is visiting her sister, Mrs. [illegible]

Miss Fannie Hand of Oxford is guest of Mrs. Belle George, Mrs. Piper for a few days.

If it's a Fountain Pen you want you will find them at Upchurch Drug Co., at all prices and of the [illegible] make.

Mr. E. A. Elland of Route 6 was in Clanton here Monday.

Mr. L. N. Henderson of Verbena was in a pleasant call Monday.

[illegible] cause of constipation, many more headaches promptly relieved when you take DeWitt's Little Early Riser Pills. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

Mr. N. J. Jones of Verbena was among our welcome visitors Saturday.

Mr. H. C. Young of Jumbo was in Clanton looking well [illegible]

Mr. A. M. Cunningham of Route [illegible] was in town Saturday.

GO TO THE NEW STORE—[illegible] 21¢ per doz., Good Coffee, [illegible] for $1.00; Best Granulated [illegible], 19 lbs for $1.00. Highest [illegible] paid for Country Produce and [illegible] Ties.

C. W. REYNOLDS & Co

Mr. W. H. Robinson of Route 1 was a welcome caller Saturday.

Mr. H. W. Caffey of Verbena was in Monday in Clanton.

[illegible] the regular meeting of Clanton Lodge No. 304, I. O. O. F., [illegible] held Saturday night, Oct. 12, [illegible] will be work in the Initiatory, First and Second Degrees. All members are requested to be present.

[illegible] the leading monthly magazines and newspapers kept in stock at Florence Drug Store.

Mrs. Kate Anderson of Birmingham is visiting her mother, Mrs. [illegible] Colquitt.

Miss Fannie Belle Parry of Montgomery is visiting Miss Essie McNeal.

Mrs. Gamma Anderson has returned from a visit to Mulberry Buy Cannon & Sons' Wagons [illegible] you buy.

Mesdames I. N. and D. L. Langley of Jemison visited Clanton Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reynolds and family of Jemison spent Sunday with the family of Judge Rey[illegible]

Mr. C. H. Baxley left Wednesday for Sylacauga to spend a few days with her father, C. M. Martin, who has just returned from the St. [illegible] Hospital at Birmingham, where he had an operation. Mr. [illegible] is not expected to live.

Buy you a RAZOR from the Upchurch Drug co.—the three in kind—guaranteed for three [illegible]

Marriage licenses have been issued this week by the Probate Judge to the following persons.

Mr. Maud Aitchinson and Miss Pearl [illegible]; Mr. S. Dennis and Miss Elvie [illegible]

You never have any trouble to get children to take Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. They like it because it tastes nearly like maple sugar. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup is a safe, sure and prompt remedy for coughs and colds and is [illegible] for every member of the family. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

...UIT.
...morning.
...ch, Presid-
...e pas'or in
...educational
...the several
...circuit, as

...nday.
...and 2.
...nd 2
...y, 11 and 2
...ght.
...11 and 2.
...g services.
...The even-
...be devoted
...s," with a
...hurch meti-

...communion
...also to pre-
...bit of Ran-
...what we are
...it
...vitation to
...get better
...odism and
...nner on the ...Sunday
...rterly Con-
...l be held at
...ning, Oct
...d Trustees
...and make
...L, P. C

...Thacker

...glad they
...is right on
...he hardest
...un, salt air,

...g, painted
...ning exa n-
...now-white
...ainted last

...property-
...exico to see

...ho wants to
...waits to be

...E & CO
...for Ten Years
...City, Ind.
...enthusiastic
...ain's Cough
...save all
...and he has
...e past te
...much feared
...he always
...when a bot
...ugh Remedy
...oldest child
...attacks of
...never failed
...He has rec
...friends and
...ave used it
...for grou
...For sale by
...Clanton; A.

...in time we
...of goods f r
...Drug S ore

Won't Knock O...

This is an awfully ... ment, isn't it? Well the ... Girls' "Eternity" School ... are the strongest proposi... footwear line we have ... that's why they won't ... The Boys and Girls ... all they want to but,

"They Can't Kick Out ...

They are foot culture ... cause they give the ... room to breathe. They ... across the toe; each toe ... to breathe and grow.

These shoes are made ... foot conforming lasts out of ... popular leathers and every ... made by an expert in a big ... factory. The soles are ... with screws which will ... them to pull apart. They ... double soles that will ... young people's feet to get ... children always have warm ... feet, they won't be sick.

Watch them carefully and ... member "Eternity" School ... fill every requirement. "... Shoes cost no more than ... that do not satisfy. The "... on the heel and the ... "Eternity" on the sole ... you. These emblems of ... are a guarantee to you that ... shoe is honestly constructed ... full of satisfaction. "... School Shoes for Boys and ... are made by ... MANUFACTURERS ...

When you see the shoes ... know the prices, you will ... them. Come and see.

J. C. JONES,
Clanton

"Star Brand Shoes Are Better"

...ow to Visit the Great Second Annual

...A AGRICULTURAL FAIR
...ONTGOMERY
...r 24 to November 2

...e most intensly interesting and enter... ...nation of amusement and instruction ... together. It is an education in itself ... pertaining to modern, progressive ...ve stock raising, etc. The most com... ...ome and reasonable accomodations ...sitor. COME, bring your family, and ...ur friends. Mammoth Womans' Dis... ...ything new and fascinating to the fair sex. ...EE ATTRACTIONS consist of the ...al acrobatics; tight rope walking etc.; daily ...ntertaining commedians, and the thrilling ...OLA, the celebrated balloonist, who at the ...cent, is shot from an immense cannon attached ...You must not miss it. For premium list write

Agricultural Association
...ONTGOMERY, ALABAMA
...RT TAIT, Secretary

LEST WE

forget—Baby is restless, can't ... at night, won't eat, cries ... cally. A bottle of Whit ... Vermifuge never fails to ... Every mother should give her ... White's Cream Ve mifuge ... many times when the baby is ... and fretful, the mother does ... know what to do. A bottle of ... medicine would bring smiles to ... cheeks and laughter to ... Give it a trial. Sold by ... Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, ... by.

...TOWN TOPICS

...Clanton Cotton Market ...
...day.....11½ @ 11½
...same date last year 9 @ 9½c

...cotton receipts
...5 p.m. Wednesday..... 554

...Mr. Geo. P. Dickinson of Tam... ...Co., who is pleasantly remem... ...as a teacher in the Clanton ... a few years ago, spent a ... ...ple of days with friends here ...week.

...Mr. J. E. Robinson, Sr., spent a ...days in Birmingham this week.

FOR YOUR CHILDREN.

...When one thinks of "Eternity" ...ve in mind something ever... That is why "Star Brand" ...manufacturers named their ...and girls' school shoes "Eter... They wear like iron. See ...

J. C. JONES, Clanton.

...Mr. E. S. Lyman of Montevallo ...Friday in Clanton on legal ...

...Mr. Ab Tolland of Calera visited ...family of Mr. A. M. Piper, ...day.

...Call and get a little package we ...for you. Florence Drug Store.

...Miss N. E. McDaniel of Tusca... ...is visiting her sister, Mrs. ...

...Miss Fannie Hand of Oxford is ...guest of Mrs. Belle George ...Mrs. Piper for a few days.

...If it's a Fountain Pen you want ...will find them at Upchurch ...Co., at all prices and of the ...make.

...Mr. F. A. Eiland of Route 6 was ...here Monday.

...Mr. L. N. Henderson of Verbe... ...was a pleasant call Monday.

...For acute cases of constipation, ...many more headaches promptly ...relief when you take DeWitt's ...Little Early Riser Pills. Sold by ...Upchurch Drug co.

...Mr. N. J. Jones of Verbena was ...amongst our welcome visitors Sat...

...Mr. H. C. Young of Jumbo we ...were glad to see looking so well ...Monday.

...Mr. A. M. Cunningham of Route ...was in town Saturday.

...COME TO THE NEW STORE—... ...Coffee 21¢ per doz., Good Coffee, ...10 lbs for $1.00; Best Granulated ...Sugar, 19 lbs for $1.00. Highest ...price paid for Country Produce and ...Cotton Ties.

C. W. REYNOLDS & Co.

...Mr. W. H. Robinson of Route 1 ...a welcome caller Saturday.

...Mr. H. W. Caffey of Verbena ...Monday in Clanton.

...The regular meeting of Clan... ...Lodge No. 304, I. O. O. F., ...held Saturday night, Oct. 12, ...will be work in the Initiatory ...First and Second Degrees. All ...members are requested to be present.

...The leading monthly maga... ...and newspapers kept in stock ...at Horace Drug Store.

...Miss Kate Anderson of Birming... ...is visiting her mother, Mrs. ...Anderson.

...Miss Fannie Belle Perry of Mont... ...gomery is visiting Miss Essie Mc...

...Miss Gamma Anderson has re... ...turned from a visit to Mulberry.

...Mr. Cannon & Sons' Wagons ...when you buy.

...Messrs. I. N. and D. L. Lang... ...of Jemison visited Clanton ...Tuesday.

...Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reynolds ...family of Jemison spent Sun... ...with the family of Judge Rey...

...Mr. C. H. Baxley left Wednes... ...for Sylacauga to spend a few ...with her father, C. M. Martin, ...who just returned from the St. ...Vincent Hospital at Birmingham, ...where he had an operation. Mr. ...Martin is not expected to live.

...Buy you a RAZOR from the ...Upchurch Drug co.—the three ...kind—guaranteed for three ...

...Marriage licenses have been issued ...this week by the Probate Judge to ...the following persons.

...Mr. Reed Atchinson and Miss Pearl ...Upton; Mr. S. Dennis and Miss Elvie ...

...You never have any trouble to ...get children to take Kennedy's Lax... ...Honey Cough Syrup. They like it ...because it tastes nearly like maple ...syrup. Kennedy's Laxative Cough ...Syrup is a safe, sure and prompt ...remedy for coughs and colds and is ...good for every member of the fam... ...Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

How is the Time

We are now ready to show you a full line of Clothing, Shoes, Hats, and complete line of Dress Goods.

Furniture, Stoves, Sewing Machines, etc.

Tennessee and Fish Wagons.

Everything to make Stock-house and farm complete. Give us a trial and if we can't sell you we will be badly mistaken.

E. M. PINCKARD & CO.
CLANTON

The C. C. Sunday school class being raised out last Friday evening will have a candy breaking and not a candy stew, at the old school house on Friday evening, Oct 4th. Doors open at 7:30 for the Orphans' Home. Admission 10 cents.

A Criminal Attack.

...an offensive citizen is frequently made is that apparently useless little tube called the "appendix." It's generally the result of protracted constipation, following liver torpor. Dr. King's New Life Pills regulate the liver, prevent appendicitis, and establish regular habits of the bowels. 25c at Upchurch Drug co.

Don't fail to call and see Miss Minnie Mare's line of fall and winter hats. She has a beautiful line. Prices reasonable.

Afflicted with Sore Eyes for 30 Years.

I have been afflicted with sore eyes for thirty-three years. Thirteen years ago I became totally blind and was blind for six years. My eyes were badly inflamed. One of my neighbors insisted upon my trying Chamberlain's Salve and gave me half a box of it. To my surprise it healed my eyes and my sight came back to me.—P. C. HAILS, Cynthiana, Ky. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

S. B. CARTER — S. P. MASSEY

CLANTON FURNITURE CO.

DEALERS IN

Furniture, Stoves, Lamps, Clocks, Shades, Matting, Rugs and House Furnishing Goods of every kind. Needles and Supplies for all Sewing Machines. We also do Repairing, Upholstering and Refinishing. We sell cheap for cash or on easy payments.

TRY OUR 5 & 10 CENT BARGAIN COUNTER

Your patronage solicited.

CLANTON ALABAMA

ATTENTION! BANNER READERS

You are cordially invited to call and see my New Fall Stock of Solid Gold and Gold Filled Watches, Diamond Brooches, Rings, etc., Solid Gold and Gold Filled Jewelry of every description in elegant designs.

The Famous Simmons Watch Chains, 1847 Rogers Bros. Silverware. See it for yourself.

No Use Going to Montgomery or Birmingham

MARTIN, the Jeweler by the Post Office, Calera, Ala., can supply your wants for less money. This store is the place for ladies to do their Fall and Christmas shopping. We are expert Watchmakers.

J. W. MARTIN
THE JEWELER BY THE POST OFFICE
Calera, Ala.

The Calera Machine Repair Shop

is now open for General Repair Work. We repair Engines, Boilers, Saw Mills or any other Machinery that comes to hand. We guarantee all our work.

We also buy second hand machinery of all kinds.

We do all kinds of Pipe work.

We are also prepared with all Modern Tools, and have an expert Saw Hammerer who will straighten your Crooked Saws, and will Gum and Dress them, so that they will run and cut good smooth lumber and use 20 per cent less power.

We repair all kinds of Household Goods.

We do all kinds of Round Wood Turning, from an Ornamental Column to a Shell Spindle.

In short, we are here for business and to do you good.

We solicit a trial.

THE CALERA MACHINE REPAIR SHOP
CALERA, ALA.

A Sewing Machine

well made, nicely finished, has improvements over the old styles, runs easily and quietly, low cost, but good work and quality.

Come in and examine it, you will be surprised at our good value for $18.00.

SPIGENER & JONES
The Hardware Store
CLANTON

TAX NOTICE.

Assessor's and Collector's FIRST ROUND.

We will attend at the following times and places for the purpose of collecting the State and County taxes of Chilton county, for the year 1907, and assessing the taxes for the year 1908.

Clanton	Mon	7	October	4
Maplesville	"	7	"	5
Stanton	"	8	"	7
Marbleville	"	8	"	8
Providence	"	8	"	9
Jemison	"	9	"	10
Mineral Springs	"	10	"	11
Pilot Hill	"	11	"	12
Thorsby	"	12	"	14
Cane Creek	"	14	"	15
Chelsea	"	14	"	16
Cooper	"	15	"	17
Verbena	"	16	"	18

L. S. POWELL, Tax Assessor.
T. F. HUDGENS, Tax Collector.

JULIUS CAESAR

was a man of nerve but sickness left to mark and he became aged before his time. Sickness is often caused by a torpid liver. Herbine will regulate your liver and give you health. Mrs. Carrie Austin, Hollen, Kansas, writes "I consider Herbine the best medicine I ever heard of. I am never without it." Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Jemison.

Jemison is not feeling good just now over the resignation of Bro. Loftin as pastor of the Baptist church. Bro. Loftin is much loved by all denominations and his place will not be readily or easily filled. He is one of the most consecrated men we have ever met. He leaves us to enter Baylor University, Waco, Texas. We predict for him a bright future.

CITIZEN OF JEMISON.

Rockymount.

The annual revival meeting will be on hand the second Sunday in November at this place. The pastor in charge has secured the services of Evangelist J. L. Brasher to do the preaching. All Christian workers are cordially invited. J. B. Hu...

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty-three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson, Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the little happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, kidney and liver troubles by Upchurch Drug co. 50c.

MAKE MONEY
During the Fair

When you come to Birmingham, buy a lot in

CRESTLINE HEIGHTS

$15 down and $10 a month, without interest or taxes. Choicest residence property in Birmingham—out selling all others. Number of lots limited and they will double in value in two or three years.

Two special sales days for visitors to the Fair—Oct. 10 and 14. Free automobile service.

Present prices of lots—$150 to $250—will be advanced 10 per cent Oct. 15. So get in on the ground floor. Sales agents—JEFFERSON COUNTY BANK, JACKSON, R. E. AND INS. CO., BEASLEY BROTHERS

KILL THE COUGH AND CURE THE LUNGS

WITH Dr. King's New Discovery

FOR COUGHS & COLDS PRICE 50¢ & $1.00 TRIAL BOTTLE FREE

AND ALL THROAT AND LUNG TROUBLES.

GUARANTEED SATISFACTORY OR MONEY REFUNDED.

Schloss, in Dutch, means a Castle

Schloss, in English, means Good Clothes

Krump on the Korner Got 'em

Come in and Get 'em Then Wear 'em

'Gin the Law Not to Wear 'em

A suit of 'em would get Crichton off. Try 'em!

KRUMP
ON THE KORNER
MAPLESVILLE - - ALA.

—GO TO—

A. M. JOHNSON
—MANAGER OF—
THE CASH GROCERY STORE
THORSBY, ALA.
FOR BARGAINS IN
Staple and Fancy Groceries

We make a specialty of Fresh Fish and Oysters, Fresh Fruit and all kinds of Sausage, Breakfast Bacon, Boneless Ham and ...

—DELICATESSEN—

Pop, Soda Water and Jersey Butter always on hand.

Country Produce Bought, Sold and Exchanged.

NOTICE.

Real Estate, Fire, Life Insurance and Singer Machines.

I have on hand now some nice and convenient places for rent and some extra bargains in real estate. I also represent several leading fire insurance companies, and the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co.

My High Arm Singer Machine Stock is complete; Machines that sew perfect, run lighter and last longer than any other make. Remember, too, the price has been cut and you can get any terms you wish, monthly or annual payments. Also $5.00 allowance for your old machine.

Several good second hand Machines on hand at a bargain.

Needles, Bands, Cans, Attachments, and the only genuine Machine Oil made, 10 and 25¢ bottles.

I also represent the Jesse French Piano & Organ Co. When you need anything in my line, call on me at same old stand. Regular office days Friday, Saturday and Monday of each week.

C. R. MULLINS
CLANTON

JUST RECEIVED. NOTHING BETTER

Don't fail to call and see our

Forest City Brand Over and Under Shirts

A complete line of Winter Underwear for Men, Women and Children

The Finest Line of Metropolitan Dress Shirts Everything in this line is complete. Also in Overalls and Pants

A SPECIAL LINE OF CHINAWARE
SEE US BEFORE YOU BUY.

HEADLEY BROS.
GENERAL MERCHANDISE
ON THE CORNER CLANTON

TO PUBLISHERS AND PRINTERS

We Manufacture the Very Highest Grade of

Type, Brass Rule in Strips, Brass Labor Saving Rule, Brass Column Rules, Brass Circles, Brass Leaders Brass Round Corners, Brass Leads and Slugs, Brass Galleys, Metal Borders, L. S. Metal Furniture, Leads and Slugs, Metal Leaders, Spaces and Quads, 6 to 48 point, Metal Quoins, etc.

Old Column Rules reduced and made as good as new at a small cost.

Please remember that we are not in any Trust or Combination and are sure that we can make it greatly to your advantage to deal with us.

A copy of our Catalogue will be cheerfully furnished on application.

PHILADELPHIA PRINTERS' SUPPLY CO.

Type and High Grade Printing Material

PROPRIETORS PENN TYPE FOUNDRY — 29 North Ninth Street PHILADELPHIA

CAPTURE, KILL OR DRIVE INTO OCEAN

Orders of Governor Magoon in Regard to Revolutionists.

SOLDIERS BEHIND BANDITS

Pointed Out That Combination of Circumstances Makes Serious a Situation Which is Really Not So Bad After All.

Havana, Cuba.—The small band of rebels which have been traversing the country in the vicinity of Mayari, in the northern sections of Santiago province, has, according to late dispatches, again exchanged shots with the pursuing rurales. The latter are close on the heels of the banditti.

While there are signs of unrest in various parts of the island, the opinion prevails here that no serious disturbance is likely. In commenting on the situation the Diario De La Marina says:

"A combination of unpleasant circumstances having no link one with the other appears to make the situation at first sight more serious than it really is. Each one of the problems that at present confront the administration—the yellow fever epidemic, the conspiracy, the existence of bands of outlaws in the country and the railway strike—is of an alarming character, but except for the tendency of the strike to become general and stop railway communication throughout the island these events are of no great importance in themselves. There is no reason for extraordinary alarm or for believing Cuba is on the brink of an abyss."

Most people think that the railroad and other strikes offer more prospects of serious trouble than the threatened revolution. The lighter men of Havana harbor will probably strike at once and the stevedores in a few days.

Governor Magoon has determined to deal with the outlaws and insurrectionists with a strong hand. The orders to the rurales, it is stated, are to capture, kill or drive them into the ocean.

VERY YOUNG MOTHER.

Only Seventeen Years Old and Has Three Children.

Paducah, Ky.—Although but 17 years old and the mother of three children, Eula Spann has filed a suit in the McCracken circuit court against her husband, Bud Spann, a laborer, for divorce, alleging that he has bruised and beaten her and non-support. Spann was recently fined in Justice C. W. Emery's court for beating his wife and it was her evidence that revealed his inhuman treatment to her. After the case was over she declared that she wanted a divorce, but had no funds. Former County Attorney Eugene Graves volunteered to draw up the petition and prosecute the case and he was accepted. Circuit Clerk Joe Miller donated the fee for filing the petition and at the next term of court her case will be docketed for a hearing. The mother also asks for the custody of her children. She is helping support them with her labor at a mill.

TWO WOMEN KILLED.

Negligence on the Part of the Engine Crew Is Ascribed as the Cause.

Norfolk, Va.—Mrs. Henry Holmes and Mrs. U. G. Mussell, of Springfield, Mass., delegates to the convention of Bible Students of America, in session here, were run down by a Norfolk and Western switch engine in this city and were instantly killed. No headlight was on the tender of the engine nor was there a flagman on the running board as the train backed out of the Merchants' and Miners warehouse across Main street.

The crew declare they heard no screams and saw no one, although eye witnesses say that the women shrieked at the top of their voices.

King Carlos to Quit Throne.

Lisbon, Portugal.—Boycotted by practically all the leading families of his realm, King Carlos has weakened under the pressure brought upon him by the allied opposition party leaders and probably will abdicate within a few days in favor of the crown prince. It is said he has already signified that he prefers surrender to a continuation of the persecution to which lately he has been subjected. There is fear of a popular outbreak, however, and extraordinary military precautions have been taken to maintain order. Troops are surrounding the docks and guarding the streets.

Failed to Win His Indian Bride.

Bartletsville, I. T.—As a result of the defeat of Frank Hubbard, republican candidate for congress from the third district, a romantic wedding dependent upon the success of Mr. Hubbard has been postponed. For some time Mr. Hubbard has been wooing a Muskogee girl and friends of both say that an engagement conditional on Hubbard's election to congress was made, but announced only to a few intimate friends.

"ANYBODY WANT TO BUY A WHITE ELEPHANT?"

—Week's cleverest cartoon by Rogers, in the New York Herald.

"BLACK HAND" WILL MEET FATE OF MOLLY MAGUIRES

Organized in Italy For Noble Purposes, It Has Been Prostituted in This Country to Ignoble Purposes—Aims of Information Bureau of Immigration.

Washington, D. C.—"The Black Hand Society, now operating in New York and elsewhere, will soon run its course and its leaders will be brought to the bar of justice," said Terence V. Powderly, formerly Grand Master of the Knights of Labor and Commissioner-General of Immigration and now Chief of the Division of Information in the Bureau of Immigration.

"In the meantime," he said, "we should not be harsh in our criticisms of the Italians as a race. Most of them are sober, law abiding, industrious people. There is no more danger to the country in Italian immigration than there was in the immigration of certain others races a comparatively few years ago."

These statements were made by Mr. Powderly in a discussion of the work of the Division of Information, which was established by Congress with a view to diverting to the agricultural sections of the country, notably the South, a part of the constantly growing stream of aliens now pouring into the large cities of the East and Middle West.

"Years ago," continued Mr. Powderly, "a number of counties in Pennsylvania were terrorised by a society known as the Molly Maguires. I was born of Irish parents in the region of that State where the Molly Maguires were active. The members of this society were a bad lot, but it would be unjust to say that they were typical of the average in the Irish race.

"The Molly Maguire Society was imported from the Emerald Isle. On its native sod it worked for freedom and was a decent, patriotic organization. As known in this country it was nothing more or less than an organization of marauding cutthroats. It was crushed to earth in Pennsylvania when its leaders were hanged.

"The Black-Hand Society will meet the fate that befell the Molly Maguires. Last summer I spent some time in Italy and took occasion to inquire into the origin of the Black Hand. I found that on its native heath the Black Hand was organized for good—in fact, for the protection of women and young girls. An Italian who wrongs a woman and fails to right the wrong is practically driven from among his fellows. The black hand of ostracism is raised against him. The Black Hand in this country, as in the case of the Molly Maguires, brought into being for noble purposes across the sea, was prostituted and converted to ignoble purposes when transplanted in the United States. But it will soon pass into history as did the Molly Maguires."

If Chief Powderly executes as he has planned Uncle Sam will soon be running the biggest intelligence office on earth. All forms of labor, from household servants to skilled artisans, will be supplied on short notice. Mr. Powderly did not say so directly, but he intimated that the Division of Information will solve the servant girl problem in the United States.

THE TIDE OF IMMIGRATION

1,400,000 Aliens Admitted in the Last Fiscal Year—Frank P. Sargent Says He Doesn't Believe Undesirable Ones Come From Particular Localities.

Washington, D. C.—Commissioner-General of Immigration Frank P. Sargent does not agree with the statement made by Representative John L. Burnett, of Alabama, a member of the Congress Immigration Commission, that undesirable immigrants come from particular localities. Judge Burnett specified Italy, Syria and Asia Minor.

Commissioner-General Sargent's report for the fiscal year which ended June 30, 1907, shows that the total number of aliens admitted for that period was something more than 1,400,000, or in the neighborhood of 200,000 more than came during the year preceding. Concerning Judge Burnett's statement Mr. Sargent said:

"I do not believe it true that undesirable immigrants come wholly from any one country. We do not want people from other countries who are criminals. Neither do we want people who because of political beliefs want to let as much blood as they can, and we do not want people who are shiftless or diseased and who have no ambition to become good citizens. But these classes do not come from any particular society, and it is because we have labor that we are compelled to put up with a certain per cent. of bad timber.

"Industrial prosperity in this country is directly reflected in Europe. An immense amount of labor is needed in the United States. We've got to have labor, and we must take Italian labor. We cannot very well exclude all the Hunchakists and Black Hand people that come in with the labor. Every Italian is not a Black Hand any more than every Armenian as a Hunchakist, but we must have laws that will exclude such persons from the United States. Italians, Sicilians and all others who are honest, who want to own homes of their own and till the soil, give their children that which they had not, an education, and who wish to become good citizens, should be given every opportunity to come into the country, no matter what their race may be."

In reply to a question as to the diversion of the tide of immigration, Mr. Sargent said that it was impossible to divert the growing influx into such a place as New York in a day or a year.

"New York and the large cities are better known abroad than any other localities," he said. "When a family from a certain State in Europe settles in North Carolina or Texas and becomes satisfied its members write to the people back home, and eventually that part of the State becomes colonized with people of the same race and from the same common home in Europe. Gradually the tide is turning to the South, the Southwest and the Northwest.

"In the last twelve months, according to the reports we have had, the immigration into New Orleans and Galveston increased greatly. During the year the greatest number of aliens came from Italy, Austria, Hungary and Russia. Those who went to Galveston were mostly Russian Jews, and this is an indication that the agricultural fields are offering more inducements to such people. All through the South the number of foreign settlers is growing as it becomes known in Europe that those parts of this country offer good fields to bona fide settlers.

"It is only a question of time when foreigners find out they can do better in smaller places than in the big cities, but it is going to require a great many years for that fact to become general knowledge throughout Europe.

"If we have continued prosperity in this country immigration will continue to increase, but just the minute there is a letup in the progression of industrial affairs, as is predicted in some quarters, the tide of immigration will shrink. This has been the history of immigration. The fact that the United States pays higher wages than any country on earth brings immigrants here."

ACCUSED OF KILLING BRIDE.

Philadelphia.—A Coroner's jury here decided that Mary E. Eichenlaub, a bride of only a few months, was killed by her husband and his mother.

Swearing to kill a druggist who gave testimony against him and a Coroner's detective who worked up the case, G. Russell Eichenlaub, the husband, was led out of court.

The testimony led the jury to believe that both the mother and son [illegible]

DEFIANCE TO U. S. COURT.

St. Paul, Minn.—Attorney-General Young appeared before Judge Dunn, in the Ramsey County District Court, and asked for a writ of mandamus against the Northern Pacific Railroad Company to compel that road to put into effect the commodity rate law recently declared illegal by Judge Lochren, of the United States District Court.

Judge Dunn issued the writ, which is made returnable October 5, and the papers were served on the railroad [illegible]

Orchard and Garden

HOW IS THE HORSE?

In view of the panic which overcame some people when automobiles got thick on the roads, here is part of a letter about the growing demand for horses, by a writer in a Chicago paper. This doesn't look as though the horse was sick. The writer says:

A doctor in an Illinois town told me recently (and I verified his statement so far as was necessary to convince me of its truth), that he purchased twelve years ago, a colt, paying $60 for it. He used the colt in the practice till a few weeks ago, and then he sold it for $175. This may seem incredible to you but if you know of some of the other horse dickers that occur at the present time you wouldn't be surprised. In the same Illinois town, for instance, a team of stone-blind horses sold for close to $150. Those blind horses ten or twelve years ago wouldn't have brought $10 apiece.

I traveled lately from Chicago, as far East as I could stand him, with a horse buyer from a good town in New York state. He showed me a list of the horses he had bought in the Chicago market, with the prices annexed. He had purchased one carload for a town in West Virginia and another carload for his own town. The prices read like fairy tales. But I have been close enough to the horse market during the last six months to know they were the bitter truth. One span of black horses weighing about 1,400 pounds each, he had bought for $480, and they were not fancy horses either. One of them, on the contrary, was touched in the wind—"not heavy, y' know, but just a little thick, y' understand," as my informant put it.

Teams of draft horses that run in age from 8 to 12 years and in weight from 1,100 pounds to 1,800 pounds a horse sell for $300 to $700 a span. These look like fancy prices, and they are. In addition, not half the care is displayed in regard to blemishes that was shown formerly when prices ranged more than 50 per cent. lower.

This and much other evidence that easily might be secured ought to indicate conclusively that the horse has triumphed over handlebar and honk; that he is here for keeps, and that the demand for him will not soon, if ever, grow seriously less. But, of course, the breeders will go ahead and supply the demand and put the prices back where they belong as measured by the intrinsic value of the animal.—Indiana Farmer.

DRAINING MEADOW LANDS.

There is a certain carelessness about the care of meadow and pasture lands which is hard to account for. It may be that we are not yet far enough away from the wild lands of a decade or so ago to forget that they grow luxuriant grasses without care or plow. Any one who will take the pains to examine a dozen meadows cannot fail to be impressed with the lack of attention which these lands receive. If a piece of ground is too poor to grow a grain crop it is turned to grass; if it is too wet it is turned to meadow, with the result that lots of this land is not producing enough to pay taxes on it.

Drainage is the only thing needed to convert these low, unprofitable lands into meadows that will produce two or more tons per acre of commercial hay. The herbage growing now on much of this is of no practical value, but when once the soil is subdued and dried out, other grasses readily take hold and make bountiful crops. We have often wondered why so many continue to sow expensive grass on these lands, without first getting rid of the surplus water and other vegetation that is not congenial to tame grasses. Some of the finest meadow lands we have ever seen were a few years ago marsh lands, where marsh hay grew five or six feet high. These lands were first drained by big open ditches, and then were covered by a system of tiles. Within two years after the opening of the ditches this waterlogged soil became dry enough to work, and then the sun and rains did the rest. Stagnant water kills vegetation. Drains carry off this water and let in air and sunlight and enable the soil to digest the rain water as it falls and sinks into the earth.

GROWING PICKLE CUCUMBERS.

A profitable crop for summer planting is the pickling cucumber. It may be grown to good advantage on a piece of run-out pasture land of medium soil. Such land should be plowed early and thoroughly worked, to get loose whatever plant food is available. Fresh land of this kind is likely to be free from the various blights and diseases which so commonly attack cucumbers in old land. A gravelly or clay loam will be satisfactory. The crop should be planted some time in June. It is a quick growing specialty and harvest begins the last of July or the first of August and continues until the vines are killed by frost.

The best fertilizer is barnyard or poultry manure, but good crops may be grown with a small amount of manure and an addition of fertilizer containing considerable nitrogen. The usual plan in this locality is to plant in hills about three feet apart in rows six feet apart. On fairly clean land most of the cultivation may be done with horse implements. After all danger of injury from insects is past the plants are thinned to five or six to the hill. Cultivation is continued until the vines interfere. The aim for planting is from July 10 to five inches. A great difficulty is to keep the crop closely picked. Cucumbers allowed to ripen will greatly lessen the crop and the work should be done by experienced and careful hands. The crop may be taken to pickling factories or shipped to the nearest large city, or salted in brine and later made up into pickles on the farm. The last-mentioned plan is most profitable where there is a local market for the pickles. The pickling crop is as easy one to grow. The great difficulty is to harvest the crop and find a profitable market. For this reason it is best to begin with only a small area.—The Cultivator.

MAINTAINING FERTILITY

It is an old rule that proper field culture should be the same as for a garden spot, which is to use plenty of manure on small areas, work the soil to a fine condition for seed, keep down the grass and weeds and make every inch of space produce to its fullest capacity instead of wasting time, labor and manure over large fields that can not be properly cultivated. Every farmer knows that plant food in the form of manure and fertiliser give increased yields, but it may be a waste of labor not to perform the work of applying such to the field at the proper times. Work improperly done is sometimes a waste of labor and on many farms there is often too much work done for the results gained, frequently the mistakes made being premeditated and in defiance of experience and reason. All plants require a sufficient amount of food, heat and moisture to enable them to reach maturity and yield to their fullest capacity and where the ground is annually devoted to crops the great difficulty is to retain its fertility and to secure from it all that should be derived under the best possible conditions. Any diminution or deterioration of the plant food in the soil must be resupplied in some shape and it is important that the farmer attend to keeping the land up to a high standard of fertility at all seasons, for land that has been bountifully fed will be in a better condition for a succeeding crop, while that which has been overtaxed will gradually lose fertility and entail an additional expense every year.—The Epitomist.

WHAT THE TRAP NEST DOES.

It shows which hen lays the egg.

It picks out the 300-egg hen, the 200-egg, the 100-egg, the 50-egg and the drone. Feeding the drone is one of the greatest leaks of the poultryman.

It picks out the winter layer. It enables one to get acquainted with each individual hen.

The frequent handling and moving hen from the nest tames her and the tame hen is a paying hen.

It prevents egg eating, as the culprit is easily detected and killed.

It picks out the hen that lays the infertile egg, the brown, the white and the yellow egg.

It picks out the hen that raises the best chicks. Not always the highest scoring hen raises the winning chicks.

It is the only practical way that a breeder can pedigree his stock. Poultry will in time be pedigreed as is other pure-bred stock. Trap nests may be placed in a building or yard away from the laying hens (when used for sitting hens) and they can be removed once a day for feed and water. When they return to the nest they shut themselves in and the other hens out so they cannot crowd on and break the eggs.

The trap nest is a simple contrivance by which the door is set on a trigger which is sprung by the hen when she enters. The door closes and she cannot leave the nest until removed by hand.

A numbered band on each hen's leg enables the owner to tell exactly what each hen is doing by writing her number on the eggs in the trap nest.—American Farm World.

TO PLOW AROUND YOUNG TREES.

First, get or make a short evener and whiffletree. The latter every farmer will have anyway to cultivate in tall corn. Fix the lines so the horses will walk close together, and you can throw the furrow toward the young trees without difficulty with an ordinary plow set to take as little land as possible, and without barking trunks or breaking limbs.

To throw the furrow from the row of trees set the beam over as far as it will go in the opposite direction, plow shallow and use one horse for the last furrow, letting him walk in the furrow. This will leave only a narrow land along the row which the harrow will smooth down, and no trees need be injured.

Do not plow around a young orchard from the outside each year or you will have hollows on one side and hills on the other. It might be plowed from the center every second time, but the best way is to plow in lands corresponding to the tree rows, throwing toward a row one year and from it the next.—Cor. Successful Farming.

Superstition and the Wedding Ring.

When a wedding ring has worn so thin as to break, the superstitious believe that either the husband or the wife will soon die. This may be regarded as an obvious superstition and perhaps accounts for the fact that wedding rings are now made so much thicker and heavier than formerly.—

Household Matters.

How to Make Copper [illegible]

Copper utensils may be [illegible] by the use of vinegar and [illegible] salt. Ordinary [illegible] scoured with finely-sifted [illegible] and galvanized [illegible] wiped off with a cloth dipped [illegible] some. Tins may be [illegible] kerosene and sand or [illegible] crumpled newspapers.

To Mend Leaky Wa[illegible]

In using canned goods I [illegible] pieces of solder [illegible] fully, and when a dish of [illegible] or tinware needs mending, [illegible] a little resin around [illegible] then heat the poker very hot [illegible] the solder over the hole and [illegible] down with the hot iron [illegible] to smooth the edges as it [illegible] M. M. H., in the Ladies' Wo[illegible]

To Remove Q[illegible]

I found an old [illegible] rubbish in our new [illegible] past usefulness for [illegible] pose, as the quicks [illegible] and scratched; but [illegible] frame would do [illegible] added just enough [illegible] lye to make a past[illegible] evenly over the [illegible] the quicksilver.—M[illegible] in the Ladies' Wo[illegible]

Ways of Using [illegible]

The best way of [illegible] in its natural condi[illegible] It may be served [illegible] cold bread at breakf[illegible] cheese may accompany [illegible] meal. Honey sandw[illegible] priate at 5 o'clock t[illegible] day night supper. [illegible] particularly good. [illegible] succeeded in securing [illegible] for them.—Boston [illegible] Magazine.

The Humble Cl[illegible]

In a baking powder tin, [illegible] nailed to a post at the bar[illegible] near our stationary [illegible] I keep half a dozen [illegible] always at hand for the daily [illegible] of the tea towels.

When rapidly boiling [illegible] quired for tea and coffee [illegible] I use an inverted clothespin [illegible] the tail of the teakettle at [illegible] which will prevent its bein[illegible] hot to handle.

I gather up and save [illegible] clothespins dropped by [illegible] laundress, and when plan[illegible] kitchen garden, the pins at [illegible] of a cord mark the rows [illegible] them down to the head, [illegible] the slower germinating seeds [illegible] are left in the ground as a guide [illegible] the plants appear.

At every window in each [illegible] apartment I have one of these [illegible] pronged clothespins [illegible] stained. After the wood has [illegible] beveled where the prong was [illegible] off, and the tip of the [illegible] prong sharpened, a half yard of [illegible] ribbon or cord is fastened to [illegible] head with a carpet tack. The [illegible] end of the ribbon is tacked [illegible] window casing, where it hangs [illegible] the way when not in use, but [illegible] the wind rises at night and the [illegible] rattles, the nervous member of [illegible] family know just where to put [illegible] hands on a wedge to drop between [illegible] the upper and lower sash at the [illegible] cor.—M. R. D., in the Ladies' [illegible]

Nut Creams.—Mix with [illegible] one-half cup chopped nuts and [illegible] with three drops almond extract.

Egg Lemonade.—Beat the [illegible] two eggs with one-half pound [illegible] sugar until lemon color and [illegible] then pour over this a lemonade [illegible] until frothy, and serve ice-cold.

Fruit Whip.—Fruit whip [illegible] from the syllabub in that the [illegible] mixed directly with the cream [illegible] soon as it has been whipped. [illegible] also served in punch glasses.

Apple Custard Pie.—One pint [illegible] stewed apples, strained, a small piece [illegible] of butter about size of walnut, [illegible] apples while hot; one cup of sugar, [illegible] a pinch of salt, grate nutmeg on [illegible] top of pie, line a pie plate with [illegible] custard and pour in this mixture.

Fruit Foam.—Whip the whites of six eggs with three tablespoonfuls of powdered sugar until the mixture has attained the consistency of a stiff froth. Then add, little by little, three or four tablespoonfuls of [illegible] made jelly and serve as soon as possible.

Apple Sauce.—Pare and core [illegible] ples and put on to stew. When beginning to get soft add sugar to taste. When almost done add [illegible] lemon juice in the following proportions: To a quart of sauce the juice of three lemons and a cup of strained honey.

Tumbler Cake.—One tumbler of flour, three tumblers of sugar, one tumbler of molasses, three [illegible] of seeded raisins and currants, one of four eggs beaten separately, one spoonful saleratus dissolved in a tumbler of sour milk, spices, and six tumblers of flour. Bake [illegible]

...STATES SENATOR
...SOUTH CAROLINA
...USES PE-RU-NA.

Senator M. C. Butler

...Tablets can now be procured.

...you try to throw care to the ...country breezes often in ...bringing it back and passing it ...

...NDARD OF THE SOUTH
...OWDRIFT
HOGLESS
LARD
...GOVERNMENT INSPECTION
SOUTHERN COTTON OIL CO.

...may occasionally tell lies ..., but they don't approve of ...it in grown people.

...children are trained by being ...g to them than an example.

...e graduate who is a good ...ker is an exception.

TIRED BACKS.

...neys have a great work to ...ter the blood pure. When they get out of order it causes backache, headaches, dizziness, languor and distressing urinary troubles. Keep the kidneys well and all these sufferings will be saved you. Mrs. S. A. Moore, proprietor of a restaurant at Waterville, Me., says: "Before I used Doan's Kidney Pills I suffered from kidney trouble for a year and a half. I had the backache and headache in the loins and felt dizzy all the time. A few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills brought great relief and I kept on taking them until the last time I was cured. I know Doan's Kidney Pills are worthy [illegible]

...ll druggists. 50 cents a box. ...Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Household Matters.

How to Make Copper Utensils.

Copper utensils may be [illegible] by the use of vinegar and salt or salic acid. Ordinary ironwork is scoured with finely-sifted coal and galvanized ironwork may be wiped off with a cloth dipped in [illegible] kerosene and sand, or rubbed with crumpled newspapers.

To Mend Leaky Ware.

In using canned goods I often [illegible] piece of solder; these I mend successfully and when a dish or tinware needs mending, I [illegible] a little resin around the hole, then heat the poker very hot, hold the solder over the hole and press down with the hot iron, being careful to smooth the edges as it cools.—M. M. P., in the Ladies' World.

To Remove Quicksilver.

I found an old mirror among the rubbish in our new house, which past usefulness for its original purpose as the quicksilver was [illegible] and scratched, but the glass, I [illegible] would do for a picture. I added just enough water to [illegible] to make a paste, which I [illegible] over the glass. This remained [illegible] —May Myrtle Fox, in the Ladies' World.

Ways of Using Bees' Honey.

The best way of serving honey is in its natural condition in the comb, honey so served with hot rolls for breakfast or luncheon. Cheese may accompany it at the latter meal. Honey sandwiches are appropriate at 5 o'clock tea or at a children's supper. Honey cakes are particularly good, but we have not succeeded in securing a good recipe for them.—Boston Cooking School Magazine.

The Humble Clothespin.

In a baking powder tin, which is nailed to a post at the back porch near our stationary wire clothesline, I keep half a dozen clothespins always at hand for the daily drying of the tea towels.

When rapidly boiling water is required for tea and coffee making, I use an inverted clothespin to lift the bail of the teakettle at an angle which will prevent its becoming too hot to handle.

I gather up and save the clothespins dropped by a careless laundress, and when planting the kitchen garden, the pins at each end of a cord mark the rows. I push them down to the head, and as the slower germinating seeds are left in the ground as a guide to the plants appear.

At every window in each sleeping apartment I have one of these three-pronged clothespins, gilded and stained. After the wood has been beveled where the prong was bent off, and the tip of the remaining prong sharpened, a half-yard of ribbon or cord is fastened to the head with a carpet tack; the other end of the ribbon is tacked to the window casing, where it hangs out of the way when not in use, but within the wind rises at night and the shutters rattles, the nervous members of the family know just where to put their hands on a wedge to drop between the upper and lower sash as a safeguard.—M. R. D., in the Ladies' World.

Nut Creams.—Mix with fondant one-half cup chopped nuts and flavor with three drops almond extract.

Egg Lemonade.—Beat the yolks of two eggs with one-half pound of sugar until lemon color and heavy, then pour over this a lemonade. Whip until frothy, and serve ice-cold.

Fruit Whip.—Fruit whip differs from the syllabub in that the fruit is mixed directly with the cream as soon as it has been whipped. It is also served in punch glasses.

Apple Custard Pie.—One pint of stewed apples, strained, a small piece of butter about size of walnut; put in apples while hot; one cup of sugar, a pinch of salt, grate nutmeg on top of pie, line a pie plate as for custard and pour in this mixture.

Fruit Foam.—Whip the whites of six eggs with three tablespoonfuls of powdered sugar until the mixture has attained the consistency of a stiff froth. Then add, little by little, three or four tablespoonfuls of fruit juice made jelly and serve as soon as possible.

Apple Sauce.—Pare and core apples and put on to stew. When beginning to get soft add sugar to taste. When almost done add honey and lemon juice in the following proportions: To a quart of sauce allow juice of three lemons and a cup of strained honey.

Tumbler Cake.—One tumbler of flour, three tumblers of sugar, one tumbler of molasses, three tumblers of seeded raisins and currants mixed, four eggs beaten separately, one tablespoonful saleratus dissolved in a tumbler of sour milk, spices, water, six tumblers of flour. Bake [illegible]

UNITED STATES SENATOR FROM SOUTH CAROLINA PRAISES PE-RU-NA.

Senator M. C. Butler.

Senator Butler Endorses Peruna for Two Terms. [illegible] Washington, D. C. [illegible] Medicine Co., [illegible]

Gentlemen:—I Endorse Peruna for Stomach Trouble. I [illegible] your medicine [illegible] and I feel very [illegible] It is indeed a [illegible] medicine, besides a [illegible]

[illegible] stomach as the correct [illegible] of dyspepsia. Only [illegible] remedy such as Peruna [illegible]

Tablets [illegible] now be procured.

[illegible] throw care to the [illegible] breezes often in [illegible] back and passing it

STANDARD OF THE SOUTH
SNOWDRIFT
HOGLESS LARD
GOVERNMENT INSPECTION
SOUTHERN COTTON OIL CO.
SAVANNAH ATLANTA NEW ORLEANS

The leading road vehicle. It combines [illegible] elements of strength, with [illegible] construction throughout. [illegible] ayetish, Bicycle Wheel, [illegible] Tire Roadbed is one of the [illegible] product in the "White Star" [illegible]

The "White Star" axle is set true by [illegible] machinery, ground in oil to fit perfectly, [illegible] the lightest running vehicle on [illegible]

GO TO YOUR NEAREST DEALER [illegible] him to show you a "White Star" Buggy [illegible] the manufacturers.

ATLANTA BUGGY CO., Atlanta, Ga.

[illegible] may occasionally tell lies [illegible] but they don't approve of [illegible] in grown people.

[illegible] children are trained by being [illegible] to do than an example.

[illegible] grafter who is a good [illegible] is an exception.

THIRD RACKS.

[illegible] gave a great work to [illegible] the blood pure. When [illegible] they get out of order [illegible] causes backache, [illegible] headaches, dizziness, [illegible] languor and distress- [illegible] urinary troubles. [illegible] keep the kidneys well [illegible] and all these suffer- [illegible] ings will be saved you. Mrs. S. A. Moore, proprietor of a restaurant at Waterville, Me., says: "Before [illegible] Kidney Pills I suffered [illegible] something from kidney trouble [illegible] a year and a half. I had [illegible] back and head, and almost [illegible] in the loins and felt [illegible] the time. A few doses of [illegible] Kidney Pills brought great [illegible] relief, and by taking them until [illegible] about two I was cured. I [illegible] know Doan's Kidney Pills are worthy [illegible] 50 cents a box. [illegible] Buffalo, N. Y.

GOOD ROADS

Instructive Example.

An interesting and instructive example of the value of good roads is found in the experience of Hall County which is at present attracting attention not only from several sections of Georgia, but also from Florida, as a result of the work that is being done towards bettering its public roads.

The County Commissioners of St. Lucie County, Florida, have just visited Gainesville for the purpose of inspecting the work done there and the methods employed, the result being that they have decided to put in a similar road-building plant. Delegations from Clarke and Fulton counties, Georgia, are also scheduled to take a look at the road work now being done in Hall County, with a view to ascertaining whether it will suggest any advantageous improvements in their own methods.

It is evident that Hall County is not only getting a system of good roads which will prove of decided benefit to her entire population, but along with it the county is deriving some of the best advertising it ever fell to the lot of a county to enjoy.

Nobody appreciates good roads more than those who have to use them, whether for business or pleasure. Residents of Fulton and the adjoining counties who use the roads in and out of Atlanta are in as good a position, perhaps, as any one in the State to testify to the value and advantage of a good, hard road surface.

In driving along the roads leading into and out of Atlanta, there is no difficulty whatever in telling where the county line begins, because Fulton County's roads have been kept up to the standard, while those of adjoining counties have not.

If all of the counties of the State would take hold of the problem of good roads, and solve it to the best of their ability, it would be possible within comparatively a short time to have a chain of splendid highways extending from one end of the State to the other. It is only necessary for each county to take up the matter and in its road improvement work make connection with the roads of adjoining counties where improvement has already been made. This co-operative method would ultimately mean the extension of a system of valuable roads throughout the whole of Georgia.

The opportunity is almost present for the State to lend a hand, for after all, the question of good roads is largely a State problem. With the expiration of the present convict lease contracts, April 1, 1909, it will become possible to employ the State convicts in this work, and to dispense with the "blood money" system, which has seen the last of its days of usefulness.

The present Legislature must solve this problem. By putting the convicts on the roads it can not only satisfactorily solve the convict problem, but the good roads problem as well.—Atlanta Constitution.

Gravel For Roads.

The quality of the gravel is all important. It should contain not more than one-third part of sand or fine pebbles larger than a walnut. There should be a small quantity of cementing matter present. This can best be determined by examining the sides of the gravel pit after exposure to the hard frosts of winter. If the walls remain steep without caving it may be taken as a satisfactory test that the gravel will compact well upon the road. It is a difficult matter to provide this cementing material artificially, and if not present in the gravel it would be wise to seek better quality. Clay in limited quantities is sometimes used to aid in compacting the surface, but it absorbs water, and water is always deleterious, but especially so in a climate where hard frosts must be guarded against.—Farmers' Guide.

Bad Roads Come High.

It costs the farmers of this country $20,000,000 to haul their corn crop to market, and $22,000,000 to get the wheat crop to the elevators. For hauling twelve of the principal products of the farm to the market places it costs farmers $75,000,000—millions, please, understand. These figures are made up by Government experts. Trolley lines will in a few years reduce this cost materially and good roads will lessen the cost still more. When the roads are in such condition that two tons can be hauled in one load instead of 1500 pounds, the saving will be enormous. Is there any reason, then, why farmers should not do everything they can to get good roads?

Did Not Prevent Raveling.

The raveling of State highways in Massachusetts during dry weather has generally been prevented in the past by spreading a thin coat of sand over the surface. During the last year, however, there were two quite protracted dry spells which disturbed the bond of the road and caused loose stones to stand up on the surface. Although sand was spread thinly as before, it did not prevent the raveling in all instances.—Engineer.

[illegible] Tablets are unequaled [illegible] Liver Ills. Price [illegible]

When a woman has very much else [illegible] she usually has to do [illegible] about the care of [illegible] work.

The cure a woman knows about men she does not like to say about the matter.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

Not Yet, That Is.

Tommy—Does it make any difference if baby takes all the medicine at once?

Baby's Mother (in horror)—Good heavens! Of course it does!

Tommy—But it hasn't made any difference.—Punch.

The tobacco plant has grown larger and more profuse in the United States than in any other country.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.

Sold by all Druggists, 75c.
Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

A Franklin Relic.

People of all "persuasions," says the London Chronicle, will regret to hear that the old Sardinian Chapel, off Lincoln's-inn-fields, is after all, to be demolished. It had remained standing when so many surrounding buildings had been swept away in the making of Kingsway that one had hoped it would be spared the general fate. Little remains of the original chapel of 1648, for, in the "No Popery" riots of 1780, the fury of the rabble selected it for especial injury, so as to necessitate an almost entire rebuilding. Just opposite, in 1725, when he was a journeyman printer, lodged Benjamin Franklin, with a Roman Catholic widow lady and her daughter; a very uncommon sort of printer, as his fellow workmen in Great Wild street thought, for among the fifty or so employed in Mr. Watt's office, beer drinkers all, Franklin stood out as the only water drinker—teetotaler was a word not known till nearly a century later.

BLACK, ITCHING SPOTS ON FACE.

Physicians Called It Eczema in Worst Form—Patient Despaired of Cure —Cuticura Remedies Cure Her.

"About four years ago I was afflicted with black splotches all over my face and a few covering my body, which produced a severe itching irritation, and which caused me a great deal of suffering, to such an extent that I was forced to call in two of the leading physicians of ——. After a thorough examination of the dreaded complaint they announced it to be skin eczema in its worst form. Their treatment did me no good. Finally I became despondent and decided to discontinue their services. Then my husband purchased a single set of the Cuticura Remedies, which entirely stopped the breaking out. I continued the use of the Cuticura Remedies for six months, and after that every splotch was entirely gone. I have not felt a symptom of the eczema since, which was three years ago. Mrs. Lizzie E. Sledge, 349 Jones Ave., Selma, Ala., Oct. 28, 1908."

TRY IT.

A Method by Which Burglars May Be Frightened Away.

A Frenchman has evolved a new and extremely effective way of frightening away burglars. Employ his method and the intruder will never set foot across your threshold. One look in the door and he will run. It has been tried, it has seen the test of service and it worked.

The other night two sneaking midnight prowlers stole up the stairs to this man's apartment on the top floor of the little flat near the Gare du Nord, the Parisian North Station. They found the key sticking in the door, outside. "Some delightful, absentminded old gent!" they chuckled to themselves. Poor dupes; they did not know in their ignorance that this was by the express design of the confident gentleman within, he was so sure of his alarm to feed them off. At all events, this saved them the bother of breaking anything.

They knocked discreetly. There was no sound in reply. They walked in, or started to walk in on tiptoe. They also walked out, not on tiptoe and in a very great hurry. The gentleman's plan had proved effective. His burglar alarm was a success. He had hanged himself and his unannounced callers found his corpse dangling hospitably from a gas fixture.

The inventor guarantees that this will never fail. He told a friend that he meant to try it, but the friend scoffed and had his doubts. But behold the friend confuted. And the idea is too simple and neat even to be patented. Try it.—Boston Transcript.

BARBER "COLLEGES"

Closing Scenes of One of the "Many Worse" Professions.

The two barber colleges in Chicago certainly are a boon to the "many worse" of this [illegible] profession, for in these places they can get their barber work done free of charge, and the barbers are only too glad to do the work. The students pay $25 for a course of eight weeks, at which time they are graduated and are in the market for positions. But from all the adjoining states, says "The Chicago Tribune," come here for instruction in the financial art, and the ease with which a barber can get employment attracts them to the colleges to learn the trade.

In the larger of the two colleges 40 chairs are filled with hobos of every description all day long. Tickets are distributed in the lodging houses which read, "Good for one shave," and the men need no second invitation. The number of applicants for shaves has become so large that tickets are not distributed so liberally as before, but this fact makes little difference in the size of the crowds that apply for free work, for every tramp and "down and out" in the city knows where the colleges are located, and he also knows the work is free.

The college is the first place a hobo will visit after coming in off the road. It generally is believed that a "bo" dislikes water in any form, but such cannot be said in regard to shaving, for if necessary he will walk ten blocks to go through this operation.

When he arrives at the college he stands in line and waits his turn. If he is lucky he gets into a chair in 15 minutes, and then the transformation scene begins. "If he has a good crop of hair he will not be asked to have it cut; the barber immediately goes to work and trims his pompadour and the hobo is dreaming of the fine appearance he will make when he leaves the college. But he is doomed to disapointment, for when the student is through with him there is no hair left, for experimenting with the different styles has used up the crop and nothing remains but a few ragged edges which may have been overlooked during the process.

One well known slum worker thought he would investigate the barber work last summer, and he went into a parlor of near grade to have the work done. The would-be barber put soap in his victim's eyes and ears, and the first stroke of the razor almost lifted the slum worker out of his chair. The student, who probably had just come from the "free" department, asked if the razor was all right. The man in the chair replied: "If you are skinning me, it's pretty easy, but if you are trying to shave me, it's torture."

But it doesn't take long for the barber to learn his trade, and a few weeks in the grad parlor usually gives him enough experience to hold down a job in one of the outskirting shops.

There is no way to learn barbering except by practice, and the 'prentice who gains experience on the face of the hobo promotes their mutual good.

Our Naval Melange.

The Army and Navy Journal states that it is doubtful if the United States have a single shipyard which could duplicate the Dreadnought in the time that ship was built for the British Navy. But aside from the lack of facilities in American yards must be reckoned the fact that the different bureaus having to do with the details of their fighting vessels never seem satisfied with what has already been done on other ships. There are no two ships in their service which are exact duplicates in all particulars.—Engineer.

SICK EYES

Go with sick bodies. Eyes weakened by malaria, syphilis and rheumatism are restored to strength by Leonardi's Golden Eye Lotion. Inflammation and soreness cured without pain in one day. Insist on having "Leonardi's"—it makes strong eyes. Guaranteed or money refunded. Druggists sell it at 25 cts. or for warded prepaid on receipt of price by H. H. Leonardi & Co., Tampa, Fla.

Claim Agent's Story.

"Yes," said the railway claim agent, "we come across queer things sometimes. The queerest thing in my experience was the case of a minister.

"This man was hurt in a rear-end collision and we gave him $5,000 damages. At the end of the year we got a letter from him that ran something like this:

"My salary is $2,000, and the accident caused me to lose it for twelve month. My medical expenses were $750. My board at a mountain sanatorium for six months was $250. Other expenses due to the accident were, in round numbers, $1,000; total, $4,000. You gave me $5,000. Now I am back in the pulpit again, as well and strong as ever, and I have $400 of your money on my hands. Not being entitled to that sum, I do what any minister would do in my place—I return the money to you as per check enclosed."

"How was that for honesty?" said the claim agent. "The ministers are a wonderful lot. We sent the $400 check back to this honest minister and he gave it to charity in our name."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

It's a long credit that has no dunning.

Women Avoid Operations

MISS ROSE MOORE

When a woman suffering from female trouble is told that an operation is necessary, it, of course, frightens her.

The very thought of the hospital, the operating table and the knife strikes terror to her heart.

It is quite true that these troubles may reach a stage where an operation is the only resource, but a great many women have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after an operation has been decided upon as the only cure. The strongest and most grateful statements possible to make come from women who by taking made from native roots and herbs, have escaped serious operations, as evidenced by Miss Rose Moore's case, of 307 W. 36th St., N. Y. She writes:—

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured me of the very worst form of female trouble and I wish to express to you my deepest gratitude. I suffered intensely for two years so that I was unable to attend to my duties and was a burden to my family. I doctored and doctored with only temporary relief and constantly objecting to an operation which I was advised to undergo. I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; it cured me of the terrible trouble and I am now in better health than I have been for many years."

This and other such cases should encourage every woman to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before she submits to an operation.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised.

Good for Children

Let the little ones have their way when they ask for HUSTON'S

Seal Brand

Pure Stick

Candy

It can't hurt them. There's nothing in it except pure granulated sugar. We don't know of another sugar stick, of which this can be truly said. Sold in five-cent packages only.

5¢

At all Grocery and Drug Stores.

W. L. DOUGLAS

$3.00 & $3.50 SHOES BEST IN THE WORLD

SHOES FOR EVERY MEMBER OF THE FAMILY, AT ALL PRICES.

$25,000 Reward

THE REASON W. L. Douglas shoes are worn by more people in all walks of life than any other make, is because of their excellent style, easy-fitting, and superior wearing qualities. The selection of the leathers and other materials for each part of the shoe, and every detail of the making is looked after by the most complete organization of experienced men, and skilled shoemakers, who receive the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and whose workmanship cannot be excelled.

If I could take you into my large factories at Brockton, Mass., and show you how carefully W. L. Douglas shoes are made, you would then understand why they hold their shape, fit better, wear longer and are of greater value than any other make.

We can and do save you from $2.00 to $3.50 on a pair of shoes.

By $4.00 and $5.00 Our Shoes cannot be equalled at any price.

CAUTION! The genuine have W. L. Douglas name and price stamped on bottom. Take No Substitute. Ask your dealer for W. L. Douglas shoes. If he cannot supply you, send direct to factory. Shoes sent everywhere by mail. Catalog free. W. L. Douglas, Brockton, Mass.

Wintersmith's CHILL TONIC

A BOTTLE WILL BREAK YOUR CHILLS

Cures Chills and Malarial Fevers

Standard for 45 years; known as just about the quickest, pleasant to take, guiltless like it, system tonic to enrich permanent cure.

Compounded under Food and Drugs Act of June 30, 1906. At your druggists; or send prepaid on receipt of price.

ANTHONY PYTHIAN & CO., Gen'l Agts., Louisville, Ky.

CRESCENT ANTISEPTIC

GREATEST HEALER KNOWN TO SCIENCE.

Non Poisonous, Non Irritating. Allays Inflammation and stops pain from any cause. As strong as carbolic acid and as harmless as sweet milk. Cures burns instantly; cures old and chronic sores; cures sores and inflammation from any cause on man or beast. For fowls—cures chicken pox, sore head and roup. Satisfaction positively guaranteed.

For Sale by all First-Class Dealers. Mfgd. by CRESCENT CHEMICAL CO., Ft. Worth, Texas

FREE

To convince any woman that Paxtine Antiseptic will improve her health and do all we claim for it. We will send her absolutely free a large trial box of Paxtine with book of instructions and genuine testimonials. Send your name and address on a postal card.

PAXTINE

cleanses and heals mucous membranes in a manner of Paxtine, such as nasal catarrh, pelvic catarrh and inflammation caused by feminine ills; sore eyes, sore throat and mouth, by direct local treatment. Its curative power over these troubles is extraordinary and gives immediate relief. Thousands of women are using and recommending it every day. It gets to the seat of the trouble. Invigorates. IT CURES THE SOURCE TO THE EYE. Dr. PAXTON CO., Boston, Mass.

TRY THEM

Tobacco Habit, Morphine Habit, Liquor Habit

EASILY CURED

Tobacco Double Chloride of Gold Tablets will cure any case of Morphine, Liquor or Tobacco Habit in from two to six days. Can be given in tea or coffee without the knowledge of the patient. Perfectly HARMLESS. For sale by all Druggists, or sent on receipt of $1.00. THE OHIO CHEMICAL HOUSE P. O. Box 223 W. TOLEDO, OHIO

MADE FOR SERVICE

IN THE ROUGHEST WEATHER AND GUARANTEED ABSOLUTELY WATERPROOF

A. J. TOWER CO., BOSTON, U.S.A.

Am. 49, 1907.

THE DIXIE PEA HULLER

Puts the peanut, Improved, in the [illegible] Vertical, [illegible] Feed, [illegible] Hulls and Kernels on [illegible] Prices and Booklet on application.

GARRETSON BROS. CO., Dallas, Ga.

You Look Prematurely Old

Because of those ugly, grizzly, gray hairs. Use "LA CREOLE" HAIR RESTORER. Price, $1.00, retail.

CUT IN PRICES

ALL FALL GOODS MARKED DOWN

We are determined to clean out our Fall Stock so as to make room for New Winter Goods and have cut the prices down to clear the stock out.

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY

CALICOES to go at 5c per yard
SHEETINGS to go at 5c per yard
SHOES, $3 50 Shoes to go at $2 50
" 2.50 Shoes to go at 1.75
CLOTHING—Men's Suits, $25 00 Suits to go at $17.50
" " " 12 50 " " 7.50
" " " 7 50 " " 4.00
" " " 5 00 " " 3 00

This is just a few examples. Everything else in the store cut in a similar way

We have entered the cotton market and will pay the highest market price for cotton—and the price promises to be high this season.

Also we shall continue to pay highest prices for COUNTRY PRODUCE, WOOL, BEESWAX, HIDES and TALLOW. Bring them in and get cash for them.

PHONOGRAPHS and RECORDS
a Specialty
Come and Hear Them Play

H. KANJUTZKY

CLANTON - - ALA.

Fall and Winter is Upon Us

and we are making our first showing of the New Fall Styles in Clothes for men and boys. They are the newest productions of the best known makes, in all the latest fabrics, shades, and a real treat to the eye of a man who knows good clothes when he sees them. Come in, look, try one and you will be highly pleased.

This is the Season for Hat Changing

and nothing can add to your appearance more than a stylish, becoming hat. When you will come in, we will convince you that we have the latest styles.

Furnishing Goods

the little things that go to make up the attire of a well dressed person are to be found here in the newest styles at moderate prices.

Just Received a Beautiful Lot

of Laces, Dress Goods and Lace Collars. Also a complete line of Puritan Corsets.

Fall Models In Footwear

Our line is complete.

Star Brand Shoes are Better

J. C. JONES

CLANTON - - - - - ALA.

SOUTHERN TYPEWRITER EXCHANGE
MONTGOMERY, ALA.
AGENTS

FAY SHOLES TYPEWRITERS

Have you ever "tried out" a Fay Sholes type writer? If not you have missed a treat. The Roller-bearing carriage, ball-bearing basket shift and general light action throughout, makes it the easiest machine to operate of any on the market.

Does your operator look "tried out" at night? Is your work always hanging over a little and reaching into another day? The best remedy for this ailment, is a FAY SHOLES typewriter.

Some of the good points on the Fay Sholes machine:—

Interchangeable carriages—making it possible to write on anything from a postage stamp to a fire insurance policy.

Two-color ribbon. Any combination of colors can be used.

Tabulator on each carriage. This is a saving of $20 to you. Worth looking in to, isn't it?

Full sheet release.

All the principal adjustments on the front of the machine.

Pointer, that always shows exactly where you are going to write. It doesn't show nearly where, but exactly where.

Attachment for writing on ruled paper. Best on the market.

We couldn't name all the good points here, the Editor wouldn't have time to "set them up." We have a catalogue for that purpose. Write for one. Doesn't cost you anything.

SECOND HAND TYPEWRITERS.

We have typewriters of many different makes that have been taken in trade for the FAY SHOLES typewriter. These are put up in good shape and sold at a bargain. Name the machine you want. Don't be afraid to make inquiries. Cash or installment.

TYPEWRITER SUPPLIES.

We can furnish you supplies for any machine that is manufactured, and at as reasonable a price as you can buy them in any part of the country. Send for prices.

TYPEWRITER REPAIRS.

All makes of machines repaired, from the cheapest to the highest priced ones. Our prices are as low as possible, consistent with good workmanship. We don't do cheap work. We do good work, cheap.

We will take your old machine as part pay for a new Fay Sholes typewriter and allow you to pay the balance on easy terms if you desire.

NOTE. The proprietor of "The Banner" uses a Fay Sholes. Ask him about it or ask any Fay Sholes user. Call at the Banner office and Mr. Crichton will show you the FAY SHOLES.

NEW STORE

Opens Saturday, October 5

IN THE DISPENSARY BUILDING

CLANTON, ALA.

with a fine selected stock of

Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Hats, Gent's Furnishing Goods, Etc.

Ladies' Hats, Cloaks and Jackets

Good Goods, Low Prices
Pleased to Wait Upon You

Joe Gore will have the pleasure of waiting upon you

D. LUBELSKY

FROM BIRMINGHAM

CLANTON - - ALA.

Thomas A. Edison, the great American inventor, says "Fully eight per cent of the illness of mankind comes from eating improper food or too much food; people are inclined to over-indulge themselves." This is where indigestion finds its beginning in nearly every case. The stomach can do just so much work and no more, and when you overload it, or when you eat the wrong kind of food, the digestive organs cannot possibly do the work demanded of them. It is at such times that the stomach needs help; it demands help, and warns you by headache, belching, sour stomach, nausea and indigestion. You should attend to this at once by taking something that will actually do the work for the stomach Kodol will do this. It is a combination of natural digestants and vegetable acids and contains the same juices found in a healthy stomach. It is pleasant to take. It digests what you eat. Sold by Upchurch Drug Co.

DR. J. EARL COWAN
DENTIST
Rooms Bolton Building.
CLANTON, ALA.

DR. P. I HOPKINS
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON
EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROAT
Office Hours 8 to 12 and 2 to 4.
CLANTON

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol cures indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does not only cure indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy cures all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

Mr. S. S. Bell, of Ravenswood, W. Va., says: "I was troubled with sour stomach for twenty years. Kodol cured me and we are now using it in milk for baby."

Kodol Digests What You Eat.

Bottles only. $1.00 Size holding 2½ times the trial size, which sells for 50 cents.

Prepared by E. O. DeWITT & CO., CHICAGO.

Upchurch Drug Co.

Non-Resident Notice.

The State of Alabama, Chilton County.
Chancery Court. 7th District, Northeastern Division. No 15.
W. J. Bell Complainant, vs. Annie May Kendrick; et al, Defendants

In this cause it is made to appear to the Register, by the affidavit on file of J. V. Smith, Solicitor for Complainant, that the Defendant Jim Red Sheffield, one of the parties defendant in the above styled cause, is, to the belief of said affiant, an infant, under the age of fourteen years, a non resident of the State of Alabama, that said infant resides with his grandfather, H. R. Sheffield, whereas, of Dodge, State of Georgia, and that the said infant has no legal guardian, and that the father of said infant, R. L. Sheffield, resides in the town of Mon ocanon, State of Georgia, and that the interest of said R. L. Sheffield is not adverse to the interest of said minor. Affiant further says that the Defendant, R. L. Sheffield, is a non resident of the State of Alabama, over the age of twenty-one years, and resides in the town of Monticanon, in the State of Georgia.

It is therefore ordered by the Register, that publication be made in the Banner, a newspaper published in Clanton, Ala., once a week for four consecutive weeks, requiring them, the said Jim Red Sheffield and R. L. Sheffield, to answer, plead or demur to the bill of complaint in the above cause on or before the 18th day of November, 1907, and failing so to do within thirty days after the service of this summons, which service is perfected Oct. 18, 1907, a decree pro confesso may be taken against them in said cause.

Witness my hand, this 7th day of September, 1907. S. A. STEWART, Register.

CONSTIPATION

is no respecter of rank, and it is just as common a condition among children as it is with their parents.

The condition is far more likely to reach an acute stage, develop seriously with the little folks, because of the difficulty in detecting it.

Many a child has died from constipation, or illness arising from it, when it might have been saved by the timely use of

Dr. Caldwell's
(Laxative)
Syrup Pepsin

This is the greatest remedy known for correcting constipated conditions.

Don't wait until your child is affected, but administer a dose of the medicine occasionally.

You will notice a perceptible change for the better, a healthy color and a livelier disposition.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a good thing to have in the house, because it is good for the whole family.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can be obtained in both dollar and half-dollar sizes from all druggists.

Your money will be refunded if it does not benefit you.

Your postal card request will bring by return mail our new booklet, "DR. CALDWELL'S BOOK OF WONDERS" and free sample to those who have never tried this wonderful remedy. Mothers write today.

PEPSIN SYRUP CO.
Monticello, Illinois

The First and Last

store in Clanton. If you come from the east it's the first; from the west it's the last.

Our stock of General Merchandise is First in quality and lowest in price.

FINE FAMILY GROCERIES—Always Fresh and Nice.

A fine line of Men's Dress Shirts and Neckwear.

SHOES of the finest quality and the best make. Try a pair.

A general assortment of first-class goods.

B. E. JONES & BRO.

CLANTON - - - - - ALA.

GREATEST FAIR IN THE SOUTH

ALABAMA STATE FAIR

BIRMINGHAM ALABAMA

October 8-16, 1907

The Agricultural Exhibits
Will be the most comprehensive ever shown in Alabama.

Live Stock and Poultry Exhibits
Will be the best.

Mechanical and Mineral Displays
Will attract much attention.

Ricci's Premier Concert Band
Will give grand free concerts afternoon and evening.

A Great Carnival Company
Of clean, wholesome and entertaining shows.

Magnificent Fire Works
And other attractions each evening.

THE FREE ATTRACTIONS
will be more numerous and of a better character than ever at a State Fair.

FINE RACING PROGRAM. SPECIAL RAILROAD RATES

Write for CATALOGUE and all INFORMATION to

GEO. T. BARNES
Secretary and General Mgr., BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

Health is More Than Wealth

Use
BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT
AND

KING OF THEM ALL

you will always have good health. What is more to a man than good health? All the money in the world can't buy happiness where health is unknown. Ballard's Snow Liniment CURES Rheumatism, Cuts, Burns, Sprains, Neuralgia, Sores, Stiff Joints, Contracted Muscles, Lame Back and all the ills that Flesh is Heir to.

One Who Knows.

J. G. Scott, Salt Lake City, Utah, writes: "I cannot too highly praise your Ballard's Snow Liniment for the relief of acute rheumatism, caused by sudden chang and exposure to the weather. I also recommend your Ballard's Horehound Syrup for coughs and colds. These used together defy all pain.

GET THE GENUINE. Three Sizes, 25c, 50c, $1.00

Ballard Snow Liniment Co.
500-502 North Second Street,
ST. LOUIS, - MISSOURI.

Sold and Recommended by [illegible] Co., Clanton.

The Money to Be Saved

by buying your drugs and whiskies from a house like the Collier Drug Co. will be a pleasant surprise to you. We are the largest cut-rate druggists in this section of the State, and can save you many pennies by giving us your business.

Read our prices and put your dollars where you will receive greatest possible value.

WHISKIES

	Regular Price	Our Price
Shade Mountain Corn (full quart)	1.00
Old Cedar Pepper, bottled in bond	1.00
Murray Hill Club	1.00
J. Martin Rye	1.00
Atherton Rye	1.00
Duffy's Pure Malt	1.00
California Regent	1.00
Old Lincoln County	1.00
Private Stock	2.00
Virginia Pure Apple Brandy	1.00
Rosemont Gin	1.00
Old Holland Gin	1.00
Wilson	1.00
Goose River	1.00
I. W. Harper	1.00
Dan Patch	1.00
Saint James Four Star	1.00
Old Frontier	1.00

Our package and express department is complete in every respect and all mail orders get prompt and careful attention the day of receipt. Your patronage will be appreciated.

COLLIER DRUG CO.

109-111 NORTH 20th St.

BIRMINGHAM - - - - ALA.

VOL. XV

THE MAN ON THE CORNER

[illegible] of the Eighth the hero, and Some He Saw Did.

Sunday afternoon Pino Jones [illegible] a horse and team from Rosie [illegible] Burson, intending to take a nice drive with some pleasant companion. "Alas! how easily things go wrong." While the horse (and the driver) were awaiting the arrival of the chosen companion of the latter, the quadruped got scared and made a bolt for it, finally landing himself in the barbecue pit at the rear of the Masonic hall, breaking his leg, and not injuring the driver. The biped was in the house at the time of the bolt, and thus the only injured party was the quadruped. Pino, like the dead "game sport" that he is, not to be debarred from the drive with the chosen companion, got another double team and went off triumphantly.

Among the improvements lately [illegible] that Spigener & Jones have made their side door bigger—to get out the goods faster I suppose. Change! Any old door will bring them in, but it takes a big one to get them out.

The juries are to be elevated in the county in future. The jury box has been raised above the floor [illegible]; this is not that they can look down upon you, but to help them to see even with you.

NEW STEEL RANGE for sale. Miss Nannie Dunn, Clanton, Ala.

Verbena.

Dear Editor—As I never see anything in your paper from our little up town, I will ask you for a little space. We have a good school and a good teacher. We like Bro. Swindall for our pastor another year and we are glad to know that we will have him with us another year.

Mr. F. A. Golledge has gone to [illegible].

Mr. D. L. Deramus has been very sick for several days; hope he will soon be well.

Mr. Henry Williams has sold out his store to Mr. Noah Dudley.

Mr. B. H. Nelson has sold his farm to Mr. T. S. Pyron. We are very sorry to see Mr. Nelson leave us; he and his wife are good neighbors and good church workers—good people to have around us, and we hate to see them leave. We need more like them to come to Verbena instead of going away.

We see Mr. Deramus has got a nice clerk from Coosa.

May God bless the readers and A. B.

Thorsby.

Mrs. Kile has been visiting her father, Mrs. Carr.

Mrs. Grothe is enjoying a visit from her daughters, Misses Nellie and Annie Warness of Minnesota.

Prof. Butler and family are residing at the Dormitory.

Rev. Anderson of Ohio is spending the winter with his daughter, Mrs. S. B. Groves.

Rev. F. E. Jenkins preached an able discourse p.m. of 29th Sept.

Mr. and Mrs. Honeycutt have moved to Michigan Ave.

The Berlin family is rejoicing over the arrival of a new son and heir.

Mr. Guy H. Gerald and bride are home to their friends on main street, Thorsby.

The Baptist Ladies' Aid Society with Mrs. A. E. Mead Oct. 3. Society netted $11.00 at their last sociable last week.

The Philomathean Society was suspended last Friday night at Tabory Institute.

Mrs. Ida Le Claire and sons left for Pacific coast this week.

Mr. Swanson has moved to Chilton.

The game of base ball Saturday Jemison won 8 to 4 against Thorsby.

Mr. H. Edwards and Miss Sanders of Birmingham visited Miss Mary Sanford, Prin. of public school, Sunday.

Vox Populi.

FAIR IN THE SOUTH

MA STATE FAIR

NGHAM ALABAMA

ber 8-16, 1907

Ricci's Premier Concert Band
Will give grand free concerts afternoon and evening.
A Great Carnival Company
Of clean, wholesome and entertaining shows.
Magnificent Fire Works
And other attractions every evening.

REE ATTRACTIONS

and of a better character than ever seen at a State Fair.

RAH. SPECIAL RAILROAD RATES

LOGUE and all INFORMATION to

O. T. BARNES

General Mgr., BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

ealth is ore Than Wealth
Use BALLARD'S
SNOW LINIMENT
AND

KING OF THEM ALL.

good health. What is more to a man
All the money in the world can't make alth is unknown, Ballard's Snow Liniment matism, Cuts, Burns, Sprains, Neuralgia, s, Stiff Joints, Contracted Muscles, Lame and all the like that Flesh is Heir to.

e Who Knows.

lt Lake City, Utah, writes: "I cannot e your Ballard's Snow Liniment for rheumatism, caused by sudden change the weather. I also recommend your ound Syrup for coughs and colds.
ther defy all pain.

INE. Three Sizes 25c, 50c, $1.00

l Snow Liniment Co.

0-802 North Second Street,

UIS, - MISSOURI.

nd Recommended by

oney to Be Saved

ur drugs and whiskies from the Collier Drug Co. will be a rise to you. We are the largest ruggists in this section of the n save you many pennies by ir business.

rices and put your dollars where
e greatest possible value.

WHISKIES

	Regular Price	Our Price
(full quart)	1.[illegible]	1.[illegible]
tled in bond	1.[illegible]	1.[illegible]
	1.[illegible]
	1.[illegible]	1.[illegible]
	1.[illegible]
	1.[illegible]
	1.[illegible]
Brandy	1.[illegible]
	1.[illegible]
	1.[illegible]
	1.[illegible]
	1.[illegible]

and express department is complete in every detail. Mail orders get prompt and careful attention. Your patronage will be appreciated.

LLIER DRUG CO.

09-111 NORTH 20th St.

HAM - - ALA.

THE BANNER

VOL. XV CLANTON, ALA., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1907 No. 32

THE MAN ON THE CORNER

[illegible] of the Eighth He Saw, and Some He Saw Did.

Sunday afternoon Finn Jones [illegible] a horse and team from Rusie [illegible]arson, intending to take a [illegible] ride with some pleasant companion. "Alas! how easily things go wrong." While the horse (and the driver) were awaiting the arrival of the chosen companion of the ride, the quadruped got scared and made a bolt for it, finally landing himself in the barbecue pit at the rear of the Masonic hall, breaking his leg, and not injuring the buggy. The biped was in the house at the time of the bolt, and thus the only injured party was the quadruped. Finn, like the dead game sport that he is, not to be debarred from the drive with the chosen companion, got another double team and went off triumphantly.

Among the improvements lately noticed that Spigener & Jones have made their side door bigger—to get out the goods faster I suppose. Garage! Any old door will bring them in, but it takes a big one to get them out.

The juries are to be elevated in this county in future. The jury box has been raised above the floor level; this is not that they can look down upon you, but to help them to hear with you.

NEW STEEL RANGE for sale. Miss NANNIE DUKE, Clanton, Ala.

Verbena.

Dear Editor—As I never see anything in your paper from our little up town, I will ask you for a small space. We have a good school and a good teacher. We like Bro. Swindall for our pastor another year and we are glad to know that we will have him with us another year.

Mr. F. A. Gulledge has gone to Texas.

Mr. D. I. Deramus has been very sick for several days; hope he will soon be well.

Mr. Henry Williams has sold out his store to Mr. Noah Duffey.

Mr. B. H. Nelson has sold his farm to Mr. T. S. Pyron. We are very sorry to see Mr. Nelson leave us; he and his wife are good neighbors and good church workers—good people to have around us, and we hate to see them leave. We need more like them to come to Verbena instead of going away.

We see Mr. Deramus has got a new clerk from Coosa.

May God bless the readers and

A. B.

Thorsby.

Mrs. Kile has been visiting her sister, Mrs Carr.

Mrs. Grothe is enjoying a visit from her daughters, Misses Nellie and Annie Werness of Minnesota.

Rev. Butler and family are residing at the Dormitory.

Mr. Anderson of Ohio is spending the winter with his daughter, Mrs. S. B. Groves.

Rev. F. E. Jenkins preached an able discourse p.m. of 29th Sept.

Mr. and Mrs. Honeycutt have moved to Michigan Ave.

The Berlin family is rejoicing over the arrival of a new son and heir.

Mr. Guy H. Gerald and bride are home to their friends on main street, Thorsby.

The Baptist Ladies' Aid Society met with Mrs. A. E. Mead Oct. 3. The Society netted $11.00 at their ice cream sociable last week.

The Philomathean Society was entertained last Friday night at the Institute.

Miss Ida Le Claire and sons left for the Pacific coast this week.

Mr. Swanson has moved to Chilton.

The game of base ball Saturday Jemison won 8 to 4 against Thorsby.

Mr. H. Edwards and Miss Sanford of Birmingham visited Miss Mary Sanford, Prin. of public school Sunday.

VOX POPULI.

Peoples Savings Bank of Chilton County.

CLANTON, ALA.

CAPITAL STOCK $50,000.00.

WM. E. HOLLOWAY, President.
W. T. CALLEN, Cashier. JOHN A. THOMAS, Assistant Cashier

DIRECTORS:

W. T. Callen, H. M. Martin, Sr., Wm. E. Holloway, M. L. Grell, Sam Kaufman, John A. Thomas

There is a number of people who are under an erroneous impression. They think that they never control enough money to start a bank account. In this they are mistaken. We solicit small accounts as well as large. And we handle the business of both with our best care. We believe that you ought to have a bank account, and we offer you our services.

THE CLANTON BANK

CLANTON, ALA.

Many people seem to think that unless they can open a Savings Account with not less than $50.00 or $100.00, it is not worth the while to begin. This is not a correct position to take. If a person cannot open an account with more than $1.00, and really desires to get some money ahead, then he should begin with even $1.00. The first dollar saved and put in bank, is the initial step on the way to prosperity. "Great oaks from little acorns grow." As a rule, the person who "Puts off" the opening of a Savings Account until he has a large amount to deposit, is not likely to ever have a bank account. We solicit your account.

THE CLANTON BANK

CORRESPONDENCE.

Don't get out of patience with the baby when it is peevish and restless, and don't wear yourself out worrying night and day about it—just give him a little cascarcet. Cascarcet is a corrective for the stomachs of babies and children. Contains no harmful drugs. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

Prattville, Oct. 3, 1907

Editor Banner—You will please give a small space in your valuable paper to say a few words in regard to the closed doors of the dispensary. We find in the Bible where it says weep with those that weep and rejoice with those that rejoice, and I am proud to say that I can rejoice with the gray headed fathers and mothers, the town and surrounding country, those that have prayed so earnestly for the upbuilding and welfare of the whole country, and I guess the merchants are glad; maybe they will have some other stock to deal with. I have been told that some of them have sold coffee that turned to whiskey before they got out of town with it. We have no whiskey in Prattville and we don't want any. We have had a two weeks meeting at the Baptist church and everything has gone on mighty nice. I don't think the marshal has made an arrest during the meeting, but how many would there have been if there was whiskey sold here.

Everything is moving along nicely. There is some sickness here, but most of the people are better.

We regret very much to give up our superintendent, Mr. J. M. Martin, of the cotton mill, but we have one in his place that I think will be alright. We are working new cotton now altogether in the mill and the farmers have been bringing it in for two weeks. According to the report of the crop they are very near done for this time. Best wishes to the Banner.

A FRIEND.

Jemison, Oct. 7, 1907

Editor Banner—Please allow me a small space in your valuable paper to ask the people that signed a petition to stop the dispensary, if they don't think that they beat the children of Chilton out of about $4,000 of the school fund? I do, for the men that put the money in that dispensary don't pay any tax no other way, and now the cat and tiger will get the whole thing, so the children are left. The dispensary has paid four thousand dollars and would have paid that much more this year. Mr Sam R. Billingsley said Jefferson county has 151 bars and they will vote them out. They ought to consider how much tax they pay each year and who pays it, and whether they can get the money from those men any other way or not. Throw down your prejudice and consider this careful and see for the best.

Success to the Banner. M. R.

Enterprise.

Dear Editor—Please allow me a space in your paper to say a few words in regard to our Cheerful Addie Mercy Band, as we are going to try it over next third Sunday. It was a bad looking night before when we met and there were only six present and we appointed all of them as officers. You bet we had a time that night, but we hope for a better one next time. Now, we want all of you people to come next third Sunday and help us to make it a success. HIGH JACKET.

DEATH OF WILLIAM AUBUSON

Mr. Wm. A. Aubuson of Parkwood, Ala., passed away very suddenly Friday morning, Oct. 4th, about ten o'clock. Heart failure took him in the midst of apparent good health. The news of his death greatly shocked his many friends, and over us all came the sorrow that is felt when a good man dies. He was universally respected and had become an integral part of the community in which he lived. He died in the home where he had spent thirty-five of his sixty years. He came here from Jemison, Chilton county, and has many relatives and friends there.

He was an exemplary member of the M. E. church South at Patton's Chapel, where he was buried with Masonic honors after funeral services conducted by his pastor, Rev. Mr. Miller. He was an honored member of Helena Lodge, No. 410, A. F. & A. M. As a neighbor, as a christian, and as the father of [illegible] he was more than usually blessed. His devoted wife and six children mourn his loss. Their many friends extend to them the assurance of their heartfelt sympathy.

Miss HOWELL.

Parkwood, Ala., Oct. 7, 1907.

NAPOLEON BONAPARTE

showed, at the battle of Austerlitz, he was the greatest leader in the world. Ballard's Snow Liniment has shown the public it is the best Liniment in the world. A quick cure for Rheumatism, Sprains, Burns, Cuts, etc. A. C. Pitts, Bodcau, La., says: "I use Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family and find it unexcelled for sore chest, headache, corns, in fact for anything that can be reached by a liniment." Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

We have just received several new orders in fine perfumes. Florence Drug Store.

Rock Hill.

Have comm Golden Rod for a few weeds this rainy morning.

Health of this community is very good.

Mr. J. O. Sims will soon complete his nice dwelling house which he is very proud of.

Miss Rosa Lee Ellis has returned home from Jackson where she has spent two delightful weeks.

Mr. Lamb Hicks will soon complete the new school house.

The protracted meeting at Pleasant Grove has closed with 13 members to be baptized the 5th Sunday.

Mrs. Jennie Hall has been visiting her mother at Lanley.

Mr. Grady Williams has been on the sick list; we are glad to see him out again.

Miss Fay Hicks is attending the Montevallo school; we wish you success Fay.

Mr. Jim Moore has moved to the Scaffold saw mill; glad to have you with us.

Mr. Frank Beckford has moved his family to Selma.

We are sorry to say that Mr. Noah Beckford will move from our community soon.

Mr. Pitt Latham returned from Selma Friday where he has been under the treatment of the doctors.

Quite a crowd went to Rehoboth church Sunday and report a nice time. I will ring off wishing the Banner success. GOLDEN ROD.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

The Annual Convention of district 5, composed of Sunday schools in Beats 5 and 10, will be held at Canaan church, near Mt. Creek, on the 3d Sunday, Oct. 20, 1907. All who are interested in Sunday schools are invited to attend.

SECRETARY.

Who makes the best soda water? Florence Drug Store.

Subscribe for the Banner.

STRAYED—About seven weeks ago, from my place at Maplesville, R. F. D. No. 4, a Poland China Boar, unmarked, very early hog. A liberal reward will be paid for its recovery by W. E. HAYES, Maplesville, Ala., R. F. D. No 2.

LAND FOR SALE—10 miles southwest of Clanton, 120 acres; 60 timbered; 60 in cultivation; two dwellings; two wells good water; two good springs and outhouses; small orchard and grape vines. Place noted for health and beauty. Two public roads and telephone through the land. Churches and schools convenient. Write or call on E. E. Brown, Clanton, Ala., R. F. D. No. 7.

Seed Rye, Barley, Clover and Wheat, at Florence Drug Store.

J. A. SKAGGS

I am prepared to contract to erect any building in brick or wood, in Clanton, and to furnish all necessary material.

J. A. SKAGGS, Jemison, Ala.

BOOKKEEPING COURSE $3.00 per month.

Shorthand Course $3.00 per month.

Telegraph Course, unlimited scholarship $30.00.

Write SOUTHERN BUSINESS COLLEGE AND SCHOOL OF TELEGRAPHY, Newnan, Ga.

They Make You Feel Good.

The pleasant purgative effect experienced by all who use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and the healthy condition of the body and mind which they create makes one feel joyful. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

WANTED.

FOR SALE or TRADE—Two young mules, 4 years old, well broke, will sell or trade for one large mule, cash or credit, with good security. Address or call on R. E. Brown, R. F. D. No. 7, Clanton, Ala.

FOR SALE—A small farm 2½ mile west of Clanton on the Maplesville road. Land all fresh well improved, good living water. Apply to W. J. Sessions, Clanton, Ala., R. F. D. No. 7.

REMINGTON Typewriter No. 2 for sale. In first-class condition. THE BANNER, Clanton.

FOR SALE at a bargain, One Grist Mill and one 20 H. P. Gasoline Engine, good as new, at Sylacauga, Ala. Will make price discussed at Clanton. Address J. W. K., P. O. Box 164, Clanton, Ala.

DESIRABLE positions are always occuring at the Byars Hospital for men of good morals and white bodies. Salaries ranging from $18.00 to $30.00 per month, board, lodging, laundry and medical attention free. For full information write Dr. J. T. SHANCY, Supt. Talladega, Ala.

LAND FOR SALE—215 acres of good land, 65 acres in cultivation, 2 settlements. In sections 29 and 30, township 22, range 13. Apply to R. F. SIMS, Maplesville Ala., R. F. D. No. 1.

FOR RENT OR SALE—Seven roomed house, good barn and well. Fine garden. In Clanton. Apply at Banner Office.

124 ACRES FOR SALE, four miles southeast of Clanton. Apply to O. S., Banner office, Clanton.

[illegible] land, two miles from [illegible] two settlements on the tract. The tract is well watered. Call on or address O. O. FOSHEE, Clanton, Ala., R. F. D. No. 5.

DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve is good for little burns and big burns, small scratches or bruises and big ones. It is healing and soothing. Good for piles. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

ADULTERATIONS

used in High Grade Paint cost usually from twelve to eighteen dollars per ton. Pure Lead and Pure Zinc costs from ninety five to one hundred and twenty dollars per ton. Which is the best paint?

Davis' 100 per cent Pure paint that is sold under a guarantee of absolute purity, or the other kind? Will you still buy the OTHER KIND, and enrich the manufacturer at your expense?

For sale by Payne & Payne, Montgomery, Ala.

W. R. MADDOX

BLACKSMITH

I do all kinds of Repair Work in Wood or Iron. Saw Brackets and Banisters.

Cold Tire Setting. I can shrink your Buggy or Wagon Tires cold or hot.

Horse-shoeing up-to-date. Satisfaction guaranteed.

CLANTON

J. V. HIGGINS

WATCHMAKER, JEWELER AND ENGRAVER

At the Florence Drug Store, Clanton, Ala. All work guaranteed. Special attention given to Watch Cleaning, Stone Setting and Engraving

Repair all kinds of Graphophones Guns and Pistols Repaired.

HELP IS OFFERED

TO WORTHY YOUNG PEOPLE

We generously support all worthy persons, irrespective of race, financial [illegible] or education, who wish to obtain a thorough business training and good position, to write by first mail for our grand, half-value offer. Extensive, [illegible] graduates are guaranteed. Don't delay. Write today.

"The Gamble, Business College, Macon, Ga.

N. B.—All payments for tuition notes [illegible] soon as written. Students [illegible] per month.

NEW STYLES RIGHT UP TO THE MINUTE

LADIES

let us show you our new line of Dress Goods, Suitings in Wool or Silk in all the new weaves and color; can match your hat with most any goods you can pick on, including Gloves. Also a complete line to select from for the children.

MEN AND BOYS

Clothing, we have the most complete line in Chilton county, price $1 50 to $27.50 per suit; Single or Double Breasted Coat with the new crease seam effect. Peg Top Pants to wear with or without suspenders. Now, if you don't see your suit in the window come in and turn things over until you find it, just like you would hunting an old plow around home. You can also see all the new shaped Hats in the show cases.

Shoes For Everybody

Shoes, we handle the famous Smith Shoe, known for style, durability and long life.

Our Motto

New Goods, small profits and satisfied customers.

Let us figure on your entire wants

Copyright 1906 by Hart Schaffner & Marx

M. F. CANNON & SONS

CLANTON, ALA.

THE BANNER.

Published Weekly

CLANTON, ALABAMA.

You have to sell advice to make anybody believe it is worth following.

A Missouri man whose skull was broken by his mother-in-law had the gallantry to say in open court that he was a victim of "the gentler sex."

Illinois undertakers have decided to call themselves "morticians," thus making it possible, announces the Richmond Times-Dispatch, to die more fashionably in Illinois than any other state in the Union.

A Philadelphia couple met while roller skating, fell in love in an automobile, and were married by a minister on a motorcycle. They may have their first falling out, suggests the Washington Post, in an airship.

Another Kansas fool law is the one providing a bounty for the killing of crows. The bird is not only insectiverous and a scavenger, asserts the Wichita Eagle, but does not eat as much grain in a month as an ordinary cowbird does in a day. Some states protect the crow by law.

Active exertions are being made to alarm the American people on the subject of consumption, and sooner or later the unfortunates affected by it will be classed with lepers, smallpox subjects and yellow fever patients, and treated accordingly, says the New Orleans Picayune. Already an edict has gone forth in Louisiana requiring consumptive patients to be reported and registered. The movement against them has become progressive, and will grow rapidly and actively so.

Mr. Churchill was tactful and considerate of his countrymen's reverent feelings when he adhered strictly to fact in the scenes where Washington appears in "Richard Carvel" and Lincoln in "The Crisis." But whether he overpraised or caricatured Paul Jones, his picture of our first admiral was justified by his art, admits the New York Mail. If Ruel Durkee has been wronged it is unfortunate for his friends. But fiction needed Jethro Hass, and the author was within his literary rights when he "took his goods where he found them."

The indications are that the wealthy Americans are spending more than ever of their time and money abroad, insists the New Orleans Picayune. The New World has been draining its gold and silver into Europe for the past four centuries, and will continue to do so. But for the discovery of America, Europe would long ago have been bankrupt. In the time from the discovery of America up to 1850, when the British Island of Australia began to furnish gold, nearly all of the precious metals that got into Europe were from the western hemisphere. Some gold mined in the Ural mountains of Russia, and some from the Guinea coats of Africa, were about all that were obtained by Europe outside of the American supply.

FISH EATS MOSQUITO EGGS.

Italy to Experiment with the Australian Blue-eye to Suppress Plague.

By the mail steamer Kleist from Sydney, a curious consignment is expected—a quantity of fish to combat the mosquito plague.

Count Morner, the Swedish consul at Sydney, discovered that the pesudomugil signifier, or blue-eye, as the fish is called in Australia, is a voracious feeder on the larvae of mosquitoes and that the fish can live and flourish in comparatively shallow water.

The Italian government was informed through the Swedish minister at the Quirinal of Count Morner's investigations and asked the latter and the Italian consul at Sydney to procure and ship immediately some thousands of the blue-eye to Italy with the object of introducing them into the malaria stricken portions of the kingdom.

The blue-eye belongs to the family of the atherinidae and is from one and a half to two inches long.—Naples correspondent of the New York Sun.

Warship a Heap of Iron.

A pile of 1200 tons of scrap iron is the hold of the dismasted barque Wildwood, which has arrived at St. John, N. B., from Bermuda in tow of the ocean tug Gladiolus, is all that remains of the old British man-of-war Viper. The Viper was one of the English made warships with which the confederacy proposed to destroy the United States navy during the civil war, but the British government learned of the use intended for the warship and she was confiscated and later sent to Bermuda. A Boston merchant purchased the Viper, together with the barque Wildwood, at Bermuda, for junk, and disposed of both vessels to St. John parties.—Boston Transcript.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT AT MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE

With Eighteen or Twenty Governors of Mississippi States.

ESCORTED BY OLD CONFEDS

Importance of National Supervision of Railroad Stock Issues is Stressed as Essential to the Preservation of Democratic Institutions.

Memphis, Tenn.—With bands playing, children singing and enthusiastic men shouting the slogan of deep waterways, Memphis threw wide her gates Friday afternoon to President Roosevelt, a score of governors and many other distinguished personages from the states on the fertile Mississippi river.

The president arrived here on the United States steamer Mississippi shortly after 1 o'clock. The bluffs, overlooking the river, were packed with people who gave the chief executive a warm welcome. As the steamer landed the whistles of all crafts in the harbor were sounded. Immediately following the steamer Mississippi was the steamboat Alton, carrying visiting governors and other notables. When all had landed the president was conducted to a carriage by Governor Patterson, of Tennessee, and Mayor Malone, of Memphis, and the most imposing parade ever seen here began.

The president was continuously cheered throughout the march. The city was a waving mass of color, not only along the line of parade, but on many other streets as well. When the president's carriage turned into Main street he was saluted by a regiment of confederate veterans, who from that point acted as a body guard. The president arose and warmly greeted the grizzled warriors of a half century ago.

Despite a lively downpour of rain which lasted until noon the streets were jammed with citizens and visitors. Passing north on Second street 200 school children were seated on a decorated arch and sang patriotic airs as the president passed. The president arose in his carriage and bowed repeatedly to these little ones. Arriving at the auditorium rink, where the deep waterways convention is being held, President Roosevelt alighted and after chatting with several friends ascended the platform. The huge structure filled up rapidly and when Governor Malcolm R. Patterson, of Tennessee, arose to present the president an immense assemblage greeted him.

President Roosevelt departed from his printed speech in several instances. Speaking of the confederate guard of honor, he said it was a touching sight to see these old confederate soldiers carrying the flag of this great union. If any one wanted to know how they would fight for that flag let him ask the boys in blue how they fought against it. He said with emphasis that he was as much the president of the south as of the north and was devoted to its interests. He said he was half a southerner and when he told of two or three of his uncles having worn the gray he was tremendously applauded.

Speaking of a deep water channel from the gulf to the lakes, the president said he favored rapid improvement of the Mississippi river. "Like Davy Crockett, the great Tennessean," he said, "I favor this motto, 'be sure you are right then go ahead,' and this deep water problem is almost up to the 'go ahead' stage, but we want to be dead sure about it."

The Panama canal, he said, was getting on well and "the reason it is getting on so well is because we did not allow ourselves to go off half cocked. I received a telegram Thursday giving the excavations made in the canal work for the month of September, and although I had not hoped that the record for the month of August could be exceeded, I am now told that the removal for September exceeded that for the preceding month by 200,000 cubic feet." When the canal has been completed, he said, this nation would not ask other governments to "kindly not bother the canal;" that we would protect it. "We must have a larger and highly efficient navy to patrol our coasts not only on the Atlantic but on the Pacific," he said. He adjured the people to disregard party lines in all purely national matters.

Hindus Driven Back Across Border.

Spokane, Wash. — At Danville, Wash., Friday night an angry mob drove a small party of Hindus across the line into Canada, sending a shower of missiles after them. A few shots were discharged at the trespassers, but none was injured, it is believed. The Hindus had found shelter in a cabin at Danville following their escape from Canada.

Special Convention Called.

Memphis, Tenn.—The announcement was made on the steamer Alton, carrying the governors of various states on their way to the Memphis deep waters convention, that President Roosevelt will issue a call for a convention to be held in Washington on the 3d of January next to advocate the preservation and conservation of the natural resources of the country, including coal, oil, water power, and other things.

MISSIONARY DAY AT RICHMOND.

Episcopal Churchmen Discuss the Work at Home and Abroad.

Richmond, Va.—The general Episcopal convention observed missionary day. The house of bishops and the house of deputies met in joint session at 11 o'clock, the bishops occupying seats on the platform with Bishop Tuttle presiding. The bishop of Albany, as chairman of the board of missions, presented his tri-ennial report.

Reports were received from the women's auxiliary, the Sunday school auxiliary, the American church building fund commission, the American church missionary society and the church missions publishing company.

Dr. Arthur S. Lloyd, general secretary of missions at home and abroad, delivered an address on the progress of the church's mission work.

After midday prayers for missions, an address was delivered by Dr. Rees E. Alsop, member of the deputation to visit the missions abroad. He spoke of the work being done in the Far East.

George C. Thomas, of Philadelphia, gave some interesting facts concerning the offerings for missions during the last three years. At 1 o'clock a recess of two hours was taken for luncheon. Before the joint session the house of deputies received the visiting bishops from Canada and Australia. Brief speeches were made.

NATIONAL GRAIN DEALERS.

Railroads Asked to Furnish Sufficient Cars to Haul the Crop.

Cincinnati, O.—The Grain Dealers' Association elected the following officers: President, E. A. Reynolds, of Crawfordsville, Ind.; First Vice President, A. Y. Tyng, of Peoria, Ill.; Second Vice President, James L. King, of Philadelphia; directors, W. A. Washee, of Kansas City; D. Rothschild, of Iowa; Chas. Jones, of Tennessee; B. Houck, of Oklahoma, and L. E. Morey, of New York.

A resolution was passed favoring the separation of the functions of the interstate commerce commission, congress to perform the legislative, the department of commerce and labor of a new railroad department to perform the executive, and the present commission to perform the judicial functions.

Another resolution passed demanded that the railroads furnish sufficient cars and permit no discrimination in their use.

NO JOINT REPORT

To Be Given on the Steel Rail—No Perfect Rail Made.

New York.—There is said to be a hitch in the negotiations now in progress looking to the manufacture of perfect steel rail because the steel rail manufacturers assert they can not make the rail demanded by the committee of the American Railway Association. It is in the chemical composition of the steel that the railway men and the steel makers can not agree. The railway company wants a rail low in phosphorous and higher in carbon with a quarter of the molten mass at the top of the ingot cut off as a "discard."

Further meetings on the subject are to be held, but it is stated that when F. W. Gary calls the general meeting of railways and steel manufacturers together there will be two reports presented instead of a joint report.

NUMBER BALES GINNED.

Census Bureau Places Cotton Ginned at 1,566,977.

Washington.—The census bureau has issued a complete report showing the amount of cotton ginned from the 1907 crop up to September 25 to have been 1,559,997 bales. This report compares with 2,057,285 bales last year counting round bales as half bales.

The total number of active ginneries reported was 18,132. The total number reporting last year was 20,415 and 21,389 in 1905.

The number of round bales for 1907 was 41,256, as compared with 66,502 for 1906 and 74,810 for 1905. Sea island bales numbered 4,340 for 1907, as compared with 2,689 for 1906 and 11,936 for 1905.

WILL SOON BE ENDED.

President Off to New York, Where He Says Settlement Will Be Made.

Chicago.—The telegraph strike will be ended not later than October 15, according to an official announcement made Friday and the strikers are confident that they will win the victory.

President S. J. Small, of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union, left Friday for New York, where the final settlement will be reached.

During the preliminary negotiations, at least, the board members will remain in Chicago. They expect to be in direct communication with President Small, however.

Theatricals on Shipboard.

Liverpool.—It was announced that the Cunard Steamship Co. had accepted the offer of Charles Frohman to give theatrical performances on the big liners by regular players, who, for the time being, may be traveling to and from the United States and England. The company is now planning specially designed halls for plays and concerts on board three of the steamships of the line. Other transatlantic companies are considering

RIVER PILOT IS SUSPENDED

President's Boat Put in Peril of Collision by Jockeying.

Roosevelt Demands Punishment of the Hartwig's Master For Ninety Days.—Order by Telegraph.

Evansville, Ind.—President Roosevelt telegraphed to Captains Moore and Williams, the Evansville steamboat inspectors, directing them to suspend by telegraph the license of the master of the Fred J. Hartwig, of Paducah, Ky. Reckless navigation of that boat in the fact going down the Mississippi, from Cairo, Ill., to Memphis, is the reason for the order.

The Hartwig indulged in a race on the Mississippi with another boat and endangered, for a few minutes, the steamer Mississippi, the President's craft. Mr. Roosevelt's telegram, which was dated on board the Mississippi, follows:

"I direct that the license of the master, or whoever is responsible for the Fred Hartwig during the present voyage, be suspended at once, for ninety days. I wish this done by telegraph, wherever the boat may be, if such procedure is possible. Colonel Sears can give you the details of the misconduct, which has been of a serious nature, and might have at any time caused an accident to this boat, as well as to other boats."

The Hartwig carried the Pittsburg delegation. In the trip from Cairo there was some jockeying among the pilots of the river craft for positions near the Mississippi. The behavior of the Fred Hartwig, which repeatedly crowded the boat of the President, angered nearly every other boat's master. Just as New Madrid was approached, the pilots of the Lily and Alton pocketed the Hartwig and gave her their smoke.

Inspectors Moore and Williams immediately suspended the Captain of the Hartwig by telegraph, and investigation of his conduct on the river will be had at once.

NO RETREAT IN TRUST WAR.

President Roosevelt at Keokuk, Iowa, Denounces "Great Wrongdoers."

Keokuk, Iowa.—Declaring that his program for the prosecution of large moneyed interests was only a contributory cause and not mainly responsible for any business depression in the country, but that in any event he would not retreat from the campaign he had begun, President Roosevelt addressed an immense throng here at the beginning of his Mississippi River trip. One sentence especially caught the crowd. It was:

"If righteousness conflicts with the fancied needs of business then the latter must go to the wall."

The President was cheered when he said representatives of great moneyed interests had beseeched him to stop his prosecution of "great wrongdoers" in business and had refused. He said that it would be "infamous not to do all that can be done to punish these men" whose deeds are peculiarly reprehensible.

CANADA YIELDS TO JAPAN.

Will Pay Damages and Not Demand Direct Passports.

Ottawa, Canada.—Japanese Consul-General Nosse has formally protested to the Dominion Government against Japanese being detained at Vancouver because they did not have passports from the Japanese Government. His contention that it is a violation of the treaty was accepted by the Canadian Government, and the immigration agent at Vancouver has been so instructed.

Mr. Nosse presented claims for damages sustained by Japanese in the Vancouver riots amounting to nearly $4000. At a Cabinet meeting it was decided to pay the claim. Vancouver will later be asked to refund the amount.

BURNS BOY TO DEATH.

Tramp, Failing to Get Food, Cremates Four-Year-Old Lad Alive.

Oquawka, Ill.—Because food had been refused to him, a tramp took vengeance by beating Mrs. John Hathaway to unconsciousness and then tying her four-year-old son to a tree and burning him to death.

Mrs. Hathaway lay unconscious for an hour after the assault. The tramp mean time took her son into the orchard and tied him to an apple tree. He saturated the boy's clothing with oil, set the garments afire and fled.

Recovering consciousness, the mother went in search of her child and found him dying.

WILL KEEP OUT JAPANESE.

Investigations at Bellingham, Result in Guard on Canadian Frontier.

Bellingham, Wash.—As a result of the investigations made by G. B. Babcock, a special agent of the United States Treasury Department, a force of Federal officers will be installed on the Canadian border to keep back the Japanese who are crossing into the United States in large numbers.

Mr. Babcock found that hundreds of Japanese had illegally crossed, and were continuing to do so.

Foreign Immigration Condemned.

Heads of the Immigration Bureau were criticised in the Knights of Labor official publication for encouraging foreign immigration.

Wire War Ended.

Through the efforts of John D. Rockefeller the wire war between the Western Union Telegraph Company and the Pennsylvania Railroad has been ended.

To Curb Federal Courts.

The Attorneys-General who have been in conference in St. Louis adopted a memorial to Congress asking that the power of Federal judges over State courts be curbed.

EXTRA SESSION.

The Cotton Seed Crushers Hold One in Montgomery.

Montgomery.—If Governor Comer does fix to convene an extra session of the Alabama general assembly, and it seems that he will, one of the bills to be introduced by him to be acted upon will be that which will "regulate the sale, grading, branding and logging of cotton seed meal in Alabama."

The Alabama Cotton Seed Crushers' Association, at a meeting held Wednesday in the Exchange hotel, signed up a petition asking that this bill be especially named and in addition drafted a measure which will be submitted to the governor as an outline of the one the association would like to see enacted into law.

President Erdine Lamar, of Selma, called the association into extraordinary session to act upon this question of grading cotton seed meal in this state. The association membership responded to this call with alacrity and forty-odd were present and signed the petition to Governor Comer.

Under the present law there are only two grades of cotton seed meal allowed for sale and these are known as high grade and must contain 8 per cent of ammonia and those which fall below this high standard are known as low grade meal.

The suggested measure gives to the consumer three grades to be known as "high grade" and to contain the required 8 per cent of ammonia, another and new grade to be known as "standard" and to contain 7 1-2 per cent of ammonia, and those which fall below this second classification to be known as "low grade" and branded as such.

The association voted S. J. Cassels, acting secretary of the association, in the absence of Secretary J. M. Revoer, of Albertville, and President Lamar as a committee to represent the petition to the governor and urge the passage of the proposed amendment.

The members present declared that it was next to impossible, with the present seed, to turn out cotton seed meal with so high a grade as the present law requires, and that it was working a great hardship upon them.

The substitute measure, it is declared, will not only relieve the mill men, but will, at the same time, meet all of the demands of the farmer for high-grade cotton seed meal.

The association took up the work in engaging in a campaign of publicity in Alabama similar to that in force in Georgia and turned the matter of its furtherance over to the executive committee.

After reviewing the work of the interstate association, which met last week at New Orleans, and upon which Mr. Cassels, of this city, and President were conspicuous delegates, the association adjourned subject to the call of the president.

ON TRIAL FOR MURDER.

Made Statement of Killing 25 While Being Cross Examined.

Chattanooga, Tenn.—"I have shot and probably killed fourteen men in my time and the list may run up to twenty-five."

That remarkable statement was made by D. D. Edwards, who is on trial here for killing Tom Brooks last December.

Edwards made his confession while under cross examination.

He was asked by the attorney general if he killed any one previous to the killing of Brooks. Edwards admitted that he had killed a man in Kentucky. "Is that all?" asked the attorney general.

"Well," said Edwards, "I have shot and probably killed fourteen men in my time."

He stated that most of this occurred in Breathitt county, Kentucky, in feuds and in a strike in Chicago several years ago. He is a native of Breathitt county and recently aided in running down and capturing in the mountains of Breathitt the Lookout mountain wife murderer, Ed Turner.

Edwards did not change expression or give any indication of feeling when he confessed under cross examination to his bloody record, but after getting off the witness stand, added that the list might run up to twenty-five, "if everything was included."

This is his second trial, he having been released without bail after his first trial. Since then he has been in another state, but when notified of the date of his case came back to Chattanooga immediately. He is considered the most remarkable prisoner ever tried in Hamilton county.

Killed at Father's Gin.

Madisonville, Tex.—J. M. Kenix, 20 years old, was killed at his father's cotton gin by the explosion of a boiler near which he was standing.

Boy Ropes a Wildcat.

San Antonio, Tex.—Robert Perry, 15 years old, son of a wealthy rancher, roped a wildcat, discovered among a herd of cattle.

Increase of Wages.

Topeka.—The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad Company, at the general offices here, announced an increase of wages to its 5,000 machinists and boilermakers over the entire system of 3 cents an hour and an increase to helpers of 1 1-2 cents an hour, effective October 1.

Many people are entirely willing to acknowledge other people's errors.

BURIED IN RUINS OF CLUB H

One Hundred and Fifty P... Have Terrible Fall

FLAMES ADD TO THE TE...

Remarkable Escape from ... Made by Score of Persons Were Under the Debris ... Above Them.

Waterbury, ... and fifty men were ... Saturday night in the ... North End Athletic ... this city during a ... and 23 seriously ...

After the fall of ... the ruins took fire ... hour, while the ... gling and shrieking ... mouth the flames ... those in ... but the ... by small ...

The demonstra... trembling. A ... floor caved in ... crash into the ... it at least 150 ... unable to escape ... turned a ... set amid the ... rostrum, and ... among the huddled ... debris at the bottom ...

The entire police ... diately set to work ... while firemen ... hose available upon the ... effort to keep ... ward to the ...

The fire burned ... was finally subdued ... been smothered, ... lay at the bottom.

REMEDY FOR THE...

Destroy Cotton Stalks by Fire Doom the Boll Weevil.

Washington.—Prof. ... stalks in the fall is ... W. D. Hunter, in charge of ... weevil investigation ... ment of agriculture, as the most effective measure for reducing the number of the pests. He declares ... raisers can not only kill off ... structive bugs by adopting ... but raise better crops and ... more per acre.

"Fall destruction prevents largely the development of a ... weevils which would otherwise come adult weevils within ... weeks of the time of hibernation. ... destruction of the ... of weevils in squares and ... accomplished while the ... of squares which may be ... ed later is also prevented.

"By plowing in the fall the ... becomes clean, so that few ... shelter are left for the ... various climate conditions will ... rially reduce the number of ... ors."

WHOLESALE DRUGGI...

National Association Declares ... Amendment of Sherman ...

Denver, Col.—The National ... sale Druggists' Association ... following officers: President, ... D. Taylor, Richmond; vice ... W. C. Shurtleff, Chicago; ... ger, Tampa, Fla.; secretary, ... Toms, New York; treasurer, ... E Strong Cleveland.

According to a resolution ... the Sherman anti-trust law ... tirely too radical, and ... amended or new legislation ... permit reasonable trade agreements. The resolution declares that ... the association to be that the ... application of the Sherman law ... create the greatest possible ... of trade, although that is not ... tion it is intended to prevent.

The association also declared ... caine to be the most pernicious ... drugs, and one of its members suggested that sales be restricted ... ited to an ounce at a time ... enough to use in prescriptions.

To Be Cast in Bronze.

New York.—The colossal ... statue of the late Mark Hopkins, ... cised by the late Augustus St. ... dens, was cast in bronze at the ... Vernon foundry Friday after ... was one of the last works of ... mented sculptor and will be ... Cleveland, O.

Pecan Harvesting Begun.

Austin, Tex.—The pecan crop ... opened and thousands of ... the nuts have already been ... mostly in Concho county.

Powder Powder Blows Up.

Lillian, Tex.—It looked as ... Shennerhorn's right arm ... when he struck a match and ... ignited a pouch made of ...

Cases of Bubonic Plague.

San Francisco.—Fifty-one ... cases of Bubonic plague have ... oped in San Francisco, ... the report being kept ... of Dr. Blue, of the ... in charge of the work of ... There have been 19 deaths ... suspects are under observation.

It makes some girls blush ... mention going through a ...

MEETING OF THE SPINNERS IN ATLANTA, GA.

From England, Europe and the United States

DISCUSS THE PROBLEMS

That are Now Confronting the Cotton Growers

SUCCESS IS WISHED THEM

Duke Smith Welcomes the Spinners to Georgia; Mayor Joyner Welcomes Them to Atlanta, and Englishmen and Austrians Issue Address of Response.

Program

... Convention called to order by Chairman James R. McColl ...

... appointment of committee of two delegates from each of the four organizations calling the conference to order, permanent officers and select ... and vice chairmen of the ... committee meetings ...

... address of welcome on part of the State of Georgia—His Excellency, Gov. ... Smith.

... address—Hon. C. W. McCara, Manchester, England, president of the International Cotton Spinners' Association of Europe.

... address of welcome on part of the city of Atlanta—Hon. W. B. Joyner, ...

... response—Herr Arthur Kuffler, Vienna, Austria.

... address of welcome on part of the Atlanta chamber of commerce—Hon. ... Pope, president Atlanta chamber of commerce.

... response—Mr. William Hartshorne, Lawrence, Mass., president National Association of Cotton Manufacturers.

... p. m.—Meeting of sectional committees in committee rooms of the capitol.

... p. m.—Visit to Georgia School of Technology by all delegates who decide to accept the invitation. Special car for delegates leave Union Depot at 2.45 p. m.

... p. m.—Reception in honor of the visitors at Capital City Club.

Reception Committee.

... Harman, treasurer Scottdale Mills; Vaughn Nixon, treasurer Atlanta Woolen Mills, Charles D ..., treasurer Exposition Cotton Mills; F. W. Rhodes, treasurer Elberton Cotton Mills; Lee N. Jordan, treasurer Gate City Cotton Mills; Ray ... Willingham, treasurer Piedmont ... Mills; Joe Hill, southern representative Lowell machine shops; C. B ..., of Inman, Akers & Inman.

... Ga.—The International convention of cotton growers and begins ... hall of the house of representatives in the state capitol at 10 o'clock. ... the body, representing the producers and consumers of the south's ... staple, will be called to order ... President James R. MacColl, of ..., S. C.

... interesting program has been arranged. Addresses of welcome will be ... by Governor Smith, Mayor ... and President J. Willis Pope, of the chamber of commerce. Responses ... be delivered by Hon. C. W. McCara, of Manchester, Eng., president of the International Cotton Spinners' Association of Europe, Herr Arthur Kuffler, of Vienna, former president of the international association, and Wm. Hartshorne, of Lawrence, Mass., president of the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers.

... o'clock in the afternoon meetings of the sectional committees will be held in the committee rooms at the capitol.

... conference of growers and spinners ... made up of members of the following organizations:

... Association of Cotton Manufacturers, the American Manufacturers' Association, the International Cotton Spinners ...

... Among the spinners is ... of Manchester, official photographer ...

... Among the ladies in the party are ... Anna Macara, daughter of President Macara, and Misses MacConnell, ... with several more.

... Probably two of the most interesting ... were C. W. Macara, of Manchester, England, chairman of the ...

Suspended High Over River

... Pa.—Fifteen passengers, ... several women and a motorman and conductor, had a narrow escape from plunging to death from ... Ambabula and Pennsylvania railroad viaduct to the Ashtabula river, 100 feet below. The ... were in a panic and several were injured by a trolley pole ... making the plunge. The body of ... car left the tracks and one end ... suspended over the river.

BURIED IN RUINS OF CLUB

One Hundred and Fifty P... Have Terrible Fall

FLAMES ADD TO THE TER...

Remarkable Escape From ... Made by Score of Persons ... Were Under the Debris ... Above Them.

Waterbury, Conn.—One ... and fifty men were buried ... Saturday night in the ... North End Athletic Club ... this city during a Republica... and 23 seriously hurt.

After the fall of the big ... the ruins took fire and burned ... hour, while the victims lay ... gling and shrieking in the ... neath the flames. Scarcely ... body escaped injury, but the casualties were all ... ly small.

The demonstration and the ... trembling. A moment later the ... floor caved in and fell with a ... crash into the cellar, carrying ... it at least 150 men who had ... unable to escape. The collapse ... turned a kerosene lamp that had ... set amid the electric lights ... rostrum and this lamp ... among the huddled heaps of ... debris at the bottom.

The entire police force was ... diately set to work digging for ... while firemen trained every ... hose available upon the blaze ... effort to keep it from going ... ward to the buried victims.

The fire burned an hour ... was finally subdued and ... been smothered, most of the ... lay at the bottom.

REMEDY FOR THEM.

Destroy Cotton Stalks by Fire ... Doom the Boll Weevil.

Washington.—Destruction of ... stalks in the fall is recommended ... W. D. Hunter in charge of the ... weevil investigation at the ... ment of agriculture, as the most ... fective measure for reducing the ... ber of the pests. He declares ... raisers can not only kill off the ... structive bugs by adopting this ... but raise better crops and more ... more per acre.

"Fall destruction prevents ... ly the development of a multitude ... weevils which would otherwise ... come adult weevils within a few ... weeks of the time of hibernation. ... destruction of the immature ... of weevils in squares and ... accomplished while the further ... of squares which may become ... ed later is also prevented.

"By plowing in the fall the ... becomes clean, so that few places ... shelter are left for the weevil ... various climate conditions will ... rially reduce the number of ... ors."

WHOLESALE DRUGGISTS

National Association Declares ... Amendment of Sherman Law.

Denver, Col.—The National ... sale Druggists' Association elected ... following officers: President, ... D. Taylor, Richmond; vice ... W. C. Shurtleff, Chicago, and ... ger, Tampa, Fla.; secretary, ... Toms, New York; treasurer, ... E Strong Cleveland.

According to a resolution ... the Sherman anti-trust law ... tirely too radical, and should ... amended or new legislation ... permit reasonable trade agreements. The resolution declares that ... the association to be that the ... application of the Sherman ... create the greatest possible ... of trade, although that is the ... tion it is intended to prevent.

The association also declared ... caine to be the most pernicious ... drugs, and one of its members ... gested that sales to retailers ... ited to an ounce at a time ... enough to use in prescriptions.

To Be Cast in Bronze.

New York.—The colossal ... statue of the late Mark Hanna ... eled by the late Augustus Saint-Gaudens, was cast in bronze at the Vernon foundry Friday afternoon. ... was one of the last works of the ... mented sculptor and will be erected ... Cleveland, O.

Pecan Harvesting Begun.

Austin, Tex.—The pecan season ... opened and thousands of bushels ... the nuts have already been gathered, ... mostly in Concho county.

Powder Poultice Blows Up.

Dallas, Tex.—It looked as if ... Shemerhorn's right arm ... when he struck a match and ... ignited a poultice made of ...

Cases of Bubonic Plague.

San Francisco.—Fifty-one ... cases of bubonic plague have ... oped in San Francisco, ... the report being kept in the ... of Dr. Blue, of the marine ... in charge of the work of erad... There have been 39 deaths. ... suspects are under observation.

It makes some girls blush ... mention going through a ...

MEETING OF THE SPINNERS IN ATLANTA, GA.

From England, Europe and the United States

DISCUSS THE PROBLEMS

Are Now Confronting the Cotton Growers

SUCCESS IS WISHED THEM

Governor Smith Welcomes the Spinners to Georgia; Mayor Joyner Welcomes Them to Atlanta, and Englishmen and Austrians Issue Address.

Program.

Convention called to order ... James R. McColl.

Appointment of committee of two ... each of the four organizations ... the conference to nominate ... officers and select ... chairmen of the sec... meetings.

Welcome on part of the ... —His Excellency, Gov. ... Hon. C. W. McCara, Manchester, England, president of the International Cotton Spinners' Association.

Welcome on part of the ... Atlanta—Hon. W. R. Joiner, ...

Response—Herr Arthur Kuffler, Vienna.

Welcome on part of the ... chamber of commerce—Hon. ... President Atlanta chamber ...

Response—Mr. William Hartshorne, Salem, Mass., president National Association of Cotton Manufacturers.

8 p. m.—Meeting of sectional committees in committee rooms of the Capitol.

Wednesday—Visit to Georgia School of Technology by all delegates who do not accept the invitation. Special train for delegates leave the Piedmont at 2:45 p. m.

8 p. m.—Reception in honor of the ... at the Capital City Club.

Reception Committee.

... E. Harman, treasurer Scottdale Manufacturing Company; Vaughn Nixon, treasurer ... Woolen Mills; Charles D. ... treasurer Exposition Cotton ... F. W. Stone, treasurer Eliza... Cotton Mills; Lee N. Jordan, ... Gate City Cotton Mills; Bay... Willingham, treasurer Piedmont ... Mills; Joe Hill, southern repre... the Lowell machine shops; C. B. ... of Inman, Akers & Inman.

Ga.—The international con... of cotton growers and begins ... hall of the house of representa... the state capitol at 10 o'clock. ... body, representing the pro... and consumers of the south's ... every staple, will be called to or... President James R. MaColl, of ...

The interesting program has been ar... Addresses of welcome will be ... by Governor Smith, Mayor ... President J. White Pope, of ... ber of commerce. Responses ... delivered by Hon. C. W. McCara, of Manchester, Eng., president International Cotton Spinners' Association of Europe; Herr Arthur ... of Vienna, former president of ... national association, and Wm. ... horne, of Lawrence, Mass., ... of the National Association ... Manufacturers.

At 3 o'clock in the afternoon meeting ... the national committees will ... in the committee rooms at the ...

Conference of growers and spinners ... made up of members of the ... organizations:

... Association of Cotton Manufacturers; ... American Manufacturers' ... International Cotton ...

... of the spinners is ... of Manchester, official photog...

... ladies in the party are ... Macara, daughter of Presi... and Misses MacConnell, ... with several more.

... of the most interesting ... were C. W. Macara, of ... England, chairman of the committee of the International Federation of Master Cotton Spinners' and Manufacturers' Association, and Arthur Kuffler, of Vienna, Austria, former president of the international association. Both of these gentlemen were the center of interest throughout the day.

Among the other prominent visitors were J. E. MacColl, president of the New England Spinners' Association.

Richard J. Allen, F. S. S., editor of "Cotton" and secretary of the Manchester Cotton Association, believes that the visit of the foreign spinners to Atlanta will prove of great commercial importance.

W. C. Macara, a son of the president of the International association, expressed delight at the experiences which have been met with so far and finds that his pleasureable anticipations are being realized.

"We expect to travel about 11,000 miles while here," he said, "but Atlanta will be the point at which we will make the longest stop en route."

Mr. Macara is on his first visit to the United States. In discussing the objects and aims of the European spinners in touring this country, he said:

"Our party have anticipated our visit to your great country with the liveliest feelings of satisfaction and pleasure. We are, if I may be allowed to say so,

"Each succeeding annual gathering has grown in importance and in the success of its achievements. I may mention that we now get trustworthy statistics about the consumption of cotton and the stocks in hand from the owners of nearly one hundred millions spindles, running in Great Britain, America, Germany, France, Austria, Italy, Switzerland, Belgium, Russia, Spain, Norway, Holland, Portugal and Japan.

"These statistics are of the highest value in steadying the market. They show us, if I may use a colloquial term, exactly where we are, and they must convince even superficial observers that an industry so magnificently organized is in a position to speak with authority and to act with irresistible force against agencies which interfere with the legitimate conduct of trade.

"All along we have met with encouragement from our American friends. They know that there was nothing in our organization which was in any way inimical to legitimate American interests. Representatives of the American cotton planters attended our congress at Vienna, and by joining freely in the valuable discussions that took place there helped to considerably clear the air. Growers of cotton and the spinners of cotton benefit by anything which economizes the cost of production and of transportation. Closer acquaintance on our part with the conditions prevailing on the cotton fields and closer acquaintance on your part with our requirements will not only promote more harmonious working, but will lead to much saving of time and money. To these and other considerations you may attribute the astounding fact that considerably more than one hundred European cotton spinners and others interested in the cotton industry have elected to leave their businesses for six or seven weeks in order to pay you a visit, to attend the great convention of growers, spinners and manufacturers at Atlanta, to travel for nineteen days through your great country, and to establish the most friendly and cordial relations among all who are interested in the huge industry of which the cotton plant is the prime factor. Nothing more edifying can be conceived, nothing more likely to promote peace and good will among the nations of the world, than this unity of many people, working harmoniously for the general good. Our great English Puritan poet has said, "Peace hath her victories no less renowned than war," and this victory for peaceful progress, to be recorded at Atlanta, is a unique incident in the history of the world's commerce, the value of which no one can completely foresee.

"One of the most gratifying features is the cordiality with which the American growers have urged us to pay them a visit, and the readiness they have shown to meet the suggestions which we have ventured to submit to them. The best of feelings prevail on all hands, and nothing can be more certain than that when the time comes for us to leave your hospitable shores we shall have learned much that will be of great benefit to the industry, and that we shall have done something to still further strengthen the bonds which unite the American growers and the European spinners. To a greater work than this no man connected with the cotton trade can put his hand."

World's Debt to South.

"Allow me to point out to you that Great Britain and many of the other countries of Europe have been purchasing the products of your bounteous cotton fields in rapidly growing quantities for more than one hundred years. The mechanical genius of Watt and Arkwright, and many other inventors whose names are held in the highest honor, stimulated the planters of the southern states, and was largely instrumental in causing you to improve your yield of cotton from about 1,000,000 bales seventy years ago to 12,000,000 bales during last season. With the great development of the cotton industry the necessity for closer acquaintance between the men who grow cotton in America and the men who spin cotton in Europe became obvious to all. In past years a few isolated parties of European spinners have, with much advantage to themselves, visited your prolific cotton belt.

"Last year a more important visit was paid by a commission appointed by some of the leading firms of cotton spinners in Lancashire, and this commission was able to attend the first convention of planters and spinners, which was held in Washington in May of that year. They witnessed the operations of planting, growing, picking, baling, transporting and marketing the cotton, and they have candidly conveyed the impression that marvelous as have been the results achieved, wonderful as has been the enterprise exhibited, perfection has not been reached in other branches of commerce. The report they issued created a great deal of interest.

Menace of Cotton Gambler.

"What is the attitude of your association toward the New York cotton exchange and others in the United States?" Mr. Cacara was asked.

"There is need of legitimate middlemen," he replied. "We need cotton samplers and cotton agents to go into the market and buy the raw material required by the mills. Honest brokers have a place to fill, and the foreign spinners maintain representatives on the American cotton exchanges to make contracts for their supply of cotton.

"But the opportunities that have been given to men who neither grow nor spin cotton, nor are legitimately interested in its distribution, to bring about ruinous fluctuations in the price of raw material, is an evil more prejudicial to the cotton business than any other which now exists. The baling and warehousing of your staple has not been as satisfactory as you and we desire, but the evil I have mentioned is vastly more pernicious in its effect."

Mr. Macara significantly remarked: "It was not the spinners of England nor of the continent who brought about the organization of the International Cotton Spinners' Association, but it was Daniel Sully."

"Does your association seek lower priced cotton?" I asked. To this he replied:

"We wish the market to be responsive to the ordinary laws of supply and demand. We want your cotton and are prepared to pay for it a price which will adequately reward your farmers for their outlay of capital and their employment of labor. The interests of the cotton growers and the spinners of cotton are identical."

Farmers' Union Active.

National President C. S. Barrett, of the Farmers's Union; State President R. F. Duckworth and many national directors of the association put in a busy day welcoming the visitors, explaining the purposes of their organization and arguing contested points affecting the rights of cotton growers and cotton spinners. By night over fifty representative members of the Farmers' Union from all parts of the south had reached the city, and today will see the number increased to 120. All will have seats on the floor when the convention meets in the house of representatives at the state capitol at 10 o'clock this morning.

President Harvie Jordan, of the Southern Cotton Association, dropped into the gathering at the Piedmont yesterday about noon and renewed acquaintance with the foreign spinners whom he had met last year in Vienna at the international conference. It was largely through Mr. Jordan's efforts the convention was brought to Atlanta this year.

Objects of the Convention.

The objects of the Atlanta convention may be briefly stated to be the desire of cotton spinners to confer with cotton growers of the south as to better methods of baling and warehousing cotton, and, more than all, eliminating the gambling element from the cotton exchanges of this country to prevent violent fluctuations in the price of the staple. There seems to be a division of sentiment among the delegates as to just how far ancient usages and trades customs can be altered at once.

Another detail which is engaging the attention of the foreign spinners is the "conditioning" of cotton. This concerns the amount of moisture contained in a bale of cotton, for which the buyer has to pay the price of actual cotton. A quantity of moisture is absorbed by the cotton when exposed to the weather between ginning and baling. The remedy advocated is the baling of cotton at the gin.

A system of "conditioning" has been found practicable in the case of wool, and many delegates think it might be applied to cotton. In the case of silk it is now customary to make an allowance for moisture in excess of a certain amount.

Suspended High Over River.

Dallas, Pa.—Fifteen passengers, ... several women and a motorman and conductor, had a narrow escape from plunging to death from the Lehigh and Pennsylvania railroad viaduct to the Ashley river, 100 feet below. The cars were in a panic and several were injured by a trolley pole breaking the plunge. The body of the car left the tracks and one end was suspended over the river.

Harry Thaw's Trial December 2.

New York.—Harry K. Thaw's second trial for the killing of Stanford White will begin December 2. This agreement was reached between District Attorney Jerome, Martin W. Littleton, counsel for Thaw, and Justice Dowling, of the supreme court. Mr. Littleton wanted the date fixed for November 1, but Mr. Jerome opposed this and offered the date which was selected.

Refusing Snakes by Pound.

Elgin, Tex.—Roy Frazier has sued a Corsicana man for $40 as the result of his failure to pay for rattlesnakes he had offered to buy at 40 cents a pound.

Welcome Taft.

Shanghai.—Chinese representing thirty-four guilds of Shanghai have sent a letter of welcome to Secretary Taft, who is expected to arrive here Tuesday.

To control speculation upon European spinners within the province of the Southern exchange, in the case of wool, which might be adopted to control speculation in cotton. This rule provides for the deposit by each party to a transaction of a sum sufficiently fixed to insure the good faith of buyer and seller. The amount required of both buyer and seller is £200 francs ($200) for each 2,000 kilos (11 pounds) of wool in the grease and of combed wool.

At the meeting of the committee on growing and handling of cotton, L. Maxwell, of Louisiana, chairman, discussions of better cotton through seed selected, improved ginning and compressing and uniformity of bales, brought out that the losses of foreign spinners from a faulty baling and damage are so enormous that advantage steps have been made by the spinners to increase the output of foreign fields to the jeopardy of American export trade of raw cotton.

As the foreign visitors told of their losses of years, the American growers were amazed. They were shown photographs of pyramids of American cotton on the piers at Liverpool broken, soiled and crushed. The remedy, the foreigners said, lies in gin compressing and uniform baling, and the Americans were made to see where an enormous saving lies in adopting the Egyptian method of baling, advocated by the visitors. In reply the Americans said they have been told by the compress owners that the foreign spinners would not receive the gin-compressed cotton.

Walter Clarke, one of the largest growers of Mississippi, told of a gin compress on a neighboring plantation, perfect as a machine, but the operation of which cost the owners $10,000 because of the existing combination of brokers and compress companies against gin-compressed cotton, and that compress is now and has long been idle.

Old Officers Chosen.

All the present officers of the international conference of cotton growers and manufacturers were renominated.

James R. Macoll, president, Providence, R. I.

C. W. Macara, vice president, Manchester, England.

Harvie Jordan, vice president, Atlanta, Ga.

S. B. Turner, vice president, Henrietta, N. C.

Charles S. Barrett, vice president, Atlanta, Ga.

These nominations were ratified by the conference.

New Constitution.

President Harvie Jordan, of the Southern Cotton Association, announced at the conclusion of the meeting of the executive board of the organization the adoption of a new constitution and by-laws, which authorizes the granting of charters for the people, placing the association in a better position for the ends sought to be gained.

President Jordan explained that by the adoption of new legislation there is permissible improvement in methods of warehousing, baling and financing the annual cotton crop in the hands of the growers. He declared the new legislation was largely educational and was the result of long consideration and repeated conferences.

TWO CHILDREN SUFFOCATED

Residence Burns and Mother Cannot Save Them.

Lynchburg, Va.—The home of Gary P. Mundy, a well known merchant of this city, was burned as the result of a lamp explosion and before the firemen could get into the building two of their children, aged 10 and 8, respectively, were suffocated. Mrs. Mundy escaped from a rear exit with her 3-year-old baby, and the flames spread so rapidly that it was impossible to rescue the other two children. Mrs. Mundy is in a critical condition as the result of her experience.

Boarding House Union.

West Springfield, Mass.—The boarding mistresses of this town have decided to call a meeting for Monday night to form a union, the occasion being the greater cost of living and the higher rents demanded. Some have already raised the price of boarding and room rent and in order that the raise may be made general the union will be formed. In this town the boarding house business is a thriving one on account of the number of men who work in the Boston and Albany shops.

12,000 Men to Strike.

New Orleans, La.—The dock and cotton council of New Orleans, whose membership is made up of all classes of laborers employed in connection with the shipping of the port, numbering about 12,000 men, voted for a general strike. They demand an increase in wages.

Strikebreakers for Cuba.

New York.—Fifty men engaged to take the place of strikers on Cuban railways sailed for Havana on the steamer Monterey. The men were in charge of representatives of a private detective agency.

Ship's Crew Rescued.

Kilrush, Ireland.—The entire crew of the French ship Leon XIII, which went on the rocks near Scofield, County Clare, were rescued.

MISS BEEKS REPORTS ON THE PANAMA CANAL

It Has Been Sent to Secretary Wm. Taft.

TOUCHES EVERY CONDITION

Miss Beeks, Secretary of Welfare Department of the National Civic Federation, Has Made a Thorough Investigation.

New York.—The report to Secretary Taft on conditions of employment on the Isthmus of Panama, which were investigated by Miss Gertrude Beeks, secretary of the welfare department of the National Civic Federation, was made public Monday.

Nearly every feature of life on the Isthmus is touched upon in the report. Many things are highly commended; others are condemned and recommendations are made for the betterment of conditions. The inspection covered camps, barracks, hospitals, mess halls, schools, club houses, commissaries, jails, churches, work places and transportation facilities. Conditions of employment were also investigated. Information was gathered from officials, superintendents, foremen, mechanics, clerks, nurses, doctors, secretaries of the Young Men's Christian Association, railroad engineers and conductors, their wives and children, and, in fact, every type of resident on the Isthmus, the negroes included. But in no case was testimony sought or received from discharged employes.

It is clearly recognized that never before have there been as good conditions in American construction work, but in view of the climatic conditions, length of time to be consumed in the building of the canal and the fact that the government should be a model employer, it is urged that the surroundings of the employes should be made as comfortable as possible. Naturally more can be expected from the government than from a private employer with limited capital and restricted by competitive conditions.

Some of the recommendations have already been adopted. Secretary Taft immediately requested the agricultural department to start a government farm and made arrangements with Secretary Wilson to have all food stuffs inspected before shipment from the United States. He also authorized the purchase of blankets for the negroes and refrigeration plants for mess halls. A tentative draft of the report was presented to Lieutenant-Colonel Goethals before Miss Beeks left the Isthmus. He at once had plans drawn for drying rooms, authorized the erection of rain sheds, and has since supplied beds for Americans in permanent quarters and ordered that metal cots be covered with canvas. He has indicated his intention of putting into effect such suggestions as available funds will permit and of calling the more important recommendations to the attention of the congressional committee on appropriations, which will visit the Isthmus in October, with the view of securing funds for their adoption. The commission has also started the publication of the canal zone newspaper and has accepted the services of a representative of the welfare department of the National Civic Federation—Miss Helen Varick Boswell—to organize women's clubs, and she is now on the Isthmus. The report has been sent officially to the Isthmian canal commission for comments, which will be published later. President Roosevelt has requested Miss Beeks to return to Panama within eight months and report upon progress made.

Many of the complaints of employes with reference to housing, food, conditions of employment and bad boat service between the United States and Panama undoubtedly have been warranted, but the chairman of the commission and chief engineer, Lieutenant-Colonel Goethals, by making personal investigations, affording for the first time an opportunity for grievances to be heard, and, by making certain improvements, has inspired confidence.

The investigation covered a period of five weeks, from the time of leaving New York, June 7, until the return, July 12, twenty-three days having been spent on the Isthmus.

Small and Gompers Have Conference.

Washington, D. C.—S. J. Small, national president of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union, left for Chicago on account of the serious illness of his wife. He had a conference with President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, regarding the preparation of the brief which President Roosevelt has requested to receive from the striking telegraphers. It is understood that the brief is not yet completed.

About Noted People.

Senator Chauncey M. Depew, with Mrs. Depew, returned from Europe.

The Siamese King bought $1,000,000 worth of diamonds and gold and silverware in Berlin.

Professor Albert M. Lythgoe, Egyptologist, has returned to New York from Europe, after an absence of one year.

Conservatives in China have been shocked to learn that "Duke Confucius," direct descendant of the sage Confucius in the seventy-sixth generation, has joined the liberal movement in the Empire.

SHERIFF'S LIFE ATTEMPTED.

Bomb Exploded as He Opened the Gate to His Home.

Baker, Idaho.—An attempt was made to assassinate former Sheriff Harry H. Brown at his home in this city by blowing him up with a dynamite bomb. He is in a critical condition at one of the hospitals. One of his legs was blown off, one of his arms paralyzed and internal injury was caused by the explosion.

The outrage was similar in manner of execution to that which resulted in the death of former Governor Frank Steunenberg at Caldwell, Idaho. Mr. Brown was returning home from a trip out of town, and as he opened his gate the bomb exploded, wounding him as stated and blowing in the windows of his house. He was found lying on the sidewalk several feet from the gate, the large posts of which were blown to pieces and the fence shattered for some distance.

The assassins left no trace, except a wire, which extended about twenty-five feet north along the fence and then went west about thirty feet to the middle of the road.

CLIMBS OUT OF COFFIN.

Woman in Swoon Was Not Aroused Until Time for Funeral Service.

Wheeling, W. Va.—Relatives of Mrs. Fred Hartsell, wife of a farmer living near Huntington, were bemoaning her death over her coffin a few minutes before the minister arrived to conduct the last rites, when she suddenly sat up and with a dazed look climbed out.

There was a rush of mourners for open air, windows being used as exits. The mourners were terror stricken and the minister swooned when a pale-faced woman, over whose remains he had been called to conduct services, met him at the door.

The family was too poor to have a physician, and the woman fell into a swoon, in which she remained three or four days. Her husband thought her dead and sent for the undertaker. He prepared the supposed corpse for interment without discovering that life still lingered.

BODY FOUND IN TRUNK.

Former Sergeant Is Under Arrest Charged With Murder.

New York.—The Hong Kong correspondent of the Herald, under date of August 15, says:

The body of a woman, later identified as Gertrude Dayton, was found in a trunk on board the Royal Mail steamer Mont Engle, and M. Adzetta, formerly a sergeant in the American legation at Pekin, has been arrested charged with the murder. The circumstances of the killing are shrouded in mystery.

The woman apparently was strangled. The trunk was taken on board the vessel by an American who represented himself as a passenger.

Adzetta when arrested as Che Fu had $2,600 in gold and several valuable jewels.

Adzetta had resigned from the United States marine corps and later became a professional pugilist.

LEFT MONEY TO CHARITY.

Bequeathed by General Furlong to Mississippi Institutions.

New York.—Gen. Charles B. Furlong, of this city, who died at Portland, Me., recently, bequeathed $140,000 to charitable institutions. His will was filed by probate.

To the mother superior of the Roman Catholic Convent of Mercy at Vicksburg, Miss., General Furlong left $10,000, and the University of Mississippi, the Alcorn University, Mississippi, the institute for the deaf and dumb, the asylum for the blind and the asylum for the insane at Jackson, Miss., he left $5,000 each.

Found Diamond in Horse's Hoof.

New York.—James Haskins, an itinerant tin peddler, who travels northern New Jersey, is $200 richer than ever. He drove into Hanover with his horse lame; it could hardly stand, and went directly to the blacksmith shop. There it was found that the animal had picked up a stone which was so tightly wedged in the horse's hoof that the shoe had to be removed. A handful of dirt was between the stone and shoe, and in this something glittered and sparkled in the light. It was a large diamond.

Use of Kodak in Election.

Lexington, Ky.—For the first time in the history of Kentucky politics the kodak is to be used for the purpose of detecting fraud in the registration of voters. The republican campaign committee has made arrangements to have a man with a kodak stationed at each polling place who is to take pictures of any evidence of fraud, such as the policy of holding back the members of one party and admitting others to vote.

The Field of Sports.

Pennsylvania had an easy victory at football over North Carolina.

George Bushag, the American champion, is taking a short rest.

Contests on land and on the sea now gain in interest before those in the air.

"Jack" Johnson outfought "Sailor" Burke in their six round bout at Bridgeport, Conn.

Captain C. H. Ide, of the Yale Varsity eight, will not return to college this fall, having decided to enter into a business enterprise in San Francisco.

The Banner.

Issued and Published every Thursday at Clanton, Chilton County, Ala.

Entered at the postoffice at Clanton, Ala., as second-class mail matter.

"Here shall the press the people's rights maintain,
Unawed by influence and unbribed by gain,
Here patriot truth her glorious precepts fix,
And Freedom's cause be handed to the sticks."

Subscription, strictly Monday in advance. $1.00

Address all communications to THE BANNER, Clanton, Ala.

Gov. COMER says: "The Legislature will meet in extra session November 7. The formal call will be within the next few days. This is all I care to say just now." 'Nough said!

All this talk about Hon. John Sharp Williams not being elected the floor leader of the minority in the sixtieth congress is mere moonshine and political twaddle and only shows the ignorance of the writer of alleged political topics. The enemies of Mr. Williams, and he has some, and I would not give the burnt end of a broomstraw for a man who has not, started in last winter before the close of the fifty-ninth congress, to defeat him and they fell down badly. They first tried to get Champ Clark, than whom there is no better man or Democrat in congress, to make the race against Mr. Williams, and he would have had a formidable following, but he was the active friend and lieutenant of Mr. Williams and he refused to lend his name to the scheme. The opposition then took up Judge DeArmond, also of Missouri, who was a willing Barkis, but they lost out on him Judge DeArmond is one of the ablest men in congress. The trouble with him is that he is the poorest miner in congress. He refuses to get acquainted with people, especially Republicans, just so he can hate them personally. He has a buzz saw voice and a rapier intellect and his stinger always is out for trouble. He is a human snag and whenever a Republican runs into his orbit there is going to be a whole passel of trouble for the aforesaid Republican. He is one of the ablest debators and would make one of the poorest leaders in congress. Knowing that fact as well as I do, the members refused to follow his lead and one-hundred out of one-hundred and sixty-five Democrats in the next house signed an obligation to vote for Williams the caucus nominee for speaker which distinction carries with it the floor leadership. Therefore Williams will be the next Democratic leader and he will be as brilliant as hitherto and maybe more so. The Repuplicans fear him more than any man on the Democratic side and that is the greatest complaint that can come to him from a Democratic standpoint. Verbum sap.

Great Crowds Attend Fair at Birmingham.

The Alabama State Fair at Birmingham is proving the greatest success in the history of this section of the South. From the hour the gates opened, October 8, the grounds have been thronged, morning, afternoon and night. The general verdict is that there has never been such a display of Alabama products, nor such a list of free exhibitions.

The airship is the sensation of the day in Birmingham. The crowded city is talking of little else but Baldwin's daring flight. The racing ostriches, balloon ascensions, trotting and pacing races, and the countless other features of the fair are attracting thousands from all parts of the state.

Every county has a delegation on the grounds. Low rates have been granted on all railroads, and each day sees the throng grow larger. Walter Christie, the great automobile driver, will go after records on southern tracks October 16. It is expected the grounds will be jammed to the limit on that day.

Culp School House.

Editor Banner—Please allow me space in your valuable paper to announce that we will have a debate at this place next Saturday night week, Oct. 19. Subject, Resolved, that the world is growing better. Affirmative, Howard Roper, Curry Culp and Grady Culp. Negative, Harvey Williams, Rufus Popwell and Macon Williams.

We had good attendance at our last debate and hope we will continue to have good crowds. Our last debate was decided in favor of the negative.

ONE OF THE BOYS.

TO OUR FRIENDS.

With this issue THE BANNER completes its fifteenth volume, and we most cordially desire to express our thanks to the people of Chilton county for their kind and hearty support, without which no newspaper can flourish, as THE BANNER has done under any and all circumstances.

Through bad times and good times we are proud to say THE BANNER has more than held its own, and with due modesty, we beg to say that the people of Chilton county have recognized and appreciated our efforts to give them a good county paper.

For some time we have been considering the advisability of printing the entire paper at home, making it a purely Chilton enterprise without outside assistance. A very large number of our subscribers tell us that they never look at the patent inside, and many others ask us to give them a Chilton county paper—one containing, first, the county news, and secondly an account of all important events outside the county.

To do this, largely increases the cost of producing the paper, but we believe by giving greater satisfaction to our subscribers, we can largely multiply their number and thus meet the increased expenditure. As our readers well know, everything has gone up in price, including paper, ink, wages and everything that goes to the production of a newspaper, and several of our contemporaries have increased the price of their subscription. But we do not expect to raise the price of THE BANNER—it will remain at $1.00 per year.

All we ask is your co-operation; send us all the new subscribers you can; tell everyone that THE BANNER is the only newspaper printed and published in Chilton county; that it contains ALL the county news; and send in your communications not later than Tuesday morning of each week. We have given up our editorial space, and frequently our other space, to get in communications that reached us Wednesday, and have been compelled to omit some, when we would gladly have published these communications if they had reached us earlier. Remember that it takes time to set your communications in type. Let us have some on Saturday and Monday.

Commencing with the issue of Oct. 24, we purpose printing all THE BANNER at home, entirely by Chilton county hands, and again thanking you for your past patronage, we solicit a continuance of the same for what we believe will be a greatly improved paper.

Quinsy, Sprains and Swellings Cured.

"In November 1901, I caught cold and had the quinsy. My throat was swollen so I could hardly breathe I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me relief in a short time. In two days I was all right," says Mrs. L. Cousins, Otterburn, Mich. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment as is especially valuable for sprains and swellings. For sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

In the County Court on Monday, the case of The State vs. Bates, was dismissed by the Judge, on account of the lack of evidence.

My Hair Ran Away

Don't have a falling out with your hair. It might leave you! Then what? That would mean thin, scraggly, uneven, rough hair. Keep your hair at home! Fasten it tightly to your scalp! You can easily do it with Ayer's Hair Vigor. It is something more than a simple hair dressing. It is a hair medicine, a hair tonic, a hair food.

The best kind of a testimonial—"Sold for over sixty years."

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass. Also manufacturers of SARSAPARILLA. PILLS. CHERRY PECTORAL.

Ayers

THE REASON

Why Upchurch Drug Co. Continues to Recommend Vinol.

First: Because it is not a patent medicine and it contains besides tonic iron all of the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but without a drop of oil to nauseate and upset the stomach and retard its work; therefore, whenever old fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions will do good, Vinol will do far more good.

Second: Because Vinol acts first upon the stomach, creates a healthy appetite, strengthens and tones up the digestive organs, purifies and enriches the blood, and, in a natural manner, restores health and strength.

Third: Because Vinol contains no injurious drugs to react upon the system; every ingredient being named on the label, a patient knows exactly what he is taking.

Fourth: Because we never sold anything in our store that gives such universal satisfaction for old people, weak, sickly women and children, nursing mothers, and to build up the system after a severe sickness, and for relieving hacking coughs, chronic colds, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles.

Try Vinol on our guarantee. Upchurch Drug Co.

Verbena.

Rev. A. C. Swindall filled his regular appointment here Sunday, preaching two very interesting and impressive sermons.

The school here is progressing nicely under the able and efficient management of Prof. W. A. McCreless.

Dr. and Mrs. B. J. Baldwin after spending the summer in Europe, have returned and are residing at their summer home here.

The painting boom seems to have struck our town and adds much to the appearance of things.

There has been some talk of incorporating this place in the near future. This is something that is needed and am sure would meet the approval of our citizens. Let everybody talk it up and do something in that direction.

There is no sickness in town now. By the way this is a very healthy town anyway.

Miss Bama Dudley of Pleasant Grove is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. A. Gulledge.

Miss Lela Johnson is visiting relatives at Billingsley this week.

Mr. Henry Williams has sold his drug store to Mr. N. Duffey who will continue to sell you your drugs, medicines and cold drinks. In the mean time Mr. Williams has accepted a position with Oliver & Gulledge Bros.

All of which reminds that we have nothing more to say, only it rained last night.

ENTERPRISE.

How to Cure a Cold.

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

MARRIED.

Sunday afternoon at the court house Mr. Durword Broadhead and Miss Flossie Robinson were united in matrimony, Judge Reynolds performing the ceremony. Mr. Broadhead is a fine young man of business, and Miss Flossie is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. L. Robinson. Their many friends wish the happy young couple a long and happy life together.

Out of Sight.

"Out of sight, out of mind," is an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's out of sight, out of mind and out of existence. Piles too, and chilblains disappear under its healing influence. Guaranteed by Upchurch Drug co. 25c.

NOTICE.

The public is invited to meet at Shiloh church, Friday, Oct. 11th, 1907, for the purpose of cleaning off the graveyard and doing such other work as may need doing.

By ORDER OF COMMITTEE.

FARMERS' UNION.

I will lecture at McCarys school house, Saturday, Oct. 12 at 2 p. m.
Samaria, Oct. 19 at 2 p.m.
Everybody invited.

M. F. LEIT, Lecturer.

BAPTIST CIRCUIT.

Beginning Saturday morning, Oct. 12, Rev. C. A. Rush, Presiding Elder, will assist the pastor in a series of religious educational services to be held at the several churches on Randolph circuit, as follows:

Isabella, Saturday and Sunday.
Maplesville, Sunday night.
Pleasant Hill, Monday, 11 and 2.
Tabernacle, Tuesday, 11 and 2.
New Prospect, Wednesday, 11 and 2.
Randolph, Wednesday night.
Cox's Chapel, Thursday, 11 and 2.

Subject for morning services, "Church ordinances." The evening and night hours will be devoted to "Church conferences," with a special discussion of "Church institutions" by Bro. Rush.

We hope to hold a communion service at each church; also to present an interesting exhibit of Randolph circuit, showing what we are doing, and who is doing it.

We extend a cordial invitation to everybody. Come and get better acquainted with Methodism and what we stand for. Dinner on the ground every day except Sunday.

The last regular Quarterly Conference for this year will be held at Isabella, Saturday evening, Oct. 12, 1907. Stewards and Trustees are urged to be present and make reports. E. B. PAUL, P. C.

If you take DeWitt's kidney and Bladder Pills you will get prompt relief from backache, weak kidneys, inflammation of the bladder and urinary troubles. A weeks treatment 50cents. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

Letter to J. P. Parrish.

Clanton, Ala.

Dear Sir: Suppose you've got 200 cows; how much will you take for calves and milk of 100 of 'em next year—you pick out the 100?

How much for the other 100?

The point is: cows are not all alike, and you know which is which.

It is so with paint. You've got one best cow in that herd. There are 200 different paints in the United States; and one best. You know your best: cow; we know the best paint.

The best cow is the one that gives the best calves and milk. The best paint is the one that covers most surface and stays there longest—neither paint nor cow goes by color—nobody asks whether Holstein or Jersey is better to look at.

10 gallons Devoe will cover your barn and wear 10 years; it'll take 15 of another paint, and that paint will wear 5 years.

Reckon costs. Devoe, 10 gallons $1.75, $17.50; about 20 days work $3 $30; the job, $47.50 for ten years; $4 75 a year. The other; 15 gallons $1.60, $24; about 15 days' work $3, $45; the job, $69 for five years; $13 80 a year. Devoe $4 75 a year; the other $13 80 a year. Difference $9 a year.

That's how to reckon cows and paint.

Yours truly
F W DEVOE & CO

35

Plant Juice at Florence Drug Store.

Hard Times in Kansas.

The old days of grasshoppers and drouth are almost forgotten in the prosperous Kansas of today; although a citizen of Coddell, Karl Shamburg, has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered. He says: "I was worn out and discouraged by a coughing night and day, and could find no relief until I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. It took less than one bottle to completely cure me." The safest and most reliable cough and cold remedy and lung and throat healer ever discovered. Guaranteed by Upchurch Drug co. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.

List of Letters remaining uncalled for in Clanton, Ala., postoffice, for week ending Oct. 5, 1907. Persons calling for same will please say "advertised" and give date. One cent must be paid on each letter.

GENTLEMEN'S LIST.

M. B. Edwards, Dr. Massey, J. W. Smith, C. E., Frazier & Frazier.

LADIES' LIST.

Lizzie Andrews (2), Olive Clekler, Sude Jones, Lucinda Motley, Ida Murphy.

These letters will be sent to the dead Letter office, Oct. 19, 1907, if not delivered before.

F. O. DUDLEY, Postmaster.

For Your Feet

The "PATRIOT" carries with it style, service and comfort. It's made over foot conforming lasts. Fits from the start. No "breaking in" necessary. "PATRIOTS" won't hurt, burn and blister your feet. Over half a hundred styles. That means a shape and a fit for any man's foot. Cork insoles in "PATRIOTS" keep out dampness. All the popular leathers. Cost no more than the other kinds, but give an unlimited amount of satisfaction.

Patriot SHOE FOR MEN $4.00

Manufactured by Reuben, Johnson & Reed Shoe Co., St. Louis, Mo.

J. C. JONES, Clanton

R. L. CARTER

CLANTON FURNITURE CO.

DEALERS IN

Furniture, Stoves, Lamps, Clocks, Shades, Matting, Rugs and Linoleum

Furnishing Goods of every kind. Needles and Supplies for all Sewing Machines. We also do Repairing, Upholstering and Refinishing. We sell cheap for cash or on easy payments.

TRY OUR 5 & 10-CENT BARGAIN COUNTER

Your patronage solicited.

CLANTON - ALABAMA

MY STOCK

of Everything You Need in

FALL AND WINTER GOODS

is complete. Make your headquarters at my store while you are in town

Thanking you all for past liberal patronage, I remain Yours truly,

ELBERT KANTER

CLANTON, ALA.

Get Ready Now to Visit the Great Second Annual

ALABAMA AGRICULTURAL FAIR

MONTGOMERY

October 24 to November 2

Absolutely the most intensely interesting and entertaining combination of amusement and instruction ever brought together. It is an education in itself in everything pertaining to modern, progressive agriculture, live stock raising, etc. The most comfortable welcome and reasonable accommodations await every visitor. COME, bring your family, and interest all your friends. Mammoth Woman's Display affords everything new and fascinating to the fair sex. Unsurpassed FREE ATTRACTIONS consist of the most daring aerial acrobatics; tight rope walking etc.; daily horse racing; entertaining commedians, and the thrilling ascent of ROMOLA, the celebrated balloonist, who at the height of the ascent, is shot from an immense cannon attached to the balloon. You must not miss it. For premium list write

Alabama Agricultural Association

MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA

ROBERT TAIT, Secretary

A New Orleans woman was thin.

Because she did not extract sufficient nourishment from her food.

She took Scott's Emulsion.

Result:

She gained a pound a day in weight.

ALL DRUGGISTS: 50c. AND $1.00

LEST WE f...rget—Baby is restless, can't sleep at night, won't eat, cries spasmodically. A bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge never fails to relieve. Every mother should give her children White's Cream Vermifuge. Many times when the baby is sick and fretful, the mother does not know what to do. A bottle of this medicine would bring color to the cheeks and laughter to the eyes. Give it a trial. Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

r Feet

Patriot SHOE FOR MEN $4.00

...ONES, Clanton

FURNITURE CO.

DEALERS IN

...Clocks, Shades, Matting, Rugs and Hom...

...ry hind. Needles and Supplies for all

We also do Repairing, Upholstering

We sell cheap for cash or on easy payments.

...GENT BARGAIN COUNTER

...ronage solicited.

... - ALABAMA

...erything You Need in ... WINTER GOODS

...ke your headquarters at my ...ile you are in town

... for past liberal patronage, ... Yours truly,

RT KANTER

CLANTON, ALA.

...to Visit the Great Second Annual

...AGRICULTURAL FAIR ...ONTGOMERY

...24 to November 2

...most intensly interesting and enter... ...tion of amusement and instruction ...gether. It is an education in itself ...pertaining to modern, progressive ... stock raising, etc. The most com... ...e and reasonable accomodations ...or. COME, bring your family, and ... friends. Mammoth Womens' Dis... ...hing new and fascinating to the ... ...E ATTRACTIONS consist of the ...acrobatics; tight rope walking etc.; daily ...ertaining commedians, and the thrilling ...A, the celebrated ballonist, who at the ...t, is shot from an immense cannon attached ...u must not miss it. For premium list write

Agricultural Association

...NTGOMERY, ALABAMA

...RT TAIT, Secretary

LEST WE

...rget—Baby is restless, can't sl... ...at night, won't eat, cries ... ...cally. A bottle of Whit's C... Vermifuge never fails to ... Every mother should give her ... White's Cream Vermifuge. ... many times when the baby is ... and fretful, the mother does ... know what to do. A bottle of ... medicine would bring color to ... cheeks and laughter to his ... Give it a trial. Sold by Upch... Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Th... by.

...ent

...TOWN ITEMS

...ed Cross seed) ... ...ed Tuesday by ... ...Tuesday in Novem...

...COTTON WANT... ...11¼ @ 11½c ... last year 10½ @ 10¾c

...Wednesday....1157

...LE—Two fine young ... L. L. MARCUS, Clanton

...LE—Eight beautiful ... in Clanton. R. L. ...ston.

...ALE or RENT—One ...nd lot in Clanton. R. ... Clanton.

...M. Woods and Messrs ... and W. I. Mullins ...ng the Unity Baptist ...at Bethsalem.

...A. Blasingame of Calera ...ere here.

...Mrs. L. E. Gullahorn ...capital city last week.

...EXAN COMFORT ... cost no more than ...that hurt your feet; they ...no good from the start. ...try a pair! J. C. JONES, Clanton.

...L. Lenoir of Jemison ...here last Thursday.

...C. B. Wyatt of Verbena ...pleasant call Thursday.

...W. Bruce of Route 6 was ...welcome visitors Satur...

...B. Hollon of Mountain ...in town Saturday.

...G. Marlar, who has ...interest in the saw mill ..., was a visitor here Sat...

...get a little package we ...m. Florence Drug Store.

...mon & Sons' Wagons ...buy.

...Dennis of Mt. Creek ...on Monday.

...E. McDaniel returned to ...at Tuscaloosa Monday ...weeks stay with her sis... Piper.

...R. Piper of Shelby visit... ...her and mother Sunday.

...Fountain Pen you want ...find them at Upchurch ...at all prices and of the ...

...Mrs. T. C. Marcus are ...the State Fair at Birm...

...R. Jackson of Kaloma ...on Monday.

...G. Hyman spent Sunday ...

...ite cases of constipation ...mess headaches promptly ...when you take DeWitt's ...Riser Pills. Sold by ... Drug co.

...ple Rasberry of Mulberry ...through Clanton en route to ...m to attend the Fair.

...Charlie Holt and daughters, ...ucille and Doll, of Musca... ...are visiting Mrs. A. E. ...

...things in the way of milli... ...being shown at Miss Min... ...every day. Be sure and ...

...TO THE NEW STORE— ...per doz., Good Coffee, ...$1.00; Best Granulated ...lbs for $1.00. Highest ...for Country Produce and ...

...G. W. REYNOLDS & Co.

...L. Brown of Maplesville ...here Wednesday.

...B. Broadhead of Maples... ...a visitor here Monday.

...H. Hayes of Route 7 ...of our welcome visitors ...

...a RAZOR from the ... Drug co.—the three ...—guaranteed for three ...

...licenses have been issued ...by the Probate Judge to ...ng persons.

...R. Burnett and Miss ... Dawson; Mr. J. D. Broad... ...Miss Flossie Robinson; ...A. Gray and Mrs. Nannie ...Mr. Tom Smith and Miss ... Smith.

...—Thomas W. Wiggins ...a Glass.

...ver have any trouble to ...m to take Kennedy's Lax... ...gh Syrup. They like it ...tastes nearly like maple ...Kennedy's Laxative Cough ...a safe, sure and prompt ...for coughs and colds and is ...every member of the fam... ...by Upchurch Drug co.

Now is the Time

We are now ready to show you a full line of Clothing, Shoes, Hats, and complete line of Dress Goods.

Furniture, Stoves, Sewing Machines, etc.

Tennessee and Fish Wagons.

Everything to make your home and farm complete. Give us a trial and if we can't sell you we will be badly mistaken.

E. M. PINCKARD & CO.

CLANTON

Enterprise.

Editor Banner—Please allow me space in your paper to say a few words in regard to our community.

Crops are very good, People are rushing to gather their cotton. We have gathered 2 bales and have 2 more in the field.

We have got our telephone line up and can talk anywhere between Cooper and Billingsley.

The health of this community is very good.

Mr. F. A. Bice a few weeks ago took a trip up north. He says that the crops up there are sorry. He says that the crops here are as good or better than any he saw. He went up the L. & N. Railroad, through Nashville, Tenn., and through Evansville, Ind., and to St. Louis, then back through Illinois and Memphis and back to Birmingham. Well I will not write any more foolishness for fear of the waste basket. YOUNG FOGEY on an offensive citizen is frequently made in that apparently useless little tube called the "appendix." It's generally the result of protracted constipation, following liver torpor. Dr King's New Life Pills regulate the liver, prevent appendicitis, and establish regular habits of the bowels. 25c at Upchurch Drug co.

A Criminal Attack

Saginaw.

Dear Editor:—Please allow me a space in your paper as I have never written a piece before.

We are glad to say the health of this community is better, as the fever has about died out.

The school starts here the 7th of October, taught by Prof. Driggers.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Brown of Birmingham are visiting his mother, Mrs. Geo. Brown.

Mrs. Williams of Stanton is visiting relatives at this place.

Mr. Oliver Murrah returned home Saturday from Easley where he has been visiting relatives.

The protracted meeting started at this place Sunday and we hope it will be a good success.

I will close with best wishes to the Banner. HAZEL EYES.

Afflicted with Sore Eyes for 33 Years.

I have been afflicted with sore eyes for thirty-three years. Thirteen years ago I became totally blind and was blind for six years. My eyes were badly inflamed. One of my neighbors insisted upon my trying Chamberlain's Salve and gave me half a box of it. To my surprise it healed my eyes and my sight came back to me.—P. C. EARLS, Cynthiana, Ky. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

ATTENTION! BANNER READERS

You are cordially invited to call and see my New Fall Stock of Solid Gold and Gold Filled Watches, Diamond Brooches, Rings, etc., Solid Gold and Gold Filled Jewelry of every description in elegant designs.

The Famous Simmons Watch Chains, 1847 Rogers Bros. Silverware. See it for yourself.

No Use Going to Montgomery or Birmingham

MARTIN, the Jeweler by the Post Office, Calera, Ala., can supply your wants for less money. This store is the place for ladies to do their Fall and Christmas shopping. We are expert Watchmakers.

J. W. MARTIN

THE JEWELER BY THE POST OFFICE

Calera, Ala.

The Calera Machine Repair Shop

is now open for General Repair Work. We repair Engines, Boilers, Saw Mills or any other Machinery that comes to hand. We guarantee all our work.

We also buy second hand machinery of all kinds.

We do all kinds of Pipe work.

We are also prepared with all Modern Tools, and have an expert Saw Hammerer who will straighten your Crooked Saws, and will Gum and Dress them, so that they will run and cut good smooth lumber and use 20 per cent less power.

We repair all kinds of Household Goods.

We do all kinds of Round Wood Turning, from an Ornamental Column to a Shelf Spindle.

In short, we are here for business and to do you good.

We solicit a trial.

THE CALERA MACHINE REPAIR SHOP

CALERA, ALA.

A Sewing Machine

well made, nicely finished, has improvements over the old styles, runs easily and quietly, low cost, but good work and quality.

Come in and examine it, you will be surprised at our good value for $18.00.

SPIGENER & JONES

The Hardware Store

CLANTON

TAX NOTICE.

Assessor's and Collector's FIRST ROUND.

We will attend at the following times and places for the purpose of assessing the State and County taxes of Chilton county, for the year 1907, and assessing the taxes for the year 1906.

Jemison	Beat 2	October	10
Mineral Springs	" 1	"	11
Flint Hill	" 11	"	12
Thorsby	" 9	"	14
Cane Creek	" 4	"	15
Clanton	" 4	"	16
Cooper	" 10	"	17
Verbena	" 8	"	18

SECOND ROUND.

Enterprise	Beat 6	Nov.	1
Kingsboro	" 6	"	2
Fletcher	" 8	"	5
Clanton Ford	" 6	"	6
Benson	" 3	"	7
Stanton	" 6	"	8
Valley Creek	" 8	"	9
Stanton	" 6	"	12
Six-mile	" 7	"	13
Maplesville	" 7	"	14
Macedonia	" 3	"	15
E. G. Cofer's Mill	" 2	"	16
Hayes' Mill	" 2	"	19
Providence	" 2	"	20
John Killingsworth's	" 2	a.m.	21
Mrs. Cofer's Mill	" 2	p.m.	21
Jemison	" 2	"	22
Thorsby	" 9	"	23
Smith's School House	" 1	"	26
Mineral Springs	" 1	"	27
Flint Hill	" 11	"	28
Providence	" 10	"	29
Corinth Church	" 10	"	30
Clanton	" 4	Dec.	3
Cooper	" 10	"	4
Verbena	" 5	"	5
Mt. Creek	" 5	"	6
Jas. Madden's Mill	" 4	"	7
Lomax	" 4 till 12	"	7

I will be at Clanton the last ten days in the year, commencing December 20, 1907. All taxes not paid by Jan. 1st 1908 will become delinquent. Take notice of the above and save extra expense.

L. B. POUNDS, Tax Assessor.
T. I. HUBBARD, Tax Collector.

JULIUS CAESAR

was a man of nerve, but sickness left its mark and he became aged before his time. Sickness is often caused by a torpid liver. Herbine will regulate your liver and give you health. Mrs. Carrie Austin, Hollon, Kansas, writes: "I consider Herbine the best medicine I ever heard of. I am never without it." Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Rockymount.

The annual revival meeting will be on hand the second Sunday in November at this place. The pastor in charge has secured the services of Evangelist J. L. Brasher to do the preaching. All Christian workers are cordially invited. J. B. B.

The Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty-three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson, Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, kidney and liver troubles by Upchurch Drug co. 50c.

Stanton.

Editor Banner—Please announce in your paper that a public meeting will be held at Stanton, Saturday, October 12, at 2 p.m., to protest against the exorbitant charges of the Chilton county physicians and to take such action as may be deemed necessary.

D. M. APPERSON.

A Certain Cure for Croup—Used for Ten Years Without a Failure.

Mr. W. C. Bott, Star City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much feared the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His eldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to his friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequaled for croup and whooping cough. For sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

We wish to tell you in time we have bought a fine line of goods for this Xmas. Florence Drug Store.

KILL THE COUGH AND CURE THE LUNGS

WITH Dr. King's New Discovery

FOR COUGHS COLDS PRICE 50c. & $1.00 Trial Bottle Free

AND ALL THROAT AND LUNG TROUBLES.

GUARANTEED SATISFACTORY OR MONEY REFUNDED.

Schloss, in Dutch, means a Castle

Schloss, in English, means Good Clothes

Krump on the Korner Got 'em

Come in and Get 'em Then Wear 'em

'Gin the Law Not to Wear 'em

A suit of 'em would get Crichton off. Try 'em!

KRUMP

ON THE KORNER

NAPLESVILLE - - ALA.

—GO TO—

A. M. JOHNSON

—MANAGER OF—

THE CASH GROCERY STORE

THORSBY, ALA.

FOR BARGAINS IN

Staple and Fancy Groceries

We make a specialty of Fresh Fish and Oysters, Fresh Pork and all kinds of Sausage, Breakfast Bacon, Boneless Ham and Lard

—DELICATESSEN—

Pop, Soda Water and Jersey Butter always on hand.

Country Produce Bought, Sold and Exchanged.

Notice.

Real Estate, Fire, Life Insurance and Singer Machines.

I have on hand now some nice and convenient places for rent and some extra bargains in real estate. I also represent several leading fire insurance companies, and the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co.

My High Arm Singer Machine Stock is complete; Machines that sew perfect, run lighter and last longer than any other make. Remember, too, the price has been cut and you can get any terms you wish, monthly or annual payments. Also $5.00 allowance for your old machine.

Several good second hand Machines on hand at a bargain.

Needles, Bands, Cans, Attachments, and the only genuine Machine Oil made, 10 and 25c bottles.

I also represent the Jesse French Piano & Organ Co. When you need anything in my line, call on me at same old stand. Regular office days Friday, Saturday and Monday of each week.

C. R. MULLINS

CLANTON

JUST RECEIVED. NOTHING BETTER

Don't fail to call and see our

Forest City Brand Over and Under Shirts

A complete line of Winter Underwear for Men, Women and Children

The Finest Line of Metropolitan Dress Shirts Everything in this line is complete. Also in Overalls and Pants

A SPECIAL LINE OF CHINAWARE

SEE US BEFORE YOU BUY.

HEADLEY BROS.

GENERAL MERCHANDISE

ON THE CORNER CLANTON

To PUBLISHERS AND PRINTERS

We Manufacture the Very Highest Grade of

Type, Brass Rule in Strips, Brass Labor Saving Rule, Brass Column Rules, Brass Circles, Brass Leaders Brass Round Corners, Brass Leads and Slugs, Brass Galleys, Metal Borders, L. S. Metal Furniture, Leads and Slugs, Metal Leaders, Spaces and Quads, 6 to 48 point, Metal Quoins, etc.

Old Column Rules refaced and made as good as new at a small cost.

Please remember that we are not in any Trust or Combination and are sure that we can make it greatly to your advantage to deal with us.

A copy of our Catalogue will be cheerfully furnished on application.

PHILADELPHIA PRINTERS' SUPPLY CO.

Manufacturers of

Type and High Grade Printing Material

PROPRIETORS PENN TYPE FOUNDRY

20 North Ninth Street PHILADELPHIA

ALABAMA NEWS

Must Be Economical.

The feature of the meeting of the board of aldermen Thursday night at Tuscaloosa was the passing of resolutions cutting down the city's expenses in accordance with the decreased revenue to be derived after the closing of the dispensary January 1. Tuscaloosa will have to cut several luxuries and be very economical to live within her means. An annual income of about $25,000 has been lost. Today the city fathers have advertising the sale of three teams; they will take one policeman off the force, and turn out some of the street lights. Present at the meeting were Mayor W. M. Faulk and Aldermen Searcy, Snow, Prince, Nuzum, Ormond and Weatherford. Just before the close of the meeting Alderman C. W. Weatherford tendered his resignation. It was laid over to the next meeting. The question of closing the dispensary was brought up, and it was suggested that it be closed January 1st and the remainder of the stock sold in the first fifteen days of January.

Object to Bible in the Schools.

Alabama Catholics have made protest against the use of the Bible in the public schools, averring that it must be stopped or the courts will be invoked, says a special from Montgomery. The trouble grows out of the use in some of the schools of supplemental courses in which the Bible is taught, and in some cases pupils have been punished for not learning them. The State Superintendent is notified that the practice must cease at once or suit will be brought. Supt. Gunnels says that he will not order the practice stopped; that it has grown up with and seems to be almost a part of the public school system, and he will not interfere so long as the courts do not force him to do so.

Buildings at Andalusia.

Work has begun on two three-story brick buildings on Pear street, Andalusia. They are being erected by Contractor Frazier, one of them being owned by Dr. L. E. Ray and the other by A. L. Pelham. The erection of these buildings and the clearing away of the old wooden structures that stood on the lots will make Pear street one of the prettiest in the city. J. A. Prestwood has had plans drawn for a $20,000 structure on the west side of Court Square. This building will be constructed and pushed to completion as early as practicable.

Big Fee.

What is perhaps the largest incorporation fee ever paid the state has been sent to Montgomery by the agent of the Birmingham Coal and Iron Company at Birmingham, James Bonnyman, and the attorney at Birmingham, Augustus Benners. It amounts to $3,069, the franchise tax on capital stock of $3,000,000, the amount being $70 on the first $1,000 and one-tenth of 1 per cent for the balance. H. M. Atkinson, of Atlanta, is president. The company is a consolidation of the Birmingham Coal Company and the Birmingham Iron Company.

Girl Returns Home.

Grace Carr, a pretty 16-year-old girl, who claims to be a daughter of a well known contractor in Nashville, was picked up by the police in Huntsville. She was found in an old field crying as if her heart would break, and when taken in custody said that she had come to Huntsville with one of the men of Buffalo Bill's wild west show to get a job with the show, but that the man had deserted her. The girl's story so affected the officer that found her that he took her home to his wife. Friday in the police court the girl told her story again and Mayor Smith directed that transportation home be furnished her.

Rocked a Train.

Some one rocked an incoming passenger train on the Southern road and came near injuring seriously Oscar Freeman, a passenger. As the train was passing the Alabama Consolidated furnaces near Gadsden a big rock was sent crashing through a window. Mr. Freeman happened to be in a reclining position and the rock hit him a glancing blow on the shoulder. Had he been sitting straight the missile would have struck him on the head.

Explosion Kills Three; Wounds Two.

An explosion of gas occurured in mine No. 7, of the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Company, at Pratt City, early Friday and a cave-in of the roof followed. Four miners, including the bank boss, were caught behind the cave-in. A number of injured were taken out and removed to hospitals. At mine No. 4, of the same company, near Ensley, Friday night a portion of the roof fell in, fatally injuring three negro miners.

The Old Fellows Feel Good.

Many confederate veterans were made happy by Judge Emmett F. Crook, of Anniston, who distributed pension warrants among them as instructed by the state auditor. Several, however, did not appear, but their money is waiting them. Under the new law pensions will be paid quarterly and the amount has been largely increased. The pensioners will be greatly benefited by the new law.

Don't Like the Advance.

The cotton buyers of the section of the state around Decatur are very much exercised over the sudden advance of tariff charges of the Gulf Compress Company, beginning October 1. The Gulf Compress Company controls a number of cotton towns in Alabama, such as Decatur, Stevenson and Uniontown. The Gulf Compress Company operates in Tennessee, Alabama and Mississippi, and the Atlantic Compress Company operates in Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana and Florida. The tariff charges promulgated by the Gulf Compress Company are in ten counts, and the same schedule is promulgated by the Atlantic Compress Company. The new tariff schedule is in ten counts, and in one count alone at Decatur, Ala., there is an advance of over 500 per cent. The cotton buyers here say it is impossible to pay the prices as set forth in the new tariff charges of the Gulf Compress Company without affecting the price of cotton. The amount that the cotton buyers of the state will be forced to pay to the Gulf Compress Company and the Atlantic Compress Company, it is alleged, is $3,750,000 per annum, and that means 1-3 a cent per pound reduction in cotton, or $2.50 per bale to the producer. There are 1,500,000 bales of cotton produced annually in Alabama. It is thought in Decatur that the Farmers' Union will assist the cotton buyers in their endeavors to get relief through the legislature.

A., B. and A. July 1.

President Harry M. Atkinson, of the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic railroad, who is in Birmingham inspecting the properties of the company in that district, together with the property of the Birmingham Coal and Iron Company, of which he is president, confirms the statement that the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic will enter Birmingham by July 1. The road is now completed as far as Wadley, in Talladega county. He also says that the road will be running trains into Atlanta by the end of the month. It is expected that the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic will be running trains into Talladega by the end of November.

New Train to Talladega.

Commencing October 1, the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic ceased using the Louisville and Nashville tracks from Talladega to Stockdale, and now uses its own tracks, having connected up the line. It is stated that it is now only a few weeks until the line will be connected up to its present western terminus and trains run from Brunswick to Talladega.

Off to the College.

Three prospective M. D.'s and one D. D. S. have left Stevenson for school. Messrs. Cowan and Bogart go to the medical department of Vanderbilt, and Tom Russell, who has been employed in a drug store, goes to the Chattanooga Medical College. G. L. Austin will finish this year at the dental department of Vanderbilt.

Think They Will Defeat It.

An election will be held in Covington on October 22 to determine whether the county shall issue $150,000 road bonds. It is generally conceded that the measure will be overwhelmingly defeated. The farmers are almost as a unit against the measure. Many of the citizens of the towns oppose it.

Bessemer to Entertain Press.

The city council of Bessemer has given $100 to help entertain the International League of Press Clubs when it meets in Birmingham October 23-27, and has named a committee who are making up a special programme for the visitors on a side trip to that city.

Murder and Robbery.

Reports from the First National bank at Sedden, Ala., say that it was robbed by four masked men. Sheriff John Williams, who attempted to arrest the party, is reported killed. The amount stolen is thought to be large, but impossible to learn the amount. The robbers escaped on a hand car.

Arm Mashed; He Died.

Haddox Braswell, whose right arm was crushed off in the machinery of a saw mill at Ball Play last Saturday, died from his injuries, death resulting from blood poisoning. He had many friends in Etowah and Cherokee counties.

Fell From Rear of Train.

A horrible accident occurured at Leeds late Friday evening when the trainmaster of the Southern railway, G. C. Brown, fell off the rear end of train No. 23, a fast passenger, and was fatally wounded, both legs, both arms and collar bone being broken.

Will Be Brought Back.

L. C. Harding, who is charged with swindling large sums of money from various persons by means of an alleged bank which he claimed to operate at Fort Payne, will be brought back from Columbus, O., where he is now serving a term in the penitentiary, on the expiration of his sentence, if the plans of state officials do not miscarry. Word has been received here that Harding's term will expire in October.

The Pulpit

A SERMON BY THE REV. IRA W. HENDERSON

Subject: Hypocrisy.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—Preaching at the Irving Square Presbyterian Church, Hamburg avenue and Wierfield street, on the above theme, the Rev. Ira Wemmell Henderson, pastor, said:

The subject reflects a feature of life that is as real and general as it is unfortunate and reprehensible. For hypocrisy—that is to say, the assumption of that which we are not, or the unfeasor of inconsistency—is a prevelant and pernicious factor in life. It is present everywhere. But nowhere is it more pernicious than in our own midst.

America is beset with the vice of hypocrisy. And it is especially unfortunate that it is so. For the position of this country in the front rank of the nations and of progress makes it insistently necessary that we shall have candor as we consider ourselves and that we shall not arrogate to ourselves any characteristics or virtues that are not of the bone and sinew of our national life. For insincerity is as fatal to a nation as to an individual. He lives best who is genuine. Not otherwise is it with a nation.

Generally when we speak of hypocrisy we conceive the portraits of the men who lead dual lives, of false-faced friends, of the insincere habitues of an insincere society. They are truly to be condemned. Their example is a warning.

But they are not the offenders of whom most I would speak to you today. For the hypocrisies of individuals are co-terminous with death so far as this world is concerned. The hypocrisies of nations however, by virtue of the constitution of society, have a tendency to perpetuate themselves and to become in a larger sense most lasting and pernicious.

It is because of the tendency of national hypocrisies to be, in a way, self-perpetuating that I would, this morning, have you attend to the hypocrisy of America. Because our national hypocrisies are to some degree unconscious they are the less to be excused and they are more to be feared.

The subject is not pleasant. It is not over nice to admit that as a nation we are hypocritical. We may wish the truth were otherwise. But the truth has a very peculiar fashion of remaining fixed and constant regardless of our desires or our dreams.

America is hypocritical. And we are hypocritical socially, governmentally, intellectually, morally and spiritually. The counts are many but we shall have to admit their validity. And they are true despite the unquestioned supremacy of our people in many fields of national endeavor and success that constitute the greatness of a people.

America is hypocritical in her social relationships. Jack London in a recent story tells a weird and gruesome tale of how he witnessed as a tramp the flogging in most merciless fashion of two unruly gypsy boys by the leader of a gypsy camp. The story is horrifying in that it reveals the existence of such cruel inhumanity in the midst of a civilized society even in a gypsy camp. Our eyes fill with tears and our blood runs hot with indignation as we read of such unphilosophical and unscientific management of children. We can understand such conditions as they exist among among the chill snows and under the benighted civilization of Russia. But here they appeal, even though they are infrequent. But while our pulses beat faster over the sins of a gypsy camp we are strangely unresponsive to the piercing wails of the multitudes of our own children—no, not our own—to the wails of the multitudes of our neighbors' children, who, day by day, in a land of freedom and Christian enlightenment, are crushed in the mechanism of our modern commercial system. We have ears and hearts and ready hands to help the misery of the Chinaman who cries out against the greed of "most Christian England" as she forces the the curse of opium upon an unwilling nation. But we seem hardly to hear the call of the throngs whose lives in America are wrecked because of the unholy traffic in alcoholic beverages that to-day is permitted to exist by and with the consent and suffrage of the adult membership of the Church of Jesus Christ. And just so long as we mourn over gypsies and wax indignant over the wickedness of the English people, the while we wax our ears against the call of our children in the homeland for help and a chance to live as God meant they should we are, to say the least, socially hypocritical. And no man may deny the count.

America is hypocritical in her attitude toward government. It is the fashion to declaim about the vices of Babylon, the rottenness of ancient Rome, the sins of Philip the second, the crimes of modern Russia, the rapacity of European nations. We are astounded that the civil corruption of any nation could be so totally indecent as to consign sailors to be sent to death inside of ill-equipped and still more illy handled men of war. We thank God that we do not live under an autocracy that is as conscienceless and as villainous as that which holds the reins of Russian government. And yet, wide-awake as we are to the criminalities of the bureaucratic government of the Russian Czar, we are but half-awake to the realities of the existing corruption all around us. For the fact is that in the face of our history, our inheritance, our opportunities, our Christian influences, we are a sorry spectacle to the nations. We glory that we have no autocracy of birth. But by our own consent we have allowed to reign over us as greedy a set of political pirates as ever sunk a ship. Their only distinction is that they are able to fool most of the people most of the time. The governmental conditions existant in nearly every hamlet and city in the United States of America are so absolutely disgraceful that we ought to be ashamed. Our political dictators, with few, and they honorous exceptions, do as they please with the sublimest self-confidence imaginable. And so long as we are grieved over the examples of governmental maladministration, ancient and modern, with which we are familiar, and refuse to secure the participation of our own political affairs, and neglect to procure the political execution of our political thugs and thieves and highbinders, whom we have allowed to reign over us, we are hypocritical in our assumption of governmental virtue. And no man may deny the count.

America is hypocritical intellectually. We rejoice in the heritage of intellectual freedom which is ours. We give God praise that a man may think his thoughts after God here without regard to any man. We regret that China has reverenced the past, that the church in ages gone refused to allow the liberty of private judgment. We pride ourselves upon the opportunity for freedom of thought that is guaranteed to every man who breathes our air. But, what do we do with the man who dares to exercise his prerogatives? What do we, the descendants of the men who mobbed Garrison, who ridiculed the scientific geniuses of a scant generation ago? We are as impervious to a new thought as any nation under heaven. We prate about progress and we maintain the status quo. We want no new thought until it has become old. With our refinements of cruelty we attempt to still forever the activities of those who would follow the gleam of the truth of God, who would lead us ahead and up. And just so long as we talk freedom of thought, and regret the lack of it in other lands, while we have a scant attention for the prophets of the living God whose minds are illumined by the glory of His truth, we are intellectually hypocrites. And no man may deny the count.

Then, too, we are moral hypocrites. How shocked we are at the Mohammedan system of divorce, and the curse of opium to the integrity of Chinese civilization, and the vicious customs of English barroom, and the free-love of a certain sort of Socialism! But how shocked are we over the "consecutive" polygamy and polyandry that exists under the loose sanctions of our legal systems? How shocked are we by the spectacle of our boys and girls, our men and women, deadened with drink; forced to immorality by the social conditions that we permit? How shocked we are lest perhaps our children should be told that which they will learn from questionable sources if we do not guarantee them timely and proper information! And just so long as we deplore the moral sins of other peoples and neglect to attend properly to the conservation of our own morals, we are hypocritical. And no man may deny the count.

America is hypocritical in her conceptions of things religious. We look with wonder and astonishment upon the inconsistency that is apparent between the noblest books of Eastern religions and the manner of life among the devotees of those religions systems. We do not exalt God by the sharpened scimitar. We do not roll under Juggernaut. We do not provide money and food at the side of the graves of the departed. We do not let our nails grow for a life-time in order to glorify Almighty God. We have more sense than to do these. But what do we do? Why, we proclaim Jesus Prince of Peace while we proclaim peace a fantasy and exalt the doctrine that the way to ensure peace is to go well armed. We magnify the philosophy that says "turn to him thy other cheek." But we keep our gloves on. We believe that "righteousness exalteth." But we acknowledge, as practical men, that it is impracticable to be strictly honest and prosper. We acclaim the eternal necessity for an exact concurrence of thought and speech, word and deed, look and action. But we send our Bibles to China packed beside a hold of beer. We assimilate the Indians by the efficient force of arms. We civilize the Philippines by way of Milwaukee. We sing, "Unto Thee, O God, be riches," but we maintain a large proportion of the churches of the living Christ in this land by such devious and precarious methods as would put a heathen to shame. And so long as we scoff at the inconsistencies of foreign religious systems and are satisfied, with a false optimism, to congratulate our own with all its incongruities, we are hypocritical. And no man may deny the count.

And all this is to say that we should, with no spirit of mere carping criticism, look over this land of ours as patriotic Americans. For upon our candor and our sincerity depend our success, our power, our future. The American nation illumined and sanctified by the truth as it is in Jesus Christ will be invincible. We must not deceive ourselves. We must be honest. Let us be courageous. Let us cease to be hypocritical. Let us turn on the light.

A Prayer For Our Nation.

Almighty God, who in former times didst lead our fathers forth into a wealthy place; give Thy grace, we humbly beseech Thee, to us their children, that we may prove ourselves a people mindful of Thy favor, and glad to do Thy will.

Bless our land with honorable industry, sound learning and pure manners. Defend our liberties, preserve our unity. Save us from violence, discord and confusion, from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way. Fashion into one happy family the multitudes brought hither out of many kindreds and tongues.

Endue with the spirit of wisdom those whom we entrust in Thy Name with the authority of governance, to the end that there be peace at home, and that we keep a place among the nations of the earth.

In the time of prosperity, fill our hearts with thankfulness; and in the day of trouble, suffer not our trust in Thee to fail; all of which we ask for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

A Striking Thought.

Until Christianity shows a stronger grip on Christians it only plays tag with the world.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

INTERNATIONAL LESSON COMMENTS FOR OCT. 15 BY THE REV. I. W. HENDERSON.

Subject: Israel Enters the Land of Promise, Josh. 3:5-17—Golden Text, Ps. 107:1—Memory Verse, 17—Commentary.

In accordance with the promise of God, Israel enters the land of promise. Under the direct and marvelous manifestation of God's providence they cross the Jordan and stand within sight of the walls of Jericho.

Joshua's words, as given in the fifth verse of our lesson, compel our attention. "Sanctify yourselves, for to-morrow the Lord will do wonders among you." It is a call to consecration because God is to work wonders among them and because God will not manifest Himself, and cannot, except they are prepared.

The dedication of themselves was followed as we see by a transcendant manifestation of the providence and potency of God. The rite of sanctification was fitting.

Israel was upon the threshold of a new experience. She was about to enter into a new life. The hopes of generations, the promises of centuries were about to be consummated. It was a solemn time. The day was momentous. History was in the making. Joshua was aware of it. The wandering multitude must have been impressed by it. A new epoch was about to begin. A nation was coming to its own. To-day, the wilderness, its memories, its hardships, its discouragements, the vision of a promised inheritance. To-morrow, Jordan passed, hopes realized, promises fulfilled, memories translated into hopes. It was a mighty moment.

It was proper that they should be peculiarly prepared. It was right that they should be impressed by the greatness of the occasion. The event was too tremendous not to be solemnized and signalized by a special ceremony. The God who had led them so far, so patiently, so decisively, was entitled to the dedication and the thanks of all Israel. They had to consecrate themselves because God was about to exalt them, because the manifestation of Jehovah's power was impossible without their submission entirely to His will.

So it has ever been. So will it ever be. No man and no nation has enjoyed the revelation of the plenitude of the power of God except the individual or national will has been subordinated to the dictates of Divinity. And no person or people will ever experience a satisfactory knowledge of the inspiring providence of God except the personal or popular volition be subjected to the mandates of the mind of God. Whenever and wherever persons or peoples sanctify themselves before God, acknowledging their indebtedness to Him, recognizing their obligations under Him, pledging their faith in undivided loyalty to Him, then and there God has ever manifested Himself and done wonders. And what-time men or nations in future determine to thank God and to hail Him and to serve Him then will Jehovah manifest Himself mightily. Israel has proved it. America has proved it. It is to be hoped that America will demonstrate the truth again.

For along the highway of human progress America has traveled under the espionage of God to national greatness. We have triumphed over difficulties and been victorious over oppositions and gone through distresses and afflictions and despair. We are now upon the border of a larger progress and of an increased national prestige. No man of vision can fail to discern in the signs of the times limitless opportunities for the development of our national resources in money and men, in influence and character. The achievements of America of to-day are but slight adumbrations of the glories that may be hers in coming years if she will, as she stands on the threshold of nobler things, sanctify herself in spirit and in truth.

We cannot be fit for larger usefulness except we are right with God and dedicated to Him. Jehovah cannot utilize us more until we subject ourselves to Him.

In order that we shall be ready for service and prepared for the furtherance of the projects of the Almighty as they concern America we must pay heed to the command of Joshua to Israel as given in the ninth verse of the lesson we are studying: "Come hither and hear the words of the Lord your God." For we cannot build without plans and specifications a building that shall be durable and beautiful. We cannot do God's work until we hear God's message. To serve efficiently we must hear the captain's orders. If we would labor for God we must listen to God.

Much of the leadership of America listens little to God. In the measure that we have a leadership that is deaf to divine directions, we are misled, we are handicaped. For progress is only possible when we are in harmony with the will of God. We cannot know God's mind except we listen to God's voice.

The task that God has delivered to America, the future that He has prepared for her, is too great to be accomplished without His inspiration, His direction, His sustentation. America's future is cut after a divine pattern. Only Divinity can effect its realization. Only that humanity that is surcharged with divinity will ever enjoy the vision of it. Let us therefore listen to the word of the Lord our God and with sanctified souls go on and up until this land shall be indeed God's country and the future of our fatherland shall be secured.

Colonel Jumps Over 53 Heads.

Washington.—Colonel Charles S. Smith, of the ordnance department, was vaulted over the heads of fifty-three colonels to the rank of brigadier general of the line by order of President Roosevelt. Army circles are gasping in surprise.

If You Only Knew how some candies are made, you'd [illegible] pittance of getting good Candy for

HUSTON'S

SEAL BRAND C

Is the only sugar stick guarant[illegible] from pure granulated sugar w[illegible] ture of any other kind of sweet

MACON, GA. [illegible] BUSINESS COLLEGE

WRITE FOR CATALOGUE

SCIENC[illegible] AND INDUST[illegible]

A British [illegible] we do not laugh [illegible]

Portland cement [illegible] the water ballast [illegible] war vessels to m[illegible] rust.

The United [illegible] ton, Ohio, recently made [illegible] about thirty tons of [illegible] which is claim[illegible] to be [illegible] heat of steel that [illegible]

In strong sunlight a [illegible] can be seen at a distance [illegible] times its own diameter, [illegible] white disc a foot in diameter [illegible] seen at a distance of 11 [illegible]

The navigable [illegible] Suez Canal are now practically [illegible] what they were twenty [illegible] the superficies of the [illegible] having been consequently [illegible]

The excavations of Pompeii [illegible] brought to light a roadway [illegible] five feet wide, flanked by [illegible] The pavement of lava [illegible] shows deep ruts worn by the [illegible] of heavy chariots. A beautiful [illegible] temple to Neptune has been [illegible] ered for a distance of 100 [illegible]

It is said that [illegible] the Bank of England [illegible] mathematical errors of [illegible] were at a minimum in the early morning hours, but progressively [illegible] as fatigue occurred. The [illegible] was in the late afternoon, [illegible] was so much money [illegible] at that time that as a [illegible] economy the clerks were [illegible] work after a certain hour. [illegible] the same law of [illegible] brought to light, as was [illegible] pected.

It is proposed by a [illegible] neer to use balloons for [illegible] poses. A stationary balloon [illegible] to a slide running along a [illegible] steel rail. This rail is carried [illegible] side of a steep mountain. The [illegible] loon is moored by a steel [illegible] rail, at a height of about [illegible] feet above the ground. The [illegible] or can cause the balloon to [illegible] or descend at will. The [illegible] is furnished by hydrogen [illegible] the descent is caused by [illegible] sure poured into a large tank [illegible] upper end of the road.

Many persons who think [illegible] perfect have a greater visual [illegible] in one eye than in the other. [illegible] regard to the respective powers [illegible] right and left eye a well known [illegible] tician finds that a person [illegible] in writing all day has [illegible] stronger vision in the left [illegible] with the right hand and his [illegible] ing on the table, his left eye [illegible] his work and its vision is [illegible] centrated. This expert says [illegible] race will never become [illegible] sighted as the German with [illegible] ball, tennis, hockey, etc., are [illegible] aged in our public schools.

Head-Lines and Cop[illegible]

A St. Louis business man [illegible] recently in an Arkansas town [illegible] himself badly in need of a [illegible] After various and complicated [illegible] structions from the clerk of the [illegible] as to the whereabouts of the [illegible] shop, the man managed to find [illegible] place.

When he entered the [illegible] only person to be seen was a [illegible] man leisurely reading a [illegible] To his look of inquiry the [illegible] man announced the purpose [illegible] visit.

"Hair-cut?" asked [illegible] "Cert'ny, sir! Here, Johnny," [illegible] yelled to a boy on the step, [illegible] "run over to Mr. Blank's and [illegible] of he's done editing the paper, [illegible] over my shears!"

Great stores from little [illegible] often grow.

Little Faults.

More of happiness and [illegible] ness in our lives depends on [illegible] things than we generally realize. [illegible] we think of how much depends [illegible] them we naturally ask whether [illegible] are really little. They are [illegible] the sense of being easily acquired, [illegible] easily corrected, but their results [illegible] often serious. Spurgeon used to [illegible] lustrate his continual insistence [illegible] this fact by referring to a journey [illegible] took to Edinburgh by rail. The train [illegible] went at high speed within half [illegible] of its destination and then came [illegible] stop. Making inquiry he learned [illegible] a peculiar screw, not as large [illegible] man's little finger, had been lost [illegible] the locomotive. It could not be [illegible] found and its loss rendered useless [illegible] of the engine useless.—Wesleyan [illegible]

Cure For Opium Habit.

Reports of the American [illegible] General at Singapore [illegible] story of discovery of a cure [illegible] opium habit in the leaf of a [illegible] plant, which is boiled in water [illegible] the resultant drunk. So great [illegible] demand for the cure from the [illegible] heart masses that depots for [illegible] tribution have been opened in [illegible] large town or village. It [illegible] as harmless as it is effective. [illegible]

In Railroad Language.

Street crossings at Hickory, St. Louis avenue, Mulberry, and Pine streets were blocked for five minutes by a train. A person, the conductor, was in court to tell why.

"I see it was this way," he said. "I was pulling into Arrowsdale when the train stopped suddenly. I looked what was wrong. Well, the track was around one curve, the second another and I could not signal to either man. The town was handing me the back up and nobody else was giving me the go. Just then I found an angle cock dropped from the air tube of the cars and they were trying to line up the switches on me. I got a stop word and I found the lifter had dropped. I slacked ahead as soon as I could, but I couldn't help matters."

"I see," said Kyle. "Ten dollars."—Kansas City Star.

Father's Home Status.

Little girl admired her mother's dress. It softly. "Isn't it soft?" said her mother. "It is silk. You know what silk is made [illegible]

"Mamma," [illegible] from a little insignificant [illegible]

"Do you mean father, mamma?" [illegible] Chicago Tribune.

[illegible] pretty much of us are certain that [illegible] most important part of the [illegible] be just as [illegible]

TRANSFORMATIONS

Results When Coffee Drinking is Abandoned.

It is almost as hard for an old coffee toper to quit the use of coffee as for a whiskey or tobacco fiend to get rid of, except that the coffee fiend can make coffee and take up the hand-to-mouth feeling of a new morning beverage, for when Postum is well boiled and served with cream it is really better in point of taste than most of the coffee served and to the taste of the convert it is like the flavour of fine Java.

Great transformations take place in the body within ten days or two weeks after coffee is left off and Postum used, for the reason that the poison in the coffee, caffeine—has been entirely left out and in its place is added a liquid food that contains the delicate but powerful elements of nourishment found in the field where Grape-Nuts is made, namely the Phosphate of Potash and the gluten of the wheat, which is the only food that contains the necessary elements to rebuild the gray matter in the brain and nerve centers.

It is easy to make this test and prove these statements by changing from coffee to Postum. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a reason."

Cures from [illegible] having [illegible] pounds [illegible] in the [illegible] passed [illegible] leg swelled [illegible] around, [illegible] night and [illegible] longer [illegible] ampoules [illegible] using [illegible] swelling [illegible] urine [illegible] pains [illegible] boom [illegible] using [illegible] Sold [illegible] Foster [illegible]

Farmers [illegible] in Logan [illegible] south [illegible] joying [illegible] last [illegible] down [illegible] Four [illegible] from [illegible] his [illegible] bound [illegible] and [illegible] In [illegible] raise [illegible] began [illegible] bread [illegible] grew [illegible] heavy [illegible] offers [illegible] this [illegible] suspect [illegible] wolf [illegible] To [illegible] no [illegible] negro [illegible] get [illegible] Foster [illegible]

D. F[illegible] Roosevelt [illegible]

SCHOOL.

...SON COM-
...D BY THE
...ERSON.

...the Land of
...17—Golden
...mory Verse.

...e promise of
...nd of prom-
...d marvelous
...providence
...and stand
...of Jericho
...son in the
...compel our
...received for
...do wonders
...all to conse-
...work won-
...use God
...if and can-
...ared
...mselves was
...ranscendant
...vidence and
...of sanctifi-

...ehold of
...was about to
...he hopes of
...ce of centu-
...nsummated.
...he day was
...in the mak-
...of it. The
...t have been
...e epoch was
...on was com-
...the wilder-
...arships its
...sion of a
...to-morrow,
...ized prom-
...anslated in-
...its moment
...should be
...was right
...eased by the
...The event
...to be soli-
...a special
...no had led
...no decisive
...dication and
...They had
...ces because
...om because
...vah a power
...heir submis

So will it
...nation has
...f the plant
...d except the
...ill has been
...tates of Di-
...r people will
...ctory knowl-
...ovidence of
...l or popular
...he mandates
...jenever and
...ples sanctify
...acknowledg-
...Him, recog-
...under Him,
...ndivided loy-
...here God has
...ff and done
...e men or na-
...tne to thank
...and to serve
...anifest Him-
...as proved it.
...It is to be
...demonstrate

...y of human
...aveled under
...to national
...umphed over
...torious over
...through dis-
...and despair.
...border of a
...an increased
...man of vision
...signs of the
...ities for the
...national re-
...nen, in influ-
...The achieve-
...-day are but
...the glories
...ning years if
...on the thres-
...sanctify her-
...h
...arger useful-
...ht with God
...Jehovah can-
...d we subject

...be ready for
...the further-
...the Almighty
...ca we must
...nd of Joshua
...e ninth verse
...re studying
...the words of
...for we cannot
...specifications
...durable and
...o God's work
...message. To
...ust hear the
...would labor
...to God
...y of America
...the measure
...ship that is
...we are mis-
...For pro-
...hen we are o
...of God. W
...nd except we

...delivered to
...He has pro-
...reat to be ac-
...s inspiration,
...sustentation,
...after a divine
...can effect its
...humanity that
...nity will ever
...Let us there-
...of the Lord
...ified souls go
...shall be la-
...the future of
...secured

...52 Heads
...Charles S
...department
...heads of
...the rank of
...ing by order
...Army circles

...(Children may
...themselves be-
...the habit in a

A British scientist ... we do not laugh enough.

Portland cement is used ...
the water ballast compa...
war vessels to minimize the ... rust.

The United Steel Co... ton, Ohio, recently made a ...
about thirty tons of vanad... which is claimed to be the ... heat of steel thus far made.

In strong sunlight a wh... can be seen at a distance of ... times its own diameter; th...
white disc a foot in diame... seen at a distance of 17,...

The navigable dimensions ...
Suez Canal are now practically ... what they were twenty ...
the superficies of the vertical ... having been considerably in...

The excavations of Pom... brought to light a roadway ... five feet wide, flanked by ...
The pavement of large stone ...
shows deep ruts worn by the ...
of heavy chariots. A beautiful ...
temple to Neptune has been ...
ered for a distance of 180 fe...

It is said that a long ti...
the Bank of England discover... mathematical errors of the ...
were at a minimum in the early ...
ing hours, but progressively in...
as fatigue occurred. The wor... was in the late afternoon, and ... was so much money loss due to ...
at that time that as a ma...
economy the clerks were forbid... work after a certain hour. In ... the same law of sequence ...
brought to light, as was to ...
pected.

It is proposed by a German ...
neer to use balloons for railway ... poses. A stationary balloon is ... to a slide running along a ... steel rail. This rail is carried ... side of a steep mountain. The ... loon is moored by a steel cable ...
rail, at a height of about thir...
feet above the ground. The ca... or can cause the balloon to a... or descend at will. The lifting ... is furnished by hydrogen gas ...
the descent is caused by water ...
ure poured into a large tank ...
upper end of the road.

Many persons who think their ... perfect have a greater visual p... in one eye than in the other. ...
regard to the respective power ... right and left eye a well know...
tician finds that a person ... in writing all day has, as a ... stronger vision in the left. W... with the right hand and his arm ... ing on the table, his left eye is m...
his work and its vision is more ...
centrated. This expert says th... race will never become so ...
sighted as the German while ... ball, tennis, hockey, etc., are ... aged in our public schools.

Head-Lines and Copy.

A St. Louis business man ... recently in an Arkansas town ... himself badly in need of a ha...
After various and complicated ...
structions from the clerk of the ...
as to the whereabouts of the ... shop, the man managed to find ...
place.

When he entered the shop, ... only person to be seen was an ol...
man leisurely reading a newsp...
To his look of inquiry the St. ... man announced the purpose of ... visit.

"Hair-cut?" asked the ba...
"Cert'ny, sir! Here, Johnny, ... yelled to a boy on the step ou...
"run over to Mr. Blank an' ask ... if he's done editing the paper, to ...
over my shears!"

Great stores from little ad...
often grow.

Little Faults.

More of happiness and unh...
ness in our lives depends on ...
things than we generally realize. ... we think of how much depends ... them we naturally ask whether ...
are really little. They are litt...
the sense of being easily acquired ...
easily corrected, but their results ... often serious. Spurgeon used to ... lustrate his continual insistence ...
this fact by referring to a journ... took to Edinburgh by rail. The ... went at high speed within forty ...
of its destination and then came ...
stop. Making inquiry he learned ... a peculiar screw, not so large as ...
man's little finger, had been lost ...
the locomotive. It could not ...
found and its loss rendered entir...
of the engine useless.—Western A... ocate.

Cure For Opium Habit.

Reports of the American Co...
General at Singapore confirm ... story of discovery of a cure for ...
opium habit in the leaf of a cer...
plant, which is boiled in water ... the residium drunk. So great is ... demand for the cure from the d...
beset masses that depots for its ...
tribution have been opened in ... large town or village. It seems ... as harmless as it is effective, ...

You Only Know

how some candies are made, you'd know the importance of getting good Candy for the Children.

HUSTON'S

SEAL BRAND CANDY

is the only sugar stick guaranteed to be made from pure granulated sugar with no admixture of any other kind of sweetening. . . .

SOLD AT MOST GROCERY AND RACE STORES. IN PACKAGES ONLY.

...A BUSINESS COLLEGE
MACON, GA.
Most Expert Faculty
"AMERICA'S BEST"
...TE FOR CATALOGUE

...vironment the ... would show

CANN I READ

...your eyes? Leon ... will cure the in... pain is ... medicine in the ... it makes strong ... money, returned ... for wardful pre... by A. E. Lecas, di...

...etary of the St. ... in London, states ...drawal of troops, ... the island to a ... the only occupa... ...ts of St. Helena ... The government ... for them.

...y of TOLEDO, } ss. ... make oath that he is ...rm of F. J. CHENEY & ... the City of Toledo, ...resaid, and that said ... ONE HUNDRED DOL... ...ry case of CATARRH ... by the use of HALL'S ... FRANK J. CHENEY. ... and subscribed in my ...y of December, A. D., ... A. W. GLEASON, ... Notary Public. ...is taken internally, and ... the blood and mucous sur... ...Send for testimonials, ... J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. ...Sold by all Druggists, 75c. ...Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

...h Railroad Language.

...crossings at Hickory ... Avenue, Mulberry, and ... were blocked for ... by a train. A ... conductor, was in ... why.

"It was this way," he said. ... ...ing into Armourdale ... stopped suddenly. I ... what was wrong. Well, the ... one curve, the ... other and I couldn't ... other man. The tow... ...ing me the back up ... was giving me the ... I found an angle ... from the air tube ... and they were try... ...the switches on me. ... word and I found ... dropped. I slacked ... as I could, but I ...

...ld Kyle. "Ten dol... ...y Star.

...Father's Home Status.

...ntained her mother's ... softly. "Isn't it ... mother. "It is silk. ... what silk is made ...

... a little insignificant ... father, mamma?" ...icago Tribune.

...us are certain that ... part of the uni...

TRANSFORMATIONS

...Results When Coffee Drink... ...Abandoned.

...s hard for an old ... the use of coffee ... tobacco fiend ... except that the coffee ... coffee and take up ... feeling of a loss ... beverage, for when ... boiled and served with ... really better in point of ... the coffee served ... the taste of the cof... the flavour of fine ...

...transformation takes place ... ten days or two ... is left off and ... the reason that the ...—caffeine—has ... and in its place is ... that contains the ...ments of nourish...

...ake this test and ...mence by changing ...fee to Postum. Read "The ... pkgs. "There's ...

During 1906 the merchant marine of Chile was increased by 34 vessels, with a tonnage of more than 30,000. The Chilean merchant marine now consists of 84 steamers and 99 sailing vessels, with a tonnage of 110,000 tons.

FITS, St. Vitus' Dance, Nervous Diseases permanently cured by Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. $2 trial bottle and treatise free. Dr. H. R. Kline, Ld., 931 Arch St., Phila., Pa.

Odd Collection of Playing Cards.

H. P. Phillips, who has just presented his valuable collection of playing cards to the Playing Card Makers' Company, has been following the rather rare and interesting hobby of collecting playing cards for nearly seventy years. When he was a lad of twenty he one day purchased a book from a stall in the city, between the leaves of which he found three knaves forming part of one of the oldest English packs in existence, made some time in the fifteenth century. This find put the notion of making a big collection into Mr. Phillips' mind, and he has been a collector ever since. A little while ago Mr. Phillips permitted the writer to see the collection, which contained over 500 packs. One pack, made by some Sioux Indians, is over 200 years old, and another is called the "meal tub plot" pack as the only one of its kind now in existence, and this pack alone is worth several hundred pounds. Mr. Phillips is the "father" of the Playing Card Makers' Company, being the oldest living member of it. He is over ninety years of age, and looks quite twenty years younger.—New York Globe.

Most of us know a good thing when ye see it, but aren't quick enough to see it first.

A TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE.

How a Veteran Was Saved the Amputation of a Limb.

B. Frank Doremus, veteran, of Roosevelt Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., says: "I had been showing symptoms of kidney trouble from the time I was mustered out of the army, but in all my life I never suffered as in 1897. Headaches, dizziness and sleeplessness, first, and then dropsy. I was weak and helpless, having run down from 180 to 125 pounds. I was having terrible pain in the kidneys, and the secretions passed almost involuntarily. My left leg swelled until it was 34 inches around, and the doctor tapped it night and morning until I could no longer stand it, and then he advised amputation. I refused, and began using Doan's Kidney Pills. The swelling subsided gradually, the urine became natural and all my pains and aches disappeared. I have been well now for nine years since using Doan's Kidney Pills."

Sold by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Oklahoma's Wild Dogs.

Farmers owning pack or trail hounds in Logan county, two or three miles south of Guthrie, Okla., have been enjoying novel and exciting sport in the last two or three weeks in running down and killing a pack of wild dogs. Four years ago a farmer who moved from the neighborhood left behind at his abandoned log cabin a female hound. The latter made no effort to find another home, and soon ran wild.

In the two succeeding years she raised two litters of pups, in all fourteen. The mother and her offspring lived as one family, and as the pups grew bigger and bigger farmers began losing pigs and poultry and young calves. There are many wolves in this portion of Oklahoma, and it was suspected that some of these dogs had wolf fathers, which is not unusual.

The pack, led by the mother, grew so bold that several times it attacked negroes returning home from the cotton fields, and was driven off with great difficulty. The negroes became so alarmed that many of them would not venture away from their homes at night. The dogs seem to find much sport in pursuing domestic dogs, even packs of trail hounds, and were numerous enough to make the fights one-sided. The losses became so heavy that several general hunts were organized, and the pack was finally destroyed, but not until it had made it lively for the hounds put on its trail.—Kansas City Star.

The less egotism a man has the harder he is to manage.

Many a sunny has a very unsunny disposition.

SLEEP BROKEN BY ITCHING.

Eczema Covered Whole Body For a Year — No Relief Until Cuticura Remedies Prove Perfect Success.

"For a year I have had what they call eczema. I had an itching all over my body, and when I would retire for the night it would keep me awake half the night, and the more I would scratch, the more it would itch. I tried all kinds of remedies, but could get no relief. I used one cake of Cuticura Soap, one box of Cuticura and two vials of Cuticura Resolvent Pills—which cost me a dollar and twenty-five cents in all, and am very glad I tried them, for I was completely cured. Walter W. Padnish, 207 N. Robey St., Chicago, Ill., Oct. 8 and 16, 1906."

In the drama of life there are more thinking parts than there are actors to enact them.

When a woman marries a man to reform him she learns what it is to lead a strenuous life.

A woman is just as old as she pretends she isn't.

The secret of the glow worm and firefly is yet unsolved by science. Their light is entirely unaccompanied by heat.

China produces 400,000 ounces of gold yearly.

BRITISH GOVERNMENT AND AMERICAN FOODSTUFFS.

Contract For Canned Meats Placed in Chicago—British War Office Has Every Confidence in the Stockyard Product.

Another large contract for tinned meats for the British Army has been placed with Libby, McNeill & Libby of Chicago, through the Director of Supplies Department of the British War Office. This contract was a competitive affair, England, Canada, Australia and Brazil entering with tenders. It was quality and method of packing that got the Chicago firm the business. General Clayton, of the War Department, in an interview, according to the London Standard, stated that the British Government is highly satisfied with the foodstuffs supplied by Chicago, and they have every confidence in the manufactures entering Britain from the Stockyards. "The food for the Army will be packed under the supervision of British representatives at the invitation of the packers," he said, "although the Government is ready to rely upon the new Pure Food regulations recently inaugurated in the United States. All the talk about the inefficiency of the new law is sheer nonsense. British officers in America have gone fully into the matter and the authorities are perfectly satisfied to place orders in Chicago when conditions call for outside supplies of canned meats."

Needed Strength.

"I have seen many fantastic and humorous advertisements in newspapers during my somewhat lengthy career," once said Colonel Henry Watterson, in an address to a convention of journalists, "but quite the most interesting and oddest of these was an ad. that I chanced upon in London. It was printed in the staid old Times, and, as I remember it, ran something like this:

"'A young gentleman who is on the point of getting married is most desirous of meeting a man of experience who will take the responsibility of dissuading him from this dangerous step.'"—Harper's Weekly.

For Inflammation

Ladies

who suffer from inflammation of the womanly organs, should be careful that they do not allow the inflammation to spread, or take fast hold, since serious disease might result, requiring, possibly, an operation.

Pain is one of the first signs of inflammation, and when it remains constant, in the back, side, hips, head, or comes back every month, your trouble is nearly certain to be inflammation, and needs prompt treatment, with Wine of Cardui.

The great popular success of Cardui, during the past half century, tells volumes as to its merit for female complaints. Thousands of letters are received, telling of its curative powers. See the following, from Mrs. Mabel Hashentarger, of Larkin, Kas.

MRS. HASHENBARGER, Larkin, Kas.

"Before I took Cardui I suffered greatly with inflammation. It worked on me for some years, but hadn't bothered me much, till after my marriage, when it caused me two mishaps. After that, Cardui helped me so much and I am so thankful."

FREE BOOK FOR LADIES

Write for Free 64-page Book for Women. If you need Advice, describe symptoms, stating age, and we will reply in plain sealed envelope. Address: Ladies' Advisory Dept., The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Take CARDUI

G 143

PUTNAM FADELESS DYES

Color more goods brighter and faster colors than any other dye. One 10c package colors all fibers. They dye in cold water better than any other dye. You can dye any garment without ripping apart. Write for Free Booklet—How to Dye, Bleach and Mix Colors. MONROE DRUG CO., Quincy, Illinois.

Cleveland's Railways.

The net result of the six years' war has been the construction and present operation of some fifteen miles of railway in Cleveland, which are being operated at 3-cent fare, with a pledge to give universal transfers on any lines to be built in the future. This road has been built at a cost of $50,000 a mile in an era of unprecedentedly high prices, as against a capitalization of $150,000 a mile, upon which the old company bases its estimates when it says that a 3-cent fare will not produce reasonable dividends. On the other hand, the stock of the old company has shrunk in value from somewhere about 94 to a present quotation of 48.—Mayor Tom L. Johnson, in The Independent.

When you try to throw care to the winds the contrary breezes often insist on bringing it back and passing it on you.

Almost Killed by Old Joke.

An alleged explanation of "Why the chicken crossed the road," was told by an alleged humorist to Charles Snyder, of 264 Scholes street, Brooklyn, last night.

It nearly killed him.

The alleged humorist buttonholed Snyder before he had a chance to escape.

"I've got a new one; something good," he said. He held poor Snyder by the lapels. "It's an explanation of why that chicken crossed that road, you know," he began. Snyder writhed in misery, gasped for breath, and his false teeth flew back into his throat.

Dr. Cardoza came from the Hushwick hospital, shoved the dentistry into the stomach, and saved Snyder's life.—New York American.

It is quite easy to see and admire the silver-plated side of other people's miseries.

Perfect Womanhood

The greatest menace to woman's permanent happiness in life is the suffering that comes from some derangement of the feminine organs.

Many thousands of women have realized this too late to save their health, barely in time to save their lives.

To be a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, should be a woman's constant study.

If a woman finds that her energies are flagging, that she gets easily tired, dark shadows appear under her eyes, she has backache, headache, bearing-down sensations, nervousness, irregularities or the "blues," she should start at once to build up her system by a tonic with specific powers, such as the great woman's remedy for woman's ills, made only of roots and herbs.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

It cures Female Complaints, such as Dragging Sensations, Weak Back, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation and Ulceration, and all Organic Diseases, and is invaluable in the Change of Life. It dissolves and Expels Tumors at an early stage. Subdues Faintness, Nervous Prostration, Exhaustion, and strengthens and tones the Stomach. Cures Headache, General Debility, Indigestion, and invigorates the whole female system. It is an excellent remedy for derangements of the Kidneys in either sex.

INSURE YOUR HEALTH AND COMFORT on stormy days by wearing a

SLICKER

Clean Light Durable

Guaranteed Waterproof

At Dealers Everywhere

The Postcard. "Watch your wagon as a fine", but, instead, pin your faith to a "WHITE STAR BUGGY", and your confidence will never be betrayed. The "White Star" has every good feature of vehicle build-ing, and no bad ones.

If every buggy built were as good as the "White Star" Users wouldn't be so many "White Stars" said it's hard to find a vehicle as good as the "White Star." Atlanta Buggy Co. Atlanta, Ga.

Dropsy CURED Gives Quick Relief.

Removes all swelling in 9 to 20 days; effects a permanent cure in 30 to 60 days. Trial treatment given free. Write Dr. H. H. Green's Sons, Specialists, Box B, Atlanta, Ga.

Am. 41. 1907.

TRY THEM

Tobacco Habit, Morphine Habit, Liquor Habit } EASILY CURED

Hill's Double Chloride of Gold Tablets will cure any case of Morphine, Liquor or Tobacco Habit in from ten to thirty days. Can be given in tea or coffee without the knowledge of the patient. Pamphlet SENT FREE. For sale by all druggists or sent on receipt of $1.00.

THE OHIO CHEMICAL WORKS
P. O. BOX 229 W. TOLEDO, OHIO

WINTERSMITH'S CHILL TONIC

Mica Axle Grease

lengthens the life of the wagon—saves horse-power, time and temper. Best lubricant in the world—contains powdered mica which forms a smooth, hard coating on axle, and reduces friction.

When you want your outfit to last and earn money while it lasts—grease the axles with Mica Axle Grease.

Perhaps the reason that there are so many pessimists is because there are so many fool optimists in the world.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

Some wives get comfort out of the thought that their husbands are just as good as other men when they are asleep.

W. L. DOUGLAS $3.00 & $3.50 SHOES BEST IN THE WORLD

BEST SHOES FOR EVERY MEMBER OF THE FAMILY, AT ALL PRICES.

$25,000 Reward (than any other manufacturer.)

To any one who can prove W. L. Douglas does not make more Men's $3 & $3.50 Shoes

THE REASON W. L. Douglas shoes are worn by more people in all walks of life than any other make, is because of their excellent style, easy-fitting, and superior wearing qualities. The selection of the leathers and other materials for each part of the shoe, and every detail of the making is looked after by the most thoroughly organization of experienced shoemakers, and those in the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and whose workmanship cannot be excelled.

If I could take you into my large factories at Brockton, Mass., and show you how carefully W. L. Douglas shoes are made, you would then understand why they hold their shape, fit better, wear longer and are of greater value than any other make.

My $4.00 and $5.00 cut (my choice) cannot be equalled at any price.

CAUTION! The genuine have W. L. Douglas name and price stamped on bottom. Take no substitutes. Ask your dealer for W. L. Douglas shoes. If he cannot supply you, send direct to factory. Shoes sent everywhere by mail. Catalog free. W. L. Douglas, Brockton, Mass.

Your Eyes Tested Or Treated At Your Home.

We are the largest Optical Co. in the United States doing business on our plan, we will furnish you with eye glasses or spectacles at one-half the price that you can purchase them for elsewhere. Our method of testing the eyes is perfect, and our new Modern lenses are guaranteed to be the best ever used by humanity. Lenses ground to order and duplicates made from broken pieces. Our prices are the lowest consistent with the highest grade of workmanship. We have no agents, but deal direct with the wearer, thereby saving you the middleman's profit. We furnish fashionable eye glass mountings at reasonable prices. We furnish fashionable eye glass mountings at reasonable prices. We have testimonials from all over the United States and Canada. We guarantee to please you or no pay. Write for our free booklet, which will tell you how we can save you money on your eyes. Tell your friends about us. Send your name and address for home treatment blanks and question blanks. Our Chief Physician attends every case. Write to-day. Don't delay.

THE RANDUM OPTICAL CO. 2307 Third Ave., Birmingham, Ala.

CRESCENT ANTISEPTIC

GREATEST HEALER KNOWN TO SCIENCE.

Stops Pain, Heals Instantly. Allays Inflammation and stops pain from any cause. As strong as carbolic acid and as harmless as sweet milk. Cures burns instantly; cures old and chronic sores; cures sore and inflammation from any cause on man or beast. For fever—cures chills, cures head and lungs. Satisfaction positively guaranteed.

For Sale by all First-Class Dealers. Mfgd. by CRESCENT CHEMICAL CO., Ft. Worth, Texas

You Look Prematurely Old

Because of those ugly gray hairs. Use "LA CREOLE" HAIR RESTORER. Price, $1.00, retail.

CUT IN PRICES

ALL FALL GOODS MARKED DOWN

We are determined to clean out our Fall Stock so as to make room for New Winter Goods and have cut the prices down to clear the stock out.

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY

CALICOES to go at 5c per yard
SHEETINGS to go at 5c per yard
SHOES. $3 50 Shoes to go at $2.50
" 2.50 Shoes to go at 1.75
CLOTHING—Men's Suits, $25 00 Suits to go at $17.50
" " " 12 50 " " 7.50
" " " 7 50 " " 4 00
" " " 5.00 " " 3 00

This is just a few examples. Everything else in the store cut in a similar way

We have entered the cotton market and will pay the highest market price for cotton—and the price promises to be high this season.

Also we shall continue to pay highest prices for COUNTRY PRODUCE, WOOL, BEESWAX, HIDES and TALLOW. Bring them in and get cash for them.

PHONOGRAPHS and RECORDS a Specialty
Come and Hear Them Play

H. KANJUTZKY

CLANTON - - ALA.

Fall and Winter is Upon Us

and we are making our first showing of the New Fall Styles in Clothes for men and boys. They are the newest productions of the best known makes, in all the latest fabrics, shades, and a real treat to the eye of a man who knows good clothes when he sees them. Come in, look, try one and you will be highly pleased.

This is the Season for Hat Changing

and nothing can add to your appearance more than a stylish, becoming hat. If you will come in, we will convince you that we have the latest styles.

Furnishing Goods

the little things that go to make up the attire of a well dressed person are to be found here in the newest styles at moderate prices.

Just Received a Beautiful Lot

of Laces, Dress Goods and Lace Collars. Also a complete line of Puritan Corsets.

Fall Models In Footwear

Our line is complete.

Star Brand Shoes are Better

J. C. JONES

CLANTON - - - - - ALA.

SOUTHERN TYPEWRITER EXCHANGE
MONTGOMERY, ALA.
AGENTS

FAY SHOLES TYPEWRITERS

Have you ever "tried out" a Fay Sholes type writer? If not you have missed a treat. The Roller-bearing carriage, ball-bearing basket shift and general light action throughout, makes it the easiest machine to operate of any on the market.

Does your operator look "tried out" at night? Is your work always hanging over a little and reaching into another day? The best remedy for this ailment, is a FAY SHOLES typewriter.

Some of the good points on the Fay Sholes machine:—

Interchangeable carriages—making it possible to write on anything from a postage stamp to a fire insurance policy.

Two-color ribbon. Any combination of colors can be used.

Tabulator on each carriage. This is a saving of $20 to you. Worth looking in to, isn't it?

Full sheet release.

All the principal adjustments on the front of the machine.

Pointer, that always shows exactly where you are going to write. It doesn't show nearly where, but exactly where.

Attachment for writing on ruled paper. Best on the market.

We couldn't name all the good points here, the Editor wouldn't have time to "set them up." We have a catalogue for that purpose. Write for one. Doesn't cost you anything.

SECOND HAND TYPEWRITERS.

We have typewriters of many different makes that have been taken in trade for the FAY SHOLES typewriter. These are put up in good shape and sold at a bargain. Name the machine you want. Don't be afraid to make inquiries. Cash or installment.

TYPEWRITER SUPPLIES.

We can furnish you supplies for any machine that is manufactured, and at as reasonable a price as you can buy them in any part of the country. Send for prices.

TYPEWRITER REPAIRS.

All makes of machines repaired, from the cheapest to the highest priced ones. Our prices are as low as possible, consistent with good workmanship. We don't do cheap work. We do good work, cheap.

We will take your old machine as part pay for a new Fay Sholes typewriter and allow you to pay the balance on easy terms if you desire.

NOTE. The proprietor of "The Banner" uses a Fay Sholes. Ask him about it or ask any Fay Sholes user. Call at the Banner office and Mr. Crichton will show you the FAY SHOLES.

Sunday School Convention.

District No. 5, Beats 9 and 10. Canaan Church, October 20, 1907.

9:45 a.m. Song service. Devotional exercises. Matthew Miller.

10:15. President's report. A banner district, D. S. Robinson. Roll call and Secretary's report. Miss Lita Meriwether

10:35. Address, Dr. A. Horn, President County Association.

11. Temperance, Judge Lewis E. Reynolds.

11:30. Reports by Superintendents, Canaan, Chestnut Creek, Corinth, Cross Roads, Evergreen, Maple Springs, Poplar Springs, Beaton.

1 p.m. Song service, T. L. Robinson. Devotional exercises. Rev. B. F. Mauser.

1:20. Reports, continued. Shady Grove, Hualton, Providence, Verbena Methodist Protestant, Baptist, Methodist.

1:45. The primary teachers' opportunity, Miss Alice Strock. Teaching the juniors.

2:15. The lesson for Oct. 20, The Captured Jericho.

2:45. Reports of Committees. Select place of next convention.

Every superintendent in Beats 9 and 10 is requested to announce this convention to his Sunday school and urge the members to attend. A district convention is a mass meeting and all members of the schools are delegates.

COMMITTEE.

Sandy.

Quite a crowd witnessed the baptising at Oakmulgee bridge, Sunday.

The new school house is not finished yet, but hope it will be soon and when a nice one it will be.

Mr. J. O. Mize has moved his family into his new house.

We are sorry Mr. N. L. Broadhead is going to move his family off; we don't know where.

OLD MIKE.

Thomas A. Edison, the great American inventor, says "Fully eight per cent of the illness of mankind comes from eating improper food or too much food; people are inclined to over-indulge themselves." This is where indigestion finds its beginning in nearly every case. The stomach can do just so much work and no more, and when you overload it, or when you eat the wrong kind of food, the digestive organs cannot possibly do the work demanded of them. It is at such times that the stomach needs help; it demands help, and warns you by headaches, belching, sour stomach, nausea and indigestion. You should attend to this at once by taking something that will actually do the work for the stomach. Kodol will do this. It is a compination of natural digestants and vegetable acids and contains the same juices found in a healthy stomach. It is pleasant to take. It digests what you eat. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

DR. J. EARL COWAN
DENTIST
Office Below Bailey.
CLANTON, ALA.

DR. F. I HOPKINS
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON
EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROAT
Office Over Bank.
CLANTON

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol cures indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does not only cure indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy cures all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

Mr. S. S. Bell, of Ravenswood, W. Va., says—"I was troubled with sour stomach for twenty years. Kodol cured me and we are now using it in our family."

Kodol Digests What You Eat.

Bottles only. $1.00 Size holding 2½ times the trial size, which sells for 50 cents.

Prepared by E. O. DeWITT & CO., CHICAGO.

Upchurch Drug Co.

Providence.

After a few weeks absence we will try to write a few lines from this place. First, we are glad to say that Mr. J. L. Martin, who was taken very dangerously sick last Sunday, is improving very fast.

The Sunday school at Mt. Moriah is improving fast.

The protracted meeting closed at Oak Grove last Wednesday night.

Mr. James E. Cobb visited Birmingham last week.

Mr. Will Sims of Anniston spent the past week with his parents, Mr and Mrs W. A. Sims, returning to Anniston, Monday.

Mr. Jim Cobb of Birmingham visited his parents, Sunday.

Mr. Arthur L. Birdsong returned to school at Talladega last week.

We are sorry to say that Mrs. Amice Cobb is very sick; we hope she will soon be up again.

Mr. and Mrs J L Martin spent Saturday and Sunday at Ocampo.

Mrs. Jim P. Cobb, who has been visiting her parents the last two weeks, accompanied her husband back to Birmingham, Sunday.

THE FAIR TWO FRIENDS

A Ready for Burns

Dr. Bergin, Penn, Ill., writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment; always recommended it to my friends as I am confident there is no better made. It is so handy for burns. Those who live on farms are especially liable to many accidental cuts, burns, bruises, which heal rapidly when Ballard's Snow Liniment is applied. It should always be kept in the house for cases of emergency." 25c, 50c and 1.00. Sold by Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

All the leading monthly magazines and newspapers kept in stock at Florence Drug Store.

Advertise in The Banner.

Sheriff's Sale.

By virtue of an execution issued out of the Circuit Court of Chilton county, and State of Alabama, and to me directed, whereby I am commanded to make the amount of a certain judgment recently obtained against John W. Hundley, out of the goods, chattels, lands and tenements of the said John W. Hundley I have levied on the following property, to wit:

Lots No. 169 and 170, Block 13 in the town of Clanton, Alabama, containing two acres more or less, lying east of L. & N. R. R.

Therefore, according to said command, I shall expose for sale, at public auction, all the right, title and interest of the above named John W. Hundley, in and to the above described property on MONDAY, the 4th day of NOVEMBER, 1907, during the legal hours of sale at the Court House door of Chilton county, in Clanton, Ala.

Dated at Clanton, Ala., this 5th day of October, 1907.

JOSEPH S. GATES,
Sheriff of Chilton county, Ala.

Lazy Liver

Suffering the misery and agony that come from your liver being out of order—trying to bear up in the belief that you will be all right in a day or two—are you deliberately neglecting the warning of outraged Nature—committing the blunder of believing that you don't need medicine?

If you are, the sooner you commence the use of the better it will be for you.

Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin

You can't afford to fool with your liver, and you certainly can't afford to be without this great remedy if your liver is out of order. Don't delay.

Both you and your liver will be better "livers" than ever.

DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN can be obtained in both dollar and half-dollar sizes from all druggists.

Your money will be refunded if it does not benefit you.

Your postal card request will bring by return mail our new booklet, "DR. CALDWELL'S BOOK OF WONDERS" and free sample to those who have never tried this wonderful remedy. Send today.

PEPSIN SYRUP CO.
Monticello, Illinois

The First and Last

store in Clanton. If you come from the east it's the first; from the west it's the last.

Our stock of General Merchandise is First in quality and lowest in price.

FINE FAMILY GROCERIES—Always Fresh and Nice.

A fine line of Men's Dress Shirts and Neckwear.

SHOES of the finest quality and the best make. Try a pair.

A general assortment of first-class goods.

B. E. JONES & BRO.

CLANTON - - - - ALA.

NEW STO

Opens Saturday, October

IN THE DISPENSARY BU

CLANTON, ALA.

with a fine selected stock of

Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, H
Gent's Furnishing Goods

Ladies' Hats, Cloaks and Ju

Good Goods, Low Prices
Pleased to Wait Upo

Joe Gore will have the pleasure of waiting

D. LUBELSKY

FROM BIRMINGHAM

CLANTON - - A

The Money to Be Saved

by buying your drugs and whiskies a house like the Collier Drug Co. will pleasant surprise to you. We are the est cut-rate druggists in this section State, and can save you many penni giving us your business.

Read our prices and put your dollars you will receive greatest possible value

WHISKIES

	Regular Price
Shade Mountain Corn (full quart)	1.00
Old Gover Pepper, bottled in bond	1.00
Murray Hill Club	1.00
J. Marlin Rye	1.00
Asheton Rye	1.00
Duffy's Pure Malt	1.00
California Sherry	1.00
Old Lincoln County	1.00
Private Stock	1.00
Virginia Pure Apple Brandy	1.00
Hammond Club	1.00
Old Holland Gin	.75
Wilson	1.00
Green River	1.00
I. W. Harper	1.00
Pan Patch	.75
Paul Jones Four Star	1.00
Old Prentice	1.00

Our package and express department is complete in respect and all mail orders get prompt and careful attention day of receipt. Your patronage will be appreciated.

COLLIER DRUG CO.

109-111 NORTH 20th St.

BIRMINGHAM - - A

TRADE MARK.

Will Cure You.

The liver is the main-spring for the whole body. To enjoy good health, one must keep the liver in good order. To do this a regulator is needed. Herbine will put your liver in this condition it should be and you will not suffer from headaches.

A POSITIVE CURE

FOR CONSTIPATION, CHILLS AND FEVER, BILIOUSNESS, MALARIA AND ALL LIVER COMPLAINTS.

Has Done A World Of Good

Mrs. C. D. Philley, Marble Falls, Texas, writes: "I have used Herbine and find it the best liver corrective I have ever tried. It done my family as well as myself a world of good and I recommend it to all my friends. I never suffer from headaches anymore."

50c WILL BUY IT.

Ballard Snow Liniment Co.

300-302 N. Second St., ST. LOUIS, MO.

Sold and Recommended by Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton.

VOL. XVI

THE MAN ON THE CORNER

of the Eighth Ave. here, and Some Re Some Not.

Monday week, Oct. 28, a series entertainments will be commenced at the school house, when Miss Elma B. Smith, of the Atlanta Lyceum Bureau, will appear in an exceptionally strong com ty. These entertainments are of strictly high class, and nothing has been undone to make the performance one of thorough enjoyment. Miss Smith is ably seconded by Miss Merle Tillotson, contralto, Mr. Cecil Burleigh, the talented young American violinist, and Miss Agnes Ambrose, pianist. The arrangements for the course have been made by Messrs. Sam Latham and J. H. Middleton, and this patronage will be followed by others.

Last Thursday afternoon, two men from Verbena came into THE BANNER office, just as we were taking the forms off the press. I must confess half smothered in ink and apologized to the ladies for being a "dirty devil," but bless your hearts they accepted the apology in a charming manner, as ladies of course would. Had we, have been "dude men" we would have been proud to receive the ladies without a blemish in our appearance, but as a worker we were proud to show up as a "dirty devil."

On Monday I paid a visit to the Birmingham State Fair—the best fair of any kind I have seen in Birmingham. There was a big attendance, and a time. The exhibit built was a good specimens of Alabama's manufactures, and O, the curve, the girls! All sorts of wonders and curiosities, from the igorottes from the Philippines to the tamest of ladies and other peculiar things. A balloon ascension came off in fine style, and the racing was all O. K. I expect this will prove to be the most successful fair ever held in Birmingham.

What a change in the county has been wrought by the rural free delivery routes. We hardly ever hear of the old places now-a-days—all mail from Kincheon is now the from R. F. D. No. 3, and the Basic shades of Jumbo are hidden Rural Route No. 5. Beautiful Verbena is lost in Route No. 7, and so on. The greater convenience to the people is the loss of their old territorial designations.

The Fates.

Clotho, Lachesis and Atropos.
Will entertain in their caverns on Halloween.
From nine to eleven o'clock p.m.
Under auspices of Clanton School Improvement Ass'n.

NEGRO KILLED AT CLANTON.

On Saturday night, after participating in a church supper, Festus Harper, colored, was shot and killed. Dr. V. O. Campbelle was returning from a visit to a patient, when he saw the body of a man lying in the road by Duke's mill. He alighted from his buggy and found the man dead, and at once notified the Sheriff. From information received, Steve McCall, colored, was arrested, charged with the killing, and a negro named Lee was also arrested. Both were placed in jail. An inquest was held in the court house Sunday morning, by Alex G. Dake, J. P., and a verdict of willful murder was returned against Steve McCall, and Will Lee was held as a witness.

Another shooting took place Sunday night, when Blaine Burden, a white man, was returning to his home near Thorsby, he was shot in the right arm by some party unknown. He was brought to Clanton for surgical treatment, and is not very badly injured.

W STO
Saturday, October
DISPENSARY BUIL
LANTON, ALA.
selected stock of , Clothing, Shoes, H
nt's Furnishing Goods
Hats, Cloaks and Jac
ds, Low Prices
leased to Wait Upon have the pleasure of waiting u
D. LUBELSKY
FROM BIRMINGHAM
TON - - A

Money to Be Saved
your drugs and whiskies
ke the Collier Drug Co. will rprise to you. We are the l druggists in this section of
can save you many pennies
your business.
r prices and put your dollars w
eive greatest possible value.
WHISKIES

	Regular Price
ora (full quart)	1.00
, bottled in bond	1.00
	1.00
	1.00
	1.00
	1.00
	1.00
by	1.00
e Brandy	1.00
	1.00
	1.00
	1.00
	1.00
	1.00
	1.00
tar	1.00

e and express department is complete in e mail orders get prompt and careful attentio
Your patronage will be appreciated.
OLLIER DRUG CO.
109 111 NORTH 20th St.
HAM - - AL

Do not suffer with severe Headaches when HERBINE
TRADE MARK
Will Cure You.
the main-spring for the whole body. To cu one must keep the liver in good order. To do needed. Herbine will put your liver in the c d be and you will not suffer from headaches.
A POSITIVE CURE
CONSTIPATION, CHILLS AND ER, BILIOUSNESS, MALARIA
O ALL LIVER COMPLAINTS.
one A World Of Good.
Philley, Marble Falls, Texas, writes: "I have e and find it the best liver corrective I have ev ne my family as well as myself a world of mend it to all my friends. I never suffer aymore."
50c WILL BUY IT.
ard Snow Liniment Co.
N. Second St., ST. LOUIS, MO. and Recommended by h Drug Co., Clanton.

Judge of Probate

THE BANNER

NEW YORK HERALD BUILDING.

VOL. XVI CLANTON, ALA., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1907 No. 1

MAN ON THE CORNER

of the Rights he has, and Some He Has Not.

Monday week, Oct. 26, a series entertainments will be commenced at the school house, when Miss Elsa B. Smith, of the Atlanta Lyceum Bureau, will appear in an exceptionally strong company. These entertainments are of strictly high class, and nothing will be undone to make the performance one of thorough enjoyment. Miss Smith is ably seconded by Miss Marie Tillotson, contralto, Mr. Cecil Burleigh, the talented young American violinist, and Miss Agnes Ambrose, pianist. The arrangements for the course have been made by Messrs. Sam Latham and J. H. Middleton, and this paper trust will be followed by others.

Last Thursday afternoon, two ladies from Verbena came into THE BANNER office, just as we were putting the forms off the press. I was about half smothered in ink and apologised to the ladies for being a "dirty devil," but bless your hearts they accepted the apology in a smiling manner, as ladies of refinement would. Had we, have been a "middle man" we would have been proud to receive the ladies without a blemish in our appearance, but as a worker we were compelled to show up as a "dirty devil."

On Monday I paid a visit to the Birmingham State Fair—the best of its kind I have seen in Birmingham. There was a big attendance, and for the purpose seemed to be having a good time. The exhibit hall had a good specimens of Alabama's manufacturers, and O, the curve, the beauty. All sorts of wonders were there, from the figurettes from the Philippines to the armless wonder and other peculiar things. The balloon ascension came off in splendid style, and the racing was all O. K. I expect this will prove to be the most successful fair ever held in Birmingham.

What a change in the county has been wrought by the rural free delivery routes. We hardly ever hear of the old places now-a-days—a man from Kincheon is now the man from R. F. D. No. 3, and the rustic shades of Jumbo are hidden behind Route No. 5. Beautiful Ivy is lost in Route No. 7, and so goes The greater convenience to the people is the loss of their old territorial designations.

The fates.
Clotho, Lackesis and Atropos.
Will entertain in their caverns on Halloween.
From nine to eleven o'clock p.m.
Under auspices of Sunken School Improvement Ass'n

NEGRO KILLED AT CLANTON.

On Saturday night, after participating in a church supper, Festus Roper, colored, was shot and killed. Dr. V. O. Campbelle was returning from a visit to a patient, when he saw the body of a man lying in the road by Duke's mill. He alighted from his buggy and found the man dead, and at once notified the Sheriff. From information received, Steve McCall, colored, was arrested, charged with the killing, and a negro named Lee was also arrested. Both were placed in jail. An inquest was held in the court house Sunday morning, by Alex G. Dake, J. P., and a verdict of wilful murder was returned against Steve McCall, and Will Lee was held as a witness.

Another shooting took place Saturday night, when Blaine Burton, a white man, was returning to his home near Thorsby, he was shot in the right arm by some party unknown. He was brought to Clanton for surgical treatment, and is not very badly injured.

Peoples Savings Bank of Chilton County.
CLANTON, ALA.
CAPITAL STOCK $50,000.00.
Wm. E. Holloway, President.
W. F. Callen, Cashier. John A. Thomas, Assistant Cashier
DIRECTORS:
W. T. Collins Wm. E. Holloway Sam Kaufman
H. M. Martin, Sr. M. L. Snell John A. Thomas
There is a number of people who are under an erroneous impression. They think that they never control enough money to start a bank account. In this they are mistaken. We solicit small accounts as well as large. And we handle the business of both with our best care. We believe that you ought to have a bank account, and we offer you our services.

THE CLANTON BANK
CLANTON, ALA.
Many people seem to think that unless they can open a Savings Account with not less than $50.00 or $100.00, it is not worth the while to begin. This is not a correct position to take. If a person cannot open an account with more than $1.00, and really desires to get some money ahead, they should begin with even $1.00. The first dollar saved and put in bank, is the initial step on the way to prosperity. "Great oaks from little acorns grow." As a rule, the person who "Puts off" the opening of a Savings Account until he has a large amount to deposit, is not likely to ever have a bank account. We solicit your account.
THE CLANTON BANK

CORRESPONDENCE.

Don't get out of patience with the baby when it is peevish and restless, and don't vent yourself on worrying night and day about the just give him a little cascarwet. Cascarwet is a corrective for the stomachs of babies and children. Contains no harmful drugs. Sold by Upchurch Drug Co.

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 14, 1907
Editor Banner—I did not intend to write and take up so much time when there is no reason for so doing, but I feel like saying just a word to M. R. in the last issue of the Banner. He says for us to lay down our principles and consider this careful. I am proud to say that Chilton county has people in it that have stopped and considered the question of the dispensary, and say that they will not let such diabolical stuff stay in their midst.

I would like to ask M. R. would he take $4,000 for his boy or his neighbor's libel. I have not been to Chilton since the dispensary came, but I have heard of many people going away from there with a bottle of liquor and nothing in their pockets. Had you rather see nothing in your boy's pocket or a bottle of liquor? I say nothing every time.

In regard to Jefferson county taxes received from the 151 saloons, I believe the statistics show that we receive $125,000 a year. I will say to M. R. that we are going to do like the good people of Chilton, we are going to put a drygoods store or something good in the place of the saloon.

I believe that on the 28th of this month the good people of Jefferson county are going to say we don't want your liquor money, we want our boys saved and should we fail, two years later we will try again until we succeed. I am satisfied that some of the people of Chilton county will answer M. R. and tell him that they don't think they have beat the children out of $4,000.

When M. R. gets into either the B. Y. P. U., Epworth League, Baracas, or Christain Endeavor Work, he will have to be a prohibitionist or leave the town, and I am proud to say we have them all working in Birmingham for the young boys and not for the saloon taxes.

Now, I will say in conclusion that I know nothing of M. R. but would like for him to sign his name so we can see who he is, I'm sure he is one of Chilton county's best boys. SAM R. BILLINGSLEY.

MARRIED.

At Robert's saw mill, Oct. 10, Mr. Tom Smith and Miss Nellie Lee Smith, Rev. S. B. Culpepper performing the ceremony.

At Thorsby, Oct. 12, Mr. Maurits Forsman and Mrs. Fannie Honeycutt, Rev. C. K. Holland officiating.

At court house, Clanton, Oct. 12, Mr. T. C. DeLoach and Miss Mollie Price, Judge Reynolds tieing the Knot.

At court house, Clanton, Oct. 14, Mr. G. M. Willis and Mrs. Susie Fletcher, Alex G. Dake, J. P., officiating.

At court house, Clanton, Oct 16, Mr. K. D. Lakie and Miss Lannie McKinney, Judge Reynolds performing the ceremony.

Whenever you meet a man who thinks he knows it all, it's ten to one that he isn't married.

Sunday School.

Our Sunday school seems to be decreasing in place of increasing.

Our boys had a delightful ball game Saturday, over Mr. T. B. Miller's.

There was preaching at the Pond Saturday night and Sunday.

Miss Mollie Price was to our locality Sunday. Come again, we are glad to have you in our midst.

Mr. T. C. DeLoach has his engine in Montgomery for repairs. He is now moving his mill on Mr. Jim Hayes' place, where he will have about three years sawing. Look out boys, you won't have to have many winter clothes, he will keep you warm. He is a fine saw mill man and a good citizen. Good luck to you, old boy.

We are anticipating having a telephone line in our community soon.

A large crowd of our boys and girls are going to Selma to the Fair on the 25th.

Mr. Will Gilford got stabbed [illegible] Saturday.

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty-three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brannon, Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, kidney and liver troubles by Upchurch Drug Co. 50c.

FOR SALE CHEAP—40 acres land, three miles northeast of Clanton; 20 acres in cultivation; lies well; good house, good well, good fence around entire 40 acres.
P. D. WILSON, Clanton, Ala.

Sardis.

Editor Banner—Please allow space in your paper for a few lines to appear in the citizens' meeting at Sardis. Quite a number of citizens met to discuss the question of the high price charged by the county physicians. The matter was referred to a committee of three as follows: W. C. Dyer, D. C. Gandy, S. B. Letcher.

MANY CITIZENS.

Verbena.

Editor Banner—Please allow me a small space in your valuable paper to [illegible] some notes.

I am very sorry that the doctors of Chilton county are about to starve out. I will say that the old farmer is [illegible] than the doctors, will be to [illegible] several crops of work. The doctors may have a hard time, but both sorts of the farmer. [illegible] the doctors, the doctors or the farmers? I will leave that for you to say, as I will ring off [illegible] and will say a few words [illegible] next time.

P. S. I forgot that they have got religion, but come again will you, we all like to read your pieces, or at least I do. I am like the school girl, I would like all the good [illegible] to come back again. I will close with best wishes to the dear old Banner and its readers.

J. A. D.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

The Annual Convention of district 5, composed of Sunday schools in Beats 5 and 10, will be held at Canaan church, near Mt. Creek, on the 3d Sunday, Oct. 20, 1907. All who are interested in Sunday schools are invited to attend.

SECRETARY.

With this changeable weather, which brings on coughs and colds, there is nothing better than our Compound Syrup White Pine and Tar. Florence Drug Store.

STRAYED

—Almost seven weeks ago, from my place at Maplesville, R. F. D. No. 2, a Poland China Sow, unmarked, very early fall. A liberal reward will be paid for her recovery by W. E. Hayes, Maplesville, Ala., R. F. D. No 2.

LAND FOR SALE—10 miles southwest of Clanton, 120 acres; 60 timbered; 60 in cultivation; two dwellings; two wells good water; two good springs and outhouses; small orchard and grape vines. Place noted for health and beauty. Two public roads and telephone through the land. Churches and schools convenient. Write or call on R. E. Rowe, Clanton, Ala., R. F. D. No. 7.

Call and get a little package we have for you. Florence Drug Store.

J. A. SKAGGS
CONTRACTOR & BUILDER
I am prepared to contract to erect any building in brick or wood, in Clanton, and to furnish all necessary material.
J. A. SKAGGS, Jemison, Ala.

BOOKKEEPING COURSE $5.00 per month.
Shorthand Course $3.00 per month.
Telegraph Course, unlimited scholarship $30.00.
Write SOUTHERN BUSINESS COLLEGE AND SCHOOL OF TELEGRAPHY, Newnan, Ga.

They Make You Feel Good.
The pleasant purgative effect experienced by all who use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and the healthy condition of the body and mind which they create makes one feel joyful. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

WANTED.

FOR SALE or TRADE—Two young mules, 4 years old, well broke, will sell or trade for one large mule, cash or credit, with good security. Address or call on R. E. Rowe, R. F. D. No. 7, Clanton, Ala.

FOR SALE—A small farm 2½ mile west of Clanton on the Maplesville road. Land all fresh well improved, good living water. Apply to W. J. Bowman, Clanton, Ala., R. F. D. No. 5.

REMINGTON Typewriter No. 2 for sale. In first-class condition. THE BANNER, Clanton.

FOR SALE at a bargain, One Geist Mill and one 20 H. P. Gasoline Engine, good as new, at Sylacauga, Ala. Will make prices delivered at Clanton. Address J. W. K., P. O. Box 284, Clanton, Ala.

DESIRABLE positions are always occuring at the Bryce Hospital for men of good morals and clean habits. Salaries ranging from $18.00 to $30.00 per month, board, lodging, laundry and medical attention free. For full information write DR. J. T. SEARCY, Supt. Tuscaloosa, Ala.

LAND FOR SALE—216 acres of good land, 65 acres in cultivation, 2 settlements. In sections 29 and 30, township 22, range 15. Apply to R. F. SIMS, Maplesville Ala., R. F. D. No. 1.

FOR RENT OR SALE—Seven roomed house, good barn and stable. Fine garden. In Clanton. Apply at Banner Office.

134 ACRES FOR SALE, five miles southeast of Clanton. Apply to Q. S., Banner office, Clanton.

FOR SALE—80 acres good land, two miles from Clanton, two settlements on the place, good water, 40 acres in cultivation. Call on or address Q. Q. FOSHEE, Clanton, Ala., R. F. D. No. 4.

DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve is good for little burns and big burns, small scratches or bruises and big ones. It is healing and soothing. Good for piles. Sold by Upchurch Drug Co.

Purity and Perfection go Together.
"I thank you for recommending to me
Davis' 100 per cent Pure paint
It was applied in an excellent manner, and has turned out all you claimed for it. I consider it the first perfect job of painting I have ever had."
J. L. Downs,
Baltimore, Md.
Davis Paint, properly applied, will please the most critical.
For sale by Payne & Payne, Montgomery, Ala.

W. E. MADDOX
BLACKSMITH
I do all kinds of Repair Work in Wood or Iron. Saw Brackets and Runners.
Cold Tire Setting. I can shrink your Buggy or Wagon Tires cold or hot.
Horse-shoeing up-to-date. Satisfaction guaranteed.
CLANTON

J. V. HIGGINS
WATCHMAKER, JEWELER AND ENGRAVER
At the Florence Drug Store, Clanton, Ala. All work guaranteed
Special attention given to Watch Cleaning, Stone Setting and Engraving
Repair all kinds of Graphophones Guns and Pistols Repaired.

HELP IS OFFERED
TO WORTHY YOUNG PEOPLE
We earnestly request all young persons, no matter how limited their means or circumstances, who wish to obtain a thorough business training and good position, to write by first mail for our special half-price offer. Success, independence and position are guaranteed. Don't delay. Write now.
"The Gordon Business Colleges, Macon, Ga."
N. B.—All engraving by telegraphers now filled. Men or women. Salaries $15 to $30 per month.

NEW STYLES RIGHT UP TO THE MINUTE

MEN AND BOYS
Clothing, we have the most complete line in Chilton county, price $1 50 to $27.50 per suit; Single or Double Breasted Coat with the new crease seam effect. Peg Top Pants to wear with or without suspenders. Now, if you don't see your suit in the window come in and turn things over until you find it, just like you would hunting an old plow around home. You can also see all the new shaped Hats in the show cases.
LADIES
let us show you our new line of Dress Goods, Suitings in Wool or Silk in all the new weaves and color; can match your hat with most any goods you can pick on, including Gloves. Also a complete line to select from for the children.
Shoes For Everybody
Shoes, we handle the famous Smith Shoe, known for style, durability and long life.

Our Motto
New Goods, small profits and satisfied customers.
Let us figure on your entire wants
M. F. CANNON & SONS
CLANTON, ALA.
Copyright 1906 by Hart Schaffner & Marx

THE BANNER.

Published Weekly

CLANTON, ALABAMA.

The verdict of America seems to Life to be that you have the most fun for your money in Europe.

A Louisiana millionaire turned back a mob by asking for a cigarette. Dope is more deadly than bullets, remarks the New York American.

The all too popular hatred of automobiles is responsible for the coining of a new word of self evident significance—"motorphobe," notes the New Haven Register.

Most people think that lying is forbidden in one of the ten commandments, but the only sin therein specified is bearing false witness against a neighbor, asserts the Christian Register. That, however, is one of the worst forms of lying.

These periodical disturbances in the religious world are not without good results, adopts the Christian Register. They extend to every remote parish and give to the people whose intellects are stagnant something to think about. It is said that the contest over Essays and Reviews a generation ago in England added several years to the active life of country clergymen.

Observes the Washington Herald: "It is not given to all of us to possess the money making or the money saving faculty, and there are many men who have done good service all their lives who have been able to make no provision for old age. Under the system of old age insurance in Germany almshouses have practically been abolished and the general welfare of the citizens of Germany has been greatly improved."

The man who eats his lunch in a hurry saves considerable time—at the other end of his life. The fellow who ate at the "lightning lunch" counter soon complained of a "thundering pain." Thorough chewing saves food and much trouble of various kinds. Come to the table as fast as you please, but don't be in a hurry to leave, is the advice of the Boston Cultivator. It is true that many sins against health are forgiven to those who live much in the open air, but there is a limit beyond which even kind nature cannot carry her favorite children. Better more time now than more medicine later in life.

Let those who insolently assert that the Latin peoples are incapable of self-government and progress cease their tirades, is the admonition of the New York Tribune. The dispatch from Mexico stating that the Chihuahua dog is becoming extinct in its native land proves conclusively that the Latins can grapple victoriously with even the greatest evils. When we consider that American dog fanciers pay $100 for good specimens of this zoological atrocity, while our southern neighbors are letting the breed perish off the face of the earth, we humbly withdraw all claims to Anglo-Saxon superiority.

From Edward T. Parker, Government coal expert at Washington, comes warning of the limitation of the anthracite age. The hard coal deposits of the United States, he says, will be exhausted practically in seventy-five years. The product will never be cheaper than it is now. Mr. Parker's estimate is based upon current rates of consumption. These may be largely modified in the near future by fresh inventions and changes in power development. The advice for the practice of fuel economy formulated for the Geological Survey by Engineer Dwight T. Randall is nevertheless pertinent and important.

A Kentuckian who does not believe in the attempt to regenerate the Morgan horse is Maj. David Castleman, a prominent breeder. He holds that the American trotter and American-bred saddle horse are superior to the best Morgans, both in speed and endurance. He thinks the Government is spending its money uselessly in trying to re-establish the Morgan, and has posted $100 as a challenge which he has issued to match the best standard-bred horse and the best saddle-bred horse against the best Morgan horse. The conditions include the trotting over a Kentucky turnpike of a reasonable distance, say fifty to 100 miles; the vehicle, harness and occupants to have a minimum weight of 500 pounds.

AN EXPLOSION CAUSED BY OVERTURNED KETTLE

Kills Four and Fatally Injured Twenty More

THOUSANDS SAW THE WRECK

Arms, Fingers and Ears Were Torn Off, While a Number of the Men Had Their Eyes Burned Out—Many Buried Under the Wreckage.

Butler, Pa.—An explosion, caused by the upsetting of the metal pot in the No. 1 furnace of the Standard Steel Company here late Sunday night, caused the death of four men, fatally injured twenty and seriously injured ten others. Nearly all of the men were foreigners.

The large wheel plant, 150 by 100 feet, was demolished, causing a loss estimated at $100,000.

The dead are: Nick Dorna, Nicholas Bister, John Vovelk and an unknown man. The condition of the thirty men injured is pitiable. Although still alive the features of a majority are mutilated beyond recognition. The pot of metal was showered over them, causing horrible injuries. Arms, fingers and ears were torn off, while a number of the men had their eyes burned out. Several men are in the hospital with their legs burned to a crisp. At midnight the physicians attending the injured said that at least twenty of them would die.

The explosion was caused by the upsetting of a metal pot in the cupola. Twenty men near the cupola had every shred of clothing blown off by the force of the explosion.

Many were buried under the wreckage and were not rescued for an hour after the catastrophe. When names shot from the burning car works fully 10,000 people rushed to the scene, blocking streets and interfering with fire companies and ambulances.

Members of the fire department and citizens assisted in caring for the men who were suffering intensely with the cold.

ENGINEER IS KILLED.

Atlantic Coast Line Passenger Train Wrecked.

Rocky Mount, N. C.—Northbound Florida and West Indian limited passenger train on the Atlantic Coast Line ran into an open switch and collided with an engine at South Rocky Mount. Engineer W. Boney, of the passenger train, was instantly killed and Postal Clerk T. T. Hill slightly injured.

Although many passengers were thrown from their berths, none suffered injury. Both engines were completely demolished, as also were the mail, express and baggage cars.

Last of Brave "600."

Lexington, Ky.—Frank Dillon, aged 79, believed to be the last surviving member of the brave "Six Hundred" that charged the Russians at Balaklava, died here. He followed Lord Cardovan "into the jaws of death" and was wounded. He later came to America and fought with the north in the civil war. He was employed as a cobbler.

France Expels Spanish Socialists.

Paris.—Four Spanish socialists who came to this city for the purpose of addressing the proposed socialist mass meeting of protest against the French and Spanish operations in Morocco, were served with expulsion orders immediately on their arrival and left on the next train.

Man Blown to Atoms.

San Antonio.—Owen V. Anderson, recently appointed a lieutenant in the United States army, was blown to atoms while handling a bottle of nitro-glycerin. The house was wrecked and his mother had a narrow escape. He was preparing to go to Fort Leavenworth and was emptying a bottle of the explosive when the accident occurred.

Panama Canal Work.

Washington.—Excavations in the Panama canal zone during September aggregated 1 517,412 cubic yards. In the canal prism proper the excavations were 1,148,397 cubic yards, against 1,274,404 cubic yards in August and 1,078,770 cubic yards in July.

Canada May Buy United States Coal.

Ottawa, Ont.—The deputy minister of labor has told the management of the Spring Hill, N. S., mines where there is a strike that unless they can supply coal for the inter-colonial railway the dominion government will be compelled this week to place, for its own protection, an order for 60,000 tons with United States firms, as this is needed for the inter-colonial government owned railway.

Sixteen to Die for Revolution.

Kingston, Jamaica.—Mail advices from Haiti state that sixteen men were sentenced to death there for conspiring to overthrow the government of the republic. The country is reported quiet but many persons fear a revolution soon.

Big Hillside Moved.

Paris.—A big landslide is occurring in the department of Ardeche. The movement of the earth is ascribed to springs.

ORGANIZATION OF SPONSORS.

Arrangements Are Being Made to Perfect a Patriotic Society.

Charleston, Tenn.—The members of Cleveland's Civil war veteran organizations are being formed for their new patriotic society, which has as its purpose to follow. There are only 143 on the list of eligibles, and of these fifty have been reached. By a circular communication to report has been kept of the thousand young women who have volunteered for great records or the soldier applicants. The committee in charge is confident, however, to hear from all eligibles.

A meeting will be called some time this winter in Washington to perfect permanent organization. In the meantime a committee headed by Miss Annie Keith Frazier, of Chattanooga daughter of Senator James B. Frazier the brother of the Tennessee, is a work on the details of organization.

Cloudburst Hits Vera Cruz.

Vera Cruz, Mex.—The worst storm ever known on this coast has just visited here and flooded a large section of the city, including the custom house the main floor of which is three feet under water, in which are duties goods and merchandise valued at three quarters of a million dollars. The storm was in the nature of a terrific cloudburst. No fatalities have as yet been reported but it is feared that when reports come in from the agricultural districts it will be found that heavy loss of life and property has resulted.

Steamer Stranded.

Baltimore, Md.—A dispatch from Cape Henry to the maritime exchange here says: The barge Glenn, lumber laden, and which was being towed by the steamer Kathadin from Georgetown, S. C., to New York, stranded thirty miles north of Cape Hatteras at midnight October 12. The captain and two men of the barge were drowned. One man, Fred Lent, managed to reach the shore. The barge appeared to be full of water, with the sea washing over her and the deckload of lumber is coming ashore.

Rockefeller Ready.

New York.—William G. Rockefeller, assistant treasurer of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, was in the federal building Monday in response to a subpoena to testify before Examiner Ferris in the government's suit to dissolve the New Jersey corporation under the Sherman anti-trust law. He will be asked to explain why and to whom more than $32,000,000 was lent by the Standard Oil Company of New York last year over and above all money loaned or transferred to Standard Oil interests.

Have Monster Parade.

New York.—Fourteen thousand members of the Holy Name societies in Hudson and Bergen counties participated in a parade and open air meeting in Hoboken, N. J., as a protest against profanity. Every man in line carried a small flag of the order with white letters, "H. N. S." on a blue back ground, and the sight was an impressive one as they marched along the principal streets of the city. The houses were decorated with American flags.

Small Suspended.

Chicago, Ill.—The following message has been sent to President Small by the executive committee of the Telegraphers' Union: "Under article 15, section 7 of the constitution of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America, you are hereby suspended from the office of president, to take effect immediately. S. J. Konenkamp, acting chairman."

Copper Mines Shut Down.

San Antonio, Tex.—A special to the Express from Saltillo, Mexico, says: The slump in the price of copper has closed a large number of mines, not only in the southern portion of the republic, but in this section as well. A number of the large mines have reduced their output exactly one-half while the smaller ones have closed down entirely.

Swallowing a Moth Kills a Boy.

Owensboro, Ky.—Almost instant death from swallowing a candle moth was the fate that befell 10-year-old Jesse Moore, son of George Moore, of Whitesville, this county. The moth flew into the boy's mouth and lodged in the windpipe and although a physician was in the house at the time he could do nothing to save the boy's life. The lad died in a few seconds.

Textile Conference Held in Nashville

Nashville, Tenn.—The southern textile conference met at the state capitol here Monday morning for the purpose of discussing questions dealing with child and female labor in the shops and factories of the south. Delegates are here from Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, Florida, North Carolina, South Carolina and other southern states. The delegates were welcomed by Governor Patterson. The conference will be in session two days.

Six in One Family Dead.

Gloversville, N. Y.—Six members of the family of Solomon Frank, a glove cutter, the father and five daughters were suffocated by smoke when their home was destroyed by fire early Sunday.

Employers' Liability Act.

Paris.—France is about to sign a treaty with Great Britain guaranteeing the subject of one country residing in the other the benefits of the employers' liability.

ENGLISH WARSHIPS TO ASSEMBLE IN NORTH SEA

Mediterranean, Davenport and Portsmouth Fleets Not in It

DREADNAUGHT NOT EITHER

A Great Aggregation of Warships Assembling for Cruise and Practice, More Than One Hundred Powerful.

London.—There is new something in the North Sea and the English channel for the present under the command of Admiral Lord Charles Beresford a fleet of British warships representing an aggregation of naval power surpassing all the immediate available resources of any two other countries of Europe, and yet not a single ship of this fleet has been drawn from the reserves, the Mediterranean fleet or the Devonport and Portsmouth divisions.

The home fleet, which is now assembling, consists merely of those ships maintained in the vicinity of the British Isles and which throughout the year have been engaged in war training. It numbers 110 pennants and is composed of twenty-six battleships, fifteen armored cruisers, several protected cruisers, various auxiliary vessels and forty-eight torpedo vessels. The mighty Dreadnaught is not taking part in the maneuvers, as she is being fitted with a new steering engine.

The first section of the coming naval maneuvers, covering four days, will be of a general description, and the final days will be devoted to studying the problem of defending ships against torpedo attacks. With the "torpedo" fleet attacking the large warships and all the land stations manned, the concluding operations are expected to be most interesting.

Federated Labor Wants to Know.

New York.—The Central Federated Union has received an appeal from President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, which has been sent to all affiliated unions asking them to request all political candidates in the pre-fall campaign to commit themselves openly as to government by injunction. Gompers said the misuse of the power of injunction occurs constantly and is dangerous to the liberty of the people. It was the duty of the labor unions to to investigate all candidates for judicial and legislative offices, so that they can be put on record as to how they stand on the question of government by injunction.

Fifty Miles an Hour Flying Machine.

Bath, N. Y.—Charles Oscar Jones, an exponent of the heavier-than-air theory type of flying machines, made four successful demonstrations of his machine at Hammondsport. Jones' machine depends upon fan shaped sails or wings for stability. It is propelled by a gasoline motor, and is said to have attained a speed of fifty miles an hour.

Mexican Consul Beaten.

El Paso, Tex.—Francisco Millen, consul of Mexico at this place, was attacked and badly beaten on an El Paso street car by Juan Francisco, a deputy constable. This is the third time that Francisco has attacked Millen, whom he blames for having secured the release of a negro who killed a kinsman of Francisco.

Killed Wife and Himself.

Pikesville.—Gen. W. Syrk, a civil war veteran with a brilliant record, is believed to have murdered his young bride of two weeks and then committed suicide at their splendid mansion in Fairview, a suburb of Pikesville, early Monday morning.

John Mitchell in Hospital.

Springfield, Ill.—John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers of America, has entered the hospital at La Salle, Ill., and it is understood that he will submit to an operation for appendicitis in the course of a couple of days, when his condition becomes more favorable.

Condensed Telegrams.

It is reported that congress might investigate the telegraph operators' strike.

Arguments in the Freeman's Union case were heard in the federal court at Cincinnati.

Secretary Root paid his final visit to President Diaz and held a long conference with him.

Secretary Taft has arrived at Hong Kong and received a warm welcome.

President Small of the Telegraphers' Union, has advised local unions to vote on the question of returning to work.

The Hunters of the Missouri naval reserves reached St. Louis, requiring twenty-nine days for the trip from Pensacola.

The hearing of the appeal for the revision of the death sentence imposed on Poo Wai Han is going on at Lolo, Montana.

A practical demonstration of Dr. Gustine Hart's electro-surgical cure for cancer has been given in Paris.

The belief was expressed in Berlin that the transfer of the crown of Anam to Princess would take place without political disorders.

The belief is expressed in financial circles that Secretary Cortelyou will have to come to the relief of the money market at an early date.

George Melville Rerston, of New York, announces that he would head an exploring party to penetrate the center of South America.

Farm and Garden

THE BLUE PEARMAIN APPLE.

This old favorite is found in many farm orchards in New England and New York, in southern Ontario and even as far north as eastern Quebec. The tree is fairly hardy but not robust. It will live where Baldwin is killed out by cold. It is a biennial bearer, and the fruit is among the most beautiful of all apples. The deep purplish red color with large gray dots interspersed, is overlaid with a thick bluish bloom.

The fruit is large, and with this coloration is exceedingly handsome. The flesh is yellow, firm, fairly juicy, but not crisp and crackling. It has a peculiar pearlike flavor which has probably given rise to the name. The flavor is distinctive and unlike most other varieties of apples, and it is this "pearlike" flavor that clings to one's memory.

On account of its somewhat shy bearing habits and the lack of vigor of the tree, it has never become and probably never will become a commercial apple, yet a few trees should be included in every orchard for home use, because this apple is good to eat a late winter when many other kinds have passed away. In Quebec it is often kept "until apples come again." The Pearmains present a group of a number of varieties, of which Blue Pearmain is the most prominent member.—John Craig, in the Country Gentleman.

SHOESTRING BREED OF HOGS.

While traveling recently in Maryland I was very much interested to the work of Miss Mary Smith who raises from 450 to 500 hogs every year, of the Shoestring or Razorback type, and sells her cured products to private customers in eastern cities. The foundation of her herd comes from the genuine razorbacks which twenty years ago were found running wild in the woods of Georgia. Under domestication these hardy hogs have become quiet and now go under the name of "Shoestring." They have long, flat hams and great, fat sides of firm meat. Up to the fattening period, they range in woods or pastures, and they have never been trained to store up fat. Their meat is lean, with here and there streaks of fat; it is firm and sweet and lacks that greasy flavor found in all corn-raised pork. The only care these hogs get is about six weeks before they are killed. The curing is done after an old recipe, and the smoked meats are never sent to customers until it has been in the smokehouse for at least twelve months. The meat is delicious, as I can personally testify, and Miss Smith has no trouble in selling her products of 500 hogs annually.—L. C. Brown, in the Indiana Farmer.

KEEPING MILK CLEAN.

No such conditions exist to-day in the majority of dairy farms. The milk supply of the city, if it comes from afar, must pass through hours of waiting by cross-road, by station, and in train ere it reaches the urban terminal, and when it reaches the door it is likely to be anywhere from 16 to 40 hours old. Only when the greatest care has been taken in starting the milk clean and keeping it throughout at a low temperature, can it arrive without accompanying millions of bacteria. If the milk comes from near at hand, the increasing value of real estate about a city only too often places the dairy farm in some damp, undrained spot. In either case the doctrines of fresh air, cleanliness and sunshine spread slowly through the consciousness of the hired milker, an employee not uncommonly taken from some batch of immigrants just entering upon their first occupation in a new land. So seldom is any cleansing attempted in some of these barns that every movement of the milkers plants the seeds of numerous colonies of bacteria.—Atlantic Monthly.

TESTING SEED WHEAT.

The Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station has just issued circular No. 77, which is devoted to the selection of seed corn. We copy the summary:

Seed corn should be selected in the fall, and before the crop is harvested, in order that the best seed may be secured and properly cared for.

Seed selected from plants where the stand and other environment was normal has given an average yield of 3.22 bushels per acre in excess of seed selected in the ordinary way.

Heavy-weight seed ears have exceeded medium weight ears in yield by 5.9 bushels per acre.

Medium long seed ears have exceeded medium short ears in yield by 4.85 bushels per acre.

Vigor of plant, as shown by ability to stand upright, is hereditary.

Ears growing side by side have shown a variation of from no broken plants to 56 per cent of broken plants.

CARE OF TREES

Some people dislike [illegible] fruit, and would rather have bushels of mouldy [illegible] than one bushel of fine perfect ones. That may be the reason some will not thin out their trees, one might suspect that [illegible] else was the real reason.

Coal tar fresh from the gas works warmed and put on trees [illegible] with a brush, is second to [illegible] tion to the mixture which [illegible] use with great satisfaction. It [illegible] plicity itself, melt [illegible] ons and warm a little [illegible] in another. Pour into a tight [illegible] three parts rain and one part [illegible] cum. Keep warm and apply [illegible] brush. It seals the wounds [illegible] ly until grown over. It does not [illegible] in warm weather nor crack in [illegible] Cuts covered with this preparation three years ago are in good [illegible] today. It costs about [illegible] much as paint.—Indiana Farmer.

IN FEEDING BIRDS.

Some birds fatten easily and become too fat for the best results as breeders where other birds of the same mating will keep in only a breeding condition. Thus [illegible] should be fed separate [illegible] may be kept in proper flesh. [illegible] male birds must be fed apart from the females because of their greater [illegible] tion to allow the females to [illegible] ain with the result that they [illegible] lose flesh and are not in the best breeding condition. As the male [illegible] is half of the pen he must be kept in good condition throughout the season, so that there may be no loss in quality in his chicks.—Farmers Home Journal.

THE MALE OF THE FLOCK.

First, let me say something [illegible] gard to the importance of having a good male bird to head your [illegible] Most of our coming season's success depends upon him. If you do not possess a good bird, don't think it too late to correct your error. Send to some good, reliable breeder for a first-class bird, and one that will fit to head any comparatively large pen of females.—Green's Fruit Grower.

FOR GROWING ALFALFA.

The Indiana experiment station advises sowing alfalfa without a nurse crop. Clean culture of the ground before the alfalfa seed is sown is really all that is needed. The amount of alfalfa seed to sow per acre depends upon the quality of the seed. With 95 per cent pure seed 15 pounds per acre is ample. The thing to do is to find out how much of your seed will grow.—Indiana Farmer.

PICNICS ADVOCATED.

While the rush is on don't forget that everyone on the farm should have a little picnic of some sort after harvest. There is considerable pleasure in planning for it and looking forward to the time. Then, too, one always appreciates a picnic better right after a spell of extra hard work.—Farmer's Call.

CORN FROM A TROUGH.

Shelled corn will fed [illegible] readily if placed in a trough instead of on the ground. Of course a hungry pig will dig most of the grain out of the dirt but he will eat a good deal of the latter in the process and that is not fattening.

FARM NOTES.

Make every acre pay [illegible] or sell it.—American Cultivator.

You can't get rid of [illegible] by plowing under the plants [illegible] ripe seed. These seed have many persistent germs and will [illegible] after four or five years.

Money makes money [illegible] ers more stock. Be sure that the [illegible] ital stock is well bred.

Pet the cows. Give them a [illegible] sugar with salt at first, then a [illegible] of sugar now and then. Sugar will make a wild heifer gentle.

If you buy a new cow, give her sugar, and she will not try to [illegible] away.

Do not let any extra [illegible] work interfere with the regular [illegible] ing hour.

If not milked in a reasonable time the cow refuses to give down her milk.

The habit of holding up the milk can easily be formed by [illegible] ment.

If the cow is made to feel comfortable and happy, she will [illegible] milk out to the last drop.

Don't put a calf in a pen by [illegible] animals suffer from loneliness.

As a result for ending [illegible] high as $2.73 per cent, of [illegible] has been obtained from [illegible] trees at the Missouri Fruit [illegible] ment Station. Trees not sprayed [illegible] more than double the amount of wormy apples as compared with [illegible] which had been sprayed.

CLAIMS UNION TO HAVE AGENTS IN EUROPE

Purchase of Cotton Direct from Spinners

NEW ERA PERFECTED

Farmers' Union Will Locate an Agent in Each Commercial Town of the Cotton Others Will Be Sought.

Memphis, Tenn.—Immediate and practical results of the international meeting of cotton growers and spinners which closed Wednesday, developed in the conference held by the executive committee of the Farmers' Educational and Cooperative Union and H. W. Hardeman, of Manchester, England, one of the largest cotton spinners in Lancashire, who came here with the Europeans to the last conference. The object of the conference was to [illegible] and to speedily [illegible] some terms whereby the [illegible] of the Farmers' Union could [illegible] with the European [illegible] was stated by the union's officers [illegible] already the union has [illegible] an agent in England [illegible] and another had been established in [illegible] and that this office will [illegible] the European agent of all the [illegible] ready for sale.

Mr. Hardeman guaranteed that [illegible] offered would be bought [illegible] however, that the cotton of [illegible] by the union must conform with [illegible] sold, and that the [illegible] concerning must be in accord [illegible] with the terms adopted by the [illegible]. This was agreed to.

HELD FOR LARCENY.

Harriet Madison Charged With Selling Goods Under False Pretenses.

New York.—Mrs. Mary Ann Pepper-Vandebilt, the spiritualist medium, [illegible] was formally placed under arrest on a charge of grand larceny. The charge is the outgrowth of the recent proceedings brought by relatives of Edward Vanderbilt after he had married Mrs. Pepper as a result of which he was declared incompetent to manage his affairs.

It is charged that Mrs. Pepper-Vandebilt obtained Mr Vanderbilt's house [illegible] let in Brooklyn under false pretenses. Mrs. Pepper-Vanderbilt went to the office of the district attorney [illegible] surrendered herself. Before she could be arraigned in court her counsel appeared with a writ of habeas corpus [illegible] and the was released on $1,000 [illegible].

MRS. CHADWICK IS DEAD.

Died Away in the Ohio Penitentiary Without Friends.

Columbus, O.—Mrs. Cassie Chadwick, who, pleading financial irresponsibility in the wrecking of Cleveland's bank, died in the woman's ward of the Ohio penitentiary. She had been in a comatose condition for [illegible] hours previous to her death, and died [illegible] peacefully.

[illegible] or relatives waited at her bedside, only the prison physician and [illegible] attendants being present. Her husband, Dr. Hoover, had been summoned from Cleveland, but had not arrived.

Only One Man Saved.

Marie, Mich.—The steamer Cyprus, owned by the Lake Transportation Company, and which ran aground into down the lakes [illegible] a storm of one was wrecked Friday night in Lake Superior off Deer [illegible] thirty miles from Grand Marais. Of the crew of twenty-two only the second mate, were lost. One washed ashore near Deer [illegible] clung to a life raft and barely [illegible]. He is in a critical condition [illegible] has been able to tell [illegible] that the steamer was the Cyprus and that he is the sole survivor.

Price of Bread Over a Nickle.

New York.—For the first time with [illegible] members of New Yorkers bread [illegible] will sell for more than five cents a loaf. This was practically decided upon as a result of another [illegible] advance in the price of [illegible] with a corresponding rise in flour [illegible] this winter will cost the [illegible] $7 a barrel. Bakers declare [illegible] cannot shorten the loaf because [illegible] statute making it an offense to [illegible] below a minimum weight [illegible] only recourse now is to raise the [illegible].

Cholera in Japan.

Tokio.—The cholera outbreak is [illegible] alarming proportions in Tokio [illegible] new cases have been reported [illegible]. The municipality has issued [illegible] most urgent instructions regarding the means to be employed to [illegible] the spread and overcoming the [illegible]. Tokio is regarded as partic[illegible] by [illegible] on account of the [illegible] population and the crowding [illegible] the lower classes.

Nine and Two Sons Drowned.

Nashville, Tenn.—A "possum hunt [illegible] the lives of three people in Nashville. Thomas T. Warmack, aged [illegible] and his two sons, Arch and Robert [illegible] 13 and 11, respectively, were the victims. These, with Gus Follis, attempted to cross Cumberland river in a skiff. The canoe was capsized and the Follis were drowned. The [illegible] after vainly attempting to rescue his companions, saved his own life by swimming to the bank.

...nd Garden

...PPLE

...n many ...rd and ...to and ...Quebec ... not ro... ...dwin is ...ddenhil ...ong The ... The ...h large ...overland ...th this ...ndsome ...y juicy ... It has ...ich has ...ne The ...ke most ...d it is ...ings to ...hat shy ...of vigor ...me and ...a com... ...hould be ...me use, ...to eat ...er kinds ...ee it is ...again ... ...group of ...ch blue ...nt mem... ...Country ...HOGS ...n Mary... ...sted in ...ith who ...s every ...rorback ...products ...n cities. ...comes ...s which ...running ...Under ...gs have ...nder the ...y have ...at sides ...fattening ... or pas... ...er been ...eir meat ...streaks ...nd lacks ...all corn... ...e these ...s before ...is done ...smoked ...stomers ...e smoke... ...months. ...can per... ...mith has ...oducts of ...rown, ...in ...AN ...to-day in ...ns. The ...It comes ...gh hours ...station, ...he urban ...ches the ...anywhere ...ly when ...taken in ...ke ping ...perature, ...mpany ng ...the mill's ...e increas... ...ut a cit... ...ry farm ...spot. In ...fresh air, ...oad slow... ...s of the ... not un... ...batch of ...on the r... ...land. So ...mpted in... ...ry move... ...the seeds ...cteria.—

CARE OF THEIR.

Some people dislike to hoe fruit, and would rather have bushels of measly, wormeaten than one bushel of fine, perfect mens. That may be the reason some will not thin out their fruit, one might suspect that something else was the real reason.

Coal tar fresh from the gas warmed and put on fresh tree with a brush, is second in our tion to the mixture which we use with great satisfaction. It is plicity itself, melt resin in one oil and warm a little crude petr in another. Pour into a thin three parts resin and one part eum. Keep warm and apply with brush. It seals the wounds ef ly until grown over. It does not in warm weather nor crack in Cuts covered with this prepara three years ago are in good con today. It costs about one-quarter much as paint.—Indiana Farmer.

IN FEEDING BIRDS.

Some birds fatten easily and become too fat for the best as breeders where other birds in same mating will keep in only breeding condition. Such should be fed separate; so that may be kept in proper flesh. male birds must be fed apart the females because of their tion to allow the females to have all, with the result that they lose flesh and are not in the breeding condition. As the male is half of the pen he must be in good condition throughout the son, so that there may be no loss quality in his chicks.—Farmers Journal.

THE MALE OF THE FLOCK.

First, let me say something in gard to the importance of having good male bird to head your flock. Most of our coming season's depends upon him. If you do possess a good bird, don't think it too late to correct your error, send to some good, reliable for a first-class bird, and one that fit to head any comparatively pen of females.—Green's Fruit Grower.

FOR GROWING ALFALFA.

The Indiana experiment station vises sowing alfalfa without a crop. Clean culture of the ground before the alfalfa seed is sown, really all that is needed. The of alfalfa seed to sow per acre pends upon the quality of the With 95 per cent pure seed, 15 per acre is ample. The thing to is to find out how much of seed will grow.—Indiana Farmer.

PICNICS ADVOCATED.

While the rush is on don't that everyone on the farm have a little picnic of some sort harvest. There is considerable pleasure in planning for it and ing forward to the time. Then, one always appreciates a picnic ter right after a spell of extra work.—Farmer's Call.

CORN FROM A TROUGH.

Shelled corn will fed more economically if placed in a trough instead on the ground. Of course a hungry pig will dig most of the grains of the dirt but he will eat a great deal of the latter in the process and that is not fattening.

FARM NOTES.

Make every acre pay its own taxes or sell it.—American Cultivator.

You can't get rid of cockleburs by plowing under the plants containing ripe seed. These seed have most persistent germs and will bob up after four or five years.

Money makes money; stock produces more stock. Be sure that the original stock is well bred.

Pet the cows. Give them a little sugar with salt at first, then a lump of sugar now and then. Sugar will make a wild heifer gentle.

If you buy a new cow, give her sugar, and she will not try to break away.

Do not let any extra rush in farm work interfere with the regular milking hour.

If not milked in a reasonable time the cow refuses to give down her milk.

The habit of holding up the milk can easily be formed by harsh treatment.

If the cow is made to feel comfortable and happy, she will pour the milk out to the last drop.

Don't put a calf in a pen by itself; animals suffer from loneliness.

As a result for codling moth, as high as 92.72 per cent, of sound fruit has been obtained from sprayed trees at the Missouri Fruit Experiment Station. Trees not sprayed had more than double the amount of wormy apples as compared with those which had been sprayed.

...S' UNION TO ...AVE AG...RTS IN EUROPE

...pose of Cotton Direct ... Spinners

... KO'D PERFECTED

... Farmers' Union Will Locate an ... in Europe—Guaranteed That ... the Cotton Offered Will Be ...

...ta, Ga.—Immediate and practi... of the international center ... of cotton growers and spinners, ... closed Wednesday, developed in ...ference held by the executive ... of the Farmers' Educational and ...operative Union and H. W. McAllis... of Manchester, England, one of the ... experts on spinnable grades of ... who came here with the Euro... delegation to the late conference ... object of the conference was to ... and as speedily as possible ... upon terms whereby the grow... of the Farmers' Union could deal ... with the European consumers. ... stated by the union's officers ... already the union had arranged to ... an agent in England; that a ... agency had been established in ... and that this office will be ... Europe an agent of all the cot... ready for sale.

McAllister guaranteed that all ... offered would be bought. He ... however, that the cotton of... by the union must conform with ... grades sold and that the bales ... must be in accord ... the terms adopted by the ... This was agreed to.

... HELD FOR LARCENY.

...rchist Medium Charged With Se... ...g Goods Under False Pretense.

... York.—Mrs. Mary Ann Pepper... ...rchist, the spiritualist medium, ... formally placed under arrest on a ... of grand larceny. The charge ... outgrowth of the recent proceed... ... brought by relatives of Edward ...derbilt after he had married Mrs ... as a result of which he was de... ... incompetent to manage his af...

... is charged that Mrs. Pepper-Van... ... obtained Mr Vanderbilt's house ... in Brooklyn under false pre... ... Mrs. Pepper-Vanderbilt went ... the office of the district attorney ... surrendered herself. Before she ... be arraigned in court her coun... ...peared with a writ of habeas cor... ...and she was released on $1,000

...RS. CHADWICK IS DEAD.

...d Away in the Ohio Penitentiary ... Without Friends.

...mbus O.—Mrs. Cassie Chad... ...ose amazing financial transac... ...ebrated in the wrecking of ... bank, died in the woman's ... at the Ohio penitentiary. She ... in a comatose condition for ... hours previous to her death, and ...d came peacefully.

... relatives waited at her ... with the prison physician and ... attendants being present. Her ... Dell Hoover, had been summoned ... Cleveland, but had not arrived.

Only One Man Saved.

...lt Ste. Marie, Mich.—The steel ... Cypress, owned by the Lack... ... Transportation Company, and ... second trip down the lakes ... cargo of ore, was wrecked Fri... ...ght in Lake Superior, off Dee... ...thirty miles from Grand Marais ... of the crew of twenty-two, ex... ... the second mate, were lost. ... was washed ashore near Dee... ...lashed to a life raft and barely ... He is in a critical condition ... has been able to tell ... that the steamer was the Cy... ...and that he is the sole survivor.

...ice of Bread Over a Nickle.

...w York.—For the first time with... ... members of New Yorkers bread ... winter will sell for more than ... a loaf. This was practically de... ...ded upon as a result of another ... advance in the price of ... with consequent rise in flour. ... latter this winter will cost the ... a barrel. Bakers declare ... cannot shorten the loaf because ... statute making it an offense to ... below a minimum weight ... only recourse now is to raise the ...

Cholera in Japan.

...Tokio.—The cholera outbreak is ... alarming proportions in Tokio ... new cases have been report... ...ently. The municipality has is... ... most urgent instructions re... ... the means to be employed to ... its spread and cautioning the ... Tokio is regarded as partic... ...dangerous on account of the ... population and the crowding ... the lower classes.

...ife and Two Sons Drowned.

...ville, Tenn.—A 'possum hunt ... the lives of three people in Nash... Thomas J. Warnack, aged 40, ... two sons, Arch and Robert ... and 11 respectively, were the ... These with Gus Follis, at... ...to cross Cumberland river in ... The canoe was capsized and ... Follis were drowned. The ... after vainly attempting to res... ...his companions, saved his own ... by swimming to the bank.

GOVT WANT AN INCREASE.

Out Door Want Parcel Post and Postal Savings Bank.

Washington, D. C.—When Postmaster-General George Von L. Meyer appeared before the members of the Pub... ...Affairs of Thirty-First Congress at the Willard Hotel where he was a guest at their banquet, that he would recommend no increase in the rates of postage and would, by contract, ... responsible effort. Both the morning and afternoon sessions of the convention of the federation, which opened here Thursday, the problem regarding the policy the executive department would adopt in dealing with this class of mail was optimist.

"Among the many interesting questions to be solved in connection with the postal system of the United States is the extension of the parcels post at a reduction of 4 cents a pound, and an increase in weight from four to eleven pounds," he declared.

"The postoffice department is not a money-making concern," he continued. "It does not have to render a cash dividend to its patrons, but it does desire to render the best dividend to the people of the United States by its service and in that way as much satisfaction as possible.

"That a great deal of hidden money may be brought to light and that those who are in out-of-the-way places may have the opportunity of depositing their earnings, I propose to recommend the establishment of postal savings banks, which I prophecy will result in increasing economy and thrift. I intend to ask for authority to place with national banks the deposits which are made in these postal savings banks and in that way lend this stagnant and hoarded money into the channels of trade for the mutual benefit of labor and capital."

LINDSAY AGAIN CARRIERS' HEAD.

Georgia Man Is Re-Elected President by the Convention.

Atlanta, Ga.—At noon Friday the National Association of Rural Letter Carriers' convention adjourned finally, after its most successful annual meeting.

The following officers were elected:

Paul Lindsay, Georgia, president.

H. E. Crum, Michigan, vice president.

P. E. Cull, Delaware, secretary.

J. D. Williams, Pennsylvania, treasurer.

The final session of the convention was called to order at 9 o'clock. Consideration of the constitution and by-laws was taken up and adopted with but few changes.

The salaries of the officers remain the same.

The association increased the per capita tax from 50 cents to $1 annually, the fund to be devoted to a permanent treasury account.

They are to meet in Omaha, Neb., next year.

WILL CONVOKE PARLIAMENT.

France Will Give Relief to the Flooded Districts.

Rambouillet, France.—At a meeting of the cabinet held here, President Fallieres presiding, it was decided to convoke parliament October 22. It was also decided to immediately furnish financial relief to the flooded districts of France.

During the night the rain ceased falling in most of the flooded regions and the waters of the Rhone, Lorre and Marne rivers are generally stationary or falling, but the Lorre has reached the highest stage since 1866. The lower quarters of the city of Rosane and all the cities below the junction of the Lorre with the Rhone are inundated. Large numbers of cattle have been drowned, wreckage of every description is floating about, farmers are imprisoned in their houses by the floods and many lives have been lost.

Four Drowned.

New York.—Four young men were drowned and three others, all from good families, were so badly burned in the explosion of a gasoline launch on Raritan Bay that they may die. For three hours after the explosion the three survivors clung to the rail of the launch and fought off the flaming gasoline which surrounded them in the water.

Aged Man Registers.

New York.—Among the visitors registering in the East Side Ghetto is Simon Harris, who gave his age as 104 years. The old man registered and went to and from the office without assistance.

Three Killed in Georgia Wreck.

Macon, Ga.—Engineer Avery, Conductor Allen and a negro fireman named Howard, of the Central railroad, were killed at Reynolds, Ga., by the explosion of the boiler of a freight engine. The explosion was so complete that the depot at Reynolds was demolished and the dead men were thrown many feet. Engineer Avery and Conductor Allen were both residents of Macon, and have families living in this city.

Die at the Same Moment.

Berlin.—Adl.-Gen. Adolf Von Deimling died under very sad circumstances. The general, who has been bedridden for some time past, suffered from a severe attack in the course of the night, and his attendants called the general's wife, who, seeing him apparently suffocating, shrieked: "The general is dying; so am I!" As she uttered the last words Frau Von Deimling fell dead at her husband's bedside.

ALABAMA NEWS

Million and a Half for Cotton.

In a statement of the money to be given the cotton of the state Superintendent of Education H. C. Hanson states the amount, during the year of delivery by counties and the amounts to each general school. The total amount for the schools is $1,551,207.27. School districts get $71,555, dividing as follows: Florence, Jacksonville, Livingston and Troy, $15,000 each; Montgomery, $7,500; Normal, $4,000; Tuskegee, $2,000. The centennial fund gets $1,000, and $600 goes to Wilcox county by a special act. The appropriation is 703,534 for the state, which gives a per capita for school purposes of $2.67, as compared to $2.55 last year.

Visited by Foreign Spinners.

The party of 125 foreign cotton spinners, representing almost every country of Europe, who recently attended the international conference of cotton growers and spinners at Atlanta, spent Thursday in the Birmingham district. The special train of ten coaches was met by a committee of the commercial and industrial clubs of the city and the visitors were shown the cotton gins and warehouses of the city. At 2:30 o'clock the party was entertained with a luncheon at the Hillman Hotel. They left late in the afternoon for Columbus, Miss., on a continuation of their southern tour.

Way to Catch "Blind Tigers"

J. S. Cates, sheriff of Shelby county, was in Birmingham Wednesday looking over the records of the Alabama collector of internal revenue, to see if any government liquor licenses had been issued to citizens of his county. He found none. Under the new Alabama law the sheriff of each county is required to publish, at stated intervals, the names of all those having government licenses to sell liquor. If it is prohibition territory the possession of such license must be explained, as it is prima facie evidence that the possessor operates a "blind tiger."

Two Women Badly Hurt.

Mrs. J. W. Chastain and her sister, Mrs. F. J. Deboney, of Kansas City, were thrown from a buggy in Montgomery and both badly hurt. Mrs. Deboney has one leg broken so badly that it may have to come off, and Mrs. Chastain has a hip dislocated and other injuries. The ladies were at the Buffalo Bill show grounds when their buggy was run into by another runaway.

Nineteen-Year-Old Girl Goes to Egypt.

Miss Ellaway Hurst addressed a large congregation in Oneonta at the Cumberland Presbyterian church on Wednesday night, using as her text these words: "Casting all your care upon Him for He careth for you." The congregation was perfect attention to the 19-year-old girl. She spends a few more days in Blount county, when she will leave for Africa, where she will enter the missionary work.

New Life Insurance Company.

The Alabama National Life Insurance Company was organized in Birmingham Wednesday with a capital of $400,000, of which $198,000 has been paid up. A. D Smith, of Birmingham, is president, and E F. Enslen treasurer. The directorate includes wealthy men in Mobile, Marion, Birmingham and other Alabama cities.

An Educational Rally.

Educational Day was celebrated on Thursday afternoon at Florence by the Southern Literary Association at the library rooms. The program consisted of addresses by Prof. D. S. Burleson, of the State Normal College, County Superintendent of Education James F. Koonce and Prof. J. B. Lockhart, of the city schools.

Woman Suicides.

Mrs. Margaret McCarty, wife of a respected machinist of Montgomery, strangled herself to death in a cell at police headquarters by means of the strings of her apron. She is supposed to have been crazed by grief over the loss of her 11-year-old son, who had run away from home.

Fell Twenty Feet; Fractured Skull.

George W. Tumlin fell from the Third avenue steps of the court house in Birmingham, and his skull struck the curbing twenty feet below. He seems to have had a sudden fainting spell as he was ascending the steps.

Promoting Cantaloupe Growing.

The Cantaloupe Association of Madison county held a meeting and received a proposition from a produce firm in Pittsburg, Pa., for the entire product of the association. The firm will send a man here to grade the melons and prepare them for shipment. The association expects to have from four to five hundred acres planted in cantaloupes next season, and with the entire product sold in advance.

Fund is Exhausted.

The fund for the building and repairing of rural school houses has been exhausted almost for this year, and no more money will be available for this year. So far there has been a school sided or built in the country for each day of the law's life.

Phil H. Avery, of Auburn, has been appointed a member of the soil survey of the state. He will join the rest of the force in South Alabama.

Fleeting Fancy of One.

The mill which is today heard at Kellyton, Coosa county, is the result of all the fuss, there is a little over 200 feet. In sinking the depth the gold has passed through several small pockets of coarse ore. When these pockets were touched the natural gas came rushing up through the pipe with a great noise. In each instance a match was applied and gas blazed up several feet. The deeper the well is bored the more tremendous becomes the residence of that section of Wilcox county. All are sure that oil will be found and that the well will prove a gusher. The holdings which was given at McWilliams in celebration of the drilling of the first well in search for oil was a great success. Several hundred persons were fed, and all who attended the barbecue from Selma report the day as having been a most enjoyable one.

Glazing Mill Blew Up.

The glazing mill of the Jefferson Powder Company, near North Birmingham, blew up. The shock was distinctly felt in Birmingham, and throughout the district. Had the accident occurred in the day time there is no telling how many lives might have been lost. As it was, the night watchman, a man named McDonald, had a narrow escape from death. He left the glazing mills only a few minutes before it was blown into atoms. He was the only person about the place and can give no explanation of the accident.

Policemen Are Suspended.

All policemen in the employ of Huntsville except those that have been regularly elected by the city council have been laid off, causing the greatest shake-up in the force in a number of years. All of the older men are now back in their places. The order for the changes was made by Mayor Smith, who stated that it was done as a matter of economy and nothing else.

Cotton Seed Agreement.

An end has come to the cotton seed war which has been waged in the section around Selma for several weeks by the cotton seed oil mills. During these weeks cotton seed has advanced steadily till of late the seed brings $22 a ton. An agreement has been reached between the mills, and hereafter seed will only bring $14 a ton.

Bad Negro Caught.

According to a message from the chief of police at Chattanooga, Claude Acklin, a negro, who is known under several aliases, has been captured there, and is being held for the authorities at Huntsville. Acklin is wanted for assault with intent to murder. He cut the throat of a woman who was living with him and then escaped.

Bank Incorporated.

Articles of incorporation of the Gaylesville bank were filed in the office of the probate judge at Centre, Ala. The capital stock is $12,500, which has all been paid in. A. B. Russell is president; J. Robert Henderson, vice-president, and Webb Chesnut, cashier, all prominent business men of Gaylesville.

Jumped From Buggy and Killed.

Miss Rosie Cooper was killed almost instantly at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon, when, after she could no longer control the horse she was driving, she tried to leap safely from the buggy, and instead fell among her head. She lived but a few minutes after the accident. This occurred at Centreville.

Dothan's New Bank.

The prosperity of the metropolis of the wire grass, Dothan, in Houston county, is indicated in the letting of a contract for a building to cost $65,000. Austell & Blount have just been plans for such a structure for the First National Bank. Contracts will soon be let. The building will be of Georgia marble, one story, with fireproof construction.

Gets $300 From Western Union.

W. L. Halsey, a wholesale grocery-man of Huntsville, has secured a judgment for $300 against the Western Union Telegraph Company for the delay of a telegram which, according to the claim of Mr. Halsey, caused the commission to lose the amount of money sued for.

Pardonage Destroyed.

Fire destroyed the First Baptist church parsonage at Gadsden, causing a loss estimated at $2,000. The blaze originated from a defective flue and before it could be put out the entire building was in ruins. A call was turned in to the fire department, but when the engine arrived it was found to be defective and could not be used until after the building had been destroyed. The building was covered by insurance and will be rebuilt.

Old Alabamian.

Col. R. W. Burks, of Peoria, was in Montgomery this week. He is 81 years of age and one of the few remaining members of the secession convention. He represented what was then Pike county, but now Bullock, wherein he lived for sixty years.

On or about November 1 the Planters' and Merchants' Bank, a new financial institution, will open its doors for business in Brundidge.

LYNCH NEGRO WHO SHOT POLICEMAN

Mob Battered Its Way Into Jail at Cumberland, Md.

OFFICERS THOUGHT THREAT IDLE

Members of His Own Race Help in the Lynching of William Burns, Colored—Shot and Kicked to Death.

Cumberland, Md.—William Burns, a negro, who shot Policeman Arrest Baker, causing his death, was taken from jail here by an infuriated mob and kicked and shot to death.

As there had never before been a lynching here the authorities paid no attention to threats of lynching in this case, and when a mob of fifty men approached the jail early they found only one deputy sheriff, Adam Hendley, to contend them. When he refused to give up the keys they battered the door in with a telegraph pole.

Burns shot the policeman to prevent being arrested, and the latter's death was followed by threats against the negro, they coming as much from those of his own race as from the whites.

When the mob broke into the jail other prisoners than Burns, who were in neighboring cells, were careful to guide the lynchers to that of Burns, and have again the battering ram was used. The lynchers found their victim crouched behind his cot, and seizing him by the feet dragged him up and down stairs and into the street, where within a few yards of the entrance to the jail he was killed.

The Rev. W. Cleveland Hicks, an Episcopal clergyman, did his best to save the negro, and afterward protected the body until the arrival on the scene of Judge A. Hunter Boyd and the police. Judge Boyd called upon the crowd to disperse and was promptly obeyed. The body was removed to an undertaking establishment, and 10,000 persons are estimated to have viewed it.

26 MEN BURIED IN HOT METAL.

Four Blowmen Dead and Twenty Dying When 5000 Tons Explode.

Butler, Pa.—An explosion caused by the upsetting of the metal pot in the No. 1 open'a of the Standard Steel Company here resulted in the death of four men, fatally injuring twenty and seriously injuring ten others. Almost all the men were foreigners. The large wheel plant, 150 by 100 feet, was demolished, causing a loss estimated at $100,000.

The condition of the thirty men injured is pitiable. Although still alive, the features of most of them are mutilated beyond recognition. The hot metal was showered over them, causing horrible injuries. Arms, fingers and ears were torn off, while many of the men lost their eyes. At midnight the physicians attending the injured said at least twenty would die.

Buildings in the city, from the force of the explosion, shivered as if shaken by an earthquake, and thousands rushed from their homes panic stricken.

ROWLANDS FREED.

Jury Finds Doctor and Wife Didn't Poison the First Husband.

Raleigh, N. C.—Dr. and Mrs. David Rowland were acquitted of the charge of murdering Mrs. Rowland's first husband, Charles E. Strange. The jury in the Superior Court had been given the case at midnight, and was out nearly two hours.

The crowd at court cheered the verdict. The couple were driven to Rowland's office, where another demonstration took place. Friends crowded in to congratulate them, and a wagonload of flowers was sent in. The doctor will resume his practice.

The prosecution was brought about largely by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. When Charles E. Strange, a member, died suddenly, his fellow-workers declared his wife and Dr. Rowland had been meeting clandestinely and wished to get rid of Strange so as to marry.

INCREASE IN EARNINGS.

Gain Shown by Ohio Railroads Despite Two-Cent Fare Law.

Columbus, Ohio.—The reports of thirty-nine railroads operating in Ohio, just submitted to the State Railway Commission, show that the two-cent passenger fare law has in the main operated to the railroads' advantage.

The reports for the fiscal year ended on June 30, 1907, show an aggregate net gain on passenger receipts for those roads of $1,232,212, compared with earnings for 1906, which year included three months' operation under the two-cent fare.

Only ten of the thirty-nine lines reporting show a decrease in passenger earnings, and this aggregates only $55,645.

Mrs. Mary J. Holmes Dead.

Mrs. Mary J. Holmes, well known authoress and contributor to many magazines, died at her home in Brockport, Monroe County, N. Y. Mrs. Holmes had been visiting near her birthplace, at Brookfield, Mass., and was taken ill at Albany on her way home.

CITY RAISE FOOD PRICES.

Maximum Scale Fixed by the Authorities in Rome.

Rome.—Italy is also complaining of the high costs of living, and the authorities are about to step in and attempt to regulate prices. In this city the retail prices of all provisions are so high that a commission has been appointed to fix a scale of maximum prices, above which it will be forbidden to sell provisions, under penalty of closing the stores where such sales are made.

TO STOP FLOOD OF JAPS CROSSING BORDERS

Alarming Increase Prompts Government to Action.

ALL COOLIES WILL BE BARRED

Secretary of the Interior Believes That Patrol Guard System Will Prevent Entrance of Asiatics From Canada or Mexico.

Washington, D. C.—Immigration of Japanese into America is increasing at so alarming a rate that it has been determined by the Government to adopt extraordinary measures to prevent the introduction into the United States, not only of Japanese, but of other Asiatic coolie laborers.

One result of the trip of Secretary Straus, of the Department of Commerce and Labor, along the Canadian border, and the Pacific coast, has been an order increasing the force of immigration inspectors along the Canadian border, with a view to controlling if possible the flood of Asiatic immigration to America.

Official figures of the immigration of Japanese into America are not available, because Secretary Straus declines at this time to make them public, but it is known that more than double the number of Japanese have come into the United States thus far in the year 1907 than during the same period last year.

These figures of the Government do not include the hundreds of Japanese who have come into the country surreptitiously. They have come across the Canadian and Mexican borders, practically without hindrance, despite the regulations.

The Government of Japan does not issue passports to laborers for America. It does, however, issue passports to them for the Hawaiian Islands and Canada. Once in the Hawaiian Islands they take passage either to Mexico or to Canada, and their way across the border into this country from either country is easy.

They take train from Mexico to Canada through the United States. The railroads are not bonded, as they are in the case of Chinese steamers, to deliver them at a specified destination. The result is that the Japanese leave the train at any point in the United States they may choose. They disappear, and it practically is impossible to find them.

For many months the Government has had immigration inspectors in Mexico and Canada making investigations respecting the coming to America of Asiatic laborers, especially Japanese. In practically every instance the inspectors have reported that the Japanese who reach Mexico or Canada are bound for the United States.

Inquiries in the Hawaiian Islands have revealed organizations whose business it is to procure Japanese laborers for work in the United States. They not only provide the means, but prescribe the way by which Japanese easily may obtain entrance into this country.

It is this sort of proposition the Government proposes to combat. In the appointment of what practically constitutes a patrol guard of the northern and southern borders of the country, Secretary Straus hopes to reduce the number of Asiatics—Japanese, Chinese and Hindus—who daily are coming across the borders in great and increasing numbers.

HINDUS FIND NO ABIDING PLACES

Spokane, Wash.—Driven back and forth from pillar to post across the Canadian boundary, first into the State of Washington and then back into British Columbia, the several thousand Hindus dumped upon this unfriendly shore are objects of pity as they wander about seeking employment to earn enough to keep body and soul together.

When driven out of Bellingham and other Puget Sound towns the band of Hindus thought they might take refuge in British Columbia, but they have found no permanent haven there. That Government is said to be secretly turning them back into the United States. The present plan seems to be to send the foreigners east over the Canadian Pacific road to different points north of here and then run them across the line into Washington, Idaho and Montana.

Chief of Police Rice says the manner of the Hindus' coming is a mystery, and as none has been found who can speak a word of English nothing can be gleaned from them.

Where the Hindus live here is also unknown to the police. It is known they stow at no lodging house in the town. They are seen wandering aimlessly about the streets every day, and nobody seems inclined to give them employment, though they will work for anything offered to them.

The Oregon Railroad and Navigation Company employed several of the Hindus on section work, but soon discovered them, declaring they were worthless for that purpose.

Spanish General a Suicide.

The Carlist General, Marquis de Valdearia, who was an aide to Don Carlos, the Spanish pretender, committed suicide at Madrid.

Clerical Separation in Algeria.

An administrative decree providing for the separation of Church and State in Algeria was issued at Paris.

HEARST TICKET IS UPHELD.

Judicial Candidates McDonough and Lyon to Be Named on Ballot.

Albany, N. Y.—Secretary of State Whalen decided that the names of John T. McDonough, of Albany, and Reuben Robbs Lyon, of Bath, the Independence League nominees for Judges of the Court of Appeals, have been properly certified to him by the Independence League State Convention and their names will be printed upon the official ballot.

The Banner.

Entered at the postoffice at Clanton, Ala., as second class mail matter.

"There shall the press the people's rights maintain,
Unawed by influence and unbribed by gain,
There patriot truth her glorious precepts draw
Diffuse to religion, liberty and law."

Subscription, yearly . . . $1.00
Invariably in advance.

Address all communications to THE BANNER, Clanton, Ala.

THIS is our sixteenth birthday.

HORACE HOOD, Editor of the Montgomery Journal, has been appointed by Gov. Comer, Sheriff of Montgomery county, to fill out the unexpired term of the late S. S. Belser. This is a pleasing appointment to the newspaper men of Alabama, who are proud that one of their number should be appointed to the important office. Mr. Hood has been a newspaper man all his life, is heartily well liked by all who know him, who also recognize that he will make an excellent officer. We congratulate him upon the appointment, and also Gov. Comer for his selection of an estimable gentleman.

Out of Sight.

"Out of sight, out of mind," is an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's out of sight, out of mind and out of existence. Piles too, and chilblains disappear under its healing influence. Guaranteed by Upchurch Drug Co. 25c.

From 25 to 30 dead and dying, one hundred persons injured and every house in Fontanet destroyed rendering 700 people homeless, is the result of an explosion in the mills of the Dupont Powder Company near Fontanet, Ind., Tuesday.

The first explosion occured in the glazing mill of the plant at 9:15. Quickly following to the other mills blew up, there being three distinct concussionals at intervals of a few minutes.

In the mills at the time were from 75 to 80 at work. When the glazing mill went up the men ran for their lives from the other mills and many thus escaped death but received serious injuries.

At the first explosion the inhabitants of the town ran from all buildings and thus saved themselves. No one was killed in the town, although there is not a building left standing.

At 10:45, ninety minutes after first explosion the heat from the burning mills exploded the great powder magazine situated in a hollow several hundred yards from the mills. It contained many thousand kegs of powder and the concussion was even greater than that from the explosions in the mills.

Among those injured from the magazine explosion were several physicians who were at work among the dead and dying.

A freight train standing on the switch leading to the powder mills was partly destroyed by the concussion and took fire. The heat from the burning mills and freight train was so great that it was impossible to remove many of the bodies from the wreckage.

Eighteen mangled bodies were taken to the morgue to await identification. Injured were found scattered everywhere and were collected and relief given as quickly as possible.

Not a house is left standing in the town. Fronts, roofs, sides and even foundations of many buildings have been blown to atoms. Great holes are torn in the ground, fences have vanished and household goods from the ruined homes are confused heaps of debris in all directions.

NAPOLEON BONAPARTE

showed, at the battle of Austerlitz, he was the greatest leader in the world. Ballard's Snow Liniment has shown the public it is the best Liniment in the world. A quick cure for Rheumatism, Sprains, Burns, Cuts, etc. A. C. Pitts, Rodessa, La., says: "I use Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family and find it unexcelled for sore chest, headache, corns, in fact for anything that can be reached by a liniment." Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Maplesville

Dear Banner—I must attempt, according to promise, to write up the recent happening of importance in Maplesville, but words fail me, though I would say that Rev. B. O. Y Ray, the Baptist state evangelist began a tent meeting here last Saturday night a week ago, which resulted in great things for Maplesville; the meeting lasting until today noon. The Baptists, since he came here, have organized a Baptist church consisting of 110 members; 68 by letters and 42 by experience and baptism. They have secured a very desirable lot, well located, on which to build a house of worship, and about seventeen hundred dollars raised with which to begin as a starter, so as to have one of as nice houses as our county affords. They gave the evangelist about $125 for his services; elected a pastor, Rev. J. W. Mitchell, at a salary of $350 for one Sunday in each month; paid Bro. Clint Veasey a nice little sum for his services as leader leader of the choir, also paid the freight on the tent from somewhere about Birmingham, seventeen dollars. So you see as I predicted, there were some good things in Maplesville. Rev. J. W. Mitchell was largely instrumental in bringing about these results, and then the Lord was ready with a time of refreshing for us also. I must say that I have attended many protracted meetings, for I am now seventy-three years old, but have never seen anything equal to it. It was estimated that the tent would seat six or seven hundred persons and it was full to overflowing most every service. Services being held morning and night. Bro. Ray seems to be the right man in the right place, for it seems that the Lord is blessing him in his work. I never saw a more attentive congregation or more interest manifested by the whole people than I witnessed right here, and I believe the good done will be permanent, as the Lord never does things by halves. I want to say the results achieved in the meeting were largely from gospel truth deduced from the word of God fulfilling, "My word shall not return unto me void, but shall accomplish that whereunto I sent it," and it has accomplished great good here, as some, who had put off till old age came forward and testified to Jesus. Bros. Ray and Mitchell have taken the tent to Brent, Bibb county, to run a meeting this week and organize a Baptist church there.

Now, Maplesville should not be satisfied with what has been done, but go on to other great things, such as building up, if possible, an up-to-date literary school, and on to municipal government so as to be able to control not only themselves, but everything and everybody, which will turn the eyes and hearts of others this way, and make them desire to live among us.

This, perhaps, will be my last note to the Banner for some time, but I am grateful to the Editor for his indulgence and courtesy in printing my pieces. So wishing you good luck and much prosperity I am Sincerely yours,

R. J. MITCHELL.

Oct. 7th, 1907.

How to Cure a Cold.

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlin's Cough Remedy for years and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

We Trust Doctors

If you are suffering from impure blood, thin blood, debility, nervousness, exhaustion, you should begin at once with Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the Sarsaparilla you have known all your life. Your doctor knows it, too. Ask him about it.

Unless there is daily action of the bowels, poisonous products are absorbed, causing headache, biliousness, nausea, dyspepsia, and thus preventing the Sarsaparilla from doing its best work. Ayer's Pills are liver pills. Act gently. All vegetable.

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.
Also manufacturers of

Ayer's HAIR VIGOR. AGUE CURE. CHERRY PECTORAL.

We have no secrets! We publish the formulas of all our medicines.

OLD FOLKS

Can Renew Their Strength

While it is impossible for the aged to renew their youth we want to say to all elderly people in Clanton that they can renew their strength by taking our delicious cod liver preparation, Vinol.

Vinol being rich in the elements of life, is an ideal strengthener and body builder for old folks.

Mr. A. J. Barker of Evansville, Ind., says: "There is no other medicine in the world equal to Vinol for elderly people. I would not take a thousand dollars for the good it has done me."

Vinol is not a patent medicine, but a real cod liver preparation made by a scientific, extractive and concentrating process from fresh cod's livers combining with peptonate of iron all the medicinal, healing, body-building elements of cod liver oil, but no oil.

Vinol tones up the digestive organs, makes rich red blood, and sound steady nerves. In this way it repairs worn tissues, checks the natural decline of the aged, builds up the run down, tired and debilitated, and replaces weakness with strength. We ask every aged or weak person in Clanton to try Vinol on our offer to return money if it fails to give satisfaction. Upchurch Drug Co.

SINGING CONVENTION.

The Southern Union Singing Convention convened at Corinth church Saturday, Oct. 5th, 1907, with the President, T. L. Robinson, in the chair. Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. J. L. Long. W. A. Goss was elected Secretary pro. tem., and the following program committee was appointed: E. L. Jones, B. J. Goss and E. A. Norris. The remainder of the session was taken up by the regular preaching service, and Rev. J. A. Cannon gave us an interesting sermon.

In the afternoon N. J. Jones and T. L. Robinson conducted lessons, with misses Fannie Belle and Mamie Robinson organists. Adjourned at 3:15 p.m.

The Convention assembled at 9:30 a.m. Sunday morning, E. A. Norris conducting prayer service. The leaders for the day were T. L. Robinson, J. S. Jones, Lee Robinson, S. E. Parrish, A. L. Robinson and N. J. Jones. Organists, misses Fannie Belle and Mamie Robinson and Lee Robinson. The convention was a success, though not as well attended as was expected. The singers seemed to grasp the idea that they were doing service for God, and not to be heard of men.

One interesting feature of the day was a lecture on music by Rev. S. J. Parrish. He carried us back to the old Bible days when Moses and the Israelites sang praises to God for deliverance from bondage and the command to "praise Him with a new song, even upon the harps and stringed instrument," and reminded us that music would not cease with this world, but that when John the revelator was permitted to view the new Jerusalem, he heard the redeemed hosts as they sang the songs of Moses and the Lamb. After the lecture the quartet "Will no one be there," was beautifully rendered by Messrs. T. L. Robinson, Jasper Robinson, S. E. Parrish and Lee Robinson.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: T. L. Robinson, Pres.. S. E. Parrish, Vice Pres. J. A. Jones, Sec. After prayer by E. L. Jones, the convention adjourned to meet with Chestnut Creek church the 1st Sunday in May 1908.

Those Corinthian brethren do know how to entertain a convention for there was a bountiful dinner spread both days, and every one enjoyed their hospitality. The thanks of the convention were tendered the community.

T. L. ROBINSON, Pres.

W. A. GOSS, Sec.

Hard Times in Kansas.

The old days of grasshoppers and drouth are almost forgotten in the prosperous Kansas of today; although a citizen of Coddell, Earl Shamburg, has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered. He says: "I was worn out and discouraged by a coughing night and day, and could find no relief until I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. It took less than one bottle to completely cure me." The safest and most reliable cough and cold remedy and lung and throat healer ever discovered. Guaranteed by Upchurch Drug co. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

FARMERS' UNION.

I will lecture at McCarys school house, Saturday, Oct. 12 at 2 p.m.
Samaria, Oct. 19 at 2 p.m.
Everybody invited.

M. F. LETT, Lecturer.

Hyacintha, Easter Lillies and Crocus Bulbs for winter planting, at Florence Drug Store.

CIRCUIT COURT

The Fall Term of Circuit court convenes Monday, November 4, 1907. Following is the list of jurors:

GRAND JURY.

E. A. Bearden, R. M. Hubbard, T. L. Robinson, A. J. Wilson, L. A. Calloway, E. P. Mims, W. P. Murray, John W. Hawkins, G. P. Aldridge, George Fox, J. A. Pool, E. G. Coley, J. W. Gentry, Cal Walker, S. S. Gooch, R. C. Skipper, James Jones, P. D. Wilson, Floyd Merchant, G. W. Martin, H. B. Boyce.

PETIT JURY—FIRST WEEK.

Martin Mix, Ovey Franklin, J. T. Jones, Lish Dustin, G. S. Miner, J. C. Craig, D. M. Apperson, J. A. Maddox, B. T. Rogers, D. Robinson, M. T. Cox, Cass Lawrence, Ira Bentley, C. C. Vinson, J. P. Parrish, H. A. J. Harris, Joseph Verden, E. C. Dawson, C. L. Langston, Tab Traywick, Morton Lawrence, W. H. Robinson, Wade Harris, Lee Pate, W. D. Burnett, E. H. Mims, W. J. Bean, J. N. Cornell, T. J. Traywick, J. P. Atchison, W. A. Coley, H. M. Willis, E. J. Haynes, Alex Hadden, T. H. Williams, A. Roman.

PETIT JURY—SECOND WEEK.

G. W. Gothard, J. C. Calloway, John Bearden, I. A. Burkhalter, P. M. Jones, A. J. Williams, W. T. Mims, Ben Vines, D. S. Robinson, R. T. Robinson, J. D. Deason, W. G. Atkinson, William Maddox, J. T. Cooley, R. F. Varden, Dick Edwards, J. F. Johnson, S. L. Broadhead, N. J. Kicker, T. J. Dormley, J. W. Calling, P. W. Davenport, N. J. Calloway, Frank Rogers, J. W. Sanders, J. N. Williams, J. M. Robinson, John M. Robinson, T. N. Howard, T. J. Bates, W. D. Nix, R. C. Davenport, Monroe Hoobuck, Milford Woolley, S. J. Reynolds, R. F. Rasberry.

If you take DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills you will get prompt relief from backache, weak kidneys, inflammation of the bladder and urinary troubles. A weeks treatment 25cents. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

Letter to J. Q. Wade.

Clanton, Ala.

Dear Sir: The easiest way we know of to make a little money is—if you're going to paint—to paint with the paint that takes least gallons.

Take a small job; say it takes 10 gallons Devoe, two coats; that's an average house. When the job is done and the bill comes in, it is $30; the paint etc $17.50, the rest is for labor and cartage; the labor is fixing the surface, shifting ladders scaffolds pulleys and ropes, and brushing on paint.

Take another job exactly like that; try another paint; it takes 12 gallons. The bill is $40 more. Take another exactly the same; another paint; it takes 20 gallons. The bill is $100.

There is only one Devoe; there's a dozen 12 gallon paints, and 100 that take 20 gallons to cover a 10 gallon job.

The only difficulty is in finding out Devoe. After that you save work; there is less work in 10 than 12 or 20 gallons; less paint to buy less to brush on and less wages to pay.

If Devoe were only a little better than others, there'd be some difficulty in finding out the difference. It goes twice as far as half the paint; that ought to be easy.

It wears longer too. You'll wait a good while, if you wait to see how long it wears; there are thousands of people who know that the least-gallons paint wears longest.

Yours truly
F W DEVOE & CO

35

Quinsy, Sprains and Swellings Cured.

"In November 1901, I caught cold and had the quinsy. My throat was swollen so I could hardly breathe. I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me relief in a short time. In two days I was all right," says Mrs. L. Cousins, Otterburn, Mich. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment as is especially valuable for sprains and swellings. For sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.

List of Letters remaining uncalled for in Clanton, Ala., postoffice, for week ending Oct. 12, 1907. Persons calling for same will please say "advertised" and give date. One cent must be paid on each letter.

GENTLEMEN'S LIST.

J. L. Baker, J. T. Gibson, James Carry, F. Hannibal, C. O. Horton, S. A. Jones, White Littleton, Henry Minor, J. M. Moore, T. H. Orison, Rev. N. E. Stubbs, R. J. Varden, J. S. Wilson, Tom Watts, Gen. W. Willis.

LADIES' LIST.

Myrtle Parker, Isabella Williams, Mrs. W. E. Wright, Mrs. Emma Thompson, Alice Key, Mrs. Walter J. Moore, Kate Jones, Ella Comer, Nancy Reed, Cosie Cleveland (2), Annie Dunham, Mrs. N. A Rice.

These letters will be sent to the dead Letter office, Oct. 26, 1907, if not delivered before.

F. O. DUDLEY, Postmaster.

Neat Feet

Women who dress nicely and according to the ways fashion dictates, desire to have every part of their attire look stylish, fit well and keep its new, neat appearance. Now-a-days a well dressed woman must have attractive dress shoes and nice shoes in keeping with her gowns.

"SOCIETY
The Shoe That Runs Not Rent"

The SOCIETY BRAND SHOE

is a high class shoe for properly dressed women, and at $3.50 a pair, a woman can afford to have shoes in the new gun-metal for the more serviceable wear, the ever popular vici or the more flashy patent leather for dress wear.

We have them in these popular leathers, made in all the fashionable shapes, and we are sure when you see a pair you will readily decide that "SOCIETY" Shoes are made for you. The "SOCIETY" is a member of the "Star Brand" family.

"Star Brand Shoes Are Better"
"We Walk On Stars, So Can You"

J. C. JONES, Clanton

R. L. CARTER, A. P. MAY

CLANTON FURNITURE CO.

DEALERS IN

Furniture, Stoves, Lamps, Clocks, Shades, Matting, Rugs and Furnishing Goods of every kind. Needles and Supplies for Sewing Machines. We also do Repairing, Upholstering and Refinishing. We sell cheap for cash or on easy payments.

TRY OUR 5 & 10 CENT BARGAIN COUNTER

Your patronage solicited.

CLANTON - - ALABAMA

MY STOCK

of Everything You Need in

FALL AND WINTER GOODS

is complete. Make your headquarters at my store while you are in town

Thanking you all for past liberal patronage, I remain Yours truly,

ELBERT KANTER

CLANTON, ALA.

Keep Up With Progress And Have a Good Time

You do both by visiting the Alabama Agricultural Fair held at Montgomery October 24 to November 2. It surpasses in exhibits every similar fair ever held in the south, and offers as FREE ATTRACTIONS the finest music, mid-air acrobatics, horse racing, etc., that could be desired.

20 Great Midway Features, good, corking, clean shows. Best of order will be preserved, and ladies and children will be safe at all times. Ample and reasonable accomodations await all. Prepare at once to bring your entire family and interest everybody else you know. Pull together with us to make Alabama's Fair surpass all others. For premium list address

Alabama Agricultural Association

MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA

ROBERT TAIT, Secretary

Scott's Emulsion strengthens enfeebled nursing mothers by increasing their flesh and nerve force.

It provides baby with the necessary fat and mineral food for healthy growth.

ALL DRUGGISTS: 50c. AND $1.00.

LEST WE forget—Baby is restless, can't sleep at night, won't eat, cries spasmodically. A bottle of Whit'y Cro's Vermifuge never fails to cure. Every mother should give her baby White's Cream Ve mifuge. In many times when the baby is peevish and fretful, the mother does not know what to do. A bottle of this medicine would bring color to its cheeks and laughter to its eyes. Give it a trial. Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Neat Feet

Women who dress nicely and are to the ways fashion dictates, desire have every part of their attire be tylish, fit well and keep its new, n appearance. Now-a-days a well dress woman must have attractive dre and nice shoes in keeping wi her gowns.

The SOCIETY SHOE FOR WOMEN

for properly dressed women, and a oman can afford to have shoes i for the more serviceable wear, th the more flashy patent leather fo in these popular leathers, made in all es, and we are sure when you see a decide that "SOCIETY" Shoes are

"SOCIETY" is a member of the
.

rand Shoes Are Better"
th On Stars, So Can You".

ONES, Clanton

N FURNITURE CO.

DEALERS IN

, Clocks, Shades, Matting, Rugs and very kind. Needles and Supplies for all
We also do Repairing, Upholstering
We sell cheap for cash or on easy payments.

D CENT BARGAIN COUNTER

atronage solicited.

ALABAMA

verything You Need in

D WINTER GOODS

ake your headquarters at my hile you are in town

l for past liberal patronage,
Yours truly,

ERT KANTER

CLANTON, ALA.

p With Progress

ve a Good Time visiting the Alabama Agricultural ntgomery October 24 to November 2. exhibits every similar fair ever held d offers as FREE ATTRACTIONS

, mid-air acrobatics, horse racing, be desired.

t Midway Features, good, clean shows. Best of order will nd ladies and children will be safe ble and reasonable accomodations await all.
to bring your entire family and interest u know. Pull together with us to make rpass all others. For premium list address

Agricultural Association

TGOMERY, ALABAMA

RT TAIT, Secretary

LEST WE

forget—Baby is restless, can't sl at night, won't eat, cries spasmo cally. A bottle of Whit Vermifuge never fails to Every mother should give her b
White's Cream Ve mifuge.
many times when the baby is p and fretful, the mother does know what to do. A bottle of medicine would bring color to cheeks and laughter to his ey
Give it a trial. Sold by Upch
Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Th
by.

oled and fat

TWIN-LYNES

[illegible] WANT ....10¢ @ 10¢
[illegible] last year 10¢ @ 11c
[illegible]
[illegible] receipts
[illegible], Wednesday....1604

U. Turnipseed will Highland school house
ay at 3:30 p.m.

Thomas Hopkins visited
n this week.

H. Middleton attended
Birmingham this week.

Tom Griffin left Monday e at Stanton to spend s.

Annie and Katherine ended Birmingham this

The fates,
, Lachesis and Atropos, ssemble in their caverns on Halloween,
ake to eleven o'clock p.m.
Their auspices of School Improvement Ass'n.

E. Robinson, Jr., has en-Hussey Business college mmery and will take a bookkeeping.

J. L. Wilson and L. D. ame among the visitors to Fair this week.

ley Henderson and little Mountain Creek spent
Clanton.

R PROPER ANYWHERE.
ve bought nice shoes but your feet. The "Society" ansen is different from
, they fit and feel good start, and don't hurt.
J. C. JONES, Clanton.

Sam Latham and H. M. took in the Fair at Birm-last week.

L. Bruce and daughters, and Ida Belle, visited the week.

P. Crompton left Monday es to resume his studies at l college.

Wheat, Rye, Clover
ley for sale at Flem-
ng Store.

A. and Mrs. Reese of ome visitors here Saturday.

J. L. Dennis of Verbena ne to Clanton last Thursnson & Sons' Wagons to buy.

M. Woods left Tuesday to Montevallo, Blocton
ingham.

Mrs. J. T. Mullins re-nday afternoon from a eral days to Birmingham.

e cases of constipation
some headaches promptly when you take DeWitt's y Riser Pills. Sold by Drug co.

J. Mitchell of Maples-ing relatives in Clanton.

M. Johnson and Miss of Thorsby were visitors day.

THE NEW STORE—
per doz., Good Coffee,
1.00; Best Granulated bs for $1.00. Highest for Country Produce and

W. REYNOLDS & Co.

Robinson of Verbena was in town Wednesday to say that Miss Maris very sick; we hope

y recovery.

VanDerveer of Montin town this week.

a RAZOR from the Drug co.—the three —guaranteed for three censes have been issued y the Probate Judge to g persons.

L. Cobb and Miss M. P.
Mr. G. N. Williams and Doyal; Mr. Mauritz
and Mrs. Fannie Honey-
T. C. DeLoach and Miss
; Mr. G. M. Willis
Stasie Fletcher; Mr. K. and Miss Lannie Mc-

Mack Cooper and
; Nathan Alston and
Alston; Alston Felton
Belle Lowe.

ver have any trouble to e to take Kennedy's Lax-Syrup. They like it tastes nearly like maple nnedy's Laxative Cough a safe, sure and prompt coughs and colds and is ery member of the fam-by Upchurch Drug co.

Now is the Time

We are now ready to show you a full line of Clothing, Hats, and complete line of Dress Goods.

Furniture, Stoves, Sewing Machines, etc.

Tinware and Flat Wagons.

Everything to make your home and farm complete. Give us a trial and if we can't sell you we will be mighty mistaken.

E. M. PINCKARD & CO.

CLANTON

FOR SALE—Two fine young Stallions. R. L. MARCUS, Clanton

FOR SALE—Eight beautiful building lots in Clanton. R. L. MARCUS, Clanton.

FOR SALE or RENT—One good house and lot in Clanton. R. L. MARCUS, Clanton

A Criminal Attack

on an offensive citizen is frequently made in that apparently useless little tube called the "appendix." It's generally the result of protracted constipation, following liver torpor. Dr. King's New Life Pills regulate the liver, prevent appendicitis, and establish regular habits of the bowels. 25c at Upchurch Drug co.

Call at our store and get a sample of our Violet Lotion and soothe the chaps. Best preparation made for chapped hands, etc. Florence Drug Store.

Afflicted with Sore Eyes for 33 Years.

I have been afflicted with sore eyes for thirty-three years. Thirteen years ago I became totally blind and was blind for six years. My eyes were badly inflamed. One of my neighbors insisted upon my trying Chamberlain's Salve and gave me half a box of it. To my surprise it healed my eyes and my sight came back to me.—P. C. HAMLS, Cynthiana, Ky. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Your Railroad Ticket to the State Fair Free

If you live within 75 miles of Montgomery we will refund your entire railroad fare (at the excursion rate) with any purchase amounting to $15.00 or more. The only condition being that you show return ticket at the time of purchase. Beyond that distance we will allow you your round trip fare for 75 miles, at the excursion rate.

ALEX RICE

6, 7 & 8 COURT SQUARE MONTGOMERY, ALA.

ATTENTION! BANNER READERS

You are cordially invited to call and see my New Fall Stock of Solid Gold and Gold Filled Watches, Diamond Brooches, Rings, etc., Solid Gold and Gold Filled Jewelry of every description in elegant designs.

The Famous Simmons Watch Chains, 1847 Rogers Bros. Silverware. See it for yourself.

No Use Going to Montgomery or Birmingham

MARTIN, the Jeweler by the Post Office, Calera, Ala., can supply your wants for less money. This store is the place for ladies to do their Fall and Christmas shopping. We are expert Watchmakers.

J. W. MARTIN

THE JEWELER BY THE POST OFFICE

Calera, Ala.

The Calera Machine Repair Shop

is now open for General Repair Work. We repair Engines, Boilers, Saw Mills or any other Machinery that comes to hand. We guarantee all our work.

We also buy second hand machinery of all kinds.

We do all kinds of Pipe work.

We are also prepared with all Modern Tools, and have an expert Saw Hammerer who will straighten your Crooked Saws, and will Gum and Dress them, so that they will run and cut good smooth lumber and use 20 per cent less power.

We repair all kinds of Household Goods.

We do all kinds of Round Wood Turning, from an Ornamental Column to a Shelf Spindle.

In short, we are here for business and to do you good.

We solicit a trial.

THE CALERA MACHINE REPAIR SHOP

CALERA, ALA.

A Sewing Machine

well made, nicely finished, has improvements over the old styles, runs easily and quietly, low cost, but good work and quality.

Come in and examine it, you will be surprised at our good value for $18.00.

SPIGENER & JONES

The Hardware Store

CLANTON

TAX NOTICE.

Assessor's and Collector's

FIRST NOTICE.

We will attend at the following times and places for the purpose of assessing the State and County taxes of Chilton county, for the year 1907, and collecting the taxes for the year 1906.

Cooper	Sept 30	October 11
Verbena	" 31	" 12

SECOND ROUND.

Enterprise	Sept 6	Nov. 4
Kingston	" 7	" 5
Fletcher	" 8	" 6
Clanton Yard	" 9	" 7
Bungo	" 10	" 8
Stanton	" 11	" 9
Valley Creek	" 12	" 10
Stanton	" 13	" 11
Mt. Hill	" 14	" 12
Maplesville	" 16	" 13
Hanchents	" 17	" 14
E. G. Cofer's Mill	" 18	" 15
Hayes' Mill	" 19	" 16
Providence	" 20	" 17
John Killingsworth's	" 21 a.m.	" 18
Mrs. Cofer's Mill	" 21 p.m.	" 18
Jemison	" 22	" 19
Thorsby	" 23	" 20
Smith's School House	" 24	" 21
Mineral Springs	" 25	" 22
Flint Hill	" 26	" 23
Providence	" 27	" 24
Onetoth Church	" 28	" 25
Clanton	" 30	" 26
Cooper	Oct. 1	" 27
Verbena	" 2	" 28
Mt. Creek	" 3	" 29
Jas. Madden's Mill	" 4	" 30
Lomax	" 5 till 12 m	" 31

I will be at Clanton the last ten days in the year, commencing December 21, 1907. All taxes not paid by Jan. 1st 1908 will become delinquent. Take notice of the above and save extra expense.

L. B. POUNDS, Tax Assessor.
T. J. HUBBARD, Tax Collector.

JULIUS CAESAR

was a man of nerve but sickness left its mark and he became aged before his time. Sickness is often caused by a torpid liver. Herbine will regulate your liver and give you health. Mrs. Carrie Austin, Holton, Kansas, writes: "I consider Herbine the best medicine I ever heard of. I am never without it." Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Rockymount.

The annual revival meeting will be on hand the second Sunday in November at this place. The pastor in charge has secured the services of Evangelist J. L. Brasher to do the preaching. All Christian workers are cordially invited. J. B. H.

Personal.

Don't fail to call and see Miss Minnie Allen's line of millinery while in town.

Mr. Oscar Harris of Fletcher was one of our visitors Friday.

Mr. T. J. Klinner of Maplesville gave us a pleasant call Friday.

Mr. A. H. Allen of Route 2 was in town Saturday.

Mr. J. P. Rainwater of Route 4 was one of our welcome visitors Saturday.

Mr. S. D. Williams of Verbena gave us an interesting call Saturday.

Mr. J. N. McKee of Jemison Route 4 was in town Saturday.

A Certain Cure for Croup—Used for Ten Years Without a Failure.

Mr. W. C. Bolt, Star City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much feared the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to his friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequaled for croup and whooping cough. For sale by Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Mrs J. H. Shepherd has returned from a visit to relatives at Sylacauga.

Mr. C. F. Jones spent several days last week with relatives at Kellyton and Sylacauga.

If it's a Fountain Pen you want you will find them at Upchurch Drug co., at all prices and of the best make.

Drs. J. P. Hayes and E. A. Matthews are visiting Nashville this week.

KILL THE COUGH AND CURE THE LUNGS

WITH Dr. King's New Discovery

FOR COUGHS COLDS PRICE 50c. & $1.00 TRIAL BOTTLE FREE

AND ALL THROAT AND LUNG TROUBLES.

GUARANTEED SATISFACTORY OR MONEY REFUNDED.

Schloss, in Dutch, means a Castle

Schloss, in English, means Good Clothes

Krump on the Korner Got 'em

Come in and Get 'em Then Wear 'em

'Gin the Law Not to Wear 'em

A suit of 'em would get Crichton off. Try 'em!

KRUMP

ON THE KORNER

MAPLESVILLE - - ALA.

—GO TO—

A. M. JOHNSON

—MANAGER OF—

THE CASH GROCERY STORE

THORSBY, ALA.

FOR BARGAINS IN

Staple and Fancy Groceries

We make a specialty of Fresh Fish and Oysters, Fresh Pork and all kinds of Sausage, Breakfast Bacon, Boneless Ham and

—DELICATESSEN—

Pop, Soda Water and Jersey Butter always on hand.

Country Produce Bought, Sold and Exchanged.

Notice.

Real Estate, Fire, Life Insurance and Singer Machines.

I have on hand now some nice and convenient places for rent and some extra bargains in real estate. I also represent several leading fire insurance companies, and the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co.

My High Arm Singer Machine Stock is complete; Machines that sew perfect, run lighter and last longer than any other make. Remember, too, the price has been cut and you can get any terms you wish, monthly or annual payments. Also $5.00 allowance for your old machine.

Several good second hand Machines on hand at a bargain.

Needles, Bands, Cans, Attachments, and the only genuine Machine Oil made, 10 and 25¢ bottles.

I also represent the Jesse French Piano & Organ Co. When you need anything in my line, call on me at same old stand. Regular office days Friday, Saturday and Monday of each week.

C. R. MULLINS

CLANTON

FREE! FREE! FREE!

With each $2.00 purchase in our Dry Goods Line entitles you to one Handsome Decorated Cake Plate.

Each $10.00 purchase of same entitles you to one Handsome Decorated Dining Room Picture, with nice frame 15x20 size. Don't miss this opportunity.

11 lbs. Good Green Coffee $1.00.

Our Fall and Winter Dry Goods and Underwear and Overcoats is on display now.

20 @ 22¢ for Eggs. High price paid for Country Produce; bring it in.

HEADLEY BROS.

GENERAL MERCHANDISE

ON THE CORNER CLANTON

To PUBLISHERS AND PRINTERS

We Manufacture the Very Highest Grade of

Type, Brass Rule in Strips, Brass Labor Saving Rule, Brass Column Rules, Brass Circles, Brass Leaders Brass Round Corners, Brass Leads and Slugs, Brass Galleys, Metal Borders, L. S. Metal Furniture, Leads and Slugs, Metal Leaders, Spaces and Quads, 6 to 48 point, Metal Quoins, etc.

Old Column Rules refaced and made as good as new at a small cost.

Please remember that we are not in any Trust or Combination and are sure that we can make it greatly to your advantage to deal with us.

A copy of our Catalogue will be cheerfully furnished on application.

PHILADELPHIA PRINTERS' SUPPLY CO.

Manufacturers of

Type and High Grade Printing Material

PROPRIETORS PENN TYPE FOUNDRY

49 North Ninth Street PHILADELPHIA

When liquid nitrogen is poured over metallic calcium, it causes little combustion to form calcium nitride, which yields ammonia on treatment with water.

During 1906 there were 943,291 births in England and Wales—476,747 boys and 467,544 girls.

When you see a woman having a good time out in the rain it's her own complexion.

Monkey or Woman?

The keepers of the Bronx Zoo can hardly tell whether the animal they bought of an inbound South African tramp steamship is a female orang-outang or a woman.

Nothing so near to the real, sure enough, long-sought missing link has ever been brought to America. It has no hair on its face, no monkey-like curve to its spinal column; sits like a human being, walks like an aldermanic candidate, on its hind legs alone, and much prefers the society of humans to the inmates of the monkey cage.

Moreover, Director Hornaday has measured its intellect, and declares that it is one of the highest brows he has ever seen. Still, the consensus of opinion is that the orang-outang is less monkey than man, and it will be put on exhibition this week with the rest of the tribe it so far excels.—New York American.

It seems to be necessary to the Philadelphia Record, not only that the racing of automobiles should be confined to tracks, instead of highways, but that these tracks should be enclosed with fortifications so substantial that runaway machines cannot break through and plunge into a crowd of spectators. When that shall be done the casualties will be confined to the operators.

There may be all kinds of scientific reasons why kissing should be suppressed, admits the Philadelphia Press, but in a duel between a microbe and the little blind god the microbe will have the same chance that a butterfly would in an attempt to snuff out the sun.

When you try to throw care to the winds the contrary breezes often insist on bringing it back and passing it on you.

Having learned that the climate, soil and other conditions of the Philippine Islands are favorable to rubber and gutta percha cultivation, the government has established nurseries for the growth and distribution of rubber plants to plantations.

Motor cars now running in Calcutta number 500.

An attempt to prove an alibi is a case of self-denial.

Cane Whittled by Lincoln.

Ira H. Haworth, who was a friend of Abraham Lincoln, celebrated his eightieth birthday anniversary yesterday.

Mr. Haworth has a cane and a gavel given to him by President Lincoln in 1860. They are made from the wood of a black walnut tree which was cut down by Lincoln. The cane was whittled by Lincoln and around the top of it is a band of German silver, which is engraved: "To Ira Haworth from Abraham Lincoln, 1860."

"Yes, Abe gave them to me," said Mr. Haworth yesterday, "when I was chairman of the township committee in his home county. I used them in the campaign of 1860. When he gave them to me he said:

"'This gavel is to keep order. The cane is to use when you get old. I know you will live to be old because the good die young.'"—Kansas City Times.

The ability of the people of Japan to keep silent at a time of national necessity is remarkable. This ability is a distinct asset in the great game of war, in which knowledge of the enemy's movements is still most important. It would be a particularly notable asset in war with a people like ourselves, remarks the Cincinnati Times-Star. If an American battleship had been sunk off Santiago, it is a safe guess that all the world would have known of the disaster, with details, within 15 minutes.

The Empress of China, King Menelik of Abissinia, the Ameer of Afghanistan, the Sultan of Morocco and Zanzibar and the Khedive of Egypt all maintain official astrologers.

A girl blushes when you kiss her because it wouldn't be right not to when you do.

A remarkable calculation has been made by Sir Oliver Lodge with reference to ether. He makes out that in energy of motion, to which the rigidity is due, contained in 1lb. of ether, as in all of 1,000,000 tons of water working for 40,000,000 years is every cubic millimetre of space—that is, in rather less than the one-hundredth of a cubic inch.

Words are all right when backed by brains.

Tonight.

Protestant of Prussia had a great mania for enlisting gigantic entlemen into the Royal Guards and paid an enormous bounty to his recruiting officers for getting them. One day the recruiting sergeant chanced to espy a Hibernian who was at least 7 feet high; he accosted him in English and proposed that he should enlist. The idea of military life and a large bounty so delighted Pat that he immediately consented.

"But unless you can speak German the King will not give you so much."

"Oh, be jabers," said the Irishman, "sure I don't know a word of German."

"But," said the sergeant, "you can learn in a short time. The King knows every man in the Guards. As soon as he sees you he will ride up and ask you how old you are; you will say '27,' in German; next, how long have you been in the service; you must reply, 'Three weeks'; finally, as to whether you are provided with food and clothes, you answer, 'Both.'"

Pat soon learned his German answers, but never dreamed of getting familiar with the questions. In three weeks he appeared before the King in review. His Majesty rode up to him. Paddy stepped forward with "present arms."

"How old are you?" said the King.

"Three weeks," said the Irishman.

"How long have you been in the service?" asked his Majesty.

"Twenty-seven years."

"Am I a fool or are you?" roared the King.

"Both," replied Patrick, who was immediately taken to the guard room, but pardoned by the King when the latter understood the facts of the case.—Ladies' Home Journal.

Among the larger South African mammals now practically extinct, the naturalist, Mr. Lydekker, includes "Burchell's" zebra, known by the Boers as "bontequagga."

"BOO-HOO"

Shouts a Spanked Baby.

A Doctor of Divinity, now Editor of a well-known Religious paper, has written regarding the controversy between Collier's Weekly and the Religious Press of the Country and others, including ourselves. Also regarding suits for libel brought by Collier's against us for commenting upon its methods.

These are his sentiments, with some very emphatic words left out.

"The religious Press owes you a debt of gratitude for your courage in showing up Collier's Weekly as the "Yell-Oh Man." Would you care to use the inclosed article on the "Boo Hoo Baby" as the "Yell-Oh Man's" successor?"

"A contemporary remarks that Collier's has finally run against a solid hickory "Post" and been damaged in its own estimation to the tune of $750,000.00."

"Here is a publication which has, in utmost disregard of the facts, spread broadcast damaging statements about the Religious Press and others and has suffered those false statements to go uncontradicted, until, not satisfied after finding the Religious Press too quiet, and peaceful, to resent the insults, it makes the mistake of wandering into a fresh field and butts its rattled head against this Post and all the World laughs. Even Christians smile, as the Post suddenly turns and gives it back a dose of its own medicine."

"It is a mistake to say all the World laughs. No cheery laugh comes from Collier's, but it cries and boo hoos like a spanked baby and wants $750,000.00 to soothe its tender, lacerated feelings."

"Thank Heaven it has at last struck a man with "back bone" enough to call a spade a "spade" and who believes in telling the whole truth without fear or favor."

Perhaps Collier's with its "utmost disregard for the facts," may say no such letter exists. Nevertheless it is on file in our office and is only one of a mass of letters and other data, newspaper comments, etc., denouncing the "yellow" methods of Collier's. This volume is so large that a man could not well go thru it under half a day's steady work. The letters come from various parts of America.

Usually a private controversy is not interesting to the public, but this is a public controversy.

Collier's has been using the "yellow" methods to attract attention to itself, but, jumping in the air, cracking heels together and yelling "Look at me" wouldn't suffice, so it started out on a "Holier Than Thou" attack on the Religious Press and on medicines.

We leave it to the public now, as we did when we first resented Collier's attacks, to say whether, in a craving for sensation and circulation, its attacks do not amount to a systematic mercenary hounding. We likewise leave it to the public to say whether Collier's, by its own policy and methods, has not made itself more ridiculous than any comment of ours could make it.

Does Collier's expect to regain any self-inflicted loss of prestige by demonstrating thru suits for damages, that it can be more artful in evading liability for libels than the humble but resentful victims of its defamation, or does it hope by starting a campaign of libel suits to silence the popular indignation, reproach and resentment which it has aroused.

Collier's can not dodge this public controversy by private law suits. It can not postpone the public judgment against it. That great jury, the Public, will hardly blame us for not waiting until we get a petit jury in a court room, before denouncing this prodigal detractor of institutions founded and fostered either by individuals or by the public, itself.

No announcements during our entire business career were ever made claiming "medicinal effects" for either Postum or Grape-Nuts. Medicinal effects are results obtained from the use of medicines.

Thousands of visitors go thru our entire works each month and see for themselves that Grape-Nuts contains absolutely nothing but wheat, barley and a little salt; Postum absolutely nothing but wheat and about ten percent of New Orleans molasses. The art of preparing these simple elements in a scientific manner to obtain the best food value and flavour; required some work and experience to acquire.

Now, when any publication goes far enough out of its way to attack us because our advertising is "medical," it simply offers a remarkable exhibition of ignorance, or worse.

We do not claim physiological or bodily results of favorable character following the adoption of our suggestions regarding the discontinuance of coffee and foods which may not be keeping the individual in good health. We have no advice to offer the perfectly healthful person. His or her health is evidence in itself that the beverages and foods used exactly fit that person. Therefore, why change?

But to the man or woman who is ailing, we have something to say as a result of an unusually wide experience in food and the result of proper feeding.

In the palpably ignorant attack on us in Collier's, appeared this statement.—"One widely circulated paragraph labors to induce the impression that Grape-Nuts will obviate the necessity of an operation in appendicitis. This is lying and potentially deadly lying."

In reply to this exhibition of——well let the reader name it, the Postum Co., says:

Let it be understood that appendicitis results from long continued disturbance in the intestines, caused primarily by undigested starchy food, such as white bread, potatoes, rice, partly cooked cereals and such.

Starchy food is not digested in the upper stomach but passes on into the duodenum, or lower stomach and intestines, where, in a healthy individual, the transformation of the starch into a form of sugar is completed and then the food absorbed by the blood.

But if the powers of digestion are weakened, a part of the starchy food will lie in the warmth and moisture of the body and decay, generating gases and irritating the mucous surfaces until under such conditions the whole lower part of the alimentary canal, including the colon, and the appendix, becomes involved. Disease sets up and at times takes the form known as appendicitis.

When the symptoms of the trouble make their appearance, would it not be good, practical, common sense, to discontinue the starchy food which is causing the trouble and take a food in which the starch has been transformed into a form of sugar in the process of manufacture?

This is identically the same form of sugar found in the human body after starch has been perfectly digested.

Now, human food is made up very largely of starch and is required by the body for energy and warmth. Naturally, therefore, its use should be continued, if possible, and for the reasons given above it is made possible in the manufacture of Grape-Nuts.

In connection with this change of food to bring relief from physical disturbances, we have suggested washing out the intestines to get rid of the immediate cause of the disturbance.

Naturally, there are cases where the disease has lain dormant and the abuse continued too long, until apparently only the knife will avail. But it is a well-established fact among the best physicians who are acquainted with the details above recited, that preventative measures are far and away the best.

Are we to be condemned for suggesting a way to prevent disease by following natural methods and for perfecting a food that contains no "medicine" and produces no "medicinal effects" but which has guided literally thousands of persons from sickness to health? We have received during the years past upwards of 25,000 letters from people who have been either helped or made entirely well by following our suggestions, and they are simple.

If coffee disagrees and causes any of the ailments common to some coffee users quit it and take on Postum.

If white bread, potatoes, rice and other starch foods make trouble, quit and use Grape-Nuts food which is largely predigested and will digest, nourish and strengthen, when other forms of food do not. It's just plain old common sense.

"There's a Reason" for Postum and Grape-Nuts.

Postum Cereal Co., Ltd.

The Pulpit

A SERMON BY THE REV. IRA W. HENDERSON

Subject: Heroism.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—Preaching at the Irving Square Presbyterian Church, Hamburg avenue and Weirfield street, on the above them, the Rev. Ira Wemmell Henderson, pastor, took as his text, Daniel, 3:18. He said:

The courage of these men was sublime. Their heroism was remarkable. The story of their strength of character is not an ordinary one. They might easily have played the king false by bowing down to his idols while still serving their God in their hearts. Jewish Hellenized Nebuchadnezzar would have been satisfied had they simply bent the knee to his gods. And how could a mere man, even though he were a king, divine the devotions of their inmost hearts? Here was a place where most men would have considered discretion the better part of valor. Here was a chance for compromise in externals for the sake of saving one's life. Here was the supreme test of their characters. They might have made excuses for themselves to their own minds and to God, and have worshiped the golden image. They did neither. They were true Jews. They served the God of Israel, who had said unto His people by the mouth of Moses the deliverer and law-giver, "Thou shalt not bow down unto them nor serve them." Therefore, they stood erect when the sound of "all kinds of music" made the multitude fall down. And standing, they are monuments to moral heroism.

Heroism has great value in life and is varied. Without it we could not make much, if any progress. A man may be as a prophet in his perception and comprehension of divine truth, but if he lack heroism his powers are largely unavailable to society. Conviction needs courage to become a living force. It is one thing to have a vision, and another to declare it. It is one thing to have knowledge, and another to expound it. It is one thing to have a valid and substantiated opinion, and another to state it. It is one thing to detect sham and sin, and quite another to unmask them.

The world is full of men who could do evil to the death in many a place did they only dare. But it is so manifestly one thing to know the truth and another to stand up for it and to proclaim it.

The value of heroism cannot be denied. With it Moses faced the terrors and the torments of the desert and the threatenings of the wandering people of God. With it Isaiah and the prophets assailed mighty sin in the name of Almighty God. With it Columbus sailed the wide, uncharted seas, and discovered America to a ready world. With it Luther hurled defiance to the machinations of Roman ecclesiasticism and marked an epoch in the majestic march of manhood toward our present liberty of thought. With it the heroes of Valley Forge kept the faith for civil liberty and under the impulse of its spirit the slave was freed. Without it Jesus would never have become our Saviour.

Valuable as heroism is, it is not less varied. For heroism is individual and social, physical and moral, lustrous and humble.

The men of Lexington and Santiago, of Trafalgar and of Waterloo, the heroes of Hebrew history and of the Crusades, the hosts who followed Napoleon or Wellington or Washington or Stonewall Jackson or any of the famous captains of armies, ancient or modern, are examples of what we may term physical social heroism. Many were the instances of humble, individual moral courage displayed by soldiers serving under all these military geniuses. And yet, in the last analysis, their heroism was that of brute strength let loose and dependent, as much as upon anything, upon the flags, and the fanfare, and the smell and sight of blood, and the crowd moving together to the battle for its inspiration and its sustentation. It is not my purpose to fascinate that even under these conditions it is an easy thing to fare forth to try conclusions with fate. But in comparison with the pluck needed to do many another deed it is easy.

There is, too, an individualistic, lustrous heroism which is even less trying and exacting. He is a hero, I care not who he may be, who will lead a willing army on to a fight where victory is sure, or who will point the way to a moral victory to men who are with him and who sight the same truth that he sees. For many a man has lacked the heroism to lead even though the skies were full of portents of success. It is so much easier to relinquish the responsibility of leadership to another. Officers are marked men.

We must admit a great measure of physical heroism in the action of the man who will test his strength against the wild animal that would take his life. It takes nerve as well as muscle to meet a bully who richly needs and deserves a thrashing, and make him eat the dust. But in the category of heroic virtues these are the least.

At this time I would call your attention to the heroisms which we have and need in our daily life, the heroisms of the humble, moral host who constitute the majestay of this land and who are the backbone of America, the men and women and children who in an inconspicuous, but none the less efficient, fashion, give themselves as living sacrifices upon the altar of devotion to God and home and country. I would have you again remember if you have been so ungracious as to forget the offerings of that countless host of simple, honest people who daily live for the common good and the public weal. I would call to your attention the leaders of our day who, in the face of sin and of opposition and of militant and imperious self-satisfaction, are effecting the salvation of America and teaching her people how to help themselves.

For we have much heroism of this [illegible]. And we need more.

It is easy in a way to fall into line and to march down to the war when the summons comes and the music plays and the people cheer and we know that death will dare us deathless, though perhaps not individual, fame. But what is the courage of the leader or the soldier in the front line of the fierce fight to that of the toiler who, day by day, works and plots and slaves and lives that children may be reared and prepared for life and the home be kept intact? That father yonder who, from sunrise to sunset, day in and day out, in health and sickness, when sad or glad, toils for wife and family; is he not heroic? That mother, with her closely bound of six, the sole manager and dispenser of a princely, gross salary of $10 a week, up with, or before, the first streaks of the earliest day, resting only when all are sleeping, cooking, washing, nursing, caring for them, with smiles for each and tenderness for all, staggering beneath a burden more than man has dared to bear, who shall deny her praise? That widowed mother, with a flock and a pittance; that child who alone supports a home; that maiden who is pure and sweet upon wages that are criminal before the living God, who shall deny the sublimity of their humble heroism?

To my mind the heroism of the plain people, who have little but who serve so much, to whom life offers such a meager portion but who make it go so far, is a most sublime, as it is a most compelling, fact of human life. I can conceive of nothing harder, day by day, to arise to face the impenetrable wall of hardship and of approximate poverty which dominates the horizon of so many lives. I can picture nothing more unutterably unbearable than, day by day, to be compelled to undergo the refined slavery that is unquestionably characteristic of so much of our modern life. To desire to live in the face of it, to decide to struggle against it, to hope even against hope, to live and to love, to get a little and to give a little, to retain and to augment the diviner characteristics that alone differentiate humanity from the beast, to plan for posterity and to have faith in God in the midst of the relative riches that constitute the poverty of our times, is heroic. We should thank God for the heroism of those among us who have so little and who live so largely, in proportion as they have capacity and opportunity, for the common weal. We should thank God that they are faithful, that they know how to live simply, that they are moral. For if ever the men and women who are the burden-bearers in the world's work become saturated with the vices, the follies and the fallacies concerning life that infest the minds of those who constitute the topmost and the nethermost strata of society, the world will have short shrift.

Another sort of heroism that we must never fail to remember and consider and to which we owe much, is that moral heroism among the political and religious leaders of the country that is increasingly obvious and actively at work. For that heroism is real. The forces of unrighteousness are intrenched. The army of greed at any price is already in the field. The plunderers of the public are as busy as the vultures that prey upon the dead. The camp followers who are out for petty graft are busily at work. The sleek, self-satisfied captains of political and commercial piracy are at the front. They are all the more dangerous because they have persuaded themselves that they are sincere, that the benefits they have undoubtedly been instrumental in bringing to society excuse and justify the rapacity of which they have been and to-day are guilty. They scorn government, they laugh at law, they scoff at the rising tide of popular disapproval. Their special pleaders are hired, their subsidized papers are already bought, many of their books are burnt. They invite the test and even dare to threaten. In pulpit and in pew, on the forum and in halls of learning, wherever there is an itching palm or a callous heart there their champions may be found. It is needless for me to expand the story by telling you of the governments, municipal and state, that they may almost be said to own, the legislatures that they have bought or have tried to buy, of the defiance that they throw into the very teeth of administrative officers who with honesty and singleness of purpose attempt to bring them to account.

We are face to face with no theory. We are confronted with the most unpalatable facts, when everything is considered, with which any nation has ever had to deal. There is no use in waiting for a declaration of hostilities. The war is already on. The enemy is in the field. Heroism is required to go up against him for "the sake of our cities and for the people of our God." Heroism has already been shown. It has already cost some met. dear.

The dictum is to pulpit and press, to politician and statesman, to the financial and the business world, to labor and to capital, to the world at large: We have erected our golden image, it suit us, bow down or be consumed. And woe betide the man with the information and the heroism necessary to refuse to bow. Men have refused. They have been consumed.

The threat to-day is bow down or be ruined. Touch us not lest the country die. Forsooth we shall refrain to eradicate the vermiform appendix of financial and commercial and political indecency and disease because of the shock to the patient. Thank God we have men of heroism at hand, men who have wisdom, who have the hand and the nerve and the experience and the wisdom to disobey our modern Nebuchadnezzars and to execrate. And they will not be burnt. Their heroism will not spell their death. It will not invite disaster. It will save the patient from uglier ills and worse torments.

The sort of heroism that can live humbly in the contemplation of such evil with trust in God and confidence in the heroism of the leaders that are called to the sort that has made America a power. The heroism that remains steadfast and faithful in the face of rampant wrong is the heroism that illuminates her history. She has much of it. She needs more of it. It should be rewarded. It should have our support. We should have it. For it is the heroism of the Christ.

THE SUNDAY [illegible]

INTERNATIONAL [illegible]
LESSON FOR OCT. [illegible]
REV. I. W. HEN[illegible]

Subject: The Capture [illegible] Josh. 6:8-20—Golden Text, [illegible] 11:30—Memory Verses [illegible] Commentary.

Jericho was a walled city, [illegible] trenched power Israel and [illegible] armed host. The contest [illegible] to be unequal. But the [illegible] was merely apparent. [illegible] out, faith without [illegible] mightiest.

It must have seemed [illegible] who sat on the wall in [illegible] ity and laughed to see [illegible] march in silence around [illegible] twelve times in seven days [illegible] ready for more. The [illegible] doubtless as curious about [illegible] come as were they who [illegible] silent faith in and at the [illegible] God. Israel had learned [illegible] ance through privation [illegible] dence through experience [illegible] gens of Jericho were to [illegible] apparent unwieldiness of God's [illegible] cret of the salvation of [illegible] lence of Israel was [illegible] lull before the storm.

The victory at Jericho [illegible] In the halls of fashion [illegible] a demonstration of the [illegible] of the universal and [illegible] ish methods God uses to [illegible] fillment of His purposes.

The falling walls of Jericho [illegible] ed the praises of faithful [illegible] dience to divine decrees. [illegible] seemed unwise to Israel in [illegible] did, but they put their trust [illegible] The tactics were as nothing [illegible] were original. The whole [illegible] was odd. To the men of [illegible] must have been striking [illegible] Judged by the accepted [illegible] military procedure it was [illegible] the code. After six trials [illegible] brought no results. It [illegible] surface, thoroughly absurd. [illegible] ever the opinions of the [illegible] may have been, they obeyed [illegible] of Jehovah with consequences [illegible] They may have grown weary [illegible] never stopped until they [illegible] to do so. They were unyielding orders. The repetitions [illegible] lent, trampling thousands must [illegible] been terrific.

The tumbling battlements [illegible] who demonstrated the [illegible] God's odd way. The thought [illegible] that, whatever the terror [illegible] mately surged through the [illegible] the defeated city men, [illegible] scornfully amused at the [illegible] Joshua for some days.

[illegible]he had besieged them [illegible] ancient form they might have [illegible] seen the possibility of [illegible] throw. But to walk a wall [illegible] was new to them. If they [illegible] shrewder they might have [illegible] that Joshua would never be [illegible] guilty of such a movement [illegible] not been certain of an outcome [illegible] able to himself.

The lesson is supremely [illegible] to modern conditions and [illegible] fare of the church against [illegible] sinners and entrenched sin. [illegible] America is dominated by [illegible] rapacious men who sit snug [illegible] and tight within the city [illegible] self-interest and of self-[illegible] ment at the expense of the [illegible] welfare and the common [illegible] Politicians and journalists, [illegible] chants and financiers, a [illegible] less lot, make up the cohorts [illegible] modern Jericho. They laugh [illegible] rality. They scoff at religion [illegible] counsels of the church [illegible] preachments to them. The [illegible] of the sincere souls who [illegible] destroy their city and their [illegible] simply excite their derision [illegible] disdain that simple declaration [illegible] Gospel of God in Christ.

But just as surely as [illegible] the walls of Jericho tottered [illegible] to earth, so shall we if we are [illegible] fully obedient to the will of God [illegible] the destruction of the city of [illegible] citizens of sin which affront [illegible] sult and flaunt and exploit [illegible] God lives.

The method is so simple by [illegible] parison, with the devious and [illegible] procedure of the forces of [illegible] oftentimes we wonder whether [illegible] pay to do the bidding of [illegible] But it will. The continued [illegible] lative reiteration of the truth [illegible] inseparable from moral and [illegible] principles will surely have effect [illegible] may wonder way our earthly [illegible] lamations of divine verities [illegible] destroy sin at once and why [illegible] face of ages of testimony [illegible] cousness and for God so many [illegible] themselves to sin. But the [illegible] mains that no force has been sufficient as this; no factor is [illegible] so able and likely to destroy [illegible] ern sin and undo the guilty [illegible] tions of modern men.

God is able to reward [illegible] now go. He was at Jericho [illegible] days of Joshua. He is as [illegible] win victories by apparently [illegible] ficient means as He was then. [illegible] then. His strength has not [illegible] Nor is His wisdom weakened. [illegible] capacity is co-existant with [illegible] We have only to obey Him to [illegible] success. Whatever may be [illegible] strength, the cynicism, the [illegible] the rapacity, the effrontery, [illegible] bridled self-indulgence of the [illegible] tants of our modern Jericho [illegible] out-wit and uproot them if we [illegible] obey God and simply declare [illegible] truth. For the truth is a [illegible] a sword. It is as supreme [illegible] superb.

The modern Jericho is [illegible] its way as was the Jericho [illegible] overcome by the grace [illegible] The certainty of the downfall [illegible] modern Jericho is as sure as [illegible] of Jericho of old. God is [illegible] Obedience will have fruitage.

The natural architecture of [illegible] people precludes the possibility [illegible] their being very flighty.

In the wreck of worlds there [illegible] doubtless be a profit making [illegible] company.

One brand of sea-sickness is the result of a trip on the sea of matrimony.

WHAT [illegible]

Is R a C[illegible]
Toni[illegible]

Some [illegible] brain, [illegible] great [illegible]
Which [illegible]
Is it more [illegible] to [illegible] tarch [illegible]
Our [illegible] brain and [illegible] there can be [illegible] only that [illegible]
In order [illegible] case of [illegible] only have [illegible] one meal [illegible] tarch, but [illegible] action on [illegible]
Catarrh, [illegible] otherwise [illegible] dition of [illegible] There must [illegible] on the [illegible] arteries, [illegible]
Perhaps [illegible] world has [illegible] CANADIAN [illegible] cacy of the [illegible] many years [illegible] upon the [illegible] joined with [illegible] trio of men [illegible] runs while [illegible] only for [illegible] state of [illegible] improved [illegible] formed by [illegible] COLLINS [illegible] YDALIS [illegible] KERR, [illegible] an ideal [illegible] stages and [illegible]
From a [illegible] fare, Pure [illegible] use of P[illegible] Numbers [illegible] quarter [illegible] evidence [illegible] over enthu[illegible] perience [illegible] ery the ru[illegible] shaken.

BABY

In Turno[illegible]
Pace [illegible]

"My [illegible] a half old [illegible] on his fo[illegible] arms, then [illegible] then one [illegible] the others [illegible] end of sh[illegible] he grew [illegible] cloths at [illegible] ing the [illegible] to be a m[illegible] to walk. [illegible] a cake of [illegible] corn flak[illegible] two months [illegible] has never [illegible] and I use [illegible] the Cutic[illegible] would have [illegible] I used on[illegible] these bea[illegible] Hopkins [illegible] April 22, [illegible]

Why Ca[illegible]

A man [illegible] to clean [illegible] the regul[illegible] ily tires [illegible] the other [illegible] a number [illegible]
"Your [illegible] arranged [illegible] fore the [illegible] ute befor[illegible] and so on [illegible] strike a[illegible] not be la[illegible] time, and [illegible] portant [illegible] there are [illegible] house it [illegible] pen to s[illegible] one hour [illegible] clocks th[illegible] or six, s[illegible] all with[illegible] have one [illegible] clocks a[illegible] the little [illegible] room of [illegible] be kept [illegible] suppose [illegible] for that.
"No, [illegible] but I m[illegible] I just [illegible] able one [illegible] clocks [illegible] my atte[illegible] weekly [illegible] it."—New[illegible]

In a [illegible] window [illegible] usually [illegible] him a [illegible] about [illegible] lately [illegible] window [illegible] it reads [illegible] sign m[illegible] words [illegible] are of [illegible] of lette[illegible] very [illegible] [illegible] are willing to do any[illegible] work.

BABY FOOD

[illegible] Instant Use Without Cooking.

Everyone likes a cereal food [illegible] at breakfast and supper, [illegible] ordinary way of cooking [illegible] in a pasty mass that is [illegible] digest, and if not properly [illegible] the raw mass goes down [illegible] intestinal tract where gas is [illegible] and trouble follows.

[illegible] knows that good food [illegible] digested, keeps the body [illegible] your food, or even food of [illegible] that is poorly prepared [illegible] digested, is sure to bring on [illegible] of disease.

[illegible] food to digest in this [illegible] Grape-Nuts, made from wheat [illegible] and cooked thoroughly at [illegible] hours 12 to 16 hours be[illegible] paid in the different pro[illegible] preparation. The food, [illegible] is ready for instant use. [illegible] starch has been changed [illegible] of Sugar, so that it is pre[illegible] and ready for almost immediate [illegible] tion.

[illegible] young lady writes that [illegible] for years from indigestion [illegible] dyspepsia from the use of [illegible] was not suitable to her [illegible] question. She says:

[illegible] using Grape-Nuts, and I [illegible] having had a prejudice at [illegible] was repeatedly urged before [illegible] decided to try the food, but I [illegible] shown what indigestion is [illegible] it, and have never been [illegible] in better health. I have [illegible] in weight from 109 to 134 [illegible]

[illegible] can be well, practically [illegible], if they will adopt scientific [illegible] and leave off the indigestible [illegible] "There's a Reason."

[illegible] Food is crisp and delicious [illegible] taste. It should be [illegible] as it comes from the [illegible] without cooking, except to [illegible] it is made up into puffs [illegible] other desserts. "Look for [illegible] packages, and "The Road to [illegible] in pkgs.

o fall into line
the war when nd the music cheer and we earn as death-not individual, courage of the
the front line
t of the toiler and plane and ildren may be or life and the

That father rise to sunset, in health and glad, tells for e not heroic?
cleanly brood and dispenser lary of $10 a fore, the first t day, resting ping, cooking,
ng for them,
nd tenderness
eath a burden
ared to bear, praise." That a flock and a ho alone surn den who is ages that are
ing God who mity of their roism of the little but who rm life offers t who make hblime, as it is of human life

s larger, day
he impercepti-
d of approxi-
minative the
e. I can pictterably un-ay, to be com-fined slavery
characteristic dern life. To e of it to det it, to bear
e and to love,
ve a little, to
t the diviner
e differentiate f to plan for aith in God in ve riches that
of our times,
hank God for mong us who ive so largely,
have capacity
this common nk God that t they know hat they are he risen and urden bearers
me saturated ilies and the e that infect onstitute the ost strata of l have short

oism that we nner and con-
owe much, is ong the politis of the coun-
obvious and hat heroism is hrightcousness
ny of greed at the field. The e are as busy prey upon the wers who are
usily at work.
d captains of l piracy are at all the mo
ey have per-they are sin-
hey have un-ental in bring-nd justify the
have been and ey scorn gov-
law, they "off popular disappleaders are d papers are of their books
e the test and
In pulpit and nd in halls of e is an itching
rt there their d." It is need-the story by rnments, mu-
they may ale legislatures or have tried ce that they
th of adminis-
h honesty and
attempt to ith no theory,

n the most un-
everything is h any nation
There is no use
ation of hostil-ady on. The
eld. Heroism against him
les and for the eroism has alt has already

pit and press,
esman, to the ness world, to the world at ed our golden own or be con-
the man with e heroism nec-
Men have re-
n consumed.
bow down or not lest the we shall revermiform ap-nd commercial y and disease
to the patient.
en of heroism
e wisdom, who nerve and the dom to disobey
nezzars and to
l not be burnt.
ot spell their te disaster. It rom uglier ills

that can live
plation of such and confidence eaders that are hat has made
e heroism that faithful in the is the heroism story. She has ds more of it.
ed. It should
should have it.
f the Christ.

THE SUNDAY SC

INTERNATIONAL
MENTS FOR OCT. 6
REV. L. W. MU

Subject: The Capture of Josh. 6:8-20—Golden
11:30—Memory V
Commentary.

Jericho was a walled trenched power. Israel armed host. The contest to be unequal. But the was merely apparent. As out, faith without arm
mightiest.

It must have seemed who sat on the wall in ity and laughed, to see march in silence around twelve times in seven days ready for more. The a flock and a who alone sur-den who is ages that are ing God who mity of their roism of the little but who rm life offers t who make hblime, as it is of human life

s larger, day
he impercepti-
d of approxi-
minative the
e. I can pictterably un-
ay, to be com-
fined slavery
characteristic dern life. To e of it to de-
t it, to bear
e and to love,
ve a little, to
t the diviner
e differentiate
f to plan for aith in God in ve riches that of our times,
hank God for
mong us who ive so largely,
have capacity
this common nk God that t they know hat they are he risen and urden bearers
me saturated ilies and the e that infect onstitute the ost strata of l have short

oism that we nner and con-
owe much, is ong the politis of the coun-
obvious and hat heroism is hrightcousness
ny of greed at the field. The e are as busy prey upon the wers who are
usily at work.
d captains of
l piracy are at all the mo
ey have per-
they are sin-
hey have un-ental in bring-nd justify the
have been and
ey scorn gov-
law, they "off popular disappleaders are d papers are of their books
e the test and
In pulpit and nd in halls of e is an itching
rt there their d." It is need-the story by rnments, mu-
they may ale legislatures or have tried ce that they
th of adminis-
h honesty and attempt to

ith no theory,
n the most un-
everything is h any nation
There is no use
ation of hostil-ady on. The
eld. Heroism against him
les and for the eroism has alt has already

pit and press,
esman, to the ness world, to the world at ed our golden own or be con-
the man with e heroism nec-
Men have re-
n consumed.
bow down or not lest the we shall revermiform ap-nd commercial y and disease
to the patient.
en of heroism
e wisdom, who nerve and the dom to disobey
nezzars and to
l not be burnt.
ot spell their te disaster. It
rom uglier ills

that can live
plation of such and confidence eaders that are
hat has made
e heroism that faithful in the is the heroism story. She has ds more of it.
ed. It should
should have it.
f the Christ.

ON BEFORE KINGS.

[illegible] and the De Phegaya.
[illegible] frequently could [illegible] to accept his hat on [illegible] with Queen Alexan-
[illegible] to put his arm around
[illegible]'s neck and addressed
[illegible] not consonant with the [illegible] of the dignity for such [illegible] made and provided. Of [illegible] denial will not catch up [illegible] reporters, and those [illegible] to believe the latter will [illegible] of Twain's admission that [illegible] Alexandra for a second time
[illegible] him to put on his hat be-
The "fake," for such the have been, with the addi-Penn kept his hat on all the talking with the king, ob[illegible] currency as to inspire a [illegible] evening paper to ask:
[illegible] Penn the last American kept his hat on while with the king of England?"
[illegible] is a very interesting for the student of manners who before entering up[illegible] pause to say that Penn never was an American lived and died a British [illegible] hope that the American would find that few of [illegible] been guilty of [illegible] or love of advertising on their hats when conwith the monarch or execu-[illegible] station. If a foreigner [illegible] of equal discourtesy to However what sermons the press would address to [illegible] and his country! Penn

[illegible]fication that his refusal [illegible] his hat in the presence of [illegible] dictated by his religion.
[illegible] was a case of conscience.
often the index of charac-wore his hat when presented his credentials ambassador, and kept it the interview. The [illegible] saw in the incident
[illegible] of the Corsican, and announced him a "parvenue"
[illegible] of his position. The Em[illegible] of Austria, said Metternich, have worn his hat in receiv-
[illegible]sentative of the meanest
[illegible] the world. He would have [illegible] out of courtesy not merely [illegible]ssador, but to the latter's
But, as Metternich added,
[illegible]or of Austria was a gentle-would never in his own [illegible] social superiority to his

[illegible]ring in the king's presence
[illegible]or of precaution with at [illegible] family in Great Britain.
[illegible]Baron Kingsale,
[illegible] prescriptive right, granted
[illegible]hn, to keep their hats on [illegible]sence of the monarch. The [illegible]ngs of George III.'s time
[illegible]his right in a peculiarly of-[illegible]manner. The king remon-
Lord Kingsale, so the story
[illegible] King John authorized [illegible]ors forever to keep their [illegible] the king was present."
[illegible]orizing them to keep their [illegible]en ladies were present,
[illegible] the king, who must have [illegible] his lucid moments, as he [illegible] the queen and her attend-
[illegible]ems difficult to believe [illegible] was capable of saying any[illegible]tly pointed. Rather are [illegible]ed to accept as characteris-
[illegible] his estimate of Shakes[illegible] great deal of sorry stuff in [illegible], only, of course, one [illegible]y so!"—Boston Transcript.

[illegible]en are willing to do any[illegible]pt work.

EASY FOOD

[illegible]hing Use Without Cook-[illegible]ing.

[illegible]ryone likes a cereal food
[illegible]d at breakfast and supper,
[illegible]ordinary way of cooking
[illegible]lts in a pasty mass that is [illegible]gestible, and if not properly
[illegible]the raw mass goes down
[illegible]ntestinal tract where gas is [illegible]and trouble follows.
[illegible]know that good food
[illegible]digested keeps the body
[illegible]poor, and if poorly prepared
[illegible]by the poorly prepared [illegible]digestion is sure to bring on
[illegible]

[illegible]ood to digest in this [illegible]ple is from wheat
[illegible]ed thoroughly at [illegible]ast 15 to 16 hours be[illegible]and has
[illegible]ve different pro-
[illegible]preparation. The food,
[illegible]in reality
[illegible]for instant ser-
[illegible]has been changed
[illegible]of Sanitas so that it is pre-
[illegible]and ready for almost immedi[illegible]ption.
[illegible]ady writes that
[illegible]for years from indigestion
[illegible]from the use of [illegible]was not suitable to her [illegible]gestion. She says:
[illegible]using Grape-Nuts, and I
[illegible]having had a prejudice at [illegible]repeatedly urged before
[illegible]ded to try the food, but I [illegible]knew what indigestion is [illegible]it, and have never been [illegible]in better health. I have [illegible]n weight from 109 to 124
[illegible]

[illegible]can be well, practically
[illegible], if they will adopt scien-[illegible]and leave off the indigestible
"There's a Reason."
[illegible]Food is crisp and de-[illegible]ous. It should be [illegible]ed as it comes from the [illegible]without cooking, except in [illegible]it is made up into pud-[illegible]other desserts. Book of [illegible]ge," and "The Road to [illegible]ell."

WHAT IS PE-RU-NA?

Is it a Catarrh Remedy, or a Tonic, or Is it Both?

Some people call Peruna a great tonic. Others refer to Peruna as a great catarrh remedy.

Which of these people are right? Is it more proper to call Peruna a catarrh remedy than to call it a tonic?

Our reply is, that Peruna is both a tonic and a catarrh remedy. Indeed, there can be no effectual catarrh remedy that is not also a tonic.

In order to thoroughly relieve any case of catarrh, a remedy must not only have a specific action on the mucous membranes affected by the catarrh, but it must have a general tonic action on the nervous system.

Catarrh, even in persons who are otherwise strong, is a weakened condition of some mucous membrane. There must be something to strengthen the circulation, to give tone to the arteries, and to raise the vital forces.

Perhaps no vegetable remedy in the world has attracted so much attention from medical writers as HYDRASTIS CANADENSIS. The wonderful efficacy of this herb has been recognized many years, and is growing in its hold upon the medical profession. When joined with CUBEBS and COPAIBA a trio of medical agents is formed in Peruna which constitutes a specific remedy for catarrh that in the present state of medical progress cannot be improved upon. This action, reinforced by such renowned tonics as COLLINSONIA CANADENSIS, CORYDALIS FORMOSA and GOLDEN SEED, ought to make this compound an ideal remedy for catarrh in all its stages and locations in the body.

From a theoretical standpoint, therefore, Peruna is beyond criticism. The use of Peruna, confirms this opinion. Numberless testimonials from every quarter of the earth furnish ample evidence that this judgment is not over enthusiastic. When practical experience confirms a well-grounded theory the result is a truth that cannot be shaken.

The total length of railways now working in Mexico is 13,567 miles, and most railways report increases in their traffic returns.

BABY WASTED TO SKELETON.

In Torments With Terrible Sores on Face and Body—Tore at Flesh —Cured by Cuticura.

"My little son, when about a year and a half old, began to have sores come out on his face. They began to come on his arms, then on other parts of his body, and then one came on his chest, worse than the others. Still he grew worse. At the end of about a year and a half of suffering he grew so bad I had to tie his hands in cloths at night to keep him from scratching the sores and tearing the flesh. He got to be a mere skeleton and was hardly able to walk. I sent to the drug store and got a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment, and at the end of about two months the sores were all well. He has never had any sores of any kind since, and I can sincerely say that only for the Cuticura Remedies my precious child would have died from those terrible sores. I used only one cake of Soap and about three boxes of Ointment. Mrs. Pelagie Sheldon, R. F. D., No. 1, Woodville, Conn., April 22, 1905."

Why Clocks Don't Strike Together.

A man in this city whose business is clock winding, which includes also the regulating and cleaning of the family timepieces in his charge, explained the other day why it is hard to have a number of clocks strike together.

"You see," he said, "some clocks are arranged to strike half a minute before the hour, some a quarter of a minute before, others a few seconds after, and so on. Now if I regulate them to strike at the same instant they will not be in agreement in point of actual time, and that is really a more important consideration. Of course, if there are a great many clocks in the house it is likely that several will happen to strike together. For instance, one house on my route has twenty clocks that I look after. Of these, five or six, strike in unison and the others all within a minute, excepting one. I have orders to keep nineteen of the clocks at exactly the correct time, but the little jeweled timepiece in the bedroom of the mistress of the house is to be kept always three minutes fast. I suppose she has some special reason for that.

"No, I don't get rich at my business, but I make a living at it. The house I just spoke of is an especially profitable one, of course, having so many clocks. They pay me $100 a year for my attendance there, which is given weekly, as it is to all the places I visit."—New York Times.

A Deceptive Sign.

In a North Tenth street restaurant window there stands a sign which usually reads: "Steaks and chops, ham and egg." The restaurant is about to be removed, and there has lately been put in place in the same window, and in such a position that it rests across the bottom of the sign mentioned, another bearing the words "for rent." As both signs are of the same width and color, size of letter and general appearance in every way, the juxtaposition gives remarkable reading:

Steaks
and Chops
For Rent
—Philadelphia Record.

Taking A Flyer.

The secretary of an Eastern railway tells some time ago was anxious to purchase a silver-lined mine in the Northwest, value of the surrounding mining in the neighborhood for the purchase.

As the ore assayed well and everything looked propitious a mining engineer was sent to examine the mine. His report was favorable—too favorable, in fact—and aroused the suspicions of the would-be purchasers, so it was determined to investigate more closely.

At this point a well-known mining man of Butte recommended that a certain fourth-rank ready person should be sent to look at the mine. "You can depend upon his judgment," the mining man said. "You can trust to his report, which, in all probability, will be brief and very much to the point."

The advice was followed. As predicted, the report was short and pithy. It read substantially as follows:

"Gents: I have made an examination of the X—— mine, and report that the ore is as represented; that it assays high; that it is here in plenty; but to get your supplies in and your ore out, you will need to pack them on the backs of bald eagles."—Harper's Weekly.

Others Add the Strenuous Life.

An episode of Fox's amusingly satirizing rode through Brit, reconstructed by Mr. Cook from various sources, is excellently given. Fox had wagered something about a waistcoat, which could only be obtained in Paris; went off to Dover by night, caught the mail packet, posted to Paris and back to Calais, and remembered he had a horse racing at Newmarket. He chartered a fishing-boat bound for the eastern counties, just got to Newmarket in time for the race, took the post back to London and stopped on the way to dine. In the middle of the port and dice after dinner he was caught by a special messenger who had been tearing over half England in search of him and reminded him that he had to move to bring in a marriage bill in the House of Commons. He rushed to the stables, reached the House in time to make a brilliant speech in reply to North and Burke, and defeated North on a division by a single vote.—London Spectator.

FITS, St. Vitus' Dance, Nervous Diseases permanently cured by Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. $2 trial bottle and treatise free Dr. H. R. Kline, L.L., 931 Arch St., Phila., Pa.

If an employ doesn't know his place he need not expect to keep it long.

We don't object to seeing others get on, but would rather not serve as stepping stones.

It isn't recorded that the oil on troubled waters was standard.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

There are no fewer than twelve street railway companies in Chicago and eleven different gauges of track.

Few men would borrow trouble if they had to give security.

Beware of Ointments For Catarrh That Contain Mercury.

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.
Sold by Druggists, price, 75c. per bottle.
Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Corn and Beans Combined.

Robert Tuscon, steward of the Atlamont Hotel, is the possessor of an ear of corn which combines corn and lima beans.

On the surface of the corn, which is perfect, lima beans, closely pressed together, are woven in the shape of a spiral and seem to prosper with the corn. The ear of corn was covered with husks and it is believed that a vine of lima beans managed to entwine around the corn and was pressed to the corn by the husks. The corn was taken from a quantity grown at Reisterstown, and Steward Tuscon asserts that there is a fortune awaiting the man who can grow a field of like ears, as it does away with the trouble of uniting corn and lima beans to make succotash.

Rev. Z. T. Sweeney of Indianapolis was for three years consul-general at Constantinople. "The Turks are victims of a false civilization and a false religion," he says, "but I found them a magnanimous people, open to reason and with absolutely no race prejudices. They don't object to a Christian being a Christian or an Armenian being an Armenian. But they do object to a Christian or an Armenian meddling with the Mohammedan religion. And I venture to say that the large majority of the Armenians massacred were agitators. They knew that their designs against the Sultan's religion formed treason to the Sultan's government, and they went to their fate with open eyes."

BACKACHE AND DESPONDENCY

MISS LENA NAGEL

Are both symptoms of organic derangement, and indicate a warning to women of a trouble which will make her life a burden itself.

How often do we hear women say, "I cannot sit through my back would break." Yet they continue to drag along and suffer with aches in the small of the back, pain low down in the side, dragging sensations, nervousness and no ambition.

They do not realize that the back is the main spring of woman's organism and quickly indicates by aching a diseased condition of the feminine organs or kidneys, and that aches and pains will continue until the cause is removed.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

made from native roots and herbs has been for many years the most successful remedy in such cases. No other medicine has such a record of cures of feminine ills.

Miss Lena Nagel, of 117 Morgan St., Buffalo, N. Y., writes—"I was completely worn out and on the verge of nervous prostration. My back ached all the time. I had dreadful periods of pain, was subject to fits of crying and extreme nervousness, and was always weak and tired. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound completely cured me."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cures Female Complaints, such as Backache, Falling and Displacements, and all Organic Diseases. Dissolves and expels Tumors at an early stage. It strengthens and tones the Stomach. Cures Headache and Indigestion and invigorates the whole feminine system.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free.

It is surprising to the Baltimore American, that the achievements of the Chesapeake are not better known to owners of small pleasure craft in the big cities that can reach the bay without going outside. The Chesapeake abounds in attractions for those who journey leisurely to headwaters or minor basins.

TRY THEM
Tolmans Pepsin Pastilles | EASILY CURED
Tolmans Pepsin Pastilles | Tolmans Pepsin Pastilles
Lemon Pastilles | Lemon Pastilles
Will's Double Chloride of Gold Tablets will cure any case of Morphine, Liquor or Tobacco Habit in from ten to thirty days. Can be given in tea or coffee without the knowledge of the patient. Particulars SENT FREE.
For sale by all druggists or sent on receipt of $1.00.
THE OHIO CHEMICAL WORKS
P. O. Box 288 W. Cleveland, Ohio

If afflicted with sore eyes, use Thompson's Eye Water

TELEGRAPHY BOOKKEEPING SHORTHAND

Piano, organ and violin taught in school. Life scholarship. Tuition cash or on easy terms. Penmanship taught by mail. Typewriting taught by mail. Shorthand and typewriting taught by mail. Graduates assisted to positions. Tuition cash or on easy terms. Penmanship taught by mail. Typewriting taught by mail. Shorthand and typewriting taught by mail.

At the SOUTHERN BUSINESS COLLEGE AND TELEGRAPH SCHOOL, NEWNAN, GA.

The beauties of the English language are again evident, to the Washington Post, in the case of that western man who had skipped with the town funds and was described as "six feet tall and $10,000 short."

Heaven will be a very satisfactory place for women if the fashions there suit both the fat and the thin.

COURTING BLINDNESS

is what you are doing when you neglect inflamed, watery, sore eyes. Murine Eye Remedy cures Scaly Eyelids and Eye Troubles. Murine cures Nearly every eye disease. Cools, heals and strengthens. Don't wait until you are blind, then cry for help. Use Murine and save your eyesight. It makes weak eyes strong. Use Murine at once if your eyes are inflamed or sore. Don't suffer untold agony. Murine gives instant relief. Druggists sell Murine at 25 cts. per bottle. Murine Eye Remedy Co. will send you Murine Eye Book and Eye Advice free by mail. Write them about your eyes. Murine Eye Remedy Co., Chicago.

Tea "Cure" for Typhoid.

Peter Buhr, of 1086 Second avenue, New York, has written a letter to Mayor Guichtel suggesting cold tea as a cure for the typhoid fever that is raging at the State Hospital for the Insane. He says this cure has never been known to fail. This is his recipe:

One tablespoonful of mixed tea boiled in four cups of water. This must be allowed to stand until cold, and then taken without cream or sugar. A cupful a day should be given to typhoid patients and those in danger of the disease, according to Buhr. The letter emphasized that the tea must be cold, not hot, nor even warm.

He asks the mayor to request the ministers of the city to announce the "cure" from their pulpits next Sunday.

Mayor Guichtel has turned the letter over to the hospital doctors, who are skeptical as to the value of the prescription.—Trenton (N. J.) Dispatch to the New York Times.

Age brings wisdom; that may be why a woman will not tell her age.

TEN YEARS OF PAIN.

Unable to Do Even Housework Because of Kidney Troubles.

Mrs. Margaret Emmerich, of Clinton St., Napoleon, O., says: "For fifteen years I was a great sufferer from kidney troubles. My back pained me terribly. Every turn or move caused sharp, shooting pains. My eyesight was poor, dark spots appeared before me, and I had dizzy spells. For ten years I could not do housework, and for two years did not get out of the house. The kidney secretions were irregular, and doctors were not helping me. Doan's Kidney Pills brought me quick relief, and finally cured me. They saved my life."

Sold by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Last month the Allahabad Pioneer remarked editorially: "The other day under the present short-sighted Government we in India are drifting into a condition which cannot but be viewed with alarm by those who have witnessed the past and can only look to the future with anxiety."

A delightful canard, now current in the press, recites the sorrows of a farmer whose barn is infested with rats that have of late been eating dynamite, writes the Boston Transcript. According to the legend, the imaginary householder is very uneasy in his imaginary mind. He doesn't want the rats to live, and he doesn't dare slay them. At any moment, thinks he, the barn may mount skyward—cows, hay-loft, brown Dobbin and all. He ought to know better. Time and time again the scientists have explained that dynamite can be hammered without exploding, and that it can be burned without exploding; it won't go off unless it meets with a spark and a blow simultaneously.

CRESCENT ANTISEPTIC
GREATEST HEALER KNOWN TO SCIENCE.
Non-Poisonous. Non-Irritating. Allays Inflammation and stops pain from any cause. As strong as carbolic acid and as harmless as cream milk. Cures burns instantly; cures old and obscure sores; cures sore and inflammation from any cause on man or beast. For sore throat, sore chokers, sore head and fever. Satisfaction positively guaranteed.
For sale by all Druggists or sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price. 50c. and $1.00.
Mfgd. by CRESCENT CHEMICAL CO., Ft. Worth, Texas

Your Eyes Tested Or Treated At Your Home.

We are the largest Optical Co. in the United States doing business on easy plan, we will furnish you with eye glasses or spectacles for one dollar and upwards, and guarantee a perfect fit or refund your money. In business since 1892, and our new business plan is unknown to us by the hundreds of customers of our glasses. We will send you by mail our complete outfit free and charge. Prices are one-half what you have been paying and glasses fitted by mail are guaranteed to be the best procurable all over the United States and Canada. We can refer to thousands of people all over the United States and Canada. We can refer to thousands of people all over the United States and Canada. Write for free booklet and testimonials. Our Chief Physician is in attendance every room. Write to-day. Don't delay. Mention this paper.
THE HARPER OPTICAL CO. 2307 Third Ave., Birmingham, Ala.

You Look Prematurely Old

Because of those ugly, grizzly, grey hairs. Use "LA CREOLE" HAIR RESTORER. Price, $1.00, prepaid.

CUT IN PRICES

ALL FALL GOODS MARKED DOWN

We are determined to clean out our Fall Stock so as to make room for New Winter Goods and have cut the prices down to clear the stock out.

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY

CALICOES to go at 5c per yard
SHEETINGS to go at 5c per yard
SHOES $3.50 Shoes to go at $2.50
" 2.50 Shoes to go at 1.75
CLOTHING—Men's Suits, $25.00 Suits to go at $17.50
" " " 12.50 " " 7.50
" " " 7.50 " " 4.00
" " " 5.00 " " 3.00

This is just a few examples. Everything else in the store cut in a similar way

We have entered the cotton market and will pay the highest market price for cotton—and the price promises to be high this season.

Also we shall continue to pay highest prices for COUNTRY PRODUCE, WOOL, BEESWAX, HIDES and TALLOW. Bring them in and get cash for them.

PHONOGRAPHS and RECORDS
a Specialty
Come and Hear Them Play

H. KANJUTZKY

CLANTON - - ALA.

Fall and Winter is Upon Us

and we are making our first showing of the New Fall Styles in Clothes for men and boys. They are the newest productions of the best known makes, in all the latest fabrics, shades, and a real treat to the eye of a man who knows good clothes when he sees them. Come in, look, try one and you will be highly pleased.

This is the Season for Hat Changing

and nothing can add to your appearance more than a stylish, becoming hat. If you will come in, we will convince you that we have the latest styles.

Furnishing Goods

the little things that go to make up the attire of a well dressed person are to be found here in the newest styles at moderate prices.

Just Received a Beautiful Lot

of Laces, Dress Goods and Lace Collars. Also a complete line of Parisian Corsets.

Fall Models In Footwear

Our line is complete.

Star Brand Shoes are Better

J. C. JONES

CLANTON - - - - - ALA.

SOUTHERN TYPEWRITER EXCHANGE

20 COMMERCE St., MONTGOMERY, ALA.

Southern Alabama Agents for the Fay-Sholes Typewriter

(The Machine That Holds all Worlds Records For Speed.)

WRITE FOR CATALOGUE

We have some especially good bargains in second-hand machines that have been taken in exchange as part pay for new Fay-Sholes machines. Among this lot are the following:

No. 2 Remingtons from $15.00 to $30.00. Some of these are rebuilt with twirlers. Bar-Lock $20.00, Williams $25.00, Remington No. 6 $40.00, Daugherty $15.00, Blickensderfer No. 5 $12.50, factory rebuilt Oliver No. 3 $60.00, Fay-Sholes Second-hand No. 6 $45.00, and there are others in the list. Supplies for all machines. Machines of all kind repaired.

If you want a machine from this list drop us a line and tell us about it. If you want a machine not mentioned in this list, we will be pleased to have your order.

We sell machines on the monthly payment plan.

SOUTHERN TYPEWRITER EXCHANGE.

Primary District.

Please show me a small space in your valuable paper.

We had a refreshing rain monday p.m.

mrs. molly mcGee spent monday evening with mrs. Ella Chastain.

Grandma mcGee spent a few nights with mrs. Ella Chastain.

mrs. Jennie Hall was the guest of mrs. mcGee.

mr. Tom mcGee was down visiting relatives week before last.

mrs. Kate Latham was the guest of mrs mattie masons.

Our Sunday school is progressing nicely, but only a small crowd out. We have started in to a new quarter. Let all come out that will. As Bro Latham says, let us do as Rehobad. answer every question.

The Barnett Shepard Lumber Co. is progressing nicely; sawed one night till 12 o'clock.

Our school house is going to be a fine one. School will start at the Primary training school the last of this month. Look out children.

We are having a nice store put up at the store house of mr. William Lawrence, by G. T. Latham. He is going to put in a full stock of everything.

mr. J. O. mize is putting up a new dwelling house.

We had a nice baptising at the Cotton bridge the 5th Sunday. Also a big baptising at Maplesville. 41 baptized.

Well, I will leave the rest for someone else. Success to the Banner. UNCLE DAVID.

Thomas A. Edison, the great American inventor, says "Fully eight per cent of the illness of mankind comes from eating improper food or too much food; people are inclined to over-indulge themselves." This is where indigestion finds its beginning in nearly every case. The stomach can do just so much work and no more, and when you overload it, or when you eat the wrong kind of food, the digestive organs cannot possibly do the work demanded of them. It is at such times that the stomach needs help; it demands help, and warns you by headaches belching, sour stomach, nausea and indigestion. You should attend to this at once by taking something that will actually do the work for the stomach. Kodol will do this. It is a combination of natural digestants and vegetable acids and contains the same juices found in a healthy stomach. It is pleasant to take. It digests what you eat. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

We have just received a fine line of candies—Lowney's and Jacobs—all size packages. Florence Drug Store.

DR. J. EARL SUMAN
DENTIST
Office Elston Building
CLANTON, ALA.

DR. P. I. HOPKINS
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON
EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROAT
Office Elston Building
CLANTON

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol cures indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does not only cure indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy cures all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

Mr. S. S. Bell, of Ravenswood, W. Va., says—"I was troubled with sour stomach for twenty years. Kodol cured me and we are now using it in milk for baby."

Kodol Digests What You Eat.

Bottles only. $1.00 Size holding 2½ times the trial size, which sells for 50 cents.
Prepared by E. O. DeWITT & CO., CHICAGO.

Upchurch Drug Co.

IN MEMORIAM.

[illegible] Tuesday night, Sept. 17, 1907, at the [illegible] of our brother, G. A. Young, [illegible] Young, who was about 21 years of age, died and passed to [illegible] early [illegible] a beautiful and peaceful [illegible] of the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

W STOR

Saturday, October 5

DISPENSARY BUIL

LANTON, ALA.

selected stock of

, Clothing, Shoes, Ha

nt's Furnishing Goods

Hats, Cloaks and Jac

ds, Low Prices

leased to Wait Upon

ave the pleasure of waiting up

O. LUBELSKY

FROM BIRMINGHAM

TON - - A

Money to Be Saved

your drugs and whiskies

ke the Collier Drug Co. will urprise to you. We are the l

druggists in this section of

can save you many pennie

your business.

r prices and put your dollars w

ceive greatest possible value.

WHISKIES

	Regular Price
ore (full quart)	1.00
, bottled in bond	1.00
	1.00
	1.00
	1.00
	1.00
aty	1.00
	1.00
e Brandy	1.00
	1.00
	1.00
	1.00
	1.00
	.75
	1.00
	1.00

ge and express department is complete in mail orders get prompt and careful attent

Your patronage will be appreciated.

OLLIER DRUG CO.

109-111 NORTH 20th St.

GHAM - - AL

Health is More Than Wealth

Use BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT AND

KING OF THEM ALL

ays have good health. What is more to a ealth? All the money in the world can't here health is unknown. Ballard's Snow Li

Rheumatism, Cuts, Burns, Sprains, N

Sores, Stiff Joints, Contracted Muscles,

Back and all the ills that Flesh is Heir to.

One Who Knows.

cott, Salt Lake City, Utah, writes: "I cannot y praise your Ballard's Snow Liniment for of acute rheumatism, caused by sudden change ure to the weather. I also recommend your Horehound Syrup for coughs and colds

d together defy all pain.

GENUINE. Three Sizes 25c, 50c, $1.00

llard Snow Liniment Co.

500-502 North Second Street,

. LOUIS, - MISSOURI.

d and Recommended by

ch Drug Co., Clanton.

THE BANNER

LET THE PEOPLE RULE.

VOL. XVI — CLANTON, ALA., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1907 — No. 2

MAN ON THE CORNER

The Rights He Sees, and Some He Does Not.

have got behind with things ..., printing THE BANNER ... means more work and ... of it, next week we'll get ... it, and it will come easier.

Lyceum entertainment on ... night will be given at the ... instead of the school ... Hope to see a big attend-

... Cooper Bros. advt. on page ... the new advt. of the Clan- ...ture Co. on page 6, and ... forget to read the serial story, ... us know how you like it, ... the advt. of the Alabama ... Fair, and that of Alex Rice ... found on page 3, and our ... barbers will present their ... to your patronage in our ...

... changes make a heap of ... but we believe you are gete ... best paper that ever was ... and published in Chilton ...

TEEN ENTERTAINMENT

... order that the memories of ... numerable gods might be ...ated, it became a custom ... ancient Greeks and Ro- ... to set apart one day for the ... of each. Very quickly ... see that this plan would ..., for the number of gods ... exceeded the number of ... the year. For,

... many an excellent saint, ...orge, with a dragon and lance ...rick, so jolly and quaint; ...Vitus, the saint of the dance; ...nis, the saint of the Gaul; ...Andrew, the saint of the Scot; ...onathan, youngest of all, etc."

... days were appropriated as ...cients saw fit, and November ...as reserved by them for the ...ip of all the saints. This day ...pent by them in reveling and ..., and was known as All ... Day or Day of All Hallows. ... day preceding All Saints, ... All Hallows, or Halloween, ...ly affords us more interest ... All Saints Day. Indeed, it ... be no exaggeration were I to ..., that this day holds in store ... more genuine fun and frivo- ...lity of any day of the entire ... For is it not true that the ... lend us their presence on ... day of the year? The ...al evening of October the ...first! All Witches Night, ... commonly know it. All ...ry with its occult craft is ...d loose upon us. On this one ...g of the year, the mystic sis- ...the weird fates, Clotho, Lach- ...sis and Atropos are given the priv ...of being with us. (They are ...given the power of revealing ...anything of vital import.

... highly interesting crea- ...have consented to entertain ...auspices of Clanton School ...rement Association. Their ... will be in the vicinity of ...nt house. The guests of the ...g will be entertained in the ... house. An interesting pro- ...has been prepared and will be ...ly executed. The entertain- ... beginning at nine o'clock. ...mittance fee of 25 cents will ...cted at the door. Two hours ...d fun for 25 cents. The ...t that will be realized from ...ertainment will go to the ...for seating the auditorium of ...blic school. A cordial invi- ...is extended the public to at- ... You are urged not only to ...your presence on this occasion ...ge your relatives to come; ...ard to your neighbors, con- ...to remind your family, and ...means bring your sweetheart. ...ion 25 cents.

Peoples Savings Bank of Chilton County.

CLANTON, ALA.

CAPITAL STOCK $50,000.00.

WM. E. HOLLOWAY, President.
W. T. CALLEN, Cashier. JOHN A. THOMAS, Assistant Cashier

DIRECTORS:

W. T. Callen — Wm. E. Holloway — Sam Kaufman
H. M. Martin, Sr. — M. L. Greil — John A. Thomas

There is a number of people who are under an erroneous impression. They think that they never control enough money to start a bank account. In this they are mistaken. We solicit small accounts as well as large. And we handle the business of both with our best care. We believe that you ought to have a bank account, and we offer you our services.

THE CLANTON BANK

CLANTON, ALA.

Many people seem to think that unless they can open a Savings Account with not less than $50.00 or $100.00, it is not worth the while to begin. This is not a correct position to take. If a person cannot open an account with more than $1.00, and really desires to get some money ahead, then he should begin with even $1.00. The first dollar saved and put in bank, is the initial step on the way to prosperity. "Great oaks from little acorns grow." As a rule, the person who "Puts off" the opening of a Savings Account until he has a large amount to deposit, is not likely to ever have a bank account. We solicit your account.

THE CLANTON BANK

Statement of the condition of the Peoples Savings Bank, located at Clanton, Ala., at the close of business October 15, 1907.

RESOURCES.

Loans and Discounts		$ 51,264.25
Overdrafts		4.20
Bonds and Stocks owned by the Bank		10,000.00
Banking House, Furniture & Fixtures		5,420.47
Due from Banks and Bankers in this State	$4,852.00
Due from Banks and Bankers in other States	6,718.75
Currency	2,727.00
Gold	200.00
Silver, Nickels and Pennies	407.27
Checks and Cash Items	120.00
		15,025.02
From Alabama Bonds		750.00
Total		$ 82,422.21

LIABILITIES.

Capital Stock Paid in		$ 50,000.00
Undivided Profits, less Current Expenses and Taxes Paid		11,221.46
Individual Deposits subject to Check	$40,478.25
Time Certificates	10,000.00
Cashier's Checks	322.50
Bills Payable	5,000.00
		55,800.75
Total		$117,022.21

The State of Alabama, Chilton County.

Before me came W. T. Callen, Cashier of the Peoples Savings Bank of Clanton, Ala., who being duly sworn, says that the above and foregoing statement is a true condition of said Bank, as shown by the books on file in said Bank.

W. T. CALLEN, Cashier.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, this 19th day of October, 1907.

J. E. MULLINS, Notary Public.

Attest:
H. L. ORELL
W. E. HOLLOWAY } Directors.
JNO. A. THOMAS

Statement of the condition of the Clanton Bank, located at Clanton Ala., at the close of business October 15, 1907.

RESOURCES.

Loans and Discounts		$ 61,848.39
Overdrafts		283.45
Bonds and Stocks owned by the Bank		10,000.00
Furniture and Fixtures		1,500.00
Due from Banks and Bankers in this State	$27,207.61
Due from Banks and Bankers in other States	8,261.60
Currency	4,000.00
Gold	645.00
Silver, Nickels and Pennies	1,165.71
Checks and Cash Items	671.40
		42,057.67
Total		$115,694.51

LIABILITIES

Capital Stock Paid in		$ 15,000.00
Undivided Profits, less Current Expenses and Taxes Paid		5,693.83
Due to Banks and Bankers in this State	$ 992.27
Individual Deposits subject to Check	65,648.36
Time Certificates	9,000.00
Cashier's Checks	34.17
Due to State of Alabama	5,000.00
Bills Payable	14,000.00
		$100,000.80
Total		$120,694.63

The State of Alabama, Chilton County.

Before me came R. A. Matthews, Cashier of the Clanton Bank, who being duly sworn, says that the above and foregoing statement is a true condition of said Bank, as shown by the books on file in said Bank.

R. A. MATTHEWS, Cashier.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, this 21st day of October, 1907.

E. E. DEASON, Notary Public.

Attest:
W. J. MULLINS
E. E. REESE
W. L. BARTON } Directors

CORRESPONDENCE.

Don't get out of patience with the baby when it is peevish and restless, and don't wear yourself out worrying night and day about it—just give him a little cotoswsweet. Cascaweet is a corrective for the stomachs of babies and children. Contains no harmful drugs. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

Clanton, Oct. 19, 1907

Dear Banner:—I promised that perhaps I wouldn't write again soon, but as your printer made me say that S. O. Y. Ray did the preaching in the tent meeting instead of W. J. Ray, I would say that we had S. O. Y. Ray's tent, but W. J. Ray, who is the State evangelist now, did the preaching. Please insert this as a correction, and oblige. R. J. MITCHELL.

New Orleans, La., Oct. 19, 1907

Editor Banner—Will you allow me space in your valuable paper to tell the young people of Chilton county that I have been with them 21 years, and today I will sail for the big ditch at Panama, will be on water tix days and nights, and if I never see them it is good bye now, for I'm going to take a trip on steam boat. I will try to give a write-up in the paper every week. Will close, hoping to see you all some day. CLEVE LOWE.

NOTICE.

There will be preaching at the Methodist church, Sunday night by the pastor. I wish to urge all the members especially, to attend, both morning and evening if possible. We need your presence and encouragement and you need the service. All are cordially invited.

Sincerely,
S. U. TURNIPSEED, Pastor.

NOTICE.

All persons interested or well wishers please meet at Pleasant Grove, M. P. church in beat 6 on Thursday, the 31st day of October, for the purpose of cleaning off the cemetery. Come early and bring sufficient tools to do the work; come prepared to stay all day if necessary.

A. C. MIMS, } Trustees.
P. A. VANCE }

Out of Sight.

"Out of sight, out of mind," is an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's out of sight, out of mind and out of existence. Piles too, and chilblains disappear under its healing influence. Guaranteed by Upchurch Drug co. 25c.

NOTICE.

In accordance with an act of the last Legislature, requiring the Sheriffs of their respective counties, to procure from the office of the United States Internal Revenue Collector, a list of all persons or corporations in their counties to whom licenses have been issued, for the sale of Spiritous, Venous or Malt Liquors, and to publish the same in some newspa, er published in said county.

I have made this examination, and find that there has been only one license issued for the county of Chilton, and that to the Clanton Dispensary for this year from Jan. 1st 1907 to this the 23rd day of Oct. 1907.

JOHN S. CATTS,
Sheriff of Chilton Co., Ala.

FOR SALE CHEAP—40 acres land, three miles northeast of Clanton; 20 acres in cultivation; lies well; good house, good well, good fence around entire 40 acres.

P. D. WILSON, Clanton, Ala.

Call and get a little package we have for you. Florence Drug Store.

LAND FOR SALE—10 miles southwest of Clanton, 120 acres; 60 timbered; 60 in cultivation; two dwellings; two wells good water; two good orchards and outhouses; small orchard and grape vines. Place noted for health and beauty. Two public roads and telephone through the land. Churches and schools convenient. Write or call on R. E. ROPER, Clanton, Ala., R. F. D. No. 7.

STRAYED—About seven weeks ago, from my place at Maplesville, R. F. D. No. 2, a Poland China Boar, unmarked, very curly hair. A liberal reward will be paid for its recovery by W. E. HAYES, Maplesville, Ala., R. F. D. No 2.

NOTICE.

I have discharged W. D. Mc Dowell from my employment.

J. S. CATTS, Sheriff.

With this changeable weather, which brings on coughs and colds, there is nothing better than our Compound Syrup White Pine and Tar. Florence Drug Store.

J. A. SKAGGS

CONTRACTOR & BUILDER

I am prepared to contract to erect any building in brick or wood, in Clanton, and to furnish all necessary material.

J. A. SKAGGS, Jemison, Ala.

BOOKKEEPING COURSE $3.00 per month.

Shorthand Course $3.00 per month.

Telegraph Course, unlimited scholarship $30.00.

Write SOUTHERN BUSINESS COLLEGE AND SCHOOL OF TELEGRAPHY, Newnan, Ga.

They Make You Feel Good.

The pleasant purgative effect experienced by all who use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and the healthy condition of the body and mind which they create makes one feel joyful. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

CANNON'S BARGAIN ROW

AN EYE OPENER FOR TEN DAYS

$1.00 Gets a Big Peck of Coffee
$1.00 Gets 20 lbs. Sugar, any kind
$1.00 Gets 20 lbs. Rice
$5.25 Buys a Barrel of Good Flour

LADIES

let us show you our new line of Dress Goods, Suitings in Wool or Silk in all the new weaves and color; can match your hat with most any goods you can pick on, including Gloves. Also a complete line to select from for the children.

CLOTHING RIGHT UP TO THE MINUTE

MEN AND BOYS

Clothing, we have the most complete line in Chilton county, price $1.50 to $27.50 per suit; Single or Double Breasted Coat with the new crease seam effect. Peg Top Pants to wear with or without suspenders. Now, if you don't see your desk in the window come in and turn things over until you find it, just like you would hunting an old plow around home. You can also see all the new shaped Hats in the show cases.

Shoes For Everybody

Shoes, we handle the famous Smith Shoe, known for style, durability and long life.

Our Motto

New Goods, small profits and satisfied customers.
Let us figure on your entire wants

Copyright 1906 by Hart Schaffner & Marx

M. F. CANNON & SONS

CLANTON, ALA.

WANTED.

FOR SALE—60 acres of land 1½ miles southeast of Clanton, with dwelling house and well of water; 25 acres in cultivation. One dwelling and four lots in the town of Clanton. Call and see W. J. PONDER, Clanton, Ala.

FOR SALE—160 acre farm, five miles out from Maplesville, well watered and timbered; two horse farm open; good cotton land. R. H. MARTIN, Maplesville, Ala.

FOR SALE or TRADE—Two young mules, 4 years old, well broke, will sell or trade for one large mule, cash or credit, with good security. Address or call on R. E. ROPER, R. F. D. No. 7, Clanton, Ala.

FOR SALE—A small farm 2½ mile west of Clanton on the Maplesville road. Land all fresh well improved, good living water. Apply to W. J. SCRAGGS, Clanton, Ala., R. F. D. No. 7.

REMINGTON Typewriter No. 2 for sale. In first-class condition. THE BANNER, Clanton.

FOR SALE at a bargain, One Grist Mill and one 20 H. P. Gasoline Engine, good as new, at Sylacauga, Ala. Will make price delivered at Clanton. Address J. W. K., P. O. Box 284, Clanton, Ala.

DESIRABLE positions are always occuring at the Bryce Hospital for men of good morals and able-bodies. Salaries ranging from $18.00 to $30.00 per month, board, lodging, laundry and medical attention free. For full information write Dr. J. T. SEARCY, Supt. Tuscaloosa, Ala.

LAND FOR SALE—216 acres of good land, 65 acres in cultivation. 2 settlements. In sections 29 and 30, township 22, range 13. Apply to R. F. SIMS, Maplesville Ala., R. F. D. No. 1.

FOR RENT OR SALE—Seven roomed house, good barn and stalls. Fine garden. In Clanton. Apply at Banner Office.

124 ACRES FOR SALE, four miles southeast of Clanton. Apply to Q. S., Banner office, Clanton.

FOR SALE—80 acres good land, two miles from Clanton; two settlements on the tract. The tract is well watered. Call on or address G. O. FOSHEE, Clanton, Ala., R. F. D. No. 5.

DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve is good for little burns and big burns, small scratches or bruises and big ones. It is healing and soothing. Good for piles. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

There is Strength in Combinations, and the strongest possible combination is a good Painter and

Davis' 100 per cent Pure paint

This combination cannot be beaten, why not try it?

For sale by Payne & Payne, Montgomery, Ala.

W. R. MADDOX

BLACKSMITH

I do all kinds of Repair Work in Wood or Iron. Buy Buckets and Bunkers.

Cold Tire Setting. I can shrink your Buggy or Wagon Tire cold or hot.

Horse-shoeing up-to-date. Satisfaction guaranteed.

CLANTON

J. V. HIGGINS

WATCHMAKER, JEWELER AND ENGRAVER

At the Florence Drug Store, Clanton, Ala. All work guaranteed. Special attention given to Watch Cleaning, Stone Setting and Engraving.

Repair all kinds of Graphophones Guns and Pistols Repaired.

DEATH LIST NOW 38

What Is Number of Victims In Dupont Explosion.

PROPERTY LOSS OF $780,000

Martial Law Has Been Declared in the Wreck Strewn District, Which Is Guarded and Policed by State Militia Comanded by Gov. Hanley.

Pontanet, Ind., Oct. 17.—The loss of the Dupont Powder company in property damaged by the recent explosion is estimated at $220,000, including 65,000 kegs of powder stored in the magazine which exploded.

The property loss in the town is estimated to exceed $500,000.

Dr. W. F. Willen, of Terre Haute, chief surgeon of the Pontanet mills of the Dupont Powder company, has compiled an official list of the known dead. The number is 38, all identified save two bodies, the fragments of which are in a sack at the morgue there.

Martial law has been declared, and the wreck-strewn district, containing four square miles, is guarded and policed by state troops commanded by Governor Hanley.

It is reported that the magazine which blew up contained 50,000 pounds of dynamite in addition to 65,000 kegs of powder.

TWO KILLED IN GINS.

Bibb County Men Fatally Mutilated by Cotton Machinery.

Macon, Ga., Oct. 17.—Almost within the same hour Wednesday morning, two citizens of Bibb county lost their lives by being ground to pieces in cotton gins.

In both cases the men were caught in the breast of the gin and snatched to their death, the saws having horribly mutilated the arms and portions of the body dragged within their reach.

At the East East Macon ginnery Harvey R. Fuller, an employee about the plant, who had been engaged about the mouth, attracted the attention of other employees by his loud cries. Within a moment the machinery was stopped and he was released from his perilous position, but not before several arteries had been severed. Within a few minutes he was carried to the county hospital and there death relieved his sufferings.

H. F. Jones, a well known Bibb county farmer, was the second victim. While operating a ginnery on the Eighth place, a short distance out on the Columbus road, his hand was caught in the machinery and he was snatched against the gin with such force that the spout of an oil can was driven with great force into his temple and into the brain, causing death almost instantly.

RECALLS OLD TRAGEDY.

Miss Elsie Morgan Goes To New Orleans for Medical Treatment.

New Orleans, La., Oct. 17.—Miss Elsie Morgan, 23 years old, the sole survivor of the schooner Olympic, whose passengers and crew, among whom women and children, were murdered by a giant negro sailor in the Gulf of Mexico two years ago, has come to New Orleans from her home on Spanish Honduras for a medical operation.

When the negro attempted to make off with Miss Morgan in a dory she scuffled and in the fight which ensued received a revolver wound in the arm. It is an old wound, which now requires attention. Shortly after the tragedy the negro, whose name was McField, was captured and lynched on the island of Utilla by a mob of white men.

All Stock Is In Sight.

Albany, Ga., Oct. 17.—The cotton mill committee of the Albany Business Change announces that $175,000 of the original capital stock of $250,000 which the committee undertook, several weeks ago, to secure to guarantee the operation in 1908 of a large yarn mill in Albany, has been actually subscribed, and that the remaining $75,000 is in sight. The project is in such shape that the positive statement is made by prominent local business men that the mill will be built in 1908, work beginning early in the year.

Bloody Work of Yaquis.

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 17.—Four men and three women, one of the former being a government mail carrier, were ambushed and killed between San Jose de Ellis and La Colorado, east of Hermosillo, in the lower Sonora country, by Yaquis. The killing was discovered a short time after by a party of American mining men who were traveling over the trail with an escort of Mexican soldiers.

Perhaps Fatally Shot.

Bristol, Tenn., Oct. 17.—Monk Street, a farmer, shot and perhaps fatally wounded William H. Jones, near Keelsburg, Carter county, on Tuesday night. Stout used a shotgun, the charge penetrating Jones' abdomen. A quarrel ensued, and Jones followed Stout to his home, where the shooting occurred.

JOHN W. AIKEN DEAD.

Death Visits Distinguished Family in Cartersville, Ga.

Cartersville, Ga., Oct. 18.—Judge John W. Aiken, president of the Georgia senate, lawyer, author, and one of the most prominent men in the public life of the state, died here Friday morning.

Judge Aiken's death followed closely that of his mother.

Judge Aiken died at 2:40 o'clock Friday morning, the members of his family at his bedside when death came. It was no surprise, as he had been in a precarious condition for two days. An attack of la grippe had been followed by pneumonia, and this, in turn, by a stroke of paralysis, which proved too much for Judge Aiken's strength.

Judge Aiken is survived by his wife, who was Miss Johnson, daughter of Colonel Abada Johnson, of Cartersville, and his three daughters. Three brothers and two sisters also survive him.

Judge Aiken's death will come as a great shock to his friends, not only in Cartersville and that vicinity, where he had lived, but all over the state. He was known not only as a brilliant orator and writer, but also had a personality which made him liked regardless of th ecauses he espoused. The town of Cartersville is in mourning for him.

The funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Cartersville, Ga., Oct. 18.—Mrs. Akin, of Cartersville, mother of Jno. W. Akin, president of the Georgia senate, died at her home in Cartersville, Ga., on Thursday.

Mrs. Mary Akin was, before her marriage, Miss Mary Verdery, of Augusta. She was born July 6, 1830. She was the wife of Colonel Warren Akin, who was the speaker of the confederate house of representatives of Georgia. He was the last whig candidate for governor of Georgia, being defeated by Joseph E. Brown in 1859. Mrs. Akin was a member of the Methodist church for seventy-one years. Her husband was a local Methodist minister, and also a lawyer, being considered the leader of the Cherokee bar.

PUT DYNAMITE IN MOUTH.

Man Then Touched Off Explosive—His Head Blown Off.

York, Pa., Oct. 18.—Jacob Detlinger, aged 59 years, of this city, committed suicide in an unusual manner. Placing a stick of dynamite in his mouth and holding it in his right hand, Detlinger exploded the dynamite, blowing his head off and shattering the hand that held the explosive.

Tuesday Detlinger, who was a well digger by ocupation, lost a sum of money, said to have been $40. He brooded over this and finally began drinking heavily as a result. Thursday he entered the kitchen of his boarding house with the dyamite and some matches in als hand.

"Well, here goes to end it all," he said. He handled dynamite in his business and as he had often made such threats before, no attention was paid to him. He went into the yard and in a few minutes there was a loud explosion.

OFFICERS GUARD TAFT.

Report that Attempt Was Made to Throw Bomb at Him Proves False.

Malina, Oct. 18.—A report reached the local police Thursday from a priest that an attempt was made to throw a bomb at Secretary Taft while he was attending a reception in his honor, given at the Jesuit college.

A careful investigation of the rumor has failed to disclose any foundation for the statement made Every precaution was taken by the authorities to prevent any such outrage, the secretary being closely guarded by insular as well as by United States secret service men. Besides, it is believed that there are no anarchists or men of that class in the islands.

Shaft Unveiled.

Andersonville, Ga., Oct. 18.—The monument to the memory of the Wisconsin soldiers who died at Andersonville during the civil war was unveiled Thursday at the National cemetery here in the presence of many hundreds of spectators Governor Davidson, of Wisconsin, members of his military staff and public officials of the state, numbering over 100, conducted the unveiling exercises. A special train bore them here from Madison, Wis. General Bancroft tendered the monument of the cemetery association, and on the part of the state of Wisconsin Colonel Broadman accepted the gift.

Sheep Dogs on Police Force

New York, Oct 18.—A batch of Belgian sheep dogs will be added to the New York police force next week. The dogs, in charge of Lieutenant George Wakefield, will arrive on one of Saturday's steamers and will at once be begun to for work in New York suburbs.

Vesuvius Causes Fear.

Naples, Oct. 18.—A panic was caused here Thursday owing to the sudden cessation of smoke from all the craters of Vesuvius, accompanied by loud detonations, which usually mean a repetition of activity on the part of the volcano.

4 KILLED, MANY HURT

Trolley Cars at Chattanooga In Fatal Collision.

OCCURRED DURING A FOG

One of the Cars Was Crowded with Persons on Their Way to Work in the City—Confusion of Signals the Cause of Accident.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Oct. 18.—Four persons were killed, ten are in the hospital and more than a score were more or less injured in a head-on collision of two Sherman Height street cars on Harrison avenue near the city limits, at 6:45 Friday morning.

Confusion of signals is said to have been the cause of the accident.

Both cars were running at a rapid rate into a dip in the track when the crash came. The incoming car was heavily loaded with persons on their way to work in the city and most of those killed and injured were on this car.

Both motormen were killed instantly.

The accident occurred during a dense fog, one car was splintered badly and the platform torn from the other.

ROOSEVELT KILLS A BEAR.

After Chase Through Canebrake Fine Specimen Is Secured.

Stamboul, La., Oct. 18.—The president killed a bear late Thursday afternoon.

Few details of the president's bear killing are known, except that it took place late Thursday afternoon after he and the other hunters with him had folowed the dogs in the chase through the jungles for four hours.

The beast was a female of the black variety and was beyond the average size. The fact that she was secured at all is attributed to the staying qualities of the new dogs.

The news was brought in by a courier who arrived from Bear lake. The exploit has given heart to the camp and the hunters are now working with renewed vigor in the hope of making a brilliant finish.

FARMERS' NATIONAL CONGRESS.

More Than a Thousand Delegates at Oklahoma City.

Oklahoma City, Oct. 18.—More than one thousand delegates were present here Thursday when the Farmers' national congress, meeting in twenty-seventh annual session, began its first business session.

H. D. Watson, of Kearney, Neb., delivered an address on "Dry Farming," showing how the principles developed could be used to advantage even in regions where the rainfall usually is sufficient.

President John N. Stahl, of Chicago, delivered his annual address.

DANISH SHIP WRECKED.

Went on Shore in Gale and Twenty of Her Crew Drowned.

London, Oct. 18.—The Danish steamer Alfred Erlanden has been wrecked on the rocks of Castle Point, near Stabbs Head, Scotland. She went ashore during a gale Thursday night and twenty of her crew were drowned. A life boat which spent the night looking for the survivors, had a narrow escape, being frequently swept by heavy seas.

Officers Are Selected.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Oct. 18.—At the final business session of the Society of the Army of the Cumberland, officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: General Gates P. Thurston, Nashville, president; Orlando A. Somers, of Kokomo, Ind., corresponding secretary; General A. E. Carman, Washington, D. C., treasurer Judge O. B. Liddell, of Denver, Colo., was selected to deliver the oration next year. The reunion closed with the annual banquet.

Folding Bed Proved Fatal.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 18.—Mrs. J. Marshall and her daugater, Mrs. Mary Wright, of Ingram, Pa., were caught in a folding bed, which closed on them while they were sleeping. When rescued both women were in a critical condition. Mrs. Marshall died from her injuries and Mrs. Wright's recovery is doubtful.

Prince Interested in Cup Challenge.

Stockholm, Oct. 18.—Prince Gustavus Adolphus, duke of Scania, eldest son of the crown prince, Prince Gustavus, is manifesting great interest in the proposed challege for the America's cup in behalf of the Royal Swedish Yacht club. The prince declared his intention to support the movement by every means possible.

Butchered with Ax.

Morgan City, La., Oct. 18.—News has reached here of a double murder near Franklin, St. Mary parish, whom persons supposed to have been burglars entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Seifred, an old couple, and butchered them with an ax. There is no clew to the identity of the murderers.

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.

Notable Gathering Closes Fortnight Session at Richmond, Va.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 18.—The triennial general conference of the Presbyterian Episcopal church, closed at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

The hour of adjournment was marked by a service identical with that which was held at the opening of the notable gathering a fortnight ago.

Both houses held business sessions during the day.

The resolution proposed by Dr. Huntington, of New York, for eliminating the thirty articles of religion from the prayer book, on the ground that they are antiquated, was brought up at Friday night's session and it was finally left in the hands of a joint committee, which will report at the next convention, meeting in Cincinnati in 1910.

At Friday night's session of the house of deputies, considerable interest was aroused by a message from the house of bishops regarding the evils existing in the Philippine Islands.

The debate that followed the receipt of the message was animated and politics, even the tariff question, figured in the discussion. The question was finally referred to a joint commission.

FARMERS' NATIONAL CONGRESS.

Important Questions Submitted to the Committee on Resolutions.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Oct. 19.—Several important measures submitted to the committee on resolutions of the Farmers National congress on Friday night were brought before the gathering in convention Saturday.

One by Congressman Edgar C. Ellis, of Missouri, endorses the work of the inland waterways commission and purposes memorializing congress to spend fifty millions of dollars each year in improving harbors and waterways.

A resolution that also had been drafted, and was expected to cause much debate denounces all dealers in stock futures and advocates a national law requiring all market dealings to be for actual value and with actual commodities.

Taree recommendations were made regarding the government postal service. One calls for a parcels post, another the postal telegraph and the third a system of postal savings banks.

BEATS THE PRESIDENT.

Mayor McClellan Goes President One Better in Bear Killing.

New York, Oct. 19.—Mayor McClellan, of New York, has gone President Roosevelt one better in the shooting of bears, as the former's trip through the Catskill watershed, about 75 miles from New York, was productive of a killing on his third day in the wilds, while the president, with scores of dogs and experienced bear hunters, required almost a fortnight to bag his game.

The bear was killed near Brown's station, Thursday afternoon by C. J. Davies, one of the city's water supply engineers, who was making a tour of the watershed with the mayor. The carcass was taken to the station and at the hotel that night the mayor and his party partook of bear steak.

Army Balloon Won Cup.

St. Louis, Oct. 19.—Swinging through the atmosphere at the rate of 123 miles and hour, the United States signal corps balloon No. 10, in which J. C. McCoy and Captain Charles B. Chandler ascended here Friday evening, passed over Illinois and Indiana at night and across Ohio Saturday. The distance covered on a straight line measurement is approximately 500 miles, and the voyage won for the aeronauts the Lahm cup.

Veteran Artist Stricken.

New York, Oct. 19.—Artists and patrons of the fine arts in New York and throughout the country will regret to learn that the veteran landscape painter, John Bunyan Bristol, has been stricken with paralysis, and in all probability will not be able to wield the brush again. Mr. Bristol, who is 61 years old, is in St. Lukes hospital here.

Threw Herself Under a Train.

Newark, N. J., Oct. 19.—A woman about thirty years old, supposed to be Mrs. Anna Howard, formerly of Orange, threw herself under the wheels of a moving freight train at the Meeker avenue crossing of the Pennsylvania railroad in Newark, N. J., Friday and was almost instantly killed.

BRIEF DISPATCHES.

Twenty-five persons were injured at Erie, Pa., in a trolley car collision.

Six deaths from cholera and eighty-eight fresh cases are reported at Kiev, Russia.

A message from President John Mitchell's bedside announced that he is improving slowly from his operation.

Morres Lowey, the eminent French astronomer and director of the Paris observatory, dropped dead at the ministry of public instruction.

Professor Robert Koch who went to Uganda in Africa to study the sleeping sickness there has returned to Germany. His hospitals and lab oratories in Uganda have been taken by the German officials.

BRYAN IN ATLANTA

Distinguished Commoner Guest of State Fair.

RECEIVES GREAT OVATION

Crowds Cheered the Prominent Nebraskan and the Great Coliseum Was Packed to Hear Him Speak—A Dollar Dinner at Night.

Atlanta, Oct. 19.—With an ideal day for his 15 hours' visit to Atlanta and the Georgia State fair, William Jennings Bryan, the great commoner, arrived at the Terminal station Saturday morning at 6:15 from Spartanburg, S. C.

Mr Bryan was met by a reception committee, consisting of President H. H. Cabiniss, of the State Fair Association, Captain W. G. Raoul, President Aldine Chambers, of the Young Men's Democratic league of Fulton county, and F. L. Seely.

WILLIAM J BRYAN.

Mr. Bryan and the reception committee were immediately driven to the home of Captain W. G. Raoul, where the distinguished Nebraskan fast.

was the guest at an informal break-

Crowds Lined the Streets.

The party, including Governor Hoke Smith, left at 11:30 o'clock in carriages for the fair grounds, where Mr. Bryan was to speak. Crowds lined the street all the way from the governor's mansion to the fair grounds and the prominent visitor was forced to bow repeatedly to the cheers.

Through the same gates that President Roosevelt drove two years ago to the same day and the same hour, Mr. Bryan passed Saturday morning.

There were the cheers from the great crowds who had packed into the main driveway, and Mr. Bryan arose in his carriage as he passed through the avenues of applauding people, he bowing right and left.

The roadway from the gates to the coliseum was jammed and packed, while the big building was filled to overflowing.

Vast Audience Cheered.

When Mr. Bryan entered the coliseum the vast audience arose and cheered. Many stood on the benches in the arena and applauded as the distinguished commoner accompanied by President Cabaniss and Governor Smith made their way to the platform at the southwestern end of the building.

It was shortly after noon when President Cabaniss, representing the fair association, arose and introduced Governor Smith in a few appropriate remarks. The chief executive was greeted by many cheers. In a short, well-chosen speech, Governor Smith presented William Jennings Bryan, of Nebraska.

The cheers again broke loose as Mr. Bryan steppedto the front of the platform and bowed. It was several moments beore he could begin his speech on account of the applause.

Not since the day, two years ago, when President Theodore Roosevelt spoke in Atlanta, has there been such a throng of people as were packed into the Georgia state fair grounds Saturday to welcome William Jennings Bryan.

Mr. Bryan's visit closed with a "dollar dinner" Saturday night at the Piedmont hotel with about 400 guests present. It was a notable affair.

Flood Damage in the West.

Phoenix, Ariz., Oct. 19.—The days and nights of frequent rains, some of them downpours, have piled the Salt river and its tributaries in a flood stage again. Saturday water from Pinal creek, 20 miles above Roosevelt, submerged the big storage dam under construction at Roosevelt, covering those immense derricks and other machinery and stopping work.

No Riding Test for Him.

San Francisco, Oct. 19.—Rather than undergo the riding test prescribed in a recent order of the war department, Colonel Charles L. Heizmann, assistant surgeon general, U. S. A., has filed an application to go before the retiring board. He says he is a medical man and has not been on a horse for 25 years.

Going to Speak in Campaign.

Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 19.—Governor J. Thomas Heflin, of the fifth district, has gone to Kentucky to make speeches for the democratic ticket in the campaign just on. He

PISTOL AND

Boston Warden Shot Seven Convicts.

Warren, Ohio, Oct. 19.—A sensational story comes from the prison here. A [illegible] defaulter, was awaiting [illegible] charged with [illegible] was had his family [illegible] the defendant entered [illegible] fore defendant with [illegible] head warden shared [illegible]

The other day, [illegible] things, a huge loaf [illegible] The warden's children [illegible] cake, and so was the [illegible] therefore determined to [illegible] it for themselves. [illegible] was great when upon [illegible] to th edainty. It strongly [illegible] ing, and refused to [illegible]

"It must be poison," [illegible] said Mrs. Warden [illegible] man, suspecting that [illegible] than careless baking [illegible] for the cake's hardness, [illegible] the aides, and was [illegible] ing a revolver and [illegible] buried in the paste.

When brought up [illegible] therities Schneider [illegible] had intended to shoot [illegible] and escape from prison.

"After all," said [illegible] sively, when he told [illegible] ently is not always the [illegible] If my wife had not [illegible] I should have been a [illegible] now, for I sleep hard."

ONE KILLED; [illegible]

Construction Train on [illegible] way Derailed by a [illegible]

Macon, Ga., Oct. 19.—[illegible] tion train on the [illegible] in charge of Conductor [illegible] of this city, was derailed [illegible] Creek, a short distance [illegible] Park Sunday afternoon [illegible] ductor fatally injured. [illegible] song was slightly injured. [illegible] Foreman J. H. Asher [illegible] gro laborers were also [illegible]

Engine No. 1804, pulling [illegible] struck a cow on the track [illegible] eral flat cars loaded with [illegible] were derailed.

The engine remained [illegible] but when the cars went [illegible] the men and the ties [illegible] together. The road was [illegible] til shortly after 6 o'clock.

The injured men were [illegible] the Macon hospital for treatment.

Conductor Tirlsong [illegible] ing brought here for treatment.

HE DELAYED THE [illegible]

Tradesman Lay Down Upon Calmly Smoked Cigar.

Paris, Oct. 21.—A [illegible] tradesman delayed railroad [illegible] twenty minutes at a station because the officials would [illegible] smoking carriage to the [illegible] which he was about to enter.

The occupants of the [illegible] compartment objected to the [illegible] man's cigar, so the train [illegible] puffing his cigar, lay down [illegible] in front of the engine.

He announced that he would [illegible] there until he had finished [illegible] Various officials were called [illegible] argue with him, and finally [illegible] train had been delayed [illegible] utes and the irate passengers [illegible] ed that it proceed regardless [illegible] tradesman, the latter was [illegible] moved and arrested.

AUTOS CRASH AT [illegible]

Two People Were Killed [illegible] Seriously Injured.

Saint Sebastian, Spain, [illegible] A serious automobile [illegible] place here Saturday and [illegible] two people are dead and [illegible] ously injured.

Two automobiles going [illegible] directions came in collision [illegible] on the road above a dangerous [illegible] pice. The wheels of the [illegible] came interlocked and both [illegible] rolled over the edge of the [illegible] crashed to the rocks below. [illegible] Luis Zappino and a young [illegible] whose name has not been [illegible] were killed. Senor Zappino [illegible] retary of the Royal [illegible] There were ten persons in the [illegible] cars, all known in court [illegible]

Knelt in Prayer, Then [illegible]

New York, Oct. 21.—[illegible] confessed to petty [illegible] household of Dr. Daniel [illegible] Lexington avenue. Hazel [illegible] 20 years old, a servant [illegible] the physician, married a [illegible] hymn book reading: "[illegible] to Jesus when consumed [illegible] knelt in prayer and then [illegible] suicide. The body was [illegible] ing from a transom by a [illegible] clothesline by the physician. The girl had been [illegible] small articles and the [illegible] tified. She confessed, [illegible] promise to do better [illegible] was not pressed and [illegible] talned in her situation.

[illegible]

Mrs. Williams Ap[illegible] Louisville, Ga., [illegible] Fannie O Williams, who [illegible] and a half miles from the [illegible] Saturday acquitted [illegible] trial in which she was [illegible] the murder of her husband, [illegible] Andrew Williams. It [illegible] that she shot and killed [illegible] cousin while he was [illegible] fight with her husband.

ATLANTA

...mmoner Guest ... Fair.

...AT OVATION

Prominent Re... Great Coliseum ... Him Speak—A ...ght.

...th an Ideal ...ait to Atlanta ...e fair. William ...great commo... ...cinnati station ...s from Spar...

...ld a reception ...of President H... ...lanta Fair associ...

...RYAN.

...Raoul, President ...the Young Men's ...Fulton county, ...

...e reception com... ...ately driven to ...W. G. Raoul, ...shed Nebraskan ...

...informal break... ...he Streets.

...g Governor Hoke ...o'clock in car... ...grounds, where ...speak. Crowds ...he way from the ...the fair grounds ...aitor was forced ...the cheers ...gates that Presi... ...e two years ago ...the same hour, ...aturday morning. ...cheers from the ...d packed into the ...Mr. Bryan arose ...e passed through ...nding people, he ...t. ...the gates to the ...d and packed, ...ing was filled to ...

Cheered.

...entered the coli... ...ence arose and ...d on the benches ...pplauded as the ...ner accompanied ...s and Governor ...way to the plat... ...stern end of the ...

...fter noon when ...representing the ...e and introduced ...a few appropriate ...f executive was ...ers. In a short, ...Governor Smith ...nnings Bryan, of ...

...roke loose as Mr. ...front of the plat... ...was several mo... ...begin his speech ...plause.

...two years ago, ...eodore Roosevelt ...there been such ...s were packed in... ...fair grounds Sat... ...William Jennings ...

...t closed with a ...rday night at the ...about 400 guests ...notable affair.

...n the West.

...t. 19.—The days ...nt rains, some of ...ve plied the Salt ...taries in a flood ...rday water from ...les above Roose... ...big storage dam ...t Roosevelt, cov... ...se derricks and ...d stopping work.

...st for Him.

...Oct. 19.—Father ...ting test prescrib... ...r of the war de... ...Charles L. Heisg... ...geon general, U. ...application to go ...board. He says ...and has not been ...years.

...In Campaign.

...Oct. 19.—Con... ...Heflin, of the ...gone to Kentucky ...or the democratic ...fight now on. He ...

PISTOL MIS...

Russian Warden ... Saves Student ...

Warsaw, Oct. 21.—... final story comes from ... prison here. A ... Schneider, was awaiting ... charged with treas... was bad his family ... the delicacies ... fare delicacies which ... bond warden shared ...

The other day, ... things, a huge loaf ... The warden's children ... cake, and so was his ... therefore determined to ... it for themselves. ... was great when, upon ... to th edainty, it struck ... ing, and refused to ...

"It must be paki..." said Mrs. Warder. ... man, suspecting that ... than careless baking was ... for the cake's hardness, ... the sides, and was rewarded ... a revolver and ... buried in the paste.

When brought up ... theorities Schneider ... had intended to shoot ... and escape from prison ...

"After all," he said ... sively, when he told ... ority is not always the ... If my wife had not cut ... I should have been a ... now, for I sleep hard."

ONE KILLED; SIX ...

Construction Train on ... way Derailed by a ...

Macon, Ga., Oct. 21.—A ... tion train on the ... in charge of Conductor ... of this city, was derailed ... Creek, a short distance ... Park Sunday afternoon and ... ductor fatally injured. ... song was slightly injured ... Foreman J. H. Askew and ... gro laborers were also hurt.

Engine No. 1805, pulling ... struck a cow on the track ... eral flat cars loaded with ... were derailed.

The engine remained on ... but when the cars went into ... the men and the ties were ... together. The road was ... till shortly after 6 o'clock.

The injured men were ... the Macon hospital for treatment.

Conductor Birdsong died ... ing brought here for treatment.

HE DELAYED THE TR...

Tradesman Lay Down Upon T... Calmly Smoked Cigar

Paris, Oct. 21.—A ... tradesman delayed railway ... twenty minutes at a suburban ... because the officials would not ... smoking carriage to the ... which he was about to return ...

The occupants of the ... compartment objected to the ... man's cigar, so the tradesman ... puffing his cigar, lay down on ... in front of the engine.

He announced that he would ... there until he had finished ... Various officials were sent ... argue with him, and finally ... train had been delayed ... utes and the irate passengers ... ed that it proceed regardless ... tradesman, the latter was finally ... moved and arrested.

AUTOS CRASH AT HIGH ...

Two People Were Killed and ... Seriously Injured.

Saint Sebastian, Spain, Oct. ... A serious automobile accident ... place here Saturday and ... two people are dead and six ... ously injured.

Two automobiles going in ... directions came in collision at ... on the road above a dangerous ... ipice. The wheels of the ... came interlocked and the ... rolled over the edge of the ... crashed to the rocks below.

Luiz Zappino and a young ... whose name has not been ... were killed. Senor Zappino ... retary of the Royal ... There were ten persons in the ... cars, all known in court ...

Knelt in Prayer, Then ...

New York, Oct. 21.—... confessed to petty ... household of Dr. David ... Lexington avenue. Emma ... 20 years old, a servant ... the physician, marked a ... hymn book reading: "... to Jesus when conscious of ... knelt in prayer and then ... suicide. The body was ... ing from a transom by a ... clothesline by the physician. ... The girl had been detected ... small articles and the police ... tified. She confessed, but ... promise to do better and ... was not pressed and she ... tained in her situation.

Mrs. Williams Ap... Danielsville, Ga., Oct. ... Fannie G Williams, who ... and a half miles from this ... Saturday acquitted in the ... trial in which she was ... the murder of her husband, ... Andrew Williams. It was ... that she shot and killed her ... cousin while he was ... fight with her husband.

...ARDEN

...ALITY IN CORN.

...ollowing an Ideal on "the ...vantage of Yield.

...periments observed with a ...s of seed corn samples ... Virginia experiment sta... ...ted the corn breeder can ... the characteristics of ... ...ning or decreasing the ... stalk, number of leaves, ... shape of ear and the per ... To select and improve ... only one must make an ... study of the desirable and ... qualities of the several

...ORT AND POOR QUALITY.

...ears and know which to se... ...which to reject or failure will ... importance of choosing ...ears is shown by the fact ...ield from forty samples test... ...from 28.14 to 57.26 bushels ...from 34.79 to 81.69 bushels

...strains of the same variety ...vary greatly in yield. In ...ear on the left is the prod... ...ing corn and shows ex... ...lity. The ear on the right ...other strain of the same va... ...shows very bad quality. ...e and small ears were se... ...the different samples, the ...which was known, it was ...that the large ears in every ...ade a more vigorous ger... ...and a higher yield, amount... ...instances to nearly eleven ...per acre. This is a point that ...carefully considered by corn ...

...nt in the Cotton Belt.

...week in November is early ...sow wheat throughout the ...tion of the cotton belt. This ...succeeds well sown as late ...t, provided the conditions ...orable for germination for ...after sowing (not too cold ... Land covered with a thick ...grass, cowpeas or other veg... ...best considered the best con... ...wheat for the reason that ...a compact, smooth surface ...your land well, then har... ...mill with a heavy roller. ...the seed. A one or one and a ...roller run over a freshly plow... ...wed surface once or twice ...ut the three or four inches ...soil. The wheat seed should ...put in with a regular wheat ...a southern authority. I ...apply less than 400 pounds ...per acre and would prefer ...pounds unless the land be ...poor. I recommend this for... ...hundred pounds acid phos... ...pounds of cottonseed meal ...pounds of muriate of potash ...supplemented with a top ...of fifty to seventy-five pounds ...of soda in March if the ap... ...of the plants seem to indi... ...need of more nitrogen.

Grading Apples.

...apple growers in the Hood ...have been using the grad... ...shown in the figure. A com... ...piece of pasteboard is ...before the wiper. In this ...are cut the size of various

...THE GRADING BOARD.

...three, three and one-half ...etc. As the apples are ...are properly tiered. The ...of this method is that the ...the apples practically ...can do much more work ...and after the first half day ...can usually accomplish ...as with the old method.

...ples Fed to Swine.

...be fed to swine only in ...form. The pig seems to be ...native beans which are, at ...best, even though they have ...for some time; hence it is ...that they be thoroughly ...cooked, says R. S. Shaw. ...To supply a single feed of ...beans to a pen of hogs ...their appetites and relish ...food, if indeed it does not ...their feed.

A SOILING CROP.

Rye Gives Satisfaction on Fertile, Well Drained Soil.

I have been growing rye for the past five years. So far as my experience goes, any soil that is well drained and fertile will produce a good crop of rye, says an Ohio farmer in American Agriculturist. I plant rye almost entirely for soiling purposes. The crop is all planted under with the exception of enough for seed. As soon as any crop is taken off the land it is disked and sown to rye. I broadcast it and harrow it.

Time of Sowing.

The crop is put in any time from June to November, depending upon the character and nature of the crops taken off. My crop varies from two to twelve acres each season. As the crop is plowed down, except enough for seed, I have no record of the yield per acre, but I always have a splendid stand. I sow the seed thick and see the results in other crops.

Applying Manure.

All manure is applied in the winter and plowed under as for corn. No commercial fertilizer is used on the rye crop. I usually harvest rye for seed purposes in July. It ripens about the same time as wheat in this section. I consider it one of the most important crops I raise, and from records of farmers in this section about twenty bushels per acre would be a fair average here.

CELERY PRACTICE.

Methods of Banking, Trenching and Storing the Crop.

Celery will withstand considerable frost, but its keeping qualities as well as flavor will be impaired if it is allowed to freeze. It may be banked up with earth and the plants covered with coarse stable manure, straw or corn fodder held in place by stakes or old boards. The celery can be removed from these ridges as needed, but will be found to be very inaccessible during the time when the ground is frozen hard.

Large growers handle the last of the crop by the method known as "trenching." The celery is partially banked with earth and allowed to remain where grown so long as there is no danger from heavy frosts. As soon as there is danger of the celery becoming frozen it is lifted and eight or ten rows are brought together and set with the roots bedded close together in the bottom of a shallow trench. Where blanching boards are available two parallel rows of the boards are set along the sides of the trench and the space between them is filled with celery. The earth is then banked up along the sides of the trench and a covering of boards, straw or some similar material is put on. These trenches are usually made only fifty or sixty feet in length and are small enough to permit the removal of a whole trench at one time.

CROSS SECTION OF HOTBED PIT. [Storage of celery on a small scale.]

The unused pit of a permanent hotbed may be utilized as a storage place for celery by removing the surplus earth and substituting a covering of boards for the sash. The celery is stored in the same manner as in the trench, and the bed may be covered with any material which will keep out frost. A cross section of a hotbed used for this purpose is shown in the figure.—W. R. Beattie.

Value of Beet Sugar Products.

Some idea of the magnitude of the beet sugar industry in the United States can be given by estimating the value of the beets sold by the growers to the factories and of the refined sugar placed on the market by the factories last year.

If we assume that the average price paid for beets in 1906 was $5 per ton, the total value of the 4,236,112 tons of beets harvested is $21,180,560. If we estimate the value of the sugar at 4½ cents per pound, the 907,224,000 pounds of sugar manufactured were worth $43,555,080. Probably the assumed prices both for beets and for sugar may be a trifle below those actually received, but these figures are sufficiently accurate to indicate the magnitude of the industry.—Charles F. Saylor.

Examine the Trees.

Every apple tree in the orchard should be examined for borers before frost gets into the ground. The knife and the wire method of exterminating these pests is old, but it is the surest, says a writer in American Cultivator. Neglect of this duty till spring may cost the orchard a number of valuable trees through girdling.

Japanese Millet.

Japanese millet is a stiff, coarse plant that looks like common barnyard grass, of which it is only an improved variety. It is quite drought resistant. It is considerably later than some other varieties of millet.

Sweet Potatoes.

Sweet potatoes should be perfectly dry when put in storage, and they should be kept dry in order to prevent rot.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson IV.—Fourth Quarter, For Oct. 27, 1907.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Josh. xiv. 6-15. Memory Verses, 7, 8—Golden Text, Matt. xxiv. 35—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1907, by American Press Association.]

The intervening chapters between our last lesson and this tell us how the Lord fought for Israel until Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the Lord said unto Moses (x. 14, 42; xi. 23). It had not been continuous victory, for sin and unbelief had been at work bringing dishonor upon God and disgrace and defeat upon themselves. The covetous disobedience of Achan brought judgment upon himself and trouble upon all Israel. Joshua's league with the lying Gibeonites without consulting the captain who appeared to him by Jericho was a sad mistake, but while Joshua and the people walked with God in trustful obedience there was always victory for Israel, the Lord on one occasion casting down great hailstones from heaven upon the enemy and miraculously making one day to be nearly two in length (x. 11-14). With all their victories there remained very much land yet to be possessed (xiii. 1), and that is true of all believers with reference to the precious promises of God. That the Levites, who were chosen from all the tribes of Israel to be specially set apart to God instead of the firstborn (Num. iii. 11-13; viii. 14), should have no inheritance in the land but the Lord God Himself (xiii. 14, 33) makes us think of and desire to say from the heart, "The Lord is my portion, saith my soul; therefore will I hope in Him" (Lam. iii. 24). The Levites who waited specially upon God, were well cared for. They had cities to dwell in and suburbs for their cattle; they lived upon the tithes of the others and gave to the Lord a tithe out of their tithes (xiv. 3, 4; Num. xviii, 20-26). All true believers are a holy and royal priesthood, kings and priests (I Pet. ii, 5, 9; Rev. i. 6; v, 10), and we ought to be quite sure that if we make His service our delight He'll make our wants His care (Matt. vi, 33; Rom. viii, 32).

Joshua seems to have continued his headquarters at Gilgal (ix, 6; x. 6), and now his old friend Caleb comes to him on special business. For forty-five years he had treasured in his heart a word that the Lord had said to Moses concerning him (Num. xiv, 30). He had eaten it, lived on it, fully appropriated it, and doubtless many a time when others were dying all about him and he perhaps was not feeling quite as well as usual and the adversary whispered, "Your turn next; you will soon be gone like the rest," he had encouraged himself in the Lord and reminded Him of His promise and been strengthened. The infallible word of the Living God is always a sure resting place regardless of all feelings or circumstances. See Paul in the storm at sea, when all hope that they should be saved was taken away, standing forth and declaring with all boldness, "There shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship; * * * there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you" (Acts xxvii. 20-25, 34). "I believe God that it shall be even as it was told me." Of Mary of Nazareth it is written, "Blessed is she that believed, for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord" (Luke i, 45). Our Lord said to Thomas, "Blessed are they that have not seen and yet have believed" (John xx, 21).

Note the names given to Moses in verses 6, 7, "The man of God, * * * the servant of the Lord;" God's man, God's possession, specially for God's own use; Jehovah's servant, serving Him only, saying, like Paul, "Whose I am and whom I serve." Every believer may and should be God's possession for His service. Caleb kindly refreshes Joshua also as he says, "The thing that the Lord said concerning me and thee" (verse 6). Think of our Lord saying to Simon Peter concerning the taxes, "That take and give unto them for me and thee" (Matt. xvii, 27). It seems to me that we have in our lesson the significance of "wholly following the Lord" (verses 8, 9, 14). What is it but having a heart to believe God and to do just as He says regardless of what others may say or do, a readiness to stand with God even if you die for it, for Caleb and Joshua were in danger of being stoned to death for their steadfastness. Caleb was an illustration of Isa. xl, 31, "They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength," etc. Hear him say, "The Lord hath kept me alive, as He said, these forty and five years; * * * I am as strong this day as I was in the day that Moses sent me" (verses 10, 11). Kept waiting forty-five years by the unbelief and rebellion of others, he has been sustained in body and soul by the word of God, for the Lord was his life and health and hope. Now he asks for the mountain where the giants were, saying so grandly, "If so be the Lord will be with me, then I shall be able to drive them out, as the Lord said" (verse 12). He recognized that the Lord was his strength, and that whatever was to be done He must do it, but he was gladly willing to be used by Him.

So Joshua gave him Hebron, which became his inheritance, and he drove thence the three sons of Anak (xv, 13, 14). Hebron signifies fellowship, communion, and if we would live at Hebron we must be able to say, "Truly our fellowship is with the Father and with His Son Jesus Christ" (I John i, 3).

After Once Trying

Vinol

no one wants an old-fashioned cod liver oil preparation or emulsion, because Vinol is a much better body-builder and strength creator for old people, weak children, and for coughs, colds, bronchitis, etc. If it does no good we will return your money.

UPCHURCH DRUG CO
CLANTON, ALA

CHILTON COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

The seventh session of the Chilton County Association was held with Shiloh church, Oct. 13 and 14. The Association was called to order promptly at 10:30 o'clock by the Moderator, Rev. P. G. Mason.

The letters from the different churches were called for, and out of nineteen churches eighteen were represented.

The Introductory sermon was preached at 11 o'clock by Rev P. G. Mason, text Mat. 13:37.

The Association was organized by electing P. G. Mason, Moderator; W. H. Shaw, Clerk. We are glad to say that it was the best meeting in the history of the Association, better representation, better contributions, and better interest in every respect. We also had a number of visitors from the Unity and Shelby Associations, who rendered much help with noble speeches, among whom was Rev. F. W. Bryce, who did much good in receiving a a number of subscribers for the Alabama Baptist, one of the State's best papers.

Another very important feature of the Association was a sermon preached by Rev. S. M. Adams on the subject, "The fundamental principles of the Baptist doctrine."

The next session of the Association will meet with Macedonia church on Wednesday before the third Sunday in October, 1908. Pray for we brethren that we may do much for the upbuilding of Christianity and uplifting of humanity in every respect.

Respectfully,
F. W. C. Bice

Hard Times in Kansas.

The old days of grasshoppers and drouth are almost forgotten in the prosperous Kansas of today; although a citizen of Coddell, Earl Shamburg, has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered. He says: "I was worn out and discouraged by a coughing night and day, and could find no relief until I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. It took less than one bottle to completely cure me." The safest and most reliable cough and cold remedy and lung and throat healer ever discovered. Guaranteed by Upchurch Drug co. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

CIRCUIT COURT

The Fall Term of Circuit Court convenes Monday, November 4, 1907. Following is the list of jurors:

GRAND JURY.

E. A. Bearden, R. M. Hubbard, T. L. Robinson, A. J. Wilson, L. A. Calloway, E. P. Mims, W. P. Murray, John W. Hawkins, G. P. Aldridge, George Fox, J. A. Pool, E. G. Cofer, J. N. Gentry, Cal Walker, S. S. Scott, R. C. Skipper, James Jones, P. D. Wilson, Floyd Merchant, C. W. Martin, H. B. Roper.

PETIT JURY—FIRST WEEK.

Martin Nix, Ocey Franklin, J. T. Jones, Link Durbin, G. S. Miner, J. C. Culp, D. M. Apperson, J. A. Maddox, B. T. Rogers, D. Robinson, M. T. Cox, Cass Lawrence, Ira Headley, C. C. Vinson, J. P. Parrish, H. A. J. Harris, Joseph Varden, E. C. Dawson, C. L. Langston, Tab Traywick, Melton Lawrence, W. H. Robinson, Wade Harris, Lee Pate, W. D. Burnett, K. H. Mims, W. J. Bean, J. N. Cornell, T. J. Traywick, J. P. Atchison, W. A. Cofer, H. M. Willis, E. J. Hayes, Alex Maddox, T. H. Williams, A. Roman.

PETIT JURY—SECOND WEEK.

G. W. Gothard, J. C. Calloway, John Bearden, T. A. Barkhalter, P. M. Jones, A. J. Williams, W. T. Mims, Ben Vines, D. S. Robinson, R. T. Robinson, J. D. Dessen, W. G. Atkinson, William Maddox, J. T. Cooley, E. F. Varden, Dick Edwards, J. F. Johnson, S. L. Broadhead, N. J. Kicker, T. J. Dunaway, J. W. Collins, P. W. Davenport, M. J. Calloway, Frank Rogers, J. W. Sanders, J. N. Williams, J. M. Robinson, John M. Robinson, T. N. Bonard, T. J. Bates, W. D. Nix, E. C. Davenport, Monroe Hodnett, Milford Wesley, S. J. Reynolds, R. F. Hasberry.

KILL THE COUGH AND CURE THE LUNGS

WITH Dr. King's New Discovery FOR Coughs Colds

GUARANTEED SATISFACTORY OR MONEY REFUNDED.

FURNITURE

Stoves, Trunks, Clocks, Lamps, Carpets, Matting, Rugs, Shades, Crockery, Glass and Tinware

House Furnishing Goods of all Kinds
Sewing Machines and Supplies

5 AND 10 CENT COUNTERS

Santa Claus will be with us this year with the largest and best selected stock of Dolls, Toys and Presents of all kinds ever brought to the county. Now on exhibition upstairs.

CLANTON FURNITURE COMPANY

T. L. CARTER, Proprietor

The Money to Be Saved

by buying your drugs and whiskies from a house like the Collier Drug Co. will be a pleasant surprise to you. We are the largest cut-rate druggists in this section of the State, and can save you many pennies by giving us your business.

Read our prices and put your dollars where you will receive greatest possible value.

WHISKIES

	Regular Price	Our Price
Shade Mountain Corn (full quart)	1.00	.80
Old Oscar Pepper, bottled in bond	1.50	1.00
Murray Hill Club	1.50	1.00
J. Martin Rye	1.25	.75
Atherton Rye	1.00	1.00
Duffy's Pure Malt	1.00	.75
California Sherry	1.00	.80
Old Lincoln County	1.00	.65
Private Stock	1.00	.80
Virginia Pure Apple Brandy	.75	.60
Richmond Club	1.50	1.00
Old Holland Gin	.75	.60
Wilson	1.25	.80
Green River	1.25	.80
I. W. Harper	1.50	1.00
Dan Patch	.75	.60
Paul Jones Four Star	1.25	.84
Old Preston	1.50	1.25

Our package and express department is complete in every respect and all mail orders get prompt and careful attention on day of receipt. Your patronage will be appreciated.

COLLIER DRUG CO.

109-111 NORTH 20th St.

BIRMINGHAM - - ALA.

THRILLING SITUATIONS IN

THE CASTLE COMEDY

BY THOMPSON BUCHANAN

"I am Percy Latimer, viscount de St. Cadoc."

In this scene the dancing master throws off his disguise, declares his noble birth and forces his rival to fight him. And a duel to hold your breath it is, fought with swords by skillful fencers. Mary Percy, the heroine and cause of it all, is one of the spectators.

To Appear in This Paper

The story is a thrilling one, an exquisite love tale being interwoven with the political plots and duels and love scenes. Miss Mary Percy, the heroine, is very charming.

—Denver Republican.

Begins in Our Next Issue

Copyrighted Illustrated by Harper

The Banner.

Entered and Published every Thursday at Clanton, Chilton County, Ala.

Entered at the postoffice at Clanton, Ala., as second-class mail matter.

"Here shall the press the people's rights maintain,
Unawed by influence and unbribed by gain,
Here patriot truth her glorious precepts draw,
Dictated to religion, liberty and law."

Subscription, yearly . . . $1.00
Invariably in advance.

Address all communications to THE BANNER, Clanton, Ala.

Tuesday, October 29, has been set apart as Farmers' Day at the Second Annual State Fair in Montgomery. Governor B. B. Comer will deliver an address to the people at half past one o'clock on that date at the Fair Grounds, and it is hoped that every farmer who can possibly do so will be present.

It is going to be a great Fair. Excellent Exhibitions in every department. Good Racing, Spectacular free attractions, High class vaudville entertainments and general good fellowship prevailing throughout.

In a communication from Mr. F. A. Gulledge which we are unable to publis in full, on account of lack of time, he says:

"I have a nice little resting room in my cattle barn, where all sober people are invited to call, deposit your lunches and bundles, sit down and rest and make yourself at home. If I can be of service otherwise, call on me at cattle barn or write me at Imperial Hotel. Come and bring your wives and children and spend one or two days. It will prove the best investment you could make. This invitation is extended to all, and especially the Editors, who can gather a lot of valuable thought for future editions. Come!

F. A GULLEDGE.

Tipton Mullins made application to Chief Justice, John R. Tyson, Tuesday, to restrain Judge W. W. Pearson from holding the Circuit Court of Chilton county at the time set by the Legislature. Thereby the Lusk judicial terms bill, passed by the recent Legislature is attacked, insofar as it attempts to fix a time for holding the Circuit Court of Chilton county. The Circuit Court was to have met at Clanton November 4.

The proceeding came before Judge Tyson in a petition for a writ of prohibition in the name of the State of Alabama on the part of Rose Smith, a person who has a cause pending in the Chilton Circuit Court. Judge Tyson directed that a rule nisi issue to Judge Pearson in accordance with the prayer of the petition. The rule is returnable at the next term of the Supreme court, beginning November 11. The effect of the rule is to temporarily restrain Judge Pearson from holding the court, until a hearing can be had.

Mr. Mullins said that it is the purpose to get the court straightened out so that when it does grind, its proceedings will be valid. For that reason, the writ was asked for. He hopes that the special session of the Legislature will remedy the defect in the bills, if any be found.

GRAVITATION.

Its Wonderful and Far Reaching Effects Upon the World.

"The effects of gravitation are so familiar as to demand only the briefest mention, yet most of us perhaps seldom stop to consider how far reaching these effects are," says Dr. Henry Smith Williams. "But for gravitation the winds would not blow, the waters would not descend, and the mountain tops would not crumble into the valleys. Each particle of pulverized rock would remain where it was formed, and there would be no such thing as a mixed soil.

"But as matters are actually arranged gravitation is perpetually active, and every particle of matter is being eternally tugged at and urged to get nearer to the earth's center. So no sooner does a fragment of rock at a mountain crest become loosened than gravitation hurls it crashing down into the valley, shattering it into fragments perhaps or at the least grinding off some portions of its surface as well as of the surface of the rocks against which it is dashed.

"By such means and with the further aid of its handmaidens, wind and water, gravitation works its unceasing purpose of leveling the surface of the earth. In a few brief geological moments it rounds the shoulders of the haughtiest mountain, and, given time enough, it will bring every particle of rock back to the sea bed, whence it originally sprang. Short of that, as a transition stage, it is forever mixing the different soil constituents on the one hand and sorting them out again on the other."—Appleton's.

Fifth District Sunday School Convention held in Canaan, October 20, 1907.

It is always a pleasure to report a success, and this convention at Canaan was a success in every way.

There were a great many people present, not only from the immediate neighborhood, but from all over the district, thus making it a representative convention. The opening exercises were conducted by Mr. Matthias Miller, superintendent of Canaan Sunday school. We are glad to add Mr Miller to the "honor roll" of "good workers" in Chilton county. The district president, D. S. Robinson, gave some account of the county convention which he attended at Mulberry in July and laid special emphasis on the work he has planned to make No. 5 a banner district. We have almost reached this goal now. We have a district association and hold conventions every year. All the schools are evergreen and very nearly all send a statistical report and contribute to state and county work. The secretary reported 8 schools with enrollment of 41 officers and teachers and 296 pupils. With regret we learned that no schools exist at Chestnut Creek Maple Springs, Poplar Springs and Messer's Chapel. We gladly welcome the new organized school at Rushton.

The county president, Dr. A. Horn, of Thorsby, was present and gave a very interesting talk, outlining his plans for future development of Sunday school work in Chilton. Judge L. H. Reynolds made a splendid talk on temperance always an important subject, but supremely so at present, when prohibition is the question of the hour in Alabama. Judge Reynold's speech was forceful with facts effective in arguement, practical in illustration and eloquent with earnestness and truth, and we assure him of our grateful appreciation of his visit to our convention.

Reports from the schools given by the superintendents were very encouraging. Miss Alice Strock's paper on the "Primary Teacher's Opportunity," showed such sympathetic understanding of her subject, was so beautiful in thought and able in construction that it was the unanamous desire of the convention that the county papers be asked to publish it. Because a practical demonstration is worth more than theory, Mr. John A. Brooks, who teaches the Baraca class of 120 men at Marbury, was asked to show us how he does it, and he taught the lesson of the day in a most effective and instructive manner.

D. S. Robinson, J. T. Williams and Miss Meriwether were re-elected. Resolutions of thanks were offered the members of Canaan for their cordial hospitality; especially are we grateful to the ladies who prepared and served such a bountiful dinner.

SECRETARY.

How to Cure a Cold.

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlin's Cough Remedy for yeays and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

NOTICE—Any person finding on the back of their buggy in Clanton 19½ lbs. of pork, will oblige me by leaving it at W. I. Mullins' or $1.95. I will satisfy them for the trouble.

JOHN MILFORD.

Is Your Hair Sick?

That's too bad! We had noticed it was looking pretty thin and rough of late, but naturally did not like to speak of it. By the way, Ayer's Hair Vigor is a regular hair grower, a perfect hair tonic. The hair stops coming out, grows faster, keeps soft and smooth. Ayer's Hair Vigor cures sick hair, makes it strong and healthy.

The best kind of a testimonial—"Sold for over sixty years."

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass., Also Manufacturers of

Ayer's SARSAPARILLA. PILLS. CHERRY PECTORAL.

Centerdale, Ala., Oct. 15, 1907

Editor Banner—You will please give me a small space in the dear old Banner to say a few words to the writers of this dear old paper.

When I go to the post office for my mail on Friday evening, I feel like I was going to meet a dear friend. It is ever welcome at our fire-side, and I would be glad to read more of the good letters from home, old Providence church and all the writers. I don't see why you all don't write a few lines once in a while. What has become of J. J. M. He could write a little.

I have just been reading a very good sermon, the text was "Jesus wept," John 11:35. It was such a good sermon.

Our Sunday school is very good and we have preaching here nearly every Sunday, but since the cotton mill was burned down it seems almost desolate.

Mr. Willie Campbells was instantly killed in the mines Saturday and was buried here yesterday. He was, from all that I can learn, a good christain young man.

Well, for fear of the waste basket I will close as I have never written for you before, but if this is not thrown aside I will come again.

A. V. F.

Jemison, Oct. 21, 1907

Editor Banner—Please allow me a small space in your valuable paper to say a few words in reply to Mr. Billingsley's letter last week. He said that the man that went to the dispensary went off with a bottle in his pocket and no money, and that might be so, but I worked for the public for a long time and those men have some good friends or money one, for they are the best men to pay what they owe of any men that we have. Mr. Billingsley harped about the dispensary killing people; what it killed was burned and nobody has not found it out, but the wildcat stuff has set them to shooting one another like hogs. I say that the children get nothing out of that, and I say closing the dispensary has robbed the children of Chilton county out of $5,000 of the school fund and more than that, we must have a guardian and not let us spend our money for just what I want you to. Mr. Billingsley said that he heard of a heap of people going away from there with a bottle of whiskey in their pocket and nothing else, and I have seen some go there and buy coffee and snuff on a credit, and I am proud to know that the man has got credit. I wish that Mr. Billingsley could see his own faults as good as he can seen mine. I ought to have the same right to buy what I want to eat or drink as any man. I want every man to have a free right to spend his money as he pleases. Now we have prohibition to keep men from drunkenness on the public highway. Here is full name, MORDECAI ROBINSON.

NAPOLEON BONAPARTE

showed, at the battle of Austerlitz, he was the greatest leader in the world. Ballard's Snow Liniment has shown the public it is the best Liniment in the world. A quick cure for Rheumatism, Sprains, Burns, Cuts, etc. A. C. Pitts, Rodessa, La., says: "I use Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family and find it unexcelled for sore chest, headache, corns, in fact for anything that can be reached by a liniment." Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Col. R. H. Knox went to Montgomery, Monday on professional business.

Mrs. D. Lubelsky was down from Birmingham a few days this week, returning Tuesday.

Obstinate cases of constipation and nasty mean headaches promptly disappear when you take DeWitt's Little Early Riser Pills. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

Adams.

We are going to clean off the grave yard at Adams Nov. 2nd. All who are interested will please be present and assist in the work

R. N. HORNUCK.

Hyacinths, Easter Lillies and Crocus Bulbs for winter planting, at Florence Drug Store.

The Corpse Plant.

The corpse plant is a remarkable carniverous specimen that grows in the colony of Natal. Its principal feature is a bell shaped mouth, with a throat opening like a hollow stem. It is almost black and covered with a thick, glutinous secretion, while its odor is very offensive. This attracts carrion feeding birds to it, and once they alight on it they are lost. Their claws become entangled in the secretion, the bell shaped mouth folds up, and they are blowly swallowed.

Thursby.

Miss Rose Brandt returned from Birmingham Monday.

Miss Alvin Lokhead has gone to take charge of a school near Maplesville.

Mrs John Winston is at home after a prolonged visit in Indiana.

Miss Verta Gore of Wetumpka is the guest of Mrs. J. T. Edwards

Mr. L. A Bolyen of Alabama City was a welcome visitor here Sunday.

Mrs Ogletree of Pratt City is moving into Mr. Brandt's house in east a part of town.

The Jemison team failing to contest Saturday our boys played an "monarcho of all they surveyed."

J. W. Haver's new store is nearly completed. VOX POPULI

If you take DeWitt's kidney and Bladder Pills you will get prompt relief from backache, weak kidneys, inflammation of the bladder and urinary troubles. A weeks treatment 25cents. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

Letter to J. W. Smith.

Clanton, Ala.

Dear Sir: Such experiences as this are occuring all over the country.

Judge I D Fairchild owns two houses exactly alike, in Lufkin, Texas. J M Torrence painted both houses, one Devoe, 15½ gallons; the other with another paint sold at same price; 25 gallons. That 25 gallon paint is weak and 15% whiting; that's why it took 9½gallons more.

You can learn for nothing what he had to pay for.

Yours truly
F W DEVOE & CO

35

Quinsy, Sprains and Swellings Cured.

"In November 1901, I caught cold and had the quinsy. My throat was swollen so I could hardly breathe I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me relief in a short time. In two days I was all right," says Mrs. L. Cousins, Ottesburn, Mich. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment an is especially valuable for sprains and swellings. For sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

A CAT'S EYES.

The Chinese Discovered Their Use as a Time Indicator.

The first European to learn of the use of a cat as a time indicator was M. Huc, who in a work on the Chinese empire tells how he was initiated into the mystery.

M. Huc and a party of friends set out to visit a Chinese Christian mission settlement among the peasantry. They met a young Chinaman on the road, and to test his intelligence they asked him if he could tell them the time. The native looked up at the sky, but the clouds hid the sun from view, and he couldn't read any answer there. Suddenly he darted away to a farm and returned in a few moments with a cat in his arms. Pushing up its eyelids with his hand, he told Huc to look at them, at the same time volunteering the information that it was not noon yet. While they were puzzling over the case the boy went about his business.

When the party reached the village, they asked the Christian converts if they could tell the time by a cat's eyes and how it was done. Immediately there was a wild hunt, and all the cats obtainable in the neighborhood were brought before them.

The Chinese pointed out that the pupils of a cat's eyes were gradually narrower up to 12 noon, when they became scarcely perceptible lines drawn perpendicularly across the eye, and after that dilation recommenced. Huc examined the eyes of several cats and verified what the Chinese had told him.—Chicago Chronicle.

Nero and His Voice.

In an interesting paper M. Moure and M. Bouyer relate the extraordinary care which the Emperor Nero took of his voice. At night Nero lay on his back, with a thin plate of lead on his stomach. He abstained from fruits and all dishes which could hurt his voice. In order not to damage the purity of its sound he ceased haranguing the soldiers and the senate. He attached to his service an officer specially deputed to take care of his voice. He talked only in the presence of this singular official, who warned him when he spoke too loudly or forced his voice, and if the emperor, carried away by some sudden fit of passion, did not listen to his remonstrances it was his duty to stop his mouth with a napkin. —Modern Medicine.

"We Walk On Shoes, So Can You"

The Family Shoe Store

That is what we are. One reason is because in the "OUR FAMILY" line of "STAR BRAND" shoes we have a shoe for every member of every family. Think what it means to have all your family shod economically in well-made, well-fitting and service-giving shoes. "OUR FAMILY" shoes are made by experts in big specialty factories from soft, pliant, good wearing, box calf leather. The men's and boys' are Goodyear Welts which means that the soles are flexible and that there are no tacks, wax or threads inside to hurt, burn and blister the feet. Being reinforced under the instep with a brass clinch fastening, they cannot rip.

Prices are reasonable—Men's $3.00 to $3.50, Boys' $2.00 to $2.75, Youths' $2.25 to $2.50, Little Gents' $2.00.

The women's, misses' and children's shoes have a nail clinch sole retainer; the soles can't pull apart.

"OUR FAMILY" shoes for Women are $1.75 to $2.50, Misses' 12 to 2, $1.50 to $1.65, Children's 8½ to 11½, $1.25 to $1.50, 5 to 8, $1.10 to $1.25.

The star on the heel and the name "OUR FAMILY" on the sole of each shoe is a guarantee that they are honestly constructed and full of satisfaction.

"STAR BRAND SHOES ARE BETTER"

To see them is to like them. Come see them.

J. C. JONES, Clanton

NEW STORE

Opens Saturday, October 5

IN THE DISPENSARY BUILDING

CLANTON, ALA.

with a fine selected stock of

Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Hats,

Gent's Furnishing Goods,

Ladies' Hats, Cloaks and Jackets

SPECIALTY—LADIES' HATS, $8.00 Hat for $4.00 Hat for

Good Goods, Low Prices
Pleased to Wait Upon You

We hope to have the pleasure of waiting upon

D. LUBELSKY
FROM BIRMINGHAM
CLANTON - - ALA.

MY STOCK
of Everything You Need

FALL AND WINTER GOODS

is complete. Make your headquarters at my store while you are in town

Thanking you all for past liberal patronage I remain
Yours truly,

ELBERT KANTER
CLANTON, ALA.

The effect of malaria lasts a long time.

You catch cold easily or become run-down because of the after effects of malaria.

Strengthen yourself with Scott's Emulsion.

It builds new blood and tones up your nervous system.

ALL DRUGGISTS: 50c. AND $1.00.

...So Can You"

...amily Store

...we are. One ...is the "OUR ...of "STAR ...e have a shoe ...of every family. ...ns to have all ...economically in ...g and service- ...UR FAMILY" ...experts in big ...om soft, pliant, good wearing, box calf ... boys' are Goodyear Welts which means ...e and that there are no tacks, wax or ... and blister the feet. Being reinforced ... brass clinch fastening, they cannot rip.

...onable—Men's $3.00 to $3.50, Boys' $2.00 ...2.25 to $2.50, Little Gents' $2.00. ...misses' and children's shoes have a metal ... the soles can't pull apart.

...Y" shoes for Women are $1.75 to $2.00, ...50 to $1.65, Children's 8½ to 11½, $1.35 ...1.10 to $1.25.

...he heel and the name "OUR FAMILY" ... shoe is a guarantee that they are honestly ... of satisfaction.

BRAND SHOES ARE BETTER"

...ts to like them. Come see them.

JONES, Clanton

...W STORE

...Saturday. October 5

...SPENSARY BUILDING

...ANTON, ALA.

...lected stock of

...Clothing, Shoes, Hats,

...'s Furnishing Goods, Etc.

...ats, Cloaks and Jackets

...Y... LADIES' HATS, $8 00 Hat for $5.00 ... " $4 00 Hat for $2.50

...s, Low Prices

...ased to Wait Upon You

...ve the pleasure of waiting upon you

LUBELSKY

...ROM BIRMINGHAM

...ON - - ALA.

...K

...Everything You Need ...

...ND WINTER GOODS

Make your headquarters at ... while you are in town all for past liberal patronage ... Yours truly,

...BERT KANTER

CLANTON, ALA.

...ime. ...e run- ...alaria. ...off's ...ervous

LEST WE

forget—Baby is restless, can't ... at night, won't eat, cries ... cially. A bottle of White's ... Vermifuge never fails to ... Every mother should give ... White's Cream Ve ... many times when the baby ... and fretful, the mother ... know what to do. A bottle of ... medicine would bring ... cheeks and laughter to ... Give it a trial. Sold by ... Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, ... by.

...TOWN TOPICS

...ere spent Sunday ... Mary ...

...10¢ @ 19¢ ... Extra Lot Silver 10¢ @ 11¢ ...

...ssages ...p.m. Wednesday.....2121

...to Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Hy- ...day morning, a fine baby

...Toland and Robbins via- ...ingham Saturday.

...Callie Watts spent Sunday ...day in Birmingham.

...'s Fountain Pen you want ... find them at Upchurch ..., at all prices and of the ...

...Winters and Meadows of ... were pleasant visitors to ... Saturday.

...Sam Latham left Tuesday ...ings; he has accepted a ... with M. F. Cannon & ...

...RELIABLE PROPOSITION. ...we recommend the "Our ... shoe we know that we ...esting our customers to ... shoes that will wear well, ...and please them. J. C. JONES, Clanton.

...and Mrs. David Mullins of ...spent Tuesday in Clanton.

...Arnold Harris of Atlanta ...town Wednesday.

...and Mrs. T. A. Curry visit- ...ingham Tuesday.

TO THE NEW STORE— ...per doz., Good Coffee, ...for $1.00; Best Granulated ...10 lbs for $1.00. Highest ...paid for Country Produce and ...Ties. C. W. REYNOLDS & Co.

...Minnie Muse will take ... in showing her winter ... Call and see her.

...Bell Popwell of Shiloh vis- ...itives in Clanton Tuesday.

The fates, ...Lachesis and Atropos, ...entertain in their caverns on Halloween, ...nine to eleven o'clock p.m. Under auspices of ...School Improvement Ass'n.

...H. Kanjutzky and children ...ed last Friday from a visit to ...others and sisters at Corona, ...she had not seen in four ...

...S. E. Bruce and son, Ho- ...are visiting relatives in Pick- ...unty

...d Wheat, Rye, Clover ...Barley for sale at Flor- ...Drug Store.

...J. S. Catts left Wednes- ...Atlanta to carry a U. S. ...to the authorities there, ...our Marshal Wagoner took ...of a freight train a fort- ...nace, hoboing his way to his ...Illinois. A reward of $50 ...for his capture.

...Johannes Magendanz and ...Tuskegee are visiting her ...Mrs. Pinckard. Prof. Ma- ..., formerly of Berlin, is ex- ...to join his wife in a few ...He is an eminent professor ..., a rare genius and of ...technique. Clanton should ...ured that such a talented ... should appear in their ...

...a look at M. F. Cannon & ...bargain row.

...T. Cullen, our County Treas- ...ys he has cash on hand to ... registered claims against ...and forfeiture funds.

...infant child of Mr. B. F. ... died last Wednesday and ...ied Thursday, a large num- ...friends attending the funeral.

...T. J. Henderson of Moun- ...Creek was in town Saturday.

...you a RAZOR from the ...Drug co.—the three ...Blued—guaranteed for three ...

...ge licenses have been issued ...by the Probate Judge to ...wing persons. ...W. C. Jones and Miss Nealie ...ett; Mr. B. J. Sessions and ...Cynthia Littlejohn; Mr. Ho- ...son and Miss Annie Lee ...

...Willie Hawkins and ...Morris.

...never have any trouble to ...them to take Kennedy's Lax- ...Cough Syrup. They like it ... it tastes nearly like maple ... Kennedy's Laxative Cough ... a safe, sure and prompt ...for coughs and colds and is ...every member of the fam- ...Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

How is the Time

We are now ready to show you a full line of Clothing, Shoes, Hats, and complete line of Dress Goods.

Furniture, Stoves, Sewing Machines, etc.

Tennessee and Flat Wagons.

Everything to make your house and farm complete. Give us a trial and if we can't sell you we will be badly mistaken.

E. M. PINCKARD & CO.

CLANTON

FOR SALE—Two fine young Stallions. R. L. MARCUS, Clanton.

FOR SALE—Eight beautiful building lots in Clanton. R. L. MARCUS, Clanton.

FOR SALE or RENT—One good house and lot in Clanton R. L. MARCUS, Clanton.

Mr. Sam Hopkins left Monday to accept a position in Mobile.

Card of Thanks

We sincerely beg the people of Clanton, who so graciously rendered their aid and sympathies in our hour of grief and trouble when the angel of death claimed our little one, Mignon Raines, to accept our unexpressible thanks and gratitude.

MR. B. F. RAINES.
N. W. SMITH and family.

A Criminal Attack

on an offensive citizen is frequently made in that apparently useless little tube called the "appendix." It's generally the result of protracted constipation, following liver torpor. Dr. King's New Life Pills regulate the liver, prevent appendicitis, and establish regular habits of the bowels. 25c at Upchurch Drug co.

Call at our store and get a sample of our Violet Lotion and soothe the chaps. Best preparation made for chapped hands, etc. Florence Drug Store.

Afflicted with Sore Eyes for 33 Years.

I have been afflicted with sore eyes for thirty-three years. Thirteen years ago I became totally blind and was blind for six years. My eyes were badly inflamed. One of my neighbors insisted upon my trying Chamberlain's Salve and gave me half a box of it. To my surprise it healed my eyes and my sight came back to me.—P. C. BAILS, Cynthiana, Ky. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.

List of Letters remaining uncalled for in Clanton, Ala., postoffice, for week ending Oct. 19, 1907. Persons calling for same will please say "advertised" and give date. One cent must be paid on each letter.

GENTLEMEN'S LIST.

LADIES' LIST.

Mrs. S J Brown, Mrs. Wm Bell, Mrs. W M Stacy, Miss Rosa Satter, Mrs W K Wells, Mrs. Sor. Moah

These letters will be sent to the dead Letter office, Nov. 2, 1907, if not delivered before.

F. O. DUDLEY, Postmaster.

ATTENTION! BANNER READERS

You are cordially invited to call and see my New Fall Stock of Solid Gold and Gold Filled Watches, Diamond Brooches, Rings, etc., Solid Gold and Gold Filled Jewelry of every description in elegant designs.

The Famous Simmons Watch Chains, 1847 Rogers Bros. Silverware. See it for yourself.

No Use Going to Montgomery or Birmingham

MARTIN, the Jeweler by the Post Office, Calera, Ala., can supply your wants for less money. This store is the place for ladies to do their Fall and Christmas shopping. We are expert Watchmakers.

J. W. MARTIN
THE JEWELER BY THE POST OFFICE
Calera, Ala.

The Calera Machine Repair Shop

is now open for General Repair Work. We repair Engines, Boilers, Saw Mills or any other Machinery that comes to hand. We guarantee all our work.

We also buy second hand machinery of all kinds.

We do all kinds of Pipe work.

We are also prepared with all Modern Tools, and have an expert Saw Hammerer who will straighten your Crooked Saws, and will Gum and Dress them, so that they will run and cut good smooth lumber and use 20 per cent less power.

We repair all kinds of Household Goods.

We do all kinds of Round Wood Turning, from an Ornamental Column to a Shelf Spindle.

In short, we are here for business and to do you good.

We solicit a trial.

THE CALERA MACHINE REPAIR SHOP
CALERA, ALA.

A Sewing Machine

well made, nicely finished, has improvements over the old styles, runs easily and quietly, low cost, but good work and quality.

Come in and examine it, you will be surprised at our good value for $18.00.

SPIGENER & JONES
The Hardware Store
CLANTON

Jamison.

At a request of several of the leading citizens of this place I shall write you of some society events that have taken place in Jamison lately and shall be glad if you can find space in your excellent paper to publish the same.

The most interesting to the writer of late is an opossum hunt which came off last Friday night. I never having participated in such a pastime, looked forward to the hunt with much interest. It was a lovely night, when that arbed maiden, with white fire laden, which mortals call the moon, was sending down on hill and town a radiance all her own. About seven o'clock a number of citizens (among whom the writer has now the honor of being enrolled) gathered at the cozy home of Dr. and Miss Lizzie McNeill, the former of course is well known as a prominent physician of this county, and the latter is equally noted as the most prominent milliner of Jamison. Among the number were Messrs. Jesse and Luther Durham, Johnson, Hadley, Arther and Robert Hunt and Patton. The girls were represented by Misses McNeill (our champion pedestrian), Adams, Durham, Lowery, Ida and Bertha Johnson, Patton and the writer of this paragraph. As soon as the dog arrived, there being but one, we set forth armed with the horn, accompanied by several small boys, and burdened with two packages of chewing gum for refreshment. (Presented by the author.) After being led through much under growth, up hills and down hills, devious winding ways, a suspicion crept into the minds of several of us that the boys were not playing fair, so being taxed with this suspicion of unfairness, Mr. Jesse Durham, the leader of this brave cohort, confined to a select few that he was going to pretend that we were lost, and thus find amusement in our fears, but suffice it to say that he failed to derive the fun that he expected, and got bitten by a 'possum that we caught later in the evening to boot. So the biter literally was bitten. The first opossum (we had begun to say oh! possum by that time) was a young one, but we also caught a fine fat one, well provided with a sharp set of teeth, as Mr. Durham can testify. Having caught two opossums in as many hours, we felt that we had won glory enough for one evening, so departed to our well earned rest. I will close with a little "possum poem," hoping that you have not been excessively bored by this communication.

You may talk of your dances and what not,
You may speak of entertainments galore,
And think you're the cream and top not
For attending receptions that bore.
But give me a night that's all moon light.
And a jolly dozen or more,
And a nice tall forest of pine trees
Down which the opossums pour;
And I'll give the handshake to sorrow,
From all human ills I'll soar.
I'll forget there is a tomorrow
Until I'm reminded by muscles sore.

STELLA SPENCER.

A Certain Cure for Croup—Used for Ten Years Without a Failure.

Mr. W. C. Bott, Star City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much feared the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to his friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequaled for croup and whooping cough. For sale by Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Lying.

It was said of Dr. Johnson that he always talked as though he were taking an oath. He detested the habit of lying or prevaricating in the slightest degree and would not allow his servants to say he was not at home if he was. "A servant's strict regard for the truth," said he, "must be weakened by such a practice. If I accustom my servant to tell a lie for me, have I not reason to apprehend that he will tell it for himself?" A strict adherence to truth this doctor considered as a sacred obligation, and in relating the smallest anecdote he would not allow himself the slightest addition to embellish his story.

The Transformed Pythagorean.

Some undergraduates once wished to play a practical joke upon a man who was a disciple of Pythagoras, as one day when he was a little sleepy by reason of the amount of lunch and cocktails that he had imbibed his friends smeared him with honey and rolled him in the inside of a feather bed. When the disciple of Pythagoras got up in the morning he looked in the looking glass of himself and said aloud: "Well, by Jove!"—

Schloss, in Dutch, means a Castle

Schloss, in English, means Good Clothes

Krump on the Korner Got 'em

Come in and Get 'em Then Wear 'em

'Gin the Law Not to Wear 'em

A suit of 'em would suit Crichton off. Try 'em!

KRUMP
ON THE KORNER
MAPLESVILLE - - ALA.

—GO TO—
A. M. JOHNSON
—MANAGER OF—
THE CASH GROCERY STORE
THORSBY, ALA.
FOR BARGAINS IN
Staple and Fancy Groceries

We make a specialty of Fresh Fish and Oysters, Fresh Pork Links and all kinds of Sausage, Breakfast Bacon, Boneless Ham and ...

—DELICATESSEN—

Pop, Soda Water and Jersey Butter always on hand.

Country Produce Bought, Sold and Exchanged.

Notice.

Real Estate, Fire, Life Insurance and Singer Machines.

I have on hand now some nice and convenient places for rent and some extra bargains in real estate. I also represent several leading fire insurance companies, and the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co.

My High Arm Singer Machine Stock is complete; Machines to suit sew perfect, run lighter and last longer than any other make. Remember, too, the price has been cut and you can get any terms you wish, monthly or annual payments. Also $5.00 allowance for your old machine.

Several good second hand Machines on hand at a bargain.

Needles, Bands, Cams, Attachments, and the only genuine Machine Oil made, 10 and 25¢ bottles.

I also represent the Jesse French Piano & Organ Co. When you need anything in my line, call on me at same old stand. Regular office days Friday, Saturday and Monday of each week.

C. R. MULLINS
CLANTON

FREE! FREE! FREE!

With each $2 00 purchase in our Dry Goods Line entitles you to one Handsome Decorated Cake Plate.

Each $10 00 purchase of same entitles you to one Handsome Decorated Dining Room Picture, with nice frame 15x20 size. Don't miss this opportunity.

11 lbs. Good Green Coffee $1.00.

Our Fall and Winter Dry Goods and Underwear and Overcoats is now on display now.

20 @ 22¢ for Eggs. High price paid for Country Produce; being it is.

HEADLEY BROS.
GENERAL MERCHANDISE
ON THE CORNER CLANTON

The First and Last

store in Clanton. If you come from the east it's the first; from the west it's the last.

Our stock of General Merchandise is First in quality and lowest in price.

FINE FAMILY GROCERIES—Always Fresh and Nice.

A fine line of Men's Dress Shirts and Neckwear.

SHOES of the finest quality and the best make. Try again.

A general assortment of first-class goods.

B. E. JONES & BRO.
CLANTON - - - ALA.

The Castle Comedy

By THOMPSON BUCHANAN

Copyright, 1906, by HARPER & BROTHERS

CHAPTER I.

CASUALLY the young man raised his eyes from his harp to find that he had an audience. He sprang to his feet, looking all embarrassment at the two girls standing suddenly so close at hand.

Pictures of twin beauty, contrasts, they were, framed in the door-free stone archway of the half ruined hut.

One was tall, perhaps, and slender, perhaps, with the hair of the Italian master—the hair that the red sun kisses, and then, unable to leave for the glory his kiss had awakened, hides in.

Her mouth was made for kissing, for smiling or for the sly saying of things that cut, and her hazel eyes would smile always unless a sad tale dowsed them.

But the other—there could be no "perhaps" here. He looked and gasped, for in those deep eyes he seemed to find, all intermingled, the witchery, the appeal and the compelling power of midnight. Here was one who could jump the octave of emotions from laughter to rage and strike not a mood between. Her hair was black, and, dimly, he was aware of her nose tilting daintily upward, a bit supercilious above the lips that met so straight and yet so tender, while under the white skin he could see the blood ran quick this way and that at the dominating black eyes' command. And they answered every thought.

Thus she stood, an imperious little empress of hearts, who needed no herald to announce her rank, for a new subject bowed down before her.

"Come, come, Sir Poet. There are two of us. Which were you honoring?" She of the red gold hair it was mocked him.

He bowed and answered her gayly, but his looks sought the other, the smaller girl, who held him.

"Ah, mademoiselle, a poor dancing master can serve but the most beautiful."

"A dancing master!" Her tone was different now. "Why, we thought to have found a love sick poet swain when we heard you playing in our pet hut. Didn't we, May?"

"Why, Eff, a dancing master will be of far more use to us awkward country maids. We'll learn to courtesy right and perhaps the minuet if"—Her black eyes took him in with one swift glance.

"Master Dubarre," he stammered.

"Master Dubarre will teach us," she ended.

"The honor would overwhelm a poor Frenchman." This with another and a deeper bow.

"French?" cried the poet seeker. "Why, you speak English like an Englishman!"

"Ah, mademoiselle, I was reared in England, but"—the French shrug spoke volumes—"who would employ an English dancing master?"

The laughter of the three, intermingled, swept away all stiffness.

"Come, May," laughed the Titian haired one, "have you not a French cousin?"

"And by that token should be almost as good a frog eater as this man, I suppose!" cried May. "But you must not speak of him."

"Think, Eff, he is fighting Englishmen when he is half English himself.

Casually the young man raised his eyes to find that he had an audience.

His mother was my cousin, Sarah, daughter of Cousin John Percy. It was by her running away with the young Vicomte de St. Croix when he was secretary of the French legation that the castle came to our, the younger, branch of the family. It killed Cousin John."

"I sought the castle," interrupted Dubarre. "At the inn they told me one Sir Henry Percy had a most beautiful daughter, and she a friend who might show me how English girls can dance."

"I am Mistress May Percy, and this my friend, Mistress Ethel Courtleigh," spoke she of the black eyes, drawing up her figure to slender queenliness to its full sixty inches.

The Frenchman's third bow since his first surprise was the deepest of all. "That was a most unusual innkeeper, mademoiselle. He did not lie."

The girl flushed angry at the broad compliment.

"When can you begin your duties, Master Dubarre?" she said stiffly.

"At once if only I could move my comrade to the castle."

"Comrade?"

"Yes, mademoiselle." He turned, pointing over to one corner, and for the first time the girls saw another man, a big fellow, lying on a bed of moss apparently asleep. "Poor Pierre! He plays the harp for me while I teach the steps. This morning coming down to a little ford he stumbled. The heavy harp on his back hurled him down so much the harder. His head struck a stone. See!"

The dancing master stepped across to the moss bed, and Mistress Percy followed him.

"Oh, it is horrible! Will he live?" the girl exclaimed when she saw the long gash running across the man's forehead at the roots of his hair.

Dubarre shrugged his shoulders again. "It is nothing. We French know much. I bound up the wound. Then we came on to this hut. Pierre was tired from the blood letting, I from carrying the harp. We stopped, and I sung him to sleep."

"But he must be carried to the house. He'll be too weak to walk. Here, Eff"—Mistress Percy turned impulsively to her friend—"ride you to the castle, Sir John Wilmerding and Captain Thorncliffe will be there awaiting us. Tell Sir John I say to bring a litter for this wounded man. I will wait here and tend him if he wakes. Men know nothing about such things."

The Frenchman regarded her for a few moments in silence. "You are very good, mademoiselle," he said at last.

Ethel Courtleigh was on her horse riding along the road across the view to her destination a mile away. And as she rode she smiled to herself to think how Sir John Wilmerding, the handsomest, the proudest man in the county, would receive that command to bring out a litter and help carry in an unnamed, unknown, low born assistant to a wandering, renegade French dancing master. But Sir John Wilmerding would obey. Mistress Courtleigh knew that, for it was not recorded when any one—and Sir John last of all—had ever thought of disobeying the imperious little toast of the county.

None in that part of England was more powerful than the Percys. Sir Henry of "the castle" was the family head, and his daughter, Mistress May, had ruled too long a queen not to command absolute obedience. And so the smiling messenger delivered her command and two men, inwardly cursing, hurried about to obey the latest whimsical wish of their sovereign.

Out in the hut Pierre was slowly reviving. The girl had Dubarre bring her water in his hat from the brook that rushed noisily before the door, and, using her own handkerchief, she washed daintily and bound up the ugly wound with tender care. The big Frenchman lying there watched her face throughout with mute, dog-eyed affection.

Then May learned how old Armand Dubarre, in the generation before, had taught the ladies of France to dance; how he had been indiscreet in carrying letters for a certain noble marquis. Dubarre shook his head when he spoke of this.

"The elopement failed. The marquis was killed. The lady's family was very powerful, and my father fled to England." He went on to tell how the outlawed Frenchman had started a dancing class. He taught the young ladies in noble English families, and so had married an English waiting maid. Gaston Dubarre was their son.

The girl seemed to lose interest after she had found all this. She listened, though, when the Frenchman went on volubly to explain that he had followed his father's trade and had taken up where the elder Dubarre left off.

Thoroughly disgusted, Mistress Percy turned back into the hut. She turned just in time to intercept a look that flashed from Dubarre to Pierre and back again. The girl caught her breath and walked straight up to the man standing beside the harp.

"M. Dubarre, was that long winded tale the truth?"

He faced her, laughing easily and with the inevitable shrug.

"Mistress Percy can believe all or none. Just as she pleases," he said.

Then the girl looked at Pierre.

The wounded man lay still, with eyes closed, face stern and set like that made no sign.

That evening Mistress Percy told Sir Henry, her father, Sir John Wilmerding, Captain Thorncliffe and the rest of the company the story she had heard from Master Dubarre, and the next morning the dancing master gave his first lesson.

CHAPTER II.

"COME, come, mademoiselle, that is all wrong."

The dancing master spoke sharply, as one would to an unruly child, for Mistress Percy was in one of her obstinate moods, and the lesson had gone awry from the beginning. They were at one end of the long, narrow, bare dancing hall, which when the arrival of Dubarre had begun, was, to a dancing room.

Now the girl drew herself up to make the most of her inches.

"M. Dubarre, I am not accustomed"—she began.

"To hear the truth," he smiled for her, smiling lightly; then, with grave politeness: "Certainly, if mademoiselle wishes to achieve awkwardness, I will say already she is far on the road to perfection. Pardon me for hitherto mistaking the aim of mademoiselle." His face showed deep concern at his mistake. Only about the eyes was the quizzical humor of a man amusing himself at the expense of a spoiled child.

Her eyes flashed danger signals; but, altogether unmindful, he turned to his assistant.

"Pierre, put your fingers out to tune, that the music may keep step with mademoiselle."

At the command, as an automaton might, Pierre, seated before his big harp at the other end of the hall, jiggled the strings out of all time or tune.

"Do you not like it?" Dubarre asked when the girl involuntarily put her hands to her ears. "If after three months you will not keep time with the music, then the music must keep time with you. My reputation as a dancing master demands that you keep together."

There was joy now in his tone as at the solution of a great difficulty.

"Possibly were the teacher better progress had not been so slow," Mistress Percy blurted angrily.

The Frenchman bowed profound acquiescence. "Mademoiselle is right," he said, now sadly. "I should never have attempted the task. My father, a famous dancer, often told me that only an old man could muster patience to teach the very young, who have no idea how to learn."

The girl whirled on him, splendidly angry.

"Am I to be insulted by my dancing teacher? Monsieur, I would have you know this shall be the last lesson."

"Then it were wise to make the most of it," he answered coolly and took her hand. "Pierre, play slowly. We will dance the minuet."

From pure wonder at his presumption, she yielded. For a time back and forward in graceful measure they trod through the stately dance. Ethel Courtleigh, waiting her turn, thought she had never seen so well matched a couple.

The dancing master stopped short and shrugged his shoulders impatiently. "One, two, three, four. Can you not possibly keep time?" he asked. "Now, Pierre, again."

Once more they trod the measure. A second time Dubarre stopped short. "Is mademoiselle a clumsy milkmaid dodging cows' tails? Have you no knees?" he asked with exaggerated politeness, then added mournfully, "Oh, that courtesy!"

And then the storm broke forth in earnest. Mistress Percy jerked her hand from his.

"When came it," she cried, "that a paid teacher so addressed his pupil, and that pupil a lady? Am I a child to be ordered about by a runaway Frenchman, a trickster with his feet? No; I will not dance. I am utterly weary of it, and I will never, never dance again!" And with her head very high and her body held very stiffly erect the girl turned her back on him and walked proudly to the side window to see how utterly miserable everything looked without.

The man merely shrugged his shoulders and glanced at the clock.

"Certainly mademoiselle has taken more than her fair share of the time, but, then, Mistress Courtleigh learns so quickly that it will make little difference."

His tone was easy and absolutely cool. With a sigh as though to himself he added, "Mon Dieu, it is exhausting to teach a young lady with a quick temper, who will not try to learn!"

Mistress Percy whirled about to speak, then as quickly turned back to the window. Looking closely at Dubarre, Ethel Courtleigh thought she saw about his mouth the faint shadow of a smile that was quickly pressed away. Then he came over to her.

"Will Mistress Courtleigh so honor a poor dancing master by affording him a little real pleasure?"

The tone was supplication, the bow a courtier's. Ethel Courtleigh arose promptly.

"Pierre, we will dance that minuet." Again the girl at the window started. She would not look, but she could hear everything. Now Dubarre was speaking. Above the music of the harp the words came to her.

"One, two, three, four—a gracious courtesy! A little more now. That is it. Ah, Mistress Courtleigh, it is, indeed, a pleasure to dance with one so graceful, so eager to dance well. Play that again, Pierre. I would see if Mistress Courtleigh can reach perfection twice." A pause of a few moments, and he cried, with enthusiasm, "Indeed, indeed, you could not, for the last was e'en better than the first."

"With such a teacher, M. Dubarre, it were, indeed, hard not to dance well." And Ethel Courtleigh smiled her gratification, while May Percy drummed violently on the window sill.

[TO BE CONTINUED.]

RED SCANDAL AT HARTFORD

Hartford, Oct. 26.—(Special.)—This unusually quiet town was stirred from center to circumference by the report that a very prominent citizen of Hartford had attempted to take the life of Rev. W. J. D Upshaw, pastor of the Baptist church at this place. But when the cause for the effort became known, the people were almost thunderstruck.

It is alleged that the minister had attempted to take undue liberties with a little daughter of the irate citizen, while the little girl was visiting at the minister's home. These facts came to the father's ears, and when he verified them, he made efforts to revenge the attempted insult to his family, and was only prevented from doing so by the interference of a nearby friend.

The attempted deed, coming from a minister of the gospel in charge of a flock here, and one who was well thought of, shocked the people. The minister was faced by the little girl in her charge, and he rendered no excuse. The minister left for parts unknown, after he escaped from the irate father.

Rev. Mr. Upshaw had been in charge of the Baptist church here for some months and was well received by all denominations. There are rumors of other attempts he had made to invade some of his flock, previous to the stir of Saturday.

Thomas A. Edison, the great American inventor, says "Full eight per cent of the illness of mankind comes from eating improper food or too much food; people are inclined to over-indulge themselves." This is where indigestion finds its beginning in nearly every case. The stomach can do just so much work and no more, and when you overload it, or when you eat the wrong kind of food, the digestive organs cannot possibly do the work demanded of them. It is at such times that the stomach needs help; it demands help, and warns you by headaches belching, sour stomach, nausea and indigestion. You should attend to this at once by taking something that will actually do the work for the stomach. Kodol will do this. It is a combination of natural digestants and vegetable acids and contains the same juices found in a healthy stomach. It is pleasant to take. It digests what you eat. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

We have just received a fine line of candies—Lowney's and Jacobs—all size packages. Florence Drug Store.

TAX NOTICE.

Assessor's and Collector's

SECOND ROUND.

We will attend at the following times and places for the purpose of collecting the State and County taxes of Chilton county, for the year 1907, and assessing the taxes for the year 1908:

				1907
Enterprise	Beat 6		Nov.	4
Kincheon	" 6		"	5
Pletcher	" 8		"	6
Clanton Ford	" 8		"	7
Benson	" 3		"	8
Stanton	" 8		"	11
Valley Creek	" 8		"	12
Stanton	" 8		"	13
Shoults	" 7		"	14
Maplesville	" 7		"	15
Macedonia	" 3		"	16
E. G. Cofer's Mill	" 2		"	18
Hayes' Mill	" 2		"	19
Providence	" 2		"	20
John Killingsworth's	" 2	a.m.	"	21
Mrs. Cofer's Mill	" 2	p.m.	"	21
Jemison	" 2		"	22
Thorsby	" 9		"	23
Smith's School House	" 1		"	25
Mineral Springs	" 1		"	26
Flint Hill	" 11		"	27
Providence	" 10		"	28
Corinth Church	" 10		"	29
Clanton	" 4		Dec.	2
Cooper	" 10		"	3
Verbena	" 5		"	4
Mt. Creek	" 5		"	5
Jas. Maddox's Mill	" 4		"	6
Lomax	" 4 till 12		"	7

I will be at Clanton the last ten days in the year, commencing December 20, 1907. All taxes not paid by Jan. 1st 1908 will become delinquent. Take notice of the above and save extra expense.

L. B. POUNDS, Tax Assessor.
T. J. HUBBARD, Tax Collector.

JULIUS CAESAR

was a man of nerve but sickness left its mark and he became aged before his time. Sickness is often caused by a torpid liver. Herbine will regulate your liver and give you health. Mrs. Carrie Austin, Hollon, Kansas, writes: "I consider Herbine the best medicine I ever heard of. I am never without it." Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Rockymount.

The annual revival meeting will be on hand the second Sunday in November at this place. The pastor in charge has secured the services of Evangelist J. L. Brasher to do the preaching. All Christian workers are cordially invited. J. B. S.

Special BARGAIN

500 dozen Spools Thread just received 5c Spool
11 lbs. Good Coffee $1.00
115 pairs Ladies' Shoes, regular price $1.50; now $1.10
115 pairs Ladies' Shoes, regular price $1.75; now $1.25

We have some Men and Boys' Shoes that we are selling at bargains

Our line of Shoes is complete. Ladies' Dress Goods and Underwear

If you want a barrel of good Flour, we have the best.

We have other bargains too numerous to mention. Call and see us, we will protect our trade. Everything sold reasonable. We are ready to serve you. With respects for past favors, we solicit your further patronage.

COOPER BROS.

GENERAL MERCHANDISE

CLANTON, ALA.

Prepare at Once to Visit the Second Annual

Alabama Agricultural FAIR

MONTGOMERY
Oct. 24 to Nov. 2

Positively the finest Agricultural and Live Stock exhibit ever held south. A marvelously interesting and practical collection of Farm Implements; Splendid Horse Racing daily; the greatest Midway of the day, and an unrivaled Musical program every afternoon and night by Ricci's Imperial Italian Band, (recognized by the Musician's Union.) Interest all your friends and acquaintances, and bring your own family. Help make this great undertaking the success it deserves.

Free Attractions consist of the most thrilling exhibition of high wire walking, acrobatics, and the most entertaining commedians in the country. Ample accomodations await each and every visitor. For new premium list address,

Alabama Agricultural Association
MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA
ROBERT TAIT, Secretary

Your Railroad Ticket to the State Fair F

If you live within 75 miles of Montgomery we will refund your entire railroad fare (at the excursion rate) on any purchase amounting to $15.00 or more. The only condition being that you show return ticket at the time of purchase. Beyond that distance we will allow you your round trip fare for 75 miles, at the excursion rate.

ALEX RICE

6, 7 & 8 COURT SQUARE MONTGOMERY, ALA.

Health is More Than Wealth
Use
BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT
AND

KING OF THEM ALL

you will always have good health. What is more to a man than good health? All the money in the world can't make happiness where health is unknown. Ballard's Snow Liniment CURES Rheumatism, Cuts, Burns, Sprains, Neuralgia, Sores, Stiff Joints, Contracted Muscles, Lame Back and all the ills that Flesh is Heir to.

One Who Knows.

J. G. Scott, Salt Lake City, Utah, writes: "I cannot too highly praise your Ballard's Snow Liniment for the relief of acute rheumatism, caused by sudden change and exposure to the weather. I also recommend your Ballard's Horehound Syrup for coughs and colds. These used together defy all pain."

GET THE GENUINE. Three Sizes 25c, 50c, $1.00

Ballard Snow Liniment Co.
500-502 North Second Street.
ST. LOUIS, - MISSOURI.

Sold and Recommended by
Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton.

Calmage Sermon

By Rev. Dr. Talmage

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 28.—That the most serious and trials of life may be confronted into the greatest spiritual blessings if, instead of giving way to [illegible] depression, we show faith by the faithful performance of daily duties is the teaching of this sermon. The text is John xxi. 3: "I go a-fishing."

A great tragedy opens in connection with the scene in which these words occur. If we witness a railroad accident or a carriage accident or a tragedy of any kind we are interested in the persons to which it occurred, will be interested in the end event revealed to the world. Especially in this the case with a tragedy involved the death of the Lord. If you lived in another part of the country, would you not [illegible] to go home and stay among the scenes and try to blot out the terrible spectacle which you had been called to witness? Well, that is what Peter and some of the disciples did after Jesus was laid in the tomb. "Come," they cried to each other; "let us get away from this city of Jerusalem. Let us go back to Galilee, near where we were born and where we lived when the dear Lord called us to leave our nets and our fishers of men." So they packed up their belongings and started for the Ephraim hills. They turned their backs upon the great walled capital and the temple and sought the scenes of their childhood and of their early communion with Christ. [illegible] thinks I can see them now walking. The sun was shining just as bright then as during some of the days they had taken with him. The birds were singing just as sweetly. It was the springtime. All the flowers were in full bloom—the wild flowers which Jesus so loved. The sheep were feeding upon many hills. The grass was green and soft. As the weary men rested for the lunch hour it seemed as though nature cared not that her Creator was living or dead. Their hearts were so crushed and sad! The farther they got away from Calvary the more their grief seemed to bow them down. The hardest times of sorrow do not come during the hours of the funeral, but afterward. Then the home is so lonely, the room so empty, the loved voices no more heard. Everywhere the pilgrims went they could see his dear face and hear his speaking. Christ a score of times traveled with them over this same road and rested by these same springs.

Peter's First Impulse.

When they reach home the same unutterable grief abides with them. They try to cheer each other up, but it is no use. One afternoon toward evening as the sun was sinking in the west these men are again gathered together all over the past. I hear the rough, impulsive Peter speak up. He says: "Men, I cannot stand this any longer. Every time I think of his cruel death I hear myself denying him. Then I see that sweet face turned in pity upon me, as when the cock crew twice. I must do something to drive myself out of these recollections of the past. I'll go a-fishing." With that Peter starts to find his old boat and his nets. And all the other disciples say, "We also go with thee." They descend the hills to the pebbled shore. They get out the old oars. They fit the bottom of the boat with their nets. Off they pull. As I see that company going farther and farther away from shore I see Christ, the loving Lord, watching his dear disciples. They cannot see him, but he sees them. Some practical gospel truths arise in my mind as I think of the impulsive words of this most human of all the disciples when he said, "I go a-fishing," and the other disciples answered, "We go with thee."

Christ, starting for the nets on the shores of Galilee, shows, in the first place, the never ending grip the habits of youth take upon our minds and souls. What we learn before fifteen years of age we seldom forget. You have often heard of old people coming into second childhood. This means that when the hair is white and the brain an aged man may forget. But he did in his twenties and thirties and in his middle life, but he remembers what he did as a little child. He may forget his wife and children, as a rule, he never forgets his father and mother and brothers and sisters. It is no unusual sight to hear a man calling his sons and daughters by the names of his brothers and sisters and plaintively talking to his mother as though he were a little child [illegible] his mother. The pictures we have dreams about most are the scenes of his early boyhood, the brook he ran through his father's meadows, the old schoolhouse where he got his primer, his old trundle bed he used to crack until the noise he used to cut on winter nights before the crackling logs of the family fireside.

Mendy emphasized this truth in this way. He said: "The older I get the better it is for me to learn lessons. As a preacher I am constantly committing to memory new texts and chapters, yet I very often forget them. But the Scriptures which I learned at my mother's knee I have never forgotten. The last time she taught me one more lesson vividly recalled by my mind.

al BARGA

Spools Thread just receive

Coffee $1.00
adies' Shoes, regular pric
$1.10
dies' Shoes, regular pric
$1.25
Men and Boys' Shoes th selling at bargains is complete. Ladies' Dres ls and Underwear

rrel of good Flour, we ha
the best.
gains too numerous to menti
, we will protect our trad reasonable. We are ready t h respects for past favors, our further patronage.

OPER BROS.
MERCHANDISE
NTON, ALA.

Once to Visit the Second Annual na Agricultural

MONTGOMERY
Oct. 24 to Nov. 2

nest Agricultural and Live Stock outh. A marvelously interesting and n of Farm Implements; Splendid y; the greatest Midway of the day, usical program every afternoon and Imperial Italian Band, (recognized Union.) Interest all your friends s, and bring your own family. Help ndertaking the success it deserves.

tions consist of the most thrilling exhibition of high wire walking, acrobatics, and the most entertaining country. Ample accomodations await each
For new premium list address,

Agricultural Association
NTGOMERY, ALABAMA
T TAIT, Secretary

icket to the State Fair Fro

75 miles of Montgomery we will r ad fare (at the excursion rate) wh ng to $15.00 or more. The only co n show return ticket at the time
t distance we will allow you your ro at the excursion rate.

ALEX RICE
ARE MONTGOMERY, ALA

ealth is ore Than Wealth
Use BALLARD'S
SNOW LINIMENT
AND

KING OF THEM ALL

ve good health. What is more to a man
All the money in the world can't make ddition to it. Ballard's Snow Liniment eumatism, Cuts, Burns, Sprains, Neuralgia, es, Stiff Joints, Contracted Muscles, Lame k and all the ills that Flesh is Heir to.

e Who Knows.

lt Lake City, Utah, writes; "I cannot
e your Ballard's Snow Liniment for e rheumatism, caused by sudden change
the weather. I also recommend your hound Syrup for coughs and colds.
ther defy all pain.
UINE. Three Sizes 25c, 50c, $1.00

d Snow Liniment Co.
0-502 North Second Street,
UIS, - MISSOURI.

nd Recommended by rug Co., Clanton.

Talmage Sermon

By Rev. Dr. Talmage.

Subject: Peter as a Boy.

Text: "I go a-fishing."—John xxi. 3.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 28.—That the great sorrows and trials of life may be transformed into the greatest spiritual blessings if, instead of giving way to gloom and depression, we show forth by the faithful performance of daily duties is the teaching of this sermon. The text is John xxi. 3. "I go a-fishing."

A great tragedy seems to associate itself with the scene in which it took place. If we witness a railroad collision or a carriage accident or a tragic death of any kind we cannot pass the spot in which it occurred without having the sad event recalled to the memory. Especially is this the case when the tragedy involved the death of one we loved. If you lived in another part of the country would you not at once long to go home and stay among the old scenes and try to blot out the terrible spectacle which you had been compelled to witness? Well, that is what Peter and some of the disciples did after Jesus was laid away in the tomb. "Come," they cried to each other, let us get away from this sad city of Jerusalem. Let us go back to Galilee, near where we were born and where we lived when the dear Master called us to leave our nets and become fishers of men." So they packed up their belongings and started north for the Zebulon hills. They turned their backs upon the great walled capital and the temple and sought the scenes of their childhood and of their early communion with Christ. I think I can see them now walking along. The sun was shining just as bright then as during some of the days they had taken with him. The birds were singing just as sweetly. It was the springtime. All the flowers were in full bloom—the wild flowers which Jesus so loved. The sheep were feeding upon many hills. The grass was green and soft. As the weary travelers rested for the lunch hour it did seem as though nature cared not whether its Creator was living or dead. Their hearts were so crushed and bleeding. The farther they got away from Calvary the more their grief seemed to bow them down. The hardest times of sorrow do not come during the hours of the funeral, but afterward. Then the house is so lonely, the arms so empty, the loved voices so still. Everywhere the pilgrims went they could see his dear face and hear him speaking. Christ a score of times had traveled with them over this same road and rested by these same springs.

Peter's First Impulse.

When they reach home the same unutterable grief abides with them. They try to cheer each other up, but it is no use. One afternoon toward evening as the sun was sinking in the west these disciples are again gathered together to talk over the past. I hear the rough, honest, impulsive Peter speak up. He says: "Men, I cannot stand this any longer. Every time I think of his betrayal and death I hear myself denying him. Then I see that sweet face turned in pity upon me, as when the cock crew twice. I must do something to divert myself out of these recollections of the past. I'll go a-fishing." With that Peter starts to find his old boat and his nets. And all the other disciples say, "We also go with thee."

They descend the hills to the pebbled beach. They get out the old oars. They fill the bottom of the boat with nets. Off they pull. As I see that boat going farther and farther away from shore I see Christ, the loving Lord, watching his dear disciples. They cannot see him, but he sees them. Some practical gospel truths arise in my mind as I think of the impulsive words of this most human of all the disciples when he said, "I go a-fishing." And the other disciples answered, "We go with thee."

The story, starting for the nets on the shores of Galilee, shows, in the first place, how never ending grip the habits of our youth take upon our minds and lives. What we learn before fifteen years of age we seldom forget. You have often heard of old people coming into their second childhood. This means that when the hair is white and the body infirm an aged man may forget what he did in his twenties and thirties and in his middle life, but he rarely forgets what he did as a little child. He may forget his wife and children, but as a rule, he never forgets his mother and father and brothers and sisters. It is no unusual sight to hear a man calling his sons and daughters by the names of his brothers and sisters and plaintively talking to his children as though he were a little child talking to his mother. The places an old man dreams about most are the scenes of his early boyhood, the brook where he ran through his father's meadows, the old schoolhouse where he studied his primer, his old trundle bed, the nuts he used to crack and the apples he used to eat on winter evenings before the crackling logs of the old family fireside.

Dwight L. Moody emphasized this truth in a striking way. He said: "The older I grow the harder it is for me to learn anything. As a preacher I am constantly committing to memory new texts and chapters, yet I very often forget them. But the Scripture verses which I learned at my mother's knee which she taught me are more and more vividly recalled by my mind. Therefore it is very important that parents walk up their children aright for God. They should early get them in the habit of going to church and to Sunday school. They should teach them the beautiful stories of the Bible. They should instill in them the duties of helping those who need their help. The gospel habits we learn in youth we rarely forget."

Peter as a Boy.

Then we find the old habits of Peter asserting themselves. Peter was born near the sea of Galilee. As a boy he used to play upon its pebbled beach. As a youth he used to swim and fish in its waters. As a young man he used to earn his livelihood by catching and selling the fish. As a strong fisherman he had battled with many storms while setting his nets after his boat had been nearly submerged by the heaving billows. Now, when the horrors of the crucifixion were still surging through his mind and heart, the old habits of youth were again asserting themselves. "Back to the fisherman's tasks," was the call of his heart. So may we train our children for Christ in the nursery that when the storms of persecution and the tornadoes of trouble batter against them and threaten to submerge them they may find divine solace and gospel comfort in the lessons we have taught them in the quietude of the nursery and in the inspired truths they have learned at the family altar.

But there is another weighty lesson to be learned from the scene of my text. The easiest way to overcome the tidal waves of trouble is by harnessing ourselves up to work. Inactivity and inertia are sympathizing attendants, who are only too willing to sit by the bedside of heartrending grief and weep with us when we weep and talk over with us the sickening tragedies of the past. But their chief mission is not to heal the wounds of life or to stop the hemorrhages of bleeding hearts. They only take the bandages off the pain racking wounds and start the bleeding afresh. The best way to fight grief is to go forth in a manly, Christian way and lift our cross and silently carry our burden along and not stop to make complete inventory of our misfortunes. Peter knew this truth, as every brave man ought to know it.

Back to Daily Duties.

Cannot you hear him say to the other disciples: "Men, what is the use of our sitting here and nursing our grief? By dwelling on the scenes of the past can we lessen one iota any of our sorrows? Would Jesus want us to sit around idle like this? We cannot bring him back to us. Like David with his dead boy, we can go to him, but he cannot come to us. Have we no daily duties to perform? Have we no hungry mouths to fill? Are not our wives and children dependent upon us for food? If Jesus does not want me to follow him and preach, at least he wants me to be an honest man and provide a home for my family. I used to earn their living by a fisherman's net. I can earn them bread by selling fish again. I go a-fishing." Then the other disciples said, "We also go with thee." Yes, the sad fact is that many people do not fight the sorrows of life by the activities of life. Like Job of old, they nurse their grief by tearing their garments and by weeping and complaining in sackcloth and ashes.

Here, for instance, is a wife and mother who has been blessed with as noble a family as God ever gave to a home. From the morning when the sweet throated songstress called love sang amid the bowers of the orange blossoms the sunshine of joy has always been flooding her life. Her life, like a humming bird, has winged its way from flower to flower. The stinging nettles and the hard, stony pathways were for others. Only the restful, tender symphonies of a happy life sounded their music in her heart. But one day the shadow of the broad winged messenger of death passed over her head. Now, as before, there are seven places at her family table, but one of the baby chairs is vacant. Does that mother always arise in the morning with a sweet smile upon her lips and take up her duties of life cheerfully? Does she help her husband bear his grief? With a noble Christian resignation, does she thank God that she has still four babies left? Does she live to make them happy? Or does she sit down and nurse her grief? Are her cheeks being continually splashed by the fountains of her tears? Does she put away all her bright clothes and advertise her sorrow by repulsive crape? Does she go forth with a brave heart to bind up the bleeding wounds of her neighbors? Does she continually expect her neighbors to come and talk to her upon only one subject, the loss of her baby girl? My friend, God sent you a sorrow to prepare you for helping others bear their trials. The easiest way to overcome grief is by bravely lifting up your cross and going forth to comfort others. Peter fishing for food for his children on the sea of Galilee is a far more commendable sight than Peter with tear stained cheeks, nursing his grief upon the pebbled beach of the sea of Tiberias.

Troubles Never Come Singly.

But there is another fact which impresses me about Peter's fishing expedition, and that is that troubles do not live a hermit's life. They do not perch as a bald headed eagle upon the crags and the cliffs in solitary glory. They love companionship. Like some fish, they travel in schools. Like the cattle, they pasture together in herds. Peter's troubles were cumulative. They came in companies. Like the snowflakes, they persisted in piling themselves up into a great, impassable drift. Like the mighty onrushing rivers, they gathered up the waters of many brooks and creeks and fountains. In the first place, Peter had an awful remorse gnawing at his heart for his denial of Jesus Christ. Do you not suppose he thought of that agonizing day in and day out? After your failure did all there not for weeks and months and years linger in your mind some act of disobedience or some denial out of it you neglected to do? Tell me, do you not suppose there were some people just tactless enough to remind Peter of his three denials? "Yes," they sarcastically said; "if I were you, Peter, I would cry a good deal about Jesus' death. You always pretended you loved him so much. Oh, yes, you were always going to be faithful! And yet you failed him when the test came, Peter, I believe you are a hypocrite, and you would deny him again if you had the chance." And I can hear Peter say: "Yes, perhaps I would. O Christ, why have I been false to thee?"

Then the next grief tugging at Peter's heart was the awful thought that all Christ suffered for and lived for and died for seemed to have gone for naught. He felt that Christ's kingdom which he was to establish upon earth had now become a lost cause. Was not Jesus dead? Was not his little band of followers scattered? Was not the hated sanhedrin triumphant in its merciless work? So Peter felt that Christ's blood was sacrificed in vain. He felt that Christ's death had sealed the fate of his kingdom.

How Christ Appeared.

Then upon the summit of these griefs came the failure of his present effort. Hour after hour those fishermen were dragging at their nets. No fish, no food, nothing to appease the hunger of their dear ones. Yet in the early dawn of the morning Christ appeared unto Peter upon the shores of Galilee. And so, my friend, when the darkest hours of your night of trouble have passed Christ will appear to you. Not in the darkness of your first trouble will you get the blessed peace which passeth all understanding, not even in the second trouble, but in the third trial or trouble Christ will appear as he appeared to those disciples on the crystal shore of Lake Gennesaret.

In personal life I have had a most dramatic illustration of this pregnant truth. My father's life was drawing toward its close. Thick and fast came a succession of terrific troubles. The impenetrable darkness seemed to be everywhere. First came the conflagration which in a few minutes swept away his great tabernacle, where so many of his gospel triumphs had been won. Every one of its stones had been mortared by years of self sacrifice and work. Then came the death of my beloved mother, who to a great extent was the cause of his wonderful success. Then came his removal from Brooklyn to Washington and his selling of the old homestead where he had passed the greater part of his active ministerial life. That home to him was the dearest place on earth. He never felt at home anywhere else. He was too old a tree to transplant and take root again, as you would be if you had to leave the home of your children and the home from which you had buried your dead. It was at this time that he prepared his sermon entitled "Cumulating Troubles." It was from I Chronicles, eleventh chapter and twenty-second verse, "Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, who had done many acts; he slew two lionlike men of Moab; also he went down and slew a lion in a pit in a snowy day."

The whole purpose of that sermon was to prove that every man, like Benaiah, had three troubles to fight—first, a lion; second, a dark cavern; third, a snowy day. A short time after this my father came on to preach in my pulpit. He brought this sermon along. He arose and gave out the text. Then suddenly his tongue became thick and his speech heavy. He was threatened with an apoplectic stroke. His life's work from that moment rapidly drew to its close. Ah, yes, he had his "accumulating troubles." Church gone. Old homestead gone. Health gone. Three troubles like Benaiah—a lion, a pit and a snowy day. So, O man, you shall have three troubles. You are like Benaiah and Peter. But God will reveal himself to you in your darkest troubles as he revealed himself to his children of old. Christ appeared to Peter, walking upon the crystal pavements of the sea of Galilee, in the fourth watch of the night. As the darkness settles Christ will appear to you in his glorious love, soon, very soon. Aye, he will appear to you now. If you will only love him and trust him you can see him at this very moment.

Are we willing to open our eyes now and see Christ face to face? Christ did not appear unto the repentant apostle most vividly on a great occasion, but while he was at his humble duties, in the common walks of life. When Jesus appears most vividly to us he will in all probability reveal himself not so much in church as on the street car; not so much at a communion service as when we, as physicians, are bowing over the sickbeds of our patients, or when we, as farmers, are laboring in the fields, or when we, as housewives, are working about the kitchen stoves. And Christ will not appear unto us so vividly when we are alone as when, like Peter, in the darkness of the night, with Nathaniel and James and John, we are being tossed about upon the waves of trouble. May God grant that today, side by side, we may see the divine face of Jesus Christ!

[Copyright, 1907, by Louis Klopsch.]

Do Pa.

"That'll be quite a small wedding at your house tonight," said the old friend of the family. "Of course you'll give your daughter away."

"No," replied the girl's father. "I guess I'll be only loaning her. I believe they'll be back to live with us."—Philadelphia Press.

AN OBLIGING WAITER.

He Got the Five Dishes, and He Got Them in Record Time.

He was a stranger in town. The clerk of the hotel had neglected to call him until twenty minutes after the appointed hour, and as a consequence he had but a short time for breakfast before he must leave for his train.

Going into the dining room, he waived the formality of having the chair solemnly pushed under him by the head waiter, and, accosting one of the dinky servers, he commanded hurriedly:

"Go to the kitchen and get me a breakfast—five dishes of anything that is ready—and get it quick!"

As the order was accompanied by a medium sized piece of silver the wayfaring man had reason to expect a fairly good meal.

And as to speed of delivery he was not disappointed. In an incredibly short time the negro reappeared, bearing aloft a tray on which sat five dishes, remarkable only for their similarity of size and shape. When the tray was lowered sufficiently to bring the contents of the dishes into focus the traveler saw his breakfast—five dishes of steaming oatmeal, accompanied by five miniature pitchers of cream.

The negro beamed with satisfaction at the rapidity with which he had executed the order. The traveler hurriedly ate one dish of the oatmeal, and as he left the dining room the waiter was heard to remark:

"Wondah wot dat man say he want five dishes foah?"—Chicago Record-Herald.

MONOPOLIES AND RINGS.

Olden Time Schemes For Obtaining Wealth and Power.

The evil of monopolies and rings was known to ancients, Aristotle referring to them in his "Politics," and then, as now, it was found necessary to hold them in check by legislation. The monopolist was in Roman law called a dardanarius and punished under the Lex Julia de Annona. Monopolies of clothing, fish and all articles of food were prohibited by the Emperor Zeno under pain of confiscation and exile, so that it is certain that the rings of the ancient days were as mischievous as they are now. At Athens a law limited the amount of corn a man might buy. The earliest recorded instance we have was a corn ring.

There is an ancient tradition that the king who made Joseph his prime minister and committed into his hands the entire administration of Egypt was Apepi. Apepi was one of the shepherd kings and ruled over the whole of Egypt as Joseph's pharaoh seems to have done. The prime minister during seven years of remarkable plenty bought up every bushel of corn beyond the absolute needs of the Egyptians and stored it. During the terrible famine that followed he was able to get his own price and bartered corn successively for the Egyptian money, cattle and land and, taking one-fifth for pharaoh, made him supremely wealthy. It was not merely a provident act, but a very politic one, his policy being to centralize power in the monarch's hands.—London Answers.

Origin of Attar of Roses.

The preparation of the famous attar of roses, according to the Circle, seems to have been discovered by accident. From India we get the tradition. The favorite Sultana of Sehanghir caused a bath of rosewater to be prepared for her use. The burning sun of India brought its might upon the bath prepared in the royal garden and soon globules of oil were found floating upon the fragrant water. Deeming the bath impure and attempting to skim off the film, the attendants broke the globules, and at once the garden was filled with fragrance. The finest essence is not gathered from the rarest and most costly flowers, for the fragrant oil glands are most abundant in the petals of the free blooming, old, common kinds.

Machiavelli.

Nicolo Machiavelli, from whose surname has been coined a synonym for treacherous craft, was a writer of nervous and concise Italian. He took high rank as a dramatist, his comedy of "Mandragola" being pronounced inferior only to the work of Voltaire. Leo X. admired it so much that he had it played before him in Rome. His book on the "Art of War" won the praise of so competent a judge as Frederick the Great of Prussia. His policy in statesmanship embodied in his work "The Prince" was the direct antithesis of Washington's sentiment that "honesty is the best policy."

Barbers Ages Ago.

The first barbers of whom there is any record plied their trade in Greece in the fifth century B. C. In Rome the first barbers operated in the third century B. C. In olden times in England the barber and the physician were identical. Thus a king's barber was also his chief medical adviser. In the time of Henry VIII. of England laws were made concerning barbers, of which the following is an extract: "No person occupying a shaving or barbery in London shall use any surgery, letting of blood or other matter, except the drawing of teeth."

DYSPESIA

Almost every other man and woman you meet is afflicted with this terrible disease in some stage until it acquires full strength and suddenly seizes them in the most violent form. Is your appetite fickle? Do you suffer with frequent headaches and dizziness, and dimmed eyes? Do you lack ambition and energy? Do you toss and tumble at night, unable to sleep?

These are all symptoms and forerunners of this disease. Act at once. Commence the use of

Dr. Caldwell's
(Laxative)
Syrup Pepsin

which will instantly check the progress of the disease and ultimately eradicate all traces of it from your system.

DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN is the greatest preparation ever offered for dyspepsia.

It acts instantly, restoring every affected part to natural life and vigor.

DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN can be obtained in both dollar and half-dollar sizes at all druggists.

Your money will be refunded if it does not benefit you.

Your postal card request will bring by return mail our new booklet, "DR. CALDWELL'S BOOK OF WONDERS" and free sample to those who have never tried this wonderful remedy. Do it now.

PEPSIN SYRUP CO.
Monticello, Illinois

TIPTON MULLINS
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
Clanton - - Ala.

WILLIAM M. ADAMS
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
Practices in all Courts. Long time loans negotiated on improved farm lands.
Office Room 1, Court House.
Clanton - - Ala.

ROBERT H. KNOX
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
Clanton - - Ala.
Will practice in all the State and Federal Courts of Alabama.

DR. J. EARL GOWAN
DENTIST
Office Elder Building
CLANTON, ALA.

DR. P. I HOPKINS
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON
EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROAT
Office Hours 9 to 12 a.m.
CLANTON

HELP IS OFFERED
WORTHY YOUNG PEOPLE

WELLS Bored and Drilled

T. B. TEEL
Contractor and Driller of Deep Water Wells
CLANTON, ALA.

The "Only Indispensable Magazine"

IT'S THE AMERICAN MONTHLY
REVIEW OF REVIEWS
THIS YEAR IT IS MORE INDISPENSABLE THAN EVER

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT says:
"I know that through its columns views have been presented to me that I could not otherwise have had access to, because all earnest and thoughtful men, no matter how widely their ideas diverge, are given free entrance to its columns."

WE WANT AGENTS

TO REPRESENT US IN EVERY COMMUNITY large and small, for full or spare time work. The liberal commissions and cash prizes offered, and the marvelous selling qualities of the Review of Reviews in connection with our strong new Magazine Clubbing Combinations, or with the handsomest little set of books you ever saw—our "LITTLE MASTERPIECE" series—will enable you or anyone, with or without experience, to MAKE ALL KINDS OF MONEY IN YOUR HOME TOWN, yes more, to build up a business with no capital except ENERGY—a business that will grow, a business that will insure you both a permanent and profitable income. We'll be glad to tell you all about it if you ask us. Write TODAY before you forget it, to the Review of Reviews Company, 13 Astor Place, Room 600, New York.

DO YOU KNOW AN AGENT? who has done well taking subscriptions to various magazines? A sample worth 25 cents for his (or her) name and address—won't you send it? A year's subscription FREE if the person you recommend sends us five orders within thirty days after his appointment.

ALABAMA BIBLE SOCIETY
MONTGOMERY, ALA.

Bibles at Cost or Cash

Bibles at Cost for Cash

BIBLES. BIBLES.

The Alabama Bible Society wishes to supply you with Bibles. You can get from us any style binding or type at the publishers' cost price. We do not sell except for CASH. Write us

Kodol FOR DYSPEPSIA
DIGESTS WHAT YOU EAT
For Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Belching, Nervousness, Headache, Biliousness, Dizziness, Sick Headache, Heartburn, Flatulency, Constipation, Bad Breath, Nausea, Sleeplessness, Loss of Appetite, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Coated Tongue, Pain in the Region of the Heart, Gnawing Feeling in the Stomach, and all other results of imperfect digestion.
PREPARED ONLY AT THE LABORATORY OF
E. C. DeWITT & COMPANY, CHICAGO, ILL.
Upchurch Drug Co.

CUT IN PRICES

ALL FALL GOODS MARKED DOWN

We are determined to clean out our Fall Stock so as to make room for New Winter Goods and have cut the prices down to clear the stock out.

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY

CALICOES to go at 5c per yard
SHEETINGS to go at 5c per yard
SHOES $3.50 shoes to go at $2.50
" 2.50 shoes to go at 1.75
CLOTHING—Men's suits, $25.00 suits to go at $17.50
" " " 12.50 " " 7.50
" " " 7.50 " " 4.00
" " " 5.00 " " 3.00

This is just a few examples. Everything else in the store cut in a similar way

We have entered the cotton market and will pay the highest market price for cotton—and the price promises to be high this season.

Also we shall continue to pay highest prices for COUNTRY PRODUCE, WOOL, BEESWAX, HIDES and TALLOW. Bring them in and get cash for them.

PHONOGRAPHS and RECORDS
a Specialty
Come and Hear Them Play

H. KANJUTZKY

CLANTON - - ALA.

Fall and Winter is Upon Us

and we are making our first showing of the New Fall Styles in Clothes for men and boys. They are the newest productions of the best known makes, in all the latest fabrics, shades, and a real treat to the eye of a man who knows good clothes when he sees them. Come in, look, try one and you will be highly pleased.

This is the Season for Hat Changing

and nothing can add to your appearance more than a stylish, becoming hat. If you will come in, we will convince you that we have the latest styles.

Furnishing Goods

The little things that go to make up the attire of a well dressed person are to be found here in the newest styles at moderate prices.

Just Received a Beautiful Lot of Laces, Dress Goods and Lace Collars Also a complete line of Puritan Corsets.

Fall Models In Footwear

Our line is complete.

Star Brand Shoes are Better

J. C. JONES

CLANTON - - - - - ALA.

WE SELL TYPEWRITERS

AND

FURNISH OPERATORS

FOR SAME

If you are considering a trade of your old Typewriter for a new one, let us quote you on a new Fay-Sholes. Cash or easy payments.

All makes of Typewriters repaired.

We pay Expressage one way on all thorough overhaul jobs.

SUPPLIES FOR ALL MACHINES

SOUTHERN TYPEWRITER EXCHANGE

20 COMMERCE St., MONTGOMERY, ALA.

Stanton.

Rev. and Mrs. Earnest [illegible] here, of which they are very proud. God bless the arrival of this new, and may their future troubles be little ones.

Quite a crowd of Stanton people are attending the fair at Selma today. Among those are Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dyer, and daughter, Lorrene; Mrs. H. E. Scherer; Misses Edie, Vinna and master Henry and miss Emily Dyer.

Mr. Walter is in Atlanta medical College; we hope for him a profitable session.

Mr. Saunders, a son of formerly R. R. Conductor, has accepted a position as salesman with W. C. Dyer.

On Friday night last some unknown person or persons broke open the door of the post office here, drilled the safe and secured therefrom about $31 of post office money. They have no clew as to who could have do e this bold act. This makes the third case of this kind in Stanton for the last three years We hope some clew leading to arrest and conviction will be found.

On Saturday night Mr. Barrete gave a temperance lecture at Stanton school house. His subjects were varied and it is hard to say whether or not he touched the heart of any hoozer.

With best wishes to the Banner and its many readers I will ring off, as it is now time to go 'possum hunting. S. Boss.

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty-three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson, Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, kidney and liver troubles by Upchurch Drug Co 50c

IN MEMORIAM.

On the 15th of this month the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Moody and carried away at 2 p.m., a visiting niece, Miss Hixie Rich, the loving daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rich. Hixie was 23 years of age. The remains were interred in the cemetery at Poplar Springs church. Thursday morning, Rev. Parrish conducting the funeral services Hixie was a member of Maple Springs church for several years. She was a devoted christain, a kind and gentle sister, loved by all who knew her, and it seemed her heart's desire to make sunshine and happiness in the lives of all about her. She leaves a father, mother, one sister and one brother and a number of relatives and friends to mourn her loss. We would say to the loved, weep not for our loss is her eternal gain. She cannot come to us but we can go to her. CLAUDIE JONES.

The fates,
Clotho, Lackesis and Atropos,
will entertain in their caverns on Halloween.
From nine to eleven o'clock p.m.
Under auspices of Clanton School Improvement Ass'n

AN ODD WAGER.

The Peculiar Bet a Foreign Prince Laid and Won in Paris.

Gambling has always been a favorite occupation for the sons of royal houses, but none of them probably has ever exhibited so much wit and ingenuity in his betting as a foreign prince did at his stay in Paris.

He laid a heavy wager with a member of the Imperial club of the French capital that within two hours he would be arrested by the police without committing any offense or provoking the officers of the law in any fashion. Accordingly, having clothed himself in rags of the most disreputable appearance, he walked into one of the most aristocratic restaurants in the city and ordered a cup of chocolate. The waiter refused to serve him unless he showed evidence that he could pay. The prince at once drew a roll of bank notes from his pocket and offered one of large denomination to the astonished attendant. The latter took the bill and carried it at once to the proprietor, who sent for the police, in the meantime allowing his strange guest to be served.

As soon as the authorities arrived they arrested the incognito son of royalty and took him to the nearest station, where of course he was released after he had disclosed the facts of the affair.—New York Tribune.

Love and Hate.

Love once more; perhaps this time you may succeed in being loved back again.

Enemies are only useful as long as you are rising. Once at the top you must do away with them by making them your friends.—Marguerite of Queen Elizabeth (Carnage Style).

OBITUARY

It is with a sad feeling we announce the death of Mr. Allen B. Williams, which was born Jan. 27, 1827, and departed this life after a long illness of typhoid fever, on Friday morning, Oct. 4, 1907. His many friends and a good physician did all they could to keep him with us, but alas, God seen fit to call him to a land of rest. He left a devoted wife, two little children, a father and mother, four brothers and five sisters to mourn his untimely death. Mourn not, dear friends, God knows the way, He holds the key, He guides with unerring hand. Some time, with tearless eyes we will understand why God called your loved one home. He joined the Missionary Baptist church at Liberty, near Clanton, in 1896, of which he lived a consistent member. None knew him but to love him. He was an honored member of Culp's Local No. 804, F. E. & C. U. of A. He was regular in attendance and his presence and good work in our meetings will be greatly missed by his union brethren. His remains were laid to rest in the Culp cemetery, after the funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. A. L. Foster. We, as a friend to the devoted wife and little children, extend our heartfelt sympathy. Console thys lf, that our loss is his eternal gain. R. W. MILFORD.

A Dandy for Burns.

Dr. Bergin, Penn, Ill., writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment; always recommended it to my friends as I am confident there is no better made. 'It is a dandy for burns.' Those who live on farms are especially liable to many accidental cuts, burns, bruises, which heal rapidly when Ballard's Snow Liniment is applied. It should always be kept in the house for cases of emergency." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thirsby.

All the leading monthly magazines and newspapers kept in stock at Florence Drug Store.

INOPPORTUNE DEATHS.

Men Who, Had They Lived, Might Have Changed History.

Julius Caesar was assassinated when he had almost completed the task of consolidating the administration and dominion of the Roman empire, and his death opened the way to that despotism and corruption which ultimately undid his work. Henry of Navarre was killed when he had almost healed the differences between Catholic and Protestant which subsequently rent not only France, but Europe, and William the Silent also fell when he was on the point of uniting the Netherland provinces into a compact barrier against the encroachments of Spain.

In English history Lord Clive died at the moment when he was the one man who could have saved the American colonies and kept the Anglo-Saxon race united. But there is the case of Mirabeau. He was literally the one man in France who could have averted the horrors of the revolution, saved and reformed the monarchy and so spared Europe the murderous career of Napoleon and all the devastation it brought. If he had lived ten or even five years longer, the history not only of France, but of Europe and the world, would have been different. It is, in fact, sufficient to say that he would have made both Robespierre and Napoleon impossible.—Strand Magazine.

A Great Leveler.

Have you ever thought what a great leveler the telephone is? You would never think of meeting some dignitary of church or state or some great society lady on the street and address either with a familiar "Hello!" It would be unpardonable rudeness, and yet that is what you do daily when you use the telephone, and nothing is thought of it. The judge on the bench, the governor in his office, the busy coupon clipper at his desk, the overworked clerk, the lady in her boudoir, the artisan at his lathe, are all slaves to that democratic "Hello!" it matters not who may be on the other end of the wire.—Stanberry Owl.

The Old Commercial Instinct.

"What do you think of this table, William?" asked Mrs. Newlyrich, pointing proudly to the antique piece she had purchased.

"What did you pay for it?" grunted her Bill of "without any money" days.

"One hundred dollars, dear."

"I think you ought to have been able to buy a new one for that," returned her unantiquarian informed spouse, casting a reflective and scrutinizing glance over the ancient piece of furniture.—New York Herald.

Sheriff's Sale.

By virtue of an execution issued out of the Circuit Court of Chilton county, and State of Alabama, and to me directed, whereby I am commanded to make the amount of a certain judgment recently obtained against John W. Handley, out of the goods, chattels, lands and tenements of the said John W. Handley I have levied on the following property to wit:

Lots No. 10 and 11, Block 71 in the town of Clanton, Alabama, containing two acres more or less, lying east of L. & N. R. R.

Therefore, notice is hereby given, I shall expose for sale, at public auction, all the right, title and interest of the above named John W. Handley, in and to the above described property on MONDAY, the 4th day of NOVEMBER, next, during the legal hours of sale at the Court House door of Chilton county, in Clanton, Ala.

Dated at Clanton, Ala., this 4th day of October, 1907. JOHN S. GATES, Sheriff of Chilton county, Ala.

Wealthy Philanthropist Heals Chicago's Poor

City is Excited Over the Remarkable Cures of Mysterious Man Whose Eccentricities Are Startling.

Strange Stories Are Told of Quiet Stranger Who Is Giving Great Quantities of Food and Clothing and Curing Disease Without Pay.

Chicago, Oct. 23. Special—The people of this city are greatly excited over a number of remarkable cures which have been effected by a wealthy philanthropist by the name of Cooper.

His headquarters at The Public Drug Store is besieged with crowds of men and women eager to be cured of their ills.

Cooper is a quiet, gentlemanly person, with the appearance of a student, rather than a business man. He is apparently about thirty-one or two years of age. He first came into public notice by his philanthropic work among the poor. The large fortune he possesses has made it possible for him to distribute many wagon loads of food and clothing among those in indigent circumstances since his arrival in Chicago.

The first that was known of Cooper's power over disease was when Mr. John Stauber, of 1607 Broadway, Cincinnati, Ohio, who was in this city on business, declared that Cooper, the philanthropist, was the same person who saved his life last March, after he had been given up to die by his physicians. Mr. Stauber stated that last March the doctors had told him he would not live until May, and he was in a terrible condition; every one said he had consumption; he had a nasty cough, with frequent hemorrhages, dizzy spells, and was so weak that the least exertion or excitement would completely prostrate him; there were severe pains in the stomach and back, and his kidneys were in a bad condition.

"After my physicians gave me up," said Mr. Stauber, "Mr Cooper heard of my case and called to see me. He left a peculiar medicine which I began taking and I immediately began to improve My cough stopped, my stomach no longer distressed me, and my kidneys were in perfect condition. I gained seventeen pounds in seven weeks, and today I am as well as I ever was in my life."

A few days after this Mr. R. L. Sidwell, a justice of the peace, living at 3322 Dearbon street, reported that Cooper had cured him of a severe case of stomach trouble with a few doses of his peculiar medicine.

His trouble had been of long standing and he had tried many different doctors and medicines without relief. From the first dose of Cooper's medicine he began to improve and is to-day in apparently perfect health.

This was followed by the still more remarkable cure of Mr. Thomas Webster employed at the Omaha Packing Company, and living at 5210 South Morgan street. Mr. Webster had suffered for years with pain in his stomach, dizziness, palpitation of heart, backache, and all other troubles. He came to Cooper's headquarters and displayed an enormous tapeworm, which he said had passed from his system after he had taken a few doses of the Cooper medicine. Mr. Webster said all his sufferings had left him it by magic, and he felt like a new being

The report of these remarkable cures flew through the city like wild fire, and the public Drug Store, where Cooper is making his headquarters, is besieged by people suffering from all manner of

The physicians of the [illegible] amazed at the work he [illegible] and have tried to shake the [illegible]ful influence he has over [illegible]ple, even going so far as to [illegible] on prosecution, but as he [illegible] accept any money for his [illegible] and does not give out any [illegible] himself, they have been [illegible] to interfere.

Cooper created [illegible] amusement at the expense [illegible] doctors by asking them [illegible] did not write their prescriptions [illegible] English so their patients [illegible] know what they were taking.

Since the interest has become [illegible] wide-spread that Cooper [illegible] meet the people personally [illegible] receiving an enormous [illegible] keeps a large force of men [illegible] employed in answering letters [illegible] meantime stories of wonderful [illegible] cures continue to pour in.

Mrs. G. Fry, living at [illegible] street, had suffered [illegible] months from rheumatism [illegible] ing about her case, she said:

"I have had rheumatism [illegible] nine years. It has been worse every year until I was almost a cripple from [illegible] past eight months. I [illegible] unable to write for over three [illegible] as the knuckles of my hands [illegible] so swollen that I could not [illegible] my fingers enough to write. [illegible] joint in my body was in bad [illegible] shape, swollen and intensely painful. The suffering has been [illegible] great to describe. I have had a doctor every week for months [illegible] and have tried in every way to get well.

"Last week I came [illegible] bought some of the Cooper [illegible] gines I was told to continue [illegible] case I did not improve, but [illegible] come back anyway, just to show [illegible] my thankfulness.

"You see my hands. The [illegible] ing has almost gone. The pain. If you will lend me [illegible] I will show you that I can [illegible] Mrs. Fry here took the pen and [illegible] used it readily. "I told a [illegible] bor who has rheumatism, [illegible] and she said 'maybe it's the [illegible] medicine; maybe it's something else.' I told her that until I knew what the something else was I should keep on taking the medicine and I advised her to do likewise.

Cooper claims to have [illegible] the formulas of the medicines [illegible] using from an aged priest in a Spanish town in Old Mexico. Mexicans believed that he [illegible] some supernatural element [illegible] ed into their composition.

Cooper receives an [illegible] daily mail. Letters are [illegible] from every part of the state [illegible] for advice.

The philanthropist reads [illegible] letter carefully, and replies to [illegible] one, and advises the remedy [illegible] is applicable to each [illegible] case.

While his remarkable cures [illegible] the chief topic of conversation [illegible] many stories are heard on the [illegible] and the business placed by [illegible] ness to the poor. He gives [illegible] money and clothing has [illegible] a great amount of distress, [illegible] greatly endeared him to the [illegible]

He is beginning to show [illegible] great strain he has been under [illegible] past two weeks, and it is understood that he will remain here [illegible] one more week.

"WALT WHITMAN.

Ways of the Poet Who Was Loved by All Who Knew Him.

This is the Walt Whitman who was known and loved by those who met him daily:

"After some conversation Whitman proposed a walk across to Philadelphia. Putting on his gray slouch hat, he sallied forth with evident leisure and, taking my arm as a support, walked slowly the best part of a mile to the ferry. Crossing the ferry was always a great pleasure to him. The life of the street and of the people was so near, so dear. The men on the ferry steamer were evidently old friends, and when we landed on the Philadelphia side we were before long quite besieged—the man or woman selling fish at the corner of the street, the tramway conductor, the loafers on the pavement—a word of recognition from Walt or an offer from the other four; presently a cheery shout from the top of a dray, and before we had gone many yards farther the driver was down and stumbling in front of us, his hand in the care of some bystander. [illegible] an old Broadway 'stager,' had [illegible] Walt for three or four years, [illegible] were in his eyes as he held [illegible] We were now brought to a [illegible] and others gathered round. [illegible] was ill, and Walt must go and [illegible] There was a message for the [illegible] and in his pocket the post [illegible] one or two packets for [illegible] sities. But for the most part [illegible] were few. It was the [illegible] spoke and apparently without [illegible]."—Whitman as Carpenter [illegible] in Craftsman.

A Contradiction.

Tommy—Does it make any [illegible] of baby takes all his medicine? Bobby's mother (in horror)—[illegible] sent! Of course it does! [illegible] it hasn't made any difference.

No protecting deities are [illegible] there is prudence.—Juvenal.

VOL. XVI

...AM OF THE CORNER
...to Right, to turn, and Down the Row Not.

...entertainment Saturday ... the court house was thoroughly enjoyed by the appreciative ... It was the first of the ... of Lyceum attractions to be ... throughout this season, and ... that follow only come up ... musical performance, all will ... Miss Elma B. Smith, the ... impersonator, gave some ex... imitations of the little one, ... as possible, but perhaps ... ng baby was the most nat... Miss Estelle Ange sang ex... ly, her rich contralto voice ... the hearts of the audience. ... splendid selections were ... by Miss Agnes Ambrust, ... ite, and all were thoroughly ... with the masterly play... ... visits by Mr. Cecil Bur... We hope the Elma B. ... company will again visit ...

...Hallowe'en entertainment ... by the Clanton School ... association will take ... the auditorium of the ... building, instead of in the ... as was first announced. ... fee will be 25c for ad... ... for children under 12 ... age.

...industry appears to be to the ... of a financial crisis Our ... banks, following the example ... cities, have posted notices, ... publications to individual ... to the debtors one day.

PRIVATE DENTIST.

...ory This Man Will Have When ...He Gets Rich.

...ver I get really rich," said the ... with a confidence, "I shall have a ... dentist. What do I want of a ... dentist? Well, I'll tell you. ... I had enough anyway to suffer ... ver such, but to me this suffer... made doubly distressing by the ... ances attendant upon my visit ... dentist's office.

...tive there to find the dentist ... away upon the teeth of some ... in his chair, and that always ... disturbs me—to find somebody ... worked over and cared for ... I wait in distress. I think I am ... to all the care and sympathy. ... be I find somebody else wait... ...haps a friend of the person in ... or somebody waiting his ... come ahead of time, and that ... me, for I like to wait with my ... attitude.

...the dentist gets through with ... client in the chair on time for me, ... take my place under his hands. ... don't doubt that I get his con... ...ed and complete attention and ... while he is operating upon me, ... can't get away from the idea that ... working as rapidly as he can to ... be ready for the next patient. ... then, with all my pain, I can't ... other that person in the waiting ... waiting his turn after me, and ... without a particle of sympa... for me, and, in fact, rather impa... of my presence and thinking of ... alone. This is rather wounding ... self esteem.

...fact, however I regard it, a visit ... dentist's office is always a jar... ...perience. My dentist is a man ... highest professional skill, and, ... mind, I am sure I get his best care, ... all these familiar things that ... mentioned to you jar me, and ... avoid them all if I could. So ... I get real rich I shall certainly ... a private dentist."—Washington ...

Exchange Is Neatless.

...outh Penn square business man ... evolved a plan of how to dodge ... but there is merit attaching to ... this case. His wife insists on ... his neckties and dotes on lavender ... red or green spots or a pale ... ...ering silk green shot with pur... ...Whether these come her anguish by ... to decry her taste in cravats, ... usual meat deathfully starts for ... office every morning wearing a tie ... selection. Once in the office, ... the matter quickly exchanges ... ...ighting neckties for something ... which he keeps under cover ... and buy in his own private desk. ... be interesting to find out his ... suspicions should she pay him ... some day in office hours or ... be present to make the exchange ... before he left home.—Philadelphia ...

y Philanthro[illegible]
Chicago's Poor

Over the Remarkable Cures of Man Whose Eccentricities Are Startling.

Told of Quiet Stranger Who Dis[illegible]ties of Food and Clothing and Cure[illegible] Disease Without Pay.

[illegible]—The peo[illegible]ffering from all manner of [illegible]atly excited The physicians of the [illegible]k-abic cures amazed at the work he is [illegible]ected by a and have tried to shake the [illegible]by the name ful influence he has over the [illegible] pie, even going so far as to [illegible] The Public en prosecution, but as he [illegible]w the crowds accept any money for his [illegible]ager to be and does not give out any [illegible] himself, they have been [illegible]gentlemanly to interfere.

[illegible]range of a Cooper created consi[illegible]usiness man amusement at the expense [illegible]of thirty-one doctors by asking them why [illegible]le treatment did not write their prescrip[illegible]his philan English so their patients [illegible]r poor. The know what they were taking.

[illegible]ess has made Since the interest has been [illegible]to distribute wide spread that Cooper [illegible]d and meet the people personally, [illegible]n indigent receiving an enormous mail [illegible]s arrival in keeps a large force of stenographers employed in answering it. In the meantime stories of marvelous cures continue to pour in.

[illegible]known of Mrs. G. Fry, living at the [illegible]disease was street, had suffered agony [illegible]ber, of 1607 months from rheumatism. In [illegible], Ohio, who ing about her case, she said: [illegible]business, de- "I have had rheumatism for [illegible]the philan- nine years. It has been [illegible]person who worse every year until I have [illegible]ch, after he almost a cripple from it for [illegible]die by his past eight months. I have been [illegible]uber stated unable to write for over three [illegible]doctors had as the knuckles of my hands [illegible]t live until so swollen that I could not [illegible]terrible con- my fingers enough to write. [illegible]he had con- joint in my body was in the [illegible]sty cough, shape, swollen and intensely [illegible]hages, dizzy ful. The suffering has been [illegible]k that the great to describe. I have had a [illegible]ment would doctor every week for ten days [illegible]him, there and have tried in every way to [illegible]the stomach well. [illegible]eys were run [illegible]ons gave me "Last week I came here and [illegible]"Mr. Coop- bought some of the Cooper Remedies. [illegible]nd called to I was told to come back [illegible]ular medi- case I did not improve. I will [illegible]king and I come back anyway, just to show [illegible]to improve my thankfulness.

[illegible]y stomach no "You see my hands. The swelling [illegible]and my kid- has almost gone. So has the pain. [illegible]condition. I If you will lend me a pencil [illegible]nds in seven I will show you that I can write [illegible]n as well as I Mrs. Fry here took the pencil and used it readily. "I told a neighbor who has rheumatism, about [illegible]s Mr. R. L. and she said 'maybe it isn't the [illegible]e peace, liv- medicine, maybe it's something [illegible]treet, report- else.' I told her that until I knew [illegible]red him of a what the something else was I [illegible]trouble with should keep on taking the medicine [illegible]eculiar medi- and I advised her to do likewise.

[illegible]been of long Cooper claims to have received [illegible]tried many the formulas of the medicine he is [illegible]d medicines using from an aged priest in a [illegible]the first doc- Spanish town in Old Mexico. The [illegible]he began to Mexicans believed that holy water [illegible]to appreci- contains supernatural elements mixed into their composition.

[illegible]by the still Cooper receives an enormous [illegible]of Mr. Thom- daily mail. Letters are coming [illegible]at the corner from every part of the state, asking [illegible]and living at for advice.

[illegible]street. Mr. The physiognomist reads these [illegible]ed for years letters carefully, and replies to [illegible]ch, dizziness, them, and advises the remedy which [illegible]ache, and is applicable to each individual [illegible]He comes to case.

[illegible]and displays While his remarkable cures are the [illegible]worm, which talk of converse many stories are heard on the [illegible]m his system streets and in business places of his [illegible]few doors of Mr. Wells's kindness to the poor. His gifts of [illegible]ings had left money and clothing have relieved [illegible]he felt like a great amount of distress, and [illegible]great deal more than to the [illegible]

[illegible]se remark- He is beginning to show [illegible]the city like great strain he has been under [illegible]ic Drug Store, past two weeks, and it is understood [illegible]ing his head- that he will remain here [illegible]by people suf- one more week.

TMAN.

[illegible] Was Loved by [illegible]w Him.

[illegible]itman who was those who met

[illegible]ation Whitman [illegible] to Philadelphia. [illegible]ouch, hat, he sal- [illegible]leisure and, tak- [illegible]rt, walked slow- [illegible]ttle to the ferry. [illegible]s always a great [illegible]life of the street [illegible]so near, so dear. [illegible]y steamer were [illegible] and when we [illegible]delphia side we [illegible]te besieged—the [illegible]; fish at the cor- [illegible]e tramway con- [illegible] the pavement—a [illegible]from Walt or as [illegible]r first; presently [illegible]the top of a dray, [illegible]gone many yards [illegible]down and stand- ing in front of us, his hos[illegible] the care of some bystander. [illegible] an old Broadway 'stager,' had not [illegible] Walt for three or four years, and [illegible] were in his eyes as he held his [illegible] We were now brought to a [illegible] and others gathered round. [illegible] was ill, and Walt must go and [illegible] There was a message for the [illegible] and in his pocket the poet [illegible] one or two packets for absent [illegible] ones. But for the most part his [illegible] were few. It was the others [illegible] spoke and apparently without [illegible] —"Whitman as Carpenter drew [illegible] in Craftsman.

A Contradiction.

Tommy—Does it make any [illegible] if baby takes all his medicine at [illegible]
Baby's mother (in horror)—[illegible] sons! Of course it does! [illegible] it hasn't made any difference—[illegible]

No protecting deities [illegible] there is prudence.—Juvenal.

THE BANNER

[illegible]

[illegible] XVI CLANTON, ALA., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1907 No. 3

[illegible]AN ON THE CORNER
[illegible] Rights He Saw, and Some He Saw Not.

[illegible] entertainment Saturday [illegible] the court house was thor- [illegible]njoyed by the appreciative [illegible]. It was the first of the [illegible] Lyceum attractions to be [illegible] throughout this season, and [illegible] that follow only come up [illegible] initial performance, all will [illegible]. Miss Elma B. Smith, the [illegible]mpersonator, gave some ex- [illegible]imitations of the little one, [illegible]as possible, but perhaps [illegible]g baby was the most nat- Miss Estelle Augo sang ex- [illegible], her rich contralto voice [illegible] the hearts of the audience. [illegible] splendid selections were [illegible] by Miss Agnes Ambrose, [illegible], and all were thoroughly [illegible]ted with the masterly play- [illegible] violin by Mr. Cecil Burt. We hope the Elma B. [illegible] company will again visit [illegible].

[illegible] Hallowe'en entertainment [illegible]ven by the Clanton School [illegible]ment Association will take [illegible] the auditorium of the [illegible] building, instead of in the [illegible]anse as was first announced. [illegible]ion fee will be 25¢ for ad- [illegible]¢ for children under 12 [illegible] age.

[illegible] country appears to be in the [illegible] of a financial crisis. Our [illegible]anks, following the example [illegible]r cities, have posted notice, [illegible] withdrawals to individual [illegible]s to five dollars per day.

A PRIVATE DENTIST.

Luxury This Man Will Have When He Gets Rich.

"[illegible]ver I get really rich," said the [illegible] with a toothache, "I shall have a [illegible]e dentist. What do I want of a [illegible]e dentist? Well, I'll tell you. [illegible]s bad enough anyway to suffer [illegible] your teeth, but to me this suffer- [illegible]s made doubly distressing by the [illegible]stances attendant upon my visit [illegible] dentist's office.

[illegible]rrive there to find the dentist [illegible]g away upon the teeth of some [illegible] in his chair, and that always [illegible] disturbs me—to find somebody [illegible]ng worked over and cared for [illegible] I wait in distress. I think I am [illegible]d to all the care and sympathy. [illegible]aybe I find somebody else wait- [illegible]perhaps a friend of the person in [illegible]air, or somebody waiting his [illegible]rn ahead of time, and that [illegible]e me, for I like to wait with my [illegible]h solitude.

[illegible] the dentist gets through with [illegible]tient in the chair on time for me, [illegible] take my place under his hands. [illegible] don't doubt that I get his con- [illegible]ted and complete attention and [illegible] while he is operating upon me, [illegible]can't get away from the idea that [illegible] working as rapidly as he can so [illegible]e be ready for the next patient.

[illegible]fled, with all my pain, I can't [illegible]t either that person in the waiting [illegible] waiting his turn after me, and [illegible]g without a particle of sympa- [illegible]e me, and, in fact, rather impa- [illegible]of my presence and thinking of [illegible]f alone. This is rather wounding [illegible] self esteem.

[illegible]fact, however I regard it, a visit [illegible]e dentist's office is always a jar- [illegible]perience. My dentist is a man [illegible]e highest professional skill, and, [illegible]ad, I am sure I get his best care, [illegible]ll all these familiar things that [illegible]e mentioned to you jar me, and [illegible] avoid them all if I could. So [illegible] I get real rich I shall certainly [illegible] a private dentist."—Washington [illegible]

Exchange In Neckties.

[illegible]outh Penn square business man [illegible]ndered a plan of how to dodge [illegible], but there is merit attaching to [illegible] this case. His wife insists on [illegible]g his neckties and dotes on lavend- [illegible]ed red or green spots or a pale [illegible]ening blue green shot with pur- [illegible]ather than cause her anguish by [illegible]g to decry her taste in cravats, [illegible]husband most deceitfully starts for [illegible]ffice every morning wearing a tie [illegible] selection. Once in the office, [illegible], the traitor quickly exchanges [illegible]offending necktie for something [illegible] which he keeps under careful [illegible]nd key in his own private desk. [illegible]ould be interesting to find out his [illegible] sensations should he pay him [illegible], some day in office hours or [illegible] he forget to make the exchange [illegible] before his trip home.—Philadel- [illegible] Record.

Peoples Savings Bank of Chilton County.

CLANTON, ALA.

CAPITAL STOCK $50,000.00.

Wm. E. Holloway, President.
W. T. Callen, Cashier. John A. Thomas, Assistant Cashier

DIRECTORS:

W. T. Callen — Wm. E. Holloway — Sam Kaufman
H. M. Mastin, Sr. — M. L. Grell — John A. Thomas

There is a number of people who are under an erroneous impression. They think that they never control enough money to start a bank account. In this they are mistaken. We solicit small accounts as well as large. And we handle the business of both with our best care. We believe that you ought to have a bank account, and we offer you our services.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Don't get out of patience with the baby when it is peevish and restless, and don't wear yourself out worrying night and day about it—just give him a little cemsweet. Cemsweet is a corrective for the stomachs of babies and children. Contains no harmful drugs. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

A Dream of "Ye Olden Times."

It has been said that absence makes the heart grow fonder. If this be true, our friends have grown fond of us since we appeared last to them in your paper.

We have planned another evening of pleasant entertainment. On Nov. 8, Friday evening, from 7:30 to 11 o'clock, in the spacious court room at the court house. We are going to have a "Spelling Bee." We know the announcement will bring sweet memories to our older friends. They will begin at once to dream of the pantalets they wore the walk to the moonlight to the little log school house with the sweetheart so dear to them then, but dearer now as the companionship of years Has brought them nearer. The hours spent in contestant spelling from the old blue back speller and other sweet thoughts too numerous to mention. For 20 cts. apiece we offer each of you a reproduction of these olden times. For the same consideration apiece we will gladly welcome the beaux and belles of latter days. Children 10 cts. apiece. Delicious refreshments will be served during the entire evening absolutely free. We invite you because we want you to come. We shall expect you because you are coming. We will not be surprised when we see you there.

METHODIST LADIES AID SOCIETY.

Randolph.

The Rev W, . Bass, an evangelist from Corinth, Miss., will reach Randolph Saturday evening and will begin a revival at the Methodist church to continue eight or ten days.

E. B. PAUL.

All-Day Singing.

The Chilton county singing convention will convene with Mt. Nebo church, the 2nd Sunday in November at 10 o'clock a.m. All singers and lovers of music are invited to attend and don't forget to bring your song books.

J. L. GORE, President,
JAMES FRANKLIN, Secretary.

Personals.

Mr. N. H. Mullins and son, Clifford, of Maplesville, spent a few days with relatives here last week.

Mr. W. H. Killingsworth of Jemison was in town last Thursday.

Mrs. T. A. Curry went to Montgomery Tuesday.

Mr. J. T. Bland of Verbena was in town last Friday.

Mr. J. W. Cox of Route 1 was in town Saturday.

Out of Sight.

"Out of sight, out of mind," is an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's out of sight, out of mind and out of existence. Piles too, and chilblains disappear under its healing influence. Guaranteed by Upchurch Drug co. 25c.

NOTICE.

In accordance with an act of the last Legislature, requiring the Sheriffs of their respective counties, to procure from the office of the United States Internal Revenue Collector, a list of all persons or corporations in their counties to whom licenses have been used, for the sale of Spirituous, Vinous or Malt Liquors, and to publish the same in some newspaper published in said county.

I have made this examination, and find that there has been only one license issued for the county of Chilton, and that to the Clanton Dispensary for this year from Jan. 1st 1907 to this the 23rd day of Oct. 1907.

JOHN S. CAZIS,
Sheriff of Chilton Co., Ala.

FOR SALE CHEAP—40 acres land, three miles northeast of Clanton; 20 acres in cultivation; line well; good house, good well, good fence around entire 40 acres.

F. D. WILSON, Clanton, Ala.

Negro Woman Drops Dead.

Jennie Jones, a colored girl, about 15 years of age, dropped dead in the street opposite the post office on Wednesday afternoon. Heart failure was the cause of death.

Dead Negro on R. R. Track.

The body of a dead negro was found Sunday morning on the railroad track at Fulkito, evidently run over by a train during the night. A. G. Dake, J. P., empanelled a jury and held an inquest, the verdict being "accidentally killed."

With this changeable weather, which brings on coughs and colds, there is nothing better than our Compound Syrup White Pine and Tar. Florence Drug Store.

Subscribe for the Banner.

CIRCUIT COURT.

NOTICE TO JURORS, ETC.

Clanton, Ala., October 28, 1907

To all Jurors, Litigants and Witnesses, heretofore subpenaed to attend the Fall Term 1907, of the Circuit Court of Chilton county, Alabama:

Whereas a rule nisi has been issued to the Hon. W. W. Pearson, Judge of the Fifteenth Judicial Circuit of Alabama, by the Clerk of the Supreme Court of Alabama in pursuance of an order heretofore issued by the Hon. John R. Tyson, Chief Justice of said Supreme Court, restraining him, the said Hon. W. W. Pearson, from holding the Chilton Circuit Court during the two weeks beginning November 4, 1907.

Now, therefore, I, Bem W. Collins, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Chilton county, Alabama, in pursuance of an order directed to me by the Hon. W. W. Pearson, do hereby notify all jurors, litigants, witnesses and witnesses, that the said Circuit Court will not convene on Monday, the 4th day of November, 1907, and that the same is indefinitely postponed, and they need not attend said Court until further orders.

Witness my hand, this the 28th day of October, 1907.

SAM W. COLLINS,
Clerk Circuit Court.

NOTICE.

All persons interested or well wishers please meet at Pleasant Grove, M. P. church in beat 3 on Thursday, the 21st day of October, for the purpose of cleaning off the cemetery. Come early and bring sufficient tools to do the work; come prepared to stay all day if necessary.

A. C. MIMS, P. A. VANCE } Trustees.

Call and get a little package we have for you. Florence Drug Store.

THE CLANTON BANK

CLANTON, ALA.

Many people seem to think that unless they can open a Savings Account with not less than $50.00 or $100.00, it is not worth the while to begin. This is not a correct position to take. If a person cannot open an account with more than $1.00, and really desires to get some money ahead, then he should begin with even $1.00. The first dollar saved and put in bank, is the initial step on the way to prosperity. "Great oaks from little acorns grow." As a rule, the person who "Puts off" the opening of a Savings Account until he has a large amount to deposit, is not likely to ever have a bank account. We solicit your account.

THE CLANTON BANK

LAND FOR SALE—10 miles southwest of Clanton, 120 acres; 60 timbered; 60 in cultivation; two dwellings; two wells good water; two good springs and outhouses; small orchard and grape vines. Place noted for health and beauty. Two public roads and telephone through the land. Churches and schools convenient. Write or call on R. E. Rogers, Clanton, Ala., R. F. D. No. 7.

STRAYED—About seven weeks ago, from my place at Maplesville, R. F. D. No. 2, a Poland China Boar, unmarked, very curly hair. A liberal reward will be paid for its recovery by W. E. HAYES, Maplesville, Ala., R. F. D. No 2.

J. A. SKAGGS

CONTRACTOR & BUILDER

I am prepared to contract to erect any building in brick or wood, in Clanton, and to furnish all necessary materials.

J. A. SKAGGS, Jemison, Ala.

BOOKKEEPING COURSE $3.00 per month.

Shorthand Course $3.00 per month.

Telegraph Course, unlimited scholarship $30.00.

Write SOUTHERN BUSINESS COLLEGE AND SCHOOL OF TELEGRAPHY, Newnan, Ga.

They Make You Feel Good.

The pleasant purgative effect experienced by all who use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and the healthy condition of the body and mind which they create makes one feel joyful. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

WANTED.

FOR SALE—One Jersey Bull, thoroughbred; 2½ years old; registered. One Poland China Boar, thoroughbred, 2 years old. Apply to W. G. Durett, Clanton, R. F. D. 3.

FOR RENT—A 4-horse Farm, 3 miles from Brierfield and Ashby; 3 good tenant houses; an illiterate tenant. H. S. LATHAM, Montevallo, Ala.

FOR SALE—Horses, mules, cows, cattle, 1 dray with 4 mules, harness, etc.; 1 dray with 6 or 8 oxen, yokes, chains, etc.; in all 35 head. All on farm near Mulberry Baptist church. H. N. MULLINS, Maplesville, Ala., R. F. D. No. 5.

FOR SALE—4 dray mules, all in good shape; 12 good oxen; 2 good drays; all in first-class condition and good pullers. R. H. MARTIN, Maplesville, Ala.

FOR SALE—60 acres of land 1½ miles northeast of Clanton, with dwelling house and well of water; 25 acres in cultivation. One dwelling and four lots in the town of Clanton. Call and see W. J. FOSHEE, Clanton, Ala.

FOR SALE or TRADE—Two young mules, 4 years old, well broke, will sell or trade for one large mule, cash or credit, with good security. Address or call on R. E. ROGERS, R. F. D. No. 7, Clanton, Ala.

FOR SALE—A small farm 2½ mile west of Clanton on the Maplesville road. Land all fresh well improved, good living water. Apply to W. J. SCRAGGS, Clanton, Ala., R. F. D. No. 7.

REMINGTON Typewriter No. 2 for sale. In first-class condition. THE BANNER, Clanton.

LAND FOR SALE—[illegible] of good land, 30 acres in cultivation, 3 outhouses. In sections 29 and 30, township 22, range 13. Apply to R. F. SIMS, Maplesville Ala., R. F. D. No. 1.

124 ACRES FOR SALE, four miles southeast of Clanton. Apply to Q. S., Banner office, Clanton.

FOR SALE—80 acres good land, two miles from Clanton; two settlements on the tract. The tract is well watered. Call on or address G. O. FOSHEE, Clanton, Ala., R. F. D. No. 5.

DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve is good for little burns and big burns, small scratches or bruises and big ones. It is healing and soothing. Good for piles. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

Isn't this what YOU Want?

It affords me much pleasure to say that the

Davis' 100 per cent Pure paint

I used on my residence some years ago, is today, satisfactory in all respects. It bids fair to last many years more."

J. E. Burroughs,
Mechanicsville, Md.

It has been on for years and looks good for as many more.

Davis' 100% Pure Paint will stand the test of the most rigid Pure Paint Law.

For sale by Payne & Payne, Montgomery, Ala.

W. H. MADDOX

BLACKSMITH

I do all kinds of Repair Work in Wood or Iron. Buy Brushes and Buggies.

Cold Tire Setting. I can shrink your Buggy or Wagon Tires cold or hot.

Horse-shoeing up-to-date. Satisfaction guaranteed.

CLANTON

J. V. HIGGINS

WATCHMAKER, JEWELER AND ENGRAVER

At the Florence Drug Store, Clanton, Ala. All work guaranteed. Special attention given to Watch Cleaning, Stone Setting and Engraving.

Repair all kinds of Graphophones Guns and Pistols Repaired.

CANNON'S BARGAIN ROW

AN EYE OPENER FOR TEN DAYS

$1.00 Gets a Big Peck of Coffee — $1.00 Gets 20 lbs. Rice
$1.00 Gets 20 lbs. Sugar, any kind — $5.25 Buys a Barrel of Good Flour

LADIES

let us show you our new line of Dress Goods, Suitings in Wool or Silk in all the new weaves and color; can match your hat with most any goods you can pick on, including Gloves. Also a complete line to select from for the children.

CLOTHING RIGHT UP TO THE MINUTE

MEN AND BOYS

Clothing, we have the most complete line in Chilton county, price $1.50 to $27.50 per suit; Single or Double Breasted Coat with the new crease seam effect. Peg Top Pants to wear with or without suspenders. Now, if you don't see your suit in the window come in and turn things over until you find it, just like you would hunting an old plow around home. You can also see all the new shaped Hats in the show cases.

Shoes For Everybody

Shoes, we handle the famous Smith Shoe, known for style, durability and long life.

Our Motto

New Goods, small profits and satisfied customers.
Let us figure on your entire wants

Copyright 1906 by Hart Schaffner & Marx

M. F. CANNON & SONS

CLANTON, ALA.

NO. OF BALES GINNED

Reports of Special Agents of the Census Bureau.

REPORT ON CROP OF 1907

Up to the 13th Instant 4,081,335 Bales Had Been Ginned as Compared with 4,621,621 to the Same Time Last Year.

Washington, Oct. 25.—The census bureau Friday made public the result of the reports of its special agents on the quantity of cotton of this year's crop which had been ginned up to the 13th instant, showing 4,089,335 bales, as compared with 4,921,621 bales ginned to the same time last year.

In these figures sixty-nine counties are unrepresented and these counties last year gave a total of 320,123 bales.

The unrepresented counties are distributed as follows:

Mississippi, 17; Alabama, 10; Arkansas, 5;; Florida, 6; Georgia, 5; Louisiana, 9; Oklahoma, 5; South Carolina, 1; Tennessee, 3; Texas, 8.

The total reported is the output of 26,79[illegible] ginneries as compared with 26,[illegible] for last year.

The figures by states will not be given out until reports are received from all of the counties in each of the states.

FIRE IN MASONIC TEMPLE.

General Stampede Followed Among Three Hundred People.

Chicago, Oct. 25.—Three hundred persons were enjoying themselves in the assembly hall on the Seventeenth floor of the Masonic Temple Thursday midnight when fire started on the fourth floor, spread to the seventh and filled the upper part of the building with smoke.

A general stampede followed when smoke reached the hall where friends of the Catholic Knights and Ladies of America were attending a reception.

The fire was caused by hydraulic rods which became "hot." The rods, which are at the rear of the elevator shaft, ignited the wood partition. The blaze spread rapidly before it was discovered. In the assembly hall there was excitement and some hysterics. Quick action and cool judgment on the part of employes of the building in operating the three elevators, however, made the rescue of the women easy, but some of them fainted. Others became excited and scrambled down the long flights of stairs.

The loss to the temple building was about $5,000.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

Madisonville, Ky., Visited by $75,000 Conflagration.

Madisonville, Ky., Oct. 25.—This city was visited by a destructive fire Friday, a wagon factory, two livery stables, a tobacco factory, a repair shop and six residences being burned to the ground.

The loss is estimated at $75,000; partly covered by insurance. The origin of the fire is not known.

NOT GOOD DIPLOMACY.

Count O'Kuma Criticizes Sending the Battleship Fleet to Pacific.

New York, Oct. 26.—Dr. Louis L. Seaman, ex-surgeon major, United States army, who was with the Japanese forces, both naval and military, during the Russo-Japanese war, has received a letter from Count Okuma, the Japanese progressive leader, in which the count said that the sending of the Atlantic fleet to the Pacific was not good diplomacy.

"Foreign newspapers," Count Okuma wrote, "are too pessimistic. The Japanese are convinced that there will be no war. Every case like the San Francisco incident is sure to have a bad effect. I think that the trouble in the United States is due to the state sovereignty principle. The power of the states is too great. They are too independent. The sending of the Atlantic fleet to the Pacific is not good diplomacy."

Finances to Protect Banks.

Goldfield, Nev., Oct. 25.—George Winfield has authorized the statement that he and Senator Nixon have given their entire finances for the protection of the banks in which they are interested. The banks are at Reno, Tonopah, Goldfield and Bullfrog. The Goldfield consolidated was forced to [illegible] a large number of miners on Thursday by reason of the refusal of the sampling works to accept ore.

Two Killed by Train.

Huntsville Ala., Oct. 25.—Hal Harris, 18-year-old son of Colonel Jas. Harris, of Jackson county, and Cap Rooney, a negro, were killed by a passenger train on the Southern near Scottsboro Thursday morning. Their bodies were horribly mangled.

Crew Abandon Ship.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 26.—A cablegram from London to the Maritime Exchange says that the British vessel, Pamplon, from Baltimore for Rotterdam, was abandoned in latitude 47 north, longitude 22 west. The crew were saved.

PETITION FOR RECEIVER.

Application Is Made for the Southern Steel Company.

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 25.—Application for a receiver for the Southern Steel company was filed in the federal court here, the application being signed by the Bayer Mining and Manufacturing company, the Birmingham Coal and Iron company and the Star Cahaba Coal company. It is understood that Kriso Yaker and Edgar Adler, of this city, will be named as receivers by Judge Hundley, who is now in Huntsville.

The Southern Steel company is capitalized at $35,000,000. Its principal plants consist of four furnaces, one each at Gadsden and Troustale, Ala., Chattanooga, Tenn., and Rising Fawn, Ga., a six-furnace steel mill at Gadsden, Ala., a wire and nail mill at Ensley and the company's raw material embraces extensive coal and ore mines in Alabama, Tennessee and Georgia.

Among the principal stockholders in the company are Oakleigh Thorne, J. A. Van Cortlant and Moses Taylor, of New York; J. P. Lacey of New Orleans; C. H. Black and E. T. Schuler, of Birmingham.

SHERIFF ARRESTED GIRL.

Charged with Being Implicated in a Highway Robbery.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 25.—The sheriff of Caldwell county has taken to jail at Lenoir a 16-year-old girl, Maggie Lewis, who is charged with being implicated in a highway robbery and a murder in that county last spring. For this crime two men were tried last summer at Lenoir, were convicted, and were sentenced each to the penitentiary for twenty years.

It is now claimed that the Lewis girl has made a confession to some friends, and perhaps to a number of her family, that she was concerned in the double crime, and that she got part of the money.

The girl was found in Asheville. It turns out that she had been there about a month, and with two companions, giving the enames of Mary Rogers and Vance Moody, had been arrested and sent to the house of correction, which is in the suburbs of Asheville.

ONE KILLED, EIGHT HURT.

Explosion at Purifying Plant of the Chattanooga Gas Company.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Oct. 25.—One man was fatally hurt and eight others were killed or less seriously injured by an explosion of gas which destroyed the purifying plant of the Chattanooga Gas company Tuesday afternoon. Following the explosion the plant was almost instantly enveloped in flames, and for some time the large retort was in danger. Instant and heroic work on the part of the fire department confined the flames to the purifying department.

The loss to the gas company will reach $80,000.

The cause of the explosion is thought to have been the lighting of a match near one of the large mains while the cap was off. It is not known certainly who is responsible for the accident. An investigation will be made.

Two Hurt in Wreck.

Atlanta, Oct. 25.—The splitting of a switch on the Southern railway Thursday night wrecked an accommodation train operated for the benefit of its employees on its runs from Simpson street to the Southern yards outside the city, and injured Engineer W. H. Housley and Fireman W. A. Hinton. Both men were taken to a sanitarium on Cone street and it is not thought there is any danger of death. In the smashup Fireman Hinton was thrown under the tender, and nearly drowned by the bursting of the water tank. Engineer Housley was hurt by the falling of a piece of the engine. The rest of the occupants of the train escaped unharmed.

Auto More Popular than Ever.

New York, Oct. 25.—Everything pertaining to the motor industry from the smallest bolt to the finished, up-to-date handsomely modelled touring car, has found a place in the eighth annual automobile show of the Automobile club of America, which opened Thursday night in the Grand Central palace. It is one of the most comprehensive and elaborate exhibitions ever attempted in America. Judging from the large crowd, the automobile is more popular than ever.

More Honors For the Lusitania.

Queenstown, Oct. 25.—The Cunard liner Lusitania arrived here at 9:30 Thursday evening. She has broken the best previous eastern record. The best previous record from New York to Queenstown was 5 days, 4 hours and 30 minutes. This the Lusitania made herself on her last run from New York. The Lusitania cleared Sandy Hook lightship at 5:44 p. m., Saturday last. Her time of passage was 4 days, 22 hours and 45 minutes.

Florida Veterans Meet.

Pensacola, Fla., Oct. 25.—The Florida division of confederate veterans, after a session of two days, adjourned Thursday night to meet next year in Tampa. General W. L. Witch, of this city, was elected major general to command the division, succeeding General Jewell. The reunion was the most largely attended in years.

CRISIS HAS PASSED

Captains of Finance Easy Over Money Situation.

CONFIDENCE IS RESTORED

Turbulent Trouble in the World of Finance Has Been Successfully Combatted and Tranquility Now Is Assured.

New York, Oct. 26.—The captains of finance, who with the secretary of the national treasury have been battling night and day to preserve order in the banking world, held no conference Friday night, but went to bed early, confident in the belief that a threatened situation had been successfully combatted and that from now on the restoration of public confidence and tranquility would be speedily accomplished.

The principal difficulty throughout the week's excitement has been lack of currency. There was not enough actual money in the city to stand the tremendous decline without cutting down loans. The smal banking institutions that closed this week have good supplies of gilt-edge securities in their vaults but they could neither sell them nor borrow money on them this week, simply because of the scarcity of cash, gold and silver money.

No appreciation was felt Saturday morning as to the result of Saturday's financial transactions.

The stock exchange and the banks were opened for business for only two hours and the stock exchange was not troubled by the money situation, as all the loans made Friday carry over until Monday under the ordinary rules of the exchange.

There were small lines of depositors in front of the Trust company of America and the Lincoln Trust company, but their number was not so great as at the same hour Friday.

NOT ON THE PROGRAM.

In a Burlesque, Actress Accidentally Wounds Herself with Pistol.

New York, Oct. 26.—Miss Blanche Ring Friday night shot herself in the hand and fainted from the pain on the stage of the Casino during a performance of "The Gay White Way."

In the second act she uses a revolver and blank cartridges in a burlesque with Jefferson de Angelis. Somehow her forefinger caught in the trigger while the cartridge exploded, burning and tearing her hand. Quick she screamed and ran toward the wings, fainting before anyone could catch her.

Mr. De Angelis finished the scene without her and Miss Ring did not appear again until the third act when she went through her part with her hand in bandages.

COURTSHIP OF 21 YEARS.

Patient Wooing Is About To Be Brought to Happy Close.

New York, Oct. 26.—There is about to be a wedding in St. Patrick's church at Richmond, Staten Island, which will bring to a happy close a patient wooing.

John Seaver, the prospective bride, groom, and Margaret M. Pfaff, the prospective bride, have had a courtship 21 years long, because of the faithfulness of each to an invalid father. Seaver is about 45 years old and Miss Pfaff is in the thirties. Seaver's father died about five months ago, aged 86, and Miss Pfaff's father died a few weeks ago, aged 75.

Shooting at the Fair Grounds.

Atlanta, Oct. 25.—As the result of an alleged quarrel over money, Gus Ledbetter, an employee of one of the midway attractions at Piedmont park, was seriously wounded Friday night. J. M. Miller, a carpenter, was arrested on the charge of shooting, and W. M. Jeffries, a bailiff in Langston's court, placed in the barracks as a witness. Ledbetter was taken to the Grady hospital, where it is said there is little hope for his recovery.

City Target Tournament.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 26.—The trophy in the Jamestown National clay target tournament at the Jamestown exposition Friday for the amateur making the highest score in the 300 targets was won by M. J. Regan, of the Colgate Gun club, of Baltimore, who broke 126. The Winchester Dupont squad of experts made some fine scores. W. R. Crosby, the world's champion, was the highest man, with J. R. Taylor, a close second.

May Receive Ministerial Post.

Berlin, Oct. 26.—Herr Von Eckardt, now a German delegate to the International Finance commission at Athens, probably will be appointed minister of Germany at Havana. Dr. Von Humbrecht, who is now minister there, being transferred to the Athens finance commission.

Re-Elected President of League.

St. Joseph, Mo., Oct. 26.—Dr. Frederick Munz, of Cincinnati, was re-elected president of the National German Epworth League here Saturday. The place for the next biennial session of the league will be selected by the executive committee.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION.

Adopts Wine Resolution—Old Officials Are Re-Elected.

Columbus, Ga., Oct. 26.—The Columbus convention of the Georgia Woman's Christian Temperance union came to an end Friday evening, the closing feature being a contest in which Georgia girls competed in a declamation contest for a gold medal, the winner going to Nashville to represent this state in the diamond medal contest before the national convention of the W. C. T. U.

A great deal of business was packed into the closing day of the session. During the morning a memorial service was held. A feature of the afternoon session consisted of reports from the county presidents.

The old officers of the Georgia Woman's Christian Temperance union were re-elected as follows: Honorary president, Mrs. Jennie Hart Shirley, Union Point; president, Mrs. Griffin; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Mary Harris Armor, Eastman; vice president, Mrs. T. B. Patterson, of Griffin; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Milton H. Edwards, of Eastman; recording secretary, Miss M. Theresa Griffin, of Columbus; treasurer, Mrs. R. E. L. Harris, of Sparta.

Atlanta won the 1908 convention. Invitations were extended by Savannah, Albany, Madison and Thomson also, but there was a strong sentiment that the next convention should be held in the capital of the state.

BAIL DENIED DR. GILLETT.

Former Mutual Life Vice President Must Stay in Jail.

New York, Oct. 26.—Dr. Walter R. Gillett, former vice president of the Mutual Life Insurance company, who was convicted of perjury and remanded to the Tombs, was denied bail by Justice Dowling in the supreme court Friday.

After the jury rendered its verdict counsel for the defense asked for a certificate of reasonable doubt and arrest of judgment. Justice Dowling said he would hear the motion October 28. The motion of Friday was to admit Dr. Gillett to bail until that time. District Attorney Jerome appeared in opposition to the move, taking the ground that to admit Gillet to bail would set a dangerous precedent.

CENTRAL SALE DENIED.

Both Perry and Thorne Contradict Stories of Transfer.

Providence, R. I., Oct. 26.—Marsden J Perry has denied the report that the Norfolk and Southern railroad had purchased the Central of Georgia railroad.

Telegram to Hanson.

Macon, Ga. Oct. 26—President J. F. Hanson, of the Central of Georgia railroad, received a reiterated and more explicit wire from Oakleigh Thorne from New York, saying:

"There has been no transfer or exchange in Central of Georgia railroad situation."

CONFESSED TO MURDER.

Body of Wealthy Hermit Found in the Woods Near His Home.

Linden, Ala., Oct. 26.—Bert Huckaby and his son, who are in jail here, confessed to having killed Lake Bradford, near Octagon, several days ago. The body of Bradford, who was a wealthy hermit, was found in the woods near his home. The Huckabys were arrested on suspicion. In their confession the Huckabys implicated Sam Ford and his two sons and they were arrested Friday. All of the persons are well known in Marengo county. They are in jail at Linden.

THREE PERSONS KILLED.

Fatal Accident on Underground Railway in London.

London, Oct. 26.—Three persons were killed and a dozen injured Saturday in a rearend collision at the West Hempstead station of the Metropolitan Underground railroad. The rear train, it appears, ran past the signals in a fog and crashed into a train standing at the station.

This is the first accident of the kind since the London lines were electrified, when a system of electric signalling was installed, which the company claimed would absolutely preclude the possibility of such a catastrophe.

SEATTLE FOR PRESIDENT.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 26.—The convention of the Commercial Telegraphers' union adjourned after electing W. W. Beattie, of Washington, D. C., president; H. J. Horn, of Cincinnati, first vice president, and A. S. Ewing, of St. Louis, third vice president.

Orville A. Glen retains his office of second vice president, Frank T. Liles, of Chicago, and C. M. P. Smith, of Salt Lake, were added to the executive board.

Hunt Succeeds Heinze.

New York, Oct. 26.—Announcement was made Saturday that Arthur P. Heinz, for several years president of the Aetna Indemnity company, has resigned and that Beekman Hunt, formerly vice president and general manager of the company, has been elected to succeed him.

HIS NARROW ESCAPE

Casual Remark Saved Him From Conviction of Murder.

IN DANGER DEATH PENALTY

Strong Structure of Proof Built Up by State Collapsed Like a Bubble Just as Case Was About to Go to the Jury.

Chicago, Oct. 26.—A casual remark in Judge Ghettiain's court Friday saved a man from conviction of murder on circumstantial evidence.

Indeed, the state had presented such seemingly conclusive proof that Angelo Serpico had killed Salvator Serpico that conviction and a death penalty were almost certainly expected.

This strong structure of proof built up by the state collapsed like a bubble when the case was about to go to the jury.

A casual question asked of Dr. Warren Hunter, coroner's physician, on cross-examination developed that Salvator Serpico was killed with a bullet from a thirty-two caliber revolver. The defendant's revolver was a 38-caliber.

Prior to that important testimony, Assistant State's Attorney Fleming had presented a chain of evidence that was apparently complete.

Against this array of evidence the defendant was able to present only a feeble defense. He took the stand and denied shooting. He admitted having drawn a revolver but was unable to explain the exploded cartridges. On cross-examination by Mr. Fleming, when asked to account for Salvator Serpico's death he said: 'Louis did it."

He could not tell who Louis was except that he was an Italian who had been present in the saloon and who had since fled.

Dr. Hunter was the last witness called. He expressed the opinion that death was due to shock and hemorrhage caused by the bullet wound.

"By the way, Dr. Hunter," Attorney Hanlon, for the defendant, asked, "have you the bullet that you found in the body?"

"Certainly," Dr. Hunter replied, and he handed the bullet to the lawyer.

"Why, this is a 32-caliber bullet!" Attorney Hanlon exclaimed.

The bullet was then placed in the revolver owned by the defendant and it rattled in the empty cartridge.

After only a short deliberation, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

SUSPECTS ARRESTED.

Believed To Be Bandits Who Held Up Great Northern Limited Train.

Spokane, Wash., Oct. 26.—With $14,000 in national bank notes concealed on their persons, at the points of drawn revolvers, surrounded by a squad of detectives, two rough-looking men, believed to be the bandits who held up the Great Northern Oriental limited train near Rondo sid. ing, Mont., on Sept. 12, and secured $40,000 in greenbacks, threw up their hands and were arrested in a Great Northern dining car as it entered this city Friday night. When searched at the police station $14,000 was taken from their clothing.

The suspects gave their names as G. E. McDonald, 43 years old, and Ed Smith, 34.

Insufficient Evidence.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 26.—The trial at Terioki, Finland, of Topoloff, a member of the League of the Russian people, accused of the murder of Professor Hertzenstein, the member of the lower house of the First Russian parliament who was killed at his country home near Terioki on July 31st, has ended in the discharge of the prisoner on the ground of insufficient evidence. Lavaoff, a man who testified against Topoleff, was sentenced to five month's imprisonment for failing to give evidence earlier.

Ingram Pleased with America.

London, Oct. 26.—Dr. Ingram, Bishop of London, since his return from America, has been kept telling his friends of the delights of his visit and has been saying nice things about Americans. "I really had the time of my life," said Dr. Ingram. "The attention paid to me by President Roosevelt and respect shown by the American people generally, coupled with their delightful hospitality, has made a deep impression on me."

Suit to Set Aside Patents.

Reno, Nev., Oct. 26.—The United States began suit Friday in the U. S. district court at Carson to set aside federal patents to 16,000 acres of land held by the Southern Pacific company in the White Horse mining district on the grounds that the land was fraudulently represented by the railroad company to be agricultural when it was mineral.

Killed by Automobile.

New Orleans, Oct. 26.—W. A. Aron, promoter of the Alabama and Eastern railroad, and former secretary of the Hattiesburg, Miss. Mercantile association, was killed Friday night by being run down by an automobile.

CAROLINA STATE FAIR

It Is a Great Event in the State.

Columbia, S. C., Oct. [illegible] South Carolina state fair, [illegible] ed on Monday and continued Friday, promises to be a [illegible] every respect.

The fact that the [illegible] this state has been unusually [illegible] year and the further fact that farmers are generally prosperous indicates that the attendance at the fair will be large. Prosperous times [illegible] the farmers means a good [illegible] state fair.

The state fair is a great [illegible] South Carolina. It is a rendezvous [illegible] people from every section of the state. From a political standpoint it is important, because here the people gather and map out plans for future. It is also a great social event, the state ball which is held on the [illegible] day night of fair week is the brilliant function of South Carolina society.

TO HAVE EXTRA SESSION

Governor Blanchard of Louisiana Issues Call to Assemble.

New Orleans, Oct. 18.—Governor N. C. Blanchard has issued a call for an extra session of the Louisiana legislature to assemble on Nov. 11.

The extra session will consider the appointment of a commission to investigate port charges at this city in connection with the recent strike of 10,000 levee workers which is alleged to have cost the state of Louisiana increases $5,000,000; also business in port conditions will be considered.

The assembly will also be asked to reduce the fees of state officials and to decrease their salaries. Recently it is said the state has discovered embezzlements in the treasurer's department amounting to about [illegible]

ENGINEER WAS KILLED

Four Others Injured in Wreck Near Blocton, Ala.

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. [illegible] eastbound passenger train No. 40, on the Louisville and Nashville railroad, was wrecked in the yards at Blocton [illegible] morning as it was leaving [illegible] for Birmingham. The [illegible] and baggage and mail cars were turned over. Engineer Charles [illegible] killed and the following [illegible]

Fireman Tom Phillips, [illegible] H. O. Goddard, Porter J. [illegible] and Baggagemaster J. L. [illegible]

It is believed all the injured will recover. No passengers were [illegible]

Carolina Man Robbed of $1,000

Atlanta, Oct. 26.—J. M. [illegible] Arcadia, S. C., was robbed [illegible] Saturday night about 11 o'clock in an alley near Decatur street. [illegible] who is enroute to Columbia, [illegible] his parents live, reported the [illegible] to the police. The money [illegible] checks and greenback. [illegible] greenback and $1,154 in two [illegible] checks on the Bank of Gaffney, S. C., one being for $900 and the other for $250. The police are on the lookout for any clew which may lead to the arrest of the robbers, but as yet nothing has been learned.

Holland Given Ten Years.

Dalton, Ga., Oct. 28.—The jury in the case of Harrison [illegible] charged with the murder of [illegible] roll, brought in a verdict of voluntary manslaughter, and he was given a sentence of ten years in the penitentiary. The bond was fixed at $10,000 and a motion for a new trial was made which will be heard some time next month. The sentence of Claud Warnick, charged with the murder of Chester Wilson, was also fixed at ten years. All parties are white.

Making His Will as Death Drew Near.

Brussells, Oct. 28.—M. [illegible] prominent merchant at Namur, died here under tragic circumstances recently. He suffered from heart disease, and called at a notary's for the purpose of making his will. His son wrote steadily for several minutes, and then stopped and looked forward as though in deep thought. The notary waited for a time and then spoke to him. M. [illegible] did not reply, and the notary looked at him, to find that he was dead.

Forty-Eight Persons Injured.

Providence, R. I., Oct. [illegible] forty-eight persons were injured, some of them seriously, as the result of a collision of electric cars on the Pawtucket line on North Main street Sunday. The Pawtucket car was hurled into a telescoping [illegible] miraculously, neither the [illegible] Providence-bound car, [illegible] hurt, but almost all the passengers in both cars were hurled from the seats and severely cut or injured by glass.

A Determined Suicide.

Elba, Ala., Oct. 28.—[illegible] named Dent, claiming Atlanta [illegible] home, committed suicide [illegible] swallowing morphine and strychnine. Dent entered a drug store and, unseen by a rear from his pocket, [illegible] clerks from behind the counter, swallowed a bottle of morphine and some strychnine, before he could be at bay with the razor. He died [illegible] agony shortly afterwards.

ESCAPE

Man From
rder.

PENALTY

f Built Up
e a Bubble
t to Go to ual remark rour Fri viction of evidence ould teach a Judge

ial. Sat dead pen expected proof built like a bub ut to go to

f Dr. War ysician on ed that Ba ith a bullet
r revolver was a 38

testimony ey Fleming of evidence plete vidence the esent only a n the stand le admitted but was un xploded car mination by d to account
ath he said:

Louis was an who had on and who ast witness the opinion ck and hem let wound r." Attorney ant, asked,

t you found replied, to the law-

ner bullet" ed laced in the fendant and cartridge.
peration, the d not guilty.

STED.

Who Held Up
d Train.
26.—Wilta notes con t the points unded by a rough-look the bandits at Northern ar Rondo sid and secured rew up their d in a Great entered this ten searched 000 was tak

names as G old, and Ed

nce.
6.—The trial
Topoloff, a f the Russian urder of Pro
e member of First Russian
d at his coun on July 31st.
e of the pris nsufficient evi an who tes as sentenced ment for fail riller.

America.
Dr. Ingram, ce his return kept telling ts of his visit things about had the time
gram. "The by President
hown by the rally, coupled apitality, has on me."

Patents.
—The United
ay in the U.
arson to set 15,000 acres
ttawa Pacific Horse mining that the land sented by the e agricultural mobile.

26.—W. A.
Alabama and former secre
g, Miss., Mer
s killed Friday n by an auto-

CAROLINA STATE FAIR.

It is a Great Event in the Palmetto State.

Columbia, S. C., Oct. 31.—The South Carolina state fair, which opened on Monday and continues this week, promises to be a success in every respect.

The fact that the entire cotton crop of this state has been unusually large this year and the further fact that the farmers are generally prosperous indicates that the attendance upon the state fair will be large. Prosperity with the farmers means success for the state fair.

The state fair is a great institution in South Carolina; it is a rendezvous for the people from every section of the state. From a political standpoint it is very important, because here the politicians gather and map out plans for the future. It is also a great social event, the state ball which is held on the first day night of fair week is the most brilliant function of South Carolina society.

TO HAVE EXTRA SESSION.

Governor Blanchard, of Louisiana, Issues Call to Solons.

New Orleans, Oct. 28.—Governor N. C. Blanchard has issued a call for an extra session of the Louisiana assembly on Nov. 11.

The extra session will consider the appointment of a commission to investigate port charges at New Orleans in connection with the recent strike of 10,000 levee workers which is estimated to have cost the cotton interests $1,000,000; attendance in port conditions will also be considered.

The assembly will also be asked to reduce the fees of state tax collectors and to decrease their number recently it is said the state has discovered embezzlements in the auditing department amounting to about $100,000.

ENGINEER WAS KILLED.

Four Others Injured in Wreck at Blocton, Ala.

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 31.—Passenger train No. 40, on the Louisville and Nashville railroad, was wrecked in the yards at Blocton this morning as it was leaving that place for Birmingham. The baggage and mail car were turned over. Engineer Charles Stillman was killed and the following injured:

Fireman Tom Phillips, Mail Clerk H. O. Goddard, Porter J. Miller and Baggagemaster J. L. Adkins.

It is believed all the injured will recover. No passengers were hurt.

Carolina Man Robbed of $1,400.

Atlanta, Oct. 28.—J. M. Turner, of Arcadia, S. C., was robbed of $1,400 Saturday night about 11 o'clock in an alley near Decatur street. Turner, who is enroute to Columbus, Ga., where his parents live, reported the matter to the police. The money was in checks and greenback, $300 being in greenback and $1,154 in two separate checks on the Bank of Gaffney, S. C., one being for $900 and the other for $250. The police are on the lookout for any clew which may lead to the arrest of the robbers, but as yet nothing has been learned.

Holland Given Ten Years.

Dalton, Ga., Oct. 28.—The jury in the case of Harrison Holland, charged with the murder of John Carroll, brought in a verdict of involuntary manslaughter, and he was given a sentence of ten years in the penitentiary. The bond was fixed at $10,000 and a motion for a new trial was made which will be heard some time next month. The sentence of Claud Warnick, charged with the murder of Chester Wilson, was also fixed at ten years. All parties are white.

Making His Will as Death Called.

Brussells, Oct. 28.—M. Samson, a prominent merchant at Namur, died here under tragic circumstances recently. He suffered from heart disease, and called at a notary's for the purpose of making his will. His son wrote steadily for several minutes, and then stopped and looked forward as though in deep thought. The notary waited for a time, and then spoke to him. M. Samson did not reply, and the notary touched him, to find that he was dead.

Forty-Eight Persons Injured.

Providence, R. I., Oct. 28.—Forty-eight persons were injured, some of them seriously, as the result of a collision of electric cars on the Pawtucket line on North Main street this Sunday. The Pawtucket bound car was hurled into telescoping position, miraculously, neither the westbound Providence-bound car motorman was hurt, but almost all the passengers in both cars were hurled from the seats and severely cut or injured by glass.

A Determined Suicide.

Elba, Ala., Oct. 28.—A young man named Dent, claiming Atlanta as his home, committed suicide in this city by swallowing morphine and strychnine. Dent entered a drug store and, drawing a razer from his pocket, ran past the clerks from behind the counter, swallowed a bottle of morphine and some strychnine, holding the crowd at bay with the razor. He died in agony shortly afterwards.

...N. R. R. COMPANY.

...ings were instituted and he was represented by bondholders ... other corporations passing to Baron Erlanger, a wealthy banker of Paris, and the associates of Mr. Huth, one of the associates of the owners, came to this country after large investments in the Alabama Great Southern and its branches, and in time created what was known as the Erlanger system. It is known that Mr. Huth stated: "Smith may build railroads and develop the industries, I will, instead, invest the money in engines and cars to move the crops." The result is that the Alabama Great Southern, instead of having any branch roads, is in a position where the drastic regulations of the state of Alabama may very seriously affect it, because its revenue derived from through Traffic is a much less proportion of the total than is that of the Louisville & Nashville. From the investor's standpoint, the statement of Mr. Chas. Schiff is to be commended. How is it when viewed from the standpoint of many interests of the citizens of the state?

The Southern Railway is operating a very large mileage within the state, almost all of which has been acquired through foreclosure or from those who had acquired the same by such proceedings, a large amount of capital invested has been lost. The only expectation I believe, is the construction of a short branch extending from Kellyton, to the Warrior river, a distance of perhaps 20 miles, of such importance that the time does not seem to be inserted in the Railway Guide, indicating that regular passenger train service is intended. It would seem, therefore, that the Southern Railway is in a position where its revenue may not be so seriously affected by the reduction which may result from enforcing the laws fixed by the legislature. The Louisville & Nashville, having constructed branch roads into the most agricultural districts, must have facilities for the transportation of passengers, even where the operation of such trains is unprofitable, or where the earnings do not support it. I have before me a statement of the earnings of trains on such branch roads for the year ending June, 1907, which shows that while we are operating many trains in Alabama the earnings of which are but little more than the wages of the crews.

ADDITIONAL INVESTMENTS CONTEMPLATED BY THE MANAGEMENT OF THE LOUISVILLE & NASHVILLE RAILROAD COMPANY.

Large additional expenditures have been under consideration by the management for several years, the expenditures being seemingly governed by the rapid increase in traffic, and seemingly justified by the effective results. The increase in the prospective increase in traffic has made necessary the reduction of grades and construction of second track from Elkmont on the Tennessee line to Mobile. For some time past considerable sums have been expended in making surveys, and in the work of reducing grades and constructing second track from Calera to Black Creek Junction, a distance of about 41 miles, has been completed upon and will be completed within the next four or five months, the total expenditure being about $3,000,000. Surveys are also being made with a view of ascertaining the feasibility of constructing a shorter line between the Ohio fields and the Gulf. Plans and estimates have also been prepared for constructing commodious shops and yards, involving a large expenditure. Under existing conditions, all expenditures on capital account are ceased except those for which money has already been provided. This in Alabama is limited to the completion of reduction of grades and second track between Kellyton and Graces. No further expenditures on capital account can be undertaken until the credit of the company is restored, or until it can obtain the money on its long time obligations upon reasonable terms.

ACTION OF THE EXECUTIVE AND LEGISLATURE A SERIOUS MENACE TO THE PROSPERITY OF THE STATE.

In our interview yesterday I strongly urged you to cease your attack upon capital invested in private property devoted to public use, as railways; that undoubtedly the state should regulate the railroads in a proper manner, but that such regulation should be "confined to the inhibition of rebates, unjust discriminations and other recognized evils, and to the requirement of publicity of rates and such usages generally recognized as being essential to the maintenance of order and justice—in a word, regulations compatible with the ends of commercial liberty;" but that such regulations should not be extended to "the supervision and control of the physical condition of railroads, supervision and control of railroad finance, supervision and control of the traffic of railroads, and the absolute control of rates." And I appeared to you, as an experienced and successful business man, to frankly admit the fact which must be apparent to you, that if it once be established that the State of Alabama has the power to enact and enforce rates and other regulations of a confiscatory character—in other words, to arbitrarily fix the remuneration which the owners of the property may receive—and the equity of such arbitrary enactments could not be submitted to the decision of an impartial tribunal, no one could be found to invest capital under such conditions; and I made the assertion that you individually would not today invest a dollar in the construction of new railroads in Alabama, and I doubted if any other well-to-do citizen of the state would do so unless he was to be indirectly benefitted, by the creation of facilities which would be a convenience or advantage to him—he would not invest for the sole purpose of receiving a reasonable return upon the investment.

Bear in mind that the contention of the railways under existing laws is reduced to asking—begging—to be permitted to earn only a reasonable return; that investments in railways under such conditions are different from your personal investments in cotton mills, on which you may hope to receive not only a reasonable return—say six or eight per cent—on the capital invested, but may earn and receive much more, such investments not being limited to a "reasonable return." I repeat that under existing conditions all the railways are asking is to be permitted to earn a reasonable return, and appeal to the representatives of the State to not enact and enforce confiscatory laws; to not take the private property of individuals, although it may be devoted to public use, by confiscatory methods.

PROPOSITIONS TO COMPROMISE.

In answer to your appeal to compromise—to settle the pending litigation between the Louisville & Nashville and South & North Alabama roads and the State upon terms similar to those agreed upon with the Southern Railway and affiliated lines, I stated that while the terms you suggested might be somewhat less confiscatory than those fixed by the statutes, they could not be considered, and that it was not to the interest of the citizens of Alabama that the important matter should be adjusted in such an irregular, illegal, ineffective, and non-enforceable manner; that in the execution of the agreement with the Southern Railway and allied lines you had assumed, or attempted to usurp, the duties necessarily devolving upon the Railroad Commission, the Legislature and the courts; that a statement of the attorney-general of the State has been published to the effect that the agreement was based on good faith. Such a settlement or compromise does not settle anything permanently, and should not have been considered by either of the parties. That the State, having enacted and undertaken to enforce laws which, in the opinion of the railroads, were confiscatory, an appeal was taken to a court, and the court had assumed jurisdiction, which jurisdiction was acquiesced in by the State; that such method of adjusting the matter was in accordance with the laws of Alabama and the United States, and that it would be much better for the matter to be so adjusted; that I was assured that with the co-operation of the State the case would undoubtedly be so advanced that the decision of the court of final resort might be had within twelve months, that should the result sustain the contention of the railways and be acquiesced in, as it should be, by the State, the confidence of investors might in time be restored, and the development of the resources of the State facilitated; that should the decision be adverse to the contention of the railways and it be established that the State has the power to enact and enforce drastic laws and regulations, those who invested thereafter would do so with a full knowledge of the terms upon which the investment of capital, in enteprises subject to such regulation was made. And I urged you, as earnestly as I could, to cancel the call convening the legislature and to co-operate in securing an early and authoritative adjudication.

Undoubtedly, the importance to the consumer of the reduced rates for which you have so vigorously and ruthlessly contended, is greatly exaggerated; in fact, I do not hesitate to assert that you and those following your leadership do not closely comprehend the effect or the result that may follow the adoption and enforcement of the reduced rates fixed by the statutes or that may hereafter be fixed by the Railroad Commission. While the aggregate sum involved is large, and therefore of importance to the carriers, it is in nearly all cases unimportant to the consumer, distributed as it necessarily is. There are very few articles transported upon which the transportation charges is "all that the traffic can bear." Upon articles like coal, the transportation charge forms a large—sometimes the larger—part of the value of point of consumption, and the rates must necessarily be carefully and closely adjusted. On the other hand, on most articles the transportation charge is such a small part of the value of the property at point of consumption that it is inappreciable; and it is for this reason that a moderate reduction or increase does not affect the price asked by the merchant or manufacturer of the consumer. A variation of 10 cents per hundred on shoes will not vary the actual cost to the consumer more than 2 mills per pair of shoes. The transportation charges of the country are so low as to permit of the exchange of agricultural and manufactured products between most distant points. A manufacturer of shoes in St. Louis may sell his output in New England. A New England manufacturer does sell his output in St. Louis. A hardware dealer in Louisville does an extensive business in the state of Maryland, the property in many cases being shipped from factories in the East to Louisville and re-shipped to Maryland. A manufacturer of wagons in Louisville sells his output throughout the entire country, from Dakota to Texas and Florida. Forest products are sent long distances, and even coal has been shipped in large quantities from mines in Kentucky through Alabama, via Pensacola to Tampico, Mexico. As applied to commerce, therefore, distance has been obliterated by low transportation charges. As affecting the citizens of Alabama your contention, while of vital importance to the railways, is unimportant in comparison that the railways should receive rates which will insure profitable operation and thus enable the carriers to furnish improved and increased facilities. Nevertheless, it has for sometime been your hobby, and you have undoubtedly created a serious situation—one that should be deprecated by all having the material interests of the State at heart. You have fomented a public clamor which you have and are directing, and by which you have obtained preferment; but in doing so you have inflicted incalculable injury upon the State.

Under these circumstances, I again appeal to you to earnestly strive to do what you can—and which undoubtedly you are in a position to do effectively—to quiet the apprehension and restore, or endeavor to restore, confidence so badly impaired. And I again urge that you cancel the call convening the legislature for the avowed purpose of enacting punitive laws to punish the Louisville & Nashville and South & North Alabama Railroad Companies, for the simple offense of exercising the right guaranteed every citizen by the Constitution of Alabama and of the United States, which prohibits the depriving of such citizens of "life liberty or property without due process of law." Permit the differences between the railways and you, as representing the State, to be decided by the impartial tribunal which, under our form of government, has been created to adjust such contentions.

Yours truly,
MILTON H. SMITH,
President.

NAPOLEON BONAPARTE

showed, at the battle of Austerlitz, he was the greatest leader in the world. Ballard's Snow Liniment has shown the public it is the best Liniment in the world. A quick cure for Rheumatism, Sprains, Burns, Cuts, etc. A. C. Pitts, Rodessa, La., says: "I use Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family and find it unexcelled for sore chest, headache, corns, in fact for anything that can be reached by a liniment." Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

The Supreme Test.

"That scamp such a queer marriage of Robinson's. How did he come to select his bride?"

"He found they had kept the same cook in the family for twelve years."—Baltimore American.

A Broad Hint.

Fred—Last night as you stood in the moonlight I couldn't help but think how much I would like to kiss you.

Freda—Well, the post says, "The thought of yesterday is the action of today."—Pick-Me-Up.

WANTED

Army Men, Women and Child in Clanton to call at our store for the greatest strength creator and health restorer which we have ever sold—Vinol. It is not a patent medicine, but the most valuable cod liver preparation made by an extractive and concentrating process in which all the medicinal and tonic elements contained in fresh cod livers are retained, and the nauseous and useless oil entirely excluded. We do not believe there is a person in this vicinity who cannot be benefited by Vinol at this season of the year. Vinol is delicious to the taste, and is a tonic for old people, weak sickly women and children, nursing mothers, and after a severe sickness.

Vinol is unequaled for broken coughs, chronic colds, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. Creates an appetite and makes those who use it thin, fat, rosy and healthy.

We have had so much experience with Vinol and seen so many wonderful results from its use that we offer to refund money without question if it does not accomplish all we claim for it. Upchurch Drug Co. Clanton, Ala.

A CULTURED BASS.

Higher Education Was the Ruin of This Intelligent Fish.

"Bass are intelligent little beasts. That is the reason they travel in schools," remarked Walter Dumpling, an authority on fishing and a candidate for the future fishy class.

"I have frequently observed them studying," he continued, "whether it was better taste to swallow a minnow whole or go the installment plan. I have seen them seek knowledge concerning rubber frogs and, having made up their minds that it was a false friend, go off and warn their comrades.

"I have seen them studying weather conditions, coming to the surface, gazing intently at the sky, finding the direction of the wind and satisfying themselves whether tomorrow would be clear or rainy.

"All real fishermen can vouch for the statement that bass are fond of children. I have seen them eat up the little ones.

"Bass are natural defenders of the home life, and when a carp or catfish comes prowling around to devour the eggs the female had laid the male will attack the intruder by swimming under the enemy and standing him with the sharp dorsal spine.

"I could know of none so intelligent that is, enough to bite on the artificial bait and was only caught after a year from an encyclopedia had been shot to the back. Higher education was his fate."—Philadelphia North American.

Hard Times in Kansas.

The old days of grasshoppers and drouth are almost forgotten in the prosperous Kansas of today; although a citizen of Coddell, Earl Shamburg, has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered. He says: "I was worn out and discouraged by a coughing night and day, and could find no relief until I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. It took less than one bottle to completely cure me." The safest and most reliable cough and cold remedy and lung and throat healer ever discovered. Guaranteed by Upchurch Drug co. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

PURE WATER.

The One Beverage That Is the Same Yesterday, Today and Forever.

Water is the king of beverages. It is the beverage to which all turn when they would cure themselves of the injurious habit of consuming other beverages. But water that is not pure may be more harmful than the most harmful of other drinks.

Water is the basis of all other beverages. All beverages of man's manufacture are water that has been adulterated by admixtures and chemical treatment.

Pure water is the one beverage which has stood the test of science and come down to us unscathed through continuous use for countless ages. It is nature's choicest blessing to man. Other beverages undergo many changes with time. Each age brings them forth in new styles, new methods of manufacture, new processes of chemical treatment, aging and keeping. Foods change with each successive generation. We eat different kinds of foods from time to time. Each generation prepares them differently. There are different methods of compounding them, different methods of cooking them. Pure water is the same yesterday, today and forever.—What to Eat.

KILL THE COUGH AND CURE THE LUNGS

WITH Dr. King's New Discovery

FOR COUGHS COLDS HEALS THE LUNGS AND ALL THROAT AND LUNG TROUBLES.

GUARANTEED SATISFACTORY OR MONEY REFUNDED.

FURNITURE

Stoves, Trunks, Clocks, Lamps, Carpets, Matting, Rugs, Shades, Crockery, Glass and Tinware

House Furnishing Goods of all Kinds
Sewing Machines and Supplies

5 AND 10 CENT COUNTERS

Santa Claus will be with us this year with the largest and best selected stock of Dolls, Toys and Presents of all kinds ever brought to the county. Now on exhibition upstairs.

CLANTON FURNITURE COMPANY

T. L. CARTER, Proprietor

The Money to Be Saved

by buying your drugs and whiskies from a house like the Collier Drug Co. will be a pleasant surprise to you. We are the largest cut-rate druggists in this section of the State, and can save you many pennies by giving us your business.

Read our prices and put your dollars where you will receive greatest possible value.

WHISKIES

	Regular Price	Our Price
Rhode Mountain Dew (full quart)	1.00	.75
Old Crow	1.00	.75
Mammy Rye	1.00	.75
[illegible]	1.00	.75
[illegible]	1.00	.75
[illegible]	1.00	.75
[illegible]	1.00	.75
[illegible]	1.00	.75
[illegible] Apple Brandy	1.00	.75
[illegible]	1.00	.75
[illegible]	1.00	.75
Wilson's Alabama	1.00	.75
Green River	1.00	.75
[illegible]	1.00	.75
Pure Grain Four Star	1.00	.75
Old Familiar	1.00	.75

Our package and express department is complete in every respect and all mail orders get prompt and careful attention on day of receipt. Your patronage will be appreciated.

COLLIER DRUG CO.

109-111 NORTH 20th St.

BIRMINGHAM - - ALA.

The Castle Comedy

By Thompson Buchanan

This is a rattling good love story of merry old England at the close of the Napoleonic wars.

In the scene pictured here the wilful young lady is telling her father she doesn't intend to marry. She means she does not intend to marry the nobleman her father has selected.

The reason, as the reader soon discovers, is that she has fallen in love with a French dancing master. Out of this complication grows the story.

Even if Thompson Buchanan were not a Louisville boy and had not written inimitable stories for the Herald we would not hesitate in surrendering to his Castle Comedy the palm for absolute fascination.

—LOUISVILLE HERALD.

The Castle Comedy will be printed in this paper. Look for it.

"But I don't intend to marry."

Copyrighted Illustrated by Berger

The Banner.

Entered at the postoffice at Clanton, Ala., as second-class mail matter.

"There shall the press the people's rights maintain,
Unawed by influence and unbribed by gain,
There patriot truth has glorious triumphs won,
Bridged to religion, liberty and sun."

Subscription, yearly . . . $1.00
Invariably in advance.

Address all communications to THE BANNER, Clanton, Ala.

To prohibit or not to prohibit was the question before the people of Jefferson county last Monday, and the result of the election was a victory for the prohibitionists, who carried the county by nearly 2,000 majority. All the saloons in Birmingham, and other towns in Jefferson, will go out of business on January 1, and there is a strong probability that prohibition will shortly become a State law.

If you want the news take THE BANNER, which was the only paper in Chilton county last week that gave you the news there would be no Circuit Court the First Monday in November.

LAWYERS IN ENGLAND.

The Difference Between the Barrister and the Solicitor.

The barrister in England is the very salt of the earth. He it is who makes the laws, who goes into parliament, who sits on the bench, who considers himself seven or eight degrees higher up in the social scale than any other poor or middle class mortal, and with all this he has absolutely no responsibility toward his clients. That ancient, much abused thing called custom in this country has created for the law two separate and distinct limbs, which may be compared in a measure to the life of the bee. One is the drone and the other the queen. The drone is the solicitor, who sits in an office working up a case, consulting clients, drawing wills, controlling estate transactions and controlling the incomes of people who are unfortunate enough to be saddled under the trust deeds. The solicitor, who has his own tradition to work out, does not ever get to himself any glory whatever. Except in police and county court cases, he is persona non grata, or, in the words of the judges, "he is not seen." If he has a case on hand, he is obliged to take it to a barrister, who, though he may never have heard of the matter in dispute before, dons his wig and gown, proceeds into court and argues till all is black and blue, as if he knew all about it, for which he draws a most prodigious fee, quite big enough to enable him to appear nicely mounted in the row every morning. If he spoils the case, there is no chance for redress, because the barrister is merely a gentleman whom fiction politely assumes to be a friend in need. All the onus of failure falls upon the poor solicitor. There are no barristers in prison, but there are a good many solicitors who wear the broad arrow which is the trademark of his majesty's prisons. The solicitor remains the old time family adviser, to whom all sorts of foolish people bring their trust deeds, their stock certificates, their government bonds and all such documents which have a tendency to lead a weak men into temptation, and that is why so many solicitors, when they need money, find it impossible to resist the desire to take that which is not theirs.—London Letter in Town and Country.

Oldest of British Sports.

Hawking is the oldest of all British sports. To the uninitiated the most marvelous feature of hawking is the manner in which the hawks themselves, naturally the wildest and wariest of the feathered tribe, have been trained to surrender voluntarily their liberty and return literally like a bolt from the blue in obedience to the will of the falconer. This indeed seems the more remarkable when one learns that the best birds are those which have attained maturity in a wild state. —London Ladies' Field.

Circus Folks Most Moral.

Notwithstanding the absence of the artificial safeguards that a conventional society has ordained, circus performers are, as a class, the most moral folk on the face of the earth. An old circus man expressed the fact in this way:

"For 200 years there has not been a domestic scandal nor a divorce among us when both husband and wife were from recognized circus families. In every case where there has been a scandal, either one or the other has been an outsider."—Everybody's Magazine.

Wanted a Better One.

Patient—When you're ill, doctor, do you treat yourself?

"No. I call in one of my colleagues."

"Then can't I call in one of them—the one that cured you?"—Kurger.

Careful.

"I'm going to put a fender on the front of my runabout."

"So you won't run over some one?"

"Nope. So it won't hurt the radiator when I do."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

LOUISVILLE & NASHVILLE RAILROAD COMPANY.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT, LOUISVILLE, KY.

At Montgomery, Ala., October 23, 1907

Hon. B. B. Comer,
Governor of Alabama.

Dear Sir: The importance to the citizens of Alabama of the contention between the State and corporations operating railways between its borders prompts me to make a record of some of the reasons earnestly urged, at our interview at the executive office on yesterday, in an effort to induce you to cease your endeavors to prevent the arbitration of the issues by the tribunals created and maintained for that purpose, with the hope that the views presented in this may be more effective than when verbally expressed.

RELATIONS OF THE LOUISVILLE & NASHVILLE RAILROAD TO THE CITIZENS OF ALABAMA.

The Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company first became interested in Alabama when it assumed the contract between Sam Tate and associates and the South & North Alabama Railroad Company, to complete the construction of the line between Montgomery and Decatur, which was done, and the line opened for traffic on October 1, 1872. The transaction proved to be an onerous and a burdensome one. Under the then existing conditions the cost of the road was very great, and the ensuing panic of 1873 rendered operations unprofitable, and the result of operations of that road has never been sufficient to pay interest upon indebtedness, notwithstanding the enormous investments made by the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company in constructing branch roads and acquiring roads which have been maintained as feeders. Nevertheless, the Louisville & Nashville, as endorser of the bonds of the South & North Alabama and owner of the majority of the capital stock, has paid each obligation as it matured, and the credit of that company is, therefore, certainly as good as that of the Louisville & Nashville.

In 1871 the Louisville & Nashville leased the Nashville & Decatur Railroad, operating 23 miles in Alabama, agreeing to pay dividends of six per cent per annum upon the capital stock. About the time the lease was made, or shortly before, the stock was selling as low as ten cents on the dollar.

In 1880 the Louisville & Nashville purchased from the then owners the Mobile & Montgomery Railroad, paying a very full price therefor, although that company or its predecessors had defaulted and the property sold under foreclosure and acquired by the owners of the securities; in other words, large sums invested in the construction (some of which I believe was contributed by the State of Alabama and some by municipalties) were lost. Yet the Louisville & Nashville was not benefitted by this default, because it paid a full price—probably equal to the original cost of construction—for the property.

About the same time it also acquired the New Orleans, Mobile & Texas Railroad, operating 25 miles in Alabama. This company was the successor of corporations that had defaulted and the property acquired by lien holders. The Louisville & Nashville, however, paid for the property of the re-organized company a full price, approximating, I believe, about $45,000 per mile.

The Railroad Company was therefore in possession of a main line in Alabama extending from Elkmont, on the Tennessee line, to Grand Bay, on the Mississippi line, a distance of about 410 miles. We may assume that in acquiring the line passing for so many miles through Alabama, the management was influenced by the possibility of developing the mineral resources known to exist in the vicinity of what is now Birmingham. Such main line, however developed such resources to but a limited extent. In 1884 the Louisville & Nashville began acquiring and constructing branch roads for the purpose of developing the mineral, agricultural and forest products of the State, and has since that time created branch roads of 900 miles in length. Owing to the character of the traffic in the mineral district, the percentage of side-track to main line mileage is great. The total amount expended in adding to the property of the company within the State of Alabama, including equipment allotted on basis of engine and car mileage, is more than $30,000,000.

PERSONALLY RESPONSIBLE.

May I add, in explanation of my insistence that the people of Alabama should, in their own interests, protect and promote the interests of the Louisville & Nashville in every reasonable way—should refrain from persecuting or doing anything that will in any way injure its credit, the maintenance of which is of the greatest importance to them, that every dollar of the enormous sums invested in constructing branch lines and adding to the property of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company since 1882 has been expended on my individual recommendation and judgement. The Board of Directors, who have appropriated the capital and through whom it has been obtained, have relied upon my judgement and acted upon my recommendations. Is it any wonder, therefore, that in addition to my obligations as an officer of the company, I, at this juncture, should be greatly depressed, distressed and discouraged—in fact overwhelmed by what now appears to be disasterous results to investors who have acted directly or indirectly on my faith in the resources of Alabama and in the fairness and justice of the people? You have stated, and on many occasions affirmed, re-affirmed and reiterated, that the State of Alabama has been liberal to the railroads—has acted conservatively—which statement is not controverted. Had the drastic and confiscatory bills prepared and promoted by the late Capt. W. L. Bragg, and introduced simultaneously in both Houses of the Legislature of Alabama that convened on Nov. 11, 1884, been enacted and enforced, can any one believe that I would have advised, much less urged, the enormous investments by the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company? And can any one believe that, had I so advised, my advice would have been followed? As stated to you, who is entitled to the credit for the conservatism or the fairness which the State of Alabama has until recently accorded and encouraged investment in railways and other industries? You, and many others I am sure, know that it is due to what you term the dominating influence of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company over legislation affecting railways; that this influence has been persistently (and until recently successfully) exerted in a legitimate manner to prevent the enactment of unjust and injurious legislation—legislation tending to prevent the investment of capital in the construction of railways and allied industries. The citizens of Alabama have, therefore, received in addition to the large investments made, the benefit of the influence which the management has, with the co-operation of other railways and industrial interests, exerted in preventing the enactment and enforcement of suicidal laws. Bear in mind that any influence which may have been exercised by the Louisville & Nashville or other railway companies to prevent the enactment of unjust legislation affecting their interests, has not been so exercised to secure the preferment of any one in any way connected with the managements. The officers and employes of railways are not office seeking people. Their duties are such that they cannot be efficiently performed by those seeking political preferment.

MANAGEMENT OF OTHER IMPORTANT RAILWAYS IN ALABAMA APPARENTLY WISER THAN THAT OF THE LOUISVILLE & NASHVILLE WHEN VIEWED FROM EXISTING CONDITIONS.

Contrast the policy of the Louisville & Nashville with that of other corporations. What is now the Alabama Great Southern Railroad, extending from Chattanooga, Tenn., to Meridian, Miss., and running about 240 miles diagonally across the state of Alabama, was constructed under great difficulties, the financial result being disasterous to the promoters—a large portion of the capital lost. Unable to meet its obligations, foreclosure

(To be continued)

For the Children

To succeed these days you must have plenty of grit, courage, strength. How is it with the children? Are they thin, pale, delicate? Do not forget Ayer's Sarsaparilla. You know it makes the blood pure and rich, and builds up the general health in every way.

The children cannot possibly have good health unless the bowels are in proper condition. Correct any constipation by giving small laxative doses of Ayer's Pills. All vegetable, sugar-coated.

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.
Also manufacturers of

Ayer's HAIR VIGOR. AGUE CURE. CHERRY PECTORAL.

We have no secrets! We publish the formulas of all our medicines.

LAMP CLOCKS.

They Were Quite Common in the Seventeenth Century.

Of the various examples that have been given of early specimens of the clockmaker's art not the least interesting are the several types of lamp clocks. One of these was of a kind quite common in the seventeenth century and consisted of a lamp burner placed at the base of a glass oil receptacle mounted vertically on a suitable standard. The oil reservoir had attached to it a scale facing the burner and showing the hours, beginning at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, at which time the lamp was to be lighted in winter, and ending at 7 o'clock in the morning. The lamp being lighted, the gradually descending level of the oil as combustion proceeded marked the hours.

The other device, of later origin, dating back to the beginning of the last century, utilized the same principle. It consisted of two communicating oil chambers, superposed by a clock dial. In one of the chambers was placed a night lamp to illuminate this dial, and in the other was suspended a float from a cord which passed around a small pulley. The latter was mounted on a horizontal axis ending in the center of the dial. The float of course descended as the oil was consumed and carried the index hand along with it, thus marking the hours precisely as in the case already cited.—Pearson's Weekly.

A Curiosity.

Polite Shopman (showing goods)—Here is something I would like to call your attention to, madam. It is the very latest thing out. Mrs. Rounder (absently)—If there's anything out later than my husband I'll take it, if only for a curiosity.—Strand Magazine.

If you take DeWitt's kidney and Bladder Pills you will get prompt relief from backache, weak kidneys, inflammation of the bladder and urinary troubles. A weeks treatment 25cents. Sold by Upchurch Drug co.

Letter to O. O. Roper & Bro.
Clanton, Ala.

Dear Sirs: Here's a tale with a point to it. Florida is the hardest state in the Union for paint. Gilmore & Davis Co., Tallahassee, Florida, think they know what paint can do in their climate; they've been painting for 35 years, Devoe ten years; and they say Devoe wears 10 years—their words are: "Buildings we painted Devoe 10 years ago are in good condition of paint today."

They also say lead and-oil wears only one year there; Devoe 10 years!

Ten years is a long lifetime for paint in Florida; longer than 20 in Maine. We don't dare say that either is true as a general fact in those States; but the e are such instances.

If we should call the cost of Devoe in Florida half of the usual cost of paint, it would be too much; we suppose it's about one-third; there is so much trash there—the costliest paint is the worst, and the worst is the costliest everywhere.

Yours truly
38 F W DEVOE & CO

Quinsy, Sprains and Swellings Cured.

"In November, 1901, I caught cold and had the quinsy. My throat was swollen so I could hardly breathe. I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me relief in a short time. In two days I was all right," says Mrs. L. Cousins, Otterburn, Mich. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment an is especially valuable for sprains and swellings. For sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

His Idea of Scoring.

At a country cricket match in Lanarkshire a local farmer's boy was appointed scorer, his duties being carefully explained to him. The first inning was not very productive of runs and soon came to an end, and every one made a rush for the scorer. Judge of their surprise, however, when they found that not a single mark had been made in the carefully ruled book that had been provided.

When reproached in somewhat strong terms the boy was not in the least disconcerted, but with the most ingenuous air in the world said:

"I was nae eenterested in the sport that I quite forgot to mak' the crosses. But it disna matter—that wee laddie wi' the red face is the smartest runner among ye."—London Tit-Bits.

At the end of some generations races perish or degenerate in towns. It is necessary to renew them, and it is always the country which furnishes this renewal.—Rousseau.

Eternity

The boys and girls we cannot neglect at any time. The great men and women of the future are the boys and girls today and they deserve to be properly shod in good shoes.

If you buy ill-fitting and uncomfortable shoes for your children, you may ruin their feet and make trouble for them the rest of their lives. If you get shoes for them that are not well made, that allow their feet to get cold and wet while you may be doing something to make them sick, possibly maimed for the rest of their lives, you would not maliciously ruin their feet or make them sick, of course.

Why then, do you not buy "Eternity" school shoes for them? The shoes that fit and feel good from the minute they first put them on, wear well and please, and are no more than the other kinds.

"Eternity" school shoes have two full soles from heel to toe that are put on with screw fasteners. That's why they keep feet always warm and dry and the soles can't rip and pull off.

As they have a neat, dressy appearance, these shoes can be used for both service and dress.

Remember—"Nothing Lasts Like Eternity."

J. C. JONES, Clanton

NEW STORE

Opens Saturday, October 5

IN THE DISPENSARY BUILDING

CLANTON, ALA.

with a fine selected stock of

Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Hats,

Gent's Furnishing Goods,

Ladies' Hats, Cloaks and Jackets

SPECIALTY—LADIES' HATS, $3.00 Hat for $1.50
" " $4.00 Hat for $2.00

Good Goods, Low Prices
Pleased to Wait Upon You

We hope to have the pleasure of waiting upon you.

D. LUBELSKY

FROM BIRMINGHAM

CLANTON - - ALA.

MY STOCK

of Everything You Need

FALL AND WINTER GOODS

is complete. Make your headquarters at our store while you are in town

Thanking you all for past liberal patronage I remain
Yours truly,

ELBERT KANTER

CLANTON, ALA.

Rickets.

Simply the visible sign that baby's tiny bones are not forming rapidly enough.

Lack of nourishment is the cause.

Scott's Emulsion nourishes baby's entire system. Stimulates and makes bone.

Exactly what baby needs.

ALL DRUGGISTS: 50c. AND $1.00

LEST WE

forget—Baby is restless, can't sleep at night, won't eat, cries constantly. A bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge never fails to relieve. Every mother should give her children many times when the baby is cross and fretful, the mother does not know what to do. A bottle of this medicine would bring smiles to the cheeks and laughter to his eyes. Give it a trial. Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Eternity

...nd girls we cannot neglect at any time. The ...women of the future are the boys and girls ...deserve to be properly shod in good shoes.

If you buy ill-fitting and uncomfortable shoes for your children, you may ruin their feet and make trouble for them the rest of their lives. If you get shoes for them that are not well made, that allow their feet to get cold and wet, you may be doing something to make them sick, possibly invalids for the rest of their lives. You would not maliciously ruin their feet or make them sick, of course.

Why then, do you not buy "Eternity" school shoes for them? The shoes that fit and feel good from the minute they first put them on, wear well and please, and cost no more than the other kinds.

...school shoes have two full soles from heel to ...with screw fasteners. That's why they keep dry and dry and the soles can't rip and pull apart. ...e a neat, dressy appearance, these shoes are ...service and dress.

..."Nothing Lasts Like Eternity."

JONES, Clanton

...Y STORE

...Saturday, October 5

...SPENSARY BUILDING

...ANTON, ALA.

...ected stock of

...Clothing, Shoes, Hats,

...s Furnishing Goods, Etc.

...ts, Cloaks and Jackets

...Y LADIES' HATS, $3.00 Hat for $1.98
... " " $4.00 Hat for $2.98

..., Low Prices

...ased to Wait Upon You

...e the pleasure of waiting upon you.

LUBELSKY

...OM BIRMINGHAM

...ON - - ALA.

...Everything You Need in

...ND WINTER GOODS

Make your headquarters at my store while you are in town

...all for past liberal patronage, I am

Yours truly,

...ERT KANTER

CLANTON, ALA.

...bones

...'s

...e.

LEST WE

forget—Baby is restless, can't sleep at night, won't eat, cries a great deal, is cross generally. A bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge never fails to expel worms. Every mother should give her baby White's Cream Vermifuge. Many times when the baby is peevish and fretful, the mother does not know what to do. A bottle of this medicine would bring color to baby's cheeks and laughter to his eyes. Give it a trial. Sold by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

TOWN ITEMS

...ed ...ounty court, which convened ...Monday, last Monday in ...ch, and Monday in August ...ch hereafter in November.

...TTON COTTON HART.
...Off.....9¼ @ 10¢
...Same date last year 10¼ @ 11c
...Same date
...Same receipts
...p.m. Wednesday....2242

...RONS AND "ETERNITY".
...want to buy iron shoes for ...they would wear out but ...shoes will wear longer ...other shoe you can buy at ...J. C. JONES, Clanton.

...C. H. Baxley and family ...in a very few days for ...Mr. Baxley will take ...C. M. Martin's business, ...of Mrs. Baxley, who is ...to die at any hour. Mr. ...would thank some one that ...house to take his, a nice 4-...house in a nice location. ...call and see him at H. Kan-...

...W. M. McDaniel went to ...Jemison Wednesday to take in ...at the Fair.

...John Garner of Nocatee, ...has been spending several ...with friends here. He says ...is a great State.

...Wheat, Rye, Clover ...Hay for sale at Flor-...ence Store.

...Messrs Guy Higgins and ...Anderson visited Mont-...evallo Tuesday.

...Shipment of Cut Glass ever ...in Calera, at Martin's ...Store.

...W. J. Gragg left Monday ...Los Angeles, Cal., where he ...the Physicians & Surgeons ...

...A. B. Deason of Maplesville, ...was in town Friday.

...T. Bland drove up from ...Friday.

...and Mrs. Wiley Ramsey of ...were visitors to Clanton ...

...Fountain Pen you want ...find them at Upchurch ...Co., at all prices and of the ...kind.

...Frank Reynolds of Jemison ...Clanton Saturday.

...Skaggs of Jemison spent ...days in Clanton last week.

...Umbrellas at Martin's, Ca-...

...Toland visited Birmingham ...

...a number of Clantonians ...them in the fair this week.

...Annie Lamar of Birming-...visited her sister, Mrs. G. L. ...this week.

...Emma Hubbard of Jemison ...Wednesday in Clanton.

...Lou and Mollie Cobb and ...Hamblin of Macedonia spent ...in Clanton.

...watch will make a nice Christ-...present for your lady friend; ...such ever shown in Shelby ...at Martin's Jewelry Store, ...Ala.

...Lula and Georgia Ras-...were in town Wednesday.

...James Adams and Heath ...sailed to Lawley this week by ...of their sister, Mrs. Law-...who passed away on Tuesday ...

...A. Dykes, about 3 miles ...Clanton, was exhibiting a ...potatoe last Saturday. It was ...Queen of the South variety ...surely a queen potatoe.

...H. Patton of Jemison gave ...a call Monday.

...R. Piper of Ensely vis-...parents in our town Sun-...returning Monday.

...you a RAZOR from the ...Drug co.—the three ...kind—guaranteed for three ...

...licenses have been issued ...by the Probate Judge to ...ing persons.

...Durham and Miss Mia ...Mr Forney Ellison and ...J. Cofer; Mr. A. J. L. ...Miss Ola Sims; Mr. J. R. ...Miss Bertie Lee Kicker; ...Malone and Miss Emel-...ford.

...never have any trouble to ...them to take Kennedy's Lax-...Cough Syrup. They like it ...it tastes nearly like maple ...Kennedy's Laxative Cough ...is a safe, sure and prompt ...for coughs and colds and is ...every member of the fam-...sold by Upchurch Drug co.

How is the Time

We are now ready to show you a full line of Clothing, Shoes, Hats, and complete line of Dress Goods.

Furniture, Stoves, Sewing Machines, etc.

Tennessee and Flat Wagons.

Everything to make your home and farm complete. Give us a trial and if we can't sell you we will be badly mistaken.

E. M. PINCKARD & CO.

CLANTON

FOR SALE—Two fine young Stallions. R. L. MARCUS, Clanton.

FOR SALE—Eight beautiful building lots in Clanton. R. L. MARCUS, Clanton.

FOR SALE or RENT.—One good house and lot in Clanton. R. L. MARCUS, Clanton.

A Criminal Attack

on an offensive citizen is frequently made in that apparently useless little tube called the "appendix." It's generally the result of protracted constipation, following liver torpor. Dr. King's New Life Pills regulate the liver, prevent appendicitis, and establish regular habits of the bowels. 25c at Upchurch Drug co.

Call at our store and get a sample of our Violet Lotion and soothe the chaps. Best preparation made for chapped hands, etc. Florence Drug Store.

Afflicted with Sore Eyes for 30 Years.

I have been afflicted with sore eyes for thirty-three years. Thirteen years ago I became totally blind and was blind for six years. My eyes were badly inflamed. One of my neighbors insisted upon my trying Chamberlain's Salve and gave me half a box of it. To my surprise it healed my eyes and my sight came back to me.—P. C. EARLS, Cynthiana, Ky. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by Upchurch Drug co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

FREE! FREE! FREE!

Come to the New Cut Price Store of

C. W. REYNOLDS & CO.

Clanton, Alabama

will sell the following goods, beginning Friday, Nov. 1st, and continuing one week.

19 lbs. Granulated Sugar, $1.00.
1 peck of Green Coffee, 80c.
10 lbs. of Good Green Coffee, $1.00.
8 packs of Pearline, 25c.
7 bars of Soap, 25c.
7 boxes of Washing Powder, 25c.
1 bolt of A A Sheeting, at 6c yard.
1 barrel of Best Flour, $5.25.
Best White Corn, per bushel, 88c.

With every cash purchase of $5.00 during these 6 days, we will give free one piece of Crockery or Glassware. See middle window of free goods. Respectfully,

C. W. REYNOLDS & CO.

The Calera Machine Repair Shop

is now open for General Repair Work. We repair Engines, Boilers, Saw Mills or any other Machinery that comes to hand. We guarantee all our work.

We also buy second hand machinery of all kinds.

We do all kinds of Pipe work.

We are also prepared with all Modern Tools, and have an expert Saw Hammerer who will straighten your Crooked Saws, and will Gum and Dress them, so that they will run and cut good smooth lumber and use 20 per cent less power.

We repair all kinds of Household Goods.

We do all kinds of Round Wood Turning, from an Ornamental Column to a Shelf Spindle.

In short, we are here for business and to do you good.

We solicit a trial.

THE CALERA MACHINE REPAIR SHOP

CALERA, ALA.

A Sewing Machine

well made, nicely finished, has improvements over the old styles, runs easily and quietly, low cost, but good work and quality.

Come in and examine it, you will be surprised at our good value for $18.00.

SPIGENER & JONES

The Hardware Store

CLANTON

Personal.

Mr. W. H. Smith, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Smith returned to his home at Goodwater Wednesday.

Mr. Walter M. Wilson and S. W. Gresham of Prattville, representing the Southern Mutual Life Insurance Association of Atlanta, Ga., have organized a branch at Clanton and will be here several weeks writing up insurance. They will endeavor to see every one and interest them in this cheap insurance.

GO TO THE NEW STORE—Eggs, 21¢ per doz., Good Coffee, 10 lbs for $1.00; Best Granulated Sugar, 19 lbs for $1.00. Highest price paid for Country Produce and Cross Ties.

C. W. REYNOLDS & CO.

Scotland.

Prior to the year 258, which witnessed the invasion by the Scoti, a tribe who inhabited the northern portions of the country now known as Ireland, Scotland bore the name of Caledonia, literally the hilly country of the Caels, or Gaels. The word cael, or gael, is a corruption of Gadhel, signifying in the native tongue "a hidden rover," while Scot, derived from the native scuite, means practically the same thing—i. e., a wanderer. The Caledonians were the inhabitants of the highlands, the termination dun expressing the Celtic for hill, fort, stronghold. The Scots were the invaders from Scotia, who appropriated the Hebrides and western islands, whereas the lowlanders were the Picts, so called from their description by the Romans, picti, painted men. —"Names and Their Meaning."

Making Sure.

Dentist—I've filled all of your teeth that have cavities, sir.

Mahoney—Well, thin, fill th' rist av thim, too; thin whin th' cavities come they'll be already filled, b'gobs!—London Tit-Bits.

The first farmer was the first man, and all historic nobility rests on possession and use of land.—Emerson.

How to Cure a Cold.

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. R. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlin's Cough Remedy for years and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.

List of Letters remaining uncalled for in Clanton, Ala., postoffice, for week ending Oct. 26, 1907. Persons calling for same will please say "advertised" and give date. One cent must be paid on each letter.

GENTLEMEN'S LIST.
W. D. McCord.

LADIES' LIST.
Minnie Martin, Lizzie McCough, Fannie May Williams, Mells Payne, Mary L. Wilson, Francis Wright.

These letters will be sent to the dead Letter office, Nov. 9, 1907, if not delivered before.

F. G. DUDLEY, Postmaster.

A Certain Cure for Croup—Used for Ten Years Without a Failure.

Mr. W. C. Bott, Star City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much feared the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to his friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequaled for croup and whooping cough. For sale by Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton; A. Horn, Thorsby.

Paying Through the Nose.

"Paying through the nose" is to be indirectly swindled in a transaction or to pay an exorbitant price for a thing in consideration of long credit. A variant is "to be bored through the nose," "bored" here having the meaning of cheated, deceived:

At this instant he bores me with some trick.—"Henry VIII," I, i, 128.

One that hath gulled you, that hath bored you, sir.—"Life of T. Cromwell," 1602, II, ii, 108.

And Howell in his "Instruction For Forren Travell" (1650), page 20, "had known divers Dutch gentlemen grossly gull'd by this cheat (the selling of forged manuscripts to young travelers in Italy), and some English bor'd also through the nose this way by paying excessive prices for them."—Notes and Queries.

Misunderstood.

"Your sentence is to be suspended," began the merciful judge.

"Great Scott, judge," exclaimed the prisoner, "if I'd known children stealing was a hanging offense I wouldn't have stole."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Schloss, in Dutch, means a Castle

Schloss, in English, means Good Clothes

Krump on the Korner Got 'em

Come in and Get 'em Then Wear 'em

'Gin the Law Not to Wear 'em

A suit of 'em would get Crichton off. Try 'em!

KRUMP

ON THE KORNER

MAPLESVILLE - - ALA.

—GO TO—

A. M. JOHNSON

—MANAGER OF—

THE CASH GROCERY STORE

THORSBY, ALA.

FOR BARGAINS IN

Staple and Fancy Groceries

We make a specialty of Fresh Fish and Oysters, Fresh Pork and all kinds of Sausage, Breakfast Bacon, Boneless Ham and ...

—DELICATESSEN—

Pop, Soda Water and Jersey Butter always on hand.

Country Produce Bought, Sold and Exchanged.

Notice.

Real Estate, Fire, Life Insurance and Singer Machines.

I have on hand now some nice and convenient places for rent and some extra bargains in real estate. I also represent several leading fire insurance companies, and the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co.

My High Arm Singer Machine Stock is complete; Machines that sew perfect, run lighter and last longer than any other make. Remember, too, the price has been cut and you can get any terms you wish, monthly or annual payments. Also $5.00 allowance for your old machine.

Several good second hand Machines on hand at a bargain.

Needles, Bands, Cans, Attachments, and the only genuine Machine Oil made, 10 and 25¢ bottles.

I also represent the Jesse French Piano & Organ Co. When you need anything in my line, call on me at same old stand. Regular office days Friday, Saturday and Monday of each week.

C. R. MULLINS

CLANTON

FREE! FREE! FREE!

With each $2 00 purchase in our Dry Goods Line entitles you to one Handsome Decorated Cake Plate.

Each $10.00 purchase of same entitles you to one Handsome Decorated Dining Room Picture, with nice frame 15x20 size. Don't miss this opportunity.

11 lbs. Good Green Coffee $1.00.

Our Fall and Winter Dry Goods and Underwear and Overcoats is on display now.

20 @ 22¢ for Eggs. High price paid for Country Produce; being in the...

HEADLEY BROS.

GENERAL MERCHANDISE

ON THE CORNER CLANTON

The First and Last

store in Clanton. If you come from the east it's the first; from the west it's the last.

Our stock of General Merchandise is First in quality and lowest in price.

FINE FAMILY GROCERIES—Always Fresh and Nice.

A fine line of Men's Dress Shirts and Underwear.

SHOES of the finest quality and the best make. Try a pair.

A general assortment of furniture goods.

B. E. JONES & BRO.

CLANTON - - - ALA.

The Castle Comedy

By THOMPSON BUCHANAN

Copyright, 1904, by HARPER & BROTHERS

[CONTINUED.]

Once more the music started and again, after some time, Dubarre began to speak.

The girl at the window at last turned to see M. Dubarre leading his confessed pupil to her seat. He bent low over the little hand.

"May I thank you for a very great pleasure?" he said earnestly. "It was worth the trip from France."

And Mistress Percy turned back to her dismal counting of the trees outside. Pierre stopped playing and began to put the cover on his harp. Gaston Dubarre was preparing to go. Suddenly the girl at the window moved away from it. She hesitated for a moment; then, with her old time impulsiveness, walked straight down the room to where the man who had chided and laughed at her stood.

"Monsieur" — she stopped, strangely embarrassed — "if — if — you please, I will dance that minuet."

She stood before him, her cheeks pink, her eyes wonderfully soft and moist, with the sweet humiliation of her first defeat. Not even his eyeglass flickered, but the man bowed very low.

"Her dancing master is always at mademoiselle's service," he said. "Pierre, the minuet."

Fifteen minutes later Captain Thorncliffe and Sir John Wilmerding came in for their daily bout with the foils, just in time to hear Mistress Percy ask:

"And do you think I will improve?"

Dubarre smiled. "Already mademoiselle shows marked improvement," he answered.

"Thank you, monsieur." And the newcomers wondered at her tone.

Pierre put the cover on his harp and went away, the girls left, and Sir John, big, strong and bothered, assumed his mask and fell against Captain Thorncliffe, the bluff and hearty soldier who had won promotion and scarred cheek off and over for his ability to fighting.

Yawning, the dancing master went to the window.

"You are strong, Dubarre, I know. Why don't you fence or shoot or ride?" asked Captain Thorncliffe as he was getting ready.

The one addressed laughed. "Those accomplishments are scarce within the province" a dancing master, monsieur, but Pierre tried all three."

"Come, are you ready, Hal?" asked Sir John impatiently, and they crossed swords, while Dubarre turned back to his window. Soon the noise forced him to look around.

Assuredly the bout was becoming hotter every minute. The narrow place echoed arms resounded to the trampling of feet, while over all the two blades sang their rasping, clashing song of the steel. Up and down the room the contest waged, now Captain Harry Thorncliffe and now Sir John Wilmerding holding the advantage. They fenced with the eager animosity of tried friends opposed in mimic combat.

"Touched!" Captain Thorncliffe cried it and, stepping back, raised his foil, smiling.

"No, Hal, I protest. You touched me not. Your point failed to reach by quite an inch. I twisted away as I saw it coming."

Sir John was almost angry in his disclaimer. Captain Thorncliffe still showed his good humored smile.

"Come, come, Jack. Be generous. You have beaten so many that you can easily afford me one little point. Besides, I know I touched you. I felt it plainly. 'Twas the old French Percy trick that involuted me from again. We'll let M. Dubarre decide as referee."

Sir John sneered. "What can a dancing master know of fencing? Let him stick to his jigs, where he is at home. Zounds! You choose a queer umpire between gentlemen, Hal."

Dubarre, who had been watching the fight with indifferent attention, reddened over so slightly. He walked over and, with the utmost respect, offered Sir John his handkerchief.

"Would monsieur have me wipe off the chalk from his plastron?" he said and deftly pointed out a faint white spot on the red heart of the plastron.

It was Sir John's time to redden, Captain Thorncliffe's chance to roar.

"Bravo, gentlemen," said the dancing master, "I cannot umpire longer, for Mistress Percy desired me to bring her Sir John Suckling's verses from the library."

CHAPTER III.

EVERY girl should desire to marry."

Sir Henry Percy puffed out his stomach and pursed up his lips to emphasize this distinctly orthodox sentiment. He was a large, heavy man, who thought that God made the Percys and then the world to fit them.

"But I don't intend to marry."

Mistress Percy stamped her little foot, and that made Sir Henry's emphasis seem tame.

"At least, dad," with an upward flash of her eyes, "at least not yet."

"Ah!" Sir Henry breathed once more, while Sir John Wilmerding, standing near, became again his normal red.

For this was the serious time when the years fostered plans of two old men and the day dreams of one young one were to be put to the test of a girl's caprice. From earliest childhood she had known that in the far ahead, lazy, indefinite some time there would come a fateful five minutes when she must decide. In those days when old Sir Elmer Wilmerding and Sir Henry Percy often sat together talking of their lifetime friendship and the shared joys of the long ago, the two children playing in the hall knew that sooner or later in the talk one of the fathers would look at them. Then invariably both men rose, and, standing, the old cronies would drink a health to the children, May and John, whose future union was to cement the life long comradeship of their fathers. That either of the children might object never entered the heads of the two squires. They were quite sure their children were to marry; that was all there was to it.

Now was come that time when, under the agreement of the long ago, the children were to be brought together. Sir John Wilmerding knew the old agreement by heart—how three days before her seventeenth birthday May must be betrothed. The marriage might be delayed two years, but no longer.

It was a merely formal matter of a few minutes, Sir Henry Percy thought as he called the young man and girl to the library that morning. The baronet was in a hurry to get away for his ride, but decided regretfully that he ought to spare a few minutes for telling his daughter she might begin preparing for her marriage.

His very first sentence had raised the storm. Mistress Percy now paced up and down the library in most ungrown-up-like excitement. To be brought face to face with marriage when for weeks she had been planning nothing more serious than a birthday party was enough to disconcert any about-to-be-seventeen-year-old miss.

"But I don't intend to marry."

"Why did you not tell me of this, dad?" she demanded, stopping short and regarding the two men standing helpless before her.

"My child, the agreement—you knew it," he protested weakly.

"Agreement! How could you and Sir Elmer agree whom I should marry?"

"But, May," Sir Henry answered, more firmly now as the Percy stubbornness aroused itself, "Sir Elmer desired it; I desired and do desire it. Remember your duty to your father, child. John Wilmerding, now"—

"But you can't want me to marry a man I don't love, father?" The word "father" in place of the old, familiar, loving "dad" should have warned him, but it did not.

"Love! Pouf! Fiddlesticks!" The squire fairly snorted. "What's love got to do with housewifery, the ordering of servants and the raising of a family? You do these things, and I'll warrant me John Wilmerding will do the loving for the pair of you."

Then the old man discovered there were two Percys in that room. The girl drew herself up, cold and white. Only her eyes were blazing.

"John Wilmerding may gamble or fight his way into another's love, father, but I don't intend to marry him." Her tone was calm, even, righteously indifferent. It might have been, "I don't care for a glass of water, thank you."

Sir John Wilmerding went white to the lips; Sir Henry Percy red to his ear tips.

